Beginning this season, UCLA's men's basketball games will be produced by the UCLA ISP Sports Network, with AM 570 in Los Angeles serving as the flagship station for the network (games will also be on AM 1150 when there is a scheduling conflict with the Los Angeles Lakers). This is the 12th year of UCLA's partnership with AM 570 owner Clear Channel. Other stations on the UCLA ISP Sports Network include KXEX (1550 AM) & KSLK (96.1 FM) in Fresno and KWDJ (1360 AM) in Ridgecrest.

In 2008-09, the UCLA basketball team will again receive maximum television exposure with at least 29 regular season games scheduled to be televised live. Two other games may be televised as "Wildcard" selections.

Three games (Arizona State, Notre Dame and at Arizona) will be televised by CBS, eight by ABC/ESPN/ESPN2/ESPNU and nine will be televised nationally or regionally as part of the Pacific-10 Conference's contract with Fox Sports Net. FSN includes 23 regional sports stations around the nation, including FSN West and FSN Prime Ticket, regional sports cable stations based in Los Angeles and available nationwide on Direct TV (channel 692 for FSNW and channel 694 for FSN Prime Ticket).

Most Bruin games will air on FSN Prime

Ticket. In addition, eight games will be televised locally by FSN West or Prime Ticket. Bill Macdonald will handle the play-by-play duties for UCLA's local Fox Net package. All four games of the 2K Sports Classic will be televised by one of the ESPN entities (ESPN2 or ESPNU).

Chris Roberts (talk@chrisrobertsonline.net) enters his 17th year as the "Voice of the Bruins" and his 28th season broadcasting NCAA Division I sports in Los Angeles. Since 1982, Roberts has broadcast more NCAA Division One games in Los Angeles radio than anyone. Prior to joining the Bruins in the Fall of 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years and one with Cal State Fullerton. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103FM. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for UCLA football.

In 2008, he was nominated for the third time in his career for the Southern California Broadcasters Association "Play-by-Play Broadcaster of the Year" award. Roberts is a voter for both the Heisman Trophy and the Wooden Award.

Don MacLean, the all-time leading scorer in UCLA and Pac-10 history (2,608 points, 1989-92) and a nine-year NBA standout, will be in his seventh year as the color analyst. Tracy Murray, another former Bruin standout (averaged 18.3 ppg at UCLA) and a 12-year NBA veteran, will be in his first year serving as analyst when MacLean is fulfilling television obligations.

Fans around the nation can also follow select UCLA games on SIRIUS Satellite Radio.

The game broadcasts are also available on the internet at www.uclabruins.com.

THE 306-HORSEPOWER LEXUS IS 350

It won't take long to expose the inadequacy of the English language. There's the heart-pounding thrill of 306 horses* propelling you from 0 to 60 in an exhilarating 5.3 seconds.† The surefooted grip on the road as the world is changed into a blur of light and texture. And then the overwhelming certainty that there are simply no words to describe this moment. YOUR LEXUS DEALER. PURSUING PERFECTION.

THE HISTORY OF THE PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back more than 80 years to December 15, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. Original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University), was accepted into the Conference, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the Conference in 1924, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45, when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new Conference was formed - the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include ten women's sports.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 10 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in five other men's sports and two other women's sport.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He has been succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971), and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

The Pacific-10 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

UCLA is among the world's leading research universities, known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. A shared public asset, UCLA enriches our neighborhoods, our nation and our world on a daily basis by creating knowledge, educating students, powering the economy and serving the community. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 26,000 undergraduates and 11,500 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Five UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes — the two most recent are Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been nine National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. UCLA educates more students than other university in California and was the most sought-after institution in the nation for this fall's freshman class. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their educations beyond the classroom by working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce — Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 87,000 members with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top ten academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than eight million volumes as well as digital resources and services. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a Web site for every undergraduate student. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "My.ucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents.

Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also is partnering with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university. Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health System has been a leader in patient care, medical research and teaching for more than 50 years. Today, our physicians provide an array of cutting-edge and research-based primary and specialty services in four hospitals on two campuses, and in more than 75 clinic locations. Physicians provide specialty services in offices located on the Westwood campus and throughout Santa Monica. Primary care physicians provide healthcare for children and adults in community offices from Manhattan Beach to Malibu. Patients from Southern California, the U.S. and around the globe enter our clinics more than one million times annually, and our hospitals, more than 80,000 times a year to be treated at the world-renowned Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital, primary care offices and community outreach health programs. The four schools in the medical enterprise are medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health. UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as one of the top hospitals in the country by U.S. News & World Report, including "Best in the West" for 18 consecutive years. A new state-of-the-art medical center, which includes UCLA Medical Center, Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital and Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA, is under construction and is scheduled to open in the summer of 2008. Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital renovations are scheduled for completion in phases beginning this year. Groundbreaking research is constantly taking place in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Gonda (Goldschmied) Neuroscience and Genetics Research Center and in many other centers and laboratories on campus.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. Check the web sites at www.arts.ucla.edu and www.tft.ucla.edu for more information.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Another prime example of UCLA's connecting with the community is through UCLA Extension, one of the nation's largest divisions of continuing higher education, offering more than 4,500 courses each year in diverse fields of study.

In addition, the university conducts guided walking tours and distributes self-guided tour maps. For further information, call (310) 825-8764 or check out UCLA on the Web at www.ucla.edu.

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in summer 2007, taking the helm of a world-class institution comprising 37,500 students and 29,000 faculty and staff, with an annual budget of $3.8 billion. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

During his first year at UCLA, Chancellor Block has called for the university to engage in campus-wide strategic planning, strengthen its civic engagement and increase diversity of the campus community.

Daniel G. Guerrero

Director of Athletics

Seventh Year

(UCLA '74)

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is currently serving as the chair of the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group. He is also a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. In addition, he is the third vice-president of NACDA, serves on the NACDA Executive Committee and is also on the executive board of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. In June of 2007, he was named NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year.

In his first six years, Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (103) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those six years, UCLA teams have won 17 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 13 times and have had an additional 22 Top Five finishes. A staggering 113 teams (of 138 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in six bowl games. The program has also won 37 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced 338 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, 57 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and 13 other nations. They won 19 medals, including eight gold.

In the last six years, UCLA has finished second three (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04) and sixth (2002-03) in the race for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director's Cup. Only two schools (UCLA and Stanford) have made the top six each of the past six years, representative of UCLA's place among the nation's elite.

This past year, UCLA won its fourth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship, its first NCAA title in women's tennis and its second in men's golf. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball (third straight Final Four), women's soccer (fifth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed fifth (tied) in women's volleyball and softball, seventh in women's gymnastics, 14th in men's indoor track and field and 17th (tied) in baseball and men's soccer. UCLA also played in its sixth consecutive bowl game and won five conference championships and two league tournaments.

In 2006-07, UCLA won an NCAA championship in women's water polo, the school's 100th NCAA team title, and placed second in men's soccer and women's tennis, third in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, fourth in women's gymnastics, fifth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for fifth in men's tennis, seventh in men's golf and women's indoor track and field, ninth in men's outdoor track and field and tied for ninth in baseball. UCLA played in its fifth straight bowl game in football and won four league titles.

In 2005-06, UCLA won two NCAA titles (men's volleyball and women's water polo) and placed second in men's basketball and women's soccer, tied for third in softball, tied for fifth in men's tennis, tied for seventh in men's golf and tied for ninth in women's volleyball and women's tennis. UCLA also won the Vitalis Sun Bowl in football and captured seven conference championships and two post-season tournaments.

In 2004-05, UCLA won three NCAA titles (men's water polo, men's tennis and women's water polo) and placed second in women's soccer, men's volleyball, women's golf and softball, tied for second in women's outdoor track and field, fourth in women's gymnastics, tied for fifth in women's volleyball and tied for ninth in men's soccer. UCLA also earned its first NCAA post-season appearance in women's rowing (varsity eight) and won eight conference championships.

In 2003-04, the Bruins won four NCAA titles (women's outdoor track and field, softball, women's golf and women's gymnastics). They also placed second in men's tennis, women's tennis and men's golf, tied for third in women's soccer, tied for fifth in men's soccer and women's volleyball, fifth in women's indoor track and field and seventh in women's swimming and women's cross country. In addition, the Bruins captured seven league titles.

In Guerrero's first year at UCLA (2002-03), UCLA won four NCAA titles (men's soccer, women's gymnastics, women's water polo and women's softball). The Bruins placed third in men's golf, tied for third in men's tennis, tied for fifth in women's golf and women's tennis, eighth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for eighth in women's indoor track and field and tied for ninth in women's soccer. UCLA also earned six conference titles.

Over the past six years, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In June of 2007, he was named the NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year. His other honors include 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October 2002); Cal State Dominguez Hills' Alumnus of the Year (March 2003); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Association (June). On September 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning (Wilmington, CA) High School to have his jersey (#8 in baseball) retired (2003).

Guerrero was named one of the nation's Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

In addition to unparalleled success in the playing arena, his first six years have also demonstrated the overall excellence Guerrero has made a priority for the program. Belief in conducting a program of integrity has been a cornerstone of Guerrero's leadership throughout his career. Named as a 1999 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport, Guerrero has fostered a strong sense of commitment and dedication among his coaches and staff to the development of the total student-athlete experience. He has also served as an Executive Board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sport for over a decade and is resolute in his desire to support academic achievement and life skills development for UCLA student-athletes. As a result, he has spearheaded unprecedented growth in the Academic Support and Life Skills program at UCLA. In Guerrero's first five and two-thirds years (17 quarters), student-athletes earned 4,003 spots on the Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or higher grade-point average for a quarter) and community service activities for the program are at an all-time high.

Resource development has always been a strength for Guerrero and his tenure at UCLA has demonstrated continued evidence of this skill. In 2004-05, he successfully negotiated two blockbuster deals: a new multi-million dollar agreement with ISP Sports, a premier national collegiate sports marketing organization, and a six-year, multi-million dollar extension with adidas, equipment provider for all of UCLA's 24 sports.

Guerrero also led the negotiations that solidified the relationship between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, inking a 20-year agreement, which included over $13 million in facility enhancements to benefit the UCLA football program. He has also reorganized the External Relations area, integrating Corporate Sponsorships, Marketing and Development under one umbrella, in anticipation of a major revenue generating initiative designed to address capital project needs, operational support and program endowments.

Under Guerrero's guidance, UCLA continues to aggressively enhance its athletic facilities, including the completion of the Bud Knapp Football wing of the Acosta Center, and the sports medicine and athletic performance centers in the same complex. A new golf practice facility and the Easton Softball Stadium renovation, benefitting the Bruins' golf and softball powers, respectively, were completed for the 2004-05 season. The installation of synthetic turf at Spaulding Field was completed in 2006 and the final phase of the Acosta Center project (Olympic sport locker rooms) is now complete. The Spieker Aquatic Center and the renovation of Pauley Pavilion are the next projects slated for completion.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. He is serving his fourth year as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and also served on the "College Basketball Partnership," a group formed by NCAA president Myles Brand, that included many of the most influential people in the sport. He has served as Chair of both the Pac-10 Athletic Directors Committee and the Budget and Finance Committee, has served on several Pac-10 committees and is currently a member of the Pac-10 Television and Football Bowl committees. He has also served on other NCAA committees, including the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and at the time of his hire by

Dan Guerrero at Nell and John Wooden Court Dedication

UCLA was serving as the second vice president of the Division I-AAA Athletic Director's Association.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). The broad competitive success of its athletic teams, the academic excellence of its student-athletes, the development of new and improved facilities and enhanced relations with the UCI community, reflect the progress UC Irvine Athletics experienced under Guerrero's direction. During his tenure, the program continued to accumulate conference championships, garner national rankings, feature graduation rates among the nation's best, and win numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes. In June of 2002 while still at UC Irvine, he was named the 2001-02 Division I-AA/I-AAA West Region NACDA Athletic Director of the Year.

Resulting from Guerrero's resourcefulness and creativity, UCI experienced unprecedented activity in the area of athletic facilities development. In his final five years, Guerrero was the driving force behind $38 million of newly constructed or renovated facilities. These projects included a newly renovated track and soccer complex, a new 64-meter competitive swimming pool, a new baseball stadium and the Anteater Recreation Center, one of the premier recreation centers in the country.

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Dan came from Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. His batting average in Pacific-8 Conference games over three seasons as a varsity performer was .343. Guerrero, known as "Warrior" during his playing career, was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero, born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 25th year of its existence and its eighth in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The new Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the east wing of the J.D. Morgan Athletics Center features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into the great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and much more.

UCLA athletic teams have won 103 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the Hall of Fame.

Each of UCLA's sports has its own individual display area within the Hall of Fame. In addition, there are displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

Now in its 44th season as the home of Bruin athletic teams, Pauley Pavilion is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events. While calling the 12,819-seat pavilion home, the Bruins have won nine NCAA championships and 21 Pac-10 titles.

On Dec. 20, 2003 the floor in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated "Nell and John Wooden Court." Players from virtually all of his teams joined Coach Wooden to celebrate the occasion.

In 1991, Pauley served as the site for the 1991 U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions.

Some of the top names in the history of college basketball — players such as Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Bill Walton, Ed O'Bannon, Sidney Wicks, Marques Johnson, Reggie Miller, Baron Davis, Earl Watson, Jason Kapono, Ann Meyers, Denise Curry and Pete Maravich and coaches such as John Wooden, Dean Smith and Denny Crum — have appeared in Pauley. In addition, many world-class competitions, including the 1984 Olympic gymnastics and a historic table tennis match between the United States and China; entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Nirvana, Bobby Brown, Eric Clapton, Guns and Roses and the Grateful Dead have all performed in the Pavilion.

UCLA's longest winning streak in Pauley Pavilion is 98 games (from 1970-71 to 1975-76 ended on Feb. 21, 1976 when Oregon defeated UCLA, 65-45).

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund.

Total cost of the Pavilion was provided as follows: $2,000,000 by the State, $1,000,000 by the student body and in excess of $2,000,000 by the alumni with $1,000,000 of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley.

In October of 1990, a highly-efficient lighting system was installed that doubled the lighting capability in the Pavilion. In October of 1999, a state-of-the-art video scoreboard was installed in the multi-purpose facility.

Pauley contains 10,337 permanent upholstered seats and retractable bleachers for 2,482 spectators making the total basketball seating capacity 12,819.

In 1996-97, the Bruins broke the Pauley Pavilion attendance record twice. UCLA welcomed 13,478 fans when the Bruins played Duke (Feb. 23, 1997), and 13,382 fans came to see UCLA take on crosstown-rival USC. UCLA has housed over 13,000 fans in Pauley Pavilion on seven occasions - most recently, 13,037 people watched UCLA defeat USC, 66-45, on Jan. 18, 2006.

UCLA is moving forward with a plan to raise funding and design a project for enhancements to Pauley Pavilion.

The Pavilion (310-825-4546) is managed by Susan Brown. Its address is 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA, 90095.

UCLA — THE COMPLETE PACKAGE

• The Nation's No. 1 Combined Academic, Social and Athletic Program — Located just a few miles from the beaches of the Pacific Ocean; rated among the nation's top research universities; winner of the most NCAA team championships (103) — when you add it up, UCLA provides the best of all worlds for the student-athlete.

• Sports Illustrated's No. 1 Athletic Program

— "UCLA has the most complete athletic program in the country," says Sports Illustrated on Campus (April 2005). In the April 28, 1997 issue of Sports Illustrated, the Bruins were easily selected the best athletic school in the country. The article proclaims that at UCLA, "athletes from all sports thrive on the nation's most jock-friendly campus."

• An Outstanding Head Coach — The 2002 consensus National Coach of the Year, Ben Howland enters his sixth season as the Bruin head coach. He's one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win at least 30 games in three consecutive seasons.

• A Diligent, Talented Staff — A youthful, enthusiastic group of coaches who believe in this program and are committed to developing great basketball players and even better people. Howland's UCLA assistants include — Donny Daniels, who was the head coach at Cal State Fullerton from 2001-03; Scott Duncan, who spent seven seasons (2000-07) at the University of Oregon; Scott Garson, who spent five seasons at Utah (1999-2004) and Director of Operations Joe Hillock, who for 10 years (1996-97 to 2005-06) was the head women's coach at Southern Utah.

• Academic Support — Providing the student-athlete with the assistance and guidance to succeed in the classroom and society is a top priority! Coach Howland, his staff and the athletic administration provide the best in general assistance, counseling and tutoring available at any university.

• The Bruin Family — Located in Westwood and bordered by Los Angeles, Beverly Hills and Hollywood, UCLA provides a prosperous outlook for the future with internships, workshop mentoring programs and access to one of the world's meccas of business, entertainment, media and networking like no other major college program.

• Media Rich — USA Today, Fox Sports and ESPN have offices in Los Angeles. There are seven local television stations and 13 newspapers which provide regular coverage of UCLA. A 70,000-watt radio station (AM 570 Sports), satellite radio (SIRIUS) and the internet are the broadcast homes for Bruin basketball.

• The Next Step — Since 1948, UCLA has produced more NBA selections (104) than any other college in the nation. Eighteen UCLA players have been drafted in the last 12 consecutive seasons, including six in the first round. Recent selections include - 2008, Russell Westbrook was the No. 4 pick in the draft by the Seattle Sonics/Oklahoma City Thunder, Kevin Love was the No. 5 pick by the Memphis Grizzlies, who traded him to the Minnesota Timberwolves and Luc Richard Mbah a Moute was the No. 37 pick in the draft by the Milwaukee Bucks; 2007, Arron Afflalo was a first round pick (Detroit Pistons); 2006, Jordan Farmar was a first round choice (Los Angeles Lakers) and Ryan Hollins was a second round selection (Charlotte Bobcats); 2005, Dijon Thompson was a second round choice (NY Knicks and traded to the Phoenix Suns); 2004, Trevor Ariza (NY Knicks) was a second round choice; 2003, Jason Kapono (Cleveland Cavaliers) was a second round choice; 2002, Dan Gadzuric (Milwaukee Bucks) and Matt Barnes (Cleveland Cavaliers) were second round selections; 2001, Earl Watson (Seattle Supersonics) was a second round pick; 2000, Jerome Moiso was a first round choice of the Boston Celtics and in 1999, Baron Davis (Charlotte Hornets) was the No. 3 selection in the NBA Draft.

• Tradition of Success — With a record 11 NCAA Championships, the UCLA men's basketball program's tradition for success is unmatched. The Bruin men are represented by six individuals in the Basketball Hall of Fame. Among them are coaching legend John Wooden and two of the greatest centers ever to play the game — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Bill Walton.

Over the last three decades, UCLA has established itself as the nation's finest all-around athletic program.

UCLA has won more NCAA team championships than any school in the nation - 103 (71 men's and 32 women's), including 17 in the last six years, more than any other school in the country (Stanford is second with 12). In the 27 years that the NCAA has awarded both men's and women's championships, UCLA has won 63 NCAA team titles (31 men's and 32 women's). Overall, UCLA has won a nation-leading total of 124 collegiate championships - 103 NCAA crowns and 21 other titles.

UCLA has won at least one NCAA team title (men's or women's) in 26 of the last 28 years. In addition, the school has won at least one collegiate title (NCAA or AIAW) in 42 of the last 45 years, missing only in 1979-80, 1993-94 and 2001-02. Over the last 37 years, UCLA has won at least two collegiate titles 29 times.

UCLA has placed amongst the top six schools in each of the 15 years of the Directors' Cup. In 1992-93, UCLA earned the award as the nation's top combined program, according to the annual USA Today All-Sports Survey. Prior to 1993-94, USA Today conducted separate surveys for men's and women's programs. In the 23-year history of the All-Sports Survey for men's programs (formerly conducted by the Knoxville Journal), UCLA finished first 11 times (no other school had more than six titles), second seven times, third once and fourth once and was in the top 10 each year. The Bruins won five of the last eight men's surveys and placed fifth in 1993. In the women's survey (formerly sponsored by Santa Monica Evening Outlook), UCLA won 10 titles in 18 years, including four straight (1988-1991), and finished second in 1992 and 1993.

In the last 39 years, the Bruin men and women have won 57 NCAA championships, 10 more than second-place Stanford and 31 more than third-place USC. Eight times they have won at least three titles in a single year. UCLA is the only school to win four men's titles in a single year more than once, accomplishing the feat in 1969-70 (basketball, tennis, volleyball and water polo), 1970-71 (basketball, tennis, volleyball and outdoor track) and 1971-72 (basketball, volleyball, outdoor track and water polo).

UCLA has produced nearly 450 Olympians in its history, including 39 in 2008, 56 in 2004, 58 in 2000 and 52 in 1996. In the last six summer Olympiads (1984, 1988, 1992, 1996, 2000, 2004) Bruin athletes have earned 149 medals, including 76 gold. At the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, Bruin athletes won 15 medals (four gold, nine silver and two bronze).

ATHLETICS ENDOWMENT PROGRAM

The UCLA Athletics Campaign has endowed 204 of the 282 NCAA allowable athletic grants-in-aid. UCLA Athletics expresses its sincere gratitude to the individuals listed for their support in the continuing effort to distinguish UCLA as the nation's premier academic and athletics institution.

An endowment generates income to the University in perpetuity. By investing the gift principal and using just the interest earned to help meet the cost of a grant-in-aid assures the Athletic Department of on-going funds to maintain the quality and diversity of its program.

Currently, UCLA provides financial assistance to over 400 student-athletes participating in 24 intercollegiate sports. However, expenses such as the cost of tuition for student-athletes have increased dramatically in the last several years while department revenues have remained relatively stable.

Tax-deductible gifts to the Wooden Athletic Fund play a pivotal role in meeting the escalating costs of team travel, recruiting, equipment replacement and, most importantly, in providing athletic scholarships. Now more than ever, private support is necessary if UCLA is to maintain its position as the best athletic program in the country. Your help is truly needed and greatly appreciated.

To encourage private support of our program, the best football and basketball tickets are allocated to our most generous donors. Members of the Wooden Athletic Fund receive priority in the assignment of tickets for home contests in the Rose Bowl and in Pauley Pavilion in accordance with the UCLA Priority Seating Policy. Please refer to the donor benefits chart to determine season ticket opportunities. In many cases, special reserved parking is also available for our donors.

If you have any questions regarding the Wooden Athletic Fund or the benefits members receive, please contact the Athletic Development Office at 310/206-3302.
