

STEVE BROUSSARD

Running Backs

1st Season

Washington State '90

Former Washington State University star and first-round NFL draft pick Steve Broussard joined the staff at UCLA in December of 2011 after serving two seasons as wide receivers coach for Arizona State.

In 2011, ASU ranked 10th in the nation in passing offense (316.7 yds/g) and receiver Gerell Robinson ranked ninth with 107.5 receiving yards per game. During the 2010 season, Broussard's receiving corps ranked 15th in the nation (286.4) and totaled 279 receptions for 3,437 yards and 23 touchdowns.

Broussard came to ASU after having served as the running backs and special teams coach at his alma mater, Washington State University, from 2007-2009. Prior to that, Broussard coached running backs and wide receivers at Portland State University from 2004 to 2006. During the 2004 season, the team led the Big Sky conference in rushing, averaging 204.4 yards per game. Previously, he served as the offensive coordinator for Diamond Ranch High School in 2001, before being named head coach in 2002. He began his coaching career at Chino, CA Don Lugo High School as the offensive coordinator in 2000.

Broussard was a standout player in both college and professional football. He was selected with the 20th pick in the first round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Broussard rushed for 1,472 yards, caught 48 passes and scored 12 touchdowns in four seasons with Atlanta. In his rookie year, he rushed for 454 yards and scored four touchdowns. Broussard joined the Bengals in 1994 and rushed for 403 yards and caught 43 passes in his lone season in Cincinnati. In 1995, Broussard became a Seattle Seahawk for his final four seasons in the NFL. He put together his best year with the Seahawks in 1997, when he gained 418 yards and caught 24 passes. Spending a total of nine years in the NFL, Broussard completed his career with 578 rushing attempts, 2,625 rushing yards, 126 receptions, 882 receiving yards and 22 combined rushing and receiving touchdowns.

As a collegiate performer at Washington State, Broussard was named to the Pacific-10 Conference's second-team as a running back after his sophomore season in which he led the Cougars in receiving with 59 catches for 701 yards with three touchdowns. During his junior year, he rushed for 1,280 yards, which ranked seventh nationally and first in the Pac-10. Broussard was only the second player in conference history to lead in receiving one year and rushing the next. Ranking first in the Pac-10 for all-purpose running his senior year, Broussard averaged 162.7 yards per contest. He finished second in rushing with 1,237 yards, just 32 behind the leading rusher.

Broussard finished his college career ranked third on the WSU all-time single-season list with 3,054 yards. He finished fifth in receiving with 120 receptions. He ranked seventh on the Pac-10 list with 4,635 all-purpose yards. He attended Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles.

ADRIAN KLEMM

Offensive Line

1st Season

Hawai'i/Excelsior College '08

Former NFL lineman and three-time Super Bowl winner Adrian Klemm joined the Bruin staff in December of 2011 after coaching four seasons at SMU. In just a few short weeks in Westwood, he helped the Bruins secure one of the nation's top recruiting classes and was recognized as the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by 24/7 Sports. He was also tabbed by Rivals.com as one of the nation's Top 25 Recruiters.

Klemm, who was a four-year starter at the University of Hawai'i, began volunteering with the SMU program in 2008 after spending seven seasons in the NFL and winning three Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVII, XXXIX) as a member of the New England Patriots. He made an immediate impact at SMU, quickly becoming one of the nation's top recruiters and helping head coach June Jones produce his first 1,000-yard rusher.

In 2011, SMU featured the nation's seventh-leading rusher in Zach Line (122.4 yds per game). Two Mustang offensive linemen went on to be selected in the 2012 NFL Draft - Josh LeRibeus in the third round by the Redskins; Kelvin Beachum in the seventh round by the Steelers.

On the field in 2010, Klemm tutored a young SMU line and guided Beachum to first-team All-Conference honors. He also led J.T. Brooks and Blake McJunkin to honorable mention All-Conference USA accolades. His line paved the way for an SMU offense which set school records in total offense, passing yards, passing TDs and first downs among others. Line finished the season with 1,494 yards rushing, the second-best single-season total in school history, trailing only Eric Dickerson's 1982 effort.

Following the 2010 campaign, Klemm was named the top non-BCS AQ Recruiter in the Nation by Rivals.com, and was further recognized by the outlet as one of the Top 25 Recruiters in the country overall. Other services took note as well, as FoxSports/Scout.com named him the Conference USA Recruiter of the Year. Following this success, Klemm was named SMU's Recruiting Coordinator in the summer of 2011.

In 2009, Klemm helped Beachum earn second-team all-conference honors. The line blocked for an offense that passed for a then-school record 3,666 yards and produced the first collegiate 1,000-yard rusher, Shawnbrey McNeal (1,188 yds) under June Jones.

Klemm was the 46th overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft after a standout career at Hawai'i. He played under coach Jones during his senior season (1999), and was a part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history, as Hawai'i improved from 0-12 to 9-4 and won a bowl game. Following the season, Klemm was selected as the starting left tackle at the Senior Bowl.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Orange County, South Bay, Westside, Valley.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended the University of Hawai'i and earned his Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College; ('08); At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in December of 2011); Born: May 21, 1977 in Los Angeles, CA.

DEMETRICE MARTINSecondary*1st Season*Michigan State/Excelsior College '06

Demetrice Martin (Excelsior College, '06) was named to Coach Mora's staff in December of 2011. He left a position as the secondary/cornerbacks coach at the University of Washington to join the Bruins. Martin had been on the Huskies staff for three seasons. The 2010 UW secondary finished second in the conference in pass defense.

In 2006 and 2007, he was a defensive graduate assistant at USC, working with the Trojan secondary. Prior to joining the USC staff, he spent three seasons (2003-05) as the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) in Walnut, Calif. The Mounties played in the National Bowl in 2003 and 2004. He was also the secondary coach at Pasadena, Calif. City College in 2001 and 2002. The Lancers went 18-4 during that period, winning the Mission Conference title both seasons and appearing in two bowl games. He began his career in coaching at Monrovia (Calif.) High (1999-2000).

A product of Pasadena (Calif.) Muir High School, Martin went to Michigan State, where he played wide receiver and cornerback from 1992 to 1995, earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1994 when he led the conference with seven interceptions. He had 10 interceptions in his career and the Spartans went on to play in the Liberty (1993) and Independence (1995) bowl games.

Martin played corner for the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (1997) and for the Houston Thunderbears in the Arena Football League (1998-99). He also spent time on the practice squad with the St. Louis Rams in the NFL.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended Michigan State and earned his Bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College, 2006; At UCLA: First year (named to staff in December 2011); Born: February 23, 1973; Family: Wife, Tiffany, and one son, Cole; one daughter, Kori.

NOEL MAZZONEOffensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks*1st Season*New Mexico '80

Noel Mazzone (pronounced Muh-ZONE-ee) joined the Bruin staff in January of 2012. He has served as the offensive coordinator at BCS schools in the ACC, the SEC, the Pac-12 and Big Ten Conferences and has also worked in the NFL. The previous two seasons, he had served as offensive coordinator at Arizona State.

In 2011, the Sun Devils offense ranked 25th in the nation (445.8 yds per game), 10th in passing offense (316.7 yds per game) and 28th in scoring offense (33.2 pts). Quarterback Brock Osweiler (2nd round selection of Denver Broncos in the 2012 NFL Draft) ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (317.4). Running back Cameron Marshall recorded 18 rushing touchdowns and ranked seventh in the Pac-12 with an 80.8 yards per game mark. In 2010, ASU was listed as the No. 15 passing offense in the nation and the No. 29 total offense in the country. In addition, the Sun Devils rushed for 19 touchdowns.

Mazzone came to Arizona State from the NFL, after having served as wide receivers coach on Eric Mangini's staff for the New York Jets from 2006-2008 and then working as a personnel consultant for the team in 2009. While with the Jets, he coached wideouts Jericho Cotchery and Laveranues Coles, who set a franchise record for combined yardage and receptions.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Mazzone coached in college football for more than two decades. He had tutored quarterbacks, running backs, receivers and tight ends, while also serving as offensive coordinator at three schools (Ole Miss, Auburn and North Carolina State).

In 2005, Mazzone served a second stint at Ole Miss as the offensive coordinator before heading off to the NFL. From 2003-04, he was the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at North Carolina State. At NC State, he coached All-American quarterback Philip Rivers (currently a Pro Bowl performer with the San Diego Chargers), who went on to become the fourth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft, and Cotchery, a wide receiver. The Wolfpack offense led the Atlantic Coast Conference in six offensive categories and topped the NCAA in pass efficiency. It ranked third in the NCAA in passing offense and was No. 8 in scoring offense.

In 2002, he was on Dennis Erickson's Oregon State staff as the running backs and special teams coach. While with the Beavers, he coached Steven Jackson, now an All-Pro running back with the St. Louis Rams.

Mazzone worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Tommy Tuberville's staff at Auburn from 1999-2001. He recruited and coached the 2000 SEC Player of the Year, Rudi Johnson, a future Pro Bowler with the Cincinnati Bengals. Mazzone also tutored All-SEC quarterback Ben Leard, who set an NCAA record in pass efficiency, current NFL quarterback Jason Campbell and NFL running backs Carnell Williams and Ronnie Brown. Auburn won the SEC West Championship under his watch (2000-01) and set a Citrus Bowl passing record.

From 1994-98, he was on Tuberville's staff at Ole Miss as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. Ole Miss won the 1997 Motor City Bowl and produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher, since 1950, in Deuce McAllister, who would later star for the New Orleans Saints. Mazzone also coached quarterback Stu Patridge, who set an NCAA record in passing efficiency and a school record with 200 straight passes without an interception.

Mazzone was the quarterbacks coach at the University of Minnesota from 1992-94 and at TCU from 1987-91. At Texas Christian, quarterback Matt Vogler set a then NCAA single-game passing record with 690 yards, completing 44 passes, in a game against Houston. The first stop on Mazzone's collegiate coaching journey was a five-year stint at Colorado State working with the quarterbacks and receivers. He mentored signal-caller Kelly Stouffer, who was the sixth overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

Mazzone began his career in 1980-81 as a graduate assistant coach at the University of New Mexico. He was an assistant coach at Boulder High School in Boulder, Colorado, in 1981.

A native of Raton, N.M., Mazzone graduated from the University of New Mexico in 1980. He also played quarterback for the Lobos, leading the team in passing in 1976 and 1977.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Arizona and Southeast United States.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's from New Mexico, 1980; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: March 21, 1957; Family: has one daughter and two sons.

ANGUS McCLURE

Defensive Line/Director of Recruiting
6th Season (1st w/ def.-line)
Sacramento State '93

Angus McClure is starting his 20th year coaching football and his sixth season as a member of the Bruin staff. This year, he is directing the defensive line, having previously coached the tight ends, offensive line and special teams since arriving in Westwood in 2007. Angus continues in his role as the Recruiting Coordinator. Over the past four years, McClure has led the recruiting effort which has resulted in Bruin classes being ranked among the nation's top 20 each year.

Last year, UCLA led the South Division of the Pac-12 in rushing and played in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game. Over his time as a Bruin coach, McClure has tutored a number of NFL players: Logan Paulsen (Washington Redskins), Matthew Slater (New England Patriots), Kai Forbath (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and Christian Yount (Cleveland Browns).

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator at the University of Buffalo during the 2006 season. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other member of the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks (starter for the 2011 Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers) earned second-team All-MAC honors in 2006 and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News. Offensive lineman Jamie Richard was drafted and became a starter for the Indianapolis Colts.

McClure spent the 2004-05 seasons as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at Nebraska. McClure assisted with the offensive line, coaching the tackles, as well as serving in several special teams roles. The Cornhuskers defeated Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. As a Husker coach, McClure tutored a number of NFL players: Matt Slauson (NY Jets), Lydon Murtha (Miami Dolphins), Chris Patrick (NY Giants), and Sam Koch (Baltimore Ravens).

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure played a major role in some record-breaking offenses at Sacramento State University, where he was assistant head coach and offensive line coach from 1997-2003. During his tenure at Sacramento State, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the New England Patriots and Denver Broncos, went on to collect three Super Bowl rings. Another offensive lineman, Marco Cavka, was drafted by the Jets. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sacramento State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002).

In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada. He helped the Wolf Pack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yards per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing.

Angus has served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Buffalo Bills (2007, 2006), San Francisco 49ers (2002, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1997, 1996), Seattle Seahawks (1998) and San Diego Chargers (1997).

A graduate of Sacramento State, where he played football from 1987-91, McClure also served as a member of the faculty from 1997-2004. He was on the 1988 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Northern California and East Bay.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: Sixth year overall on staff (first joined staff in June 2007 as tight ends coach); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish and Malcolm.

LOU SPANOS

Defensive Coordinator
1st Season
Tulsa '94

Lou Spanos, who has worked for three NFL head coaches who have won a Super Bowl, was named UCLA's defensive coordinator in January of 2012. He joined the Bruin staff after working as an NFL assistant coach for the last 17 years. Spanos also has labored alongside such notable NFL defensive coordinators as Dick LeBeau and Jim Haslett.

In the 2011 and 2010 seasons, Spanos was the linebackers coach of the Washington Redskins. He served on the staff of head coach Mike Shanahan, who led the Denver Broncos to Super Bowl wins in 1997 and 1998. The Bruin coach was instrumental in helping Haslett, the new Redskins defensive coordinator, install the defensive system. Washington's second-team All-Pro linebacker London Fletcher, who played in the 2010 Pro Bowl, led the NFL in tackles with 166 in the 2011 campaign and was added to that year's Pro Bowl roster. Spanos also tutored linebackers Brain Orakpo, a Pro Bowler, and Ryan Kerrigan, the NFL Rookie of the Month for September 2011, in their transition to the new defense.

The previous 15 seasons, Spanos was a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers working under head coaches Bill Cowher and Mike Tomlin, each former NFL defensive coordinators, and winners of the Super Bowl (Cowher - 2005; Tomlin - 2009).

While in Pittsburgh, he worked closely with the linebackers and the secondary. Spanos was one of only three assistants on staff to be with the team for its Super Bowl XXX (lost to Dallas), Super Bowl XL (win over Seattle) and Super Bowl XLIII (win over Arizona) appearances. During his long tenure with the Steelers, the defense ranked among the top 10 in the NFL 13 times, including four No. 1 rankings. Pittsburgh managed to win at least 10 games in 10 of those seasons.

Spanos helped coach nine different Steeler linebackers who combined for 19 Pro Bowl appearances - Kevin Greene (2), Greg Lloyd (2), Chad Brown (1), Levon Kirkland (2), Jason Gildon (3), Kendrell Bell (1), Joey Porter (3), James Farrior (2) and James Harrison (3). Additionally, Harrison earned the Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year Award in 2008, while Bell was the Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2001.

Spanos originally joined the Steelers in 1994 as an intern in the scouting department before being promoted to a defensive assistant after one season.

A 1994 graduate of Tulsa, Spanos was a four-year letterman and starter at center. The 1989 and 1991 Golden Hurricane squads played in bowl games. In 1991, Tulsa beat San Diego State in the Freedom Bowl to finish 10-2 on the year and was ranked 21st on the final Associated Press poll. After his playing career ended (1989-92), Spanos remained at Tulsa as a student assistant working with the linebackers.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Santa Clarita Valley, Bakersfield, Fresno.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's from Tulsa, 1994; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: in Portland, OR; Family: Wife, Timme; sons, Zachary and Caleb; daughter, Gabriella.

MARQUES TUIASOSOPO

Y Receivers
1st Season
Washington '01

Marques Tuiasosopo joined the new staff in December of 2011 and is set to begin his first season as a collegiate coach, working with the UCLA "Y" receivers. He was a coaching intern with the Bruin program in 2011 before being elevated to a full-time position, as quarterbacks coach, for the UCLA bowl game.

An outstanding quarterback at the University of Washington, Tuiasosopo became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 300 yards (302) and run for 200 yards (207) in a 1999 game versus Stanford. He led the Huskies to the 2000 Pac-10 title and a trip to the 2001 Rose Bowl game. Washington defeated Purdue, 34-24, in the New Year's Classic and Tuiasosopo was named the Rose Bowl Player of the Game. He finished eighth in the voting for the 2000 Heisman Trophy. Marques was also selected as the Pac-10 Conference's Offensive Player of the Year and as the league's first-team all-conference quarterback.

Tuiasosopo served as team captain of the Huskies for both his senior and junior seasons and started 27 games in his collegiate career. He finished his career with a Washington school record for total offense. In the course of his career at UW, he compiled 1,495 career rushing yards, 21 rushing touchdowns and passed for 5,879 yards and 33 touchdowns. Tuiasosopo was a second-team All-Pac-10 pick in his junior season and a multiple year honorable mention all-conference academic team selection. In 1997, he became the first Washington true freshman to start a game at quarterback (v. Oregon).

Tuiasosopo went on to be selected in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders and played in the NFL for eight seasons. He spent seven seasons with the Raiders (2001-2006, 2008) and one with the New York Jets (2007). He appeared in 13 games with the Raiders over the years, while backing up Rich Gannon, Kerry Collins and Aaron Brooks.

Also a standout on the baseball field, Marques was selected in the 28th round of the 1997 Major League First-Year Player Draft by the Minnesota Twins. His dad, Manu, was a defensive lineman at UCLA who earned first-team all-conference honors in 1976-78. Manu went on to play in the NFL for the Seattle Seahawks and the San Francisco 49ers. His family's ties to UCLA also include cousins Terry and John Tautolo, who each played football at UCLA and in the NFL.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Northwest and San Diego.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's Degree from the Foster School of Business at Washington ('01); At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in December of 2011); Born: March 22, 1979. Family: Marques and his wife Lisa (a former volleyball player for UNC) have two sons, Brayden and Bryce, and welcomed a baby girl in June, 2012.

JEFF ULBRICH

Special Teams Coord./Linebackers
1st Season
Hawai'i

Jeff Ulbrich joined the UCLA staff in January, 2012 after a playing and coaching career in the NFL. He was on the staff of the Seattle Seahawks the past two seasons as a special teams assistant.

In 2010, Seahawks kicker Olindo Mare matched the league's sixth-longest field goal streak with 30 straight. The kickoff return units ranked third in the NFL and the kickoff cover group ranked fifth.

A linebacker as a player, Ulbrich was drafted out of the University of Hawai'i by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round (86th pick overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft. He won a starting linebacker job with the 49ers in 2001 and was on the team for 10 seasons, playing for head coaches Steve Mariucci, Dennis Erickson, Mike Nolan and Mike Singletary. In 2007, Ulbrich took a backup role to first round pick Patrick Willis, and also had an impact on special teams. He was placed on injured reserve in October, 2009 and decided to end his playing career. Ulbrich was hired by the Seattle Seahawks as a special teams assistant on January 29, 2010.

Ulbrich attended junior college and went on to become a two-year starter at the University of Hawai'i. He earned first-team All-WAC honors at middle linebacker and was a team co-captain as a senior. He led the conference with a school season record 169 tackles that year, setting another school record with 127 assisted tackles. He ranked third in the league with eight sacks for 67 yards and totaled 15 tackles for loss (58 yards) while making two interceptions. In his junior season, he finished with 41 tackles, including a sack.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — West Bay and Hawai'i.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended the University of Hawai'i; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: February 17, 1977. Family: Jeff and his wife Cristina have three children, Sammy, Jax and Jace.

ERIC YARBER

Wide Receivers
1st Season
Idaho '95

Eric Yarber joined the Bruins staff in January, 2012 after two seasons with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2011, he worked as the wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams.

Under Yarber's direction, Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneer history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac-10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards-after-the-catch with 13.6 and 13.1 averages (min. 10 receptions), respectively, in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with the running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive quality control coach with the Seattle Seahawks. He spent the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, the University of Idaho.

Yarber was selected by the Washington Redskins as a 12th-round pick in the 1986 NFL Draft and spent three seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner. He was part of the Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988, leading that team with 37 punt returns. At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year, catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches. He attended Crenshaw High School in Los Angeles.

RECRUITING RESPONSIBILITIES — Los Angeles city.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in General Studies from the University of Idaho, 1995; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: September 22, 1963, in Chicago, IL. Family: Wife, Estevanica; sons Kameryon and Robert.

TAYLOR MAZZONE

Offensive Graduate Assistant

1st Season

East Carolina '09

Taylor, the son of offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone, is in his first season as an offensive graduate assistant at UCLA. He had been on the staff at Arizona State University prior to coming to Westwood.

He joined the ASU coaching staff in February of 2010, serving as a quality control coach. In 2011, he became an offensive assistant. In 2011, the Sun Devil offense was ranked 25th in the nation (445.8 yds/g) and 10th in passing offense (316.7 yds/g). Quarterback Brock Osweiler (2nd round selection of the Denver Broncos in 2012 NFL Draft) ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (317.4). In 2010, ASU was listed as the No. 15 pass offense in the nation and the No. 29 total offense in the country.

Mazzone has also worked with college quarterbacks training for the jump to the NFL such as Tim Tebow, Christian Ponder, Robert Griffin III and Osweiler.

Taylor attended both Ole Miss and East Carolina University where he was a member of the football teams. He spent one season at Mississippi (2005) and then transferred to East Carolina where he played quarterback and on special teams under head coach Skip Holtz. The Pirates went on to play in four bowl games and capture two Conference USA championships. His ECU teams racked up 33 wins as a class.

In high school, Mazzone played football, basketball, baseball and ran track. In 2005, he graduated, with honors, from Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, North Carolina.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Construction Management, minor in Business, from East Carolina in 2009; At UCLA: First year on staff (joined staff in March of 2012); Born: June 1, 1987 in Ft. Worth, TX.

MARCUS PATTON

Defensive Graduate Assistant

2nd Season

Kansas State '04

Marcus Patton is beginning his second season as UCLA's defensive graduate assistant coach. His duties include assisting the defensive coaches with game preparation and working with the cornerbacks.

Patton, who played football at Kansas State University, joined the Bruin staff after working in 2010 as the defensive graduate assistant at the University of South Florida under head coach Skip Holtz. At USF, he worked with the defensive backs, assisted with the scheme and defensive game plan, assisted with recruiting and special teams and ran the special teams and offensive scout teams during practices. The squad posted an 8-5 record, including a win over Clemson in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Prior to that assignment, Patton was employed as a teacher and football coach at Lakeland, FL High School from 2007-2010. He tutored the defensive backs and helped the Dreadnaughts win three state championships and two national championships. In 2006, Patton worked as a teacher and football coach at Miami, FL Senior High School. He served as the defensive coordinator and coached the defensive line and the running backs. In 2005, Patton worked as a teacher and football coach at Port St. Lucie, FL High School. He was defensive coordinator and coached the linebackers and quarterbacks. In 2004, Patton was a teacher and football coach at Clayton High School in St. Louis, MO. He worked with the defensive backs and receivers and was the assistant defensive coordinator. The Clayton defense led the St. Louis area in interceptions and turnovers forced that season and captured the 2004 Class 4 Missouri state championship.

Patton played college football at Kansas State from 2001-04 and earned a degree in Social Science in December of 2004. He was a member of the 2003 Big 12 Championship team which defeated Oklahoma in the conference championship game to earn the Wildcat's first conference football title since 1934. In 2002, he was a Purple Pride Award winner. Marcus was listed on the Big 12 Academic Honor Roll for two semesters. He transferred to KSU after playing one season at Southeast Missouri State in 2000 and redshirted in 2001 at K-State. An all-state performer as a running back and defensive back at Jennings High School in St. Louis, MO, Patton rushed for over 2,000 yards in his prep career.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Social Science from Kansas State, 2004; At UCLA: Second year on staff (joined staff in March of 2011); Born: March 17, 1982 in St. Louis, MO.

PATRICK GIRARDI

Director of On-Campus Recruiting
2nd Season (5th on staff)
Columbia '03

Patrick Girardi is set to begin his fifth season as a member of the Bruin staff and his second as the Director of On-Campus Recruiting for football.

In his present position, Girardi's duties include recruiting administration and organization; current roster and scholarship management, managing all official and unofficial visits; tracking all recruiting paperwork, including transcripts, serving as liaison to college All-Star game representatives; liaison with pro scouts; and other assignments from the head coach.

He served in the 2009 and 2010 seasons as an intern under the Director of On-Campus Recruiting. In April of 2008, Girardi joined the staff and worked as an offensive intern. He assisted the offensive line coach, assembled and drew weekly game playbooks, broke down game film and composed self-scout reports. He also assisted and helped organize recruiting efforts in Southern and Northern California.

Girardi began his coaching career as a varsity assistant at Loyola High School in 2006-2007. In 2007, he tutored the offensive line and in 2006, he coached the defensive line.

Girardi, who played college football at Columbia, continued his playing career in the Arena 2 Football League. He played on both the offensive line and defensive line for the Tri-Cities Fever in 2006. He had previously played on both lines for the San Diego Riptide in 2004.

Pat was an All-Ivy League selection as an offensive lineman at Columbia in 2002. He was also a team captain that season. A three-year starter, he played from 1999-2002.

Girardi attended Loyola High School in Los Angeles and was named a 1999 first-team All-Del Rey League performer as an offensive lineman. He received a National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete award.

SAL ALOSI

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator
1st Season
Hofstra '01

Sal Alosi, who has both collegiate and NFL experience, was hired on Jan. 10, 2012 to be UCLA's strength and conditioning coordinator for football. He comes to the Bruins after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Bryant University (Rhode Island) in 2011, where he worked with all 22 of the Bulldogs' varsity programs. Alosi's skill and knowledge in the weight room played a vital role in the development of the Bryant athletic department in its final year of transition to full Division I status.

Prior to working at Bryant, Alosi spent nine years in the NFL, where he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for both the New York Jets and the Atlanta Falcons.

A four-year letterwinner and linebacker at Hofstra University, Alosi led the Pride to back-to-back Division I-AA (now FCS) quarterfinal playoff appearances in 1999 and 2000 and topped the team in tackles as a senior.

Following his playing career, he joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, becoming an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Hofstra in 2001, when the Pride won its first Atlantic 10 Conference title in football, advancing to the Division I-AA playoffs for the third-straight year.

Alosi went on to join the NFL's New York Jets a season later and stayed there until the 2006 campaign, when he was hired by the Atlanta Falcons to direct the team's strength and conditioning program under head coach Jim Mora. After one season with the Falcons, though, Alosi returned to New York on Feb. 21, 2007 as the Jets' head strength and conditioning coach and was on the same staff as new Bruin offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Exercise Science, Hofstra, 2001; At UCLA: First year (joined staff in January, 2012); Born: May 11, 1977; Family: Alosi is married with one child.

TONY PERRI

Director of Equipment Operations

28th Year

UCLA '84

Tony Perri is in his seventh year as the Director of Equipment Operations at UCLA and his 28th as a full-time staff member in the equipment room (Feb. 1985). He also worked part-time as a student employee. Although he works primarily with the football squad, Perri is responsible for overseeing the purchasing, fitting, maintenance, and distribution of equipment for all 24 of UCLA's athletic teams.

Perri is also responsible for managing an annual equipment budget of over $2 million. He and his staff are in charge of coordinating the equipment and apparel needs for the football program's practices, games and travel.

Perri is a certified member of Athletic Equipment Managers Association and was the AEMA District Equipment Manager of the Year. A former Bruin baseball player (1980-83) who earned his BA in 1984, Perri and his wife Lenora have two children, Bryan and Lauren.

BOB FIELD

Senior Associate Athletic Director

34th Year

Arkansas '71

Bob Field is a senior associate athletic director and has served as a member of UCLA's athletic administration since January of 2001.

Field oversees men's and women's golf and women's rowing and serves as an aide to Dan Guerrero in all football matters. Field also oversees housing, parking, training table, video services, agent relations and coaches' development.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach with the Bruin football team. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-2000) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers and defensive backs at various times in his career.

Field has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season. Over the years, he tutored some of the top athletes in school history and crafted numerous defenses ranked in the Top 20 in various categories.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator in his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year varsity letterman and two-year starter in the secondary. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5. As a player and coach, Field participated in 20 bowl games, including one Orange, two Sugar, three Cotton, two Fiesta and five Rose Bowls. During his tenure at UCLA, the Bruins recorded eight consecutive bowl wins, eight straight wins over USC and won or tied for seven Pac-10 championships.

PERSONAL — He is married to Valorie Kondos Field, UCLA's current women's gymnastics coach. He has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael. Brian and his wife Carmell have two daughters, Selah and Micah.

ANTHONY VENUTE

Head Athletic Trainer for Football

4th Season

UCLA '02

Anthony Venute joined the UCLA athletic training staff in May of 2005. A UCLA graduate, he is set to begin his eighth season working with Bruin football and his fourth as the head athletic trainer for the team.

While his duties at UCLA have been primarily with the football team, Anthony has also worked with the women's water polo squad and the women's golf program. He was a student athletic trainer at UCLA as an undergraduate while pursuing his degree in Physiological Science and assisted with the football and softball teams from 1999-2001.

Venute earned his Masters degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Athletic Training from Michigan State, where he served as a graduate assistant from 2002-04 on the athletic training staff for the sports of football and baseball. He then went on to perform an internship with the Buffalo Bills training staff during the 2004-05 NFL season. Venute gained additional NFL experience during the summer of 2001 when he was an intern on the training staff of the Cleveland Browns.

Venute has been NATA (National Athletic Trainers' Association) certified since 2002.

KEN NORRIS

Video Coordinator

24th Year

Ken Norris is in his 24th year as UCLA's Director of Video Operations. Norris and his staff are responsible for recording the practices and games of the UCLA football team. They work with the coaching staff and provide them with specialized footage or "cut-ups" of the team and opponents for coaching, scouting, and game-planning purposes.

Ken "The Godfather" Norris is considered one of the most innovative and respected minds in his profession. He was selected to receive the Pioneer Award at the 2012 College Sports Video Summit and has been named National Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers in the Collegiate Sports Video Association. One of Norris' latest projects has been the development and implementation of the I2 Internet Exchange Program in the Conference. This venture now allows the Pac-12 Conference's football programs to exchange coaching videos through the internet, bypassing the use of videotape. This rapid exchange of video means teams can now acquire the opposition's films more quickly, providing coaches with valuable additional time to scout and prepare for upcoming games. Norris is currently assisting other sports and other athletic conferences in implementing the I2 Program in their respective sports.

Norris and his staff are also responsible for filming instructional and highlight footage for almost every UCLA Athletic program. They create many of the teams' year-end highlight films. He is assisted by full-time staff members Eric Kowal, Joe Plonsky and David Godoy and students Ethan Tussey, Phil Izdebzki, Eddie Kim, Forrest Lockwood and Robert Ledo.

Norris began his career working for the NFL's Los Angeles Rams at age 13 splicing and editing 16mm film. He came to UCLA in 1989 after the retirement of legendary Bruin cinematographer Stan Troutman.

He and his wife, Joan, have two children, Travis (age 21) and Chelsea (19).
