The winner of the season series will be awarded with five points in the Lexus Gauntlet points. If the series finishes at 3-3, each school will receive 2.5 points in the standings. Currently, USC leads UCLA by a 55-35 margin.

Friday and Sunday's games will be broadcast live by KVMD-TV with Neal Evans and Jay Johnstone. KVMD is available in selected areas of California depending on your cable service provider and is also available on Dish Network and Direct TV. Each game of the series can be heard on www.uclabruins.com with Dave Marcus and Chris Pritchett calling the action.

on Friday night (11-14) and Saturday (15-13).

The homer was the first of the season for the senior infielder and handed the Cardinal only its fourth loss of the year.

In Saturday's contest, Johnny Ash hit a two-run homer in the top of the ninth to lead the Cardinal to a 15-13 victory over UCLA. Eight homers were hit between the teams in the contest, while 13 left the yard over the course of the weekend. Ash and Bruin Ryan McCarthy both hit two out on Saturday.

On Friday, the Cardinal posted six runs in the second inning to build a lead the Bruins could not over come as Stanford won 11-4.

BRUINS FALL AT SAN DIEGO STATE,

5-1: In a game that was added to the schedule, UCLA fell 5-1 to San Diego State.

The Bruins posted six hits in the contest, including triples from Anthony Norman and Matt Thayer. Norman's triple would bring Jarrad Page around to score in the top of the ninth to break up the Aztec shutout.

Bruins reliever Kyle Wilson threw a career-high four strikeouts in two innings of work, while starter David Johnson suffered his first loss of the season.

UCLA POSTS FIRST WIN AT DEDEAUX FIELD SINCE 1999:

The Bruins claimed their first win at USC in 11 games when they defeated the Trojans, 13-7, in the final game of the three-game non-conference series.

After dropping the first two games of the series, UCLA exploded for 13 hits and 13 runs on Sunday to take the win. Mike Svetlic drove in a career-high five runs, while Matt Thayer went 3-for-6 to lead the way for UCLA.

UCLA AVENGES LOSS, DEFEATS LOYOLA MARYMOUNT, 7-5:

Sophomore reliever Scott Botterman retired the final three Lion batters and left the bases loaded as he claimed his first collegiate save and the Bruins notched a 7-5 victory over Loyola Marymount.

The Bruins posted five runs in the first three frames to build a lead the Lions could not overcome. Brett McMillan and Anthony Norman both drove in two runs apiece, while Ryan McCarthy added two doubles to the UCLA attack.

On the mound, Bryan Beck improved to 2-1 on the season as he struck out four batters and allowed five hits in six innings of action.

BRUINS WIN ONE AT AZTEC INVITATIONAL

AT PETCO PARK: UCLA helped San Diego open its new major league baseball stadium and went 1-2 in the Aztec Invitational at PETCO Park.

In Thursday night's tournament opener, a NCAA record 40,106 filled the stadium to watch San Diego State defeat Houston, 4-0. The mark shattered the previous NCAA record of 27,673 that saw Tulane play LSU at the Superdome in 2002.

On Friday, the Bruins opened their tournament play with a 3-0 loss to ninth-ranked Long Beach State. UCLA could only muster one hit against All-American and the Collegiate Baseball Player of the Week, Jered Weaver. Weaver struck out 15 Bruins and allowed three base runners in eight innings of action. Ryan McCarthy recorded UCLA's one hit off Weaver, while Billy Susdorf singled in the ninth.

Saturday's game saw Bruin Casey Janssen dominate Nebraska and improve to 5-0 on the season in UCLA's 4-2 win over the Huskers. Janssen threw a career-high 8.2 innings and allowed only four hits, all singles, in the outing. He struck out five batters, while walking one.

Ryan McCarthy highlighted the Bruin offense on Saturday, hitting a two-run home run in the sixth inning. McCarthy, along with Matt Thayer, finished the day going 2-for-4.

On Sunday, UCLA came back from a four-run deficit in the eighth inning only to see Houston score the game-winner in the bottom of the ninth, as the Bruins fell 7-6.

After trailing 6-2, the Bruins put up a four-run eighth inning to tie the score. However, after the leadoff Cougar reached base on an error in the ninth, he would come around to score on a bases loaded walk. Preston Griffin and Brett McMillan both drove in two runs, while Wes Whisler brought in two more with a double in the eighth. The five Bruin pitchers combined to strikeout eight Cougars, while Adam Simon fanned a season-high three in 2.2 innings of action.

UCLA FALLS AT 18TH-RANKED UC

IRVINE, 6-0: The Bruins dropped their third straight game on Tuesday night in a 6-0 loss at 18th-ranked UC Irvine.

Ryan McCarthy posted a season-high three hits as UCLA only mustered seven hits as a team.

Starter Hector Ambriz dropped to 2-2 on the year despite throwing a season-high seven strikeouts in the game.

Prior to the contest, Bruin head coach Gary Adams, was honored by the UC Irvine Athletic Department. Adams led the Anteaters to back-to-back national championships in 1973 and 1974 before taking the helm of the UCLA program.

BRUINS TAKE ONE FROM 14TH-RANKED

TEXAS A&M: In their first series against a ranked opponent, the Bruins claimed victory in Friday night's game against 14th-ranked Texas A&M before dropping the weekend contests.

On Friday, UCLA defeated the Aggies behind the solid pitching of starter Casey Janssen. The senior from Huntington Beach improved to 4-0 on the season with the win. He allowed only two runs on six hits in 7.1 innings. He also struck out four batters to bring his season strikeout total to 39 in 31.1 innings of work. On the offensive side, Wes Whisler and Matt Thayer both posted three hits in the game. Whisler hit his second homer of the season, while driving in two runs.

Despite out-hitting the Aggies on Saturday, the Bruins were unable to hold onto an early lead and fell 8-4 to Texas A&M. Brett McMillan and Billy Susdorf highlighted the Bruin offense with two hits apiece. McMillan hit his team-leading third home run of the season in the game.

Sunday saw the Bruin bats post only four hits while dropping the rubber match of the series, 8-2. A two-run home run from Ryan McCarthy drove in both UCLA runs, while Susdorf hit his seventh single on the year.

DENOVE'S WALK OFF HOMER GIVES UCLA 3-2 WIN OVER UCSB: After going hitless in his previous 19 at-bats, Chris Denove broke out of his slump in the top of the 12th inning against UC Santa Barbara with a solo home run that gave UCLA a 3-2 win over the Gauchos. The win marked the sixth straight for the Bruins after their four-game sweep in Hawaii and a win over Pepperdine.

Sophomore right-hander Daniel Miltenberger claimed the win after retiring the last two batters of the top of the 12th. Hector Ambriz started the game and posted five strikeouts in 5.1 innings of scoreless relief.

UCLA SWEEPS FOUR-GAME SERIES AT HAWAII-HILO: Matt Thayer hit for the cycle and Bryan Beck threw a complete game shutout to highlight the Bruins 4-0 trip against Hawaii-Hilo. The sweep marked the first for UCLA since 2001, when the Bruins swept UNLV.

In Thursday's 10-4 victory, Hector Ambriz picked up the win with a six inning outing in which he struck out four batters. Wes Whisler spearheaded in Bruin offense, going 3-for-4 and scoring three runs. Brett McMillan knocked in three UCLA runs with a bases loaded triple to lead the team in RBI on the night.

Thayer became the fourth Bruin to hit for the cycle in Friday's 14-1, seven inning win. The junior from Woodland Hills completed the hardest parts of the cycle first needing a single to complete the feat.

Casey Janssen continued his dominance on the mound with another overpowering performance on Friday. He struck out eight batters in six innings while allowing only one run on two hits.

After Saturday's game was rained out, the teams resumed the series on Sunday in Kona. Beck, in only his fourth career start, threw a complete game shut out in the 11-0 victory. He allowed only four hits and did not walk a batter in the contest. He also struck out six Vulcans.

On the offensive side, McMillan led the Bruins, going 3-for-5 with a triple and a home run. Whisler was also hot at the plate with his first home run of the year and two walks. Thayer also drove in three runs, while going 2-for-4.

In Monday's contest, UCLA scored six runs in the ninth inning to add to its lead to post a 12-1 win in the final game of the series. 11 different Bruins posted a hit in the game, while the team had 15 hits as a whole. Anthony Norman drove in two runs with a triple while Ambriz hit a solo home run in the first inning.

BRUINS WIN 8-6 SLUGFEST WITH PEPPERDINE: UCLA hit three solo home runs in the first inning and came back from a three-run deficit in the sixth inning to earn an 8-6 win over the Waves.

Chad Concolino, Billy Susdorf and Hector Ambriz all homered in the first frame, while Ambriz led the team with three RBI on the day. Brett McMillan went 3-for-3 as the Bruins recorded 13 hits as a team.

Brant Rustich picked up his first collegiate win after pitching a career-high 3.2 innings and striking out a career-high five batters.

BRUINS SPLIT A PAIR WITH PACIFIC IN RAINY WEEKEND SERIES: Casey Janssen hurled an eight-inning, 10 strikeout performance on Friday night to lift UCLA to a 6-1 victory over Pacific. Saturday's starter Alex Graham returned the favor with a complete game in which he held the Bruins to two hits en route to a 7-0 Tiger win. The teams tried to beat an incoming storm by scheduling a double-header on Saturday, but the rain cut short the second game as UCLA trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth frame. The game is not likely to be rescheduled.

Friday night featured 11 Bruin hits, as senior Chad Concolino hit two doubles and three other Bruins had multiple hit games. Preston Griffin went two-for-two at the plate with two doubles of his own along with two runs driven in.

On Saturday, Wes Whisler and Billy Susdorf were the only Bruins to record hits against Graham.

AVERILL NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Brandon Averill was named the Pac-10 Player of the Week on Tuesday. It was the second such honor for the senior in his career.

Averill, from Orange, Calif., hit .364 (4-for-11) over the weekend, as UCLA took two of three from Fresno State. His three-run home run with two outs in the bottom of the eighth inning pushed the Bruins past Fresno State, 13-11, on Feb. 14. In that game he posted a career-best six RBI, tops for UCLA over the entire weekend. He also smacked two doubles and scored two runs over the three-game set.

BRUINS SUFFER A 7-3 HEARTBREAKING LOSS AT LMU: Loyola Marymount scored five runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to take back the lead and defeat UCLA at George C. Page Stadium. The Bruins had rallied to tie the score at 7-7 in the top of the ninth inning, but the game was called due to lack of light. Therefore, the score reverted back to the last completed inning.

Catcher Chris Denove spearheaded the Bruin attack, driving in two of the team's three runs. Brandon Averill continued his hot start, going 3-for-4 on the day, while Billy Susdorf stole two bases.

UCLA TAKES TWO OF THREE FROM FRESNO STATE IN OPENING SERIES: Senior Casey Janssen allowed only one hit in six innings and struck out eight Bulldogs to lead the Bruins to a Friday night win against Fresno State. A balanced offensive attack would help the team post 10 hits. Billy Susdorf, Wes Whisler and Chris Denove all had two hits on the night, while Preston Griffin drove in two runs.

A three-run homer from Brandon Averill in the bottom of the eighth inning would prove to be the game winner to bring the Bruins back from behind to post a 13-11 win on Saturday. Freshman walk-on Kevin Brophy shut down the Bulldog offense late in the game with 2.1 innings of scoreless ball to earn the win. Averill finished the day with a career-high six RBI, while Susdorf went 4-for-5 with three doubles.

On Sunday, a two-run homer from Brett McMillan would even the score at 2-2 in the fifth inning and the game would remain that way until Fresno State scored a run in the top of the tenth inning to take a 3-2 victory. Bruin starter Bryan Beck was stellar in his first start of the season, striking out seven batters with only one walk in 5.2 innings of work.

ALUMNI AND CURRENT BRUINS PLAY TO 2-2 TIE: The 2004 Bruins and Bruin professionals played to a 2-2 tie in a five-inning contest at Jackie Robinson Field.

Philadelphia Phillie Chase Utley drove in the first alumni team runs in the top of the third inning with a double to right field. Both Jack Santora and Los Angeles Dodger Dave Roberts scored on the hit.

Bryan Beck started the game for the 2004 Bruins and recorded three strikeouts in three innings of action.

David Johnson pitched the fourth frame and struck out two of the three batters he faced.

The Bruin rally started in the bottom of the fourth frame as Sean Carpenter singled to start the frame. After moving to second on a passed ball, Carpenter would come around to score on a Brandon Averill single. Hector Ambriz would drive the tying run with a single. After four innings, the teams were tied at 2-2.

Earlier in the day, Utley hit the only home run of the home run derby in the last at-bat of the contest to take the crown.

The Old Timers game, which consisted of alumni from 1939 - 1979, ended in a 6-6 tie after a late rally from the home team.

The Young Timers game, which featured alumni from 1980-2003, also ended in a stalemate with a 3-3 tie. Cassidy Olson (1995-98) drove in two runs for the visitors, while Dave Ravitz (1990-93) drove in the other run. For the home team, John Campanella (2001) and Jason Green (1996-99) both recorded an RBI.

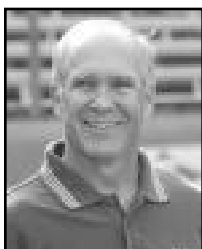

BRUINS START SEASON WITH 4-1 WIN OVER UC RIVERSIDE: Matt Thayer went 3-for-3 with a home run and Casey Janssen struck out nine batters in four innings of work to help lead UCLA to a 4-1 win over UC Riverside.

Janssen and sophomore Hector Ambriz combined to throw a five-hit contest. Janssen, threw four innings and did not allow a run, while striking out nine batters. Ambriz earned his first collegiate win in his five-inning outing. He allowed one run on three hits, while striking out five Highlanders.
