

UCLA's BOWL TRADITION

January 2, 1989 — Cotton Bowl

UCLA 17, Arkansas 3

UCLA became the first school in college football history to win seven consecutive bowl games with its 17-3 triumph over Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. In addition, Terry Donahue became the first coach in history to accomplish that feat. No. 9 UCLA built a 14-0 halftime lead on a one-yard run by Mark Estwick and Troy Aikman's one-yard pass to Corwin Anthony. Eighth-ranked Arkansas got on the board late in the third quarter when Kendall Trainor kicked a 49-yard field goal but UCLA's Alfredo Velasco countered with a 32-yard three-pointer with just under six minutes remaining in the game. UCLA held Arkansas to just 42 net yards and four first downs on 36 plays. Tailback Shawn Wills became the first freshman in the history of the Cotton Bowl to rush for over 100 yards (120).

UCLA 6, Illinois 3

No. 22 UCLA increased its record of consecutive bowl victories to eight with a 6-3 victory over Illinois in the John Hancock Bowl. UCLA took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 32-yard Louis Perez field goal, after Michael Williams blocked a punt by Illinois' Forrey Wells. Illinois tied the score in the third quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Chris Richardson. The game remained tied until the fourth quarter, when the Bruin special teams unit came through again, with senior Randy Cole recovering a fumbled punt by Filmel Johnson on the Illini 11-yard line to set up a 19-yard field goal by Perez. The Illini took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the UCLA 29, but were stopped when senior linebacker Stacy Argo intercepted a Jason Verduzco pass and returned it to the UCLA 34. Linebacker Arnold Ale, who made a first-quarter goal-line interception, was named the game's MVP.

UCLA's BOWL TRADITION

January 1, 1994 — Rose Bowl Wisconsin 21, UCLA 16

UCLA was playing in its 10th bowl in 13 seasons but despite a record-setting performance by receiver J.J. Stokes, the 14th-ranked Bruins were unable to pull out a victory against the ninth-ranked Big Ten champion Badgers. Putting the finishing touches on his All-American season, Stokes set Rose Bowl records for receptions (14) and receiving yards (176) in the Bruins' losing effort. Playing only days after a serious bout with the flu which caused him to miss three practices on game week, UCLA quarterback Wayne Cook passed for 288 yards while completing 28 passes, the third-highest total in school history. UCLA trailed most of the game but pulled to within five points with 3:38 remaining in the game. On its next possession, UCLA moved from its own 38-yard line to the Badger 15-yard line as the clock ticked away the final seconds.

December 25, 1995 — Aloha Bowl Kansas 51, UCLA 30

It was Terry Donahue's final game as head coach of the Bruins, but 11th-ranked Kansas dominated it from the start. The Jayhawks, moving the ball on the ground and in the air, built a 17-0 halftime lead en route to the victory. Early in the third quarter, Kansas built the lead to 23 points. The unranked Bruins came back to put numbers on the scoreboard. A Cade McNown touchdown pass to Brad Melsby capped a 10-play, 80 yard drive that tightened the Kansas lead to 23-7. Trailing 37-7 entering the fourth quarter, the Bruins staged a fourth-quarter rally that made things interesting. Behind the passing and scrambling of McNown, the Bruins scored 23 points in the quarter but it wasn't enough to avert defeat.

UCLA's BOWL TRADITION

January 1, 1998 — Cotton Bowl UCLA 29, Texas A&M 23

In their first bowl game under second-year coach Bob Toledo, the fifth-ranked Bruins got off to a sluggish start, falling behind 16-0 in the first half before making a dramatic second half comeback to beat the 20th-ranked Aggies of Texas A&M, 29-23. Trailing 16-0 late in the first half, the Bruins faced a third-and-thirteen at the Aggie 42 with twenty-four seconds to go. McNown hit Farmer over the middle with a twenty yard pass, and two plays later, hit Jim McElroy for a touchdown with two seconds to go before halftime. On UCLA's first possession of the second half, Skip Hicks took a McNown pass 41 yards to cut the deficit to 16-14. Hicks would finish the day with 193 all-purpose yards (140 on the ground and 53 receiving). After an Aggie touchdown, McNown's 20-yard touchdown run made the score 23-21. In the fourth quarter, the Bruins defense stepped it up to give the offense a chance to win. The Aggies had no first downs in the fourth quarter and had minus-one yard of total offense. The Bruins finally took the lead when Ryan Neufeld took a reverse into the end zone. McNown ran in the two-point conversion and it was 29-23. The Bruins stopped the Aggies on their final two possessions and ran out the clock for the win.

January 1, 1999 — Rose Bowl Wisconsin 38, UCLA 31

Despite setting the single team Rose Bowl record for total yards, the sixth-ranked Bruins were unable to overcome Ron Dayne's four touchdowns as No. 9 Wisconsin defeated the Bruins 38-31 in front of 93,872. Both teams started slowly offensively before exploding midway through the first quarter. The teams would shatter the old record of 931 combined yards of offense, combining for 1,035 of offense before the game ended. In the second quarter, UCLA took its only lead of the game (21-14) with back-to-back touchdowns. Freddie Mitchell hit a wide open Durrell Price with a 61-yard bomb on a halfback pass and on UCLA's next possession Danny Farmer slipped behind the defense and caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Cade McNown. Wisconsin scored the final 10 points of the half to take a three-point lead (24-21). The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Wisconsin grabbed a 10-point lead early in the fourth quarter on an interception return and UCLA could only score a field goal in the final period. In his final game, McNown passed for 340 yards, the fourth-highest total in bowl history, and UCLA finished with 538 yards, 418 in the air.

UCLA's BOWL TRADITION

December 29, 2000 — Sun Bowl

Wisconsin 21, UCLA 20

The already hobbled Bruins lost five starters, including quarterback Cory Paus, during the game to injury and suffered a Wells Fargo Sun Bowl loss to Big 10 foe Wisconsin.

Following Wisconsin's opening score, UCLA took it to the Badgers physically, scoring on its first two drives of the contest. Freddie Mitchell and Paus teamed up on a 64-yard scoring play and Chris Griffith followed with a 31-yard field goal to give the Bruins a 10-7 lead. Tailback DeShaun Foster rushed for 100 yards in the first half, including a seven-yard scoring run late in the second quarter which gave the Bruins a 17-7 lead.

However, the Bruins would return from the lockerroom without Paus, who suffered a broken collarbone on the final play of the first half after completing eight of 15 passes for 174 yards and the scoring toss to Mitchell. Also among the missing was starting cornerback Jason Bell, who suffered a broken foot and sprained ankle on the Badgers' first scoring play. Ricky Manning, the other starting corner, was forced from the game with a concussion. By the time the game was over, the Bruins would also be playing without safety Marques Anderson, who sprained an ankle, and middle linebacker Robert Thomas, who aggravated an injury to his foot.

Back-up quarterback Scott McEwan completed four of five passes on the first drive following the intermission, and Griffith kicked a 25-yard field goal which gave UCLA a 20-7 lead. However, as the game wore on, the Badger offense frustrated the depleted Bruin defense. Wisconsin rushed for 123 yards in the second half. On defense, the Badgers crowded the line of scrimmage and held Foster to just seven yards on the ground in the second half.

After Wisconsin closed to 20-14 on a late third quarter scoring pass, the Bruins responded by moving to the Badger 32. On fourth-and-4, a fake field goal attempt was thwarted when Griffith, after taking a handoff from holder Drew Bennett, was stopped 2 yards short of the first down. With Thomas and Anderson now on the sidelines, Wisconsin drove 70 yards in 12 plays for the lead score on its first possession of the fourth quarter. The Bruins could not manage a first down on their subsequent possession and the teams traded punts. On its next opportunity, McEwan moved the Bruins into Badger territory. On the drive, Mitchell grabbed his ninth pass of the day for 180 receiving yards to set a Sun Bowl game record. However, on fourth-and 3 from the Wisconsin 40-yard line, Jon Dubravac could not hang on to a McEwan toss and the ball went over with just over two minutes left on the game clock.

The depleted Bruin defense, which became just the third team to limit running back Michael Bennett to less than 100 yards, responded to the challenge and forced a Wisconsin punt with about one minute remaining in the game. However, on UCLA's first play from scrimmage, what turned out to be McEwan's final pass of the day was tipped, misdirected and intercepted to seal the Bruins' fate.

McEwan played well in his relief role, but did not take the Bruins into the endzone on the day. He did manage to complete 12 of 18 passes for 135 yards.

UCLA's BOWL TRADITION

December 25, 2002 — Las Vegas Bowl

UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

UCLA won its 10th bowl game in its last 14 post-season outings with a 27-13 defeat of New Mexico in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Interim head coach Ed Kezirian guided the Bruin team to victory in a game dominated by the defense. Neither team managed an offensive touchdown until the fourth quarter, but by that time the Bruin special teams and defense had staked UCLA to a comfortable lead.

"Our mind-set going in was our defense was going to beat their defense," said linebacker Marcus Reese, one of 13 Bruin seniors dressed for the game. "We had to make more plays than their defense, and I think we did that."

A 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Bragg turned the momentum to the Bruin's side after New Mexico was forced to punt on its first possession of the second half.

"The offense really wasn't moving, so I knew I had to go out there and make a big play," said Bragg. "I took it upon myself, and the guys on the punt return team did an excellent job of blocking. Once I hit the corner, I knew I was going to score a touchdown."

True freshman safety Jarrad Page added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter and Tyler Ebell made 27-6 with a one-yard scoring run with 10:40 left in the game.

Senior placekicker Chris Griffith converted on the extra point following Page's touchdown and in the process set a school record for most career extra points with 136 conversions.

Fellow senior kicker Nate Fikse got the Bruins on the board early in the game when he connected on field goals from 49 yards in the first quarter and 39 yards in the second quarter. The successful kicks marked the 11th and 12th consecutive field goals of the season for Fikse who handled both the placekicking and punting chores over the final five games of the season.

The 49-yard kick by Fikse came after linebacker Brandon Chillar recovered a Dontrell Moore fumble caused by safety Matt Ware.

New Mexico was unable to move the ball after the Bruin kickoff and was forced to punt. On the first play from scrimmage following the punt, Desmar Black intercepted a Drew Olson pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown. The extra point, attempted by Katie Hnida who became the first woman to play in a Division I-A football game, was blocked by Chillar.

The Bruins tied the score at six on the 39-yarder by Fikse which capped off a six-play 24 yard drive and went to halftime with the score even.

True freshman Drew Olson started the game at quarterback for the Bruins and played the first quarter. He injured his thumb on a helmet and did not return to action. True freshman Matt Moore came on in the second quarter and completed the game.

Redshirt freshman running back Tyler Ebell entered the game needing 76 yards to become only the third freshman in Pac-10 conference history to rush for 1,000 yards. He ended up just short of that goal and gained 70 yards on 25 carries.

GREAT BRUIN COMEBACKS

Sept. 30, 2000 - UCLA 38, Arizona State 31 at Rose Bowl

Arizona State	14	7	7	3	—	31
UCLA	0	7	28	3	—	38
Attn.: 68,113	Weather: Hazy and Overcast (70°)

(21-point deficit in the second quarter) No. 15 UCLA staged one of the greatest comebacks in school history, rallying from a 21-0 second-quarter deficit to defeat Arizona State, 38-31, at the Rose Bowl. The 21-point comeback matched the largest in UCLA annals, tying the mark set at Michigan in 1982 in a 31-27 victory.

With 5:28 remaining in the second quarter, the Bruins trailed 21-0, had the ball on their own five-yard line and had lost DeShaun Foster with a fractured bone in his right hand. But on third-and-11 at the four-yard line, Cory Paus found Brian Poli-Dixon for 17 yards and a first down. Later on the drive, Jermaine Lewis gained 32 yards to the Sun Devil 23-yard line and on the next play Akil Harris, on just the second carry of his career, raced around right end for a 23-yard touchdown and the comeback had begun.

On the first play of the second half, Lewis burst free and raced 57 yards, the longest run of his career, for a touchdown to make the score 21-14. With just over 12 minutes remaining in the third quarter, Joe Hunter picked off a pass at the ASU 21-yard line and less than two minutes later, Harris scored his second touchdown from seven yards out to tie the game.

On UCLA's next possession, Paus drove the Bruins 56 yards on 12 plays and gave the Bruins their first lead when he found Freddie Mitchell over the middle for an eight-yard touchdown.

The Sun Devils countered on their next snap, scoring on a 60-yard pass to tie the game at 28. However, the Bruins seized the lead for good with 1:31 remaining when Paus found Mitchell behind the defense and the two combined for an 80-yard touchdown, the ninth-longest pass play in school history, to complete a 28-point quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the teams traded field goals and ASU's final shot at the end zone from 49 yards out was batted to the ground to preserve the 38-31 victory.

Paus, playing his first full game of the year (he played only three snaps in the opener due to his separated right shoulder), completed 17 of 30 passes for 267 yards and two touchdowns. Poli-Dixon led the team with eight receptions for 107 yards and Mitchell produced 125 yards and two scores with his four catches.

Lewis, stepping in for the injured Foster, rushed for 104 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and one touchdown. Harris, seeing the first extensive action of his career, rushed for 100 yards and two scores.

Defensively, UCLA held the Sun Devils to 185 yards and 10 points in the final 30 minutes to aid the comeback. Strong safety Audie Attar, starting in place of injured Marques Anderson, led the Bruins with eight tackles. Middle linebacker Robert Thomas made seven stops, including one for loss, and cornerback/special teams performer Keith Short added five stops.

Cornerback Joe Hunter, free safety Jason Zdenek and outside linebacker Tony White each added four stops. The defense forced three turnovers (a fourth was by the ASU defense after an interception) and made a season-high four sacks.

Jan. 1, 1998 - UCLA 29, Texas A&M 23 at Cotton Bowl, Dallas, TX

(16-point deficit in the second quarter) In their first bowl game under second-year coach Bob Toledo, the Bruins got off to a sluggish start, falling behind 16-0 in the first half before making a dramatic second half comeback to beat 20th-ranked Texas A&M, 29-23.

Despite outgaining the Aggies 393-247 on the day, the Aggies used their defense and one big play to take a 16-point lead late in the second quarter. Midway through the first quarter the Bruins appeared ready to take the lead as they drove to the Aggie nine-yard line. However, Texas A&M linebacker Dat Nguyen picked off a Cade McNown pass and returned it to the 36 before laterally to teammate Brandon Jennings. Jennings took it the final 64 yards for a 7-0 lead. Then, with the Bruins backed up inside their own five, Aggie Zerek Rollins corralled McNown in the end zone for a safety and it was 9-0. Minutes later, Dante Hall took a hand-off and ran 76 yards for a touchdown. At 16-0 the Bruins faced their biggest deficit since a 27-3 second half score against Tennessee.

Reeling and in desperate need of momentum, the Bruins faced a third-and-thirteen at the Aggie 42 with twenty-four seconds to go. McNown hit Farmer over the middle with a twenty yard pass, and two plays later, hit Jim McElroy for a touchdown with two seconds to go before halftime. Chris Sailer's kick sent the Bruins to the locker room down only 16-7. Skip Hicks took a McNown pass 41 yards on the Bruins' first possession of the second half to cut the deficit to 16-14. Hicks would finish the day with 193 all-purpose yards (140 on the ground and 53 receiving).

However, the Aggies came right back on their next possession. Following a crucial fourth down conversion, Chris Cole ran 43 yards on a reverse to extend the lead back to nine at 23-14.

The Bruins, however, would respond before the end of the quarter. After a trade of punts, the Bruins went 65 yards in eight plays, culminated by McNown's 20-yard touchdown run and it was 23-21.

In the fourth quarter, the Bruins defense stepped it up to give the offense a chance to win. The Aggies had no first downs in the fourth quarter and had minus-one yard of total offense.

The Bruins finally took the lead when Ryan Neufeld took a reverse into the end zone. McNown ran in the two-point conversion and it was 29-23.

The Bruins stopped the Aggies on their final two possessions and ran out the clock for the win.

Nov. 23, 1996 - UCLA 48, USC 41 at Rose Bowl

USC	10	14	7	7	3	0	—	41
UCLA	0	7	14	17	3	7	—	48
Attn.: 80,644	Weather: Light Fog (74°)

(17-point deficit in fourth quarter) Do you believe in miracles? Now you do, after the Bruins rallied from a 17-point, fourth quarter deficit to secure their sixth straight win in the city-series, 48-41, in overtime, before 80,644 spectators in the Rose Bowl.

After the teams traded field goals in the first overtime period, Skip Hicks scored the game-winner on a 25-yard run, breaking several Trojan tackles, on the first play of the second overtime period. UCLA then clinched the win when Anthony Cobbs intercepted a fourth-down pass in the end zone and the four-hour, 23-minute battle was over.

USC dominated the game for three quarters like UCLA had for the previous five seasons — forcing turnovers and making the big play on offense. The Trojans marched out to a 17-0 lead in the first 21 minutes of the game and led 31-21 entering the fourth quarter and 38-21 after R. Jay Soward streaked down the right sideline on his way to a 78-yard scoring play with 11:06 to play in the game.

GREAT BRUIN COMEBACKS

The Bruins narrowed the deficit to 38-24 on a 47-yard field goal by Bjorn Merten with 6:12 remaining. The Bruins quickly got the ball back after pinning USC against its own goal-line and forcing a short punt. Nine plays and 41 yards later freshman Keith Brown scored from the one-yard line to slice the margin to 38-31 at the 2:49 mark.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by USC and two plays later the Trojans had a first and ten at the Bruin 41 with less than two minutes to play. However, on the next play, junior linebacker Danjuan Magee reached in and hit running back LaVale Woods as he was about to break away from the pack, forcing a fumble that senior cornerback Kusanti Abdul-Salaam recovered and returned to the Bruin 44. UCLA had 1:27 on the clock and a single timeout left to go 56 yards, trailing 38-31.

Quarterback Cade McNown began the drive by connecting with Jim McElroy for 17 yards and three plays later lofted a 23-yarder to Rodney Lee who made a spectacular diving grab at the USC 11. On the next play, Skip Hicks found the end zone on a burst up the middle. The game was tied when Merten sent the extra point through the uprights and 39 seconds showed on the clock.

USC had one last chance to win the game in regulation after a 39-yard pass play and a pass interference penalty put the ball at the UCLA 23. But Adam Abrams' 40-yard field goal attempt sailed into the Bruin line and it was on to overtime for the first time in the 66-game series.

Sept. 25, 1982 - UCLA 31, Michigan 27 at Michigan Stadium, Ann Arbor, MI

UCLA	0	14	14	3	—	31
Michigan	7	17	3	0	—	27
Attn.: 105,413	Weather: Light mist (60°)

(21-point deficit in the second quarter) In what many have deemed the greatest comeback in UCLA history, the Bruins rallied from a 21-point second quarter deficit to best Bo Schembechler's 20th-ranked Wolverines, 31-27, in front of over 105,000 shocked Michigan fans who had seen their team lose at Notre Dame the week before. Senior Tom Ramsey thrust himself into the national spotlight with a truly All-American performance, completing 22 of 36 passes for 311 yards and two touchdowns in leading UCLA to its first win ever over the Wolverines.

Trailing 7-0 after one period, the 12th-ranked Bruins nearly saw the game slip away early in the second quarter. Quarterback Steve Smith's six-yard run gave Michigan a 14-0 lead and after the Wolverines blocked a Bruin punt and took possession on the UCLA seven, Smith's five-yard pass to Anthony Carter made the score 21-0 with 12:57 remaining in the second quarter.

However, on the next series, UCLA converted two key fourth-down plays to keep the drive alive. Facing a third-and-25 situation on the UM 46-yard line, Ramsey saw Dokie Williams streaking down the sideline, hit him in stride at the three-yard line and the speedster scored to give UCLA its first touchdown at the 4:34 mark of the second quarter to culminate an 80-yard drive.

After the Bruins stopped Michigan on its next series, Ramsey passed for a couple of first downs and then hit Jojo Townsell on a spectacular 25-yard pass play to set up a one-yard quarterback sneak that narrowed the gap to 21-14 with 2:34 to play in the first half. Michigan ended the first half with a field goal to make the score 24-14 at the intermission.

An interception by Don Rogers on the second play of the second half gave the Bruins the ball on the Michigan 22-yard line for their first possession of the half. Ramsey connected on a six-yard touchdown pass to Townsell to make it 24-21. Another Michigan field goal pushed the UM advantage up to 27-21 with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. Williams returned the ensuing kickoff 65 yards and the Bruins took it in from there on a two-yard run by Kevin Nelson. John Lee's conversion put the Bruins in the lead at 28-27 with 2:50 to play in the third quarter.

Interceptions by Danny Lauter and Neal Dellocono helped stifle the UM's attempted rally. Lee followed up with a 26-yard field goal with 11:46 to go in the contest. Neither team could put any additional points on the board, but a fumbled pitch from Ramsey to fullback Frank Cephus gave Michigan one last chance with 1:05 to play. UM took over on its own 48-yard line and managed to squeeze 12 plays into their final series, but could not score and the final gun sounded with the Wolverines at the Bruin eight-yard line.

Sept. 14, 1985 - UCLA 26, Tennessee 26 at Neyland Stadium, Knoxville, TN

UCLA	10	0	0	16	—	26
Tennessee	0	13	7	6	—	26

(16-point deficit in fourth quarter) Senior quarterback David Norrie led the Bruins in a come-from-behind fourth quarter rally to tie Tennessee at 26-all. With the Bruins trailing 26-10 with 11:57 to play in the fourth quarter, Norrie entered the game to replace starter Matt Stevens and direct the game-tying drives. However, Tennessee intercepted Norrie on his first series under center, the fourth pick by UT in the game.

With 4:46 left in the final quarter, Norrie hit senior flanker Al Wilson with an eight-yard scoring pass to culminate a 97-yard drive. The key play was a 44-yard aerial to wide receiver Mike Sherrard on a third-and-ten play from the three-yard line. Norrie then passed to senior tight end Jeff Nowinski for the two-point conversion and the Bruins trailed by eight, at 26-18. It was Nowinski's first-ever reception. Tennessee punted the ball with 1:43 to play. Starting from the Bruin 27, Norrie engineered another scoring drive. With just 37 seconds remaining, he passed 25 yards to sophomore split end Flipper Anderson for a score. It was also a first career catch for Anderson. Sophomore tailback Gaston Green then swept around the right end for the game-tying two point conversion.

Oct. 11, 1986 - UCLA 32, Arizona 25 at Rose Bowl

Arizona	12	6	0	7	—	25
UCLA	0	0	7	25	—	32
Attn.: 51,279	Weather: Overcast (70°)

(18-0 deficit at halftime) UCLA staged one of its biggest second-half comebacks in besting ninth-ranked Arizona, 32-25, in the Rose Bowl. The Bruins went to the lockerroom at the half down 18-0 to the unbeaten Wildcats. An interception, two blocked punts and a safety contributed to the 'Cats first half 18-point advantage.

The Bruin rally started in the third quarter when free safety James Washington intercepted Arizona quarterback Alfred Jenkins' pass at the UCLA 46-yard line. Hit just moments after the interception, the ball popped out of Washington's grasp and into the arms of cornerback Darryl Henley, who raced 54 yards for the touchdown with 12:39 remaining in the third quarter.

UCLA still trailed 18-7 at the start of the final quarter of action. David Franey kicked a 29-yard field goal less than a minute into the quarter to make it 18-10. Quarterback Matt Stevens then hooked up with Paco Craig on a 78-yard scoring pass and run to make the score 18-16 after the two-point conversion attempt failed with 10:29 to go. Tailback Gaston Green raced nine yards for the go-ahead score with 5:36 to play and Stevens hit fullback Marcus Greenwood for a two-point conversion to put the Bruins in the lead at 24-18. Arizona answered with a 72-yard, eight-play scoring drive of its own and took a 25-24 lead at the 3:27 mark on a halfback pass.

UCLA took over with 3:22 on the clock and drove 77 yards in nine plays to score the winning touchdown with just 0:41 seconds left. Stevens completed five of six passes on the drive for 60 yards and Gaston Green scored on a 32-yard burst down the left sideline, breaking three tackles along the way.

GREAT BRUIN COMEBACKS

Sept. 17, 1983 - UCLA 26, Arizona State 26 at Rose Bowl

Arizona State	7	6	10	3	—	26
UCLA	3	7	0	16	—	26
Attn.: 47,093	Weather: Sunny (86°)

(16-point deficit in fourth quarter) The Bruins stormed back after trailing by 16 points with fewer than 12 minutes to play to tie Arizona State at 26. Determined running by Kevin Nelson and Danny Andrews combined with the pinpoint passing of Rick Neuheisel keyed the comeback.

Down 26-10, UCLA drove 80 yards in 13 plays, Neuheisel hit Karl Dorrell on a fourth-and-goal pass from the seven for the score. Nelson then swept the right side on the conversion run to make it a 26-18 ballgame with 8:07 to go. On ASU's second play following the ensuing kickoff, strong safety Joe Gasser picked off a Sun Devil pass and gave the Bruins new life and the ball at their own 47. Eight plays later, Mike Young hauled in a Neuheisel toss on a third-and-four from the 19, twisted away from a would-be tackler and danced into the end zone to cut the ASU lead to 26-24 with 1:36 on the clock. After an ASU holding penalty on the first try for the two-point conversion, Nelson ran it in for the tying points.

Oct. 20, 1979 - UCLA 28, Cal 27 at LA Coliseum

California	17	10	0	0	—	27
UCLA	0	7	14	7	—	28
Attn.: 40,546	Weather: Clear (69°)

(20-point deficit at halftime) UCLA spotted Cal a 20-0 lead before the Bruins rallied behind backup quarterback Bernard Quarles and running back Freeman McNeil. Three Bruin fumbles helped to stake Cal to the early lead before the Homecoming crowd in the Coliseum and set the stage for Quarles. The redshirt freshman quarterback entered the game with 13 minutes left in the half and the Bruins down by 20. Quarles went on to rush for 80 yards and completed eight of 13 passes for 103 yards on the night.

Shortly after Quarles replaced starter Rick Bashore, McNeil broke free for a 13-yard scoring run at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter, following a 31-yard punt return by Kenny Easley. Cal made it 27-7 by finding the end zone in the final seconds of the first half and the Bruins entered the locker room once again down by 20.

Five minutes into the second half, the Bruins closed to 27-14 on a 14-yard burst by McNeil. The comeback continued seven minutes later as McNeil cracked over from the one, slicing the Bears' margin to 27-21 with 2:49 remaining in the third quarter. The Bruins' junior tailback was not through. McNeil scored the tying points on another one-yard run and Peter Boermeester added the winner to culminate a 59-yard march with 5:09 remaining in the game. Linebacker Scott Stauch had set up the winning drive with an interception. On Cal's next two possessions, Stauch forced a fumble and Mike Barbee recorded a quarterback sack and fumble.

Nov. 21, 1992 - UCLA 38, USC 37 at Rose Bowl

USC	10	7	14	6	—	37
UCLA	10	7	0	21	—	38
Attn.: 80,568	Weather: Sunny (58°)

(14-point deficit in fourth quarter) The Bruins used the passing of senior quarterback John Barnes, the receiving of sophomore split end J.J. Stokes and a defensive play by junior inside linebacker Nkosi Littleton at the end of the game, to upset the heavily-favored Trojans.

UCLA trailed 31-17 entering the fourth quarter. With 12:49 remaining in the game, Barnes threw a 29-yard scoring toss to Stokes to cap off a 69-yard, seven-play drive which pumped life into the Bruin comeback hopes. After stopping the Trojans on their next series, UCLA marched 80 yards on five plays to knot the score at 31-all. Two Barnes to Stokes aerials on the first two plays of the series netted 73 yards and Kevin Williams took it in from one yard out for the tying score with 7:00 minutes to play.

The Bruin defense once again forced a Trojan punt on its next series and took over after the kick on the UCLA four-yard line. After a couple of short runs, Barnes faced a third-and-four situation from his own 10-yard line. He dropped back to pass and hit Stokes in stride at the UCLA 25. Stokes broke into the clear and then outmaneuvered a pair of Trojans near midfield on his 90-yard journey into the end zone which handed UCLA the lead at 38-31 with 3:08 to play.

UCLA still had to withstand one last Trojan rally. Quarterback Rob Johnson drove USC 69 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown with 41 seconds to play. The two-point conversion pass was knocked away by Littleton in the front left corner of the end zone to preserve the win.
