Head Coach Ben Howland Third Season • Weber State '79

Ben Howland knows how to rebuild a men's collegiate basketball program. He did it at Northern Arizona and again at Pittsburgh. And Howland's doing it at UCLA. After a two-year hiatus, he led the Bruins back to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and joined an elite list of college coaches who have led three teams to the "Big Dance" - 2005 UCLA, 2003 Pittsburgh ("Sweet 16"), 2002 Pittsburgh ("Sweet 16") and 1998 Northern Arizona. Following the 2005 NCAA Tournament, there were only 28 coaches in Tournament history that had guided three different schools to the "Big Dance".

Howland's sound philosophies about coaching and recruiting have the Bruins pointed in a winning direction as Howland enters his third season as UCLA's head coach. Howland and his talented staff in 2004 recruited the nation's No. 4 (HoopMasters.com) incoming freshman class - led by McDonald's All-Americans, 6-2 Jordan Farmar and 6-5 Arron Afflalo, along with Parade Magazine All-American 6-5 Josh Shipp and CalHi Sports All-State 6-8 Lorenzo Mata. The 2005 class features five of high school basketball's top seniors, considered to be among the best 100 players in North America - 6-8 Alfred Aboya (Tilton, NH Prep Academy), 6-0 Darren Collison (Etiwanda HS/Rancho Cucamonga, CA), 6-7 Luc Richard Mbah a Moute (Montverde, FL Academy), 6-5 Michael Roll (Aliso Niguel HS/Aliso Viejo, CA) and 6-8 Ryan Wright (Loyola Catholic HS/Mississauga, Ontario, Canada).

It takes time and hard work to rebuild a program and there's not a collegiate head coach or staff in the U. S. that works harder than Howland and his Bruin assistants. At UCLA, in just his second season (2005), Howland led the Bruins to a third-place finish in the Pac-10 and back to the NCAA Tournament. At Pittsburgh, he took over a losing program and by his third year (2002), the Panthers were in the NCAA "Sweet 16" and Howland was the consensus National Coach of the Year. In his fourth season (1998) at Northern Arizona, Howland led the Lumberjacks to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

"It's nice to be recognized, but you can never rest on what you've done," Howland said. "You have to keep working, keep pushing to get better. You've got to have good players. No one understands that more than me. I hope to think every year I'm a better coach than I was the year before. You hope to always improve."

UCLA Athletic Director Dan Guerrero knew he had hired a proven winner on April 3, 2003, when Howland was announced as the Bruins' 12th head coach in the 86-year history of UCLA men's basketball.

"Ben Howland is an outstanding basketball coach, one of the best in the entire country and he is the man we want to run our program," Guerrero said. "He has built winning programs throughout his career and we expect that he will return UCLA basketball to the nation's elite. Ben understands that championships are built on defense, intensity, team-work and fundamentals, and those elements are the foundation of his philosophy. His teams come to play every night and they do an outstanding job on both ends of the floor."

"I am honored to be the head basketball coach at UCLA and I am grateful to Dan Guerrero for giving me this opportunity. Having grown up in Southern California as a Bruin fan, watching the televised replays of the games was special for me. To now be the head coach of this program is something I dreamed about but never thought possible. I have an appreciation for what UCLA means in the world of college basketball. We should be competing for the Pacific-10 title and a high seed in the NCAA Tournament year-in and year-out and I look forward to that challenge."

— UCLA Basketball Coach

HOWLAND AT UCLA

In just his second season, Howland led the Bruins to an 18-11 overall record, winning four of the last five regular season games, and an 11-7 Pac-10 Conference mark (third-place). Highlights included - returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2002, a win over nationally-ranked Washington and four come-from-behind victories in Pac-10 play when the Bruins trailed by double-digit deficits. UCLA had four representatives on the All-Pac-10 Conference team - senior Dijon Thompson (first team), freshman Jordan Farmar (Freshman of the Year/Honorable Mention All-Pac-10), freshman Arron Afflalo (Freshman All-Pac-10) and freshman Josh Shipp (Honorable Mention Freshman All-Pac-10).

In his first season (2003-04), Howland inherited a program, that in the year before (2002-03), had a losing season. His first Bruin club was 11-17 overall and 7-11 in the Pac-10 (seventh-place). The Bruins did start the season 9-3 overall and 5-0 in league play, had wins over NCAA Tournament teams Michigan State, Washington and Vermont and advanced to the Pac-10 Tournament.

HOWLAND AT PITTSBURGH

Howland, 48, spent four years (2000-03/89-40) building the Pittsburgh basketball program into one of the finest in the nation. In his last two seasons (2002/2003), Howland guided the Panthers to an overall record of 57-11 (83.8 winning percentage ranked second nationally during that period/Pitt was 32-1 at home, including a perfect 16-0 in 2002-03 at the Petersen Events Center). The Panthers also reached the NCAA "Sweet 16" in both years and captured the 2003 Big East Tournament championship.

In 2002-03, Howland led the Panthers to a record of 28-5 and a No. 4 ranking on the final AP poll (Pitt held the nation's No. 2 ranking for eight polls during the season). Pittsburgh earned a second straight trip to the NCAA "Sweet 16", won a second straight Big East West regular-season championship and on March 15, defeated Connecticut to win its first-ever Big East Tournament title. The Panthers entered their NCAA "Sweet 16" game against Marquette with an 11-game winning streak. Pittsburgh standout point guard Brandin Knight was a member of the Wooden Award All-American team.

In 2001-02, Howland guided Pittsburgh to a school-record 29 wins, surpassing the former school record of 25 victories set in 1973-74. He became the first Pittsburgh head coach in 26 years to garner National Coach of the Year honors as he earned nine coaching awards including the Associated Press, Naismith, Henry Iba and The Sporting

On Sept. 25, 2004, Howland's 1998 Lumberjack squad was inducted into the Northern Arizona Athletics Hall of Fame.

"Ben is someone I hold in high regard because he has a lot of integrity. He really knows his basketball and I appreciate the relationship we have been able to establish. Ben is directly responsible for me being able to get to the level I'm at now."

— Brian Shaw, LA Laker Assistant Coach, who was a guard on the 2002-01-00 NBA Champion Laker squad. Howland coached Shaw at UC Santa Barbara.

ing News national accolades, along with Big East Coach of the Year honors. He led the Panthers to the Big East West regular season championship - the first time Pittsburgh won a Big East men's basketball title of any kind since the 1987-88 campaign. Howland then led the Panthers to their first NCAA tournament appearance in nine seasons (1992-93).

Howland also became the first Pittsburgh coach since Charles "Buzz" Ridl in 1973-74 to lead the Panthers to an NCAA "Sweet 16" appearance, with two NCAA Tournament victories over Central Connecticut State and California in 2002. Including the two NCAA Tournament wins, Pittsburgh went 11-2 over its last 13 games with its only losses coming on a double overtime defeat in the Big East Championship title game and an overtime loss to Kent State in the NCAA "Sweet 16".

Under Howland's direction, Knight earned

All-America honors along with USBWA District 1 Player of the Year and co-Big East Player of the Year accolades.

In 2000-01, the Panthers surged through the conference tournament to earn a surprising title game berth and won five of their last seven contests. It was in Madison Square Garden in 2000-01 that the college basketball world first began to take notice of Howland and his emerging program at Pittsburgh. That year, he directed Pittsburgh on a dramatic run through the Big East Championship as the Panthers upset three higher-seeded opponents — nationally ranked Syracuse, Notre Dame and a surging Miami (FL) team — to earn the school's first-ever berth in the championship game. That strong finish resulted in a National Invitation Tournament bid, Pitt's first postseason appearance in four years.

Howland arrived at Pittsburgh in 1999 with a reputation for developing great shooting teams. Not surprisingly, the Panthers dramatically improved in that regard. But Howland's real imprint on the Panthers was his team's passionate dedication to defense. As a result, Pittsburgh ranked among the Big East's best in scoring defense each of the last two years (2002-03, 59.2/2001-02, 60.9).

"Winning championships is all about defense," Howland said. "If you look every year at the Final Four, the best teams in the country always play the best defense. Holding teams to under 40% from the field is something that is pretty consistent among Final Four teams."

Howland's influence was evident even after his first season at Pittsburgh (1999-00/13-15). Under Howland's tutelage, Ricardo Greer blossomed into one of the top players in the Big East. Greer was selected by the league coaches as the Big East Co-Most Improved Player in 1999-2000 and concluded his collegiate career as a two-time All-Big East performer.

In Big East Tournament history, Howland is the winningest coach of that event (based on percentage/10 or more games). During Howland's four seasons at Pittsburgh, his Big East Tournament record was 8-3 (72.7). In his last three years (2001-03) at Pittsburgh, the Panthers advanced to the Big East Tournament title game and won the crown in 2003.

NCAA history at Northern Arizona. His highly successful five-year (1995-99) tenure at Northern Arizona saw him transform the Lumberjacks from one of the nation's weakest programs into a consistent NCAA Tournament contender. In his final year (1998-99) at NAU, Howland led the Lumberjacks to a 21-8 record, its third consecutive 20+ win season.

Howland's first two teams at Northern Arizona finished 9-17 (1994-95) and 7-19 (1995-96), finishing in seventh-place each season. However, his 1996-97 squad went 21-7, set the school-record for wins and achieved the 10th best single-season turnaround in NCAA men's basketball history. Northern Arizona captured the Big Sky regular-season championship by three games and advanced to the National Invitation Tournament. Howland was named the conference's Coach of the Year.

The following season (1997-98), the Howland-led Lumberjacks advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history after capturing the Big Sky Tournament championship and second straight regular-season title. In its first round of NCAA play against No. 2 seed Cincinnati, Northern Arizona led the heavily favored Bearcats for the majority of the game before, falling on a last second 3-pointer, 65-62. On Sept. 25, 2004, Howland's 1998 NAU team was inducted into the NAU Athletics Hall of Fame.

During Howland's five-year tenure, Northern Arizona emerged into one of the country's top shooting teams. In 1998-99, NAU became the first team in NCAA history to lead the country in both field goal percentage (.523) and 3-point field goal percentage (.445) in the same season. Additionally, the Lumberjacks led the nation in 3-point shooting in both 1997 (.419) and 1998 (.430), while finishing second nationally in field goal percentage (.516 in 1997/ .511 in 1998).

From 1997 to 1998, Howland's teams produced back-to-back conference titles and also consecutive Big Sky Player of the Year honorees in Charles Thomas and Andrew Mavis. Northern Arizona tied a league record for most wins over a two-year span (27) and ranked among the nation's Top 30 in wins over that same period. With Howland's success, the city of Flagstaff, AZ, proclaimed April 27, 1998 "Ben Howland Day."

While the success of Howland's teams on the court is impressive, his programs have also produced top-notch students. In 1998, NAU and Utah were the only two schools in the nation to reach the NCAA Tournament and record a team grade-point average over a 3.0.

HOWLAND'S CAREER AS AN ASSISTANT COACH

Prior to his Northern Arizona appointment, Howland served as an assistant coach at the University of California, Santa Barbara for 12 years (1982-83 through 1993-94). During that time, he tutored eventual NBA players Brian Shaw and Conner Henry. He also oversaw the development of UCSB's Eric McArthur, the nation's second-leading rebounder in 1990, and Gary Gray, an All-Big West Conference selection. In Howland's last seven years at the school, the Gauchos advanced to postseason play on five occasions.

HOWLAND'S PLAYING CAREER

Howland enjoyed a standout playing career at Weber State where he was named the team's Most Valuable Defensive Player in both 1978 and 1979. He led the Wildcats to two Big Sky championships and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths.

Howland's basketball legacy of success dates back to his high school days. After beginning his prep career as a highly decorated player at Dos Pueblos High School in Santa Barbara, CA, he finished with two Suburban League Most Valuable Player honors at

Cerritos (CA) High School. He was also a two-time selection to the All-California Interscholastic Federation list. His collegiate career began at Santa Barbara City College in 1975-76 and 1976-77, where he was named team captain and led the Vaqueros to the California finals in 1978.

Following his collegiate career, Howland spent time playing professionally in Uruguay. He landed his first NCAA Division I coaching job in the 1981 season as a graduate assistant at Gonzaga University in Spokane, where he coached future NBA Hall of Fame and Utah Jazz guard John Stockton, before moving to UCSB the following year (1982-83).

THE HOWLAND FAMILY

Howland and his wife, Kim, a former Weber State cheerleader, have two children, Meredith (20), currently enrolled at the University of Pittsburgh and Adam (18), a recent graduate of The Brentwood School, who will be attending this fall Haverford College (PA). Howland has a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education from Weber State University (1979) and a Masters Degree in Administration and Physical Education from Gonzaga (1981).

At the 2005 UCLA Bruin Hoopsters Award Banquet, senior Dijon Thompson was given the Coach John Wooden Award as the team's Most Valuable Player.

DONNY DANIELS

Assistant Coach

Third Season • (CS Fullerton '77)

Donny Daniels enters his third season as an assistant coach on the Bruin staff. In 2004, Rivals.com designated Daniels as one of college basketball's Top 25 recruiters. Before coming to UCLA, Daniels was the men's head basketball coach at Cal State Fullerton for three years.

During his two-year tenure at UCLA, Daniels helped recruit the Bruins' 2004 class ranked No. 4 in the nation by Rivals.com and this season's incoming freshman class, with five players all ranked among the Top 100 players in North America.

"Donny's experience as a head coach and running his own program will be invaluable to help us build our UCLA program," said Bruin head coach Ben Howland. "Donny Daniels has a plethora of talents - from recruiting, to coaching on the floor, to game preparation. In all aspects of dealing with young student-athletes and helping them grow, Donny has continually stressed his players' academic advancement and of course, helped them develop into better basketball players."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Head Coach at Cal State Fullerton for three seasons (2000-03).
- Assistant Coach at Utah for 11 years (1990-2000) under Rick Majerus. During that time, the Utes advanced to the NCAA Tournament on eight occasions and were national runnerup in 1998.
- At Utah, Daniels recruited NBA stars Andre Miller and Keith Van Horn to Salt Lake City.
- Three tenures as an assistant coach at CS Fullerton, helping to recruit/develop Titan greats Leon Wood, Cedric Ceballos and Bruce Bowen.
- Head Coach, Los Angeles Harbor College (1985-86).
- Assistant Coach, Verbum Dei HS (1980-81).

DANIELS AT CS FULLERTON

The 2002-03 collegiate campaign was Daniels' third year as the head coach at CS Fullerton, his alma mater. After winning only 10 games in his first two seasons (Daniels inherited a Titan program that was on NCAA probation), his 2003 CS Fullerton squad doubled their victories (10), including an 8-10 Big West record, despite a rash of serious injuries that affected all five returning lettermen. Suiing up as few as seven or eight players for several midseason games, Fullerton had it's best conference record in 10 years and reached double figures in victories for the first time in four years. The Titans beat every Big West opponent except tournament champion Utah State.

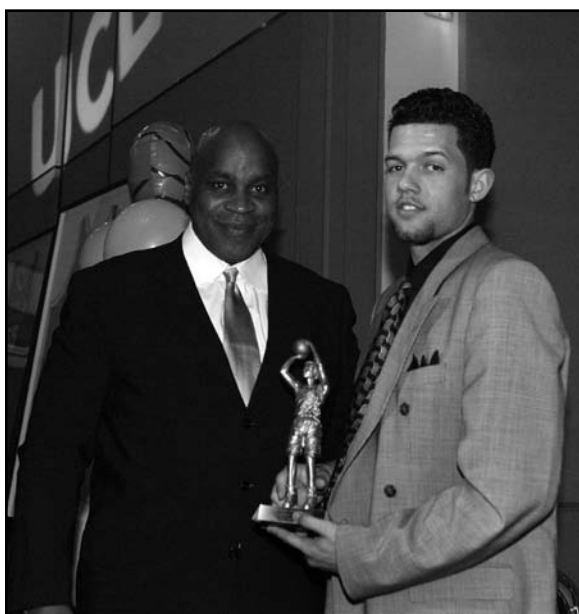

On April 20, 2000, Daniels was named head coach at CS Fullerton . Prior to being named head coach, Daniels was at Fullerton for two years as a player and had three stints as an assistant coach, including two tenures under George McQuarn, who lettered for two seasons (1962-63) as a catcher on the UCLA baseball team.

Daniels played on Fullerton's first two Div. I teams in 1974-75 and 1975-76 under head coach Bobby Dye.

In his senior year he was selected the top defender on a team that won the school's only conference basketball championship by earning a share of the 1976 Pacific Coast Athletic Association title.

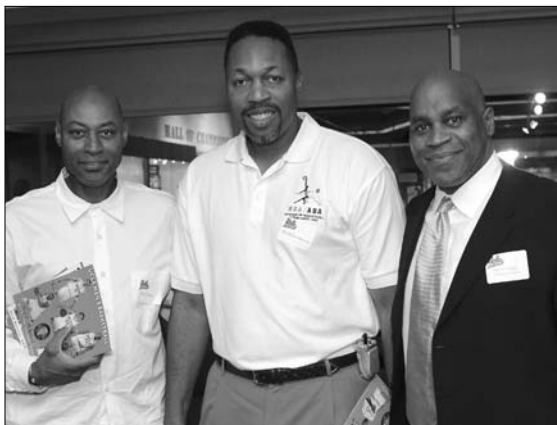

Daniels graduated in 1977 with a degree in criminal justice and returned to Fullerton as a volunteer assistant for the 1978-79 season. He was an assistant in Dye's final season (1979-80) before becoming an assistant at his high school alma mater, Los Angeles' Verbum Dei.

As a high school player at Verbum Dei, Daniels played for then-Verbum Dei head coach McQuarn.

ASSISTANT COACH DONNY DANIELS

On Aug. 14, 2003 UCLA hosted a reunion for its men's basketball players. With Daniels (l-r) are Kenny Booker, who lettered from 1970-71 and David Greenwood, who was a two-time All-American (1978-79) and played 12 years in the NBA. Booker was Daniels' coach (in his senior season) at Verbum Dei HS and both Daniels and Greenwood are Verbum Dei alumni.

Daniels returned to CSUF as a part-time assistant coach under then-Titan head coach McQuarn for the 1981-82 through 1983-84 seasons before becoming head coach at Los Angeles Harbor College in Wilmington (another alma mater) for two years (1985-86/32-27 overall record, including 20-11 in 1986). His third return to Fullerton was as a full-time assistant to first McQuarn and then successor John Sneed for the 1986-87 through 1988-89 seasons. His full-time coaching tenures at Fullerton coincide with NIT appearances in 1983 and '87 and the recruitment and/or development of former Titan greats Leon Wood, Cedric Ceballos and Bruce Bowen.

Ceballos was a 1990 NBA second-round draft selection. He played 11 years in the NBA with five different teams. His best years were with the Los Angeles Lakers when he averaged better than 21 points in both the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons.

DANIELS AT UTAH

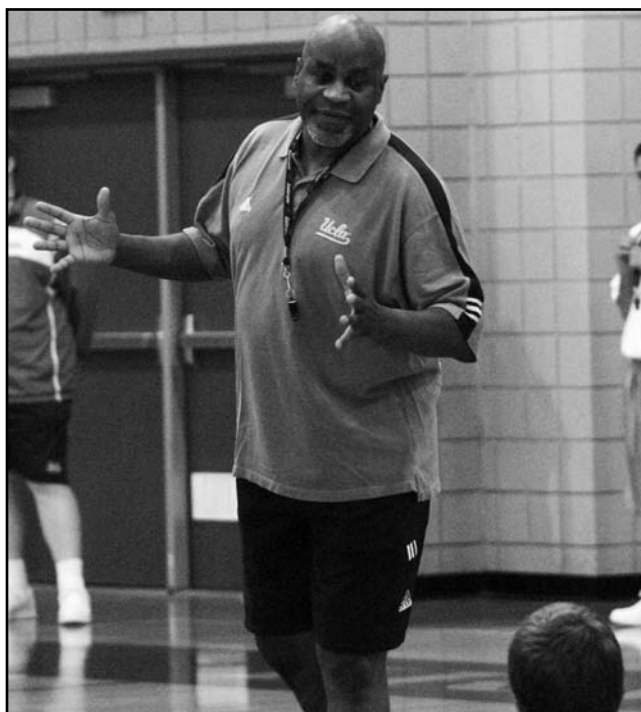

During Daniels' tenure (1990-2000) as a Utah assistant on Majerus' staff, the Utes reached the NCAA Tournament eight times in 11 seasons and were national runnerup in 1998. Daniels was also the chief recruiter of Andre Miller (Miller and his parents made a special trip to attend Daniels' CS Fullerton hiring press conference on April 20, 2000) and Keith Van Horn to Salt Lake City. Ironically, both young NBA stars were traded in summer 2003 — Miller from the Los Angeles Clippers to the Denver Nuggets and Van Horn from the New Jersey Nets to the New York Knicks (Van Horn is now with the Dallas Mavericks).

Daniels recruited Miller from his high school alma mater, Verbum Dei. Before his stint with the Clippers, Miller spent three years with the Cleveland Cavaliers and in 2002 led the NBA in assists (10.9).

Other players Daniels helped coach at Utah who went on to the NBA include Michael Doleac and Josh Grant.

PLAYING DAYS

Before his two-year (1975-76) playing career at CS Fullerton, Daniels played for one season at Scottsdale, AZ Community College (1973) and for one year at LA Harbor College (1974).

ERNIE ZEIGLER

Assistant Coach

Third Season • (Cleary College '94)

The 2005-06 collegiate season will be Ernie Zeigler's third as a Bruin assistant coach. Before coming to UCLA, Zeigler (Zeeg-ler) spent two seasons (2002-03) on Ben Howland's staff at Pittsburgh.

Zeigler's recruiting efforts helped UCLA in 2004 land the nation's No. 4 (Rivals.com) incoming freshman class and this year's recruits consist of five players, all rated among the Top 100 in North America.

During Zeigler's two seasons (2002-03) at Pittsburgh, the Panthers compiled a record of 57-11. In 2003, the Panthers were 28-5, earned a No. 4 ranking on the final Associated Press poll and played in the NCAA "Sweet 16" for the second consecutive season. In 2002, Pittsburgh won a school-record 29 games and again reached the NCAA "Sweet 16".

Zeigler, 39, joined Howland's Pittsburgh staff in the summer of 2001 after serving two one-year stints at Bowling Green State University (2000-01) and Kansas State University (1999-2000).

The second-year Bruin assistant also has significant overseas head coaching experience. From 1997-99, Zeigler served as the head coach for the Al-Hilal Sports Club in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. He guided Al-Hilal to the Saudi Arabian Basketball Federation Playoff championship game in 1999, along with the Arab Championship Games Final Four and Saudi Arabian Basketball Federation Playoffs in 1998.

In addition, he was the head coach of the Henan Wildcats (China) from 1996-97 and was named the Chinese National Basketball Alliance International Coach of the Year in 1997, after leading the Wildcats to their first playoff berth and first winning season in club history.

From 1992-97, Zeigler served as head coach of Team Detroit AAU. He led Team Detroit to the State AAU Final Four Tournament in each of his six years at the helm. In 1994, Zeigler's team qualified for the National AAU Quarterfinals and in both 1995 and 1997, he directed the squad to the adidas Big Time Tournament quarterfinals.

"I feel extremely fortunate that Ernie joined us at UCLA," Howland said. "He is of the highest caliber in all facets of coaching – academics, recruiting, on-the-court instruction and developing strong relationships with our players. He knows what it takes to run a successful basketball program and is of the highest integrity who represents UCLA in a first-class manner."

Born January 31, 1966 in Detroit, MI, Zeigler began his coaching career under the tutelage of his former prep coach Robert Menefee at his alma mater, Detroit Cody High School. From 1990-96, Cody was ranked among Michigan's Top-10 Class A teams during four of his six years as an assistant coach. Detroit Cody reached the state quarterfinals in 1992 and won the Detroit Public School League West Division Championship in 1993.

As a collegian, Zeigler played at Schoolcraft College (Livonia, MI/1984-86), Armstrong Atlantic State University (Savannah, GA/1986-87) and Northwood University (Midland, MI/1987-88).

Zeigler is a 1994 graduate of Cleary College (Ypsilanti, MI.) with a bachelor's degree in business management. Zeigler and his wife, Seantelle, have two children, Trey (14) and Skylar (9).

KERRY KEATING

Assistant Coach

Third Season • (Seton Hall '93)

Kerry Keating, one of the hardest working recruiters in the nation, enters his third season as a UCLA assistant coach. Before coming to the Bruins, Keating for two years (2002-03) was an assistant on Buzz Peterson's staff at Tennessee.

In 2005, Rivals.com tapped Keating as one of the nation's Top 25 collegiate recruiters. During the summer of 2004, he was featured in a USA Today article about the rigors of college basketball recruiting and in the fall of 2005 was featured in a similar article in the Los Angeles Times. In the 2003-04 Athlon Sports College Basketball Preseason Magazine, Keating was named one of the Top 10 assistant coaches in the U. S. His recruiting efforts helped UCLA in 2004 earn the nation's No. 4 (Rivals.com) incoming freshman class and in 2005 the No. 13 (Scout.com) recruiting class. "Kerry brings a range of knowledge and contacts to UCLA and a known energy that has helped him develop a reputation as a tireless recruiter," said Bruin head coach Ben Howland.

During his two seasons (2002-03) at Tennessee, Keating helped the Volunteers land top-ranked recruiting classes — highlighted in 2003 by freshman C. J. Watson (Las Vegas, NV), who led the Southeastern Conference in minutes played and was the league leader in assists. In 2002-03, Tennessee was 17-12 overall and advanced to the first round of the NIT.

Prior to Tennessee, he spent the 2000-01 season under Peterson at Tulsa in the Western Athletic Conference. That season the Golden Hurricane was 26-11 overall and won the NIT crown.

From 1998-2000, Keating was an assistant coach under Peterson at Appalachian State in Boone, NC. During those two years, the Mountaineers were 44-17 overall, won two regular season conference titles, made two appearances in the Southern Conference championship game and earned a 2000 NCAA berth. At ASU, he worked with backcourt players and was also responsible for on-campus recruiting and scheduling. Keating helped aid in the development of Tyson Patterson, the 2000 Southern Conference Player of the Year.

Keating's coaching relationship with Peterson began in the Southeastern Conference at Vanderbilt in 1994-95, when they were both assistants on Jan van Breda Kolff's staff at Vanderbilt. In all, Keating and Peterson, now the Head Coach at Coastal Carolina, worked together at four different schools.

Before his stint at Appalachian State, Keating spent three seasons (1995-98) at his alma mater, Seton Hall, as an assistant coach under George Blaney and Tommy Amaker. With the Pirates, Keating helped produce two All-Big East guards, Shaheen Holloway and LaVell Sanders, along with current Chicago Bull Adrian Griffin.

From 1993-94, Keating was an administrative assistant under Dave Odom at Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons, led by Randolph Childress and Tim Duncan, were 21-12 overall and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The 1993 Seton Hall graduate was a walk-on for head coach P. J. Carlesimo's Pirates during the 1989-90 season. Keating began his coaching career the next year when he served as a student assistant coach and video coordinator from 1990-93. During his four years in South Orange, NJ, the Pirates won a total of 88 games and played in the NCAA Tournament each of his last three seasons. In 1991, Seton Hall advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Always dapper on the sidelines, Keating in 2003 was named by CollegeInsider.com's Angelo Lento as the nation's best dressed collegiate assistant coach and has been No. 2 in that category the last two seasons. Keating also frequently contributes columns to the website.

Keating, 34, was born on July 15, 1971 in Stoughton, MA and was raised in Rockville Centre, NY. He attended high school at Archbishop Molloy and graduated from Seton Hall Prep. His father, Larry, is one of the country's top collegiate athletic administrators. Currently a senior associate athletic director at Kansas, he was Athletic Director at Seton Hall University from 1985-97 and also served as the Associate Commissioner of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) in Edison, NJ.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- In his 15-year college basketball career, Keating has worked in the Pac-10, Southeastern, Western Athletic, Southern, Big East and Atlantic Coast Conferences and has helped develop an All-Conference guard at every coaching stop.
- Spent two seasons (2002-03) at Tennessee under head coach Buzz Peterson.
- A member of Peterson's staff at Tennessee, Tulsa and Appalachian State.
- From 1990-93, was a video coordinator at Seton Hall under P. J. Carlesimo, when the Pirates played in three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the 1991 "Elite Eight".

Kerry Keating begins his third season on the UCLA basketball staff and his 16th as a college basketball coach.

CHRIS CARLSON

Director of Operations

Third Season • (UC Santa Barbara '93)

Chris Carlson enters his third season on the UCLA staff as head coach Ben Howland's Director of Basketball Operations. Before coming to UCLA, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years (2002-03) at the University of Pittsburgh.

As Director of Operations for the Bruin men's basketball program, Carlson is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and serves as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Carlson additionally assists in scheduling and recruiting.

"I'm very excited to have Chris on our staff at UCLA," Howland said. "He brings an excellent background to our Bruin program. I have known Chris since our days together at UCSB and his administrative and organizational skills are all at the highest level."

Carlson, from San Diego, joined the Pittsburgh staff in the summer of 2001 and has extensive experience as an administrator and coach. Before joining Howland at Pittsburgh, Carlson was on Howland's coaching staff at Northern Arizona for one season (1998-99, Howland left NAU after the 1998-99 season to take the Pittsburgh head coaching position). Carlson then remained at NAU for two more years (1999-2001), where he worked with the Lumberjacks' post players, along with recruiting and scheduling.

Prior to Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98 (Howland was an assistant coach for the Gauchos from 1982-94).

Carlson, 35, was also an assistant coach at Dos Pueblos HS in Goleta from 1991-93.

His administrative basketball experience includes 12 years as a game management assistant at the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-Star game. Carlson has also worked four NCAA Tournament West Regionals. In addition, he was an intern in the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams media relations department, a sports information assistant at UC Santa Barbara (1993-94) and a member of the 1994 FIFA World Cup media relations staff.

Carlson is a 1993 graduate of UC Santa Barbara with a bachelor's degree in history. He attended La Mesa Helix HS where he earned All-League honors in basketball. Helix HS is also the home to Bruin basketball great Bill Walton and UCLA head football coach Karl Dorrell.

Born Dec. 5, 1969 in San Diego, Carlson is married to Karen Nance and they have two sons, Nicklas, born November 5, 2002, and Charlie, born Oct. 1, 2005.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- University of Pittsburgh Director of Operations from 2001-2003, during that time the Panthers were 57-11 overall, twice ranked in the nation's Top 10, won the 2003 Big East Tournament crown and advanced to two NCAA "Sweet 16" appearances.
- Assistant Coach at Northern Arizona, 1998-2001. In 2000, NAU won the Big Sky Tournament and advanced to the NCAA.
- Assistant Coach at UC Santa Barbara, 1994-98.
- Assistant Coach at Dos Pueblos HS (Goleta, CA), 1991-93.

E.J. "DOC" KREIS

Head Speed-Strength and Conditioning Coach

Third Season

(Clemson '76)

E.J. "Doc" Kreis is in his third season as UCLA's head speed-strength and conditioning coach, having been hired in June of 2003. In addition to working directly with football and men's basketball, he oversees all operations in UCLA's new 15,000-square foot weight room.

"Every team we field spends time in the weight room toward the end of strength, flexibility, power, and most importantly, injury prevention," said Associate Athletic Director Glenn Toth, who oversees this area, at the time of Kreis' hiring. "We are both pleased and fortunate to have hired an individual with the demonstrated skill, experience and achievement as Doc Kreis. Not only a technical expert, Doc's reputation as a motivator, communicator, and mentor to student-athletes will serve us well in our continuing efforts to improve our athletic eminence."

On June 1, 2003, Kreis was inducted into the U.S.A. Strength & Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame. He was selected in the Collegiate category by the Hall of Fame Board of Directors. A plaque commemorating the honor is displayed at the York Barbell Museum in York, PA.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Kreis spent over 10 years as an assistant athletic director and the head coach for speed-strength and conditioning at the University of Colorado. He joined the CU staff in January of 1993.

In 2001, Kreis was named one of 10 master strength and conditioning coaches by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association. The award, of which Kreis and the nine others were the inaugural recipients, were earned based on expertise and individual experience of at least 12 years. It is deemed the highest honor a strength and conditioning coach can achieve.

The Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society has twice named Kreis the National Collegiate Strength Coach of the Year, in both 1991-92 and 1994-95.

Kreis was named the recipient of the 1995 Stan Jones Award, having met the criteria in six strength areas: performance of Colorado's athletic teams (placing in the top 10 of the Sears Directors Cup standings); the demonstration of high standards and discipline in strength and conditioning; and unanimous ratification from the ISSA's Board of Directors. Kreis was the first ever recipient of the award, which honors the legendary strength coach after whom it is named.

Kreis, 52, moved to Colorado in January of 1993 following a seven-year tenure at Middle Tennessee State University. While at MTSU, he earned his first National Coach of the Year honor (1991-92).

He was also the strength and conditioning coach at Georgia Southern (1978-80), and Vanderbilt (1980-85), in addition to running his own business for a year prior to joining the MTSU staff in 1986. All told, he has won over two dozen awards during his professional career.

A 1976 graduate of Clemson University, Kreis earned his undergraduate degree in Therapeutic Recreation. He earned his M.S. degree from MTSU in 1987 in Physical Education, and received a Doctor of Arts degree in the same field from MTSU in 1989.

He also has traveled abroad extensively, earning three different degrees overseas in the early 1980s. He has diplomas from the Lenin Institute for Physical Culture (Moscow, Russia), from the German Institute of Physical Culture and Sports Science (Leipzig, Germany) and from the Institute of Physical Culture and Sports in Bulgaria.

He has also authored three books on conditioning athletes, "Strength, Conditioning and Injury Prevention For Hockey", "Speed-Strength Training for Football", and "Sports Agility", and even made a foray into television, co-hosting a 30-minute infomercial with "Body by Jake." In 2005, he will have a new infomercial for the Strimline Power Strider.

Kreis lettered three seasons in football at Clemson, playing linebacker for coaches Hootie Ingram and Red Parker. He also served in the U.S. Army.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Therapeutic Recreation, Clemson, 1976; Master's of Science in Physical Education, Middle Tennessee State, 1987; Doctor of Arts in Physical Education, Middle Tennessee State, 1989. At UCLA: Third year (joined staff in June, 2003); Born: Oct. 4, 1952 in Montgomery, AL; Family: Kreis is married to the former Suzi Black, and they are the parents of four children, two grown, Jeremy and Ryan Black, and Taylor (17) and E.J. IV (14).

Second Season
(UC Santa Barbara, '99)

Scott Garson is in his second season on the UCLA staff as the Bruins' video coordinator. His responsibilities include - creating all video edits for game preparation, opponent scouting and self-scouting, preparing scouting reports and being a source of information for the Bruin coaching staff regarding the opponents' personnel and strategic tendencies, providing video for all recruiting efforts and special events and the production of highlight films.

Garson also assists in the direction of the UCLA boys basketball summer camps and handles other administrative duties in the basketball office.

Prior to coming to UCLA, he served five seasons on the University of Utah staff, including two as the Utes' video coordinator. During the 2003-04 season, when Utah head coach Rick Majerus retired for health reasons, Garson was promoted to assistant coach. Garson spent the summer/fall 2003 on the road assisting in Utah's recruiting efforts. Before taking over as the Utes' video coordinator in 2002-03, Garson served as an administrative assistant, assistant video coordinator and head manager with the Utes for three years. Garson also directed the Rick Majerus Basketball Camps for three summers.

Garson, 29, came to Utah from Pepperdine, where he was the administrative assistant and video coordinator for the Waves during the 1998-99 season. He also served as the director of the Junior Waves Basketball Camp.

While still in college at UC Santa Barbara, Garson was the varsity assistant coach and junior varsity head coach at Santa Barbara HS from 1996-98.

Garson, born April 24, 1976 in Calabasas, CA, graduated from UC Santa Barbara with a BA in law and society in 1999 and earned an MS in sport psychology from Utah (2003). He was a walkon pitcher with the Gauchos baseball team as a sophomore. He spent his freshman season (1994-95) at Washington University in St. Louis, MO, where he played basketball and baseball. Garson was a two-time All-League selection in basketball and baseball and was an All-State performer (1994) in basketball at Harvard-Westlake HS in North Hollywood, CA (1991-94).

His father (Lee, a 1969 UCLA graduate), mother (Corinne) and brother (Chad) all reside in the Los Angeles area.

DOUG ERICKSON
Administrative Assistant
14th Season
(San Jose State, '90)

Doug Erickson is the dean of the UCLA men's basketball administrative staff, entering his 14th year with the Bruin program. In his position as administrative assistant, Erickson is responsible for a variety of tasks, including film/video, summer camp director, travel administrator, tickets and the department liaison to legendary Bruin head coach John Wooden.

After graduating from San Jose State in 1990, with a B. S. in economics, Erickson was employed as an accountant for two years by Cadence Design Systems in Silicon Valley.

Erickson, 39, was born and raised in Eureka, CA, where he lettered in basketball at Eureka HS. He comes from a basketball family. His father, Julian, played at Iowa State and later coached at Eureka HS and Humboldt State. His mother, Jean, has the distinction of playing in front of the largest crowd in Iowa High School women's basketball history (13,400). His older brother, Mike, played at Humboldt State and is the head coach at Piner HS in Santa Rosa. Younger brother, Alan, was a standout at Eureka HS and Humboldt State and currently plays professionally in Australia. Erickson's sister, Jolynn, was a star basketball and volleyball player at Eureka HS and is now a school teacher in Sacramento.

Erickson was born Dec. 18, 1965 in Eureka, CA.

LESLIE DALZIEL
Administrative Assistant
First Season
(UCLA '05)

Leslie Dalziel is entering her second season on the UCLA athletic staff and first as an administrative assistant for Bruin head coach Ben Howland and the UCLA men's basketball program.

Her main responsibilities include office management, with executive assistant duties for Howland and his staff.

Dalziel joined the Bruin Athletic Department in spring 2004, working as an assistant in the Facilities and Operations Office for a year-and-a-half. She graduated from UCLA in 2005 with a BA in communications.

Dalziel was born Dec. 20, 1982 in Berkeley, CA. She prepped at Miramonte HS (1997-2001), also the home to fellow Bruin, NFL wide receiver Drew Bennett. Her father (Don), mother (Marilyn) and younger sisters (Kristin, Michelle) all reside in the Bay Area.

SUPPORT STAFF

MICHAEL MCBRIDE
Head Equipment Manager
10th Season
(West Virginia, '95)

Michael McBride is in his tenth season as a member of the UCLA athletic department and is entering his fifth year as the Head Equipment Manager. He is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance and distribution of equipment for all of UCLA's athletic teams. He works primarily with the football and men's basketball programs.

In addition, McBride supervises the student manager program, along with full-time members of the equipment staff — Tony Perri and Sean Markus, and interns Hector Tovar and Eddie Valencia. He's also responsible for managing an annual equipment budget of over $1.5 million. He and his staff are in charge of coordinating the equipment and apparel needs for the football program's practice, game and travel.

McBride is an 11-year certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and is a member of the Schutt Sports and Douglas Protective advisory boards.

He is married to the former Burcak Aydin.

33rd Season
(UCLA '74)

With extensive experience as a men's basketball trainer at the collegiate and professional levels, Tony Spino is entering his second season as the UCLA men's basketball head trainer. Overall, he is in his fourth stint as a trainer for the Bruin men's basketball program.

Under the guidance of Bruin great Ducky Drake, UCLA's head athletic trainer from 1942-72 and a charter member (1984) of the Bruins' Athletic Hall of Fame, Spino from 1969-75 was head trainer for the UCLA freshman team. From 1980-84, Spino assisted Drake with the UCLA varsity. Starting with the 1984-85 campaign, Spino was the Bruins' head basketball trainer through the 1996-97 campaign. He was the Bruins' trainer for UCLA's 1995 NCAA Championship run, the 11th title in school history.

Spino left the college ranks following the 1975 season and for four years (1975-79) was the head basketball trainer for the NBA Milwaukee Bucks. In 1977, he was a trainer for the West squad, coached by former Bruin head coach Larry Brown, at the NBA All-Star game.

Spino's other experience includes — 1968-70 at Glendale College as the head student trainer and head trainer at Loyola Marymount from 1979-81. During the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles, Spino was a trainer and coordinator for the U. S. boxing team, which won nine (of 11) Gold Medals.

In his 33rd season on the Bruin staff, Spino has been the trainer for 19 different Bruin teams that have won national titles. Most recently, in 2004-05 he was the trainer for NCAA Champions men's tennis and men's water polo.

He earned his undergraduate degree from UCLA in 1974 and received his Masters in administration/guidance counseling from LMU in 1981. Spino attended Morristown, NJ HS (1965-68) where he was a football and baseball letterman and assisted head trainer James S. Vance.

Spino and his wife, Sandy, have been married for 32 years and their daughter, Kimberly, is a senior student manager on the Bruin women's track & field team.

2005-06 UCLA BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

As Ben Howland enters his third season as UCLA's head coach, the Bruins in 2005-06 will return four starters from last year's squad that finished 18-11 overall, tied for third in the Pac-10 and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2002.

The Bruins' returning starters are - sophomores, 6-2 point guard Jordan Farmar, a preseason Wooden Award candidate, 6-5 guard Arron Afflalo and 6-5 forward Josh Shipp, along with 7-0 senior center Michael Fey. Joining that quartet will be two lettermen, 7-0½ senior center Ryan Hollins and 6-8 sophomore center Lorenzo Mata; 6-6 redshirt senior guard/forward Cedric Bozeman, who missed all of last season with a right knee injury, and a freshman recruiting class featuring five players rated in the Top 100.

RETURNING STARTERS (4)

Farmar in 2005 was named the Rivals.com National Freshman of the Year, the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year and to The Sporting News' All-Freshman team. He started every game (29) and averaged 34.3 minutes (No. 2 on the team), 13.2 points (No. 2/No. 3 on the all-time Bruin freshman chart, No. 1 among guards), 3.5 rebounds (No. 4), a team-high 5.28 assists and 1.41 steals (No. 2). Farmar led the team in free throw shooting (.801, 109-136). He led all Pac-10 freshmen in scoring, assists, free throw percentage and minutes played and was second in steals. He was UCLA's assist leader in 26 of 29 games, scored in double figures in 21 of 29 games, including 20 or more points four times, and led the Bruins in scoring on seven occasions. His season-highs were 27 points vs. Arizona (2/12); seven rebounds, twice; nine assists vs. Michigan (12/18) and four steals on two occasions.

Afflalo last season was a member of the All-Pac-10 Freshman team. Joining Farmar as the only Bruins to start every game, he averaged 31.3 minutes (No. 3 on the team), 10.8 points (No. 3/No. 9 tie on the all-time Bruin freshman chart), 3.3 rebounds and 2.17 assists (No. 3). Afflalo led the team in 3-pt. FG% (.386, 39-101). UCLA's top defensive performer, Afflalo scored in double figures 18 times, including five of the last six games, and led UCLA in scoring on four occasions, including two of the final six contests. His season-highs were 22 points vs. USC (2/24); nine rebounds, twice; six assists, twice and three steals vs. Notre Dame (2/27).

Shipp on Sept. 28 underwent right hip surgery and is expected to miss 8-12 weeks. In 2005 he was an Honoable Mention All-Pac-10 Freshman selection. He appeared in all 29 games and started 23 of the final 24 contests. Shipp averaged 27.9 minutes, 9.3 points (No. 4 on the team), 5.2 rebounds (No. 2/No. 10 on the all-time Bruin freshman chart), 1.83 assists (No. 4) and 1.21 steals (No. 3). His rebound average was the highest of any freshman in the Pac-10. Shipp had two double-doubles (15/12 vs. Pepperdine, 12/11; 13/11 vs. Oregon State, 3/10); scored in double figures in 12 of the last 25 games, led UCLA in rebounding six times, in scoring twice and in steals on 11 occasions. His season-highs were 20 points, twice; 12 rebounds vs. Pepperdine (12/11); five assists vs. Texas Tech (3/17) and four steals vs. California (2/17).

Fey last season started 27 of UCLA's 29 contests. He averaged 23.0 minutes, 8.6 points (No. 5 on the team), 4.8 rebounds (No. 3) and shot .546 (101-185) from the field (No. 1 among players with at least two attempts per game). Fey had his first two career double-doubles (15/11 vs. Oregon, 3/5; 17-11 vs. Stanford, 1/20); scored in double figures 11 times and led the Bruins in scoring in three games, in rebounding five times and in blocked shots seven times. He scored at least 10 points in three of the final six games and had eight or more rebounds in three of those six games. He set career-bests in points (23, Oregon State, 12/31); rebounds (11, twice); assists (3, Oregon, 3/5) and blocked shots (4, Oregon, 3/5).

"Returning four starters is a strong nucleus to build around for 2005-06," said Howland. "I think our three freshmen starters from last season - Jordan, Arron and Josh - were the most productive freshman class in the U. S. They gained invaluable experience last year as freshman starters. Michael Fey progressed as the year went along and I think he played his best basketball at the end of the season. He's worked very hard on his game, and his conditioning, the last two summers and we expect Michael's senior season to be the best of his career."

RETURNING LETTERMEN (2)

From 2004-05, UCLA returns two lettermen, both centers, 7-0½ senior Ryan Hollins and 6-8 sophomore Lorenzo Mata.

Hollins last season appeared in 28 games, including six starts, and averaged 16.4 minutes, 4.5 points, 3.4 rebounds, a team-high 0.82 blocked shots and shot .526 (40-76, No. 2 on the team among players with at least two attempts per game) from the field. He led the Bruins in blocked shots on 15 occasions and his season highs were 13 points vs. Washington State (1/6), eight rebounds vs. Washington State (2/3) and five blocked shots vs. UC Irvine (11/27). Hollins was slowed at the beginning of last season because of summer arthroscopic right knee surgery. During the summer after his freshman year, he was a member of the 2003 USA Junior World Team.

Mata in 2004-05 missed almost all of the last six games with a non-displaced sternum fracture. Before the injury, he appeared in 21 games, including one start, and averaged 9.7 minutes, 2.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and shot a team-high .567 (17-30) from the field. He averaged 11.6 rebounds per 40 minutes of action and led the Bruins in rebounding twice. His season-highs included eight points vs.

UCLA BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

USC (1/29), 11 rebounds vs. Pepperdine (12/11) and two blocked shots, twice.

"Ryan and Michael give us two seven-footers and Lorenzo is a young and up-and-coming talent," Howland said. "Although both Ryan and Lorenzo at times last year were hampered by injuries, their presence on the court also contributed to some very important wins for us. Both players have worked hard over the summer to stay healthy and improve their game. I'm expecting Ryan and Lorenzo to have productive seasons for us this year."

SENIOR CEDRIC BOZEMAN RETURNS

Bozeman, UCLA's starting point guard during his first three years as a Bruin (2002-04), missed all of last season with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee that required surgery (Nov. 10). He is on-schedule to be ready for the start of basketball practice on Oct. 15.

As a junior in 2003-04, Bozeman was the only Bruin to start every game (28) and he led the Pac-10 in assists (5.54) and the Bruins in minutes played (33.7). He averaged 7.5 points (No. 5 on the team) and 3.8 rebounds (No. 5). Bozeman, who needs 61 assists (315) to break into the Bruin career Top 10, as a sophomore (2002-03) started 17 of 21 games and as a freshman (2001-02), he started 17 of the last 18 games and earned Honorable Mention All-Pac-10 Freshman team. One of the top high school players in the nation in 2000-01 as a senior at Mater Dei HS, Bozeman was a McDonald's All-American.

"Before his knee injury last November, Cedric was playing the best basketball of his career," Howland said. "He's worked very hard since the operation to get back into great shape and to get ready for his final season as a Bruin. Cedric can help us in so many ways – senior experience and leadership, he can play both guard and forward and before his injury, he was our best defensive player. Our staff and our players are very excited about Ced's return."

NEWCOMERS (5)

Alfred Aboya, Darren Collison, Luc Richard Mbah a Moute, Michael Roll, Ryan Wright

Five players considered to be among the Top 100 high school performers in North America will be Bruin freshmen in 2005-06 — 6-8, 233-pound forward/center Alfred Aboya (Tilton Prep Academy/Tilton NH); 6-0, 155-pound point guard

Darren Collison (Etiwanda HS/Rancho Cucamonga, CA); 6-7, 224-pound forward/guard Luc Richard Mbah a Moute (Montverde Academy/Montverde, FL); 6-5, 205-pound guard/forward Michael Roll (Aliso Niguel HS/Aliso Viejo, CA); and 6-8, 225-pound forward Ryan Wright (Loyola Catholic HS/Mississauga, Ontario, Canada).

Alfred Aboya (A-boy-a)

On Oct. 12, Aboya underwent a left knee arthroscopic procedure (cartilage) and the rehabilitation time is four-to-five weeks. Also on July 11 in Los Angeles, Aboya had a right knee arthroscopic procedure (cartilage).

In 2005, Aboya led Tilton Prep to its second consecutive New Hampshire Class B State Championship appearance and an 18-11 overall record. In doing so, he was rated the No. 20 power forward by Rivals.com and Nos. 81 and 83 overall by Hoopmaster.com and Rivals.com, respectively. In a victory over Class A Champion Winchendon, Aboya scored a career-high 45 points with 17 rebounds. On the season he averaged 18.0 points and 12.0 rebounds per game.

Darren Collison

Collison, a McDonald's All-American Top 40 candidate and the No. 2 point guard in the West, was selected to Parade Magazine's All-America fourth-team in 2005. He was also named the All-CIF Southern Section I-AA Player of the Year and a Los Angeles Times All-Star while leading Etiwanda HS (31-2) in points (20.7), three-pointers, steals (2.1) and assists (4.0). In the CIF Southern Section I-AA championship game, Collison scored 14 points in a 60-45 win over Hart and in the CIF SS Regional Quarterfinals, he posted 16 points, six rebounds and three assists in an 82-55 victory over Clovis. Collison won three MVP awards in three regular season tournaments (Oceanview Tournament of Champions/LA City Classic/Desert Heat Invitational) and, in December of 2004, averaged 21.0 ppg and led Etiwanda to a 13-0 start and a No. 2 USA Today national ranking.

Luc Richard Mbah a Moute (umbah-a-moo-teh)

In only his fourth year of organized basketball, Mbah a Moute led Montverde in scoring (18.4) and rebounding (7.3), averaged 3.0 assists, 2.0 steals and 1.0 blocked shots while shooting 54.0% from the field, 51.0% (35-68) from three-point range and 61.0% from the foul line in 2004-05. Montverde HS (21-6) was ranked No. 2 in the Orlando Super 6 poll and won 15 of its final 17 games, including victories over Edgewater, which was ranked No. 1 in Class 6A, twice in the same week. Mbah a Moute was selected to All-Tournament teams in the Iolani Classic and Montverde Academy Invitational and also competed in the Commonwealth Classic All-Star game on April 1 in Richmond, VA (he was a member of a national team of All-Stars who played a Virginia All-Star squad). He was also a finalist for the Nike Hoops Summit All-Star game on April 9.

Michael Roll

The No. 1 shooting guard in the West, Roll was the CIF Southern Section Division I Wooden Award recipient. His other senior honors included being tabbed as the All-CIF Southern Section Division I-A Player of the Year, a Cal-HiSports.com first-team All-State pick, the Orange County Register Player of the Year and a Los Angeles Times All-Star. He averaged 24.8 ppg, 5.9 rpg and 3.9 apg as a senior and led Aliso Niguel HS (28-4) to the CIF Southern Section Division I-A championship over top-seeded Lake Forest El Toro HS. In that 67-60 victory, Roll scored 22 points (16 in the first half on three 3-pointers). Also, in addition to being named the MVP of the Aztec Classic earlier in the year, Roll scored 34 points, including 15 in the third quarter, in Aliso Niguel's victory over Temescal Canyon of Elsinore in 1-A semifinals.

UCLA BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

Ryan Wright

Wright, the No. 15 power forward by Rivals.com and overall No. 50 (Hoop-scoop.com), No. 53 (Scout.com) and No. 54 (Rivals.com/Future Stars), led the Loyola Warriors to a 35-10 overall record in 2004-05. The potential 2008 Canada Olympic team candidate, averaged 21.0 points, 10.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 3.0 blocked shots per game in 2004-05. In the Canadian All-Star game (4/9), Wright led the winning Red team with a game-high tying 17 points (8-12 FGs) and a game-high tying eight rebounds. Wright also scored 33 points with 15 rebounds in a championship game loss to Eastern Commerce.

Wright was the top scorer (25) in the Tier One title game loss to Father Goetz and was also named MVP of the Pinky Lewis and Rock the Ridge Tournaments. Regarded as a top Canadian Junior player, he grew up in Toronto and moved to the suburbs of Mississauga.

ALSO RETURNING IN 2005-06

Two freshman redshirts – 6-5 guard DeAndre Robinson, who prepped at Riverside King HS and 6-2 guard Joey Ellis, from Hidden Hills who attended Crespi HS.

The Bruins are looking to add two freshman walkons to the 2005-06 roster, guards – 5-10 Kelvin Kim (El Toro), who averaged 14.6 points, 5.2 assists and 3.3 rebounds and earned first-team All CIF-SS Div. 1A, along with 5-10 Nican Robinson (Oakland Tech).

ROSTER NOTES

Janou Rubin, 6-3 guard, has applied for a sixth season, but his status as of October 17 is undetermined. As a senior last season, Rubin missed the final 19 games with a left knee injury (that required surgery). Before he was hurt, Rubin appeared in five games and averaged 5.8 minutes, 1.0 points and 0.2 rebounds. As a junior in 2003-04, he earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors for his play in UCLA's conference opening home wins over the Oregon schools. He was freshman walkon in 2000-01 and did not appear in a game in 2001-02.

Matt McKinney, a 6-8 forward who will be a junior this season, has applied for a medical retirement and is no longer on the team. Last year as a sophomore, he appeared in 26 games, including one start, and averaged 6.3 minutes, 0.6 points and 1.5 rebounds. McKinney, who also played volleyball for the Bruins, was a redshirt freshman in 2002-03 and missed all of 2003-04 with a broken left foot. His volleyball campaign last spring was cut short because of a right shoulder injury. McKinney, who is on track to graduate in Spring 2006, also dealt with several on-going health issues, including limited stamina and a gastro-intestinal disorder.

BRUIN LOSSES

Gone from last year's team are seniors – 6-7 forward Dijon Thompson, 6-2 guard Brian Morrison and 6-8 forward Josiah Johnson.

Thompson was last season's team leader, earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors and he was the Bruins' top scorer (18.4, No. 4 in Pac-10) and rebounder (7.9, No. 3 in Pac-10). The No. 19 scorer in UCLA history (1,458 points), Thompson scored in double figures 26 of 28 games, with eight double-doubles, scored over 20 points 11 times, led UCLA in scoring on 14 occasions and in rebounding 20 times. His season/career highs included 39 points vs. Arizona State (2/10, ninth player in Bruin history to score 39 or more points in a game) and 16 rebounds twice. On June 28 in the 2005 NBA Draft, Thompson was drafted in the second round (No. 54) by the New York Knicks and traded to the Phoenix Suns (the Suns announced Thompson's signing on July 12).

Morrison last season appeared in all 29 games and averaged 22.0 minutes, 7.4 points (No. 6 on the team), 2.0 rebounds and 1.62 assists. He shot .347 from three-point range (No. 3, 43-124) and .763 (No. 3, 29-38) from the foul line. He scored in double figures in 12 games (all off the bench). His season-bests included 19 points vs. Washington (1/8), six rebounds vs. Notre Dame (2/27), 4 assists, three times and three steals vs. Oregon (1/2). Morrison transferred to UCLA from North Carolina in 2002.

"Dijon had a great final year for our squad last season," Howland said. "He was our senior leader and his scoring, rebounding and defense helped our team to an upper division finish in the Pac-10 and a selection to the NCAA Tournament.

"Brian was a sparkplug for us off the bench last season, both offensively and defensively," said Howland. "We will miss Dijon, Brian and Josiah. They were hard-working seniors last season and led by example."

Johnson, the son of Bruin great Marques Johnson, was a four-year letterman for the Bruins, who redshirted in 2000-01 as a true freshman. In 2004-05,
