UCLA ANNOUNCES SEVEN SIGNEES FOR 2008-09

LOS ANGELES – Head Coach John Savage announced on Nov. 14, 2007 that seven student-athletes have signed National Letters-of-Intent during the early signing period to attend UCLA and play baseball. Headed by assistant coach and recruiting coordinator Brian Green, the fourth recruiting class under Savage includes six position players and one pitcher.

Savage's first three recruiting classes at UCLA earned high national rankings. His first recruiting class (2005-06) was ranked fifth-best in the nation by Baseball America. Each of Savage's last two recruiting classes was tabbed No. 13 and No. 7, respectively, by Baseball America.

This group features three AFLAC All-Americans - infielders Chris Amezcuita and Clark Murphy and right-handed pitcher Gerrit Cole. All seven signees have earned all-league honors in high school and were Milwaukee Brewers Area Code Games selections.

"Coach Green and our entire coaching staff have done a terrific job of putting this class together," Savage said. "We feel this is a very talented group of young players that has a chance to make a major impact in the future as Bruins. From pitching to the position players, this is as talented a class as we have had at UCLA."
