THE UCLA EXPERIENCE

UCLA - The Complete Package

“UCLA HAS THE MOST COMPLETE ATHLETIC PROGRAM IN THE COUNTRY”

➤ Sports Illustrated On Campus (Apr. '05)

THE NATION'S NO. 1 COMBINED ACADEMIC, SOCIAL AND ATHLETIC PROGRAM

✦ Winner of more NCAA championships than any other school; one of the nation's top public universities; only a few miles from the ocean.

AN OUTSTANDING HEAD COACH

✦ Rick Neuheisel has won over 68 per cent of his games in eight years as a head coach. He has earned seven bowl bids and his teams have finished in the Top 10 on three occasions. He has also coached in the National Football League.

TALENTED AND EXPERIENCED COACHING STAFF

✦ Two of the top coordinators in the college game highlight an experienced staff with diverse backgrounds. Seven of the assistants have coached in the NFL and the other two played on Sundays. The goal of the staff is to develop greatness in UCLA's student-athletes, both on and off the field.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

✦ Learning specialist, tutoring aid, counseling and general assistance which is second to none.

THE BRUIN FAMILY

✦ UCLA provides a prosperous outlook for the future with internships, workshop mentoring programs and access to one of the world's meccas of business, entertainment, media and networking.

MEDIA RICH

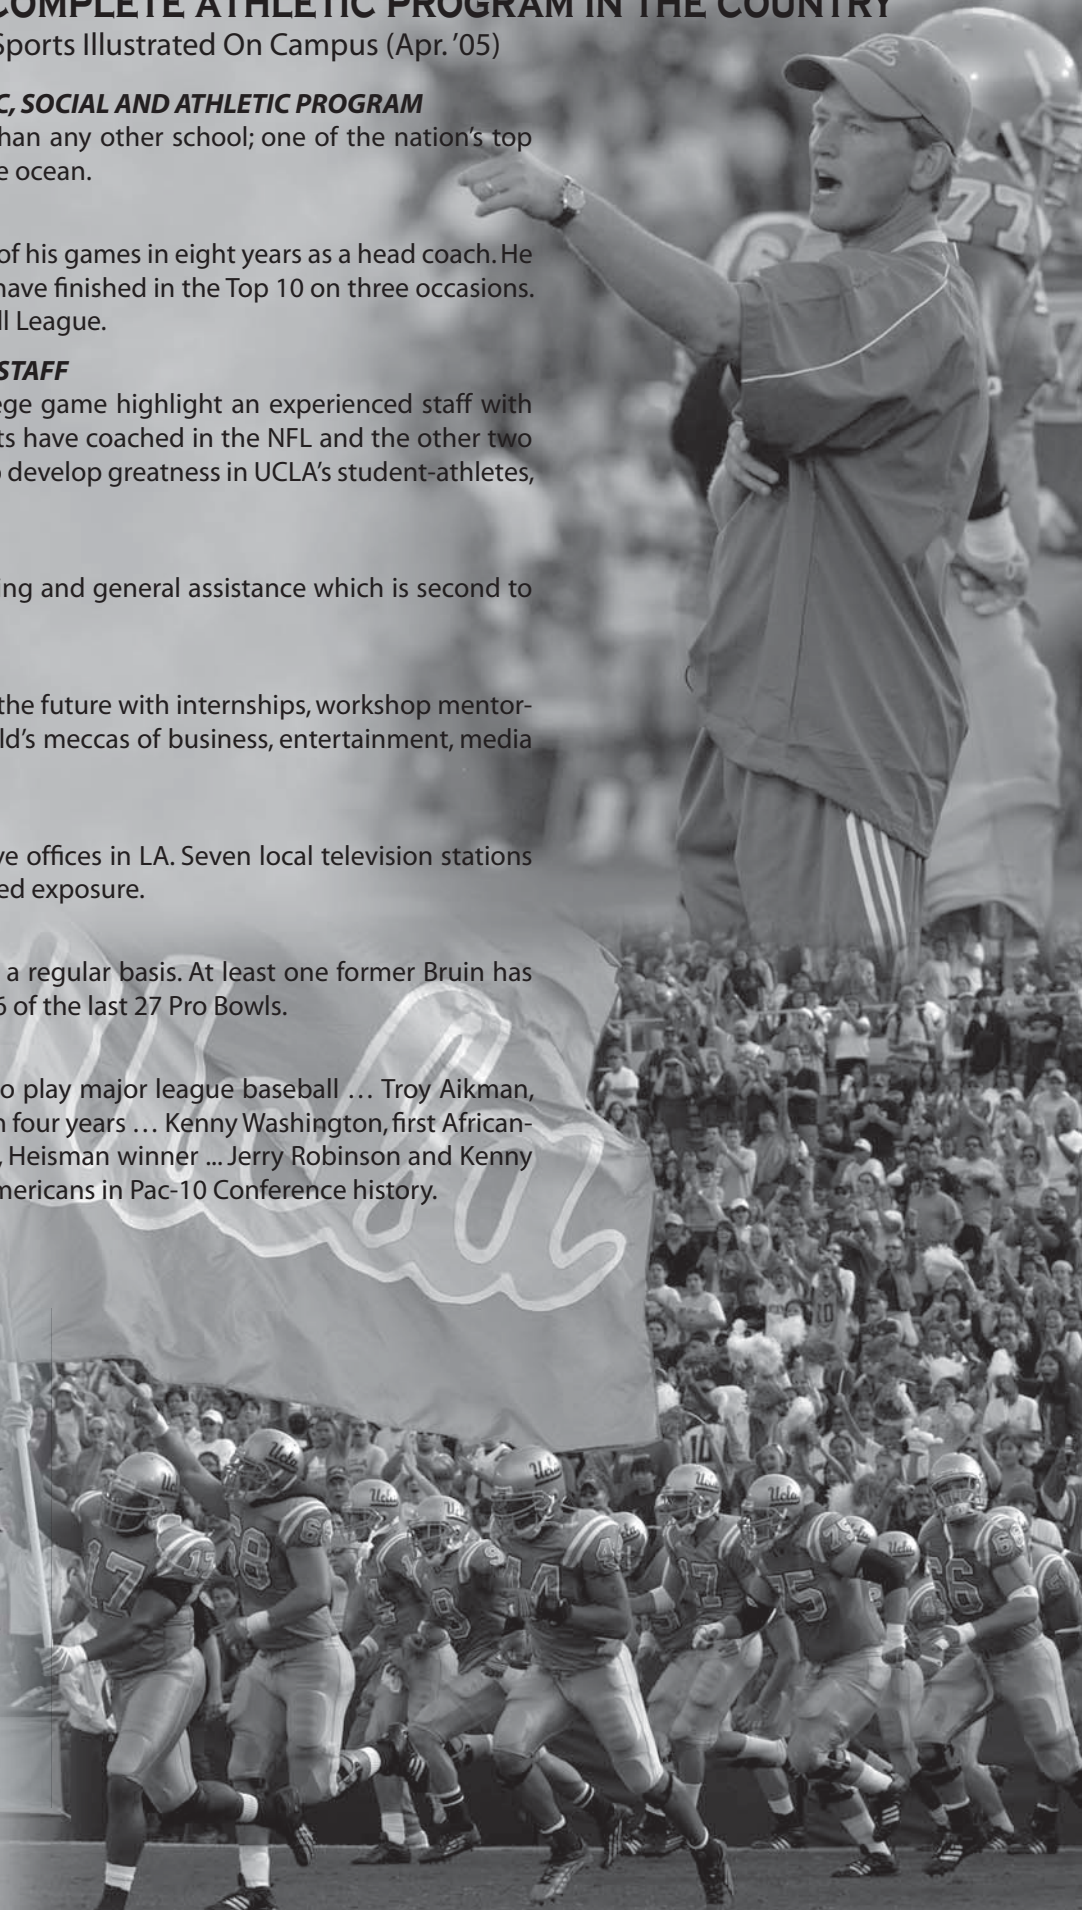

✦ USA Today, Fox Sports Net and ESPN have offices in LA. Seven local television stations and 13 area newspapers provide unparalleled exposure.

THE NEXT STEP

✦ Over 30 Bruins populate NFL rosters on a regular basis. At least one former Bruin has been in 27 of the last 29 Super Bowls and 26 of the last 27 Pro Bowls.

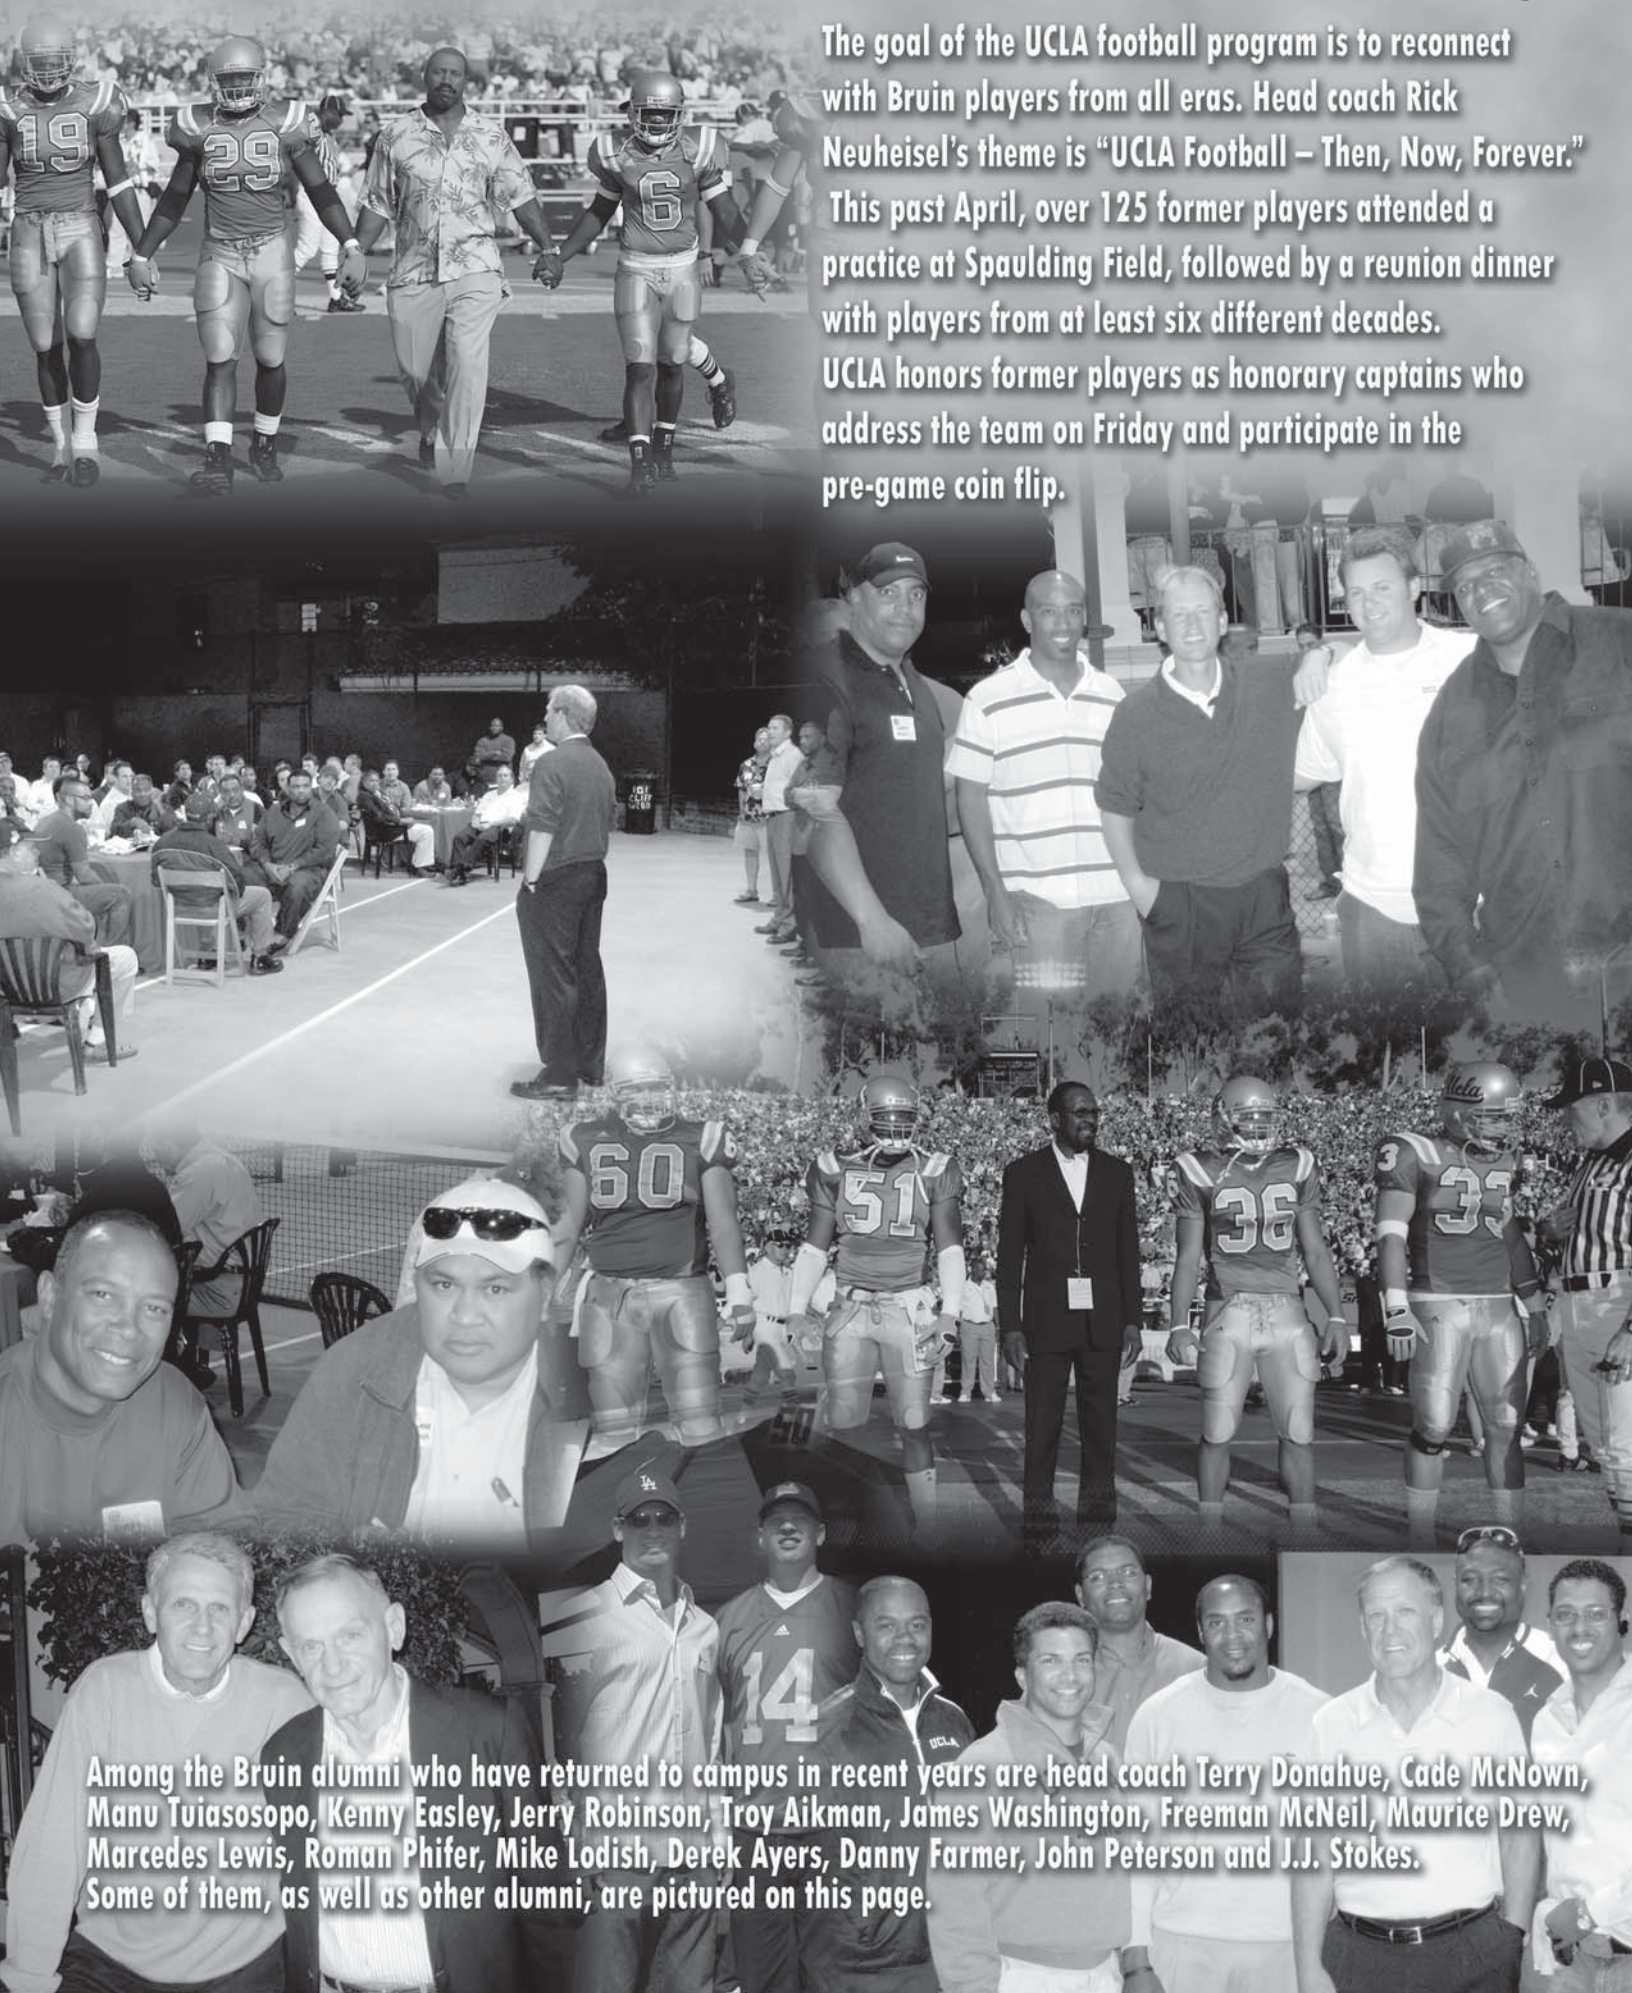

LEADING THE WAY

✦ Jackie Robinson, first African-American to play major league baseball ... Troy Aikman, first quarterback to win three Super Bowls in four years ... Kenny Washington, first African-American to play in the NFL ... Gary Beban, Heisman winner ... Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley, the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 Conference history.

The Bruin Family

The goal of the UCLA football program is to reconnect with Bruin players from all eras. Head coach Rick Neuheisel's theme is "UCLA Football – Then, Now, Forever." This past April, over 125 former players attended a practice at Spaulding Field, followed by a reunion dinner with players from at least six different decades. UCLA honors former players as honorary captains who address the team on Friday and participate in the pre-game coin flip.

Among the Bruin alumni who have returned to campus in recent years are head coach Terry Donahue, Cade McNown, Manu Tuiasosopo, Kenny Easley, Jerry Robinson, Troy Aikman, James Washington, Freeman McNeil, Maurice Drew, Mercedes Lewis, Roman Phifer, Mike Lodish, Derek Ayers, Danny Farmer, John Peterson and J.J. Stokes. Some of them, as well as other alumni, are pictured on this page.

UCLA in the Bowls

When it comes to winning bowl games, UCLA is one of the most successful programs in the nation. Since 1982, no Pac-10 school and only nine programs in the nation have won more bowl games than UCLA.

The Bruins have won 11 of their last 19 bowl appearances and their eight straight wins (from 1982-91) were one shy of the national record.

The 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl was UCLA's 29th bowl appearance.

On January 2, 1989, UCLA set an NCAA record for bowl victories in consecutive seasons by beating Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. That was UCLA's seventh bowl triumph in as many seasons. Those UCLA post-season victories included the 1983, '84 and '86 Rose Bowls, the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, the 1986 Freedom Bowl, and the 1987 Aloha Bowl.

Two-Sport Stars

Numerous Bruins have excelled in other sports aside from football while playing at UCLA

Below are a few of those multi-sport stars.

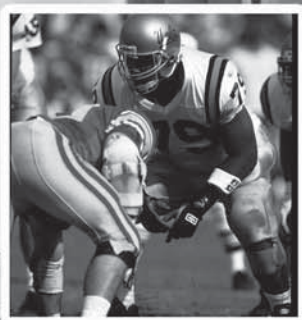

Jonathan Ogden, one of the greatest left tackles in NFL history with the Baltimore Ravens, won the 1996 NCAA Indoor shot put crown and was a 4-time NCAA All-American in the throws.

JONATHAN OGDEN

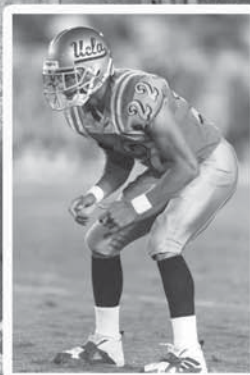

JAMES OWENS

Running back James Owens competed in the 1976 Olympic Games in the high hurdles.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Jackie Robinson, the first African-American to play in major league baseball, began UCLA's multiple sport tradition, starring in football, basketball, track and field and baseball.

JOE HUNTER

Defensive back Joe Hunter was a sprinter for the Bruin track & field team.

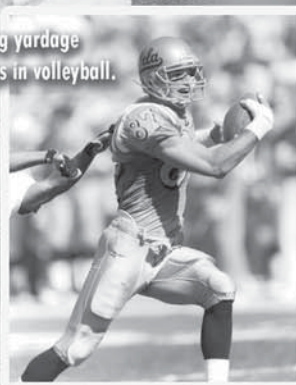

JARRAD PAGE

Safety Jarrod Page also played baseball, and was drafted by the NFL and MLB.

DANNY FARMER

Danny Farmer, UCLA's career receiving yardage leader, won two NCAA Championships in volleyball.

UCLA in the NFL

Year in and year out, UCLA is well represented in the National Football League.

In addition to being among the leaders in schools that produce NFL players, UCLA is also at the forefront in the area of former players and coaches working in the NFL.

UCLA NFL Pro Combine

Every March, the UCLA football staff hosts UCLA's "Pro Day" - where NFL scouts and team representatives come to see draft-eligible athletes participate in combine tests and drills.

The NFL personnel are greeted by Head Football Coach Rick Neuheisel and Head Athletic Performance Coach Mike Linn. Various other UCLA staff members, associated with football, are available throughout the day to assist.

On the first day of "Pro Day," players are tested on their strength by how many times they can bench press 225 lbs. The second day of "Pro Day" is when the majority of the testing occurs, beginning with height and weight measurements, wing span and hand spread measurements, vertical jump and standing long jump, the 40-yard dash, pro shuttle, "L" drill, and long shuttle, followed by individual workouts within each position group.

PRIDE & TRADITION

Academic and Student Services

Mission Statement

"Student-Athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency"

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program includes academic counseling, provides academic and student support services, and features student-athlete development programs that motivate students to reach their full potential academically and personally. We are committed to assisting student-athletes in their transition to the university setting, earning their UCLA degree, and developing the skills and confidence to be champions in life.

Academic and Student Services

Community of Learners Academic Program

The Community of Learners (COL) is a year-long academic support program for incoming student-athletes, which provides resources, guidance, and leadership training. Our community is made up of college counselors, UCLA professors, mentors, former Bruins, and support staff.

COL meets twice a week to offer an interactive environment that teaches life-long learning habits of setting and meeting daily academic objectives, utilizing university resources and applying proactive learning approaches. Our COL team also conducts intense course reviews, offers writing tutoring, as well as motivates and inspires students.

Our COL program challenges students with brain teasers, invites a variety of guest speakers, and offers quarterly professor mixers and leadership events. We emphasize goal setting and teamwork to foster independent learners and future leaders.

Results

- ♦ Fifteen of our 20 2006-07 COL students earned spots on the Fall '06 Director's Honor Roll; all 11 2007-08 COL students earned spots on the Fall '07 Director's Honor Roll
- ♦ Highest cumulative GPA for a freshmen football class in recent history for two consecutive years
- ♦ Academically savvy class who regularly visit professors, and seek out tutors and mentors as part of their learning process

COL Students Share Their Goals:

- ♦ "I want to succeed and optimize my learning responsibilities."
- ♦ "Stay in touch with my goals on a day-to-day basis so I can know where I am in my progress."
- ♦ "Work as hard as I can and put in the extra hours to achieve these goals."
- ♦ "Manage my time wisely and plan it all out."
- ♦ "Staying focused and not letting the little things get to me."
- ♦ "Work hard and stay determined... {goals are a} stepping stone to my future success."
- ♦ "I want to graduate with honors; it will prepare me for life after college."

COL Projects and Events

- ♦ Game night and Etiquette Night events connect students and UCLA professors.
- ♦ Students participate in community service.
- ♦ Students share leadership presentations to faculty mentors.

This is Los Angeles

The city of Los Angeles is internationally recognized as America's leader in the entertainment and communications industries as well as tourism and recreation. It also is one of the nation's leaders in high technology, finance, law and medicine.

Los Angeles is one of the top high-tech centers in the U.S. with companies in computer and data processing, electronics and medical technology. In the motion picture, television, communications and advertising industries, Los Angeles sets the standard.

The Southern California sports market includes 10 major professional teams: baseball's Dodgers and Angels, basketball's Lakers, Clippers and Sparks, hockey's Kings and Mighty Ducks, soccer's Galaxy and Chivas USA and football's Avengers. Los Angeles also has hosted many major sporting events, including the Olympic Games, Super Bowl and World Cup '94 and '99.

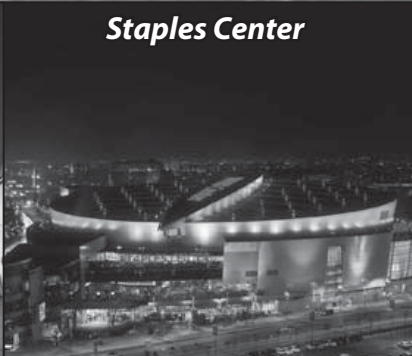

Los Angeles' recreation areas are unparalleled and internationally renowned — a perfect combination of climate and opportunity. Mountains, deserts, lakes and stunning beaches are just a short drive from UCLA's campus. In addition, Southern California is the home of several world-famous tourist attractions.

SUNSET RECREATION CENTER

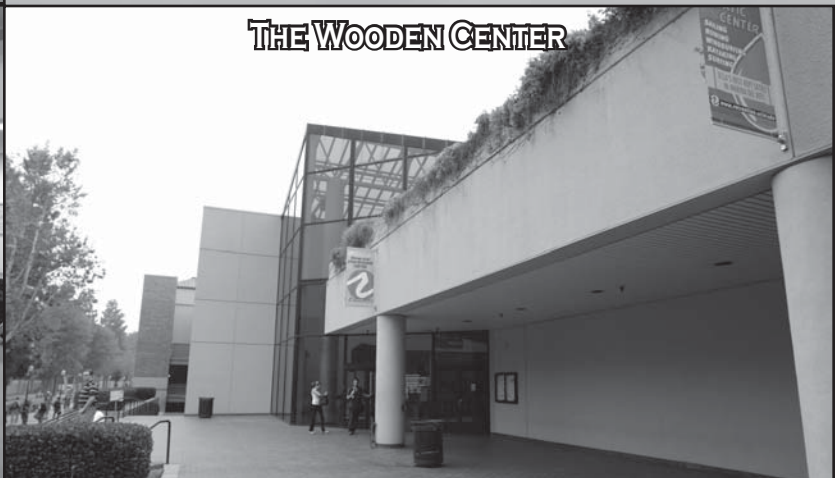

The Sunset Canyon Recreation Center pool offers a peaceful retreat for students where sun bathers are always welcome. Sunset Rec also offers tennis and basketball courts.

The Wooden Center was remodeled in the summer of 2005, adding an increased number of cardiovascular workout options, flat screen televisions, new weightlifting machines and increased workout space. UCLA recreation also has rock climbing, swimming and a multitude of other sporting and exercise activities to keep every student busy.

The Acosta Sports Training Center

UCLA student-athletes now have the use of the two-story Acosta Sports Training & Conditioning Center, which is home for Sports Medicine, Athletic Training and Rehabilitation, Athletic Performance Center, Varsity Locker rooms, and The Bud Knapp Football Center.

This state-of-the-art facility provides UCLA student-athletes and coaches all of the advantages needed to maximize athletic performance.

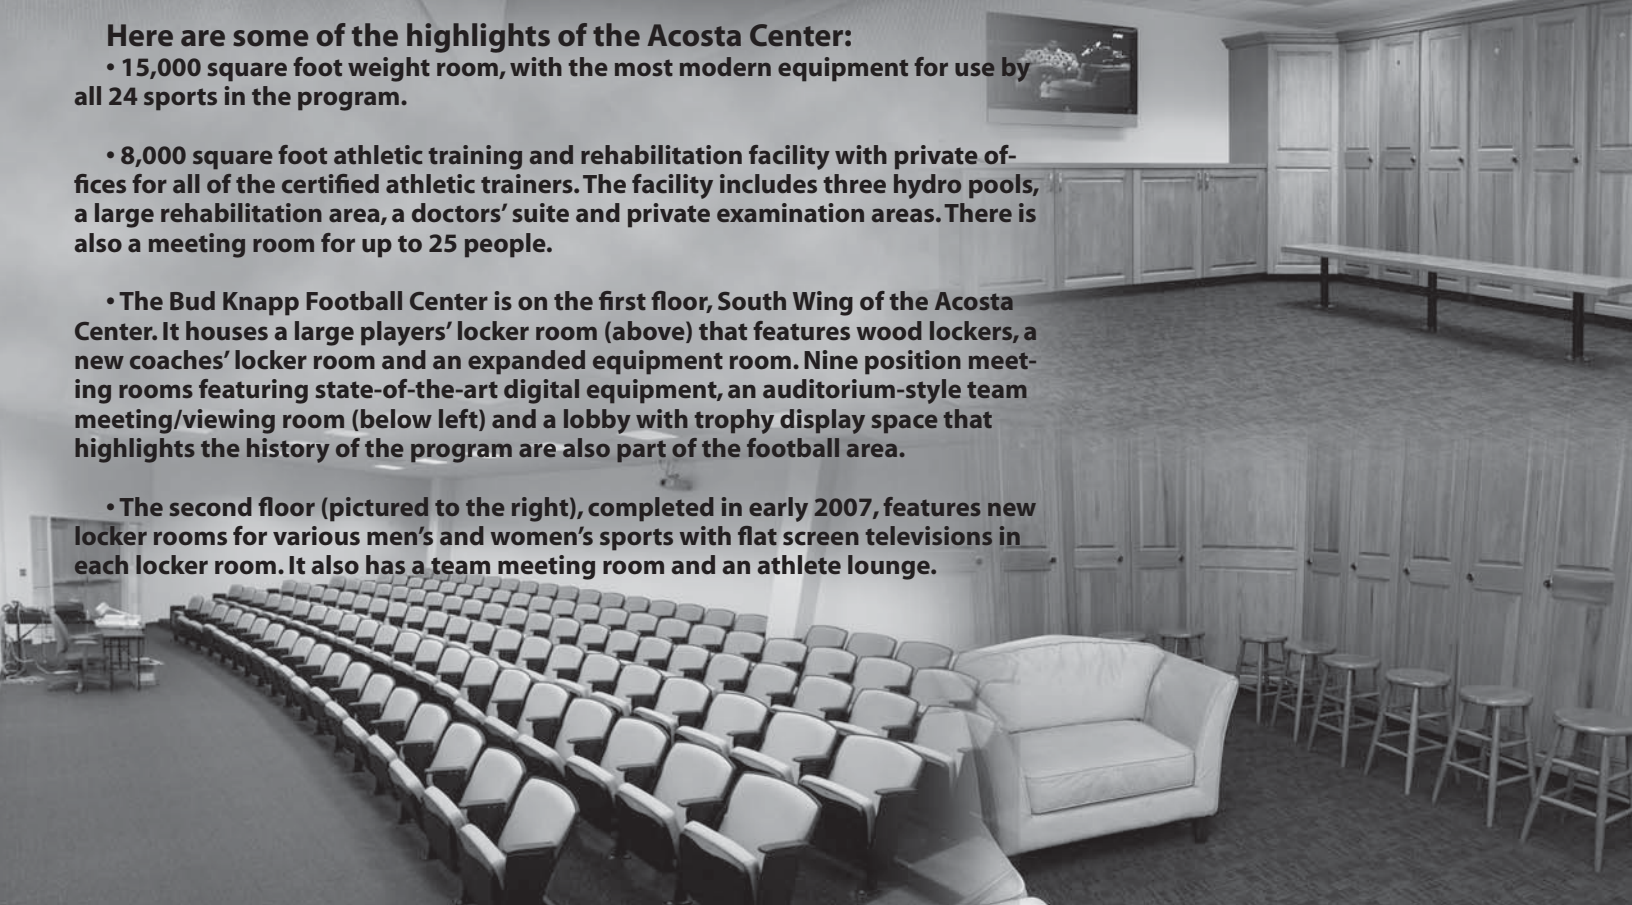

Here are some of the highlights of the Acosta Center:

- 15,000 square foot weight room, with the most modern equipment for use by all 24 sports in the program.

- 8,000 square foot athletic training and rehabilitation facility with private offices for all of the certified athletic trainers. The facility includes three hydro pools, a large rehabilitation area, a doctors' suite and private examination areas. There is also a meeting room for up to 25 people.

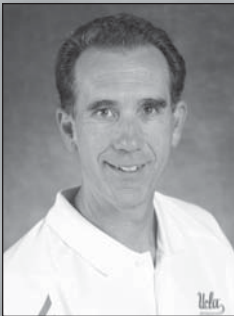

- The Bud Knapp Football Center is on the first floor, South Wing of the Acosta Center. It houses a large players' locker room (above) that features wood lockers, a new coaches' locker room and an expanded equipment room. Nine position meeting rooms featuring state-of-the-art digital equipment, an auditorium-style team meeting/viewing room (below left) and a lobby with trophy display space that highlights the history of the program are also part of the football area.

- The second floor (pictured to the right), completed in early 2007, features new locker rooms for various men's and women's sports with flat screen televisions in each locker room. It also has a team meeting room and an athlete lounge.

The Acosta Sports Training Center

UCLA has always been at the forefront in the area of Sports Medicine and Athletic Training. The Acosta Sports Training Center expansion (left and below) provides even more advances in sports medicine that benefit Bruin student-athletes, including state-of-the-art hydro-therapy pools. The UCLA Medical Center has been named 'Best in the West' for 18 consecutive years.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center expansion was completed in the fall of 2000. The facility has offices for Bruin coaches and staff, an interactive Hall of Fame promoting UCLA's great tradition, plus a modern student-athlete academic computer room and meeting facilities

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that has upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project has increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services and provides a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Here are some of the specifics of the J.D. Morgan Athletic Center expansion that were completed in the fall of 2000.

- Private offices for all administrators and coaches
- New Student-Athlete Academic Learning Center (over double the previous size)
- Increased computer access for athlete utilization
- 18 computers for student-athlete use for class papers and projects, plus an expanded laptop loan program for team road trips
- Reference library for student-athletes' academic projects
- Ability to handle academic needs both during the day and evening hours
- Additional conference rooms for team and group meetings
- Satellite cable sport connections for all offices and conference rooms
- Media facilities for major press conferences and events
- Multi-purpose room for banquets, receptions and large meetings
