LINEBACKERS
3RD SEASON
MICHIGAN STATE '92

Chuck Bullough (BULL-ah), who had five years of NFL coaching experience with the Chicago Bears prior to coming to Westwood, is set to begin his third season as coach of the Bruin linebackers in 2008.

The 2007 Bruin defense ranked 14th in the nation in rushing defense (109.2 yards per game) and 29th in total defense (343.23 yds/g). Leading the way for the linebacker group was the foursome of Christian Taylor (third on team in tackles), Kyle Bosworth (5th), Reggie Carter (t-6th) and Aaron Whittington (9th). Taylor ranked second on the team with 12.5 tackles for loss, while Carter was third with a total of 12.0. Bosworth recorded a 19-tackle effort in a game at Washington State which ranked as the most stops by a Bruin since 1989.

In 2006, the Bruins tied for ninth in the nation, and for first in the Pac-10 conference, in rushing defense (91.08 yds/g) with a young group of linebackers. Taylor, Carter and Eric McNeal helped to lead the Bruin defense. Taylor ranked second on the team with 83 tackles and fifth (tied) in the Pac-10 in tackles (1.04/g) for loss and 16th in tackles (6.38/g). McNeal made a game-saving tip and interception against USC to seal a Bruin victory. Carter earned Freshman All-America honors after tallying 48 tackles, including 6.0 for loss.

Bullough has been a member of two staffs on which the head coach earned "Coach of the Year" honors. In 2001, Dick Jauron was named NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Bears to a 13-3 record (Chicago was 4-12 in the season prior to that staff's arrival). In 2005, Western Michigan improved from 1-10 to 7-4, the biggest turnaround in MAC history, and first-year head coach Bill Cubit was named MAC Coach of the Year.

Bullough has coached numerous players to post-season honors. Reggie Carter earned first-team Freshman All-America acclaim from rivals.com; second-team honors from both collegefootballnews.com and scout.com; and third-team accolades from The Sporting News. In 2005, Bullough was linebackers coach at Western Michigan and Ameer Ismail earned first-team All-MAC honors while ranking sixth (tied) nationally with 20 tackles for loss and 34th with eight sacks. In 2004, he worked as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Lake Forest College.

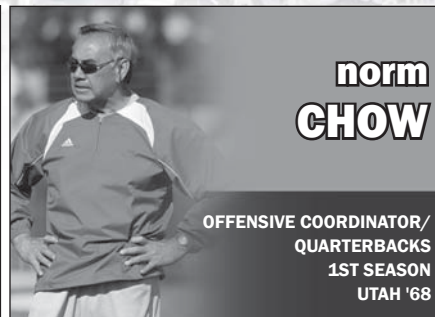

For the five previous seasons (1999-03), Bullough coached every defensive position and special teams on the staff of the Chicago Bears. In 2003, he was assistant defensive backs coach and cornerback Charles Tillman was the NFL Rookie of the Year. In 2002, he was assistant defensive line coach and defensive tackle Ted Washington earned a Pro Bowl berth. From 1999-2001, he was assistant linebacker coach and Brian Urlacher was a Pro Bowl selection. During the entire five seasons, he was assistant special teams coach, tutoring Larry Whigham and Jerry Azumah to the Pro Bowl.

A two-time All-Big Ten selection (first team in 1991 and second in 1990) and second-team All-American linebacker at Michigan State University, Bullough set an MSU single-season record with 175 tackles. He was a member of three bowl championship teams, including the 1987 Rose Bowl squad, and MSU won two Big Ten titles during his career. Bullough was selected in the eighth round of the 1992 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and had a five-year career in the National Football League. He played for the Miami Dolphins (1993-95) and attended camps with the Eagles (1992) and Indianapolis Colts (1996). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, assisting with defensive backs in 1997 and the offensive line in 1998.

His father, Henry, rose from the steel mills of Canton, OH, to become known as the "Doctor of Defense" as an NFL defensive coordinator for 23 years for multiple teams. He served as the head coach of the Buffalo Bills for parts of the 1985 and 1986 seasons. Henry earned a Super Bowl championship ring as an assistant coach with the Colts in 1970 and won national collegiate football championships at Michigan State, as a player in 1952 and as the defensive coordinator of the Spartans' 1965 and 1966 teams.

CHOW

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
QUARTERBACKS
UTAH '68

Norm Chow, who is considered one of the top offensive coaches in football history, is in his first season as the Bruin offensive coordinator.

Chow comes to UCLA from the NFL's Tennessee Titans, where he served as offensive coordinator for the past three years. He is credited with helping quarterback Vince Young's transition from college to pro football. This past season, the Titans earned a spot in the NFL playoffs and finished the regular season with a record of 10-6.

In 2006, Young, a rookie quarterback from the University of Texas, took over the offense during the fourth week of the season. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earned Rookie of the Year honors (only the second quarterback to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year) and became the first rookie quarterback to play in the Pro Bowl.

Young earned all of the headlines, but it was the running game that drove the offense as the Titans finished fifth in the league in rushing, amassing the sixth-highest rushing total in franchise history (2,214 yards) and the highest yards per carry in franchise history (4.7).

In 2005, Chow adapted to the pro game with ease despite an offense that relied on a youthful cast of players and encountered numerous injuries. Tennessee ranked ninth in the NFL in passing and ranked 17th overall in offense. The group of rookie receivers (WR Brandon Jones, WR Roydell Williams, WR Courtney Roby and TE Bo Scaife) became the first quartet of rookie receivers since the 1968 Buffalo Bills to each record at least 20 receptions in a season. Scaife would also establish a new rookie tight end franchise mark for receptions with 37.

Before joining the Titans, Chow spent 32 productive years coaching at the collegiate level, tasting every form of success at that level, including three national titles (BYU, 1984; USC 2003, 2004), tutoring three Heisman Trophy winners (Ty Detmer, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart), participating in 27 bowl games, and three times being named Assistant Coach of the Year. He left an indelible mark on the college game as he worked with eight of the NCAA's top 30 career passing efficiency leaders. Chow has mentored six first round NFL draft picks (Palmer, Leinart, Philip Rivers, Steve Young, Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson) and one Pro Football Hall of Fame member (Young).

Chow, 61, joined the Titans on February 9, 2005, after spending four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Southern California. At the helm of USC's offense, Chow directed an attack that ranked in the nation's top 20 in total offense in each of his final three seasons, tutored two Heisman trophy-winning quarterbacks (Palmer in 2002 and Leinart in 2004) and won two national titles. The Trojans were 42-9 during his four seasons, 36-3 in the final three.

In his final season at USC, the Trojans ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense (38.2), seventh in passing efficiency, 12th in total offense (449.1) and 13th in passing offense (271.7). Quarterback Matt Leinart was the Heisman Trophy winner, Walter Camp Player of the Year, repeated as a first team All-American and was the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. In 2003, Leinart set Pac-10 season records for touchdown passes (38) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating (164.5) of any USC quarterback in history. USC was fifth nationally in passing efficiency and scoring offense, 13th in passing offense (291.6) and 14th in total offense (447.5). The offense set Pac-10 season records with 534 points and by scoring 40-plus points in seven consecutive games.

In 2002, quarterback Carson Palmer won the Heisman Trophy and Unitas Award en route to becoming the NFL's number one overall selection and the Pac-10's career leader in passing yards and total offense, while USC led the Pac-10 in total offense and scoring offense. Nationally, the offense ranked sixth in passing efficiency, eighth in passing offense (306.8) and total offense (449.2) and ninth in scoring offense (35.8).

Chow spent the 2000 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State. The Wolfpack passing offense was ranked 15th nationally (292.6). His quarterback, Philip Rivers, was a Freshman All-American who completed 53.7% (237 of 441) of his passes for 3,054 yards with 25 touchdowns and ranked 12th nationally in total offense (269.9). Rivers is now the starting quarterback for the San Diego Chargers.

Prior to joining the N.C. State staff, Chow spent 27 years (1973-99) at BYU. At various times, he was the Cougars' assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach, receivers coach, recruiting coordinator and graduate assistant (1973 and 1974). The Cougars posted a 244-91-3 record during his time in Provo, appeared in 22 bowls and saw 21 offensive players earn All-America honors. In 12 of his 18 years as offensive coordinator at BYU, Chow led the offense to a place in the NCAA's top 10 in total offense. Chow was with coach LaVell Edwards for all but two (1972 & 2000) of his 29 years at BYU.

Chow began his coaching career as the head coach at Waiialua (HI) High, serving for three seasons (1970-72).

He was a two-year starter and three-year letterman at guard for Utah (1965-67). In 1967, he earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team and All-American honorable mention honors. He was selected to Utah's All-Century Team. He then played briefly with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1968 before a knee injury ended his playing career.

In his years of coaching, Chow has garnered numerous accolades, including: the Broyles Award (2002) as the nation's top assistant coach, National Assistant Coach of the year (1999) by the American Football Foundation and Athlon (1993), and the NCAA Division 1-A Offensive Coordinator of the Year (1996 & 2002) by American Football Monthly. In 2006, FOX's Terry Bradshaw named Chow the NFL's Top Assistant Coach. Additionally, Chow served as the grand marshal of the Golden Dragon Parade celebrating the Chinese New Year in Los Angeles' Chinatown in 2004.

GANSZ, JR.

SPECIAL TEAMS
THE CITADEL '85

Frank Gansz Jr., who spent the last two seasons on the staff of the Baltimore Ravens, is in his first season in charge of the UCLA special teams. Gansz, who has an extensive background at the professional and collegiate levels, was the special teams coordinator for the Ravens in 2006 and 2007, coaching with Neuheisel.

In 2007, the Ravens placed ninth in the NFL in punt returns (9.7 yards) and 10th in the league in kickoff returns (23.5). In addition, place kicker Matt Stover made 27 of 32 field goals and all 26 PATs. His 27 field goals tied for 10th in the league. In 2006, Stover led NFL kickers with a 93.3% conversion mark, making 28 of 30 field goals, and ranked fourth among all kickers with 121 points. He was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl. In addition, linebacker Gary Stills led the NFL with 44 special teams tackles, the second most in NFL history, and was also named a Pro Bowl first alternate. Rookie punter Sam Koch produced just three touchbacks, 30 punts inside the 20 (fifth in NFL). He was second in the league with 12 punts inside the 10.

Gansz, 45, spent the previous five seasons (2001-05) as special teams coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. During that span, Stills became the Chiefs' all-time leader in special teams tackles (148) and Dante Hall was named to the Pro Bowl in both 2002 and '03 as a kick returner and also led the NFL in most returns for touchdowns (10, six on kickoffs and four on punts). Gansz-led units excelled in blocking punts and kicks, recording four blocked punts from 2001-02 and Kansas City batted away three field goals in two seasons (2002-03). In 2005, the Chiefs' special teams units ranked fourth in the NFL in average drive start (30.7) and eighth in the league with 1,591 kickoff return yards. Kicker Lawrence Tynes converted two 50-yard FGs for the second time in two years. Hall scored a TD on a kickoff for the fourth straight year. In 2004, Hall scored two kickoff return touchdowns for the second straight year and Tynes made two 50-yard FGs in his first NFL season. Kansas City also set single-season franchise records in kickoff returns (75) and yardage (1,820).

In 2003, Gansz's units excelled, leading the NFL with four special teams touchdowns, as Hall scored two kickoff returns and two punt returns for scores, en route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. Hall became the first player in NFL history to record a score on a kickoff return in four straight games. His touchdown in the divisional playoff game vs. Indianapolis gave him five overall returns on the season. Hall also broke a single-season franchise record with 2,446 combined net yards. Kansas City led the league in both punt return average (16.4) and kick return average (25.4), the first team to do so since Washington in 1995. The 16.4 punt return average broke a 43-year-old team record. In Gansz' second season with the Chiefs (2002), Hall scored on three kick returns (two punts and one kickoff) to earn his first Pro Bowl berth. In 2001, the Chiefs blocked two punts and partially blocked a third.

Prior to his tenure in Kansas City, he coached special teams for the Oakland Raiders for two seasons (1998 and 1999), tutoring standouts Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. He also coached in the 1999 Senior Bowl.

Gansz spent five seasons (1993-97) as tight ends and special teams coach at the University of Houston, setting a school record for kickoff return average in 1996. His units set another school record with an 87-yard punt return vs. SMU en route to the Conference-USA championship and a trip to the Liberty Bowl vs. Syracuse.

He spent one season (1992) with the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (NFL Europa). The Knights led the league in punt returns, kickoff returns, kickoff coverage and special teams touchdowns (four).

Gansz spent two years (1990-91) as tight ends/special teams coach at West Point, two years at the University of Pittsburgh, coaching special teams and the offensive line in 1988 and special teams and the secondary in 1989, and one season (1987) as a graduate assistant at Kansas, working with the wide receivers.

Gansz was a four-year defensive back at The Citadel.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Bay Area, Central Coast, Dallas.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from The Citadel, 1985; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in February of 2008); Family: Gansz is single. His father, Frank Gansz Sr. coached at UCLA for two seasons (1976-77) and was a longtime NFL coach.

MONTANA '90

Tim Hauck (pronounced:Howk), who spent the past four years on the staff at the University of Montana, is in his first year as a Bruin assistant coach. Hauck is assisting defensive coordinator DeWayne Walker with the secondary, working with the safeties.

During Hauck's four years at his alma mater, Montana compiled a record of 43-10, making the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoffs all four years, including the title game in 2004.

In 2007, Hauck coached the Montana secondary. The Grizzlies ranked 10th nationally in pass efficiency defense and allowed just eight touchdowns while making 17 interceptions en route to a record of 11-1. Strong safety Colt Anderson was named first-team All-Big Sky Conference. In Hauck's three previous seasons on staff (2004-2006), he worked exclusively with the safeties. In 2006, Anderson and free safety Torrey Thomas were named to the Big Sky Conference's first team. In 2005, brothers and safeties Torrey and Tyler Thomas were honorable mention selections.

Hauck, 41, played safety in the National Football League for 13 seasons, retiring in 2002. He originally signed with the New England Patriots as a free agent in 1990 and played for Green Bay, Seattle, Denver, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and San Francisco. A safety for the Grizzlies, Hauck earned first-team All-America honors in both 1988 and 1989. He was voted the Big Sky Conference's defensive MVP as a junior and a senior and he also was voted the recipient of Montana's Steve Carlson Award (MVP) those two seasons. He is the only player in school history to receive the Golden Helmet Award ("Hardest Hitter") three times, winning it in 1987, 1988, and 1989.

Hauck is ranked third in Montana history with 305 career tackles, compiled in just three seasons. He's third in school history with 15 career interceptions. He began his college career at Pacific University in Oregon and was an all-conference pick there as a freshman.

Hauck, a native of Butte, MT, prepped at Sweet Grass High School in Big Timber, MT and was an all-state quarterback and defensive back, playing for his dad, Bob Hauck Sr. His brother, Bobby Hauck, is the head coach at Montana. Bobby worked on Neuheisel's staff at both Colorado and Washington and was a graduate assistant at UCLA (1990-91) while Neuheisel was an assistant coach.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California Central Valley, San Diego, Pacific Northwest, Northern Nevada.

WIDE RECEIVERS
UCLA '91

Todd Howard, who possesses both NFL playing and coaching experience, is set to start his third year as UCLA's defensive line coach in 2008.

In 2007, UCLA ranked 14th in the nation in rushing defense (109.2 yds/g) and 29th in total defense (343.23). In addition, the defense ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77) and tied for 15th in sacks per game (3.0). Defensive end Bruce Davis led the team with 12.0 sacks (tied for first in Pac-10) and 15.5 tackles for loss. Davis' two-year total of 24.5 sacks is second only to Dave Ball (27.5 in 2002, 2003) for the most ever by a Bruin in back-to-back seasons. Kevin Brown added seven tackles for loss and four sacks. 2008 returning players Korey Bosworth, Tom Blake, Jess Ward, Brian Price and Jerzy Siewierski also had productive seasons.

In 2006, his first season at UCLA, the line showed marked improvement over previous years. The Bruins were ranked ninth (tied) in the nation and first (tied) in the Pac-10 in rushing defense (91.08) and 33rd nationally in total defense (304.83). His two ends, Justin Hickman, a consensus All-American, and Davis, who also earned first-team All-America honors, tied for first in the conference and fourth in the nation with 12.5 quarterback sacks. Tackles Brigham Harwell and Brown also flourished under the new coach.

Howard spent the previous three seasons (2003-05) in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars, serving as assistant defensive line coach. He assisted the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks.

He, along with defensive line coach Ray Hamilton, oversaw the Jaguars' defensive line. In 2005, Jacksonville led the NFL in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (four). In addition, the Jaguars ranked third (tied) with 47 quarterback sacks, sixth in total defense (290.9 yards) and 14th in rushing defense (106.8 yards). Defensive tackle Marcus Stroud earned a Pro Bowl appearance for the third straight time and defensive tackle John Henderson was an alternate in 2005 after making the team in 2004.

Howard, 43, has 13 years of experience coaching in college and five in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL for two seasons. For one month prior to joining the Jaguars, he was the associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. Howard spent three seasons (2000-2002) as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech, helping that school win the 2001 WAC title. Prior to that, he was a defensive assistant for two years (1998-1999) with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control.

Howard began his coaching career in 1991 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference championship coaching staffs. He coached at Grinnell (Iowa) College from 1994 through 1997, and served as the defensive coordinator in 1996 and 1997. In addition, he was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their 1997 training camp, helping on defense. He also did a minority coaching internship with the San Diego Chargers in 2002.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987 and played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and on the special teams. He played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1991 and was on injured reserve throughout the 1992 season. Howard was an all-conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started at linebacker for three seasons (1984-86) on teams which won a pair of conference titles.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Houston, Florida, Louisiana.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Sociology from Texas A&M, 1991; Master's in Human Resources from Texas A&M, 1995; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in February of 2006); Born: February 18, 1965 in Bryan, TX; Family: Todd has three children, Trey, 16, David, 14, and Ava, 11.

Former UCLA standout receiver Reggie Moore joined the staff in January of 2008 and is in his first season as coach of the Bruin wide receivers.

Moore has spent the last four years (2004-07) coaching the wide receivers at North Dakota State University. The Bison posted an overall record of 35-9 during his tenure, including a 20-2 mark the past two seasons, highlighted by a 14-game winning streak. In three of the four seasons, NDSU averaged over 30 points per game, including a best of 39.5 ppg while on its way to a 10-1 mark in 2007.

The Bison notched wins over Central Michigan and Minnesota during that 2007 campaign, their first as a Division I program, on the way to earning a No. 9 national ranking in the Football Championship Subdivision Coaches and Sports Network final polls. The 2006 Bison team also won 10 games, including a victory at Ball State in which it passed for a school record total of 451 yards. NDSU captured the Great West Conference football championship and was ranked No. 5 in the nation in both final polls. The only blemish on the 2006 record was a one-point loss to Minnesota. In 2005, the Bison recorded a 7-4 mark. North Dakota State went 8-3 in 2004 and was ranked 23rd nationally in the final polls.

In the summer of 2004, Moore served an internship with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington (he was hired by Neuheisel but coached for Keith Gilbertson), working with the wide receivers. The Huskies went 6-6 and tied for fifth in the Pac-10 that season.

During his Bruin playing career (1987-90), Moore was a three-year starter at wide receiver, catching many of his balls from two of the top quarterbacks in UCLA history, Troy Aikman and Tommy Maddox. Moore still ranks No. 18 on UCLA's all-time list with his 92 career receptions and his 1,483 yards. He averaged 16.1 yards per catch and scored 10 touchdowns.

In 1990, Moore earned the Kenneth S. Washington Award for outstanding senior after leading the UCLA team with 40 receptions for 643 yards and three touchdowns. He had a big game in a win versus Stanford that season, catching eight balls for a career-best 133 yards. Reggie had a total of three 100-yard games in all, including a 122-yard effort in a 1988 win at California and a 105-yard game in a win at Washington, also in 1988. He earned honorable mention on the 1989 Pac-10 All-Academic team after catching 12 passes (tied for fifth on the team) for 181 yards and a touchdown. Moore was named to the 1988 first-team sophomore All-America squad by The Sporting News following a 38-catch (second on team) season in which he gained 627 yards and scored six touchdowns. His 48-yard touchdown reception from Aikman, with just 1:28 remaining in the game, was the winning margin in a 24-17 victory over Washington that season. Moore went on to play in the 1990 Blue-Gray Football Classic.

Following his collegiate career, Moore was a member of the New York Jets (1991-93) and the Los Angeles Rams (1993) as a wide receiver and return specialist. He then coached in the high school ranks at James Madison High School in Houston, Texas, for four seasons (1999-2002). He also served as a fire fighter and paramedic with the Houston Fire Department from 1996 to 2003 before joining the staff at the University of Washington.

Moore earned his BA in History from UCLA in 1991.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles, Houston, Arizona.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 1991; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: March 23, 1968 in Houston, TX; Family: Reggie is single. Father, Zeke, played for the Houston Oilers from 1967-78 and appeared in two Pro Bowls.

RUNNING BACKS
WASHINGTON '77

A familiar coach in the Pac-10 Conference and to Bruin fans (1990-95 seasons in Westwood), Wayne Moses was hired in January of 2008 as UCLA's running backs coach.

Moses spent the last two seasons in the NFL as running backs coach for the St. Louis Rams. In 2007, Stephen Jackson rushed for 1,002 yards. In 2006, Jackson earned his first Pro Bowl berth after rushing for a career-high 1,528 yards (third in the NFC, fifth in the NFL). Jackson also caught 90 passes, a total that led NFL running backs and was fourth in the NFC (tied for seventh in the NFL). Jackson's 2,334 yards from scrimmage led the NFL and his total of 105 first downs led the NFC and was second in the NFL. His 96 points tied for the NFC lead, and tied for third in the NFL, in scoring for non-kickers.

Prior to joining the Rams, Moses had a 28-year college coaching career, working with running backs at five Pacific-10 schools since 1990. He had tours of duty at UCLA (1990-95), California (1996), Washington (1997-2000), USC (2001), and Stanford (2002-03 and 2005). Moses spent 2004 at the University of Pittsburgh. Some of the great Pac-10 players who have worked under Moses include Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Kevin Williams, Skip Hicks, and Shawn Wills at UCLA, Deltha O'Neal and Tarik Smith at Cal, Willie Hurst and Rashawn Shehee at Washington, and Kenneth Tolan and Kerry Carter at Stanford.

Moses worked with Bruin head coach Rick Neuheisel as fellow assistants at UCLA from 1990-93 and also worked for Neuheisel at Washington in 1999-2000. In their final year together, Washington won the conference title, went to the Rose Bowl and finished No. 3 in the final polls. In addition, he worked with new offensive coordinator Norm Chow and defensive coordinator DeWayne Walker at USC in 2001. He also worked with offensive line coach Bob Palcic at UCLA in 1993 when the Bruins won the Pac-10 title and played in the 1994 Rose Bowl.

In 2004, Moses was part of a Pittsburgh team that won the Big East Championship and advanced to a BCS Bowl for the first time in school history. The Panthers won six of their final seven regular season games to earn a Fiesta Bowl berth versus Utah.

While working at USC in 2001, he helped the Trojans finish 5-3 in the Pac-10 (6-6 overall) and advance to their first post-season bowl game after a two-year absence.

From 1997-2000, Moses was the running backs coach at his alma mater, Washington. The Huskies led the Pac-10 in rushing in 2000 (16th nationally) and went on to play in a bowl game each year (1997 Aloha Bowl, 1998 Oahu Bowl, 1999 Holiday Bowl and 2001 Rose Bowl).

He spent the 1996 season handling the running backs at California, helping the Golden Bears to their first bowl appearance in six years. Under head coach Steve Mariucci, the Bears finished the regular season 6-5 and played Navy in the Aloha Bowl.

Moses was the running backs coach at UCLA under Terry Donahue for six seasons (1990-95) and worked with coach Neuheisel for the first four. Abdul-Jabbar and Williams led the Pac-10 in rushing under Moses' tutelage while Hicks went on to earn All-America honors later in his career. In 1995, Abdul-Jabbar set UCLA's single-season rushing records and was named first-team All-America with Moses as his coach. The Bruins played in the 1991 Sun Bowl, 1994 Rose Bowl and 1995 Aloha Bowl while Moses was on staff. Five Bruin backs coached by Moses were selected in the NFL draft (Maury Toy, Kevin Smith, Williams, Abdul-Jabbar and Hicks).

Before moving to UCLA, he was the wide receivers coach at New Mexico in 1989. His top receiver that season, Terance Mathis, set NCAA career records for receptions and receiving yardage. Mathis went on to play 13 seasons in the NFL. From 1986-88, Moses coached at San Diego State. During his time there, Paul Hewitt led the nation in scoring in 1987 and the Aztecs played in the 1986 Holiday Bowl. In 1984-85, he worked for two seasons at Rutgers. Prior to that, Moses served as the running backs coach at Bowling Green University from 1981-83. BGSU played in the 1982 California Bowl.

Moses was at North Carolina State in 1980, where he worked with the defensive backs. In 1979, he was the running backs coach at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga, CA. Moses began his coaching career in 1978 as a graduate assistant at Cal State Fullerton, working with the defensive backs.

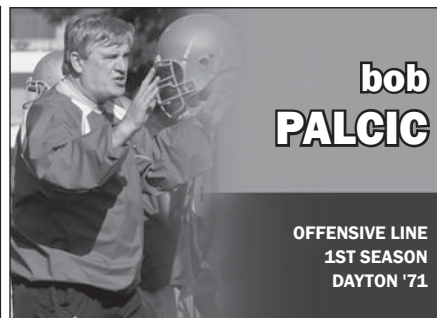

He was a coaching intern with the NFL's Los Angeles Raiders, Seattle Seahawks and Denver Broncos during the summers of 1990, 1993 and 1999, respectively.

Moses was a four-year (1973-74, 1976-77) letterman at Washington, where he started at cornerback his last two seasons. He was a member of the Huskies' 1978 Rose Bowl championship team.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Washington in 1977. He spent some time out of football when he was hired by the FBI to train as an agent at Quantico, Virginia. Moses played football and basketball at San Dimas (CA) High

OFFENSIVE LINE
DAYTON '71

Bob Palcic, who spent the last two seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of Wisconsin after 12 years in the National Football League, joined the UCLA coaching staff in January of 2008.

Palcic brings 38 years of experience to Westwood, where he also coached in 1993. UCLA won the Pacific-10 championship that season and played in the 1994 Rose Bowl. The Bruin offensive line featured seniors Vaughn Parker and Craig Novitsky, both of whom earned All-America honors and played in the NFL. It also included sophomores Jonathan Ogden, 1995 Outland Trophy winner and NFL All-Pro, and Mike Flanagan, who has been an NFL star for over a decade. Neuheisel was an assistant on that Bruin staff.

In 2007, Wisconsin finished 9-4 overall and played in the Outback Bowl. Led by the offensive line, the Badgers averaged 201.5 yards on the ground during the regular season (22nd in the NCAA). Center Marcus Coleman was a first-team All-Big 10 selection by the media, guard Kraig Urbik was a consensus second-team choice and tackle Gabe Carimi earned second-team Freshman All-America acclaim.

In 2006, he coached Outland Trophy winner and consensus All-America left tackle Joe Thomas at Wisconsin, which won 12 of 13 games. Thomas was the No. 3 pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Palcic went to Wisconsin from the NFL's New Orleans Saints, where he coached tight ends from 2000-05. His previous professional stops included coaching offensive line for the Cleveland Browns (1999), tutoring the tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1997-98) and coaching the offensive line for the Atlanta Falcons (1994-96).

Palcic went to the Falcons after spending 19 of the previous 21 seasons coaching offensive linemen at seven different universities, including Wisconsin. He coached the 1993 UCLA offensive line that matched up against the Badgers in the 1994 Rose Bowl. Palcic tutored the Southern California offensive line in 1992 and helped the Trojans to a Freedom Bowl appearance. He was offensive line coach at Ohio State from 1986-91, a period during which the Buckeyes played in two Hall of Fame Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Liberty Bowl.

The University of Arizona's offensive line was under Palcic's direction from 1984-85 (the Wildcats played in the Sun Bowl during that time). A two-year stint (1982-83) with the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts (1983 Grey Cup title) was preceded by a four-year (1978-81) stop as Wisconsin's offensive line coach under head coach Dave McClain.

Palcic was Ball State's offensive line coach in 1976-77 (he went to Wisconsin with McClain, who was Ball State's head coach) and Dayton's linebackers/offensive line coach in 1974-75. He got his college coaching start guiding Ball State's linebackers as a graduate assistant in 1973.

Among the college players Palcic has coached are: current Baltimore Raven All-Pro tackle Jonathan Ogden (No. 4 pick in the 1996 NFL Draft), third-team All-American and NFL veteran (Green Bay and Houston) Mike Flanagan and first-team All-American and 11-year NFL player Vaughn Parker (all of UCLA); All-America tackle Tony Boselli (USC); first-team All-Big Ten offensive linemen Bob Maggs, Jeff Uhlenhake, Joe Staysniak, Jeff Davidson and Alan Kline (all at Ohio State); All-American Ray Snell and 2006 Outland Trophy winner Joe Thomas (Wisconsin).

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Orange County.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Education from Dayton, 1974; At UCLA: First year of second tenure (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: July 2, 1948 in Gowanda, N.Y. Family: Bob and his wife Theresa, have three children: Joe (currently the defensive coordinator at Indiana); Amy (Director of Communications for the Cleveland Browns) and Monica, who is married to New Orleans Saints LB Mark Simoneau.

RUTENBERG

GRADUATE ASSISTANT
2ND SEASON
CORNELL '03

DeWayne Walker is in his third season as UCLA's defensive coordinator. In addition, he served as UCLA's interim head coach for the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl game. Walker, who excelled at coaching defense for three different organizations in the National Football League prior to coming to UCLA, has established himself as one of the top defensive coordinators in the collegiate game.

In 2007, the Bruin defense once again found itself listed among the national leaders in several categories. UCLA ranked 14th in rushing defense (109.2 yards per game), 29th in total defense (343.23 yards), 29th in scoring defense (22.3 points), and 32nd in pass efficiency defense (115.26). The Bruins also ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77), third in third down conversion defense (29.1%), tied for 15th in sacks per game average (3.0) and tied for 17th in fumbles caused (14). Defensive backs Trey Brown (tied for first, 1.77/g) and Alterraun Verner (tied for 11th, 1.46/g) ranked among the nation's best in the passes defended category, while defensive end Bruce Davis ranked tied for ninth in the nation in sacks per game (.92).

In 2006, the Bruins were among the national leaders in rushing defense (tied for ninth in the NCAA and tied for first in the Pac-10 with 91.08 yards per game) and total defense (33rd nationally at 304.83) and allowed almost half as many touchdowns (27) as the previous year (48). UCLA allowed 91.1 yards per game, 2.83 yards per rush and just nine touchdowns on the ground, the first time since 1985 that the Bruins had allowed fewer yards per game on the ground. The Bruin defense also ranked fifth nationally in third-down conversion defense (28.4%, 50 of 176).

Walker joined the Bruins from the Washington Redskins, where he had coached the secondary, specifically the cornerbacks, the previous two seasons (2004-05) under head coach Joe Gibbs and highly-respected defensive coordinator Gregg Williams. In 2005, the Redskins won 10 of 16 regular-season games, including their final five straight, to earn a wild-card berth in the playoffs. Washington defeated Tampa Bay in Florida, before dropping a 20-10 decision to the NFC champion Seattle Seahawks on the road.

The Redskins ranked No. 1 among the NFL's 32 teams in lowest opponent passing percentage (54.4%). In addition, they also ranked second (tied) in fewest touchdown passes allowed (15), 10th in pass defense (192.6 yards) and 14th (tied) in interceptions (16). Walker played a key role in the development of rookie cornerback Carlos Rogers and the continued fine play of Shawn Springs. In 2004, his first year in Washington, Springs became the first cornerback in NFL history to lead his team in sacks (five) and interceptions (six) in the same season and finished the year with 69 tackles. He also tutored veterans Walt Harris and Fred Smoot in that first year.

Walker spent the previous two seasons (2002-03) as secondary coach of the New York Giants under coordinator Johnnie Lynn, a former Bruin. Prior to joining the Giants, Walker spent the 2001 season as associate head coach/secondary coach at USC under Pete Carroll and was the first staff member hired by Carroll. That season, the Trojans ranked seventh nationally with 19 interceptions and also ranked 16th nationally in pass defense (179.2 yards) and 16th (tied) in fewest touchdown passes allowed (11).

He also served as secondary coach of the New England Patriots for three seasons, the first two (1998 and 1999) under Carroll and the third (2000) under Bill Belichick. During his tenure with the Patriots, defensive backs Ty Law and Lawyer Milloy each earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Walker began his coaching career at Mt. San Antonio College (1988-92), serving as secondary coach for four seasons before becoming defensive coordinator in 1992. He then gained valuable experience by coaching at Utah State (1993), BYU (1994), Oklahoma State (1995) and California (1996-1997) before moving to the Patriots. At Cal, he tutored future NFL performers Kato Serwanga and Marquis Smith.

He also participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship program, working with the San Francisco 49ers in 1996 and the Patriots in 1997. A former cornerback himself, Walker played three seasons professionally - one in the CFL (Edmonton Eskimos in 1982) and two in the USFL (Oakland Invaders in 1984 and Arizona Outlaws in 1985). In college, he was a two-year starter at Minnesota (1980-81) after playing at Pasadena City College for two years. Walker earned his bachelor's degree from Regents College.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles, San Gabriel Valley.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Arts from Regents College in Albany, NY, 1992 (attended Minnesota, 1980-82); At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in January of 2006); Born: December 3, 1960; Family: DeWayne and his wife, Zan, have two daughters (Keshia and Kendra) and one son (Kevan).

Mike Rutenberg is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant with the Bruins and assists defensive coordinator DeWayne Walker while he works towards a Masters Degree in Education.

Rutenberg also works with the secondary, assisting Walker and Tim Hauck. Rutenberg is in charge of playbook administration, as well as opponent breakdown, and self scout breakdown of the Bruins. He also assists with the defensive game plan each week and will run the scout team offense during practice. Last season, he worked with a unit that ranked 29th nationally in total defense and helped recruit a Top 10 class to Westwood this past February.

Prior to coming to Westwood, Rutenberg served as the assistant to Washington Redskins head coach Joe Gibbs, dealing with the day-to-day football operations and administrative coaching assignments including daily football schedule and calendar, practice schedules and meeting presentations. He also worked with Coach Gibbs on team and opponent statistical research projects. Rutenberg also served as a player personnel intern and assistant for the Redskins where he maintained the pro and college computer scouting systems and pro and college draft boards. He also helped organize in-season free agent workouts and evaluated Street Free Agent Film.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Hospitality Management with a concentration in Law from Cornell University, 2003; At UCLA: Second year on staff as coach, third year overall; Born: October 29, 1981.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT
UCLA '07

Phil Rauscher is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach. This season, he will assist offensive coordinator Norm Chow and also work with the tight ends. His duties will include breaking down opponents' game video, aiding the coaches with game preparation and directing the defensive scout team.

Rauscher, who graduated from UCLA in June of 2007 with a degree in History, served as an intern last season, working with the offensive coaches and helping recruit a Top 10 class to Westwood this past February. In 2006, he served as an undergraduate assistant coach, working with the offensive line. That year, UCLA upset USC 13-9.

He entered UCLA in the Fall of 2003 and was a member of the football team for three seasons as both an offensive and defensive lineman before becoming an undergraduate student coach.

Rauscher played several positions, including linebacker, defensive end, offensive line and running back at LaCosta (CA) Canyon High School, earning various honors. He graduated from LaCosta Canyon in 2003.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 2007; At UCLA: Third year on staff, first as a graduate assistant coach; Born: June 2, 1985 in Fontana, CA; Family: Phil is the son of Ken and Debbie Rauscher and he has one brother, Glenn, who is a redshirt freshman tight end for the Bruins.

ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING
SECOND YEAR
SACRAMENTO STATE '95

Angus McClure is in his second season as a member of the Bruin staff and his first in an administrative position. This year, he is serving as the Director of On-Campus Recruiting for football. He coached the Bruin tight ends in 2007.

In his new position, McClure's duties include recruiting administration and organization; managing all official and unofficial visits; tracking all recruiting paperwork, including transcripts, serving as liaison to college All-Star game representatives; liaison with pro scouts; and other assignments from the head coach.

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator on Turner Gill's staff at the University of Buffalo during the 2006 season. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other member of the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks earned second-team All-MAC honors in 2006 and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American by The Sport-ing News.

McClure spent the two previous seasons (2004-2005) as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at the University of Nebraska. McClure assisted with the offensive line, coaching the offensive tackles, as well as serving in several special teams roles. During that time, Nebraska defeated Michigan in the Alamo Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure played a major role in record-breaking offenses at Sacramento State University, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach from 1997-2003. During his tenure at Sacramento State, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the New England Patriots, has collected three Super Bowl rings since moving to the NFL. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sacramento State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002).

In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada in Reno. He helped the Wolfpack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. That year, Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yard per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing.

From the winter of 1995 to the spring of 1996, he served as offensive line / run game coordinator at American River College. McClure helped create the offensive play-book and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

In addition, McClure has served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Buffalo Bills (2007, 2006), San Francisco 49ers (2002, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1997, 1996), Seattle Seahawks (1998) and San Diego Chargers (1997).

A graduate of Sacramento State, where he played football from 1987-91, McClure also served as a member of the faculty there from 1997-2004. He was a member of the 1988 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: Second year/first in administration (joined the staff in June of 2007); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish (9) and Malcolm (4).

DIRECTOR OF

Darren Witcher joined the UCLA football program in May of 2008 as Director of Football Operations. His duties include pre-season, in-season and bowl game planning; serving as liaison to various departments within athletics; overseeing the football budget; serving as camps co-director; and other assignments from the head coach.

Witcher, a longtime high school assistant football coach in the state of Washington, had worked in the Seattle area for over 18 years as a project manager for aerospace giant Boeing prior to coming to UCLA. A former student-athlete at the University of Washington, Witcher kept his love of football alive while serving as an assistant coach at Seattle area high schools (Franklin, Garfield and Rainier Beach).

Witcher coached for the previous nine seasons at Rainier Beach High and also headed up the school's National Football Foundation-sponsored "Play It Smart" program. "Play It Smart" seeks to transform the student-athlete's passion for their sport and dedication to their team into a force for greater good in their lives through a combination of academic assistance, mentoring and community service.

Witcher played defensive back at the University of Washington for coach Don James during the 1979-82 seasons. The Huskies posted an overall record of 39-9 and appeared in four straight bowls in that stretch, including the 1981 and 1982 Rose Bowl games. He suffered a career-ending knee injury as a senior.

PERSONAL — Education: Fulfilled degree requirements from Washington, 1984 (Sociology), Master's Certificate in Project Management from George Washington, 2001; At UCLA: First year in current position, started May 2008; Born: December 21, 1960 in Philadelphia, PA; Family: Darren and his wife, Grace, have three girls, Aysia, Kaysa and Kiara.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF

Steven Radicevic (formerly Steven Urrutia) is in his first season as assistant director of football operations. He works for director of operations Darren Witcher and director of on-campus recruiting Angus McClure. His duties include serving as a recruiting liaison, helping coordinate official and unofficial visits, assisting with day-to-day team operations and coordinating camps and clinics.

In 2007, he worked as an undergraduate coach after having his playing career end due to a back injury. He assisted the defense, working with the line, coached the scout team offensive line and also directed offensive scout team meetings. He also helped organize recruiting efforts in Florida, Texas, Louisiana and Southern California.

Radicevic redshirted in 2006, practicing on the defensive line. He transferred to UCLA in January of 2006 from UC Davis, where he played offensive tackle for two (2003 and 2004) seasons and did not play in 2005 prior to his transfer.

Radicevic grew up in Culver City and attended El Segundo High. As a senior, he earned All-CIF and All-League honors and was his team's co-MVP. He also played basketball and served as captain in both sports. As a junior, he helped lead El Segundo to a record of 27-4, as well as the CIF finals and the second round of the State tournament.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Psychology from UCLA, Dec. 2007; At UCLA: First year in current position; Born: February 10, 1985 in Key West, FL; Family: Son of Alexandra Radicevic; has one sister, Stephanie, a sophomore at Arizona.

LINN

UCLA '93

Mike Linn is in the first year of his second tenure as UCLA's athletic performance coach. Linn, who has both collegiate and corporate experience, previously served as the Bruin head strength and conditioning coach from 1999-2002. The 1993 UCLA graduate was a two-year starter along the offensive line on the Bruin football team and a member of two Bruin bowl teams.

In addition to working directly with football, he oversees all operations in UCLA's 15,000-square foot weight room. He is joined by a highly-accredited staff, including assistant coaches Craig Sowers, Karl Jordan, Jon Fussell, Jill Robinson, Wes Long, John Farr and Charlie Stocking.

Linn is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength Coaches Association, as well as a Level One weightlifting coach. A national speaker in his field, he is also a published author in the field of human performance.

Linn rejoins the Bruin program after serving as the Vice President of Performance for Velocity Sports Performance since 2006. While at Velocity Sports Performance, he worked to develop training programs for its 63 franchise locations and over 20,000 athletes nationwide. In addition, Linn supervised the training and professional development for a network of over 700 coaches. Linn was also instrumental in launching several key initiatives with Velocity's national partners Gatorade, Nike and the National Strength and Conditioning Association during his tenure.

From 2005-2006, Linn served as the Director of the Velocity Sports Performance franchise in St. Louis, MO. While at the St. Louis location, he collaborated on the training, injury prevention and rehabilitation of over 500 area athletes. He also directed professional athlete development programs for numerous NFL, MLB, NHL and MLS athletes.

Linn's collegiate experience includes a stint from 2002-2005 as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at St. Louis University. At SLU, he was responsible for all aspects of athletic performance for the over 350 student-athletes at the university that participated in 16 Division I sports.

Mike previously served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at UCLA from 1999-2002. While managing all areas of the strength and conditioning department for over 700 student-athletes, Linn designed and administered weight training, conditioning, agility, plyometric and speed development programs for football and basketball.

Prior to becoming the head of the UCLA program in 1999, he worked with the Olympic sports teams as an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1992-99. Five of his Bruin teams captured national championships during his tenure as an assistant (men's volleyball, men's water polo (2), men's soccer and women's softball). In addition, the women's basketball team won its first Pac-10 Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight.

Linn came to UCLA as a freshman recruit in 1987 after starring as an offensive lineman and track and field performer at Esperanza High School in Orange County, CA. He was named the No. 17 prep lineman in the country by one publication and earned Tacoma News Tribune and Long Beach Press Telegram Best in the West team honors. Linn was also a school record-holder and All-CIF performer in the discus.

The 1993 UCLA graduate was a member of two bowl teams and a starter in two seasons. The Bruins averaged 164 yards on the ground during Linn's starts at right guard, including one of UCLA's all-time best efforts of 358 yards versus Arizona in 1991. He also was a starter for UCLA's stunning upset at No. 2-ranked Washington in the 1990 season. One of the top Bruins in the weight room as a player, Linn set a team-high in the three main lifts -- squat, bench, and clean -- of 1,366 pounds during his junior season. Following the conclusion of his playing days, Mike served as a undergraduate assistant coach during the 1992 season at UCLA.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's of Arts, UCLA, 1993; At UCLA: First year of second tenure (joined staff in February, 2007) - 11th year overall; Born: November 7, 1969; Family: Linn is married to the former Karen Nelson, a UCLA gymnast who was a two-time All-American in the Vault and the 1994 Pac-10 Vault champion. They have two children, Kylie and Ryker.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
ARKANSAS '71

Bob Field is an associate athletic director and has served as a member of UCLA's athletic administration since January of 2001.

Field oversees men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field and women's rowing and serves as an aide to Dan Guerrero in all football matters. He was instrumental in the December coaching search that resulted in the selection of Rick Neuheisel. Field also oversees housing, parking, training table, video services, agent relations and coaches' development.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach with the Bruin football team. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-2000) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers and defensive backs at various times in his career.

Field has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season. Over the years, he tutored some of the top athletes in school history and crafted numerous defenses ranked in the Top 20 in various categories.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator in his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year varsity letterman and two-year starter in the secondary. As a player and coach, Field participated in 20 bowl games, including one Orange, two Sugar, three Cotton, two Fiesta and five Rose Bowls. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5.

PERSONAL — He is married to the former Valerie Kondos, UCLA's current women's gymnastics coach, and has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael.

PERRI

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS
UCLA '84

Tony Perri is in his third year as the Director of Equipment Operations at UCLA and his 24th as a full-time staff member in the equipment room (Feb. 1985). He also worked part-time as a student employee. He is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance, and distribution of equipment for all 24 of UCLA's athletic teams. Perri works primarily with the football and men's basketball squads.

In addition, Perri supervises the student manager program along with five full-time members of the equipment staff - Pete Maglieri, Sean Markus, Phil Hollenbaugh, Ryan Lynch and Scott Whittum - and interns Eddie Valencia and Patricia Witt.

Perri is also responsible for managing an annual equipment budget of over $1.5 million. He and his staff are in charge of coordinating the equipment and apparel needs for the football program's practices, games and travel.

Perri is a certified member of AEMA and was the AEMA District Equipment Manager of the Year in 1999. A former Bruin baseball player (1980-83) who earned his BA in 1984, Perri and his wife Lenora have two children, Bryan and Laureen.

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Ken Norris is in his 20th year as UCLA's Director of Video Operations. Norris and his staff are responsible for filming the practices and games of the UCLA football team. They work with the coaching staff and provide them with specialized footage or "cut-ups" of the team and opponents for coaching, scouting, and game-planning purposes.

Ken "The Godfather" Norris is considered one of the most innovative and respected minds in his profession and was named National Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers in the Collegiate Sports Video Association. One of Norris' latest projects has been the development and implementation of the I2 Internet Exchange Program in the Pacific-10 Conference. This venture now allows the Conference's 10 football programs to exchange coaching films through the internet, bypassing the use of videotape. This rapid exchange of film means teams can now acquire the opposition's films more quickly, providing coaches with valuable additional time to scout and prepare for upcoming games. Norris is currently assisting other sports and other athletic conferences in implementing the I2 program in their respective sports.

Norris and his staff are also responsible for filming instructional and highlight footage for almost every UCLA Athletic program. They create many of the teams' year-end highlight films. He is assisted by full-time staff members Eric Kowal and Tony Gentile and students Ethan Tussey, Phil Izdebzki, Eddie Kim, David Godoy, Forrest Lockwood and Robert Ledo.

Norris began his career working for the NFL's Los Angeles Rams at age 13 splicing and editing 16mm film. Norris came to UCLA in 1989, replacing legendary cinematographer Stan Troutman after his retirement from the university.

MITCHELL

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR - MARKETING & NEW REVENUES
25TH YEAR

Scott Mitchell oversees the UCLA Marketing Department, which consists of four full-time staff members Jana Suko, Ryan Eklund, Mike Iwamasa and Christi Phillips, 10 undergraduate students and 20 telemarketing representatives.

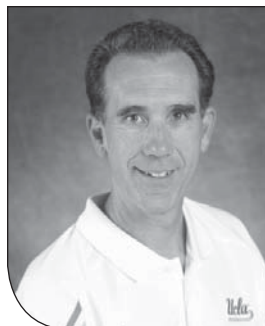

Mitchell's areas of responsibility include UCLA ticket sales, alternative revenue generation, brand marketing, advertising and promotion for 24 Bruin sports teams, website overview, liaison with licensing and apparel, liaison with spirit support and the band, and oversight for UCLA's community relations programs "I'm Going To College", "Athletics for Youth", "Adopt A Classroom", and "Read To Succeed." Both football and men's basketball have enjoyed increases in revenue and season ticket sales in each of the last four seasons. In 2007, UCLA set a record by averaging 76,379 fans during the football season.

Mitchell was the founder of the "I'm Going To College" program, the nation's largest collegiate community outreach program, which now impacts 50,000 youngsters annually. He was the creator of the "Supershot," the student promotion that runs at halftime of every UCLA basketball game. Mitchell is responsible for the tagline, "Champions Made Here," which UCLA is building into a multi-year branding campaign.

Mitchell is the Chair of Marketing for NCAA Football's Promotions and Brand Marketing Committee. He has been a member of the five-person Pac-10 Properties Board since its inception. He has served in a number of leadership and administrative roles on behalf of UCLA and the Pac-10 Conference over the past 20 years.

Mitchell, a 1981 graduate of the University of Utah and a former student-athlete (baseball), is the father of three children, Windy, Courtney and Kelsey.

RUDD

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE
HEAD FOOTBALL TRAINER
SIXTH YEAR
CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE '75

Dale Rudd, who has more than 25 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, is in the sixth year of his second stint as UCLA's Director of Sports Medicine. He oversees the operation of UCLA's men's and women's coed training room and is also serving as the head football athletic trainer this season.

Rudd leads a center that offers Bruin athletes a comprehensive program entailing injury prevention; recognition, evaluation and management of injuries; rehabilitation and reconditioning following injury or surgery; and education and counseling. In addition, the staff and facilities of the UCLA Medical Center, one of the world's best medical teaching facilities, are heavily utilized in the treatment of the student-athletes.

In Spring of 2003, the athletic training staff moved into a new state-of-the-art facility as part of the Acosta Center project.

Rudd returned to UCLA in May of 2003 from the University of California, where he served as head athletic trainer for one year. Prior to that, he was an athletic trainer and rehabilitation specialist with El Dorado Physical Therapy in El Dorado Hills, CA for a year. He also served as head athletic trainer at Stanford from 1997-2001, head athletic trainer at UCLA from 1990-97 and head athletic trainer at Pepperdine from 1988-90.

In addition, Rudd has had management positions on athletic training staffs at Purdue (1985-88), Cal State Northridge (1982-85), UNLV (1978-82) and U.S. International (1977-78).

He served on the NATA Appropriate Medical Coverage Task Force, and he is past chair of the Pac-10 Athletic Trainer Committee (1994-96) and past co-chair of the Pac-10 Student-Athlete Health Care Conference (1999).

The Athletic Training and Rehabilitation Center is a coed facility staffed by Certified Athletic Trainers, including Steve Agee, Grace Golden, Lorita Granger, Tandice Hawkey, Kristin Lage, Laef Morris, Carrie Rubertino, Tony Spino and Anthony Venute. They are assisted by an intern and 30 student athletic trainers.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's (Magna Cum Laude) from Cal State Northridge, 1976; Master's of Science in Exercise and Sport Science from Arizona, 1977; At UCLA: Sixth year (named head trainer in May of 2003; previously UCLA's head trainer for seven years - June 1990 - Spring 1997); Born: February 4, 1953 in Tucson, AZ; Family: Wife, Stacie; Daughter, Caitlin.

THE 306-HORSEPOWER LEXUS IS 350

It won't take long to expose the inadequacy of the English language. There's the heart-pounding thrill of 306 horses* propelling you from 0 to 60 in an exhilarating 5.3 seconds.*†‡ The surefooted grip on the road as the world is changed into a blur of light and texture. And then the overwhelming certainty that there are simply no words to describe this moment. YOUR LEXUS DEALER. PURSUING PERFECTION.
