THE UCLA EXPERIENCE

UCLA - The Complete Package

"UCLA has the most complete athletic program in the country"

(Sports Illustrated On Campus - April '05)

The Nation's No. 1 Combined Academic, Social & Athletic Program

Winner of more NCAA championships than any other school; one of the nation's top public universities; centrally located to beaches, mountains.

An Outstanding Head Coach

Rick Neuheisel has won 64% of his games in 10 years as head coach. He has earned eight bowl bids and his teams have finished in the Top 10 nationally on three occasions.

Talented & Experienced Coaching Staff

One of the top coordinators, Norm Chow, highlights an experienced staff with diverse backgrounds. Six of Coach Neuheisel's assistants have coached in the NFL and three others played on Sundays.
The goal of the staff is to develop greatness in UCLA's student-athletes, both on and off the field.

Academic Support

Learning specialists, tutoring aid, counseling and general assistance that is second to none.

The Bruin Family

UCLA provides a prosperous outlook for the future with internships, workshop mentoring programs and access to one of the world's meccas of business, entertainment, media and networking.

Media Rich Southern California

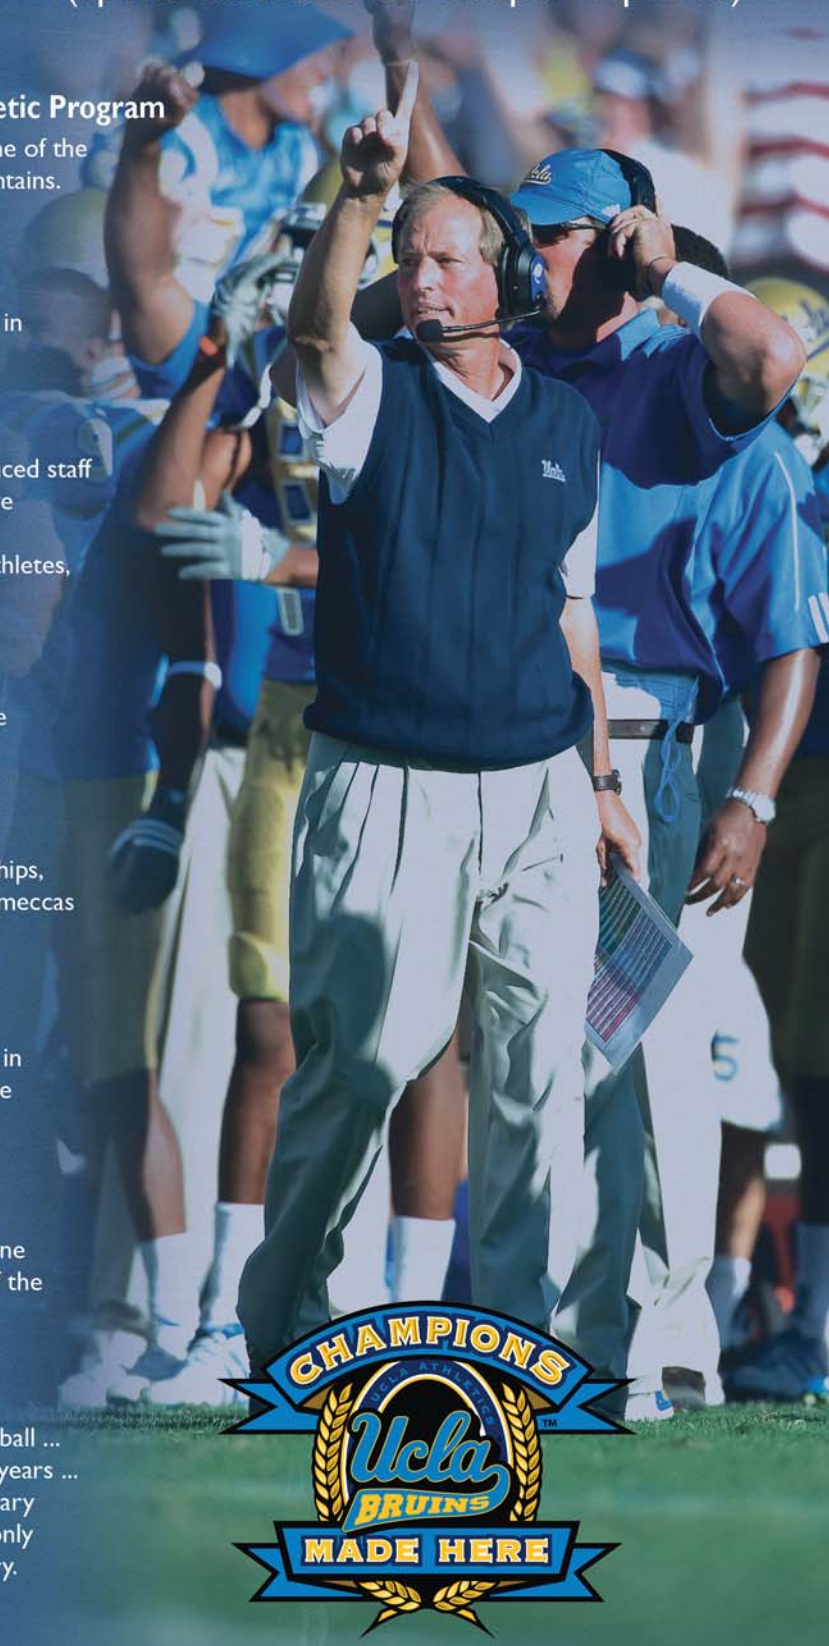

USA Today, Fox Sports Net, NFL Network and ESPN have offices in LA. Seven local television stations and 13 area newspapers provide unparalleled exposure.

The Next Step

Over 25 Bruins populate NFL rosters on a yearly basis. At least one former Bruin has been in 28 of the last 31 Super Bowls and 28 of the last 29 Pro Bowls.

Leading The Way

Jackie Robinson, first African-American to play major league baseball ... Troy Aikman, first quarterback to win three Super Bowls in four years ... Kenny Washington, first African-American to play in the NFL ... Gary Beban, Heisman winner ... Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley, the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 Conference history.

The Bruin Family

The goal of the UCLA Football Program is to reconnect with Bruin players from all eras. Head coach Rick Neuheisel's theme is "UCLA Football - Then...Now...Forever." In April of 2008, over 125 former players attended a practice at Spaulding Field, followed by a reunion dinner with players from at least six different decades. Every home football game, features the "Then...Now...Forever" tent where football alumni get to reconnect with each other. UCLA also honors former players as honorary captains on game day, where they participate in the pre-game coin toss and speak to the team.

Among the Bruin alumni who have returned to campus in recent years are head coaches Terry Donahue and Dick Vermeil, Cade McNown, Manu Tuiasosopo, Kenny Easley, Jerry Robinson, Troy Aikman, James Washington, Freeman McNeil, Maurice Jones-Drew, Marcedes Lewis, Bruce Davis, Chris Horton, Roman Phifer, Mike Lodish, Derek Ayers, Danny Farmer, John Peterson, Ricky Manning, Jr. and J.J. Stokes.
Some of them, as well as other alumni, are pictured on this page.

Bruins In The Community

Head coach Rick Neuheisel stresses involvement with the campus and the community. Whether it's volunteering at an inner-city youth clinic, speaking to children at elementary and middle schools in the area, "Man Maker Wednesdays" or assisting in campus programs such as 'Marathon Kids' and 'I'm Going to College,' community service is an important aspect of being a Bruin.

Maximum Media Exposure

In The Last Five Years, UCLA Has Had 65 Of its Last 66 Games Broadcast Live On Television On Various Channels Including ABC, NBC, ESPN, FSN, FSPT, Fox College Sports & Versus

251	UCLA football games have been televised live 251 times in the last 23 years

Bruins in the NFL

Year in and year out, UCLA is well represented in the National Football League. In addition to being among the leaders in schools that produce NFL players, UCLA is also at the forefront in the area of former players and coaches working in the NFL.

Some prominent members of the NFL include former All-American defensive tackle Floyd Reese (Senior Football Advisor for New England), former defensive back George Paton (Director of Player Personnel for Minnesota), former running back Eric Ball (Director of Player Relations for Cincinnati) and former Bruin QB Scott Fitterer (Director of College Scouting for the Seattle Seahawks).

Developing the NFL's Best

UCLA's coaching staff has coached some of the top players in the National Football League, either in college or in the NFL. Included among the 50-plus current or former NFL players coached by the current Bruin staff are numerous All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections as well as NFL MVPs, Super Bowl MVPs and NFL Rookies of the Year. In addition, the UCLA staff has coached seven Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy winners, four Walter Camp or Maxwell Award winners, as well as too many All-Americans to count. Just a few of the NFL standouts are listed below and featured on this page.

UCLA NFL Pro Combine

Every March, the UCLA football staff hosts UCLA's "Pro Day" - where NFL scouts and team representatives come to see draft eligible athletes participate in combine tests and drills. The NFL personnel are greeted by Coach Neuheisel and head athletic performance coach Mike Linn. Various other UCLA staff members associated with football are available throughout the day to assist. Testing includes - 225 lb bench press, height and weight, wing span and hand spread measurements, vertical and standing long jump, the 40-yard dash, pro shuttle, "L" drill and long shuttle, followed by individual workouts within each position group.

Multi-Sport Stars

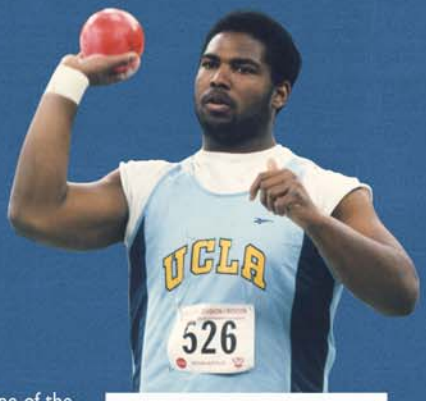

Many Bruins have excelled in other sports aside from football while playing at UCLA. Below are a few of those multi-sport athletes.

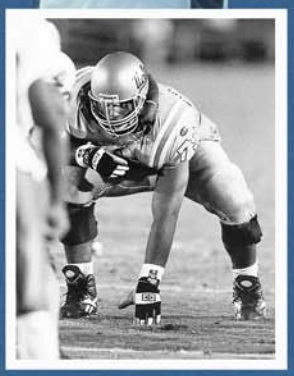

Jackie Robinson, the first African-American to play in MLB, began UCLA's multiple sport tradition, starring in football, basketball, track and baseball.

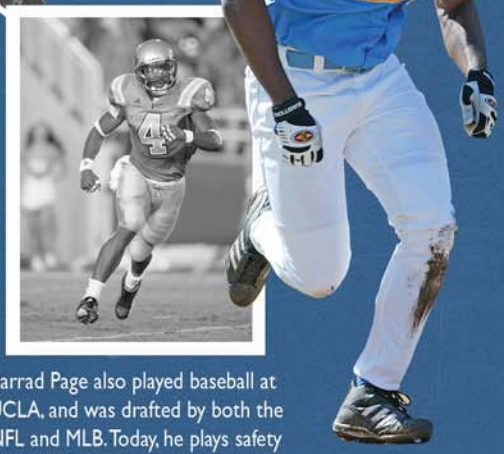

Wide receiver Nelson Rosario is one of UCLA's top long jumpers and competed at the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships in the event.

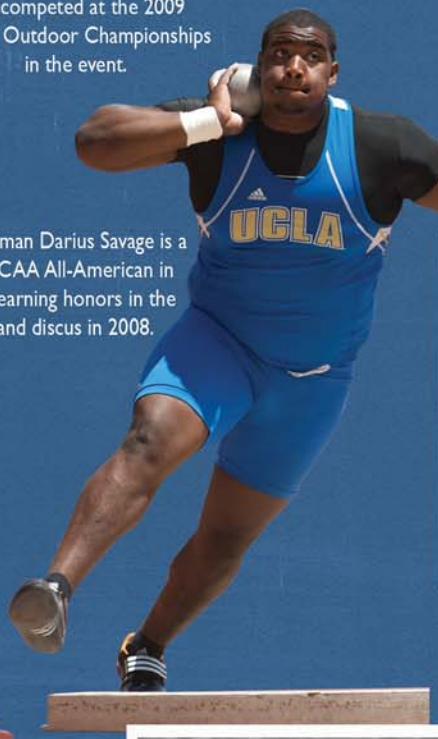

Jonathan Ogden, one of the greatest left tackles in NFL history with the Baltimore Ravens, won the 1996 NCAA Indoor shot put crown and was a 4-time NCAA All-American in the throws.

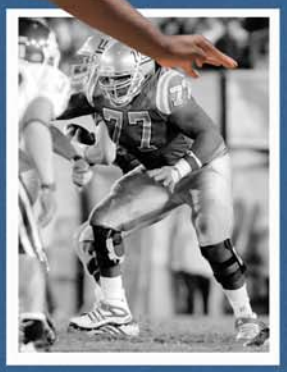

Jarrad Page also played baseball at UCLA, and was drafted by both the NFL and MLB. Today, he plays safety for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Offensive lineman Darius Savage is a two-time NCAA All-American in the throws, earning honors in the shot put and discus in 2008.

Danny Farmer, UCLA's career receiving yardage leader, won two NCAA Championships in volleyball.

Running back James Owens competed in the 1976 Olympic Games in the high hurdles.

UCLA in the Bowls

When it comes to winning bowl games, UCLA is one of the most successful programs in the nation. Since 1982, no Pac-10 school and only 9 programs in the nation have won more bowl games than UCLA.

The Bruins have won 12 of their last 20 bowl appearances and their eight straight wins (from 1982-1991) were one shy of the national record.

The 2009 EagleBank Bowl was UCLA's 30th bowl appearance. Pictured below are the Bruins after defeating Temple 30-21 in that bowl.

On January 2, 1982, UCLA set an NCAA record for bowl victories in consecutive seasons by beating Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. That was UCLA's seventh bowl triumph in as many seasons. Those UCLA post-season victories included the 1983, '84 and '86 Rose Bowls, the 1985 Fiesta Bowl, the 1986 Freedom Bowl and the 1987 Aloha Bowl.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement

"Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency"

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally. The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

COMMUNITY OF LEARNERS PROGRAM

The Community of Learners Program (COL) is a year-long academic support program whose primary goal is to support the freshman student-athlete's academic, athletic and social transition to college. COL student-athletes collectively participate in structured study sessions two to three times per week. Student-athletes are introduced to a variety of relevant topics, including goal setting, the importance of faculty-student interactions, career exploration and leadership development. The program promotes academic autonomy, academic engagement between peers and mentors, and overall student-athlete development.

DIRECTED LEARNING PROGRAM

The Directed Learning Program (DLP) is an intensive, one-on-one strategic academic support program designed by AS2 Learning Specialists to enhance learning. The program aims to enrich the student-athlete collegiate experience through services that help each student-athlete identify their strengths and weaknesses and develop skills to improve academic performance. DLP is facilitated by Learning Specialists and Academic Mentors trained to work collaboratively with campus resources to create a holistic learning environment focused on autonomy, self-efficacy, accountability, health and wellness. This enhanced learning environment provides an opportunity for student-athletes to perform at their highest ability. Through directed guidance, student-athletes will learn how to set and monitor learning objectives, develop learning plans, and build academic skills in time management, close reading, critical thinking, note taking and information literacy.

PRODUCTION PROGRAM

The Production Program is an academic support program that strengthens and supports the academic self-sufficiency among upperclass football student-athletes. Student-athletes attend weekly structured study sessions providing them with the time and a productive learning environment to complete assignments, write papers, and study for exams. Production student-athletes meet with an Academic Mentor once a week for 30 minutes to an hour to discuss their academic progress in each class.

2009-2010 FOOTBALL GRADUATES

Thirty-three football student-athletes graduated between Fall 2009, Winter 2010, Spring 2010, Summer 2010 and projected to graduate in Fall 2010. Majors include Economics, History, Political Science, Physiological Science and Sociology.

63	UCLA has produced 63 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners, including 17 in football
110	UCLA has produced 110 GTE Academic All-Americans, including 27 in football
3/2	The Bruin football program has produced 3 Academic Hall of Fame members and 2 Rhodes Scholars, including 2008 selection Chris Joseph

UCLA ATHLETICS
ACADEMIC & STUDENT SERVICES
SUCCESS Starts Here

First Class Facilities

The UCLA campus is home to numerous first class facilities for student-athletes of all sports.

Spaulding Field - practice home for the Bruin football team, features SPRINTURF field, along with one natural grass field

Rose Gilbert Learning Center - located in the J.D. Morgan Center, has 24 computers and numerous printers for all of the academic needs of student-athletes

Acosta Center - houses locker rooms, the Athletic Performance Center and Sports Medicine Center

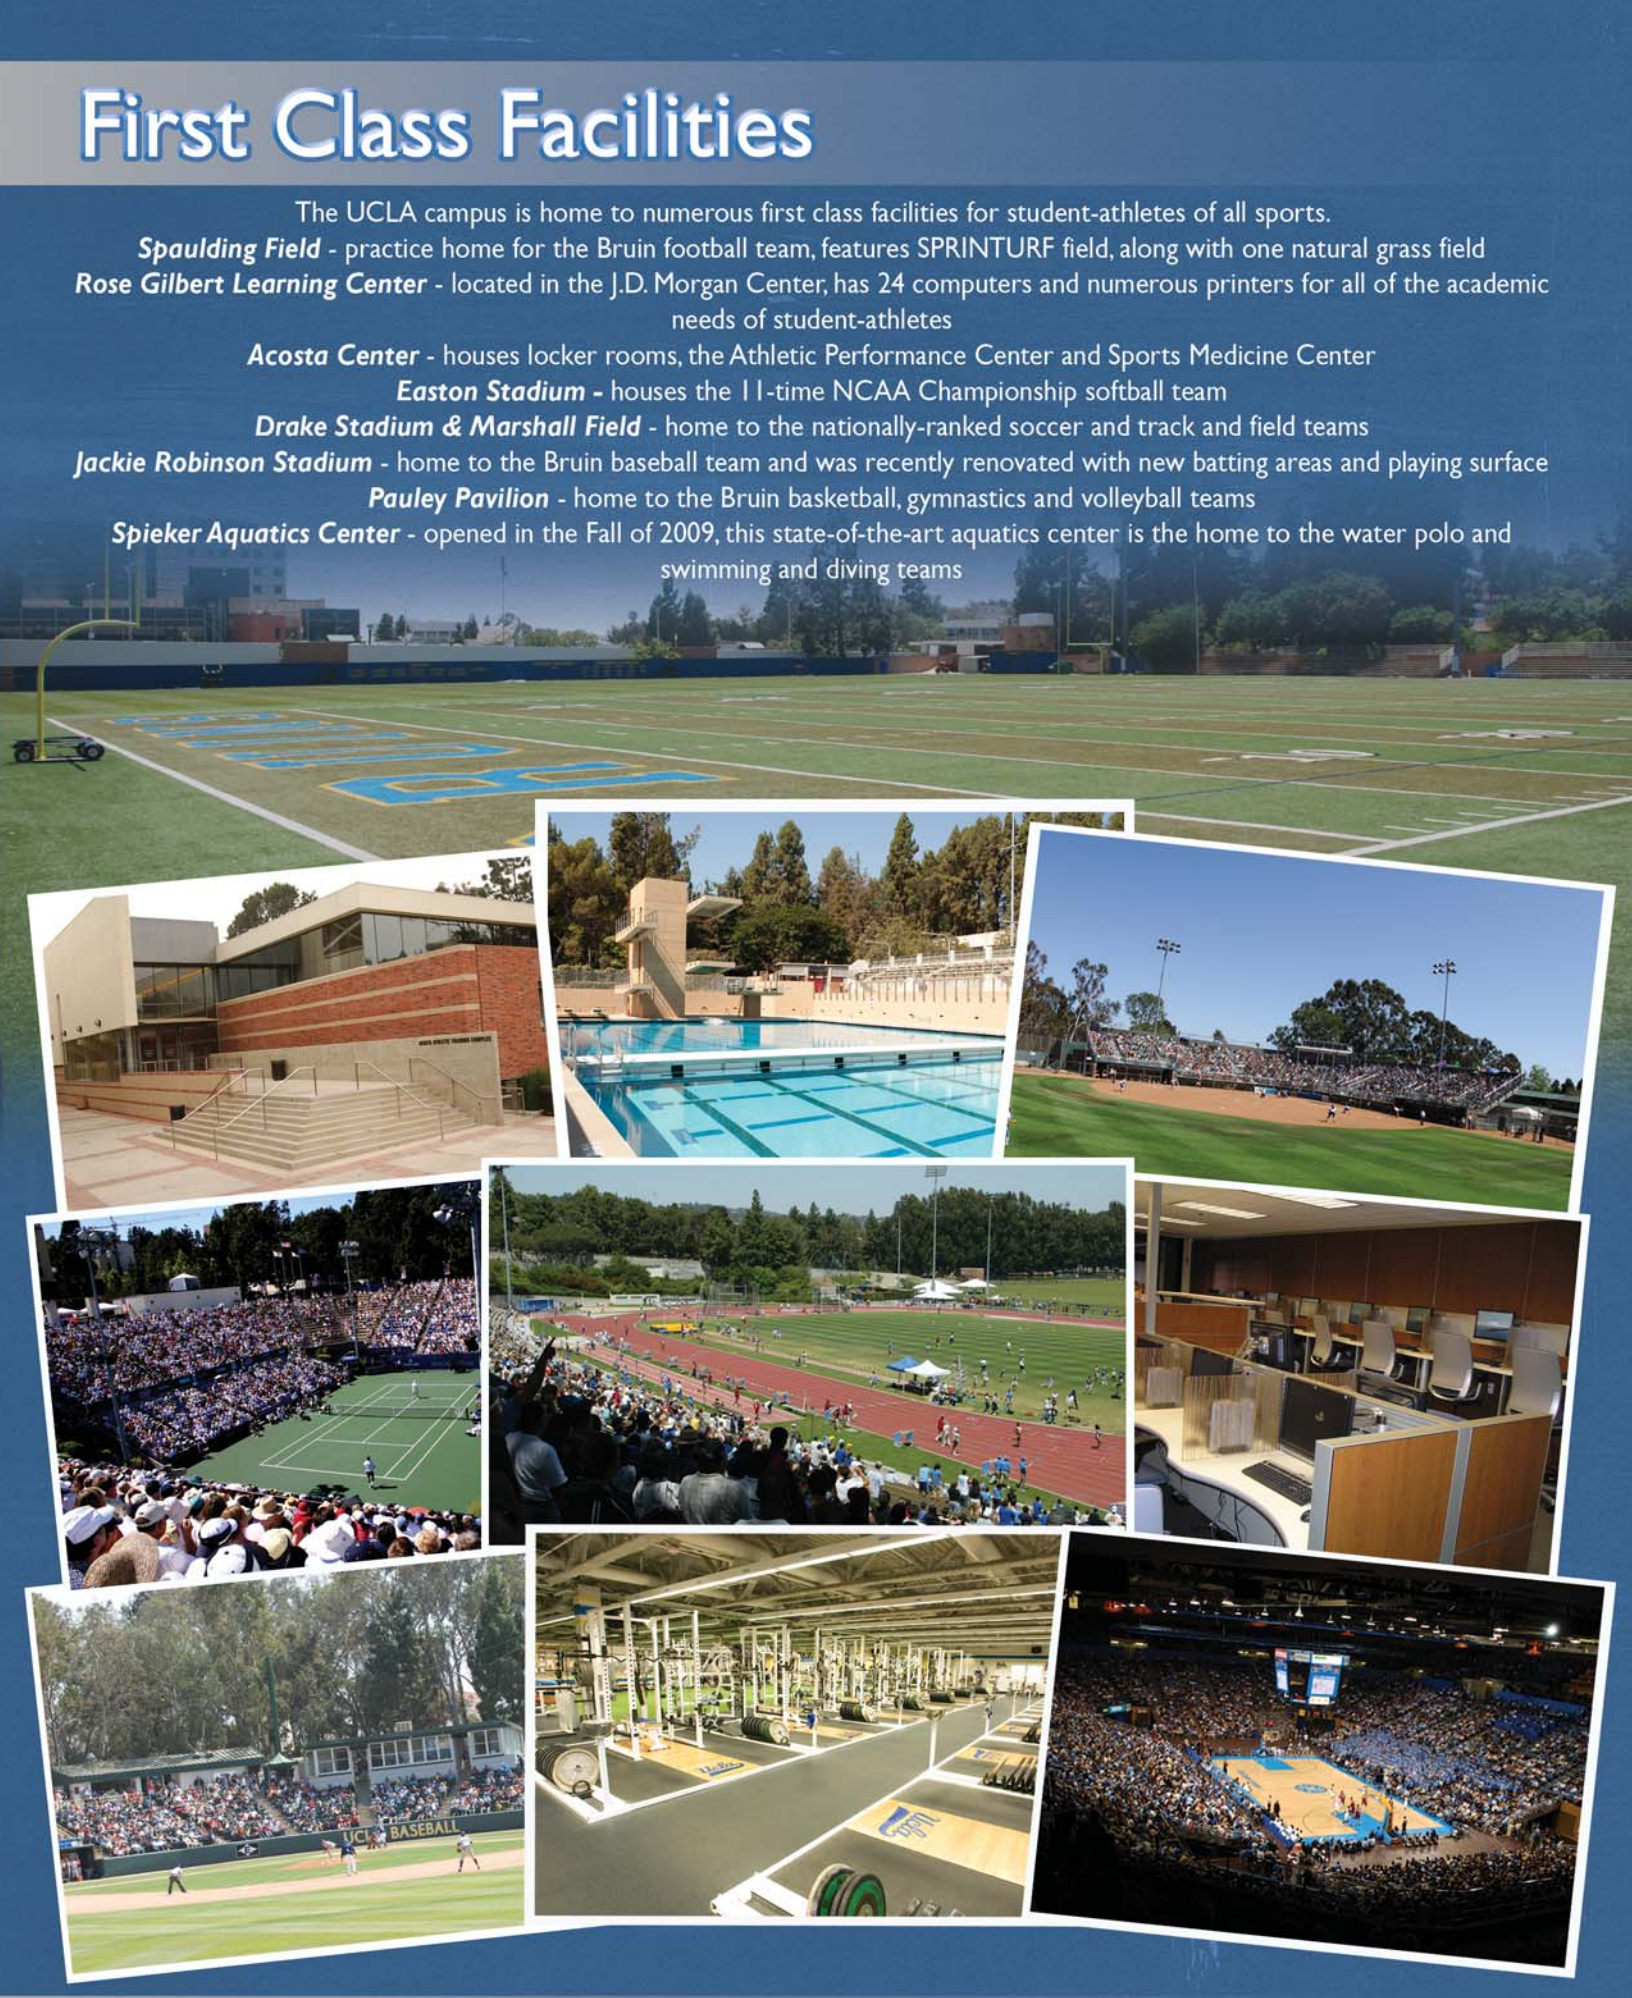

Easton Stadium - houses the 11-time NCAA Championship softball team

Drake Stadium & Marshall Field - home to the nationally-ranked soccer and track and field teams

Jackie Robinson Stadium - home to the Bruin baseball team and was recently renovated with new batting areas and playing surface

Pauley Pavilion - home to the Bruin basketball, gymnastics and volleyball teams

Spieker Aquatics Center - opened in the Fall of 2009, this state-of-the-art aquatics center is the home to the water polo and swimming and diving teams

The Rose Bowl: Home Of The Bruins

The Bruins play their home games at the historic Rose Bowl in Pasadena, the most picturesque college football stadium in America.

In 2007, new spacious state-of-the-art home and visiting lockerrooms made their debut at the Rose Bowl. There are also new interview and photo workrooms.

ESPN's Game Day Show made its first-ever West Coast appearance at a Bruin home game in 1998. In 2008, the crew filmed live from the UCLA/Tennessee game.

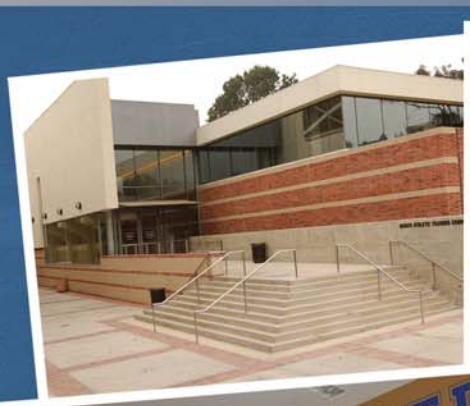

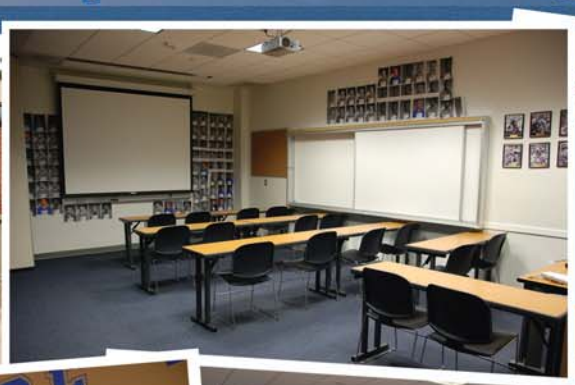

The Acosta Sports Training Center

UCLA student-athletes have the use of the three-story Acosta Sports Training & Conditioning Center, which is the home for Sports Medicine, Athletic Training & Rehabilitation, Athletic Performance Center, Varsity Locker Rooms, and The Bud Knapp Football Center.

The Bud Knapp Football Center is on the first floor, South Wing of the Acosta Center. It houses the players' locker room that features wood lockers, a coaches' locker room and an expanded equipment room. Nine position meeting rooms featuring state-of-the-art digital equipment, an auditorium-style team meeting/viewing room and a lobby highlighting the tradition and history of Bruin football.

The Acosta Sports Training Center

The Acosta Sports Training Center features an 8,000-square foot athletic training and rehabilitation facility with private offices for all of the certified athletic trainers, as well as a doctors' suite and a nutritionist. The facility includes three hydro pools, a large rehabilitation area with stationary bikes, treadmills and elliptical machines and private examination areas.

UCLA Student Life & Activities

UCLA offers many on-campus locales to relax, like the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, which houses numerous pools, volleyball and tennis courts and picnic areas. Bruins can get their workout in at The Wooden Center, which was remodeled in the summer of 2005 and features cardio equipment with flat screen tv's and increased workout space. The Wooden Center also features a rock climbing wall and basketball courts.

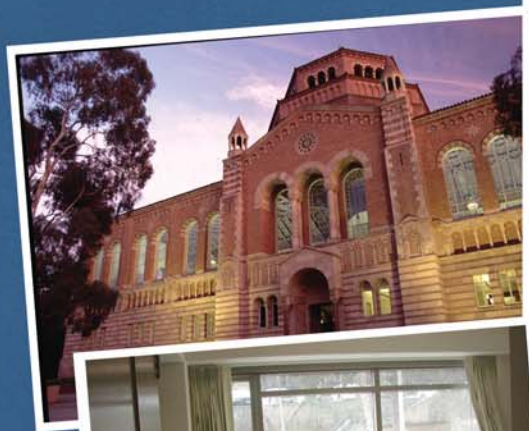

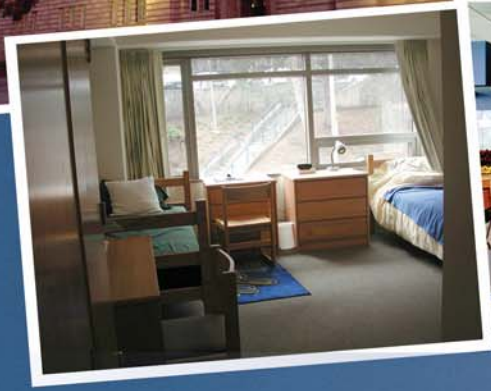

UCLA Student Life & Activities

The UCLA campus is home to 13 different residential buildings, ranging from suite design to hall lay-out. There are a multitude of dining options including four dorm cafeterias, late-night food options and a Coffee Bean. Ackerman Union also offers a multitude of dining options including Taco Bell, Jamba Juice, Carls Jr., Rubio's, Panda Express, Sbarro, and The Green House - a salad, pasta, soup and potato bar. The Union also features the UCLA Store, where students can shop for anything including adidas gear, books, gifts, school supplies, computers and food.

This Is Los Angeles

Art and culture are a very vibrant part of Los Angeles. The Getty Center is just one of many museums in the area. The Disney Concert Hall is also a short drive from campus.

Westwood, a suburb of Los Angeles, offers UCLA students and the surrounding communities many entertainment options. Movie premieres are a common occurrence as stars often visit the Fox Theater for opening night. Westwood is home to numerous coffee shops, stores and restaurants and is just minutes from campus.

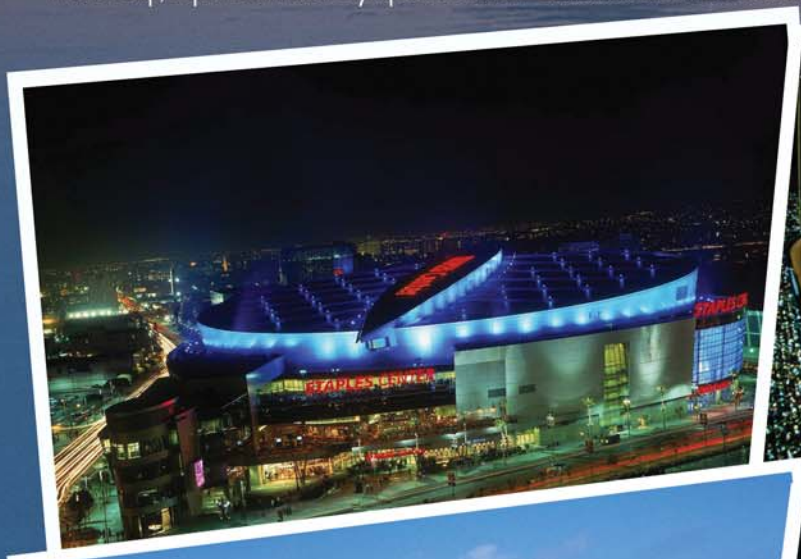

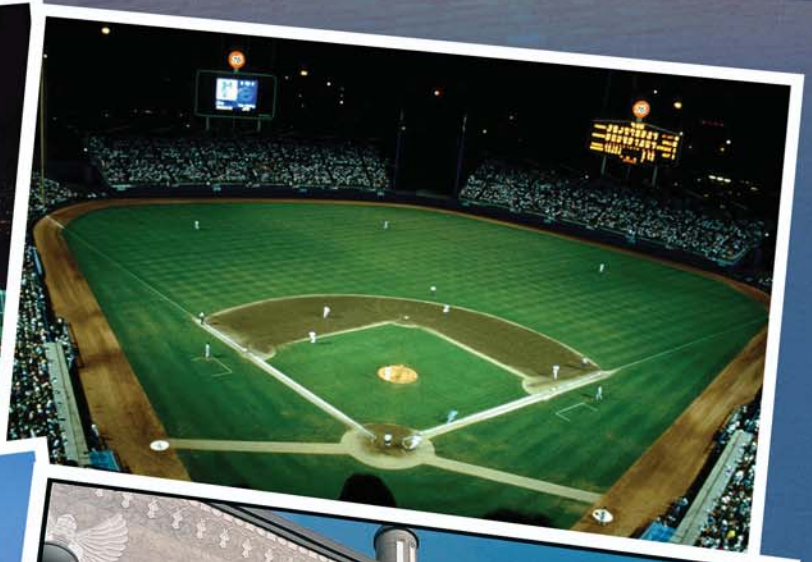

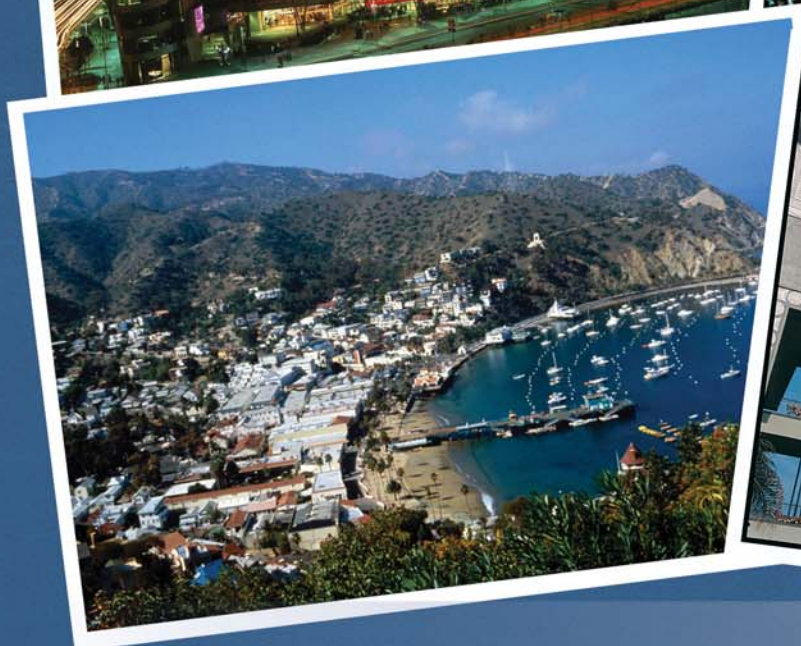

This Is Los Angeles

The city of Los Angeles is internationally recognized as America's leader in the entertainment and communications industries, as well as tourism and recreation. Los Angeles and surrounding Orange County offer numerous options for fun and entertainment. Southern California is home to two NBA, NHL, MLB and MLS teams. Los Angeles also has played host to numerous sporting events including the XGames, World Cup, Super Bowl and Olympics. Southern California also has three amusement parks - Knotts Berry Farm, Magic Mountain and Disneyland.

RICK NEUHEISEL

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH :: 3RD SEASON :: UCLA '84

Rick Neuheisel, who quarterbacked UCLA to victory in the 1984 Rose Bowl and who enjoyed a high level of success as a head coach at two other programs, is entering his third year as head coach at his alma mater.

The energetic and personable Bruin head coach returned to UCLA in December of 2007 and has brought energy and excitement to the program. "Relentlessly positive," Neuheisel sees great things for the future of Bruin football. He has spent his time building the program and recruiting talented student-athletes to help his goal of returning UCLA to the elite in college football.

UCLA capped off the 2009 season with a 30-21 victory in the EagleBank Bowl to finish with wins in four of the season's final five games. Earlier in the year, the Bruins scored a huge win on the road at Tennessee and went on to use three straight November wins to become bowl game eligible.

Placekicker Kai Forbath won the 2009 Lou Groza Award. Forbath, defensive tackle Brian Price (Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year), safety Rahim Moore (National Interceptions leader) and cornerback Alterraun Verner earned first-team All-America acclaim from at least one organization/publication and all, along with linebacker Reggie Carter, were first-team All-Pac-10 selections. In February 2010, UCLA signed a consensus Top 10 recruiting class.

In his first season, the Bruins twice rallied late in the fourth quarter for victories, including versus Tennessee in a Labor Day nationally televised contest. In addition,coach Neuheisel laid a solid foundation for the program to build upon. In February 2009, he signed another Top 10 recruiting class.

That Spring, Neuheisel participated in the second annual Coaches Tour to the Middle East, visiting U.S. troops at various bases..

Head Coach Rick Neuheisel raises his hands in victory as he walks off the field after UCLA's big win over Tennessee in Knoxville.

"Rick has enjoyed great success throughout his career and we believe he is the coach who can take our program to the next level," said athletic director Dan Guerrero at the time of Neuheisel's hiring. "His teams at Colorado and Washington continually challenged for conference championships and national rankings and that is what we are looking to do at UCLA.

"Rick is an outstanding coach and recruiter. He is outgoing and personable; and can motivate our players, fans and supporters. We believe he is well-equipped to lead the program and attain the success all Bruin fans wish to achieve."

"I am thrilled to be returning to my alma mater as its head coach," said Neuheisel. "UCLA is a special place and I want to thank Dan Guerrero and Chancellor (Gene) Block for the opportunity to come home. We are going to build a program our supporters will be proud of, both on and off the field. I can't wait to get started."

Neuheisel, 49, returned to the collegiate ranks after spending three seasons (2005-07) as an assistant coach for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. He served as quarterbacks coach in 2005 and 2006 and in January of 2007, was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. With the Ravens, he worked with quarterbacks Kyle Boller, Steve McNair and, most recently, 2006 Heisman Trophy winner Troy Smith.

In his eight years as a college head coach at the University of Colorado and the University of Washington, he fashioned a record of 66-30, winning at least 10 games on three occasions and finishing in the Top 10 in the nation on three occasions. He went on to lead his teams to seven bowl games.

During his four seasons (1999-2002) as head coach at the University of Washington, Neuheisel guided the Huskies to a record of 33-16 (.673) and four bowl games (one Rose Bowl, two Holiday Bowls and one Sun Bowl). His Pac-10 record was 23-9 (.719) and Washington captured one league title and finished second twice in those four seasons. The Husky offense averaged over 390 yards per game in each season, topped by a 420.7 mark in 2002 (17th in the nation) and 407.9 in 2000 (35th).

In his final season, the Huskies finished 7-6 and tied for 4th in the Pac-10 while ranking fourth nationally in passing offense (346.2 yards per game) and earning a spot in the Sun Bowl.

In 2001, Washington finished 8-4 overall and second in the Pac-10 with a 6-2 mark, earning a trip to the Holiday Bowl. The Huskies faced five teams ranked in the final AP Poll that season, winning three of those games.

In 2000, Neuheisel led the Huskies to an 11-1 record, a first-place Pac-10 finish and a victory in the 2001 Rose Bowl. It was a year of great comebacks as Washington trailed in eight of its 11 wins and recorded five straight fourth-quarter comebacks. It marked the first time Washington had won 10 games since 1991 and the school's first Rose Bowl title since that same season.

In 1999, his first season in Seattle, Washington finished 7-5 but finished second in the Pac-10, and went on to play in the Holiday Bowl. Neuheisel became the first coach in school history to lead a Husky team to a bowl berth in his first season.

During his four seasons (1995-98) as head coach at the University of Colorado, Neuheisel won 33 of 47 games (.702), including all three bowl appearances. In his final season, Colorado posted a 8-4 record, including a 51-43 victory over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl. The Buffaloes ranked 13th nationally in total defense that year. In 1997, Colorado finished 5-6 but still led the Big 12 in passing offense (232.4). Neuheisel then signed a recruiting class that formed the nucleus of Colorado's 2001 Big 12 championship team.

During the 1996 season, Neuheisel recorded his second straight 10-2 season, including a 33-21 victory over Washington in the Holiday Bowl, and finished second in the Big 12 North. The Buffaloes were ranked eighth on both polls and outscored opponents 319-199 while setting a school record by winning 10 consecutive road games. That team produced three All-Americans, including Butkus Award winning LB Matt Russell, and averaged 452.1 yards of offense, including 303.5 in the air, while allowing just 315.5 yards to opponents.

Neuheisel's 20-4 record in his first two seasons were the fifth-most wins at the time for a first-time head coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision (Division IA).

In his first season as a head coach (1995), Colorado finished fifth on both major polls. He guided the Buffaloes to a 10-2 record (the best ever by a first-year CU coach) and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl (a 38-6 win over Oregon), becoming the school's first rookie coach to take a team to a bowl game. Following his first season, he signed a recruiting class (February 1996) that was rated No. 2 nationally.

Neuheisel spent the 1994 season as a Colorado assistant coach under Bill McCartney after going to CU from UCLA. That year, Colorado defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor on a last-second touchdown play modified on the sideline by Neuheisel.

Neuheisel spent six seasons (1988-93, 41-27-1 record) as an assistant coach at his alma mater. During his final four years he tutored the wide receivers, helping to develop some of UCLA's all-time greats, such as J.J. Stokes, Kevin Jordan and Sean LaChapelle. In 1993, Stokes helped the Bruins reach the Rose Bowl while setting school records with 82 receptions, 1,181 yards (since broken) and 17 touchdowns. LaChapelle made 73 receptions in 1991 and Jordan made 45 as a sophomore in Neuheisel's last year (1993). In 1990, three Bruins – Scott Miller, Reggie Moore and LaChapelle – all made at least 35 receptions for at least 600 yards.

Neuheisel joined the UCLA staff full-time in 1988 and coached quarterbacks for two seasons, including future NFL Hall of Fame quarterback Troy Aikman in his senior year (1988). Aikman earned consensus All-America honors and finished third in the Heisman Trophy race, completing a then-school record 228 passes for 2,771 yards, a .644 percentage and a school record 24 touchdowns (since broken). Aikman was the No. 1 selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

In 1986, Neuheisel served as a volunteer coach and his major assignment was to teach the offense to a transfer from the University of Oklahoma who had to sit out the 1986 season – Aikman.

The Bruin head coach also played some professional football. In 1987, he was in three games with the San Diego Chargers and started twice. He completed 40 of 59 passes for 367 yards and one touchdown and also ran for a score.

Against Tampa Bay, he completed 18 of 22 passes for 217 yards and a touchdown, setting a team record for completion percentage in a game (81.8%).

He also spent two seasons (1984 and 1985) in the United States Football League (USFL), playing with the San Antonio Gunslingers. In his rookie season, he completed 211 of 385 passes (.548) for 2,544 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Neuheisel began his collegiate career at UCLA (1979-83) as a walk-on, holding for place kicker John Lee, and earned the starting quarterback job during his senior season (1983). He led the Bruins to the Pac-10 title after a 0-3-1 start, earning honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors while completing 185 of 267 passes for 2,245 yards and 13 touchdowns. His completion percentage of .693 that season is still a school record. In a classic game against Washington, he completed 25 of 27 passes for a then-NCAA record .926 completion percentage in a 27-24 victory. That mark is still a UCLA record and a Pac-10 conference record by a quarterback with a minimum of 20 completions in a game.

In his final contest as a Bruin, he overcame food poisoning to lead UCLA to a 45-9 victory against Illinois in the 1984 Rose Bowl. He was named the game's MVP after throwing for 298 yards and four touchdowns. In 1998, he was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame for his efforts.

During his Bruin career, he completed 198 of 290 passes for 2,480 yards and 15 touchdowns and his completion percentage of .683 is a school record.

Neuheisel earned his Bachelor's degree in Political Science in 1984. In 1986, while he was tutoring Aikman as a volunteer, he attended law school at USC and earned his degree in May of 1990.

CHUCK BULLOUGH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR-2nd SEASON/LINEBACKERS-5TH SEASON
MICHIGAN STATE '92

Chuck Bullough (BULL-ah) is set to begin his second season as defensive coordinator after coaching linebackers during his first three years at UCLA. He had five years of NFL coaching experience as a defensive assistant with the Chicago Bears prior to coming to Westwood.

Last season, UCLA ranked first in the Pac-10 in turnovers forced with 30 (T-26th in NCAA), tackles for loss at 8.15/g (5th in NCAA) and red-zone points allowed. The Bruins were second in the conference in pass defense (28th nationally), red-zone efficiency and third down efficiency (18th) and third in scoring defense (27th) and total defense (32nd). Player development is a key to Bullough's philosophy, and in 2009 defensive lineman Brian Price (2nd rd. pick of Tampa Bay) was named the Pac-10 Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. Safety Rahim Moore, who led the nation in interceptions, was a first-team All-American. Cornerback Alterraun Verner (4th rd. pick of Tennessee) also earned All-America acclaim. Linebackers Reggie Carter, who was chosen first-team All-Pac-10, and Akeem Ayers, who was a Sophomore All-American, were also honored.

In '08, his linebackers excelled as a group. Carter led the team with 83 tackles and three fumble recoveries while Ayers and Steve Sloan gained valuable experience for the future. Carter's 20 tackles at BYU were the most by a Bruin since 1989.

The '07 Bruin defense ranked 14th in the nation in rush defense (109.2 yds/g) and 29th in total defense (343.23 yds/g). Leading the way for the linebackers were Christian Taylor (third on team in tackles), Kyle Bosworth (5th), Carter (t-6th) and Aaron Whittington (9th). Taylor ranked second on the team with 12.5 tackles for loss, while Carter was third (12.0). In a game at Washington State, Bosworth recorded 19 tackles.

In '06, the Bruins tied for ninth in the nation, and first in the conference, in rush defense (91.08 yds/g) with a young group of linebackers. Taylor, Carter and Eric McNeal helped to lead the defense. Taylor ranked second on the team with 83 tackles and was fifth (tied) in the Pac-10 in tackles for loss (1.04/g) and 16th in tackles (6.38/g). McNeal made the game-saving tip and interception against USC. Carter earned Freshman All-America honors after tallying 48 tackles, including 6.0 for loss.

Bullough, 42, has been a member of two staffs on which the head coach earned "Coach of the Year" honors. In '01, Dick Jauron was named NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Bears to a 13-3 record (4-12 in the season prior to that staff's arrival). In '05, Western Michigan improved from 1-10 to 7-4, the biggest turnaround in Mid-American Conference history, and first-year head coach Bill Cubit was named MAC Coach of the Year.

Bullough has coached numerous players to post-season honors. Reggie Carter earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors from the league's coaches in '09. He garnered first-team Freshman All-America acclaim in '06 from rivals.com; second-team honors from both collegefootballnews.com and scout.com; and third-team accolades from Sporting News. In '05, Bullough was linebackers coach at Western Michigan when Ameer Ismail earned first-team All-MAC honors. Ismail ranked sixth (tied) nationally with 20 tackles for loss and 34th with eight sacks that season. In '04, he worked as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Lake Forest College.

From '99-'03, Bullough was an assistant for the Chicago Bears, coaching the linebackers ('99-'01), defensive line ('02) and the secondary ('03). He helped tutor Brian Urlacher, Ted Washington, Jerry Azumah and Larry Whigham to Pro Bowl berths.

A two-time All-Big Ten selection (first team in '91 and second in '90) and second-team All-American linebacker as a player at Michigan State, Bullough set an MSU single-season record with 175 tackles. He was a member of three bowl championship teams, including the '87 Rose Bowl squad, and the Spartans won two Big Ten titles during his career. Bullough was selected in the eighth round of the '92 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and had a five-year professional career. He played for the Dolphins ('93-95) and attended camps with the Eagles ('92) and Colts ('96). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, assisting with the defensive backs in '97 and the offensive line in '98.

His father, Henry, rose from the steel mills of Canton, OH, to become known as the "Doctor of Defense" as an NFL defensive coordinator for 23 years for multiple teams. He served as the head coach of the Buffalo Bills for parts of the '85 and '86 seasons. Henry earned a Super Bowl championship ring as an assistant coach with the Colts in '70 and won national collegiate football championships at Michigan State, as a player in '52 and as the defensive coordinator of the Spartans' '65 and '66 teams.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California (CIF Southern Section).

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Physical Education/Exercise Science from Michigan State, 1992; At UCLA: Fifth year (joined the staff in February of 2006); Born: March 3, 1968 in East Lansing, MI. Family: Chuck and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Chloe and Annika.

NORM CHOW

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS-3RD SEASON
UTAH '68

Norm Chow, who is considered one of the top offensive coaches in collegiate football history, is in his third season as the Bruin offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In '09, Kevin Prince enjoyed one of the top seasons ever by a UCLA freshman quarterback, ranking second in pass completions, passing yards and total offense. In '08, quarterback Kevin Craft completed 232 passes, the second-highest total in school history.

Chow came to UCLA from the NFL's Tennessee Titans in January of '07, where he had served as offensive coordinator the previous three years. He is credited with helping quarterback Vince Young's transition from college to the pro game. In '07, the Titans earned a spot in the NFL playoffs and finished the regular season with a record of 10-6.

In '06, Young, a rookie quarterback from Texas, took over the offense during the season's fourth week. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earned Rookie of the Year honors (only the second QB to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year) and became the first rookie quarterback to play in the Pro Bowl.

Young earned all of the headlines, but it was the running game that drove the offense as the Titans finished fifth in the league in rushing, amassing the sixth-highest rushing total in franchise history (2,214 yds) and the highest yards per carry in franchise history (4.7).

In '05, Chow adapted to the pro game with ease despite an offense that relied on a youthful cast of players and encountered numerous injuries. The Titans ranked ninth in passing and 17th overall in offense. The group of rookie receivers (WR Brandon Jones, WR Roydell Williams, WR Courtney Roby and TE Bo Scaife) became the first quartet of rookie players, since the '68 Buffalo Bills, to each record at least 20 receptions in a season. Scaife established a franchise mark for receptions by a rookie tight end with 37.

Before joining the Titans, Chow spent 32 highly productive years coaching at the collegiate level, tasting every form of success at that level. He won three national titles (BYU, '84; USC '03, '04), tutored three Heisman Trophy winners (Ty Detmer, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart), participated in 27 bowl games, and was named national Assistant Coach of the Year on three occasions. He left an indelible mark on the college game as he worked with many of the NCAA's top career passing efficiency leaders. Chow has mentored six first-round NFL draft picks (Palmer, Leinart, Philip Rivers, Steve Young, Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson) and one Pro Football Hall of Fame member (Young).

Chow joined the Titans in February of '05, after spending four seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Southern California. At the helm of the offense, Chow directed an attack that ranked in the nation's top 20 in total offense in each of his final three seasons, tutored two Heisman trophy-winning quarterbacks (Palmer, '02 /Leinart, '04) and won two national titles. The Trojans were 42-9 during his four seasons, 36-3 in the final three.

In his final season at USC, the Trojans ranked sixth nationally in scoring offense (38.2), seventh in passing efficiency, 12th in total offense (449.1) and 13th in passing offense (271.7). Quarterback Matt Leinart was the Heisman Trophy winner, Walter Camp Player of the Year, repeated as a first team All-American and was the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. In '03, Leinart set Pac-10 season records for touchdown passes (38) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating (164.5) of any USC quarterback in history. USC was fifth nationally in passing efficiency and scoring offense, 13th in passing offense (291.6) and 14th in total offense (447.5). The offense set Pac-10 season records with 534 points and by scoring 40-plus points in seven consecutive games.

In '02, quarterback Carson Palmer won the Heisman Trophy and Unitas Award en route to becoming the number one overall selection in the NFL draft. He became the Pac-10's career leader in passing yards and total offense, while USC led the conference in total offense and scoring. Nationally, the offense ranked sixth in passing efficiency, eighth in passing offense (306.8) and total offense (449.2) and ninth in scoring offense (35.8).

Chow spent the '00 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State. The Wolfpack pass offense was ranked 15th nationally (292.6). His quarterback, Philip Rivers, was a Freshman All-American who completed 53.7% (237 of 441) of his passes for 3,054 yards with 25 touchdowns and ranked 12th nationally in total offense (269.9). Rivers is now the starting quarterback for the San Diego Chargers.

Prior to joining the N.C. State staff, Chow spent 27 years ('73-'99) at Brigham Young University. At various times, he was the Cougars' assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach, receivers coach, recruiting coordinator and graduate assistant ('73, '74). BYU posted a 244-91-3 record during his time in Provo, appeared in 22 bowls and saw 21 offensive players earn All-America honors. In 12 of his 18 years as offensive coordinator at BYU, Chow led the offense to a place in the NCAA's top 10 in total offense. Chow was with coach LaVell Edwards for all but two ('72 & '00) of his 29 years at BYU.

Chow began his coaching career as the head coach at Waialua (HI) High, serving for three seasons ('70-'72).

He was a two-year starter and three-year letterman at guard for the University of Utah ('65-'67). In 1967, he earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team and All-American honorable mention honors. Chow was selected to Utah's All-Century Team. He then played briefly with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1968 before a knee injury ended his playing career.

In his years of coaching, Chow has garnered numerous accolades, including: the Broyles Award ('02) as the nation's top assistant coach, National Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Foundation ('99) and Athlon ('93), and the NCAA Division 1-A Offensive Coordinator of the Year ('96 & '02) by American Football Monthly. In 2006, FOX's Terry Bradshaw named Chow the NFL's Top Assistant Coach. Additionally, Chow served as the grand marshal of the Golden Dragon Parade celebrating the Chinese New Year in Los Angeles' Chinatown in '04.

FRANK GANSZ, JR.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR-3RD SEASON
THE CITADEL '85

Last season, placekicker Kai Forbath won the Lou Groza Award and earned consensus first-team All-America honors, making 28 of 31 field goal attempts. He also matched an NCAA record by making 19-of-19 kicks from inside of 40 yards. Redshirt freshman punter Jeff Locke averaged 43.6 yards per kick and was a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award. Senior Terrence Austin set school career records in kickoff and punt returns.

Forbath was named first-team all-conference, while Locke and Austin were named second-team All-Pac-10 in 2009. UCLA also blocked five kicks on the season and scored a touchdown and two safeties on special teams.

In 2008, Aaron Perez led the Pacific-10 Conference in punting (45.2), Forbath tied for the league lead in field goals (19, in 12 games) and Austin set UCLA marks for all-purpose yards (1,878) and kickoff return yards (1,109). UCLA blocked two punts for touchdowns and scored a defensive PAT.

During his decade in the NFL, Gansz coached special teams standouts such as return specialist Dante Hall, named to the NFL's All-Decade team, and place kicker Matt Stover. In '07, the Ravens placed ninth in the NFL in punt returns (9.7 yards) and 10th in the league in kickoff returns (23.5). Matt Stover made 27 of 32 field goals and all 26 PATs. His 27 field goals tied for 10th in the league. In '06, Stover led NFL kickers with a 93.3% field goal conversion mark (28 of 30), and ranked fourth among kickers with 121 points. He was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl. In addition, linebacker Gary Stills led the NFL with 44 special teams tackles, the second-most in NFL history, and was also named a Pro Bowl first alternate. Rookie punter Sam Koch produced just three touchbacks, 30 punts inside the 20 (fifth in NFL). He was second in the league with 12 punts inside the 10.

Gansz, 47, spent the '01-'05 seasons as special teams coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. During that span, Stills became the Chiefs' all-time leader in special teams tackles (148). Kick returner Dante Hall was named to the Pro Bowl in both '02 and '03 and led the NFL in most returns for touchdowns (10, six on kickoffs and four on punts). Gansz-led units excelled in blocking punts and kicks, recording four blocked punts from '01-'02 and Kansas City batted away three field goals in two seasons ('02-'03). In '05, the Chiefs' special teams units ranked fourth in average drive start (30.7) and eighth with 1,591 kickoff return yards. Kicker Lawrence Tynes converted two 50-yard FGs for the second time in two years. Hall scored a TD on a kickoff for the fourth straight year. In '04, Hall scored two kickoff return touchdowns for the second straight year and Tynes made two 50-yard FGs in his first season. Kansas City set single-season franchise records in kickoff returns (75) and yardage (1,820).

In '03, Gansz's units led the NFL with four special teams touchdowns, as Hall scored on two kickoff returns and two punt returns, en route to his second consecutive Pro

Bowl appearance. Hall became the first player in NFL history to record a score on a kickoff return in four straight games. His touchdown in the Divisional playoff game vs. Indianapolis gave him five overall returns on the season. Hall also broke a single-season franchise record with 2,446 combined net yards. Kansas City led the league in both punt return average (16.4) and kick return average (25.4), the first team to do so since Washington in '95. The 16.4 punt return average broke a 43-year-old team record. In Gansz' second season with the Chiefs (2002), Hall scored on three kick returns (two punts and one kickoff) to earn his first Pro Bowl berth. In '01, the Chiefs blocked two punts and partially blocked a third.

Prior to his tenure in Kansas City, he coached special teams for the Oakland Raiders for two seasons ('98, '99), tutoring standouts Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. He also coached in the '99 Senior Bowl.

Gansz spent five seasons ('93-'97) as tight ends and special teams coach at the University of Houston, setting a school record for kickoff return average in '96. His units set another school record with an 87-yard punt return vs. SMU en route to the Conference USA championship and a trip to the Liberty Bowl vs. Syracuse.

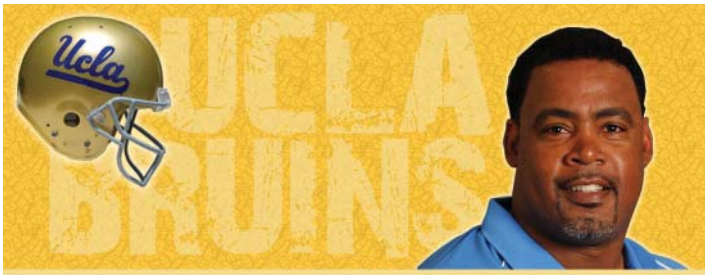

He spent one season ('92) with the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (NFL Europe). The Knights led the league in punt returns, kickoff returns, kickoff coverage and special teams touchdowns (four).

Gansz spent two years ('90-'91) as tight ends/special teams coach at West Point, two years at the University of Pittsburgh, coaching special teams and the offensive line in '88 and special teams and the secondary in '89, and one season ('87) as a graduate assistant at Kansas, working with the wide receivers.

Gansz was a four-year defensive back at The Citadel.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — CIF Northern, North Coast and Central Coast Sections.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from The Citadel, 1985; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in February of 2008); Family: Gansz is single. His father, the late Frank Gansz Sr. coached at UCLA for two seasons ('76-'77) and was a longtime NFL coach.

TODD HOWARD

ASSOC. HEAD COACH - DEFENSE/DEFENSIVE LINE-5TH SEASON
TEXAS A&M '91

Todd Howard, who possesses both NFL playing and coaching experience, is in his fifth season as UCLA's defensive line coach. In 2009, junior tackle Brian Price earned first-team All-America honors and recorded 23.5 tackles for loss, the highest total ever by a Bruin lineman. Price, a defensive tackle, was honored as the Pac-10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. In addition, defensive ends Korey Bosworth and Datone Jones combined for 25.0 tackles for loss.

In 2008, Price earned first-team All-Pac-10 and Sophomore All-America honors. He ranked seventh in the Pac-10 with 14.0 TFLs. Senior Brigham Harwell was a second-team All-Pac-10 pick and Bosworth ranked seventh in the Pac-10 in sacks (7.5), averaging 0.62/g.

In '07, UCLA ranked 14th in the nation in rush defense (109.2 yds/g) and 29th in total defense (343.23). In addition, the defense ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77) and tied for 15th in sacks per game (3.0). Defensive end Bruce Davis led the team with 12.0 sacks (t-first in Pac-10) and 15.5 tackles for loss. Davis' two-year total of 24.5 sacks is second only to Dave Ball (27.5 in '02,'03) for the most-ever by a Bruin in back-to-back seasons. Kevin Brown added seven tackles for loss and four sacks.

In '06, his first season at UCLA, the line showed marked improvement. The Bruins were ranked ninth (tied) in the nation and first (tied) in the Pac-10 in rush defense (91.08) and 33rd nationally in total defense (304.83). His two ends, Justin Hickman, a consensus All-American, and Davis, who also earned first-team All-America honors, tied for first in the conference and fourth in the nation with 12.5 quarterback sacks. Tackles Brigham Harwell and Brown also flourished under the new coach.

Howard had spent the previous three seasons ('03-'05) in the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars, serving as assistant defensive line coach. He assisted the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks.

He, along with defensive line coach Ray Hamilton, oversaw the Jaguars' defensive line. In '05, Jacksonville led the NFL in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (four). In addition, the Jaguars ranked third (tied) with 47 quarterback sacks, sixth in total defense (290.9 yards) and 14th in rushing defense (106.8 yards). Defensive tackle Marcus Stroud earned a Pro Bowl appearance for the third straight time and defensive tackle John Henderson was an alternate in '05 after making the team in '04.

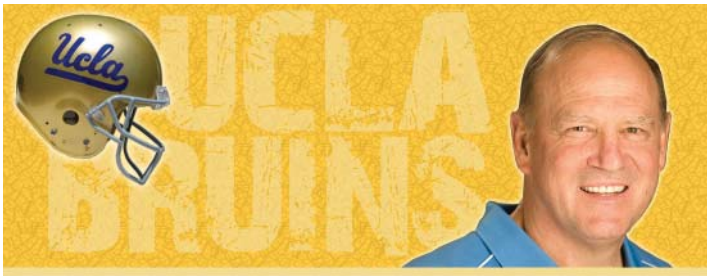

Howard has 14 years of experience coaching in college and five in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL for two seasons. For one month prior to joining the Jaguars, he was the associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. Howard spent three seasons ('00-'02) as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech, helping that school win the '01 WAC title. Prior to that, he was a defensive assistant for two years ('98-'99) with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control.

Howard began his coaching career in '91 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference championship coaching staffs. He coached at Grinnell (Iowa) College from '94 through '97, and served as the defensive coordinator in '96 and '97. In addition, he was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their '97 training camp, helping on defense. He also performed a minority coaching internship with the San Diego Chargers in '02.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in '87 and played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and on the special teams. He played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in '91 and was on injured reserve throughout the '92 season. Howard was an all-conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started at linebacker for three seasons ('84-'86) on teams which won a pair of conference titles.

TIM HUNDLEY

SECONDARY-2ND SEASON
WESTERN OREGON STATE '74

Tim Hundley, who has a long association with head coach Rick Neuheisel (seven seasons on Neuheisel's staffs at Colorado and Washington and both were assistants at UCLA for four seasons), rejoined the Bruin staff in February of 2009 as secondary coach in charge of safeties. In '09, sophomore Rahim Moore led the nation with 10 interceptions, the second-highest total in school history, from his free safety spot and earned first-team All-America and first-team All-Conference honors. The Bruins led the Pac-10 in turnovers gained, with 30, were ranked second in pass defense and third in total defense.

In '08, Hundley served as Assistant Head Coach/Defense at SMU. He spent the previous four years ('04-'07) as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Texas–El Paso. In '07, UTEP ranked 17th in the nation in turnover ratio at plus-nine and placed two players on the All-Conference USA squad. During his four-year stint, his Miner players captured a total of 10 All-Conference honors and one Defensive Player of the Year award. In '05, Hundley was recognized by Scouts, Inc., as one of five coordinators nationally with the "best head-coaching potential."

Hundley has coached in 14 bowl games, including two Rose Bowls, and groomed 20 players who moved on to the National Football League, including Marquis Cooper (Seattle), Thomas Howard (Oakland), Michael Lewis (49ers), Quinton Demps (Eagles), Kenny Taylor (Bears) and UCLA alums Ryan Neufeld (Buffalo), Donnie Edwards (Chiefs, Chargers) and Tommy Bennett (Cardinals). In addition, Hundley recruited six players who garnered collegiate All-America honors - David Kilson (Nevada), Andre Gurode (Colorado), Michael Lewis (Colorado), Cade McNown (UCLA), Sam Merriman (Idaho) and Jamir Miller (UCLA). He has also served as coordinator for two Coach of the Year selections – Dave Kragthorpe of Oregon St. (Pac-10) in '89 and Mike Price of UTEP (AFCA Region Four) in '04.

Hundley's coaching resume includes 18 years as a defensive coordinator - two at Clackamas Community College ('75-'76), one at Idaho ('79), six at Oregon State ('84-'89), five at Washington ('99-'03) and four at UTEP.

Hundley served as the defensive coordinator at Washington, under Neuheisel from '99-'02, and as co-defensive coordinator for the Huskies in '03. He tutored the outside linebackers from '99-'02 before overseeing the entire linebacking corps in '03. He also supervised the punt coverage unit during his final season with the Huskies.

He began his coaching career in '74 as a graduate assistant at Western Oregon State, his alma mater. He went on to stints at Clackamas Community College ('75-'76), Idaho ('77-'79) and Nevada ('80-'81). In '78, he coached the running backs at Idaho, marking the only time in his coaching career that he has spent time on the offensive side of the ball. In '82, he began a long-running association with the Pac-10 Conference. He worked at Oregon State for eight years before enjoying six seasons ('90-'95) at UCLA as inside linebackers coach and, in the latter three years, special teams coordinator. The '93 Bruin staff also included Neuheisel, offensive line coach Bob Palcic and running backs coach Wayne Moses. Following three years on Neuheisel's staff at Colorado ('96-'98), he followed coach Neuheisel to Washington.

Hundley was inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame after an All-America football career at Western Oregon State. He was a three-time All-Conference selection in college. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Western Oregon State in '74, and added a master's degree in education from Idaho in '78. Hundley lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Forest Grove High School.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES —Oregon, Washington, California (CIF San Diego Section).

Nick was a catcher on the Arizona baseball team that reached the '04 College World Series. He is currently a member of the San Diego Padres. Jake earned his Doctorate in engineering at UCLA in '09.

CLARK LEA

LINEBACKERS - 1ST SEASON
VANDERBILT '05

Clark Lea is in his first season as a full-time assistant coach in charge of the Bruin linebackers, having been promoted in February, 2010.

In the '09 season, Lea coached the linebackers as a second-year graduate assistant. Chuck Bullough, in his first year as defensive coordinator, was able to focus his efforts on the entire defense while Lea was hands-on with the linebacking corps.

"Clark is an outstanding young coach with a very bright future," said Neuheisel. "I thought he did a fine job in 2009 with our group of linebackers. In addition, he is a dogged recruiter. Even though he was not allowed to go off-campus, he made a great impression on recruits and their families when they came to campus and built great relationships with several of the young men who signed with us, most notably Aramide Olaniyan."

Lea (pronounced Lee) also served as a Bruin graduate assistant under former defensive coordinator DeWayne Walker in '06, working with Bullough and the linebackers.

In between his two stints as a Bruin coach, he spent two seasons ('07 and '08) as linebackers coach at South Dakota State University and was recruiting coordinator during the latter year. He also coached the kickoff coverage unit and assisted with other special teams units. In '08, the Jackrabbits finished 7-5, playing six teams ranked in the Top 25, and placed third in league play with a 6-2 record. Lea also oversaw the efforts that yielded a recruiting class of 18 in February. In '07, his three starting linebackers ranked among the top four tacklers in the league and South Dakota State won the Great West Football Conference championship. Two of his players were first-team All-League selections and the third was a second-team choice.

In '05, he served as an intern for the UCLA staff and was also an assistant football coach at Harvard-Westake High School.

Prior to UCLA, Lea served as an offensive graduate assistant (running backs) at Vanderbilt University in the Spring of '05. Lea was a three-year letterwinner at Vanderbilt University from '02-'04, the final year as a graduate student, and was a baseball letterman at Belmont University in '01-'02 and Birmingham Southern College in '00-'01. During his collegiate career, Lea was a member of the SEC Honor Roll and an All-Academic SEC honoree. He was also a John Wooden Cup finalist, a trophy awarded by Athletes for a Better World, and a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honoree. He earned a Bachelor's in Political Science from Vanderbilt in '05 and a Master's in Political Science from Vanderbilt in '07.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California (CIF Sacramento, San Jaquin and Central Sections), Nevada.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Political Science from Vanderbilt University, 2005; Master's in Political Science from Vanderbilt University, 2007; At UCLA: Third year on staff (began second tenure in February of 2009); Born: November 11, 1981; Family: The son of Clark and Pam Lea; he has two sisters, Eva and Elizabeth.

REGGIE MOORE

WIDE RECEIVERS-3RD SEASON
UCLA '91

Former UCLA standout receiver Reggie Moore joined the staff in January of 2008 and is beginning his third season as wide receivers coach.

In 2009, sophomores Nelson Rosario and Taylor Embree continued to flourish as the team's top two receivers and senior Terrence Austin (7th rd. pick of Redskins) moved up to No. 11 on the career receiving chart while setting numerous kickoff and punt return records. In '08, Austin made 53 receptions, the most by a Bruin wide receiver since '02, and Embree set UCLA true freshmen records for most receptions and most receiving yards in a game and for a season.

Prior to his return home, Moore spent four years ('04-'07) coaching the wide receivers at North Dakota State University. The Bison posted an overall record of 35-9 during his tenure, including a 20-2 mark his last two seasons, highlighted by a 14-game winning streak. In three of the four seasons, NDSU averaged over 30 points per game, including a best of 39.5 ppg while on its way to a 10-1 mark in '07.

The Bison notched wins over Central Michigan and Minnesota during that '07 campaign, their first as a Division I program, on the way to earning a No. 9 national ranking in the Football Championship Subdivision Coaches and Sports Network final polls. The '06 Bison team also won 10 games, including a victory at Ball State in which it passed for a school record total of 451 yards. NDSU captured the Great West Conference football championship and was ranked No. 5 in the nation in both final polls. The only blemish on the 2006 record was a one-point loss to Minnesota. In '05, the Bison recorded a 7-4 mark. NDSU went 8-3 in '04 and was ranked 23rd nationally in the final polls.

In the summer of '04, Moore served an internship with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He spent the '03 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington (he was hired by Neuheisel but coached for Keith Gilbertson), working with the wide receivers. The Huskies went 6-6 that season and tied for fifth in the Pac-10.

Moore was a three-year starter at wide receiver at UCLA ('87-'90), catching many of his balls from two of the top quarterbacks in UCLA history, Troy Aikman and Tommy Maddox. He still ranks No. 18 on UCLA's all-time list with his 92 career receptions and his 1,483 yards. He averaged 16.1 yards per catch and scored 10 touchdowns.

In '90, Moore, now 42, earned the Kenneth S. Washington Award for outstanding senior after leading the UCLA team with 40 receptions for 643 yards and three touchdowns. He had a big game in a win versus Stanford that season, catching eight balls for a career-best 133 yards. Reggie had a total of three 100-yard games in all, including a 122-yard effort in a '88 win at California and a 105-yard game in a win at Washington, also in '88.

He earned honorable mention on the '89 Pac-10 All-Academic team after catching 12 passes (tied for fifth on the team) for 181 yards and a touchdown. Moore was named to the '88 first-team sophomore All-America squad by Sporting News following a 38-catch (second on team) season in which he gained 627 yards and scored six touchdowns. His 48-yard touchdown reception from Aikman, with just 1:28 remaining in the game, was the winning margin in a 24-17 victory over Washington that season. Moore went on to play in the '90 Blue-Gray Football Classic and attended the NFL Combine.

Following his collegiate career, Moore was a member of the New York Jets ('91-'93) and the Los Angeles Rams ('93) as a wide receiver and return specialist. He then coached in the high school ranks at James Madison High School in Houston, Texas, for four seasons ('99-'02). He spent three of those years mentoring and tutoring Tennessee Titans quarterback Vince Young. He also served as a fire fighter and paramedic with the Houston Fire Department from '96 to '03, before joining the staff at the University of Washington.

Moore earned his BA in History from UCLA in '91.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California (CIF L.A. City and Southern Sections).

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from UCLA, 1991; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: March 23, 1968 in Houston, TX; Family: Reggie is single. Father, Zeke, played for the Houston Oilers from 1967-78 and appeared in two Pro Bowls.

WAYNE MOSES

RUNNING BACKS-3RD SEASON
WASHINGTON '77

Wayne Moses is set to begin his third season as UCLA's running backs coach. The Bruins ran the ball more effectively in 2009, upping their average per rush by a yard per carry, with youngsters like Johnathan Franklin and Derrick Coleman and veteran Chane Moline getting the bulk of the work. Franklin registered two 100-yard games in his freshman season (only one freshman player in Bruin history has had more than two) and led the team in rushing. His total of 566 yards ranked as the sixth-best freshman rushing total in school history.

Moses spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the NFL as running backs coach for the St. Louis Rams. In 2007, Steven Jackson rushed for 1,002 yards. In 2006, Jackson earned his first Pro Bowl berth after totaling a career-high 1,528 yards (third in the NFC, fifth in the NFL). Jackson also caught 90 passes, a total that led NFL running backs and was fourth in the NFC (tied for seventh in the NFL). Jackson's 2,334 yards from scrimmage led the NFL and his total of 105 first downs led the NFC and was second in the NFL. His 96 points tied for the NFC lead, and tied for third in the NFL, in scoring for non-kickers.

Prior to joining the Rams, Moses enjoyed a 28-year college coaching career, working with running backs at five Pacific-10 schools, starting in 1990. He coached at UCLA ('90-'95), Cal ('96), Washington ('97-'00), USC ('01), and Stanford ('02-'03, '05). Moses spent '04 at Pitt. Some of the Pac-10 players who have worked under Moses include Karim Abdul-Jabbar, Kevin Williams, Skip Hicks, Shawn Wills at UCLA; Deltha O'Neal, Tarik Smith at Cal, Willie Hurst, Rashawn Shehee at UW; Kenneth Tolan, Kerry Carter at Stanford. He has coached in 13 bowl games, including four at UCLA.

Moses and Bruin head coach Rick Neuheisel served as fellow assistants at UCLA from '90-93 and he also worked for Neuheisel at Washington in '99-'00. In their final year together, UW captured the conference title, went to the Rose Bowl and finished No. 3 in both of the final polls. In addition, he worked alongside offensive coordinator Norm Chow at USC in '01. He also worked with offensive line coach Bob Palcic and secondary coach Tim Hundley at UCLA in '93 when the Bruins won the Pac-10 title and played in the 1994 Rose Bowl.

In '04, Moses was part of a Pittsburgh team that won the Big East Championship and advanced to a BCS Bowl for the first time in school history. The Panthers won six of their final seven regular season games to earn a Fiesta Bowl berth versus Utah.

While working at USC in '01, he helped the Trojans finish 5-3 in the Pac-10 (6-6 overall) and advance to their first post-season bowl game after a two-year absence.

From '97-'00, Moses was the running backs coach at his alma mater, Washington. The Huskies led the Pac-10 in rushing in '00 (16th nationally) and went on to play in a bowl game each year ('97 Aloha Bowl, '98 Oahu Bowl, '99 Holiday Bowl, '01 Rose Bowl).

He spent the '96 season handling the running backs at Cal, helping the Golden Bears to their first bowl appearance in six years. Under head coach Steve Mariucci, Cal finished the regular season 6-5 and played Navy in the Aloha Bowl.

Moses was running backs coach at UCLA under Terry Donahue for six seasons ('90-95) and worked with coach Neuheisel for the first four. Abdul-Jabbar and Williams led the Pac-10 in rushing under Moses' tutelage, while Hicks went on to earn All-America honors later in his career. In '95, Abdul-Jabbar set UCLA's single-season rushing record and was named first-team All-America. The Bruins played in the '91 Sun Bowl, '94 Rose Bowl and '95 Aloha Bowl with Moses on staff. Five Bruin backs coached by Moses were selected in the NFL draft (Maury Toy, Kevin Smith, Williams, Abdul-Jabbar and Hicks).

Before moving to UCLA, he was the wide receivers coach at New Mexico in '89. His top receiver that season, Terance Mathis, set NCAA career records for receptions and receiving yardage. Mathis went on to play 13 seasons in the NFL. From '86-'88, Moses coached at San Diego State. During his time there, Paul Hewitt led the nation in scoring in '87 and the Aztecs played in the '86 Holiday Bowl. In '84-'85, he worked for two seasons at Rutgers. Prior to that, Moses served as the running backs coach at Bowling Green University from '81-'83. BGSU played in the '82 California Bowl.

Moses was at North Carolina State in '80, where he worked with the defensive backs. In '79, he was the running backs coach at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga, CA. Moses began his coaching career in '78 as a graduate assistant at Cal State Fullerton, working with the defensive backs.

He was also a coaching intern with the NFL's Los Angeles Raiders, Seattle Seahawks and Denver Broncos during the summers of '90, '93 and '99, respectively.

Moses was a four-year ('73-'74, '76-'77) letterman at UW, starting at cornerback his last two seasons. He was a member of the Huskies' 1978 Rose Bowl championship team.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Washington in 1977. He spent some time out of football when he was hired by the FBI to train as an agent at Quantico, Virginia. Moses played football and basketball at San Dimas (CA) High.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California (CIF Southern and Oakland Sections).

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Political Science from Washington, 1977; At UCLA: Third year of his second tenure (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: January 11, 1955 in New Gulf, TX. Family: Wayne and his wife, Rosalind, have two daughters: Valerie, a 2004 graduate of the University of Washington, and Kimberly, a 2008 graduate of Sacramento State University.

BOB PALCIC

ASSOC. HEAD COACH - OFFENSE/OFFENSIVE LINE-3RD SEASON
DAYTON '71

Bob Palcic, who has coached two Outland Trophy winners, is in his third season at UCLA after joining the coaching staff in January of 2008. The offensive line continued to progress and grow in '09 and should be even better in the coming season with four returning starters. Last season, true freshman tackle Xavier Su'a-Filo earned second-team Freshman All-America honors.

In his first year back at UCLA, Palcic helped develop a young group and worked through numerous injuries, starting nine different combinations in the 12 games of the 2008 campaign. He had spent the '06 and '07 seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of Wisconsin, after 12 years in the National Football League.

Palcic possesses 39 years of coaching experience, including 23 in college, 12 in the NFL, two in the CFL and two in high school. He also coached in Westwood in the '93 season when UCLA won the Pac-10 championship and played in the '94 Rose Bowl. The Bruin o-line that season featured seniors Vaughn Parker and Craig Novitsky, both of whom earned All-America honors and played in the NFL. It included sophomores Jonathan Ogden, '95 Outland Trophy winner and 11-time NFL All-Pro, and Mike Flanagan, who was an NFL standout himself for over a decade. Rick Neuheisel was an assistant on that Bruin staff, as were current assistants Tim Hundley and Wayne Moses.

In '07, Wisconsin finished 9-4 overall and played in the Outback Bowl. Led by the offensive line, the Badgers averaged 201.5 yards on the ground during the regular season (22nd in the NCAA). Center Marcus Coleman was a first-team All-Big 10 selection by the media, guard Kraig Urbik was a consensus second-team choice and tackle Gabe Carimi earned second-team Freshman All-America acclaim.

In '06, he coached Outland Trophy winner and consensus All-America left tackle Joe Thomas on a Badger team which won 12 of 13 games. Thomas went on to become the No. 3 pick in the 2007 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

Palcic went to Wisconsin from the NFL's New Orleans Saints, where he coached tight ends from '00–05. His previous professional stops included coaching the offensive line for the Cleveland Browns ('99), tutoring the tight ends for the Detroit Lions ('97-'98) and coaching the offensive line for the Atlanta Falcons ('94-'96).

Palcic went to the Falcons after spending 19 of the previous 21 seasons coaching offensive linemen at seven different universities. He coached the '93 UCLA offensive line that matched up against Wisconsin in the '94 Rose Bowl. Palcic tutored the Southern California offensive line in '92 and helped the Trojans to a Freedom Bowl appearance. He was offensive line coach at Ohio State from '86–'91, a period during which the Buckeyes played in two Hall of Fame Bowls, a Cotton Bowl and a Liberty Bowl.

The University of Arizona's offensive line was under Palcic's direction from '84-'85 (the Wildcats played in the Sun Bowl during that time). A two-year stint ('82-'83) with the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts ('83 Grey Cup title) was preceded by a four-year ('78–'81) stop as Wisconsin's o-line coach under head coach Dave McClain.

Palcic was Ball State's offensive line coach in '76–'77 (went to Wisconsin with McClain, who was BSU's head coach) and Dayton's linebackers/offensive line coach in '74–'75. He got his college coaching start guiding BSU's linebackers as a graduate assistant in '73. He also coached two years (1971-72) at Bishop Carroll High School in Dayton, OH.

Among the college players Palcic has coached are: former Baltimore Raven All-Pro tackle Jonathan Ogden (No. 4 pick in the '96 NFL Draft), third-team All-American and NFL veteran (Green Bay, Houston) Mike Flanagan, and first-team All-American and 11-year NFL player Vaughn Parker (all of UCLA); All-America tackle Tony Boselli (USC); first-team All-Big Ten offensive linemen Bob Maggs, Jeff Uhlenhake, Joe Staysniak, Jeff Davidson and Alan Kline (all at Ohio State); All-American Ray Snell and '06 Outland Trophy winner Joe Thomas (Wisconsin).

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — California (CIF Southern Section, Orange County), Colorado.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Education from Dayton, 1971, Master's in Education from Dayton, 1974; At UCLA: Third year of second tenure (joined the staff in January of 2008); Born: July 2, 1948 in Gowanda, N.Y. Family: Bob and his wife Theresa, have three children: Joe (currently the defensive coordinator at Indiana); Amy (Director of Marketing and Public Relations for Premier Sports & Entertainment) and Monica, who is married to NFL linebacker Mark Simoneau.

DARONTE' JONES

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT-1ST SEASON
MORGAN STATE '01

Daronte' Jones is beginning his first season as UCLA's defensive graduate assistant coach. His duties include assisting the defensive coaches with game preparation and working with the cornerbacks.

Jones came to UCLA after serving five seasons ('05-'09) as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Bowie State University in Bowie, MD. In addition to coordinating the Bulldog defense, Jones also served as the Pro Liaison.

During his five years, the defense employed an aggressive, attacking scheme that has gained the Bulldogs high recognition, both at the conference and national levels. In '09, the Bowie State ranked No. 1 among all Division II teams in total defense, allowing just 217.7 yards per game. They also ranked No. 2 nationally in rushing defense (56.5 yards per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense. Two Bulldogs were named first-team All-CIAA and two more were named to the second unit.

During his tenure, the Bowie State defense ranked in the Top 10 nationally in five different statistical categories (total defense, scoring defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks and rushing defense, including 3rd or higher in total defense). Under Jones' watch, eight defensive players were named All-CIAA, three named All-CIAA Rookie Class, and one D2football.com All-American.

Before joining the Bulldog staff, Jones served as assistant football coach and defensive coordinator at Jeanerette (LA) Senior High School ('04) and assistant coach and physical education teacher at Franklin Senior High School ('03-'04). He also served as assistant football coach/defensive backs at Nicholls State University ('02-'03) in Louisiana and defensive graduate assistant at Lenoir-Rhyne College ('01-'02) in North Carolina.

A native of Capital Heights, MD, Jones earned a bachelor's degree in '01 from Morgan State University in Baltimore, MD. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's from Morgan State, 2001; At UCLA: First year on staff (joined staff in March of 2010); Born: November 11, 1978 in Annapolis, MD.

BRIAN SHEPPARD

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT-1ST SEASON
BAKER UNIVERSITY '06

Brian Sheppard enters his first season as UCLA's offensive graduate assistant coach. He will assist offensive coordinator Norm Chow and work with the tight ends. His duties also include breaking down opponents' game video, aiding the coaches with game preparation and directing the defensive scout team.

Sheppard spent the last three seasons (2007-09) as a graduate assistant at New Mexico State, the last under former Bruin defensive coordinator DeWayne Walker. In 2009, he coached the tight ends after working with the quarterbacks and receivers his first two years.

Prior to going to New Mexico State, Sheppard spent one season (2006) at Tulsa University under former head coach Steve Kragthorpe. His responsibilities included cutting up film, scouting of players, and breaking down opponents. He also assisted the offensive coordinator and worked with the quarterbacks in his offensive quality control role.

Sheppard played college football at Southeastern Louisiana University, before transferring to Baker University where he finished his playing career and earned his undergraduate degree in Business in 2006.

In 2001 & 2002, Sheppard was a quarterback for Saddleback Junior College, helping his team to a 9-2 record both seasons and second place in its league. Sheppard was an all-conference selection in football and baseball at Redmond High School (Seattle) his junior and senior seasons.

Brian's father, Mike Sheppard, is a long-time football coach having spent time in college football (head coach at Long Beach State and New Mexico) as well as the NFL. Mike Sheppard is currently coaching wide receivers for the Cincinnati Bengals.

ANGUS McCLURE

DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING-4TH YEAR
SACRAMENTO STATE '95

In his present position, McClure's duties include recruiting administration and organization; current roster and scholarship management, managing all official and unofficial visits; tracking all recruiting paperwork, including transcripts, serving as liaison to college All-Star game representatives; liaison with pro scouts; and other assignments from the head coach.

This past February, UCLA's recruiting class was ranked in the Top 10 by most recruiting services, including a No. 6 ranking from The Sporting News and No. 8 by Scout.com and Rivals.com. UCLA's 2009 class was also ranked the the Top 10.

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator on Turner Gill's staff at the University of Buffalo during the 2006 season. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other member of the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks earned second-team All-MAC honors in '06 and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News. Center Jamey Richards, whom he coached, was drafted in the seventh round by the Indianapolis Colts and started at left guard and center as a rookie.

McClure spent the two previous seasons ('04-'05) as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at the University of Nebraska. McClure assisted with the offensive line, coaching the offensive tackles, as well as serving in several special teams roles. During that time, Nebraska defeated Michigan in the Alamo Bowl. He coached lineman Matt Slauson, who earned Freshman All-America honors and became a sixth-round draft choice of the New York Jets. He also coached lineman Lydon Murtha, a seventh-round selection by the Detroit Lions.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure played a major role in developing record-breaking offenses at Sacramento State University, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach from '97-'03. During his tenure at Sacramento State, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the New England Patriots, has collected three Super Bowl rings since moving to the NFL, while Marko Cavka was a sixth-round selection by the New York Jets. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sacramento State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times ('98, '99, '00, '02).

In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada. He helped the Wolfpack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. That year, Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yards per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing.

From the winter of '95 to the spring of '96, he served as offensive line/run game coordinator at American River College. McClure helped create the offensive playbook and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

In addition, McClure served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Buffalo Bills ('07, '06), San Francisco 49ers ('02, '00, '99, '98, '97, '96), Seattle Seahawks ('98) and San Diego Chargers ('97).

A graduate of Sacramento State, where he played football from '87-'91, McClure also served as a member of the faculty there from '97-'04. He was a member of the '88 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from '92-'95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: Fourth year/third in administration (joined the staff in June of 2007); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish (10) and Malcolm (5).

STEVEN RADICEVIC

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS-3RD YEAR
UCLA '07

Steven Radicevic is in his third season on the Bruin football staff. This will be his second season as director of football operations after serving as assistant director of football operations in 2008. His duties include overseeing all day-to-day operations for the football program; arranging camps, clinics, pro day and the daily schedule; serving as the football liaison with the athletic department and handling all issues pertaining to incoming student-athletes (transcripts, applications, housing). He also works with assistant coach Reggie Moore on alumni-player relations.

In 2007, he worked as an undergraduate coach after having his playing career end due to a back injury. He assisted the defense, working with the line, coached the scout team offensive line and also directed offensive scout team meetings. He also helped organize recruiting efforts in Florida, Texas, Louisiana and Southern California.

Radicevic redshirted in '06, practicing on the defensive line. He transferred to UCLA in January of '06 from UC Davis, where he played offensive tackle for two ('03 and '04) seasons. He did not play in '05 prior to his transfer.

Radicevic grew up in Culver City, CA and attended El Segundo, CA High.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Psychology from UCLA, Dec. 2007; At UCLA: Second year in current position; Born: February 10, 1985 in Key West, FL; Family: Son of Alexandra Radicevic; has one sister, Stephanie, a junior at the University of Arizona.

MIKE LINN

HEAD ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE COACH-13TH YEAR
UCLA '93

Mike Linn is in the third year of his second tenure as UCLA's head athletic performance coach. The Bruins continue to make great strides thanks to Linn's training methods and use of cutting-edge technology.

Linn, who has both collegiate and corporate experience, previously served as the Bruin head strength and conditioning coach from 1999-2002. The 1993 UCLA graduate was a two-year starter along the offensive line on the Bruin football team and a member of two Bruin bowl teams.

In addition to working directly with football, he oversees all operations in UCLA's 15,000-square foot weight room. He is joined by a highly-accredited staff, including assistant coaches Craig Sowers, Ray Weisenbarger, Jon Fussell, Jill Robinson and Wes Long.

Linn is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength Coaches Association, as well as a Level One weightlifting coach. A national speaker in his field, he is also a published author in the field of human performance.

Linn rejoined the Bruin program in February of 2007 after serving as the Vice President of Performance for Velocity Sports Performance since 2006. While at Velocity Sports Performance, he worked to develop training programs for its 63 franchise locations and over 20,000 athletes nationwide. In addition, Linn supervised the training and professional development for a network of over 700 coaches. Linn was also instrumental in launching several key initiatives with Velocity's national partners Gatorade, Nike and the National Strength and Conditioning Association during his tenure.

From 2005-2006, Linn served as the Director of the Velocity Sports Performance franchise in St. Louis, MO. While at the St. Louis location, he collaborated on the training, injury prevention and rehabilitation of over 500 area athletes. He also directed professional athlete development programs for numerous NFL, MLB, NHL and MLS athletes.

Linn's collegiate experience includes a stint from 2002-2005 as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at St. Louis University. At SLU, he was responsible for all aspects of athletic performance for the over 350 student-athletes at the university that participated in 16 Division I sports.

Mike previously served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at UCLA from 1999-2002. While managing all areas of the strength and conditioning department for over 700 student-athletes, Linn designed and administered weight training, conditioning, agility, plyometric and speed development programs for football and basketball.

Prior to becoming the head of the UCLA program in 1999, he worked with the Olympic sports teams as an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1992-99. Five of his Bruin teams captured national championships during his tenure as an assistant (men's volleyball, men's water polo (2), men's soccer and women's softball). In addition, the women's basketball team won its first Pac-10 Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA tournament.

Linn came to UCLA as a freshman recruit in 1987 after starring as an offensive lineman and track and field performer at Esperanza High School in Orange County, CA. He was named the No. 17 prep lineman in the country by one publication and earned Tacoma News-Tribune and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West team honors. Linn was also a school record-holder and All-CIF performer in the discus.

The 1993 UCLA graduate was a member of two bowl teams and a starter in two seasons. The Bruins averaged 164 yards on the ground during Linn's starts at right guard, including one of UCLA's all-time best efforts of 358 yards versus Arizona in 1991. He also was a starter for UCLA's stunning upset at No. 2-ranked Washington in the 1990 season. One of the top Bruins in the weight room as a player, Linn set a team-high in the three main lifts -- squat, bench, and clean -- of 1,366 pounds during his junior season. Following the conclusion of his playing days, Mike served as a undergraduate assistant coach during the 1992 season at UCLA.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's of Arts, UCLA, 1993; At UCLA: Third year of second tenure (joined staff in February, 2007) - 13th year overall; Born: November 7, 1969; Family: Linn is married to the former Karen Nelson, a UCLA gymnast who was a two-time All-American in the Vault and the 1994 Pac-10 Vault champion. They have two children, Kylie and Ryker.

TONY PERRI

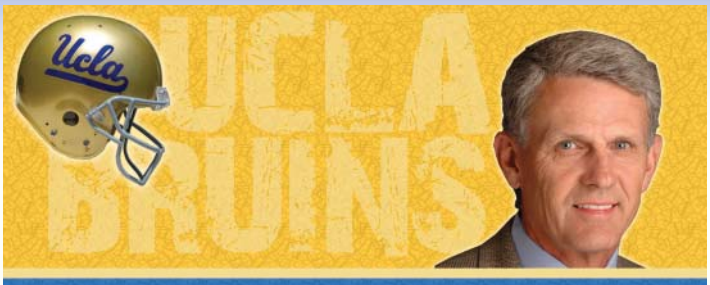

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS-26TH YEAR
UCLA '84

Tony Perri is in his fifth year as the Director of Equipment Operations at UCLA and his 26th as a full-time staff member in the equipment room (Feb. 1985). He also worked part-time as a student employee. He is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance, and distribution of equipment for all 24 of UCLA's athletic teams. Perri works primarily with the football and men's basketball squads.

In addition, Perri supervises the student manager program along with his equipment staff - Pete Maglieri, Sean Markus, Phil Hollenbaugh, Kyle Steve, Kristen Beer and Eddie Valencia.

Perri is also responsible for managing an annual equipment budget of over $1.5 million. He and his staff are in charge of coordinating the equipment and apparel needs for the football program's practices, games and travel.

Perri is a certified member of Athletic Equipment Managers Association and was the AEMA District Equipment Manager of the Year in 1999. A former Bruin baseball player (1980-83) who earned his BA in 1984, Perri and his wife Lenora have two children, Bryan and Laureen.

BOB FIELD

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/FOOTBALL-32ND YEAR
ARKANSAS '71

Bob Field is an associate athletic director and has served as a member of UCLA's athletic administration since January of 2001.

Field oversees men's and women's golf and women's rowing and serves as an aide to Dan Guerrero in all football matters. He was instrumental in the coaching search that resulted in the selection of Rick Neuheisel. Field also oversees housing, parking, training table, video services, agent relations and coaches' development.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach with the Bruin football team. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-2000) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers and defensive backs at various times in his career.

Field has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season. Over the years, he tutored some of the top athletes in school history and crafted numerous defenses ranked in the Top 20 in various categories.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator in his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year varsity letterman and two-year starter in the secondary. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5. As a player and coach, Field participated in 20 bowl games, including one Orange, two Sugar, three Cotton, two Fiesta and five Rose Bowls. During his tenure at UCLA, the Bruins recorded eight consecutive bowl wins, eight straight wins over USC and won or tied for seven Pac-10 championships.

PERSONAL — He is married to Valorie Kondos Field, UCLA's current women's gymnastics coach. He has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael. Brian and his wife Carmell have two daughters, Selah and Micah.

ANTHONY VENUTE

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL-2ND SEASON
UCLA '02

Anthony Venute joined the UCLA athletic training staff in May of 2005. A UCLA graduate, he is set to begin his sixth season working with Bruin football and his second as the head athletic trainer for the team.

While his duties at UCLA have been primarily with the football team, Anthony has also worked with the women's water polo squad and the women's golf program. He was a student athletic trainer at UCLA as an undergraduate while pursuing his degree in Physiological Science and assisted with the football and softball teams from 1999-2001.

Venute earned his Masters degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Athletic Training from Michigan State where he served as a graduate assistant from 2002-04 on the athletic training staff for the sports of football and baseball. He then went on to perform an internship with the Buffalo Bills training staff during the 2004-05 NFL season. Venute gained additional NFL experience during the summer of 2001 when he was an intern on the training staff of the Cleveland Browns.

Anthony has been NATA (National Athletic Trainers' Association) certified since 2002.

KEN NORRIS
VIDEO COORDINATOR-22ND YEAR

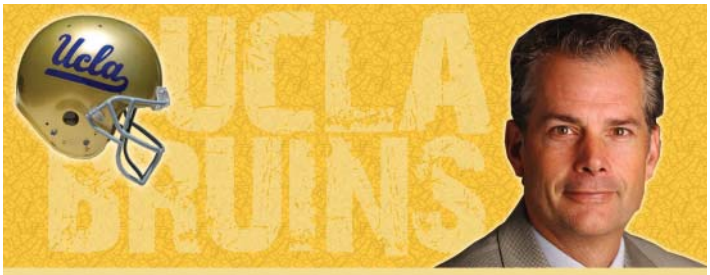

Ken Norris is in his 22nd year as UCLA's Director of Video Operations. Norris and his staff are responsible for recording the practices and games of the UCLA football team. They work with the coaching staff and provide them with specialized footage or "cut-ups" of the team and opponents for coaching, scouting, and game-planning purposes.

Ken "The Godfather" Norris is considered one of the most innovative and respected minds in his profession and has been named National Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers in the Collegiate Sports Video Association. One of Norris' latest projects has been the development and implementation of the I2 Internet Exchange Program in the Pacific-10 Conference. This venture now allows the Conference's 10 football programs to exchange coaching videos through the internet, bypassing the use of videotape. This rapid exchange of video means teams can now acquire the opposition's films more quickly, providing coaches with valuable additional time to scout and prepare for upcoming games. Norris is currently assisting other sports and other athletic conferences in implementing the I2 Program in their respective sports.

Norris and his staff are also responsible for filming instructional and highlight footage for almost every UCLA Athletic program. They create many of the teams' year-end highlight films. He is assisted by full-time staff members Eric Kowal and Tony Gentile and students Ethan Tussey, Phil Izdebzki, Eddie Kim, David Godoy, Forrest Lockwood and Robert Ledo.

Norris began his career working for the NFL's Los Angeles Rams at age 13 splicing and editing 16mm film. He came to UCLA in 1989 after the retirement of legendary Bruin cinematographer Stan Troutman.

He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Travis (age 19) and Chelsea (17).

SCOTT MITCHELL
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR-MARKETING & NEW REVENUES
27TH YEAR-UTAH '81

Scott Mitchell oversees the UCLA Marketing Department which consists of approximately 25 staff members (five full-time employees, 12 undergraduate student interns and a telemarketing staff of 10 to 15).

Mitchell's areas of responsibility include UCLA ticket sales, alternative revenue generation, brand marketing, advertising and promotion for 24 Bruin sports teams. He is responsible for website overview, digital strategy, liaison with the UCLA licensing and apparel divisions, spirit support and the band. He has oversight of UCLA's community relations programs: "I'm Going To College", "Athletics For Youth", "Adopt A Classroom" and "Read to Succeed". Mitchell works closely with the UCLA Central Ticket Office, the ISP sales team in increasing corporate support for UCLA's athletic program and with the Sport Information Department in furthering UCLA's brand presence throughout Southern California and the nation.

Football attendance, ticket sales and corresponding revenue have increased dramatically during Mitchell's tenure as Director of Marketing. 2009 marked a year of record football revenue. The 2008 season marked the first time in UCLA history that over a half-million fans watched the Bruins play at the Rose Bowl. The three best years in UCLA history for average annual attendance have occurred under Mitchell's leadership. UCLA reached 60,000 in average attendance six times in their first 58 years of existence. The Bruins have surpassed that figure in nine of the past 10 years.

New programs that Mitchell initiated for 2010 UCLA Football include the introduction of the new Student Den Season Pass that replaces the Den Season Ticket, the creation of a Spouse/Partner discounted season pass, the creation and implementation of a first-ever reserved parking option for non-donor football season ticket holders at Parson's, and the inception of a True Bruins Wear Blue promotion encouraging fans, students and faculty/staff members to wear blue on the Friday prior to each home game.

Mitchell is the founder of the "I'm Going To College" program, the nation's largest collegiate community outreach program, which now impacts 50,000 youngsters annually. He created the "SuperShot", the student promotion that runs at halftime of every UCLA men's and women's basketball game, and was responsible for forming UCLA's student/fan support group "The Den". He created UCLA's successful Select-A-Seat program, held annually at the Rose Bowl and Pauley Pavilion. Mitchell is responsible for the tagline "Champions Made Here", which UCLA has built into a multi-year branding campaign.

Mitchell is on the NCAA Football Promotions and Brand Marketing Committee and is the former Chair of that group. He has been a member of the five-person Pac-10 Properties Board of Directors since its inception. He is the Chair of the Football Game Day Programming Committee. Mitchell has served in a number of leadership and administrative roles on behalf of UCLA and the Pac-10 Conference over the past 25 years.

Mitchell, a 1981 graduate of the University of Utah and a former student athlete in the sport of baseball, is the father of three children: Windy, Courtney and Kelsey. He resides in Capistrano Beach.

DALE RUDD
DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE-15TH YEAR
CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE '75

Dale Rudd, who has more than 30 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, is in his 15th year as UCLA's Director of Sports Medicine. He oversees the operation of UCLA's coed training room.

Rudd leads a center that offers Bruin athletes a comprehensive program entailing injury prevention; recognition, evaluation and management of injuries; rehabilitation and re-conditioning following injury or surgery; and education and counseling. In addition, the staff and facilities of the UCLA Medical Center, one of the world's best medical teaching facilities, are heavily utilized in the treatment of the student-athletes.

In Spring of 2003, the athletic training staff moved into a new state-of-the-art facility as part of the Acosta Center project.

Rudd returned to UCLA in May of 2003 from the University of California, where he served as head athletic trainer for one year. Prior to that, he was an athletic trainer and rehabilitation specialist with El Dorado Physical Therapy in El Dorado Hills, CA for a year. He also served as head athletic trainer at Stanford from 1997-2001, head athletic trainer at UCLA from 1990-97 and head athletic trainer at Pepperdine from 1988-90.

In addition, Rudd has had management positions on athletic training staffs at Purdue ('85-'88), Cal State Northridge ('82-'85), UNLV ('78-'82) and U.S. International University ('77-'78).

He served on the NATA Appropriate Medical Coverage Task Force, and is past chair of the Pac-10 Athletic Trainer Committee ('94-'96) and past co-chair of the Pac-10 Student-Athlete Health Care Conference ('99).

The Athletic Training and Rehabilitation Center is a coed facility staffed by Certified Athletic Trainers, including Steve Agee, Lorita Granger, Tandice Hawkey, Kristin Lage, April McKinney, Laef Morris, James Smuda, Tony Spino, Tina Tubbs, Director of Rehabilitation Jeremy Vail and head football trainer Anthony Venute. They are assisted by 30 student athletic trainers.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's (Magna Cum Laude) from Cal State Northridge, 1976; Master's of Science in Exercise and Sport Science from Arizona, 1977; At UCLA: Seventh year (named head trainer in May of 2003; previously UCLA's head trainer for seven years - June 1990-Spring 1997); Born: February 4, 1953 in Tucson, AZ; Family: Wife,

The Bruins begin the third season of the Rick Neuheisel Era having closed out the 2009 campaign by winning four of their last five games, including a victory in the EagleBank Bowl. They enter the 2010 season with the coaching staff virtually intact and a third straight Top Ten recruiting class. A total of 42 lettermen, including 12 positional starters and the best kicking tandem in the nation, give Neuheisel and his staff reason for optimism heading towards the Sept. 4 opener at Kansas State.

"I expect us to continue to build on the growth and progress we made on offense a year ago," said the Bruin head coach. "Most of our young players have now gained starting experience and are entering the third year of our system. That experience, combined with their continuity in the system, leads us to believe we are ready to take a step forward offensively, especially in the area of the big play. With all that said, I expect there to be great competition at virtually every position on a daily basis and it will be fun to watch us continue to develop as a unit."

"Defensively, we lost some important contributors but we are excited about our returning nucleus of starters and young talent. We were pleased with their overall development during Spring Practice. Our staff on this side of the ball will continue to tweak our system to fit the strengths of our players. In addition, we have made great strides in speed and strength due to our recruiting and off-season conditioning."

"When it comes to special teams, no team has a better pair of kickers than Kai Forbath and Jeff Locke. We have made great strides in our coverage units and we will be looking to solidify our kick returning position during the Fall."

Offensively, UCLA returns players with starting experience at nine of the eleven positions. Quarterback Kevin Prince started 11 games and threw for over 2,000 yards in his first season on the field. The top two wide receivers in terms of receptions and receiving yards -- Taylor Embree (45 for 608 yards) and Nelson Rosario (42 for 723 yards) -- are also back, as is tight end Cory Harkey, who started four games. Last season's top two rushers, Johnathan Franklin, a starter in eight games who totaled 566 yards on the ground, and Derrick Coleman, who ran for 244 yards, are both set to return. Four starters along the offensive line also return -- left guard Jeff Baca, center Kai Maiava, right guard Eddie Williams and right tackle Mike Harris. The coaches will look at several other talented players to help complete the puzzle.

Defensively, UCLA returns five starters, plus a 2008 starter and several other key performers from a unit that ranked near the top of the Pac-10 in pass defense, total defense and scoring defense. All-America free safety Rahim Moore, who led the nation with 10 interceptions, and outside linebacker Akeem Ayers, who scored three defensive touchdowns, are the leaders of this group. UCLA returns three players who started a majority of the games in the secondary - Moore, strong safety Tony Dye and cornerback Sheldon Price - and another cornerback, Aaron Hester, who won the starting job but played in just two games due to injury. End Datone Jones, who made 11 tackles for loss, is the leader on the line. Several talented youngsters will compete for open spots and playing time this Fall.

On special teams, Forbath led the nation in field goals per game (2.15/g), won the Lou Groza Award and earned consensus All-America honors. Jeff Locke ranked second in the Pac-10 in punting and was the only freshman among the semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award. Christian Yount was the first-ever long snapper named to the Playboy pre-season All-America team.

The schedule features trips to BCS Championship Game participant Texas and Kansas State, both of the Big XII, and a non-conference home date with high-scoring Houston from Conference USA. Five of the nine Pacific-10 conference games are at the Rose Bowl this season, beginning with a battle against Stanford on September 11 and culminating with the regular-season finale versus USC on December 4. It also features Thursday night games at Oregon and at Washington and a Friday afternoon encounter at Arizona State.

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK

The Bruins return three quarterbacks who each took their first snaps in a game last season. All now have experience and familiarity with the system and will be looking to provide a consistent level of production and efficiency within the system.

Redshirt sophomore KEVIN PRINCE (6-2, 230) was named the starter a year ago at the end of 2009 Spring Practice. He went on to open up under center against San Diego State and started all 11 games he played in during the season. The strong-armed signal-caller completed 173 of 308 passes (56%) for 2,050 yards, eight touchdowns and eight interceptions. His completions and passing yards rank No. 2 on UCLA's all-time freshman list. He ranked seventh in the Pac-10 in total offense (202.64) and eighth in passing efficiency (115.45) and passing yards (186.36). In addition to his exploits in the air, Prince netted 179 rushing yards.

Prince became just the second freshman quarterback (Tommy Maddox, 1990) in UCLA history to pass for over 300 yards three times (311 v. Cal, 323 at Oregon St., 314 at Wash. St.) in a season. In fact, only Cade McNown, with six games as a senior in 1998, and Tom Ramsey, with four as a senior in 1982, have produced more 300-yard passing games in a season. Prince's total of 323 passing yards at Oregon State ranks No. 5 on UCLA's freshman passing list and 28th overall. His 390 total yards of offense at Washington State ranks No. 2 among Bruin freshmen (Tommy Maddox, 445 v. USC, 1990).

True sophomore RICHARD BREHAUT (6-2, 222) entered school for the 2009 Spring Quarter and was able to get a head start on the season by participating in last year's Spring drills. He went on to see action in six games off the bench and completed 11 of 17 passing attempts for 124 yards, no touchdowns and one interception. His year of experience should put him in better position to compete for playing time this season.

Redshirt sophomore NICK CRISSMAN (6-3, 205) is now healthy and able to show he is ready to add depth to the position. He was sidelined during the 2008 season by a torn labrum in his throwing shoulder that required surgery and spent part of 2009 rounding back into competitive shape. He saw his first game action with 10 snaps last season at Washington State.

DARIUS BELL (6-0, 218), a sophomore who transferred in this summer from City College of San Francisco, adds a dual threat performer to the mix. He completed 143 of 247 passes for 1,982 yards with 21 touchdowns and five interceptions last season at CCSF. He also rushed for 751 yards and 11 scores.

Walkon CLAYTON TUNNEY (6-4, 213), a redshirt junior who transferred in last year from UC Davis, will add depth after working with the scout team in 2009.

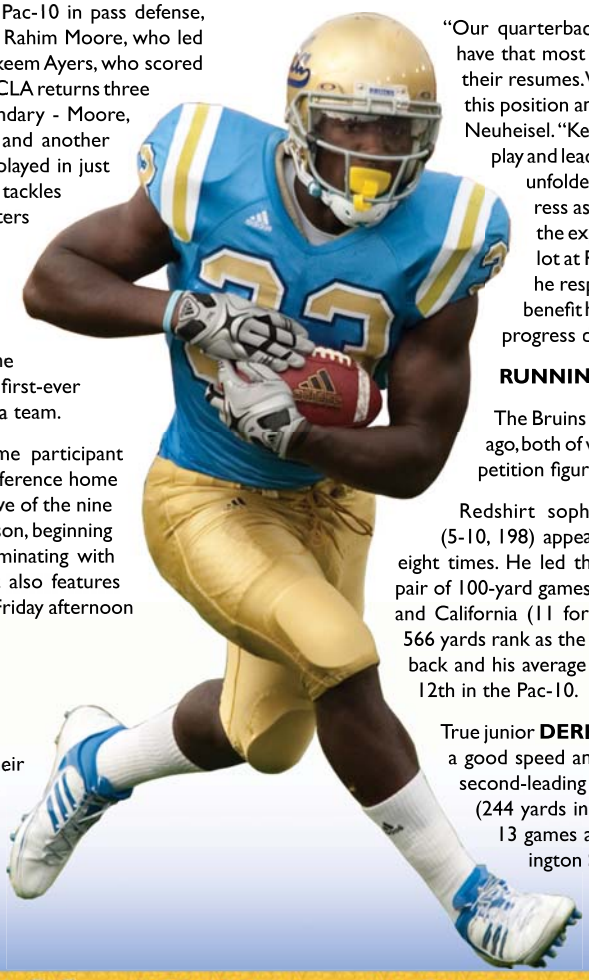

"Our quarterbacks are still rather young, but now they have that most valuable ingredient of all, experience, on their resumes. We must continue to improve our play at this position and I am confident that we will," said coach Neuheisel. "Kevin has been impressive at times and his play and leadership seemed to get better as the season unfolded. It will be interesting to measure his progress as he has now had a chance to fully process the experience he gained last season. We threw a lot at Richard in his first year in the program and he responded well. His experience will certainly benefit him going forward. Nick continued to show progress during the Spring."

RUNNING BACK

The Bruins return their top two tailbacks from a year ago, both of whom started at least one game. The competition figures to be intense right through the Fall.

Redshirt sophomore JOHNATHAN FRANKLIN (5-10, 198) appeared in all 13 games last season, starting eight times. He led the Bruins in rushing, and put together a pair of 100-yard games versus Kansas State (23 carries for 119) and California (11 for 101), and scored five touchdowns. His 566 yards rank as the sixth-best total ever by a Bruin freshman back and his average of 43.54 rushing yards per game ranked 12th in the Pac-10.

True junior DERRICK COLEMAN (6-0, 231), who offers a good speed and size combination, has been the team's second-leading rusher in each of the past two seasons (244 yards in 2009; 284 in 2008). He saw action in all 13 games a year ago and made one start (at Washington State).

RUNNING BACK
DERRICK COLEMAN

Incoming recruits JORDON JAMES (5-11, 191), a highly regarded speedster from Corona, CA HS; MALCOLM JONES (6-0, 223), who was named the Gatorade National Player of the Year after a big season at Oaks Christian HS in Westlake Village, CA; as well as, ANTHONY BARR (6-5, 228) from Loyola HS, join the team in August. Each earned numerous prep-All-America honors a year ago.

"We have talent and experience in the backfield and we will watch them continue to push each other on a daily basis at practice in the battle for playing time," Neuheisel said. "We need this group to become consistently productive and more efficient. Johnathan showed he has the ability to be a prime time player for us, but must eliminate mistakes that can undo the good he can provide. Derrick has played well for us at times and can be a big plus. The youngsters will up the level of competition in the daily practices. It will be interesting to evaluate this group each day leading up to the start of the season."

F- BACK

This hybrid position will line up in the backfield, on the line and be put in motion on different formations and plays.

Redshirt senior CHRISTIAN RAMIREZ (6-2, 215) will get a longer look at this position during Fall drills. He spent his freshman year on defense before moving to tailback. He is a fine athlete who has battled adversity the past few seasons. He missed 2008 due to eligibility reasons and was sidelined at the beginning of the 2009 campaign following an ankle injury. Ramirez went on to appear in three games last season with one start at running back (at Arizona). He had nine carries for 44 yards on the ground and caught one pass.

True sophomore MORRELL PRESLEY (6-4, 222) lined up at the F-back position this past Spring after playing in six games a year ago as a reserve tight end/wide receiver, making one start. Presley, who has the size and speed to create mismatches at this position, caught six passes for 43 yards during the 2009 season.

Speedy true sophomore DAMIEN THIGPEN (5-8, 178) saw action in all 13 games last season as a running back/special teams player. He carried 26 times for 62 net yards and caught seven passes for 41 yards. Thigpen also returned four kickoffs for an 18.0 average and did a good job in kick coverage.

Redshirt senior TOBI UMODU (5-11, 240), who made the move from linebacker to fullback in the Spring of 2008, figures to provide depth at this position. He did not see game action last season, but appeared in two contests in 2008. Redshirt freshman JAYSON ALLMOND (6-0, 260), from Fontana, CA, is a bruising blocker and runner who displayed his talents on the scout team last season while adjusting to the college game. Walkon redshirt freshman ROBERT FRANCO (6-0, 232) will look to add depth.

"The F-back will enable us to get players in better position to take advantage of their skills," said coach Neuheisel. "Christian is a gifted athlete who needs to put it all together to get on the field. Morrell has a full year of experience under his belt and we anticipate his productivity rising. Damien has speed to burn and we must get him in position to utilize it. Tobi and Jayson gives us additional weapons at this spot."

WIDE RECEIVER

The wide receiver position returns the top two receivers, each of whom made over 40 catches last season, and a group of young up-and-comers who will try to replace Terrence Austin. A talented transfer is also looking to inject himself into the mix.

True junior TAYLOR EMBREE (6-3, 201) has enjoyed two straight highly-productive seasons. He made 12 starts a year ago and led the team with 45 catches, after ranking second, with 40 receptions, as a freshman. Embree's 608 receiving yards were second-best on the team in 2009 while his 45 catches led to 29 first downs or touchdowns. His two-year total of 85 receptions ranks No. 22 (tied) on the UCLA career list. Embree ranked 12th (tied) in the Pac-10 in receptions (3.46) and was 13th in receiving yards (46.77).

True junior NELSON ROSARIO (6-5, 218), who blossomed during the latter half of last season, appeared in all 13 games and made two starts. He was named honorable mention All-Pac-10 after leading the team with 723 receiving yards and his average of 17.2 yards per catch. His total of 42 receptions ranked second on the team and produced 30 first downs, including two touchdowns. Rosario ranked 12th (tied) in the Pac-10 in receiving yards (55.62) and 18th (tied) in receptions (3.23).

Three young speed receivers will be looking to expand their roles on the team and each performed well during Spring Practice. True sophomore RANDALL CARROLL (5-10, 186) appeared in 10 games during the 2009 season and made three receptions for 21 yards. Redshirt freshman RICKY MARVRAY (5-11, 188) earned the attention of the coaching staff last season while performing on the scout team. He earned All-Region acclaim after helping lead Corona, CA Centennial HS to a State championship as a prep senior. Redshirt sophomore JERRY JOHNSON (6-4, 208) came off the bench in two games last year.

Redshirt junior transfer JOSH SMITH (6-0, 197) will look to find his way into the mix after joining the Bruins last fall following a transfer from the University of Colorado. He was a dangerous receiver and return man (honorable mention All-Big 12, 2008) for the Buffaloes. Smith caught 52 balls for three touchdowns in his two seasons at CU. He averaged 10.4 yards on 28 punt returns amd 25.5 yards on 50 kickoff returns.

Redshirt freshman walk-on JERRY RICE, JR. (5-11, 192) adds depth.

"This group has a nice combination of experienced talent and youthful potential," said the head coach. "Taylor and Nelson each had outstanding seasons for us a year ago. Our young receivers, Randall and Ricky, continue to develop and I am looking forward to seeing them on the field. Jerry possesses the ability to give us quality depth in the rotation. Josh gives us another deep threat with experience at this level. It should be fun watching this unit compete in practice."

TIGHT END

Despite the graduation of Logan Paulsen and Ryan Moya, this position looks to be in good shape with several experienced players returning to the practice field.

True junior CORY HARKEY (6-5, 259) is a big, athletic youngster who saw action in all 13 games and made four starts in 2009. He can be a force at the point of attack and also caught eight balls for 41 yards and a touchdown.

Redshirt sophomore JOSEPH FAURIA (6-7, 259) joined the Bruins in the Fall of 2009 after transferring from Notre Dame, where he played in three games as a freshman in 2008. He impressed the Bruin staff with his work with the scout team and appears ready to step right in and contribute based on his Spring efforts.

Redshirt sophomore walkon KEVIN McDERMOTT (6-3, 239) also spent the Spring working at this position. In addition, he serves as the back-up long snapper. Another walkon, redshirt freshman ANDREW YELICH (6-3, 223) is back.

True freshman JOHN YOUNG (6-3, 260), from Loyola HS, arrives in August.

"I am excited about our group of tight ends," said Neuheisel. "Cory has done a nice job for us in his first two seasons and now it is his time to step up. Joseph is a great addition and gives our quarterbacks a large target as a receiver. The young players are capable of providing depth at the position."

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line brings plenty of quality starting experience to the table. The unit returns four players who started a majority of the contests a year ago and three others who have started games. Last year's starting left tackle, Xavier Su'a Filo, is currently serving his two-year Mormon mission.

True junior JEFF BACA (6-4, 305) will be looking to start for the third straight season. An athletic big man, he was on the field for the opening offensive snap at left guard in all 13 games last season and has 21 career starts to his credit.

Redshirt junior MIKE HARRIS (6-5, 319) has started the last 18 straight games at right tackle. He looks to continue to build on a solid sophomore campaign.

Redshirt junior KAI MAIAVA (6-1, 298) started all 12 regular-season games last year at center. A transfer from Colorado where he started nine games at guard in 2007, he also brings plenty of experience to the table.

Redshirt senior EDDIE WILLIAMS (6-1, 329), who transferred in after earning junior college All-America honors at Mt. San Antonio College, started the first six games of 2009 at right guard until sidelined by a fractured left ankle. He made it through the Spring in good shape and is ready to go.

Redshirt senior RYAN TAYLOR (6-3, 298) will compete for the starting center spot and could also add depth at the guard spots. A transfer from Tyler (TX) College, he started contests last season at right guard against Oregon State and Washington before being sidelined by a foot injury.

A trio of redshirt seniors stand ready to help the line. Tackle MICAH KIA (6-5, 321), who started 15 games in the 2007 and 2008 seasons, returns after suffering a knee injury which kept him on the sidelines during the 2009 season. He was limited to non-contact work during Spring drills but will compete for the left tackle spot in Fall camp. DARIUS SAVAGE (6-4, 339) is another experienced candidate at the guard position, having played in all 13 games in 2009 on special teams and seeing limited duty at guard after starting seven games there in 2008. However, he sat out the action this Spring following back surgery. SEAN SHELLER (6-5, 300) returned to the offensive tackle position in the Spring after spending the 2009 season on defense. He saw action in three games last year on special teams.

Redshirt sophomore tackle BRETT DOWNEY (6-7, 302) saw his first game action last season at Washington State. He has impressed the coaches with his hard work and received a long look at tackle during the Spring.

Redshirt freshman GREG CAPELLA (6-4, 320) is a strong young player who put his year of scout team experience to work for him this past Spring at the center position. Redshirt sophomore CONNOR BRADFORD (6-5, 249) returns to the offensive side of the ball this season (defensive line in 2009) and will add depth on the line, as will redshirt sophomore walkon AUSTIN HILL (6-5, 260). True sophomore guard STAN HASIAK (6-5, 307) is not eligible to compete this season.

True freshman WADE YANDALL (6-4, 329) from Carson, CA HS enrolled early and participated in 2010 Spring ball. He will compete for playing time at a guard position.

Two incoming freshmen, KODY INNES (6-4, 279), from Saguaro HS in Scottsdale, AZ and CHRIS WARD (6-4, 318) from Santa Ana, CA Mater Dei HS, join the mix in August. Both were highly-recruited prospects. Sophomore CASEY GRIFFITHS (6-5, 285) transferred in during the summer after playing a season of football at American River College last year.

"The offensive line has grown and developed together the last two seasons," Neuheisel said. "A lot of the guys have gained significant starting experience which will pay dividends this season. Most of them have also now been through the wars together, playing along side one another. We will look to identify our best unit and combinations and work to make them the best they can be in August."

DEFENSE

UCLA returns five starters on this side of the ball plus many talented youngsters who will compete for playing time and starting jobs throughout Fall camp.

DEFENSIVE LINE

This unit returns one full-time starter and the competition for playing time should be interesting to watch.

True junior left end DATONE JONES (6-4, 269) is the lone returning starter on the line. A year ago, he developed into an impact player and will now be looked upon for performance and leadership in 2010. As a sophomore, he started all 13 games and ranked third on the squad in quarterback sacks (4.0) and fourth on the team and 12th in the Pac-10 with his 11.0 tackles for loss. On the year, he made 30 tackles and earned Sophomore All-America honorable mention.

Three youngsters - redshirt sophomore DAMIEN HOLMES (6-3, 265), redshirt freshman KEENAN GRAHAM (6-2, 245) and true sophomore IUTA TEPA (6-1, 248) - will compete this Fall at the right end spot vacated by Korey Bosworth (14.0 tackles for loss).

A year ago, Holmes played well in a reserve role, appearing in all 13 games. He made 11 tackles, three for loss. Graham, suffered a fractured jaw in last year's pre-season camp and ended up redshirting. Tepa saw action in five games on defense or special teams in 2009. All three possess outstanding pass-rush skills.

Redshirt senior REGINALD STOKES (6-3, 272) missed Spring Practice due to January surgery on his right knee. It is anticipated that he will be ready by August and will be able to add depth at the position. In 2009, he appeared in eight games and contributed 10 tackles. Redshirt sophomore walkon RYAN MEDINA (6-3, 240) will also compete for playing time at end.

With the departure of All-American Brian Price (23.5 tackles for loss) and fellow tackle Jerzy Siewierski, redshirt senior DAVID CARTER (6-5, 301) is the most experienced of the tackle candidates. Carter has been a valuable reserve the past few years and has worked hard during the off-season to prepare himself for a starting role. He saw action in all 13 games in 2009 and was one of the most improved players on the defense. He occupied linemen so the linebackers could make plays, a key on the fourth-and-goal stop at Tennessee, and also made nine tackles himself.

Redshirt junior NATE CHANDLER (6-5, 290) will get a long look at one of the tackle positions. Chandler, strong and athletic, has made the switch to defense after contributing at tight end and at offensive tackle over the past two years. He appeared in 10 games in 2009, mostly on special teams, and made one reception.

Redshirt junior JUSTIN EDISON (6-4, 290), redshirt senior ANDY KEANE (6-2, 276) and redshirt sophomore DONOVAN CARTER (6-1, 280) all figure to compete for playing time at tackle. Edison appeared in six games a year ago and made two tackles. Carter, who played in a handful of games on special teams, has moved from linebacker to tackle. Keane, who did not see game action but played well in practice situations, is recovering from a finger tendon injury and his status for Fall camp is undetermined.

Five highly-recruited freshmen - three tackles and two ends - will raise the competiton level in August. CASSIUS MARSH (6-4, 285) of Westlake Village, CA, WESLEY FLOWERS (6-4, 257) from Fresno, CA, and SEALI'I EPENESA (6-2, 320) from Honolulu, HI, are expected to begin their Bruin careers at tackle while OWAMAGBE ODIGHIZUWA (6-4, 240) from Portland, OR, and DERRICK BRYANT (6-3, 236) from Columbus, OH, will line up at end/linebacker. All earned numerous prep honors and several could make contributions this coming season. Odighizuwa was rated among the top two or three ends nationally, while Marsh rated among the nation's Top 10 at tackle.

"We worked the defensive linemen hard during the Spring and the competition was fierce," said Neuheisel. "Datone is one of the top ends in the Pac-10 and our leader in this area. We have some talented youngsters who are looking to step up and prove they can follow in the footsteps of last year's starters. I expect the competiton to continue to be keen when we add our talented freshmen to the squad in August."

LINEBACKER

One starter from 2009, plus one starter from 2008, return to form the nucleus of the linebacker corps.

Redshirt junior outside linebacker AKEEM AYERS (6-4, 255) blossomed into a big-play performer a year ago and is a legitimate All-America candidate this season. He is already on the watch lists for the Lott Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. In 2009, he scored three touchdowns - two on interceptions and one on a fumble return. An outstanding all-around athlete with great quickness and range, he is adept at pressuring the quarterback. Ayers finished the season with 14.5 tackles for loss, six quarterback sacks and four interceptions to rank second on the squad in all three categories. He also was third with 75 tackles, most among the 2010 returnees.

Redshirt junior STEVE SLOAN (6-4, 228) has the most experience among the middle linebacker candidates seeking to replace Reggie Carter, who led the team in tackles in 2009 for a second straight year. In 2008, Sloan moved into the lineup for the year's third game (Arizona) and went on to start in nine of the final 10 contests, missing only when the Bruins began in the nickel formation. He made the defensive calls and was a solid overall performer, totaling 29 tackles. Last season, he appeared in all 13 games, mostly on special teams, and made three tackles.

True junior SEAN WESTGATE (5-11, 217), a standout performer on special teams his first two seasons, is the most experienced of the other outside linebacker candidates looking to replace the steady Kyle Bosworth. In 2009, Westgate played in all 13 games, including seven on defense, and started once. He made 18 tackles and blocked two punts, one of which resulted in a safety. He has now blocked three punts in two years. Westgate scored a touchdown on a blocked punt as a freshman.

Redshirt senior MIKE SCHMITT (6-1, 231), redshirt junior GLENN LOVE (6-4, 220) and true freshman JARED KOSTER (6-1, 213) figure to compete with Westgate for starting honors and playing time on the weak side. Schmitt appeared in all 13 games, mostly on special teams, and contributed eight tackles. Love made a smooth transition from strong safety to linebacker this Spring. A big hitter, he played in all 13 games a year ago on defense and special teams and was credited with 27 tackles. Koster entered school in January, 2010 after recovering from a sports hernia, and played well during Spring drills.

Two talented youngsters - redshirt sophomore PATRICK LARIMORE (6-3, 249) and redshirt freshman TODD GOLPER (6-0, 228) - will compete with Sloan for playing time in the middle. Larimore, who had an impressive Spring, appeared in 11 games (missed two due to a concussion) and played on several of the special teams units a year ago. Golper, one of the top linebackers in the West as a prep senior, redshirted in 2009.

Redshirt freshman ISAIAH BOWENS (6-1, 241) and redshirt sophomore DAVID ALLEN (6-2, 225) add depth behind Ayers on the strong side. Bowens, one of the top linebackers in the West as a prep senior, is an outstanding prospect after redshirting a year ago. Allen, a transfer from Tulane, appeared in 12 games on special teams during his first year in the program. Both players were co-defensive winners of UCLA's Outstanding Scout Team Player award.

Three walk-ons -- redshirt senior FRANK GUZMAN (6-1, 221), redshirt junior LUCAS BARBOSA (6-0, 232) and redshirt freshman ALEK CUSICK (6-2, 216) -- add depth.

Three true freshmen --- ARAMIDE OLANIYAN (6-2, 202) of Woodberry, VA, JORDAN ZUMWALT (6-4,225) of Huntington Beach, CA and ERIC KENDRICKS (6-1, 213) of Fresno, CA --- join the squad in August. Olaniyan and Zumwalt earned prep All-America honors a year ago while Kendricks was an All-Region performer. All three have bright futures.

"Akeem showed a year ago that he is on his way to becoming one of the top linebackers in the country," Neuheisel said. "He has great talent and instincts and is getting better and better each day he takes the field. Steve and Sean have plenty of experience at the position and it will be interesting to see how they play as a unit. Patrick had some impressive moments this Spring. We feel that Glenn has a chance to make a big contribution. We look forward to working with the youngsters in this group, including the three freshmen who will join us in August."

SECONDARY

The Bruins return two full-time starters, plus a third player, who started the majority of games following an injury. Several candidates will compete for the two cornerback positions and the opportunity to add depth at safety.

Free safety RAHIM MOORE (6-1, 196) returns for his junior season as perhaps the top safety in America and the unquestioned leader of the Bruin defense. He exploded onto the national spotlight as a true sophomore, earning All-America honors while leading the nation in interceptions. His 10 picks were the most by a player in the Football Bowl Subdivision since 2003. In addition, he also ranked second (tied) nationally in passes defensed and enters his junior season with 13 career interceptions (UCLA's career record is 19 by three-time consensus All-American Kenny Easley). He ranks fourth among returnees with 49 tackles.

True junior TONY DYE (5-11, 205) returns after starting all 13 games at strong safety a year ago. Especially effective in run support, Dye was one of five Bruins to record at least 70 tackles last season and he ranks second among the returnees with 73 stops. He also scored his first collegiate touchdown at Arizona, returning a tipped, backward lateral 28 yards.

Three talented youngsters --- true sophomore DALTON HILLIARD (6-0, 192) and redshirt freshmen ALEX MASCARENAS (5-10, 189) and STAN McKAY (6-1, 194) --- will compete for playing time at the two safety spots. Hilliard gained some experience a year ago, appearing in six games on defense or special teams, while Mascarenas and McKay each redshirted. All three have outstanding potential and the competition between this trio should be interesting to watch.

Several experienced candidates will compete for the two cornerback positions. True sophomore SHELDON PRICE (6-2, 178) started the final 11 games of the season while playing opposite All-American Alterraun Verner (13 career interceptions, five career touchdowns). The on-field experience figures to benefit him as his career progresses, as will some additional size and strength. On the year, he made 48 tackles.

Redshirt sophomore AARON HESTER (6-1, 203) showed plenty of promise a year ago, and earned the starting job for the opener against San Diego State. Unfortunately, he was injured in that first game and made just one other appearance. Now fully-recovered from his leg injury, he played well in the Spring and is one of the favorites to win a starting position.

Two other experienced players - redshirt junior COURTNEY VINEY (5-8, 168) and redshirt sophomore ANDREW ABBOTT (5-10, 178) - are also in the mix for starting jobs and playing time at cornerback. Viney started at Tennessee a year ago, playing every snap, but most of his action during the latter half of the year was on special teams. Abbott, a walkon, developed into the team's nickel cornerback a year ago. He appeared in all 13 games and made 22 tackles.

True sophomore BRANDON SERMONS (5-11, 177) and redshirt freshman MARLON POLLARD (6-0, 177) were each expected to get long looks during the Spring. Pollard, who redshirted in 2009, saw plenty of action, but Sermons, who played in nine games in 2009, mostly on special teams, broke his leg midway through the four-week session. Both are outstanding prospects.

Two non-scholarship cornerbacks -- redshirt sophomore JEFF DICKMAN (5-9, 178) and redshirt freshman E.J. TURNER (5-9, 200) -- figure to add depth.

A trio of highly-recruited freshmen ---- cornerbacks ANTHONY JEFFERSON (6-1, 177) from Los Angeles, CA; TEVIN McDONALD (6-0, 183) from Fresno, CA; safety DIETRICH RILEY (6-0, 201) of La Canada, CA ---- will work themselves into the competition in Fall camp. Jefferson and Riley earned prep All-America honors in 2009, while McDonald ranked among the best in the West. All three will add athletic ability and speed to the Bruin defense.

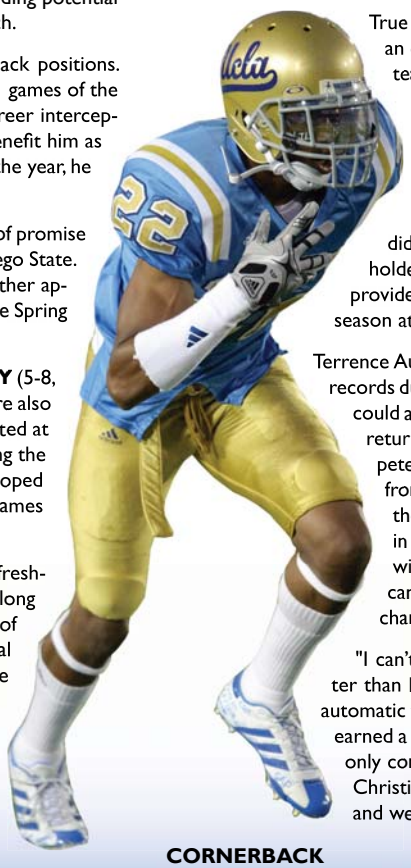

"The secondary is the most experienced area of our defense and the best part is that we don't have a senior in the bunch," said the third-year Bruin head coach. "In my opinion, Rahim is the best free safety in the nation and he is also the hardest-working player on our team. His upside is unbelievable. Tony did a nice job in his first year as a starter, but we still have some talented youngsters who will push them for playing time. At corner, Sheldon went through on-the-job training, but will benefit from that experience. We are excited that Aaron is fully-recovered from last season's leg injury. They will have to earn their spots in competition with some talented young players who will blossom with experience. The unit will be that much better, in August, when the freshmen arrive."

SPECIALISTS

This group figures to rank among the nation's best with the starting kickers, long-snapper and holder returning and a record-setting returner joining the unit.

Redshirt senior KAI FORBATH (6-0, 191) is closing in on all of UCLA's career kicking records and several NCAA marks as well. The 2009 Lou Groza Award winner and the consensus All-America place kicker enters his senior year with 72 field goals (John Lee holds the UCLA record with 85; the NCAA standard is 87) and a career percentage of .867, best in UCLA history and ahead of the current NCAA record mark. Last season, Forbath led the nation in field goals per game 2.15, converting 28 of 31 attempts (all three misses were from at least 51 yards). He enters the 2010 season having made 41 of his last 44 attempts overall and 37 straight kicks inside of 50 yards. He was a perfect 19-of-19 on field goal attempts from under 40 yards, which tied and NCAA percentage record. He also has nine career field goals of at least 50 yards and a .750 percentage (nine of 12) from that distance.

Redshirt sophomore JEFF LOCKE (6-1, 210) enjoyed a spectacular freshman season and should continue to improve. A year ago, he was one of the 10 semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award (only freshman on the list) and earned first-team Freshman All-America honors and second-team All-Pac-10 acclaim. He averaged 43.63 yards per kick to rank second in the Pac-10 and 16th in the nation, while UCLA ranked first in the Pac-10 in net punting. In addition, he handled the kickoff chores and led the conference with 20 touchbacks.

True senior CHRISTIAN YOUNT (6-1, 243) has done an outstanding job in his three previous seasons as the team's long snapper. In 2009, he became the first player at his position to be selected to the Playboy pre-season All-America team. Walkon redshirt sophomore KEVIN McDERMOTT (6-3, 239) adds depth at long snapper.

Redshirt senior walkon DANNY REES (6-3, 188) did an outstanding job in his first year as Forbath's holder and will fill that role again in 2010. In addition, he provides depth at punter and had his first career kick last season at Washington State.

Terrence Austin, who set numerous kickoff and kickoff yardage records during his career, is no longer on the team, but this area could again be one of strength. Redshirt junior receiver/kick returner JOSH SMITH (6-0, 197) is now ready to compete after sitting out last season following his transfer from Colorado. As a sophomore in 2008, he recorded the second-most all-purpose yards in a single-season in CU history (1,987 yards) and set school records with 50 kickoff returns and 1,276 return yards. Other candidates for kick and punt return chores will get their chances during the Fall.

"I can't imagine that any school has a pair of kickers better than Kai and Jeff," Neuheisel said. "Kai has been virtually automatic throughout his career and deserved every honor he earned a year ago. Jeff did a fantastic job as a freshman and will only continue to improve with experience. It all starts with Christian and his snaps. Danny stepped right in as our holder and we didn't miss a beat."

1 UCLA 33, SAN DIEGO STATE 14

September 5 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Kevin Prince era at UCLA began with a win as the Bruins held SDSU scoreless for the final three quarters en route to a 33-14 victory. San Diego State outscored the Bruins 14-10 in the first quarter, but it was all UCLA after that as the Bruins tacked on 23 unanswered points. The run game was productive as Johnathan Franklin and Derrick Coleman each scored a touchdown on the ground. Prince threw for 176 yards with two interceptions in his Bruin debut. The defense had a solid game as well, holding the Aztecs to 39 total rushing yards. Rahim Moore led the defense with three picks in the game. UCLA special teams tacked on the final score for the Bruins as Alterraun Verner returned a blocked field goal 70 yards for a touchdown.

2 UCLA 19, TENNESSEE 15

September 12 in Knoxville, TN

Game Notes - The Bruins traveled to SEC country to face Tennessee and came out victorious in a close game for their second win of the season. UCLA's Kai Forbath was nearly perfect as he connected on 4-of-5 field goals for 12 of UCLA's 19 points. Tennessee led 10-3 after the first quarter, but the Bruins held the Vols scoreless in the second and third, while scoring 16 straight points. Tennessee picked up five points in the fourth quarter on a field goal and safety, but the Bruins held on for the win. The UCLA defense was staunch as it held the Vols to 3-of-14 conversions on third down. Reggie Carter led the team with 14 tackles, while Brian Price recorded two sacks. Rahim Moore picked off two balls during the game for his second multi-interception performance of the season

3 UCLA 23, KANSAS STATE 9

September 19 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - UCLA won its third straight game as Kevin Craft started in place of an injured Kevin Prince (fractured jaw suffered against Tennessee). The Bruin run game was big as freshman Johnathan Franklin recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance (119). Kicker Kai Forbath was a perfect 3-for-3 on field goals to help the Bruins score a 23-9 victory. The UCLA defense again was solid as it held KSU to 3-of-14 on third down conversions and just 69 yards rushing. Tony Dye led the way with nine tackles, while Akeem Ayers led the team with two sacks. Alterraun Verner had two picks in the game.

4 STANFORD 24, UCLA 16

October 3 in Stanford, CA

Game Notes - Stanford's Toby Gerhart rushed for 134 yards and three touchdowns as the Bruins dropped their first game of the year, 24-16, to the Cardinal. Stanford took a 14-6 halftime lead after two Gerhart touchdown runs, then tacked on 10 more points to lead 24-6 heading into the fourth quarter. A Bruin rally fell short despite holding the Cardinal scoreless in the final 15 minutes. Alterraun Verner led the defense with 10 tackles. Kevin Craft posted solid numbers in the loss, completing 22 of 34 passes for 204 yards and no interceptions.

5 OREGON 24, UCLA 10

October 10 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Bruins suffered their second loss of the year as the Oregon Ducks defeated UCLA in the Rose Bowl, 24-10. UCLA was able to hold the Ducks scoreless in the first half, but Oregon scored three touchdowns in the first five minutes of the third quarter to seal the win. Oregon returned a kickoff 100 yards to open up the second half, then picked off Kevin Prince, who had returned to action after missing the previous three games with a fractured jaw, and returned it for a touchdown for their second score. Prince then fumbled on the ensuing possession, giving Oregon the ball at the 50-yard line and, eventually, another seven points. Kyle Bosworth led the defense with nine tackles. Akeem Ayers intercepted an Oregon pass in the endzone for UCLA's only touchdown of the game.

7 ARIZONA 27, UCLA 13

October 24 in Tucson, AZ

Game Notes - Despite five turnovers by Arizona, the Wildcats defeated UCLA 27-13 in Tucson as the Bruins lost their fourth straight game. Rahim Moore recorded his third multi-interception game of the season, with two picks, while Tony Dye returned a fumble for 28-yards for UCLA's only touchdown of the game to highlight the defense. UCLA utilized three qb's in the game - Prince, Craft and Brehaut, but none could get the offense going during the game.

8 OREGON STATE 26, UCLA 19

October 31 in Corvaillis, OR

Game Notes - The Bruins lost their fifth straight game after a fourth quarter rally fell short in Corvallis. Down 19-3 in the final quarter, Kevin Prince threw two consecutive touchdown passes and two-point conversions to tie the game at 19-all. However, Oregon State scored a touchdown in the final minute of play to edge the Bruins 26-19. Prince had his second 300-yard plus passing game of the season as he was 22-of-34 for 323 yards. Receiver Nelson Rosario had a breakout game as he hauled in 152 passing yards, his first time over the century mark. Tony Dye led the defense with 10 tackles

9 UCLA 24, WASHINGTON 23

November 7 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Bruins got back into the win column by edging Washington by a point. Quarterbacks Kevin Prince and Kevin Craft combined for 371 total passing yards as each threw touchdown passes. Nelson Rosario had another big game, breaking the century receiving mark for the second time this season with 111 yards. A missed field goal in the fourth quarter by UW's Erik Folk proved to be the difference-maker in the game as the Bruins held on to win 24-23. Rahim Moore tallied his eighth pick of the season, while Sheldon Price led the defense with eight tackles.

11 UCLA 23, ARIZONA STATE 13

November 21 at the Rose Bowl

Game Notes - The Bruins became bowl eligible with their sixth win of the season, defeating ASU, 23-13, at home. Alterraun Verner started the game off on a high note as he intercepted an ASU pass and returned it for a touchdown for UCLA's first score of the game. ASU rallied for a touchdown of their own, but the Bruin defense held the Sun Devils scoreless in the second and third quarters, enabling UCLA to take a 20-7 lead heading into the fourth. ASU could only manage two field goals in the fourth as the Bruins would go on to win their third straight game. Akeem Ayers led the defense with eight tackles, while he and Brian Price each tallied two sacks in the game.

12 USC 28, UCLA 7

November 28 at the Coliseum

Game Notes - The Bruins' perfect November run was halted as USC defeated UCLA 28-7 in the final game of the regular season. The Trojans held a 14-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter, but UCLA was able to close to within seven points on a two-yard run by Chane Moline. However, the Trojans struck back, pushing the lead to 21-7 with just over a minute to play in the game. The Bruins then turned the ball over on downs on their next possession. Head coach Rick Neuheisel opted to take a timeout with just under a minute to play with USC back on offense. The Trojans came out of the timeout with a play-action pass that resulted in another touchdown. Both Kevin Prince and Kevin Craft saw action at quarterback as both teams struggled offensively. Alterraun Verner recorded his 13th career interception, while Brian Price recorded two tackles for a loss. Akeem Ayers led the defense in tackles with nine, including 2.5 for a loss.

13 UCLA 30, TEMPLE 21

December 29 at the EagleBank Bowl

UCLA rallied from a 21-7 second-quarter deficit to defeat the Temple Owls, 30-21, in the second-ever EagleBank Bowl in Washington, DC. It was UCLA's fourth win in a five-game span to close out the season. It was also the first bowl victory under head coach Rick Neuheisel. In cold (30°) and windy RFK Stadium, UCLA outscored Temple 20-0 in the second half, holding the Owls to 41 net yards. Early in the third quarter, Terrence Austin turned a fourth-down slant pass into a 32-yard touchdown. Kai Forbath's field goal early in the final quarter brought the Bruins to within a point, 21-20. With just over six minutes left in the contest, linebacker Akeem Ayers picked off a pass at the two-yard line and scored the go-ahead touchdown. A two-point conversion and a safety made the final score 30-21.

Easton and UCLA Athletics.

Together, We're Built To Win.

1954 BRUINS
National Champions

Fifty-six years ago, UCLA fielded the finest football team in the school's history. The 1954 Bruins compiled a perfect 9-0 record and were voted National Champions by United Press International at the end of the season.

Most of the key players from the 1953 Bruins, who posted a record of 8-2, returned for the 1954 season, led by legendary head coach Henry R. "Red" Sanders. During his nine seasons in Westwood, Sanders' winning percentage was .773 and he won three Pacific Coast Conference titles.

The Bruins opened the 1954 season on Sept. 18 with a 67-0 victory over San Diego Navy at the Coliseum. The point total was the highest in school history at the time. The following week, the Bruins improved to 2-0 with a 32-7 victory at Kansas.

On Friday night, Oct. 1, amid much pre-game hype, defending national champion Maryland invaded the Coliseum. Playing in front of 73,376 fans, Bob Davenport rushed for 87 yards and both touchdowns in a 12-7 Bruin victory.

The next week, UCLA received its sternest test of the year. Playing Washington on the road in Seattle, UCLA built a 21-0 lead. However, the Husky passing attack brought the home team within striking distance and a missed PAT turned out to be the difference in a 21-20 Bruin win.

Stanford was next on the hit parade and the Indians were hit often. The Bruins rushed for 418 yards and threw for 59 more. Defensively, UCLA intercepted Stanford, led by future NFL quarterback John Brodie, eight times. UCLA scored early and often en route to a 72-0 win and a victory margin that remains as the school record.

The carnage continued the following week as the Bruins won 61-0 at Oregon State. UCLA accounted for 593 yards of total offense, including 498 on the ground.

The following week, California scored the only touchdown UCLA's defense allowed in the season's final five games, but it wasn't nearly enough. The Bruins won 27-6 in Berkeley, behind 113 yards rushing and 120 yards passing by Primo Villanueva.

The Bruins improved to 8-0 on the season the following week, shutting out Oregon, 41-0, in the Coliseum.

On Nov. 20, the Bruins faced USC before 102,548 fans in the sold out Coliseum. UCLA held a 7-0 lead entering the fourth quarter before exploding for 27 points in the final 15 minutes to finish the season with a perfect 9-0 record.

UCLA did not play in the Rose Bowl following that magical season because of the "no-repeat" rule. It was voted No. 1 on the United Press International poll and shared the national championship with Ohio State (the Associated Press champ).

The 1954 team set numerous records, including points in a season (367), points in a game (72) and touchdowns in a season (55). It led the nation in scoring offense (40.8 average) and scoring defense (4.4 average). Today, it still ranks No. 1 in school history in rushing defense (659 yards), total defense (1,708 yards) and scoring defense (40 points) while its 40.8 scoring average ranks second in school history.

Tackle Jack Ellena, who finished seventh in the 1954 Heisman Trophy balloting, along with guard Jim Salsbury, fullback Bob Davenport and halfback Primo Villanueva each earned first-team All-America honors, as well as All-Coast and All-PCC acclaim. Eight other Bruins were named All-America honorable mention, including guard Sam Boghosian, who earned Academic All-America honors and was first-team All-Coast. Terry Debay was the team's most valuable player and a second-team Academic All-American.

Other All-America honorable mentions included Hardiman Cureton (All-Coast and All-PCC second team), John Peterson (All-Coast second team), Bob Heydenfeldt (All-Coast second team), Jim Decker (All-PCC second team), Joe Ray (All-Coast and All-PCC second team) and Rommie Loudd. Bob Long was selected second-team All-Coast and All-PCC while Gil Moreno and Warner Benjamin earned All-Coast honorable mention.

Decker led the team and ranked fifth in the PCC in rushing with 508 yards, followed by Villanueva with 486 and Davenport with 479. Villanueva passed for 400 yards and five touchdowns to lead the team while Davenport led the PCC in scoring with 11 touchdowns and Sam Brown led the league in punt returns (26.2 average and three touchdowns). Heydenfeldt ranked second in punting (39.9).

Tommy Prothro, who would later become head coach at UCLA (1965-70) after a successful stint at Oregon State, was a key assistant coach on this team. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1991.

ALL-AMERICAN Bruins

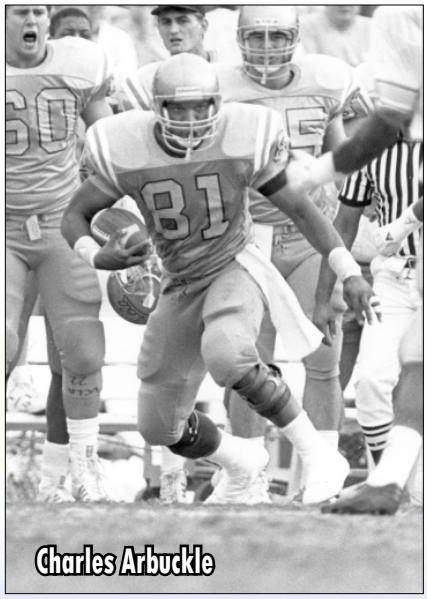

Here is UCLA's list of all-time All-Americans. UCLA has had 93 first-team All-American selections (84 players), headed by three-time consensus choices Jerry Robinson and Kenny Easley. Robinson (1976-77-78), an inside linebacker, and Easley (1978-79-80), a free safety, are the only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 history.

The list also includes 1967 Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban, 1988 Davey O'Brien Award winner Troy Aikman, Outland Trophy winners Jonathan Ogden (1995) and Kris Farris (1998), 1998 Unitas Award winner Cade McNown, 2005 Mackey Award winner Marcedes Lewis, 2009 Groza Award winner Kai Forbath and two-time All-Americans Donn Moomaw, Paul Cameron, Bob Davenport, John Lee and Chris Sailer. Sailer is the only Bruin to earn first-team All-America honors at two positions in the same season.

UCLA BOWL RESULTS (14-15-1 OVERALL, 12-8 IN LAST 20 APPEARANCES)

January 1, 1943 — Rose Bowl
Georgia 9, UCLA 0

UCLA's first ever bowl appearance did not end on a successful note, as the No. 1-ranked Bulldogs defeated the Bruins. Playing one of its best games of the season, UCLA held the Bulldogs scoreless for three quarters. However, the powerful UGA defense held the Bruins without any points as well. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Georgia's Red Boyd blocked Bob Waterfield's punt deep in the end zone for a safety. Georgia added a touchdown following an interception of a Waterfield pass by Clyde Ehrhardt. The Bulldogs' All-American Frankie Sinkwich powered over from the one-yard line for the lone touchdown in the contest.

The Bruins scored their first ever post-season points when quarterback Ernie Case scored on a sneak to give the Bruins a slim 7-6 first-quarter lead. However, it was the fourth-ranked Illini who tallied quickly and often, outscoring unranked UCLA 39-7 from that point on en route to a 45-14 victory. Illinois dominated the Bruins on the ground, compiling 320 yards to the Bruins 62. UCLA's Al Hoisch returned Illinois kicker Don Maechtle's kickoff 103 yards, establishing a Rose Bowl record which still stands today.

January 1, 1954 — Rose Bowl
Michigan State 28, UCLA 20

Fifth-ranked UCLA completely dominated the first half of the game and capitalized on two Spartan fumbles to score the first 14 points in the contest. However, a missed blocking assignment allowed MSU's Ellis Duckett room to block a Paul Cameron kick and score from the Bruin six-yard line with 4:45 left in the half. The Bruins left the field at halftime ahead 14-7 after allowing No. 3 Michigan State only one completed pass, for a seven-yard loss, and a net gain of 56 total yards.
MSU outscored the Bruins 14-0 afer two long third quarter drives to grab a 21-14 lead. After another Spartan fumble, Cameron connected on a 28-yard pass to Rommie Loudd who made a great leaping catch. The reception pulled the Bruins to within one point, 21-20 with 12:36 to play in the fourth quarter. UCLA failed on its conversion attempt, leaving the Spartans clinging to a one-point lead. Bruin hopes of regaining the lead were thwarted when Billy Wells returned a Cameron punt 62 yards for a touchdown with 4:51 left in the game.

January 1, 1956 — Rose Bowl
Michigan State 17, UCLA 14

David Kaiser's field goal with seven seconds remaining provided a sensational finish to a spectacular game as the second-ranked Spartans earned a 17-14 decision over fourth-ranked UCLA. The Bruins scored first when fullback Bob Davenport scored from the two-yard line four plays after Jim Decker picked off an Earl Morral pass. Michigan State scored the next two touchdowns but the Bruins tied the score at 14 in the fourth quarter when Doug Peters dove over from the one-yard line. With time running out in the game, UCLA was called for an intentional grounding infraction which pushed the ball back to its own one-yard line. A poor punt gave the Spartans the ball at the UCLA 40. However, the Bruins were cited for interference with the kick returner and the Spartans received the ball at the Bruin 19, setting up Kaiser's game-winning 41-yard field goal.

January 1, 1962 — Rose Bowl
Minnesota 21, UCLA 3

With 16 players returning from their 1961 Rose Bowl loss, the Golden Gophers were primed and ready for the 1962 renewal, and they used that experience to defeat the Bruins, 21-3. The Bruins opened the scoring when Bobby Smith kicked a 28-yard field goal at the 8:40 mark of the first quarter. However, that was all the offense the Bruins could muster and Minnesota scored touchdowns in the first, second, and fourth quarters.

January 1, 1966 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 14, Michigan State 12

Fifth-ranked UCLA earned its first Rose Bowl victory by upsetting No. 1-ranked and previously unbeaten, Michigan State. Quarterback Gary Beban ran for two touchdowns and threw for 147 yards in leading the Bruins to victory. UCLA took a 7-0 lead on the first play of the second quarter on a one-yard run by Beban after John Erquiaga had recovered a fumbled punt return. A successful onside kick was recovered by Dallas Grider at the MSU 42-yard line. A 21-yard run by Mel Farr and a 20-yard pass from Beban to Kurt Altenberg gave the Bruins the ball at the one-yard line. On the next play, with 11:50 left in the first half, Beban sneaked in for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead. Michigan State finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Bob Apisa scored on a 38-yard run at the 6:13 mark but the Spartans failed on a two-point pass attempt. On the next series, Bubba Smith partially blocked Larry Cox's punt to give MSU the ball at the UCLA 49. Steve Juday finished off a 14-play scoring drive with a one-yard sneak with 31 seconds to play. Bob Stiles and Grider stopped Apisa short of the goal line on the two-point try.

January 1, 1976 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 23, Ohio State 10

On Jan. 1, 1976, the 11th-ranked Bruins returned to Pasadena to take on Woody Hayes' top-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes and two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin. During a first half in which Ohio State had the ball for 20 of the 24 minutes, kicker Tom Klaban provided the only points with a second-quarter field goal, giving the Buckeyes a 3-0 halftime lead. The Bruins tied the game early in the third quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Brett White. On UCLA's next possession, John Sciarra and Wally Henry hooked up on a 16-yard touchdown play. Late in the third quarter, Sciarra and Henry combined for a 67-yard touchdown play. OSU's Pete Johnson countered with a three-yard touchdown but Wendell Tyler, who rushed for 172 yards, countered with a 54-yard touchdown. Sciarra was named Rose Bowl MVP for completing 13-of-19 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns.

December 20, 1976 — Liberty Bowl
Alabama 36, UCLA 6

The 1976 Liberty Bowl marked the first time the Bruins participated in a bowl game other than the Rose, but were soundly defeated by the Crimson Tide in a game played in windy and near-freezing conditions. No. 16 Alabama took control early, scoring 17 first quarter points on a Bruin team that had allowed only 23 all year. Alabama pulled away to a 30-0 lead before running back Theotis Brown dashed 61-yards for the lone score by the No. 7 Bruins. UCLA totaled 380 offensive yards, but commited four turnovers and was stopped on downs inside the Alabama five-yard line on two occasions. Brown (1,092) and Wendell Tyler (1,003) became the school's first twin-thousand yard rushers for a season during the contest.

December 31, 1981 — Bluebonnet Bowl
Michigan 33, UCLA 14

In what would be their last bowl defeat for over a decade, No. 19 UCLA was held to 33 yards rushing in the 33-14 loss to No. 16 Michigan. Despite its inability to move the ball, UCLA trailed by only five points midway through the final period. With 7:37 remaining in the contest, the Bruins closed to within 19-14 when Tom Ramsey threw his second touchdown pass of the game, 16th of the year, covering nine yards to Tim Wrightman. Michigan answered with a couple of touchdowns in the final five minutes, including one with just eight seconds remaining in the game, to produce the deceptively large final margin.

UCLA 24, Michigan 14

The fifth-ranked Bruins began their record-setting bowl streak by defeating the 19th-ranked Michigan Wolverines, 24-10, in the 1983 Rose Bowl. Earlier in the year, the two teams had played in Ann Arbor and the Bruins had rallied from a 21-0 second-quarter deficit for a 31-27 victory. UCLA, 9-1-1 during the regular season, outscored the Wolverines 10-0 in the first half on Tom Ramsey's one-yard touchdown run and John Lee's 39-yard field goal. Michigan closed the gap to three points early in the third quarter, but Danny Andrews countered with a nine-yard touchdown scamper. The Bruins put the game out of reach with just over eight minutes remaining when Blanchard Montgomery intercepted a pass and returned it 11 yards to make the score 24-7. Ramsey was voted Player of the Game, completing 18 of 25 passes for 162 yards.

January 2, 1984 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 45, Illinois 9

Unranked UCLA won its fourth straight Rose Bowl, upsetting highly-favored No. 4 Illinois (10-1 entering the game). Quarterback Rick Neuheisel, who was ill the previous night, was the star, completing 22 of 31 passes for 298 yards and four touchdowns. Don Rogers' interception 43 seconds into the game led to Neuheisel's first TD pass, a three-yarder to Paul Bergmann. After an Illini field goal made the score 7-3, UCLA scored 21 points in the next eight minutes. Kevin Nelson ran 28 yards for a score, Neuheisel found Karl Dorrell with a 16-yard TD pass following another Rogers interception and Mike Young's 53-yard touchdown reception made it 28-3 at intermission. Neuheisel tossed another touchdown pass to Dorrell in the second half and the Bruins added one more touchdown to make the final score 45-9.

January 1, 1985 — Fiesta Bowl
UCLA 39, Miami (FL) 37

UCLA, ranked 14th, rallied from a fourth-quarter deficit to earn its third consecutive New Year's Day victory, defeating 13th-ranked Miami 39-37, in the Fiesta Bowl. Tailback Gaston Green, in his first career start, rushed for 144 yards and scored two touchdowns and was named Offensive Player of the Game. James Washington intercepted his fifth pass of the year to earn Defensive Player of the Game honors. With Miami leading 21-7 in the second quarter, Green's 72-yard run and two John Lee field goals gave UCLA a 22-21 halftime lead. Miami rallied, taking a 37-36 lead with 2:58 remaining, but Steve Bono moved the Bruins down the field and Lee kicked a 22-yard field goal for the winning points. Miami mounted one last charge but Terry Tumey forced a fumble after a sack of Bernie Kosar to seal the win.

January 1, 1986 — Rose Bowl
UCLA 45, Iowa 28

Redshirt freshman Eric Ball rushed for 227 yards, the second highest total in Rose Bowl annals, and four touchdowns to lead 13th-ranked UCLA to a 45-28 victory, its fourth in as many years on New Year's Day. The tailback was not the only star of the day. Junior quarterback Matt Stevens, starting in place of injured David Norrie, completed 16 of 26 passes for 189 yards and one touchdown and scored UCLA's last TD on a fourth-quarter sneak. James Washington, Tommy Taylor and Ken Norton, with 10 tackles each, led a Bruin defense that limited the fourth-ranked Hawkeyes to 13 points during a 45-minute span in which the Bruin offense was scoring 45 points.

December 30, 1986 — Freedom Bowl
UCLA 31, Brigham Young 10

For the fifth consecutive year, No. 15 UCLA capped a successful campaign with a post-season victory, defeating BYU, 31-10. Tailback Gaston Green had a record-setting performance against the Cougars and the Bruin defense held BYU without a touchdown until just under two minutes remained in the contest. Green scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth en route to setting a major-bowl record with 266 net yards rushing. By the end of the third quarter, he had already rushed for 262 yards and three scores. UCLA led just 7-3 at halftime, but the Bruins broke the game open with 17 third-quarter points.

UCLA became only the fifth school in college football history to win six consecutive bowl games with its 20-16 triumph over Florida in the Aloha Bowl. Florida built a 10-3 lead in the second quarter, but the 10th-ranked Bruins mounted an 81-yard drive over the final four minutes which resulted in Brian Brown's one-yard TD run with three seconds remaining in the half. The Bruins took the lead for good with 1:18 remaining in the third quarter as tailback Danny Thompson grabbed a tipped pass in the end zone for a 17-10 lead. Velasco's second field goal of the contest made the score 20-10, but Kerwin Bell's second touchdown pass of the day, with 7:51 remaining, closed the gap to four points, 20-16.

UCLA'S Bowl Tradition

January 2, 1989 — Cotton Bowl
UCLA 17, Arkansas 3

UCLA became the first school in college football history to win seven consecutive bowl games with its 17-3 triumph over Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl. In addition, Terry Donahue became the first coach in history to accomplish that feat. No. 9 UCLA built a 14-0 halftime lead on a one-yard run by Mark Estwick and Troy Aikman's one-yard pass to Corwin Anthony. Eighth-ranked Arkansas got on the board late in the third quarter when Kendall Trainor kicked a 49-yard field goal. UCLA's Alfredo Velasco countered with a 32-yard three-pointer with just under six minutes remaining in the game. UCLA held Arkansas to just 42 net yards and four first downs on 36 plays. Tailback Shawn Wills became the first freshman in the history of the Cotton Bowl game to rush for over 100 yards (120).

December 31, 1991 — John Hancock Bowl
UCLA 6, Illinois 3

No. 22 UCLA increased its record of consecutive bowl victories to eight with a 6-3 victory over Illinois in the John Hancock Bowl. UCLA took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 32-yard Louis Perez field goal, after Michael Williams blocked a punt by Illinois' Forrey Wells. Illinois tied the score in the third quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Chris Richardson. The game remained tied until the fourth quarter, when the Bruin special teams unit came through again, with senior Randy Cole recovering a fumbled punt by Filmel Johnson on the Illini 11-yard line to set up a game-winning 19-yard field goal by Perez. The Illini took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the UCLA 29, but were stopped when senior linebacker Stacy Argo intercepted a Jason Verduzco pass and returned it to the UCLA 34. Linebacker Arnold Ale, who made a first-quarter goal-line interception, was named the game's MVP.

January 1, 1994 — Rose Bowl
Wisconsin 21, UCLA 16

UCLA was playing in its 10th bowl in 13 seasons, but despite a record-setting performance by receiver J.J. Stokes, the 14th-ranked Bruins were unable to pull out a victory against the ninth-ranked Badgers. Putting the finishing touches on his All-American season, Stokes set Rose Bowl records for receptions (14) and receiving yards (176) in the Bruins' losing effort. Playing only days after a serious bout with the flu caused him to miss three practices during game week, UCLA quarterback Wayne Cook passed for 288 yards while completing 28 passes, the third-highest total in school history at the time. UCLA trailed most of the game, but pulled to within five points with 3:38 remaining in the game. On its next possession, UCLA moved from its own 38-yard line to the Badger 15-yard line as the clock ticked away the final seconds.

December 25, 1995 — Aloha Bowl
Kansas 51, UCLA 30

It was Terry Donahue's final game as head coach of the Bruins, but 11th-ranked Kansas dominated it from the start. The Jayhawks, moving the ball on the ground and in the air, built a 17-0 halftime lead en route to the victory. Early in the third quarter, Kansas built the lead to 23 points. The unranked Bruins came back to put numbers on the scoreboard. A Cade McNown touchdown pass to Brad Melsby capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive that narrowed the Kansas lead to 23-7. Trailing 37-7 entering the fourth quarter, the Bruins staged a fourth-quarter rally that made things interesting. Behind the passing and scrambling of McNown, the Bruins scored 23 points in the quarter but it wasn't enough to avert defeat.

January 1, 1999 — Rose Bowl
Wisconsin 38, UCLA 31

Despite setting the single team Rose Bowl record for total yards, the sixth-ranked Bruins were unable to overcome Ron Dayne's four touchdowns as No. 9 Wisconsin defeated the Bruins 38-31 in front of 93,872. Both teams started slowly offensively before exploding midway through the first quarter. The teams would shatter the old record of 931 combined yards of offense, combining for 1,035 yards before the game ended. In the second quarter, UCLA took its only lead of the game (21-14) with back-to-back touchdowns. Freddie Mitchell hit a wide open Durell Price with a 61-yard bomb on a halfback pass and on UCLA's next possession, Danny Farmer slipped behind the defense and caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Cade McNown. Wisconsin scored the final 10 points of the half to take a three-point lead (24-21). The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Wisconsin grabbed a 10-point fourth quarter lead following an interception return, and UCLA could manage to score only a field goal the remainder of the period. In his final game, McNown passed for 340 yards, the fourth-highest total in bowl history, and UCLA finished with 538 yards, 418 in the air.

January 1, 1998 — Cotton Bowl
UCLA 29, Texas A&M 23

In their first bowl game under second-year coach Bob Toledo, the No. 5 Bruins fell behind 16-0 before making a dramatic second half comeback to beat 20th-ranked Texas A&M, 29-23. Trailing 16-0 late in the first half, the Bruins faced a third-and-thirteen at the Aggie 42 with twenty-four seconds to go. McNown hit Danny Farmer over the middle with a twenty-yard pass, and two plays later, hit Jim McElroy for a touchdown with two seconds to go before halftime. On UCLA's first possession of the second half, Skip Hicks took a McNown pass 41 yards to cut the deficit to 16-14. Hicks would finish the day with 193 all-purpose yards (140 on the ground and 53 receiving). After an Aggie touchdown, McNown's 20-yard touchdown run made the score 23-21. In the fourth quarter, the Bruins defense stepped it up. The Aggies had no first downs in the fourth quarter and had minus-one yard of total offense. The Bruins finally took the lead when Ryan Neufeld took a reverse and ran five yards into the end zone. McNown carried in the two-point conversion and it was 29-23 UCLA. The Bruins stopped the Aggies on their final two possessions and ran out the clock for the win.

December 29, 2000 — Sun Bowl
Wisconsin 21, UCLA 20

The already hobbled Bruins lost five starters during the course of the game to injury, including quarterback Cory Paus, and dropped a one-point decision. After the Badgers opened the scoring, Paus teammed up with Freddie Mitchell on a 64-yard scoring play and Chris Griffith followed with a field goal to give the Bruins a 10-7 lead. DeShaun Foster rushed for 100 yards in the first half, including a seven-yard scoring run which gave the Bruins a 17-7 halftime lead. However, the Bruins would return to the field without Paus, who suffered a broken collarbone on the final play of the first half. Also missing were starting cornerbacks Jason Bell (foot) and Ricky Manning (concussion). By the time the game was over, the Bruins would also be playing without safety Marques Anderson (ankle) and linebacker Robert Thomas (foot). Back-up Scott McEwan completed four of five passes on the initial drive of the second half, and Griffith booted a field goal which gave UCLA a 20-7 lead. The Badger offense began to frustrate the depleted Bruin defense as the game wore on, and the UW defense held Foster to just seven second-half rushing yards. After UW closed to 20-14 on a late third quarter scoring pass, the Badgers drove 70 yards in 12 plays for the go-ahead score on its first possession of the fourth quarter. Later in the quarter, Mitchell grabbed his ninth pass of the day good for 180 receiving yards, which set a Sun Bowl game record.

December 25, 2002 — Las Vegas Bowl
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

UCLA won its 10th bowl game in its last 14 outings with a 27-13 defeat of New Mexico in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Interim head coach Ed Kezirian guided the Bruin team to victory in a game dominated by the defenses. Neither team managed an offensive touchdown until the fourth quarter. A 74-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Bragg turned the momentum to the Bruin's side after New Mexico was forced to punt on its first possession of the second half. True freshman safety Jarrad Page added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and Tyler Ebell made it 27-6 with a one-yard scoring run with 10:40 left. Senior Chris Griffith converted following Page's touchdown and in the process set a school record for most career extra points (136). In the first half, Nate Fikse connected on a pair of field goals and tied the score at six-all at the half. The successful kicks marked his 11th and 12th consecutive made field goals of the season. After Fikse's 49-yarder in the first quarter, Desmar Black intercepted a Drew Olson pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown. The extra point, attempted by Katie Hnida, the first woman to play in a Division I-A football game, was blocked by Brandon Chillar.

UCLA'S Bowl Tradition

December 30, 2003 — Silicon Valley Classic
Fresno State 17, UCLA 9

Fresno State scored early and held off a determined second half effort by UCLA to gain a 17-9 win in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, played on a crisp and wet evening at San Jose State's Spartan Stadium. Fresno State led 14-0 after one quarter, and a Bulldog field goal early in the second quarter made it 17-0. It was not until late in the quarter that the Bruin offense gained some momentum. UCLA managed a 97-yard drive to narrow the gap to 17-7 at the half. With 20 seconds remaining in the half, Drew Olson connected with Craig Bragg, who made a spectacular diving catch in the right side of the end zone for a 27-yard touchdown. UCLA began the second half by driving to Fresno State's 29-yard line, but Justin Medlock's 47-yard attempt fell short in the poor weather and sloppy field conditions. However, the Bruin defense held tough and Asi Faoa broke free and blocked Fresno State's punt for a safety to pull UCLA within 17-9 with 7:11 left to play in the third quarter. The Bruins had one more chance late in the fourth quarter, getting the ball at their own 25-yard line with 3:55 to play. After a couple of completions to Marcedes Lewis, Olson had a pass deflected at the line and intercepted to end the Bruin hopes.

December 23, 2004 — Las Vegas Bowl
Wyoming 24, UCLA 21

UCLA played most of the game without starting quartback Drew Olson, who left the contest in the second quarter with a sprained knee. Linebacker Spencer Havner, the Pac-10's leading tackler, did not dress for the game due to injury. David Koral took over for Olson and added a spark to the UCLA offense. Throwing just the second college pass of his career, Koral scrambled out of the pocket and connected with Craig Bragg for a 17-yard touchdown to stake UCLA to a 14-10 lead at the half. The two connected on another scoring play in the third quarter to propel the Bruins to a 21-10 lead. The pair of scoring catches by Bragg tied the Bruin bowl game record. Wyoming mounted a late comeback, using a trick play early in the fourth quarter as Jovon Bouknight threw a 22-yard scoring pass to J.J. Raterink off a reverse. Later in the quarter, faced with a fourth-and-one at the Bruins' 27, Wyoming used a quarterback sneak to keep a drive alive. A pass interference call against Matt Clark moved the Cowboys to the 12-yard line, setting up a game-winning touchdown pass with just 0:57 on the clock.

December 30, 2005 — Sun Bowl
UCLA 50, Northwestern 38

The Bruins rebounded from an early 22-point deficit to record the biggest comeback victory in school history, as they defeated Northwestern 50-38 in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, TX. Led by a pair of young running backs, true sophomore Chris Markey and true freshman Kahlil Bell, the Bruins racked up 310 yards on the ground. Senior quarterback Drew Olson, who threw just three interceptions during the regular season, struggled early as he was picked off three times in the first quarter. Two of those interceptions were returned for TDs, while the third set up a Northwestern scoring drive. Down 22-0, UCLA got on the board after a five-yard run by Bell to end the first quarter. In the second quarter, the Bruins scored 22 unanswered points, highlighted by a 58-yard strike from Olson to freshman tight end Ryan Moya. In the third quarter, Northwestern managed a field goal, while junior Michael Pitre tacked on seven more points for the Bruins after catching a five-yard pass from Olson. With most of the fourth quarter gone, Northwestern scored first (2:29 remaining) on an eight-yard pass play. On the ensuing kickoff, an onside kick bounced directly up into the hands of sophomore wide receiver Brandon Breazell who returned it 42 yards for a score. With just 0:24 seconds to play, the Wildcats scored on a five-yard touchdown reception to close to within 43-38. Another onside kick by the Wildcats was picked up by Breazell, who this time ran 45 yards for the final touchdown of the game. The two schools combined to set a Sun Bowl record for total offensive yards (1,037 yards) and highest combined score (88 points). Markey (161 yards) and Bell (136 yards, two TD's) were named the game's co-MVPs, while Breazell was named the Special Teams Player of the Game. Junior tailback Maurice Drew, who was sidelined by an injury early in the game, broke the NCAA record for punt-return average after recording his 15th punt return of the season (28.5 avg. yards).

December 27, 2006 — Emerald Bowl
Florida State 44, UCLA 27

In front of a sold out, predominantly Bruin-friendly crowd at AT&T Ball Park in San Francisco, the Bruins dropped a 44-27 decision to Florida State in the Emerald Bowl. Despite an impressive offensive performance, the Bruins couldn't overcome a 21-0 run by FSU in the fourth quarter. The Seminoles scored first on a 25-yard touchdown run, but UCLA then scored 10 unanswered points, highlighted by Patrick Cowan's 78-yard touchdown strike to Brandon Breazell, to end the first quarter up 10-7. The defense held Florida State to just two second quarter field goals, while the Bruins put up 10 more points on an amazing seven-yard touchdown catch by Junior Taylor and a 19-yard field goal by Justin Medlock to head into the halftime break up 20-13. The Seminoles opened up the second half with a field goal, then tacked on seven more points after a UCLA punt was blocked and returned 25-yards for a touchdown. UCLA's Chane Moline rushed for an eight-yard touchdown to put the Bruins up, 27-23, at the end of the third quarter. Florida State held the Bruins scoreless in the fourth quarter, scoring 21 unanswered points, capped off by an 86-yard interception return for a score, as the Seminoles would go on to win, 44-27. In the game, UCLA racked up 434 yards of total offense with Patrick Cowan throwing for 240 yards. Running back Chris Markey broke the 1,000-yard rushing (11th Bruin to do so) mark with his 144-yard performance. The Bruin defense was led by Alterraun Verner, who equaled his career-high with nine tackles.

December 27, 2007 — Las Vegas Bowl
BYU 17, UCLA 16

In the second meeting of the season between the two schools, the Cougars came out on top in a close game. The first quarter saw the two teams trade field goals. BYU took a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter on a 14-yard pass play. Another field goal by Kai Forbath pulled the Bruins to within four, but BYU once again marched down the field to score on a pass play for a 17-6 advantage. A Cougar fumble, just before the end of the first half, gave the Bruins the ball on BYU's four-yard line. UCLA took advantage of the opportunity, scoring on a four-yard pass play from McLeod Bethel-Thompson to Brandon Breazell to close to within four points at the break. After a scoreless third quarter, UCLA tacked on another field goal with 6:24 remaining in the contest to trail by just one, 17-16. The Bruin offense got the ball back one last time with two minutes to play and marched almost the length of the field to set up a potential game-winning field goal try with just seconds remaining. However, the Cougars blocked the kick and were awarded the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl trophy. Chris Markey led all rushers with 117 yards, while Bethel-Thompson threw for 154 yards and one touchdown. Kyle Bosworth led the defense with 12 tackles, while Bruce Davis tallied 2.5 sacks.

December 29, 2009 — EagleBank Bowl
UCLA 30, Temple 21

UCLA rallied from a 21-7 second-quarter deficit to win the second-ever EagleBank Bowl in Washington DC. It was UCLA's fourth win in a five-game span and the first bowl victory under head coach Rick Neuheisel. In cold and windy RFK Stadium, Temple jumped to an early lead but UCLA tied the game when quarterback Kevin Prince and Nelson Rosario hooked up for a 46-yard touchdown. The Owls then scored the next two TDs, but UCLA drove for a field goal at the end of the half to make the score 21-10 at the break. Early in the third quarter, Terrence Austin turned a fourth-down slant pass into a 32-yard touchdown and Kai Forbath's field goal early in the final quarter brought the Bruins to within one at 21-20. With just over six minutes left, linebacker Akeem Ayers picked off an Owl pass at the two-yard line and scored the go-ahead touchdown. A two-point conversion and a safety made the final score 30-21. UCLA's defense allowed just 41 net yards and no points in the second-half of the come-from-behind win.

Largest Overall Comeback Win

Dec. 30, 2005 - UCLA 50, Northwestern 38 at Sun Bowl

Northwestern	22	0	3	13	—	38
UCLA	7	22	7	14	—	50

Attn.: 50,426 Weather: Clear (56°)

(22-point deficit in the first quarter) UCLA trailed Northwestern 22-0 with 4:21 remaining in the first quarter of the Sun Bowl game in El Paso, TX before rallying for a 50-38 win, completing the largest comeback in school history.

The Bruins began their comeback with 15 seconds left in the first quarter when running back Kahlil Bell scored on a five-yard run. UCLA tallied three touchdowns in the second quarter on a 58-yard pass play from Drew Olson to tight end Ryan Moya with 13:57 to play in the quarter; a six-yard run by Bell with 8:26 to play and an eight-yard scoring pass from Olson to wide receiver Marcus Everett with 29 seconds left before the half to take a 29-22 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Michael Pitre grabbed a five-yard scoring pass from Olson as the Bruins extended their lead to 36-22 midway through the third quarter. Northwestern closed to 36-25 after a third quarter (4:40) field goal. In the fourth quarter, the Wildcats narrowed the margin to 36-31 after a touchdown pass with 2:29 left in the game, but misfired on a two-point conversion pass.

Breazell then returned the onside kickoff 42 yards for a touchdown to make it 43-31 Bruins. Northwestern drove down the field and scored with 24 seconds to play and kicked the extra point to make the score 43-38. Breazell then repeated his earlier feat by fielding the onside kickoff attempt and returning it 45 yards for a touchdown.

Largest Fourth-Quarter Comeback Win

Oct. 29, 2005 - UCLA 30, Stanford 27 at Stanford, CA

UCLA	0	3	0	21	6	—	30
Stanford	7	0	7	10	3	—	27

Attn.: 42,850 Weather: Partly Cloudy (70°)

(21-point deficit in the fourth quarter) UCLA trailed Stanford 24-3 after the Cardinal converted a Bruin fumble into a score with 8:26 remaining in the fourth quarter of the contest.

UCLA began its comeback on a Maurice Drew six-yard run with 7:04 to play in the fourth quarter, culminating a 65-yard drive which took just 1:22 off the clock. The Bruin defense then forced Stanford to punt without a first down. This time it took just 34 seconds to drive 72 yards, with Drew Olson hitting Drew for a 22-yard gain, Marcus Everett for 19 more and Joe Cowan for a 31-yard touchdown. Stanford made one first down on its subsequent possession before kicking the ball back to the Bruins. UCLA took over at its own 34-yard line with 2:30 showing on the clock. On a third-and-five, Olson found Marcedes Lewis for 20 yards to the Stanford 41-yard line. Two consecutive pass interference calls moved the ball to the Cardinal 14-yard line. On fourth-and-one at the six-yard line, Olson found Cowan at the one for a first down. Drew scored on the next play with 46 seconds remaining on the clock.

In overtime, Stanford kicked a 42-yard field goal after Justin Hickman recorded his third sack on a third-and-three play at the 18-yard line. On the second play of UCLA's possession, Olson found Brandon Breazell in the left corner of the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown and the victory.

Largest Comeback Win Versus USC

Nov. 23, 1996 - UCLA 48, USC 41 at Rose Bowl

USC	10	14	7	7	3	0	— 41
UCLA	0	7	14	17	3	7	— 48

Attn.: 80,644 Weather: Light Fog (74°)

(17-point deficit in fourth quarter) Do you believe in miracles? Now you do, after the Bruins rallied from a 17-point, fourth quarter deficit to secure their sixth straight win in the city-series, 48-41, in overtime, before 80,644 spectators in the Rose Bowl.

After the teams traded field goals in the first overtime period, Skip Hicks scored the game-winner on a 25-yard run, breaking several Trojan tackles, on the first play of the second overtime period. UCLA then clinched the win when Anthony Cobbs intercepted a fourth-down pass in the end zone and the four-hour, 23-minute battle was over.

USC dominated the game for three quarters, like UCLA had for the previous five seasons — forcing turnovers and making the big play on offense. The Trojans marched out to a 17-0 lead in the first 21 minutes of the game, and led 31-21 entering the fourth quarter and 38-21 after R. Jay Soward streaked down the right sideline on his way to a 78-yard scoring play with 11:06 to play in the game.

The Bruins narrowed the deficit to 38-24 on a 47-yard field goal by Bjorn Merten with 6:12 remaining. The Bruins quickly got the ball back after pinning USC against its own goal-line and forcing a short punt. Nine plays and 41 yards later, freshman Keith Brown scored from the one-yard line to slice the margin to 38-31 at the 2:49 mark.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by USC. Two plays later the Trojans had a first-and-ten at the Bruin 41 with less than two minutes to play. However, on the next play, junior linebacker Danjuan Magee reached in and hit running back LaVale Woods as he was about to break away from the pack, forcing a fumble. Senior cornerback Kusanti Abdul-Salaam recovered and returned the ball to the Bruin 44. UCLA had 1:27 left on the clock and a single timeout remaining to negotiate 56 yards, trailing 38-31.

Quarterback Cade McNown began the drive by connecting with Jim McElroy for 17 yards and three plays later lofted a 23-yarder to Rodney Lee, who made a spectacular diving grab at the USC 11. On the next play, Skip Hicks found the end zone on a burst up the middle. The game was tied when Merten sent the extra point through the uprights and 39 seconds showed on the clock.

USC had one last chance to win the game in regulation, after a 39-yard pass play and a pass interference penalty put the ball at the UCLA 23. But Adam Abrams' 40-yard field goal attempt sailed into the Bruin line, and it was on to overtime for the first time in the series.

UCLA'S LEAGUE Championship Teams

1998 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 8-0; AP Rank: 8; Coach: Bob Toledo

The Bruins opened the year with 10 wins in a row to extend the school record win streak to 20, including an eighth straight victory over USC. UCLA climbed as high as No. 2 in the polls and became just the fourth team in Pac-10 history to post a perfect 8-0 league mark. Kris Farris won the Outland Trophy. Cade McNown set single season records for passing yards and total offense.

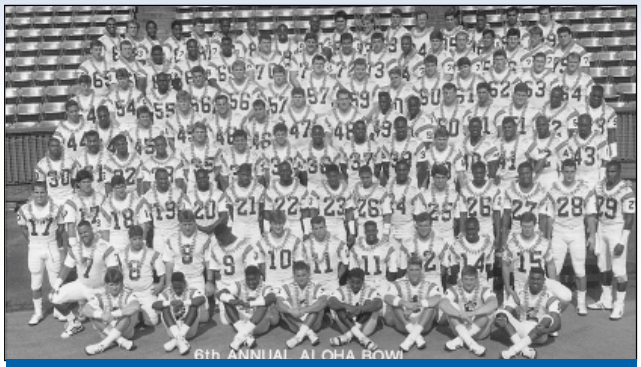

1997 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 7-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Bob Toledo

The Bruins won the last 10 games of the season, concluding the year with a Cotton Bowl triumph over Texas A&M. It was the first time since 1946 that the Bruins had won 10 straight games in a season. Cade McNown led the nation in pass efficiency and over 85,000 fans turned out for the Washington game, the largest non-USC home crowd in 50 years. Skip Hicks set a school mark with 26 touchdowns and the Bruin offense scored 477 points, the most in school history.

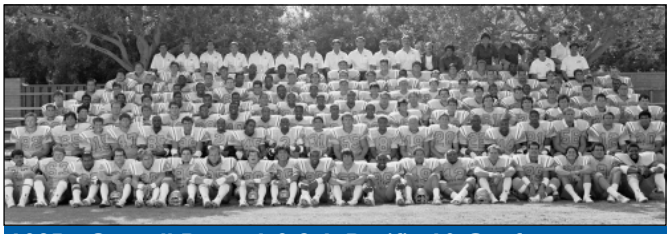

1993 • Overall Record: 8-4-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-2; AP Rank: 18; Coach: Terry Donahue

The Bruins won seven straight Pac-10 games to tie for the conference title and a win over USC clinched a trip to the Rose Bowl game. UCLA led the nation in turnover margin (+1.73). J.J. Stokes set a school mark with 17 touchdown receptions in a season. Stokes went on to set a Rose Bowl game mark with 14 catches against Wisconsin.

1987 • Overall Record: 10-2-0; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 7-1; AP Rank: 9; Coach: Terry Donahue

The Bruins tied a school record with 10 wins and tied for the league title after posting a then school record seven conference wins. The team ranked fourth in the nation in defense. Troy Aikman and Gaston Green became the first Bruin duo to throw for over 2,000 yards and run for over 1,000 yards in the same season. The Bruins won a sixth straight bowl game with a win over Florida and Emmitt Smith in the Aloha Bowl.

1985 • Overall Record: 9-2-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-2; AP Rank: 7; Coach: Terry Donahue

The season started with a win over defending national champion BYU and ended with a third trip to the Rose Bowl game in four seasons. The Bruins led the nation in rush defense (70.3 yards per game) and placed seventh in total defense behind the play of such future NFL performers as James Washington, Mark Walen, Ken Norton, Jr., Jim Wahler, Carnell Lake and Darryl Henley. Despite a 17-13 loss at USC, the Bruins finished in a first-place tie in the conference. About five hours after the Bruin loss to the Trojans, Arizona's defeat of Arizona State left all three teams tied at 6-2 in the league race. UCLA won the championship tie-breaker and went on to defeat Iowa in the Rose Bowl game.

1983 • Overall Record: 7-4-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 6-1-1; AP Rank: 17; Coach: Terry Donahue

After an 0-3-1 start, the Bruins rallied behind quarterback Rick Neuheisel and won seven of their next eight games, earning a trip to the Rose Bowl with a 27-17 victory over USC. The win over USC, combined with Washington State's win over Washington, clinched the Bruins' return trip to Pasadena. In UCLA's win over Washington, Neuheisel completed 25 of 27 passes for an NCAA-record .926 percentage. In the Rose Bowl game, UCLA jumped out to a 28-3 halftime advantage and went on to post a 45-9 upset win over No. 4-ranked Illinois. It marked UCLA's fourth-straight win in the Rose Bowl game. Karl Dorrell caught two of Neuheisel's four touchdown passes in the game.

1982 • Overall Record: 10-1-1; Pacific-10 Conference Record: 5-1-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Terry Donahue

After a loss at Washington, the Bruins needed to beat USC to earn a Rose Bowl bid in their first season of playing home games in the Arroyo Seco. With time having already expired, Karl Morgan stopped USC's two-point conversion attempt to preserve the win that sent the Bruins home to Pasadena. On New Year's Day, they beat Michigan for the second time that season, by a score of 24-14. In the earlier contest, UCLA had rallied from a 21-0 second quarter deficit to hand the Wolverines a 31-27 setback in Ann Arbor. UCLA totaled 10 wins for just the second time in history and the team ranked third nationally in scoring offense. Tom Ramsey led the nation in passing efficiency (153.5).

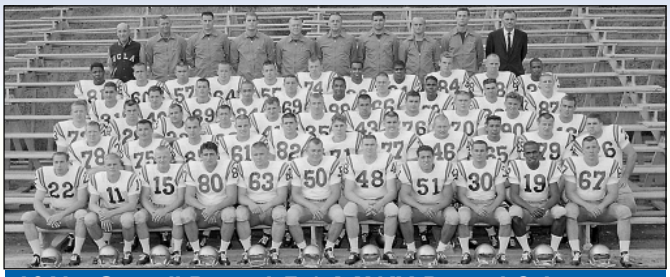

1975 • Overall Record: 9-2-1; Pacific-8 Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Dick Vermeil

Just like in 1965, the Bruins avenged an early-season loss in the Rose Bowl with a 23-10 win over then No. 1 ranked Ohio State in a game played before 105,464 fans. It also turned out to be coach Dick Vermeil's final game as Bruin head coach. An earlier conference loss to Washington meant that the Bruins had to defeat USC to earn a bid to the Rose Bowl game. UCLA posted a 25-22 win despite fumbling 11 times in the contest. It did manage to rack up over 400 yards in offense for the game against the toughest defense in the Pac-8. Wendell Tyler gained 130 yards on the ground against the Trojans to break Kermit Johnson's single-season rushing record. For the season, quarterback John Sciarra rushed for 787 yards and threw for 1,313 more yards.

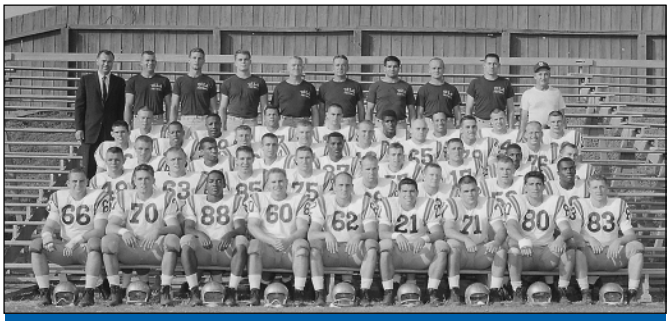

1965 • Overall Record: 8-2-1; AAWU Record: 4-0; AP Rank: 4; Coach: Tommy Prothro

The Bruins proceeded to record their first ever win in a Rose Bowl game with a 14-12 victory over then top-ranked Michigan State. Bob Stiles and Jim Colletto combined to stop the Spartan's two-point conversion attempt in the fourth quarter and preserve UCLA's initial post-season win. Two touchdown passes by quarterback Gary Beban in the final four minutes of the USC game pulled out a 20-16 win and completed a perfect conference slate. First-year head coach Tommy Prothro was voted Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

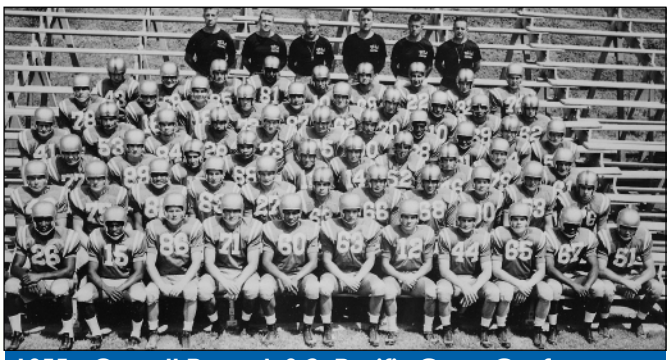

1961 • Overall Record: 7-4; AAWU Record: 3-1; AP Rank: 16; Coach: Bill Barnes

The 1961 Bruins were known for their strong running game and stingy defense. The team totaled 413 yards on the ground in a win over California. Sophomore Mike Haffner won the conference rushing title (703 yards) and senior Bobby Smith led the league in scoring (85) and total offense (966 yards). The Bruins beat USC, 10-7, in a rainstorm at the Coliseum to earn their way to the Rose Bowl. Minnesota handed the Bruins a 21-3 setback in the Arroyo Seco to ruin UCLA's fifth trip to the Rose Bowl game.

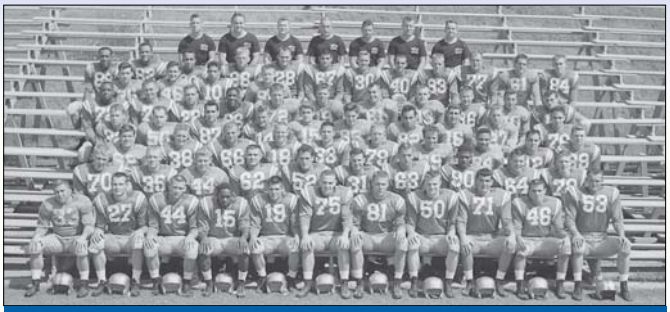

1959 • Overall Record: 5-4-1; AAWU Record: 3-1; AP Rank: n/a; Coach: Bill Barnes

The Bruins, behind the play of Bill Kilmer, handed an unbeaten, No.2 ranked USC its first loss and went on to tie for the championship of the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The upset win over the Trojans sent a crowd of over 5,000 into the streets of Westwood to celebrate. Kilmer led the team in total offense that season with 702 yards passing and 388 yards rushing. It was the first full season as head coach for Bill Barnes, a former assistant on Red Sanders' staff. He was elevated to the top spot in the middle of the previous season after an illness to George Dickerson.

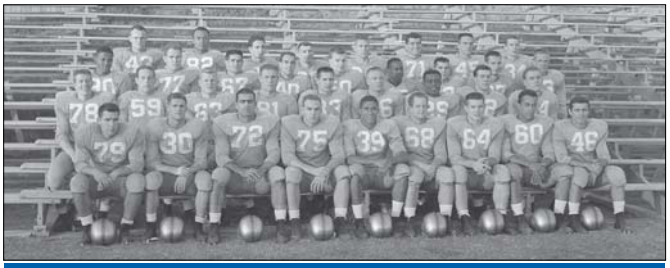

1955 • Overall Record: 9-2; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-0; AP Rank: 4; Coach: Red Sanders

The Bruins opened the season with a 21-0 win over Bear Bryant's Texas A&M team. The next week, the No.1 ranked Bruins traveled to the East for the first time to meet No. 5- ranked Maryland and were handed a 7-0 loss by the Terrapins, snapping UCLA's 10-game winning streak. UCLA went on to win its final eight games in the regular season, four were shutouts, and met Michigan State in the Rose Bowl. A last-second Spartan field goal ruined the Bruin chances for a first-ever Rose Bowl victory, 17-14. Guard Hardiman Cureton earned All-America honors and running back Bob Davenport finished his career with over 1,100 yards. Red Sanders became the first head coach in history to win three straight PCC titles.

1954 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • Overall Record: 9-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-0; AP Rank: 2; UPI Rank: 1; Coach: Red Sanders

The Bruins captured their first National Championship (UPI) and fielded their highest scoring team (40.8 points) in history (to date) as they won back-to-back conference titles for the first time ever. The total of 367 points over nine games ranked first in the nation and the defense limited opponents to just 40 points and 73.2 yards rushing per game to lead the nation in those categories as well. The Bruins clinched the conference championship in 110-degree heat with a 34-0 win over USC before 102,548 fans in the Coliseum. During the year, the Bruins set a school record that still stands with a 72-0 blanking of Stanford. They also handed No. 6 ranked Maryland a 12-7 loss early in the season. Guard Jim Salsbury, tackle Jack Ellena and fullback Bob Davenport each were named to at least one All-America first team. Left half back Primo Villanueva, a second-team All-American, led the team with 886 yards in total offense. The team completed the year ranked at the top of the UPI poll and second in the Associated Press poll.

1953 • Overall Record: 8-2-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 5; Coach: Red Sanders

Only a 21-20 loss at Stanford in the fifth game of the year spoiled a perfect UCLA record during the regular season. The Bruins fielded one of the greatest defenses in college football history (yielding just 2.91 yds/play), allowing just 48 points in nine regular season games. Chuck Doud, Jack Ellena, Hardiman Cureton and Myron Berliner keyed the defense. Tailback Paul Cameron led the PCC in rushing and came up just short of Kenny Washington's record for most yards gained in a career. According to newspaper accounts, an estimated 12,000 students gathered at the corner of Westwood and Wilshire for a two-hour rally to celebrate UCLA's selection to the Rose Bowl game.

1946 • Overall Record: 10-1; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 7-0; AP Rank 4; Coach: Bert LaBrucherie

UCLA recorded its first-ever unbeaten, untied regular season and advanced to the Rose Bowl game for the second time. The Bruins averaged a then school-best total of 60,885 fans during their home games. The team rolled up a school record (at the time) 327 points and was selected for the Rose Bowl game opposite Illinois. Despite an upset loss to the Fighting Illini, the Bruins finished with their highest national ranking to date, fourth by the Associated Press. Ernie Case threw for a then Rose Bowl record 165 yards in the setback.

1942 • Overall Record: 7-4-0; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 6-1; AP Rank: 13; Coach: Edwin Horrell

The 1942 season marked UCLA's first appearance in the Rose Bowl game. After opening the season with two losses, the Bruins won seven of the next eight contests to close the regular season. Bob Waterfield became the first Bruin to throw for over 1,000 yards in a season. Fullback Ken Snelling and left halfback Al Solari keyed the rushing attack. Georgia then handed the Bruins a 9-0 setback in the Rose Bowl game. The Bruins finished the year ranked 13th by the Associated Press.

1935 • Overall Record: 8-2; Pacific Coast Conference Record: 4-1; Coach: William Spaulding

The Bruins opened the 1935 season with an impressive 39-0 shutout over Utah State. A 20-7 win over Oregon State followed as did two more wins at Stanford, 7-6, and versus Oregon, 33-6. California and SMU then handed the Bruins back-to-back losses. UCLA finished the season with four straight wins over Hawaii, Loyola, Idaho and at St. Mary's. The season marked the first-ever conference championship for a UCLA football team, which began participating in the PCC in 1928. A third-place finish in 1932 had been its best previous result in the league standings.

TOP CROWDS (1944-2009)

In 1996, UCLA played before the two largest crowds in school history. Since 1944, the Bruins have played before 85,000 or more fans 67 times, topped by Tennessee's crowd of 106,297 in 1996. In 1982, for the first time in school history, UCLA had two crowds of better than 100,000 and three of better than 95,000.

THE VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game is given the Victory Bell. The 295-pound bell originally hung atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For the next two seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of the 1941 UCLA football season, six members of a USC fraternity mixed in among the Bruin supporters and after the game helped them load the Bell onto a waiting truck which was bound for Westwood. While the Bruin well-wishers were searching for the missing keys to the truck, the Trojan supporters drove off with the bell. The bell remained hidden for more than a year in various locations.

The controversy quieted somewhat until a picture of the bell was featured in a USC publication. This action re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. Trojan students then acted by burning their school's initials on several UCLA lawns. Police and school administrators had to be called to help quell the uprisings.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both institutions signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the rivalry football game would keep possession of the bell for the next year. In that first season on the gridiron following the pact, the Bruins, under the direction of coach Edwin Horrell, defeated the Trojans, 14-7, to mark the first-ever Bruin win in the series. Later that season, the Bruin team went on to make its first ever postseason appearance in the 1943 Rose Bowl game.

Gary Beban, UCLA's Heisman winning quarterback, is one of many Bruin football alumni who have served as an Honorary Captain and participated in the pre-game coin flip.

HONORARY CAPTAINS

For each UCLA home game, UCLA honors a star from its past as an Honorary Captain. The selected Bruin alum speaks to the football team on Friday, stays at the team hotel on Friday night, is on the sideline prior to and during the game and participates in the pre-game coin flip with the Bruin captains.

Bruin standouts who have participated as an Honorary Captain include: three-time consensus All-Americans and College Football Hall of Fame members Kenny Easley and Jerry Robinson; 1967 Heisman Trophy winner and College Football Hall of Fame member Gary Beban; former head coach and College Football Hall of Fame member Terry Donahue; James Washington, Bruin All-American and two-time Super Bowl champion; and Billy Kilmer, also in the College Football Hall of Fame, just to name a few.

THE ORIGIN OF THE BRUIN MASCOTS

The first athletic mascot for UCLA teams appeared as the result of spirited student demand. In the 1930's, a live bear and its trainer were rented by Associated Students to appear at all UCLA home football games. However, wild animals became increasingly difficult to handle in a large crowd, and the Coliseum outlawed their appearances.

UCLA was without a mascot again until the early 1950's, when student and alumni united to bring "Little Joe Bruin" to Westwood. Only six months of age during the football season, this first official "Little Joe" was a Himalayan bear cub from India. However, after a short time he grew too large and was transferred to a circus.

The first "Josephine" arrived in 1961, after a long search to fill "Little Joe Bruin's" place. She was purchased by the alumni, and was kept in the backyard of the Rally Committee chairman. She also grew too large and was soon moved to the San Diego Zoo.

The difficulty in obtaining and caring for live bears eventually led to the appearance of costumed student mascots. In the mid-1960's several male students were selected to take turns playing the part of Joe Bruin. In 1967, the first female to become a UCLA mascot created the role of Josephine Bruin and joined Joe at athletic events. The various versions of the duo have been a fixture on the UCLA sporting scene ever since that time.

THE ORIGIN OF THE "UCLA BRUIN"

Back in 1919 UCLA was known as the "Southern Branch" of the University of California. The UCLA football team, playing its first season, was then known as the "Cubs" owing to their younger relationship to the California Bears in Berkeley.

In 1923, under new coach Jimmie Cline, the football team adopted the name "Grizzlies" instead of Cubs. In 1925, Bill Spaulding came west from the University of Minnesota to help upgrade the football program. In 1928, the Grizzlies joined the Pacific Coast Conference. However, there was a problem with the nickname, since the University of Montana, also a member of the PCC at the time, had prior rights to the nickname "Grizzlies". UCLA, which had changed its name from the Southern Branch in 1927, became the "Bruins" in 1928 and has been recognized as such ever since.

FOOTBALL TRADITIONS/FACTS

At every home game, the Bruin players and coaches walk through the fans tailgating in Area H prior to entering the Rose Bowl.

UCLA is the only school in the Pac-10 to produce a three-time consensus All-American in football - Jerry Robinson (1976-77-78) and Kenny Easley (1978-79-80).

Over the last 28 years (1982-2009), no Pac-10 school has won more bowl games than UCLA (12).

Over the last 28 years (1982-2009), only nine schools in the nation have won more bowls than UCLA.

UCLA has played in seven bowls in the last eight years, tied for second in the Pac-10, and eight in the last 10 years.

UCLA is always well-represented in the National Football League. The current group of Bruins in the NFL is led by Pro Bowl running back Maurice Jones-Drew, safety Chris Horton and tight end Marcedes Lewis.

Super Bowl champions Troy Aikman, Jonathan Ogden, Carnell Lake and Roman Phifer are just a few of the UCLA alumni who have starred in the National Football League.

Randy Cross is the second Bruin in three years to be selected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (Troy Aikman in 2008, Cross in 2010). There are 13 Bruins (10 players, three coaches) in the Hall.

UCLA ON RADIO/TELEVISION

This season, UCLA's football games will be broadcast on AM 570 (KLAC). This is the 14th year of UCLA's association with Clear Channel Radio and its fourth on AM 570.

The games will again be produced by International Sports Properties (ISP), UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. ISP is also building a network on the West Coast and KLAC serves as the flagship station of the UCLA/ISP Sports Network.

The game broadcasts are also available on the Bruin web site at www.uclabruins.com.

Chris Roberts will be in his 19th year as the play-by-play voice of the Bruins. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for men's basketball. He has been nominated four times for the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn. "Play-by-Play Broadcaster of the Year" award. He has also authored two books, Stadium Stories, UCLA Bruins and The Football Vault, UCLA, co-authored with Bill Bennett. Prior to joining the Bruin crew in 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103 FM. Over the last 28 years, no one has done more Division I radio play-by-play in Southern California.

Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-86) will be in his 14th season as a member of the broadcast team and his 10th as the analyst following four years as the sideline reporter. He will also serve as co-host of the pre-game show.

Wayne Cook ('91-94), another former Bruin quarterback, will be in his ninth year as a sideline reporter and pre-game show host.

In addition, the home games are broadcast in Spanish on www.uclabruins.com.

UCLA's complete television plans were not definite at press time.

ABC has selected the Texas (national), Stanford and Kansas State games while ESPN will televise the Oregon and Washington contests on a national basis. ABC/ESPN is expected to select other games 12 days prior to kickoff in accordance with its contract with the Pac-10 Conference.

Fox Sports Net will telecast 11 Pac-10 football contests throughout the nation on its cable network for the 12th consecutive year and license seven more games to Versus. FSN has selected the Houston and Arizona State games for national telecasts thus far.

Both entities are expected to select other Bruin games during the season.

FS West and Prime Ticket, Los Angeles-based regional sports cable stations, also available nation-wide on DIRECTV (West - 692, PT - 694), will televise some games on a local basis, including the Washington State contest. Bill Macdonald will again handle the play-by-play duties (18th year) with James Washington serving as the analyst.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Admission to the Rose Bowl press box, sidelines and dressing area is by credential only. Due to space limitations, credentials will be limited to media members who cover UCLA on a regular basis, media members who cover the visiting team or national media. Local weekly publications will be credentialed only if space is available after filling requests from daily publications. Freelancers will not be accommodated. Requests should be submitted in writing by the media agency's Sports Editor or Sports Director at least two weeks prior to the game and addressed to Marc Dellins, Sports Information Director, UCLA Athletic Department, P.O. Box 24044, Los Angeles, CA 90024-0044 (mdellins@athletics.ucla.edu). Writers covering the UCLA beat may request credentials for road games through Dellins.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials are available during the week at the Sports Information Office. Credentials not claimed by Friday afternoon will be available on Saturday at the "Press Will Call" window, which is located outside of Gate B at the southeast side of the Rose Bowl. Photo credentials are not available for advance pick-up and are issued on the day of the game. "Press Will Call" opens two hours prior to kickoff.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of parking permits are available from the Sports Information Office. The media area is located on the west side of the Rose Bowl. A map showing lot locations is printed on the back of the pass.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

The press gate is located adjacent to Gate F on the west side of the Rose Bowl. Three press box elevators are located in the lobby area opposite Gate F. Media seating is located on the south side of Level Two of the press box. Television and radio booths are located on Level Three of the press box. Press box credentials are not good on the sidelines until the final five minutes of the game. Please be aware that all people and bags are subject to search.

MEDIA SERVICES

A play-by-play of each quarter, plus halftime and final statistics and post-game quotes from both coaches, are supplied to media. Programs, pre-game notes and flip cards will be distributed prior to the game. Food is available in the press box for the media and in the field level work area for photographers.

TELEPHONE/INTERNET/FAX SERVICE

Media wishing to order telephones should place their order through AT&T — (800/339-3204). Telephone instruments are not provided. Radio stations wishing to order broadcast lines should contact AT&T Program Services (800/400-6990 from anywhere in the country). Two charge-call telephones are located in the press box for use by the media.

Internet access is available in the press box by both network/ethernet connection at each seat and by wireless connection.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Television and Photo credentials entitle video and still photographers to shoot from the sidelines. In accordance with NCAA rules, members of the media (still photographers, television cameramen and reporters) are not allowed in the team area (between the 25-yard lines). Only photographers wearing proper credentials and working are allowed on the sideline. Photo credentials will not be mailed and may only be picked up on game day at the PhotoWill Call booth at Gate A. Please have picture identification available and be aware that all people and bags are subject to search. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. In addition, a limited amount of space is available on the Photo Mezzanine, which is located in front of Press Box Level One.

A new photo transmission room has been established on the field level on the east side of Tunnel 23A (the west tunnel). Photographers may order telephone lines installed in this area for digital transmission. Electrical power, game programs and rosters will be available in this area. In addition, food and drinks will also be available in this area.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Rick Neuheisel and selected Bruin players will be available in the Interview Room, located on the east side of Tunnel 23A (west tunnel). Soon after Coach Neuheisel addresses the media, the UCLA locker room will be open to credentialed members of the media. The UCLA locker room is located down the hallway from the interview room. The visiting coach will meet the media in an interview room just north of the visiting locker room. In the case of a night game, questions and answers from the Interview Room (UCLA interviews only) will be shown on the press box television monitors.

WEEKLY INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES

Head Coach: Rick Neuheisel hosts a media conference every Monday at 1:00 p.m. in the Press Room of the J.D. Morgan Center. Coach Neuheisel will also be available following practice sessions on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. In addition, an audio tape of his Monday news conference will be available for play-back throughout the week, beginning late Monday afternoon.

Coach Neuheisel will also be available weekly on the Pac-10 Coaches conference call. Contact the Pac-10 office for the telephone number and schedule of coaches.

Coach Neuheisel will not be available to the media on Sundays.

Players: All interviews must be arranged by the Sports Information Office. Players have been instructed not to grant any interview, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the SID staff. Player telephone numbers are private and will not be released.

Players will not be available on Sundays. Interviews may be arranged for Mondays (a non-practice day), prior to coach Neuheisel's regular media session, by making a request to SID Marc Dellins or Associate SID - Football Steve Rourke on Sunday. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements.

On Monday through Wednesday of game week, interviews may also be scheduled around the lunch hour, if the request is made the previous day and the player is available. Players will usually be available for brief interviews after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays once they have completed their football obligations.

Players will not be available on Thursday, Friday or before a game. Post-practice interviews will be conducted on Spaulding Field or in Pauley Pavilion. The locker room, training room and weight room are off-limits to everyone with the exception of team members and Athletic Department personnel.

Radio stations may schedule telephone interviews following the guidelines listed above. All interviews must be completed before the players leave the locker room area after practice. Night interviews will not be scheduled.

WEEKLY RELEASES

The weekly UCLA football release is available on the official school internet site — uclabruins.com. Audio and video interviews will also be available on the site during the season.

PRACTICE

The UCLA football team practices on Spaulding Field, located just south of Pauley Pavilion. This season, practice sessions on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays will be open to the media outlets that cover UCLA on a regular basis, national media and other media outlets at the discretion of the Sports Information Office. Media expecting to attend practice should contact the SID office (310-206-6831) to have their name placed on a list.

No live/real-time transmissions are allowed during practice, including radio reports or blogging. Video and still photographers may shoot isolation footage of players to be interviewed but not wide-angle formations. Video and still photographic shooting is only allowed during the first 30-40 minutes of practice. Media must call in advance to make sure that their name is on a list to be admitted to the practice session.

The team will have a light workout on Sundays this season. The Sunday workout is closed to all media and no interviews will be conducted that day.

BRUINS

DAN GUERRERO

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
NINTH YEAR :: UCLA '74

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, has enjoyed great success and exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is in charge of the program at his alma mater.

Guerrero is one of the most respected and talented administrators in all of intercollegiate athletics. He is the current president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. In addition, he is the first vice-president of the National Assn. of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee.

This past June, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 million, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

In Guerrero's eight years as AD, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (106) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those eight years, UCLA teams have won 20 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 16 times and have had an additional 28 Top Five finishes (64 total). A staggering 152 teams (of 184 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 45 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 400 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China, 39 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and nine other nations. They won 15 medals, including four gold.

In the last eight years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Leerfield Sports Directors' Cup.

This past year, UCLA placed fourth in competition for the Leerfield Cup and won its 11th NCAA Championship in softball and its sixth in women's gymnastics. The Bruins finished second in baseball and men's water polo, tied for third in women's soccer (seventh straight College Cup), fifth in women's water polo, tied for fifth in men's soccer and men's tennis, sixth in women's golf, tied for ninth in women's tennis, 12th in women's rowing, 16th in men's golf, tied for 17th in women's basketball and women's volleyball and 19th in women's swimming. UCLA also won three conference titles and two league post-season tournaments and the football team won the EagleBank Bowl.

In 2008-09, UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in women's soccer (sixth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed seventh in women's gymnastics and ninth (tied) in softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis. UCLA also won six conference titles.

In 2007-08, UCLA won three NCAA championships in women's water polo (fourth straight), women's tennis (first) and men's golf (second). The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball (third straight Final Four), women's soccer (fifth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed fifth (tied) in women's volleyball and softball and seventh in women's gymnastics. UCLA also played in its sixth consecutive bowl game and won four conference championships and two league tournaments.

In 2006-07, UCLA won an NCAA championship in women's water polo, the school's 100th NCAA team title, and placed second in men's soccer and women's tennis, third in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball, fourth in women's gymnastics, fifth in women's outdoor track and field, tied for fifth in men's tennis, seventh in men's golf and women's indoor track and field, ninth in men's outdoor track and field and tied for ninth in baseball. UCLA played in its fifth straight bowl game in football and won four league titles.

In 2005-06, UCLA won two NCAA titles (men's volleyball and women's water polo) and placed second in men's basketball and women's soccer, tied for third in softball, tied for fifth in men's tennis, tied for seventh in men's golf and tied for ninth in women's volleyball and women's tennis. UCLA also won the Vitalis Sun Bowl in football and captured seven conference championships and two post-season tournaments.

In 2004-05, UCLA won three NCAA titles (men's water polo, men's tennis and women's water polo) and placed second in women's soccer, men's volleyball, women's golf and softball, tied for second in women's outdoor track and field, fourth in women's gymnastics and tied for fifth in women's volleyball. UCLA also earned its first NCAA post-season appearance in women's rowing (varsity eight) and won eight conference championships.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
Dan Guerrero

In 2003-04, the Bruins won four NCAA titles (women's outdoor track and field, softball, women's golf and women's gymnastics). They also placed second in men's tennis, women's tennis and men's golf, tied for third in women's soccer, tied for fifth in men's soccer and women's volleyball and fifth in women's indoor track and field. In addition, the Bruins captured seven league titles.

In Guerrero's first year at UCLA (2002-03), UCLA won four NCAA titles (men's soccer, women's gymnastics, women's water polo and women's softball). The Bruins placed third in men's golf, tied for third in men's tennis and tied for fifth in women's golf and women's tennis. UCLA also earned six conference titles.

Over the past eight years, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In June of 2007, he was named the NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year. His other honors include 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October 2002); Cal State Dominguez Hills' Alumnus of the Year (March 2003); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Association (June). On September 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning (Wilmington, CA) High School to have his jersey (#8 in baseball) retired (2003).

Guerrero was named one of the nation's Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

In addition to unparalleled success in the playing arena, his eight years at the helm have also demonstrated the overall excellence Guerrero has made a priority for the program. Belief in conducting a program of integrity has been a cornerstone of Guerrero's leadership throughout his career. Named as a 1999 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport, Guerrero has fostered a strong sense of commitment and dedication among his coaches and staff to the development of the total student-athlete experience. He has also served as an Executive Board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sport for over a decade and is resolute in his desire to support academic achievement and life skills development for UCLA student-athletes. As a result, he has spearheaded unprecedented growth in the Academic Support and Life Skills program at UCLA. In Guerrero's eight and two-thirds years (23 quarters), student-athletes earned 5,433 spots on the Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or higher grade-point average for a quarter) and community service activities for the program are at an all-time high.

Resource development has always been a strength for Guerrero and his tenure at UCLA has demonstrated continued evidence of this skill. This past year, he negotiated a tremendous seven-year, multi-million dollar extension with adidas, equipment provider for all of UCLA's 24 sports, which takes effect for the 2011-12 school year. In 2004-05, he completed a new multi-million dollar agreement with ISP Sports, a premier national collegiate sports marketing organization.

Guerrero also led the negotiations that solidified the relationship between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, inking a 20-year agreement, which included over $13 million in facility enhancements to benefit the UCLA football program. He has also reorganized the External Relations area, integrating Corporate Sponsorships, Marketing and Development under one umbrella, in anticipation of a major revenue generating initiative designed to address capital project needs, operational support and program endowments.

Under Guerrero's guidance, UCLA continues to aggressively enhance its athletic facilities, including the completion of the Bud Knapp Football wing of the Acosta Center, and the sports medicine and athletic performance centers in the same complex. A new golf practice facility and the Easton Softball Stadium renovation, benefitting the Bruins' golf and softball powers, respectively, were completed for the 2004-05 season. The installation of synthetic turf at Spaulding Field was completed in 2006, the final phase of the Acosta Center project (Olympic sport locker rooms) was completed in 2007. Spieker Aquatic Center was completed in the summer of 2009 and the renovation of Pauley Pavilion is underway.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. He has been a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (he was the 2009-10 chair) and also served on the "College Basketball Partnership," a group formed by NCAA president Myles Brand, that included many of the most influential people in the sport. He has served as Chair of both the Pac-10 Athletic Directors Committee and the Budget and Finance Committee, has served on several Pac-10 committees and is currently a member of the Pac-10 Diversity Leadership Initiative Review, Revenue Sharing, Basketball Tournament, Men's Basketball Officiating, Bowl and Rose Bowl Management committees. He has also served on other NCAA committees, including the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee and the Baseball Academic Enhancement Committee and at the time of his hire by UCLA was serving as the second vice president of the Division I-AAA Athletic Director's Association.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). The broad competitive success of its athletic teams, the academic excellence of its student-athletes, the development of new and improved facilities and enhanced relations with the UCI community, reflect the progress UC Irvine Athletics experienced under Guerrero's direction. During his tenure, the program continued to accumulate conference championships, garner national rankings, feature graduation rates among the nation's best, and win numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes. In June of 2002 while still at UC Irvine, he was named the 2001-02 Division I-AA/I-AAA West Region NACDA Athletic Director of the Year.

Resulting from Guerrero's resourcefulness and creativity, UCI experienced unprecedented activity in the area of athletic facilities development. In his final five years, Guerrero was the driving force behind $38 million of newly constructed or renovated facilities. These projects included a newly renovated track and soccer complex, a new 64-meter competitive swimming pool, a new baseball stadium and the Anteater Recreation Center, one of the premier recreation centers in the country.

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Dan came from Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. His batting average in Pacific-8 Conference games over three seasons as a varsity performer was .343. Guerrero, known as "Warrior" during his playing career, was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero, born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

When it comes to athletic success, UCLA ranks second to none, as evidenced by its 106 NCAA team championships. Over the past three-plus decades, no school can match UCLA's combination of NCAA team and individual championships, football bowl games, men's basketball NCAA Tournament appearances and Olympic participation. In April of 2005, Sports Illustrated On Campus stated that "UCLA has the most complete athletic program in the country."

In 2009-10, UCLA placed fourth nationally in competition for the annual Leerfield Sports Directors' Cup. The cup recognizes the school with the best overall sports performance each year and awards points based on finishes in NCAA competition. UCLA has finished in the Top Six in 16 of the 17 years of the Directors' Cup, placing second in 2007-08, 2006-07, 2005-06, 2000-2001, 1999-2000 and 1995-96, third in 2004-05, 2003-04, 1996-97, 1994-95 and 1993-94, fourth in 2009-10 and 1997-98, fifth in 1998-99 and 2001-2002, sixth in 2002-2003 and 16th in 2008-09.

This past year, UCLA won its 11th NCAA Championship in softball and its sixth in women's gymnastics.The Bruins finished second in baseball and men's water polo, tied for third in women's soccer (seventh straight College Cup), fifth in women's water polo, tied for fifth in men's soccer and men's tennis, sixth in women's golf, tied for ninth in women's tennis, 12th in women's rowing, 16th in men's golf, tied for 17th in women's basketball and women's volleyball and 19th in women's swimming. UCLA also won three conference titles and two league post-season tournaments and the football team won the EagleBank Bowl.

In 2008-09, UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in women's soccer (sixth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed seventh in women's gymnastics and ninth (tied) in softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis, 16th (tied) in women's outdoor track and field and 17th (tied) in men's basketball. UCLA also won six conference titles.

In 2007-08, UCLA won three NCAA championships in women's water polo (fourth straight), women's tennis (first) and men's golf (second). The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in men's basketball (third straight Final Four), women's soccer and men's tennis, placed fifth (tied) in women's volleyball and softball, seventh in women's gymnastics, 14th in men's indoor track and field and 17th (tied) in baseball and men's soccer. UCLA also played in its sixth consecutive bowl game and won five conference championships and two league tournaments.

COMBINED PROGRAM

UCLA has won more NCAA team championships than any school in the nation — 106 (71 men's and 35 women's), including 20 in the last eight years, more than any other school in the country. Those 106 titles have been won in 17 different programs. In the 29 years that the NCAA has awarded both men's and women's championships, UCLA has won 66 NCAA team titles (31 men's and 35 women's). Overall, UCLA has won a nation-leading total of 127 collegiate championships — 106 NCAA crowns and 21 other titles.

UCLA has won at least one NCAA team title (men's or women's) in 28 of the last 30 years. In addition, the school has won at least one collegiate title (NCAA or AIAW) in 44 of the last 47 years, missing only in 1979-80, 1993-94 and 2001-02. Over the last 39 years, UCLA has won at least two collegiate titles 30 times.

UCLA has placed amongst the top five schools in 15 of the 17 years of the Directors' Cup. In 1992-93, UCLA earned the award as the nation's top combined program, according to the annual USA Today All-Sports Survey. Prior to 1993-94, USA Today conducted separate surveys for men's and women's programs. In the 23-year history of the All-Sports Survey for men's programs (formerly conducted by the Knoxville Journal), UCLA finished first 11 times (no other school had more than six titles), second seven times, third once and fourth once and was in the top 10 each year. The Bruins won five of the last eight men's surveys and placed fifth in 1993. In the women's survey (formerly sponsored by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook), UCLA won 10 titles in 18 years, including four straight (1988-1991), and finished second in 1992 and 1993.

In the last 41 years, the Bruin men have won 57 NCAA championships, eight more than second-place Stanford and 27 more than third-place USC. Eight times they have won at least three titles in a single year. UCLA is the only school to win four men's titles in a single year more than once, accomplishing the feat in 1969-70 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and water polo), 1970-71 (basketball, tennis, volleyball, and outdoor track) and 1971-72 (basketball, volleyball, outdoor track, and water polo).

In 1981-82, the first year in which the NCAA hosted women's championships, UCLA became the first school in history to win five NCAA titles (men's swimming, men's tennis, men's volleyball, softball, and women's track) in a single year.

GENE BLOCK

Chancellor
Fourth Year :: Stanford '70

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health.

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children. The Blocks are avid Bruin fans and attend the competitions of various Bruin athletic programs.

DON MORRISON

Faculty Athletic Representative
17th Year :: MIT '61

Donald G. Morrison is in his 17th year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative. In 2008-09, he served as President of the Pacific-10 Conference, a role he also filled in 1997-98.

Morrison, a specialist in management science and marketing, is the William E. Leonhard Professor in the Anderson Graduate School of Management.

A 1961 graduate of M.I.T. with a B.S. in mechanical engineering, Morrison earned a Ph.D. in operations research at Stanford University in 1965. He joined the Columbia Business School faculty the following year as assistant professor, served as associate professor from 1968 and was named professor of business in 1973. He has also served as visiting professor at Stanford and at the University of California, Berkeley. He joined the UCLA faculty in 1987.

Over the past 40 years, Morrison has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now faculty members of other leading institutions. Many are now on key editorial boards and six have endowed chairs. Morrison was the founding editor of the professional journal, Marketing Science and was editor-in-chief of Management Science for eight years. He has served as departmental editor or editorial board member of several other professional journals.

In 2002, Morrison was awarded the highest honor in the American Marketing Association, when he was named the McGraw-Hill/ Irwin Distinguished Educator of the Year.

He is the author or co-author of over 90 articles, with a special emphasis on marketing research and applied statistics. He has been an expert witness as a statistician in a number of legal cases and a consultant to industrial firms and government agencies.

Morrison, who will be 72 next February 26, served as captain of the M.I.T. track team. In 1961, he was the Eastern Conference long jump champion and placed third in the long jump at the New England Championships.

Morrison's wife Sherie is a professor in UCLA's Microbiology, Immunology and Molecular Genetics department. Their daughters, Heather Felix and Michelle Oliva, earned their MBA degrees from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA. The Morrisons also have three grandsons, Parker Graham Felix, Spencer Andrew Felix and Jake Carmine Oliva.

Sherie and Don have endowed several athletic scholarships and provided funds for academic/athletic awards during the last decade.

UCLA is among the world's leading research universities, known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. A shared public asset, UCLA enriches our neighborhoods, our nation and our world on a daily basis by creating knowledge, educating students, powering the economy and serving the community. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 26,700 undergraduates and 11,800 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Five UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes — the two most recent are Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been 10 National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their educations beyond the classroom by working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce — Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 384,000 UCLA alumni, with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top ten academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than eight million volumes as well as digital resources and services. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a Web site for every undergraduate student. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents.

Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university. Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health System has been a leader in patient care, medical research and teaching for more than 50 years. Today, our physicians provide an array of cutting-edge and research-based primary and specialty services in four hospitals on two campuses, and in more than 75 clinic locations. Physicians provide specialty services in offices located on the Westwood campus and throughout Santa Monica. Primary care physicians provide healthcare for children and adults in community offices from Manhattan Beach to Malibu. Patients from Southern California, the U.S. and around the globe enter our clinics more than one million times annually, and our hospitals, more than 80,000 times a year to be treated at the world-renowned Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital, primary care offices and community outreach health programs. The four schools in the medical enterprise are medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health. The Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as one of the top hospitals in the country by U.S. News & World Report, including "Best in the West" for 21 consecutive years. A new state-of-the-art medical center, which includes the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital and Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA, opened in the summer of 2008. Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital's rebuilding project is scheduled for completion in late 2010. Groundbreaking research is constantly taking place in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Gonda (Goldschmied) Neuroscience and Genetics Research Center and in many other centers and laboratories on campus.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. Check the web sites at www.arts.ucla.edu and www.tft.ucla.edu for more information.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

One of the nation's leading university based institutions for continuing education, UCLA Extension offers 4,300 classroom and online courses and programs each year, helping 47,000 individuals in Los Angeles and around the world advance their goals for career, academic and personal educational development. More information about UCLA Extension is available at www.uclaextension.edu.

In addition, the university conducts guided walking tours and distributes self-guided tour maps. For further information, call (310) 825-8764 or check out UCLA on the Web at www.ucla.edu.

DeNeve Plaza - Residence Hall

• The first African-American to play major league baseball (April 15, 1947). Born Jan. 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA.
• His widow Rachel, a UCLA alumna, founded the Jackie Robinson Foundation, which has funded college scholarships for deserving African-American students.
• The first four-sport letterman in UCLA history on the Westwood campus — football (1939 and 1940), basketball (1940 and 1941), track and field (1940) and baseball (1940).

UCLA'S Athletics Hall of Fame

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 27th year of its existence and its 10th in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The current Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the east wing of the J.D. Morgan Athletics Center features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into the great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and much more.

UCLA athletic teams have won 105 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the new Hall of Fame.

Each of UCLA's sports has its own individual display area within the Hall of Fame. In addition, there are displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November of 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Following is a list of the 239 members, including the eight members who will be inducted during the 2010 football season:

ROSE BOWL
Home of the Bruins

The nation's most famous college football stadium — The Rose Bowl — is now in its 29th season as the home of the UCLA Bruin football team. One of the finest football stadiums in America, the Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but was used for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games and was also the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also been the site of four Super Bowls, most recently Super Bowl XXVII on January 31, 1993, and was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games.

On January 7, 2010, the Rose Bowl played host to the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) National Championship for the third time with Alabama defeating Texas. The previous time Pasadena welcomed the BCS National Championship football game, Texas bested USC to win the title on January 4, 2006. Miami won the first BCS National Championship contest played in the Rose Bowl, defeating Nebraska on January 3, 2003 at the Rose Bowl.

Beginning with the 2007 season, UCLA and its opponents dressed in new state-of-the-art locker rooms. Located underneath the south concourse of the stadium, the locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine staff and equipment staff. A new media interview room and working area was included as part of the upgrades. These items were the first step in a $16.3 million capital improvement program launched by the Rose Bowl and the City of Pasadena that will benefit both UCLA and the Tournament of Roses.

In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones as part of a plan to bring the Rose Bowl into the 21st Century as America's premier college football stadium. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged have been installed, as has a new sound system. In 1997, a state-of-the-art video board, as well as new matrix-style scoreboards, were added to the the Rose Bowl. In the last few years, new concession stands and restrooms have been built and the team dressing rooms have been renovated.

Prior to the 1992 season, the Rose Bowl built a new three-level press box. In addition to modern facilities for the print and electronic media, the new press box has two levels of executive and club suites, some of which are still available for lease. Three elevators service this state-of-the-art facility. In addition, the Rose Bowl also received a new state-of-the art lighting system prior to the 1992 season, including new lights, fixtures and towers.

Completed in 1922, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California game that year. The stadium was horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 persons when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end was enclosed prior to the 1929 game and enlarged to seat 76,000 spectators. Demands for more and more seats led to further enlargements; to 83,677 in 1932 and to 100,807 in 1949.

With the new seating configuration, the current seating capacity is 91,136, though a record 106,869 witnessed the 1973 USC-Ohio State Rose Bowl contest.

In conjunction with UCLA's move in 1982 and the Olympics, a Rose Bowl improvement program resulted in the refurbishing of the press box, adding permanent concession stands and backs for more than 50,000 seats. In recent years, all of those areas have enjoyed additional enhancements.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts to its record. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, the UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide hookup.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. There are 79,156 square feet of natural grass on the floor of the stadium.

WOODEN ATHLETIC FUND
Athletic Endowment

The UCLA Athletics Campaign has endowed 206 of the 282 NCAA allowable athletic grants-in-aid. UCLA Athletics expresses its sincere gratitude to the individuals listed for their support in the continuing effort to distinguish UCLA as the nation's premier academic and athletics institution.

An endowment generates income to the University in perpetuity. By investing the gift principal and using just the interest earned to help meet the cost of a grant-in-aid assures the Athletic Department of on-going funds to maintain the quality and diversity of its program.

Currently, UCLA provides financial assistance to over 400 student-athletes participating in 24 intercollegiate sports. However, expenses such as the cost of tuition for student-athletes have increased dramatically in the last several years while department revenues have remained relatively stable.

Tax-deductible gifts to the Wooden Athletic Fund play a pivotal role in meeting the escalating costs of team travel, recruiting, equipment replacement and, most importantly, in providing athletic scholarships. Now more than ever, private support is necessary if UCLA is to maintain its position as the best athletic program in the country. Your help is truly needed and greatly appreciated.

To encourage private support of our program, the best football and basketball tickets are allocated to our most generous donors. Members of the Wooden Athletic Fund receive priority in the assignment of tickets for home contests in the Rose Bowl and in Pauley Pavilion in accordance with the UCLA Priority Seating Policy. Please refer to the donor benefits chart to determine season ticket opportunities. In many cases, special reserved parking is also available for our donors.

If you have any questions regarding the Wooden Athletic Fund or the benefits members receive, please contact the Athletic Development Office at 310/206-3302.

Setting the standard of excellence once again, the Pac-10 Conference captured eight NCAA titles during the 2009-10 academic year to tie with ACC for the most national championships of any conference. It marks the 10th time in the last 11 years that the Pac-10 has led or tied for the most NCAA championships won. In addition to the eight national championships, Pac-10 teams posted NCAA runner-up finishes 14 times.

The Pac-10 men's and women's programs shared the wealth in 2009-10 as the Conference claimed five NCAA women's titles, the most of any conference in the country, and three men's crowns. Only nine institutions claimed multiple NCAA titles this year, with three of them being Pac-10 schools. USC was the only school in the nation to win three championship crowns. Stanford and UCLA each claimed two NCAA championships to join Duke, North Carolina, Virginia, Florida, Penn State and Texas A&M.

The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 44 of the last 50 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 390 NCAA titles (267 men's, 123 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 226 titles.

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Leerfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford won the Directors' Cup and UCLA placed fourth. Other Pac-10 schools in the Top 30 included California, USC, Oregon, Arizona State, Washington and Arizona.

On the men's side, Pac-10 members have won 267 NCAA team championships, far ahead of the the 200 claimed by the runner-up Big Ten. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-10 - 15 basketball titles by five schools (more than any other conference), 51 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track and field crowns and 26 baseball titles. Pac-10 members have won 26 of the 41 NCAA titles in volleyball, 36 of the 41 in water polo, and 21 total swimming and diving national championships.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 29 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 21 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 123 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 76. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 22 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 11 of the last 20 volleyball titles and 13 of the last 21 trophies in golf.

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Conference has agreements with six bowls. The Pac-10 champion shall play in the Rose Bowl Game unless it is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) ranking system. In that case, the Pac-10 champion would participate in the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game. This year, that game will be played in Glendale, AZ on January 10.

If that is not the case, the following procedures will determine the Pacific-10 representative in the Rose Bowl. The Pac-10's Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in Conference games. If, however, the records in Conference games of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

Two-Team Tie: If two teams are tied for the conference championship, the team that won the head-to-head meeting shall be the Pac-10's representative in the Rose Bowl.

Multiple Ties: (1) When three or more teams are tied in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a comparison of the tied teams' records against the other tied teams shall be made and the team having the best record against the other tied teams shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If two or more teams are still tied after this comparison, the appropriate two-team or multiple-team tie-breaking procedures shall be repeated among those teams still under consideration.

(2) If more than two teams are still tied after the process above is completed, each remaining tied team's record against the team occupying the highest position in the final regular season standings shall be compared, with the procedure continuing down through the standings until one team gains an advantage. When arriving at another group of tied teams while comparing records, each team's collective record against the tied teams as a group shall be used.

If at any point in the process the multiple-team tie is reduced to two teams, the two-team tie-breaking procedure shall be applied.

If more than two teams are still tied after comparing their records all the way through the Conference standings, the team among the tied teams with the highest ranking in the final BCS standings shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the team most recently earning Rose Bowl or Bowl Championship Series automatic selection shall be eliminated.

Ineligible Team: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formulae, except their games against other institutions shall count and may be utilized to break ties between other eligible teams.
