To win the national championship, a team needs talent, experience, depth and leadership. The 2006-07 UCLA men's golf team has all of these ingredients in abundance. Credit fifth-year Head Coach O.D. Vincent's vision and diligence in building the UCLA program into one of the nation's elite and for accomplishing many milestones that eluded his predecessors. Under Vincent's tutelage in the past four-plus seasons, the Bruins have learned how to win, capturing 32 team titles, a national leader, including 11 last season. Included in that victory total are two Pac-10 titles and a pair of NCAA Regional Championships. After earning four straight NCAA Championship berths, the Bruins have finished among the Top 10 three times, twice in the Top 3.

Vincent has instilled in his players the confidence needed to win. Eleven Bruins have won 14 individual titles, including a pair of Pac-10 medalists and two NCAA Regional winners. In addition, six players have earned All-America honors on Vincent's UCLA watch, and 10 have been selected to the all-conference team.

The players in Vincent's system gain experience by playing as much as possible. Last year's lineup that represented UCLA in the NCAA Championship featured one junior, two sophomores and two freshmen. Those players combined for 304 rounds of college golf before the championship began and that fivesome tied for seventh nationally.

The Bruins are deep, too. Among their 11 team victories last season, they won six Gold events. In addition, every returning player on this year's roster boasts at least 30 rounds of collegiate experience.

Poised to contend for the 2007 national title, the Bruins are prepared and motivated. The competition to earn one of the five spots on the NCAA travel squad is fierce, similar to the battle for the NCAA team title.

Following are capsule summaries on the Bruins' personnel:

THE SENIORS

Three-year lettermen Peter Campbell and Chris Heintz each enter their final seasons with more than 85 rounds of experience and at least one collegiate individual title to his credit.

Campbell has won twice in his career, capturing the Carson Daly Invitational as a freshman and the Gold Rush title as a sophomore. In his career, he boasts a 75% counter ratio, 12 Top 20 finishes and 18 rounds under par.

"Peter enjoyed a good outing at the Husky Invitational and that gave him confidence entering his senior year," said Vincent. "He is a long hitter, who uses his power to his advantage. He's a player who's waiting to pop."

In September, Campbell tied for fifth at the Husky Invitational, his eighth career Top 10 finish. It was his best finish since February when he recorded a runner-up finish.

Heintz, elected team captain this season, has played more rounds (106) and made more starts (36) than any player on the team. Last season he won the Braveheart Classic with a seven-under par total of 209 (69-70-70) at Oak Valley. He also earned 2nd Team All-Pac-10 honors and was selected to the GCAA Scholar All-America Team.

"Chris is a very consistent player. He hits so many greens and fairways," said Vincent. "He's a great driver of the ball."

Heintz's leadership will be essential in the post-season. He boasts 22 rounds of Pac-10 and NCAA experience, including seven rounds of NCAA Championship experience. Last season he tied for sixth at the Pac-10 Championship, a career best.

THE JUNIORS

UCLA's juniors — Kevin Chappell, Daniel Im and Craig Leslie — have each won a tournament and figure to contribute significantly this season.

Chappell served notice last season by winning the NCAA East Regional at Lake Nona in Florida with scores of 70-73-68—211 (-5). His victory helped the Bruins qualify for the NCAA Championship and earned him Honorable Mention All-America honors. He enters his junior season with 75 rounds of experience, including 14 rounds of post-season play.

"Kevin had a great summer and played well in several top events," said the head coach. "The strength of his game is his ball-striking ability and shot-making."

Over the summer, Chappell tied for fifth at the British Amateur at Royal St. George's, tied for third at the Pacific Coast Amateur and won a U.S. Amateur qualifier at King's Country Club near his hometown.

Im became UCLA's sixth Pac-10 champion last season while leading the Bruins to the fifth conference title in program history. He earned GCAA All-America Honorable Mention honors and 1st Team All-Pac-10 acclaim. Despite fewer starts, he also improved his production. He increased his total of scores under par by two-thirds and his Top

James Lee played in the 2006 NCAA Championship as a freshman.

10 finishes by 50%.

"Daniel's talent speaks for itself," complemented Vincent. "He is a great fighter on the golf course and possesses an outstanding short game. When he's focused, he's tough to beat."

Over the summer, Im advanced to the quarterfinals of the U.S. Amateur Publiclinks at Gold Mountain, tied for fourth at the Scratch Players Amateur and recorded two other Top 20 finishes. In September, he was named by GolfWeek as one of 50 Players to Watch.

UCLA's third junior, Craig Leslie, won his first collegiate title at the Pala Mesa Invitational with scores of 68-71-71—210 (-6). Last season, he also recorded two runnerup finishes and improved his scoring average by more than half a stroke.

"Craig is extremely determined to establish himself this season," remarked Vincent. "He has matured as a player and now understands his game better."

Over the summer he recorded two Top 10 finishes, and fired a 65 in the final round of the Rosauers Open to place seventh. He began the Fall season by tying for fifth at the Husky Invitational.

THE SOPHOMORES

The Bruins' three sophomores — Erik Flores, James Lee and Lucas Lee — each contributed differently to the success of last year's team.

Flores earned 2nd Team GCAA All-America honors on the strength of four second place finishes and a team-leading 72.1 scoring average. A final round 69 at the NCAA Championship enabled him tie for 27th individually, the highest finish of any player on the team. He also led the team with 10 rounds in the 60s and seven Top 10 finishes.

"Erik enjoyed a tremendous freshman year," Vincent commented. "He is a player with high expectations for himself and we look for him to become a much more consistent player."

Flores last season also earned Freshman of the Year acclaim from the Pac-10 and GCAA All-Freshman Team honors.

On the strength of tying for 21st at the Pac-10 Championship, James Lee earned a trip to the NAAs last season. He made the most of the opportunity by posting four scores that counted and tying for 32nd individually, second to Flores. During the season, he recorded two Top 10 finishes in 10 starts and posted six rounds under par.

"James Lee has one of the best golf swings I've ever seen," said the head coach. "He's a very accurate driver of the ball; he hits almost every fairway."

During the summer, he recorded a pair of Top 25 finishes and played the first 54 holes of the Players Amateur in 11-under par.

Lucas Lee won twice as a freshman and earned All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention honors. His scoring average of 73.3 ranked third on the team. He also recorded 12 rounds under par, a total that tied for third on the team.

"Lucas Lee is a very steady player, who improved his putting tremendously over the summer," Vincent remarked. "He's had a great start this season."

In four starts and 12 rounds in the Fall, he improved his scoring average more than one stroke per round and led the team at 72.0 with four rounds under par and three rounds in the 60s.

THE FRESHMEN

The Bruins welcomed two freshmen to the program this Fall and Vincent expects both of them to contribute significantly during their college careers.

Fresno native Charlie Harris (Sunnyside HS) earned seven varsity letters in golf (4) and water polo (3). He earned all-league honors in both sports, including team MVP honors as a goalie in water polo. In golf, he recorded two Top 20 finishes in three starts at the U.S. Junior Amateur over the past three years.

"Charlie Harris is a very good athlete," said Vincent. "In golf, he has tremendous potential and he's learning how to play better and what it takes to be a part of this program."

Over the summer, Jason Kang qualified for the U.S. Amateur at Cypress Ridge with a 36-hole score of 138, finishing second. At The Amateur, he tied for 37th in stroke play with scores of 74-72—146 (+3). He also qualified locally for the U.S. Open.

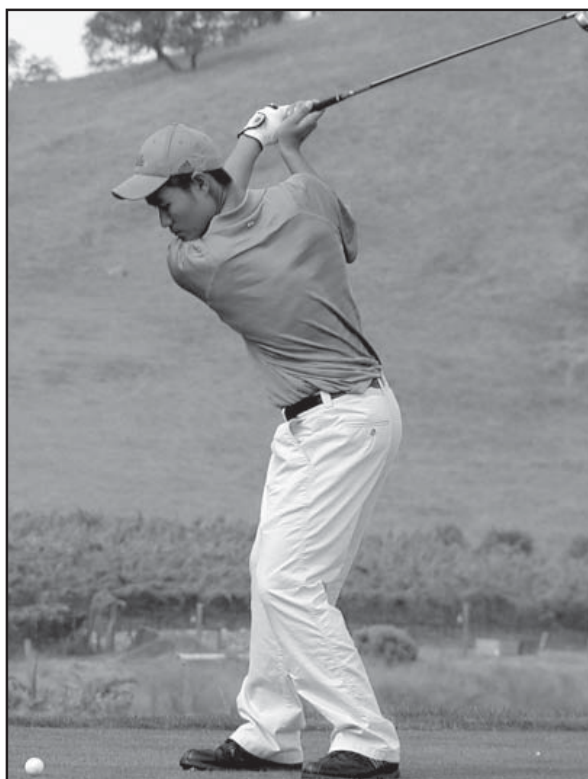

His junior golf resume included five Top 20 finishes in six starts in 2005, highlighted by a pair of Top 10 finishes. He was named to the 2005 Rolex All-America Team.

"Jason Kang possesses a great work ethic and he will really improve as the season progresses," Vincent commented. "He's a long hitter with a lot of power. He's a hard worker with high expectations for himself."

OVERALL OUTLOOK

Vincent feels that this is one of the best teams he's ever coached, and that the competition for spots on the travel roster for Gold events will be fierce. However, there is much room for improvement and the coaching staff must choose the right personnel in time for NCAA Championship.

"As usually is the case, we will need to become more efficient around the greens," he explained. "We must learn to value each shot, stay prepared and fight for every birdie and par. All we can ask is to have a chance to win every tournament."

Lucas Lee won twice as a freshman last season.

In four seasons, O.D. Vincent has elevated the UCLA men's golf program to elite status among the nation's best teams.

Since 2002 (and prior to the 2006-07 season) the Bruins have recorded three Top 10 NCAA finishes, won two NCAA West Regional titles, a pair of conference championships and a total of 30 tournament titles. Additionally, 11 players have won 14 individual tournament crowns during his UCLA coaching tenure.

Last season, the Bruins won 11 team titles, including their second conference crown under Vincent, and barely missed setting a school record for victories in a season. Five new players won six individual titles, three players earned All-America honors, three were selected to the All-Pacific Region team and four earned all-conference honors. In addition, junior Chris Heintz was voted to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team for the second straight year, and became a first-time selection to the GCAA Scholar All-America Team.

In 2006, Vincent earned his third Pac-10 Coach of the Year award and his second as coach of the Bruins.

The past two September editions of Golf Digest proclaimed UCLA the nation's "Best Balanced" program in a survey ranking more than 1,000 schools' academics, facilities, coaching, climate and golf. In a short period of time, Vincent has singlehandedly upgraded UCLA's golf practice facilities, fundraising efforts, recruiting and results. Most importantly, the Bruins are once again considered one of the nation's top collegiate programs.

In 2004-05, the Bruins won three team titles, including the inaugural Gold Rush hosted by UCLA at the SCPGA facility in Calimesa. The Bruins also won The Prestige for the second straight year and tied for first at the Cougar Invitational, a Blue Team event.

Freshman Daniel Im won the Southern Highlands Collegiate, firing a final round 68 and defeating several outstanding players. Im and fellow frosh Kevin Chappell each earned All-Pac-10 honors.

Overall, six players — Chappell, Im, Erik Flores, Steve Conway, Travis Johnson, John Merrick and Roy Moon — have earned All-America honors during Vincent's reign. Merrick won the 2003 Pac-10 title, Im captured the 2006 conference crown, Chappell won the 2006 NCAA East Regional championship, Johnson won the 2004 NCAA West Regional title and the Bruins have produced seven other individual champions since the beginning of Vincent's tenure.

In 2003 and 2004, Johnson earned GCAA Scholar All-America honors.

Three years ago, the Bruins won nine tournaments, including six Gold events. The year before they won seven times, including their first Pac-10 title in 18 years and their first-ever NCAA Regional crown.

The Bruins also finished the 2003-04 season ranked No.1 by GolfStat for the first time in their intercollegiate golf history.

Fueled by the return of four veteran players, Vincent guided the Bruins to a record-setting victory in his UCLA coaching debut four years ago. They won the Pacific Invitational by 16 shots, and set a 54-hole school scoring record of 34-under par.

At the end of that season, the Bruins' seven tournament victories led the nation. Conway won a pair of individual titles, and Merrick won the 2003 Pac-10 individual title. Merrick's final round, nine-under par 63 set a school and course record in relation to par. Moon posted a 62 on a par 70 course in Hawaii to set another school scoring record.

For his efforts, Vincent was named 2003 Pac-10 Coach of the Year and Pacific Region Coach of the Year by the GCAA.

The Bruins finished among the Top 10 in every major collegiate golf rankings service in 2003, and concluded the season ranked No.2 by GolfStat.

Considered one of the finest golfers in University of Washington history, Vincent quickly established himself as one of the UW's top coaches. In 1999, as a 30-year old fourth-year head coach, he led the Huskies to three tournament victories, a fourth-place conference finish, a seventh-place finish in the NCAA West Regional and a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championship. That season, he was voted Pac-10 co-Coach of the Year, District VIII Coach of the Year and the Golf Coaches Assn. of America's National Coach of the Year.

In six seasons as head coach (1995-2001), Vincent led the Huskies to four NCAA Tournament berths, nine tournament titles and 68 Top 10 finishes. During his tenure at Washington, he tutored two All-Americans in Troy Kelly and Brock MacKenzie, placed 13 players on Pac-10 All-Conference Teams, and five of his golfers earned Pac-10 All-Academic honors.

Vincent is the only former conference golfer to have won Pac-10 medalist honors and earn conference coach of the year acclaim.

As a sophomore in 1988, Vincent won the Pac-10 individual title while leading the Huskies to their first league title in 25 years. He then sparked Washington to a 15th place finish at the NCAA Championships while placing 19th individually. He also earned all-conference and All-America honors that season after winning two tournaments and finishing among the Top 10 eight times, a single-season Washington record.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Sociology from Washington in 1991.

Vincent's influence on the Washington golf program extended beyond his playing and coaching accomplishments. He was instrumental in the development of Washington National, the Huskies' home course that opened in August, 2000 and served as the site for the 2002 NCAA Women's Golf Championships and the 2003 NCAA Men's Golf West Regionals, which UCLA won.

Following his college career, Vincent became the only American to qualify for the PGA's European Tour in 1991. He earned a spot in the 1992 British Open and was among the leaders at Muirfield after a first round 67.

In August, 1995, the UW hired Vincent as its head coach, and in June, 2000, he was promoted to Director of Golf.

He left Washington in June 2001 to pursue his dream of playing on the PGA Tour. In January 2002, he played in the Phoenix Open.

As a prep golfer at Palm Springs High, Vincent won the 1985 California State CIF individual title and led the Indians to the team championship.

Born Orrin Daniel Vincent in Seattle, WA, on July 8, 1968, he is married to the former Jana Ellis, who was an All-America swimmer at Washington and Florida. The Vincents are the proud parents of Prada Patricia Vincent, born in 2002 and Phar Ellis Vincent born in February of 2006.

DEREK FREEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH • 1ST YEAR • (OKLAHOMA '94)

Derek Freeman, a former all-conference golfer at the University of Oklahoma, began his first season as UCLA's full-time assistant men's golf coach on June 19.

Freeman spent last season as Oklahoma's men's assistant coach. In 2005-06, the Sooners finished 29th at the NCAA Championship after placing seventh in the NCAA Central Regional. Last season, Oklahoma also won its first Big 12 Conference team title since Freeman's sophomore year as all five players finished among the Top 15 individuals.

Prior to his appointment at OU, Freeman served the previous three seasons (2002-05) at Oklahoma City University. As an assistant coach for the men's and women's programs (2002-03), he led OCU to a combined 15 tournament titles, including the men's 2003 NAIA Championship.

Following the 2003 season, Freeman was promoted to head coach of the OCU women's program and guided the Stars to a second straight runner-up finish at the NAIA Championship. In his second season, OCU captured the NAIA women's title and Freeman was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year. The team set a tournament record with a 49-stroke victory.

Twice he was voted the NAIA Region VI Women's Golf Coach of the Year (2004-05).

As a player at OU, Freeman enjoyed a fine career, serving as the Sooners' captain for three seasons (1992-94). During his collegiate career, he earned All Big Eight honors in 1994 and All Big Eight academic honors in 1993. Freeman was a two-time Bruce Drake Award winner for most improved player and won OU's Jim Begwin Award for leadership and sportsmanship.

Overall, Freeman played in four Big Eight Conference Championship tournaments, including the 1992 event in which the Sooners won their first-ever conference golf title. He also participated in four NCAA Regional events and four NCAA Championship tournaments. Of his 51 collegiate appearances, he finished in the Top 30 25 times.

He received his degree in Economics from OU in 1994 and later played two years on the Canadian, Mexican and Nike Tours. A rib injury forced him to change careers, and he worked in the financial services industry for five years prior to entering the coaching ranks.

Freeman, his wife Stephenie and their two sons live in the Santa Clarita Valley.

DANIEL HOUR

TEAM MANAGER • 1ST YEAR

Daniel Hour begins his first season as the Bruins' manager with a variety of duties pertaining to event management and tournament logistics. Hour's main duties will be to assist the coaching staff at the CordeValle Collegiate and True Blue

Bruin Invitational, and other tasks as assigned.

Hour entered UCLA in the Fall of 2003 after earning four varsity letters in golf at Whitney HS in Cerritos. In 2001 he earned Whitney's Most Improved award and as a senior in 2003, he served as the team's captain and won MVP and 2nd team all-league honors.

Hour describes his greatest high school thrill as winning a junior match with a birdie on the final hole after being five down.

A fourth-year student, Hour is majoring in Economics.

PAC-10/BIG TEN CHALLENGE

OCT. 3-4 AT THE GLEN CLUB, GLENVIEW, IL
UCLA 4TH, 293-283-292—868 (+4)

In the second annual event featuring the previous year's top finishers from both leagues, the Bruins earned an invitation to the 2006 event. A five-under par second round, highlighted by sophomore Joakim Renstrom's four-under par 68 put the Bruins solidly among the top teams. Northwestern and Minnesota finished 1-2, followed by Arizona State in third. Northwestern's David Merkow fired a final round 68 to beat Washington's James Lepp by a stroke for medalist honors at 209 (-7). For UCLA, freshman Erik Flores and sophomore Daniel Im tied for ninth at 215 (-1).

CHICO STATE INVITATIONAL

OCT. 10-11 AT BUTTE CREEK CC, CHICO, CA
UCLA 1ST, 291-285-290—866 (+2)

The Bruins overcame a three-stroke deficit in the final round to outlast Cal State Bakersfield for their first tournament title of the year. They won by six strokes against the Roadrunners, who posted a final round 299 (+11) and lost nine strokes to the Bruins (290). Ryan Thornberry of Cal State Stanislaus won medalist honors with a 54-hole total of 210 (-6). UCLA sophomore Craig Leslie tied for second place at 214 (-2) after playing the final 36 holes in four-under par. Junior Peter Campbell tied for fifth with teammate Chris Heintz at even par 216.

THE PRESTIGE AT PGA WEST

OCT. 17-18, GREG NORMAN COURSE, LA QUINTA, CA
UCLA 1ST, 280-291-289—860 (-4)

The Bruins broke through for their first Gold Team victory of the season with a 10-shot win over BYU. Four of UCLA's five players posted first rounds under par to spark an eight-under par opening round that set the standard for this victory. Heintz and Flores tied for third place at 214 (-2), and Im tied for sixth at 215 (-1). UC Irvine's Tim Cha and Illinois' Danny Zimmerman tied for first place at three-under par 213.

ISLEWORTH COLLEGIATE INVITATIONAL

OCT. 23-25, ISLEWORTH CC, WINDEMERE, FL
UCLA T-11TH, 284-297-331—912 (+43)

Hurricane Rita forced tournament organizers to squeeze two rounds into the first day, skip a day while the storm blew through, and complete the event on the final day. No team bettered 300 in the final round as high winds blew scores skyward. UCLA's final round team score of 331 (+43) was the highest of the day and the Bruins fell from contention, despite playing the first 36 holes in five-over par. Sophomore Brandon Christianson was the Bruins' top finisher, tying for 32nd place at 226 (+10), followed by Kevin Chappell at 228 (+12) and Campbell at 231 (+15). Oklahoma State's Pablo Martin won the event with a score of 212 (-4) after a final round 73 (+1).

CORDEVALLE COLLEGIATE

OCT. 31-NOV. 1, CORDEVALLE CC, SAN MARTIN, CA
UCLA 1ST, 284-281-284—849 (-15)

UCLA was firing on all cylinders for the inaugural CordeValle Collegiate, setting a legitimate 54-hole tournament record of 15-under par 849. Excellent weather and conditions contributed to the low scores and enhanced the experience of an event that attracted some of the nation's best teams. Every UCLA player finished among the Top 25, led by Flores who tied for second place at four-under par 212 and Im and freshman James Lee who tied for fourth at 213 (-3). Cal's Michael Wilson won the event with a 54-hole total of 206 (-10).

BILL CULLUM INTERCOLLEGIATE

NOV. 7-8, WOOD RANCH GC, SIMI VALLEY, CA
UCLA T-2ND, 301-296-292—889 (+25)

In the final event of the Fall season, the Blue Team traveled locally to Wood Ranch to compete in its second event of the season. The Bruins improved each round, but did not overcome a shaky first round in which they were 13-over par. Chappell managed to finish in second place 215 (-1) after posting a final round score of 70 (-2). Leslie tied for ninth at 222 (+6) and Christianson tied for 17th at 226 (+10). Charles Chae of Holy Names won the event with a 54-hole score of 211 (-5) after posting a 66 (-6) in the second round.

MERCEDES-BENZ COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

FEB. 5-7, SAWGRASS CC, PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FL
UCLA 1ST, 290-304-302—896 (+32)

The Bruins survived another windy day at Sawgrass to claim the team title. UCLA held off Texas Tech with a rally on the final four holes to lead the event wire-to-wire. The Aggies did walk away with a little hardware as Oscar Floren claimed the individual title with a 54-hole score of 217 (+1). The Bruins played the final four holes in six-under par with junior Chris Heintz and James Lee scoring eagles down the stretch. Flores finished second at 218 (+2) and Chappell tied for sixth at 223 (+7).

PALA MESA INVITATIONAL

FEB. 13-14, PALA MESA RESORT, FALLBROOK, CA
UCLA 1ST, 285-277-293—855 (-9)

The Blue Team won its second tournament, capturing the Pala Mesa Invitational by 13 shots against Oklahoma Christian University. UCLA's Craig Leslie won his first collegiate title, posting three rounds under par for a 54-hole total of 210 (-6). Campbell placed second at 213 (-3), followed by Lucas Lee, who placed third at 215 (-1). Christianson tied for sixth at 217 (+1).

COUGAR INVITATIONAL

FEB. 20-21, SAN LUIS REY DOWNS GC, BONSALE, CA
UCLA 1ST, 287-290-285—862 (-2)

The Blue Team captured its second straight tournament and individual titles. The Bruins recorded a 23-stroke victory over Point Loma Nazarene College and Lucas Lee won his first collegiate title by four strokes over teammate Leslie. Lee's three-round total of 210 (-6) beat Leslie (214, -2) by four shots. Christianson tied for seventh place at 221 (+5) and sophomore Matt Marshall tied for ninth at 222 (+6).

ASHWORTH INVITATIONAL

FEB. 27-28, NORTH RANCH CC, WESTLAKE VILLAGE, CA
UCLA T4TH, 289-299-287—875 (+23)

Pepperdine used a three-under par final round as an exclamation point for a nine-shot victory over USC, while the Bruins tied for fourth, 24 shots back. Three Bruins finished in the Top 20: Leslie (T14, 217) and Flores and Im (T16, 218). Oklahoma's Anthony Kim won with a nine-under par total of 204 after posting three rounds in the 60s. Stanford's Zack Miller took second, seven strokes back.

UCLA's 2005-2006 TOURNAMENT SUMMARY

CS BAKERSFIELD SPRING INVITATIONAL

FEB. 27-28, SEVEN OAKS CC, BAKERSFIELD, CA

UCLA 5TH, 323-298—621 (+45)

One round of the first day was washed out while no team in the event recorded a score better than 310 (+22) in the first round. The Blue Team managed to improve 25 shots in the second round but still finished 20 shots behind CS Bakersfield. Marshall led the Bruins by tying for 16th at 154 (+10). Christianson tied for 19th at 155 (+11). Cal State Monterey Bay's Nick Bell won with a three-over par score of 147.

BRAVEHEART CLASSIC

MAR. 6-7, OAK VALLEY GC, BEAUMONT, CA

UCLA 1ST, 291-286-288—865 (+1)

Chris Heintz led the Blue Team to a 19-stroke victory with a seven-under par score of 209 and his first collegiate individual title. Heintz fired three rounds under par and won by five shots over teammate Lucas Lee and Jacksonville's Russell Knox. Christianson tied for seventh at 219 (+3).

SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS COLLEGIATE

MAR. 10-12, SOUTHERN HIGHLANDS GC, LAS VEGAS, NV

UCLA 8TH, 304-287-313—904 (+40)

Host UNLV recorded a 10-stroke victory against a nationally-ranked field and the Bruins placed eighth, 25 shots back. An opening round score of 304 (+20) put the Bruins at a disadvantage they could not overcome. UNLV individuals Matt Kinsinger and Seung-su Han placed first and second, respectively, and the Bruins' Daniel Im tied for fourth at 218 (+2) after winning this event the previous year.

BATTLE OF MONARCH BAY

MAR. 13-14, METROPOLITAN GOLF LINKS, OAKLAND, CA

Lucas Lee and Matt Marshall tied for individual honors along with Holy Names' Charles Chae. For Lee, it was his second victory of his freshman season and for Marshall it was his first career collegiate victory. Christianson tied for fourth place, one shot out, followed by James Lee in a tie for 10th at 151 (+9).

NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

MAR. 26-28, OMNI TUCSON NATIONAL, TUCSON, AZ

UCLA 1ST, 277-285-288—850 (-14)

The Bruins led wire-to-wire in this event at Arizona's home course by outlasting Arizona State (857, -7) and Minnesota at (861, -3). Flores tied for second at five-under par 211, followed by Chappell who tied for 14th at 214 (-2). New Mexico's Jay Choi won the event with a score of 210 (-6).

AUGUSTA STATE INVITATIONAL

APR. 1-2, CHAMPIONS RETREAT GC, EVANS, GA

UCLA 5TH, 282-286-289—867 (+3)

Erik Flores and Daniel Im each recorded Top 10 finishes with the UCLA freshman tying for third place at 213 (-3) and Im capturing sixth place at 214 (-2). UCLA placed fifth as a team, 13 shots behind Coastal Carolina. South Carolina-Aiken's Scott Brown won medalist honors by one stroke over Coastal Carolina's Dustin Johnson.

WYOMING COWBOY CLASSIC

APR. 10-11, TALKING STICK GC, SCOTTSDALE, AZ

UCLA 10TH, 287-291-275—857 (+17)

In its final event of the season, the Blue Team finished in a tie for 10th, 21 strokes behind tournament victor New Mexico State (836, -4). James Lee was UCLA's top finisher, tying for 11th at 211 (-5). Campbell tied for 18th at 212 (-2).

U.S. INTERCOLLEGIATE

APR. 15-16, STANFORD GC, STANFORD, CA

UCLA 1ST, 293-285—578 (+18)

In a tight finish in the second round, the Bruins managed to edge ahead of Stanford and USC with a second round score of 285 (+5). The final round was cancelled and the Bruins were declared winners by a stroke over USC. Stanford placed third, two strokes back. Flores recorded his third runner-up finish of the season, tying for second at 141 (+1), six shots behind Stanford's Rob Grube. Heintz tied for sixth at 142 (+2). This was the Bruins' 10th victory of the season.

PACIFIC-10 CHAMPIONSHIP

APR. 24-26, BIGHORN GC, PALM DESERT, CA

UCLA 1ST, 349-348-362-361—1,420 (E)

The Bruins avenged the previous year's misfortunes by capturing the program's fifth conference title with a wire-to-wire victory. UCLA increased a six-stroke, 54-hole advantage into a 12-stroke victory over defending conference champion Washington. For icing on the celebratory cake, UCLA's Daniel Im became the school's sixth conference champion and second in the last four years. Im fired a 72-hole score of 277 (-7), featuring three rounds under par, and held off ASU's Niklas Lemke, who finished one back. Heintz tied for sixth at 283 (-1), Flores tied for 15th at 289 (+5) and Chappell tied for 17th at 290 (+6). With the victory came an automatic berth into the NCAA Regional Championship.

NCAA EAST REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

MAY 18-20, LAKE NOMA GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB, ORLANDO, FL

UCLA 7TH, 292-300-286—878 (+14)

For the first time since the regional format began, the Bruins were shipped out of the West. They responded by playing solidly and earning their fourth straight trip to the NCAA Championship with a seventh place finish in a tough field. Chappell became the 11th player in the Vincent Era to win an individual title and the second UCLA player since 2003 to win an NCAA Regional Championship. His score of 211 (-5) bested Coastal Carolina's Dustin Johnson by a stroke. Chappell fired a final round 68 (-4) to jump eight spots after 36 holes onto the victor's podium.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

MAY 31-JUNE 3, CROSSWATER GC, SUNRIVER, OR

UCLA T-7TH, 280-294-296-287—1,157 (+5)

Determined to atone for the previous year's performance when they finished 30th, the Bruins posted an opening round eight-under par score of 280, three behind tournament leader Wake Forest. Daniel Im's four-under par 68 led the way and Chappell posted a solid opening round of 70 (-2). But the Bruins were unable to sustain the momentum and the best they could manage in the next three rounds was a score of 287 (-1) in the final round. Still, the Bruins returned every player from this championship fivesome, including two freshmen and two sophomores. It was O.D. Vincent's third Top 10 finish in four seasons.

UCLA has produced many outstanding golfers, including the likes of current PGA TOUR members Corey Pavin, Duffy Waldorf, Scott McCarron, Tom Pernice Jr., Steve Pate, Brandt Jobe, Jay Delsing and John Merri-ck. These eight players have won nearly $60 million through the 2006 season.

One of the most successful players on the TOUR, Corey Pavin, was a two-time first-team All-American, the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA Player of the Year in 1982, and the '82 Pac-10 individual champion. He won 11 collegiate tournaments while at UCLA and participated in the 1981 Walker Cup and the 1982 Masters and U.S. Open while still a collegian. In 1995, Pavin won his first "major"—the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills. His clutch four-wood to six feet on the 18th hole and subsequent par secured a two-shot victory over Greg Norman. He qualified for the PGA TOUR in 1983, and in 1984, he won his first professional tournament and was named PGA Rookie of the Year. He has won 27 professional tournaments (12 on the international circuit), including the 1994 and 1995 Los Angeles Opens and the 2006 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee. He played on the victorious 1991 and '93 U.S. Ryder Cup teams and has earned more than $12 million. He finished 1991 as the PGA's leading money winner and was named the TOUR's Player of the Year that season.

Corey Pavin

A Bruin golf letterman from 1982-85, Duffy Waldorf was a two-time NCAA All-American and the 1985 College Player of the Year. As a senior in 1985, Waldorf won the Pac-10 title and earned a spot on the U.S. Walker Cup team. He has won four times on the PGA TOUR, including the 2000 National Car Rental Golf Classic. In his 21-year PGA career, Waldorf has won more than $11 million, including more than $1.4 million in 2004. He tied for fifth at the 1996 Masters and tied for ninth at the 1994 U.S. Open. Duffy was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002.

Former Bruin Scott McCarron, who played at UCLA from 1985-88, won his first professional tournament—the 1996 Freeport-McDermott Classic and tied for 10th at the Masters that season. McCarron, who won the 1997 and 2001 BellSouth Classics and recorded Top 10 finishes at the '97 U.S. Open and PGA Championships, has won more than $9 million on the TOUR. In 2003, McCarron won more than $1.2 million with two Top 10 finishes, including a second place finish at the Las Vegas Invitational. In 2005, he won more than $950,000.

Scott McCarron

Tom Pernice Jr., a former two-time All-American and 1982 UCLA graduate, enjoyed one of his best seasons in 2006. He won more than $2 million, recording six Top 10 finishes, including a runner-up finish at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. In 2001, he won over $1.3 million, including a victory at The International. In 1999, he won his first tournament, the Buick Open, by firing a final round 65 to win by one shot over Tom Lehman at the Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club in Grand Blanc, MI. In 1998, he finished second in the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro Am, tied for 11th at the Greater Vancouver Open and placed 16th at the Sprint International. In 2004 he won more than $1.4 million and finished among the Top 10 five times. In 2005, he recorded his fourth million dollar season by winning more than $1.3 million in prize money. In his career, he has won more than $10 million.

Former UCLA All-American Tom Pernice won his first tournament in 1999. He has won more than $10 million in his career.

Brandt Jobe, an 19-year PGA professional, played for the Bruins from 1985-88 and helped lead UCLA to its only NCAA team championship in men's golf. When he tied for second place at the 1988 NCAAAs, he became UCLA's highest individual finisher at the national championship. As a professional, he has won over $6 million and added nine international victories. In 2005, he finished 25th on the money list with more than $1.7 million in earnings.

Always a tough competitor, Steve Pate lettered from 1980-83, winning four college tournaments. In 1983, Pate won the Pacific-10 Championship and earned first-team All-America honors. He has won six PGA tournaments in more than 20 years as a professional and competed on both the U.S. Kirin Cup Team (1988) and the winning U.S. Ryder Cup team in 1991. A wrist injury kept him off the Tour in 1997, but he recovered in time to win the 1998 CVS Charity Classic and earn a spot as a captain's pick on the victorious 1999 Ryder Cup team. He has career earnings of more than $8 million.

Another UCLA All-American, Jay Delsing, was a key member of two Pacific-10 title teams. He was a three-time all-conference selection and earned first-team All-America honors in 1982 and second team acclaim in 1983. During his All-America years, he captured seven collegiate tournament titles. He has won more than $3 million on the PGA TOUR, tied for second at the 1995 FedEx St. Jude Classic and finished eighth at the 1994 Los Angeles Open. His best finish in 1998 was a tie for ninth in the Bell Canadian Open.

Former All-American John Merrick (UCLA '04) earned his PGA TOUR card by finishing among the top money winners on the 2006 Nationwide Tour. Merrick won the Peek 'n Peak Classic and took home $100,000. For the year, he won more than $208,000, recorded four Top 10 finishes and made 20 of 26 cuts.

Jim Albus, a 1965 UCLA graduate, was the head professional at the Piping Rock Club on Long Island for 14 years before choosing to play on the Champions TOUR full-time in 1990. He won six tournaments and most recently won the 1998 GTE Classic. His best season was 1994, when he won the Vantage At The Dominion and the Bank of Boston Senior Classic and earned $1.2 million. Some of his other Champions Tour victories include titles at the 1991 Ford Seniors Players Championship and the 1993 GTE Suncoast Classic. A member of the Metropolitan (NY) PGA Hall of Fame, Albus won nearly $5 million in his professional career.

1988 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP SUMMARY

In 1988, the Bruins won their first and only NCAA golf team championship at North Ranch Country Club in Thousand Oaks, CA. On the final day of the tournament, UCLA, 13 shots behind the leader, rallied for one of the great comebacks in NCAA golf history. The Bruins shot a one-under par 287 over the final 18 holes to win the national championship by three shots over Texas-El Paso. The Bruins' Brandt Jobe fired a final round three-under par 69 to record a one-under par 72-hole score of 287 and finish in a tie for second place. Jobe's finish was the best individual finish ever by a UCLA golfer in the NCAA Championship. Although no other Bruin finished among the Top 20, clutch performances, especially on the final day, produced one of the most memorable championship moments in UCLA history. Below are the scores from the 1988 NCAA Championships.

Brandt Jobe

1988 Team score: 1,176. Individuals: Brandt Jobe, 2nd tie (72-73-73-69 — 287); Bobby Lasken, 26th tie (74-71-75-75 — 295); Tim Cruikshank, 31st (79-73-73-71 — 296); Kevin Leach, 43rd (76-78-72-72 — 298); Rich Greenwood, 85th (82-79-77-77 — 315).

A SLICE OF HISTORY

Hall of Fame golf coach Vic Kelley also served as the Bruins' sports information director from 1945-80. Kelley lettered on the UCLA golf team from 1934-36. In addition, he was one of the founders of what is now known as the the Golf Coaches Assn. of America.

Many campus buildings can be seen from the Bel-Air Country Club, which is located across from UCLA on Sunset Blvd.

Bel-Air Country Club:

The Bel-Air Country Club, site of the 1976 U.S. Amateur Championship, has served as UCLA's home course for more than 50 years. Located five minutes from campus, Bel-Air's original architecture was done by George Thomas, Jack Neville and Billy Bell Sr., with most recent changes by Robert Trent Jones. The membership has added a new driving range which the Bruins use occasionally. Par: 70 Rating: 72.2 Yardage: 6,411.

Brentwood Country Club:

The Brentwood Country Club is located just 10 minutes from the UCLA campus. The course, which measures 6,681 yards and carries a 72.2 rating, puts emphasis on accuracy and is often subject to strong breezes off the nearby Pacific. Brentwood and UCLA also hosted the 1994 Women's Pacific-

10 Conference Championship.

El Caballero Country Club: Long, tough par 71 course that has hosted many TOUR qualifying events. Designed by Robert Trent Jones, Sr., the course measures more than 6,900 yards and carries a rating of 73.1 and a slope of 135. UCLA alumnus Brandt Jobe holds the course record of 63.

Hillcrest Country Club: Located 10 minutes from campus, Hillcrest is one of the area's oldest layouts. Opened in 1922, it was the site of the 1929 PGA Championship and 1932 and '42 L.A. Opens. Hillcrest carries a 69.0 rating over 6,411 yards. Rolling fairways, numerous bunkers and large undulating greens plus some of the best views of the Los Angeles skyline make this an enjoyable test of golf.

Lakeside Golf Club: Located next to Universal Studios, this tight, heavily trapped course has small greens that demand great accuracy. The par 70 course has a 71.4 rating and measures 6,454 yards. The beautiful course is located 20 minutes from campus.

Los Angeles Country Club: Considered one of America's finest, the North Course is consistently ranked among the nation's Top 20 private golf courses. Both the North and South courses were designed by George C. Thomas, who also designed Riviera and Ojai Valley CC. Site of the 1983 Men's Pac-10 Championships won by UCLA. The North Course is rated 74.0 with a 135 slope over 6,909 yards. The Bruins enjoy regular playing privileges here.

Lost Canyons Golf Club: This facility has two courses, both designed by Pete Dye within the last 10 years. The Sky Course follows the canyon ridge lines offering spectacular panoramic views. It measures more than 7,200 yards with a slope of 149 and a par of 72. The Shadow Course features an ever-changing combination of light and shadows that add to the enjoyment of a challenging test of golf. It measures just over 7,000 yards and also has a slope of 149.

Mountaingate Country Club: Sporty course that offers great vistas of Los Angeles. Severely contoured greens require a delicate putting touch. Measures 6,507 yards, is rated 71.3, plays to a par of 72, and overlooks the UCLA campus.

Oakmont Country Club: Built in 1924 and originally designed by Max Behr, Oakmont is located in the lush hillside of Glendale and boasts some of the fastest greens in the city. A variety of bunkers and barrancas make the course a shotmaker's domain. Recently, Oakmont has hosted LPGA and Champions Tour events. From the blue tees, the course plays 6,736 yards, carries a slope of 130 and a par of 72. Oakmont served as the site of the 2003 Men's Pacific-10 Conference Championship, which UCLA hosted and won.

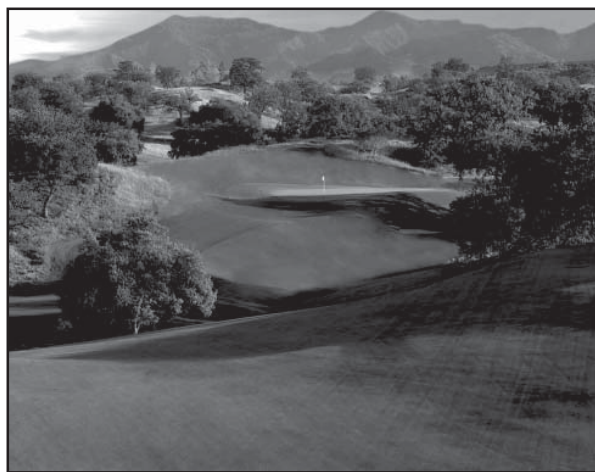

Riviera Country Club: Recognized as one of the world's premier courses, Riviera annually hosts the Nissan Open, which former Bruin Corey Pavin won in 1994 and '95. It has hosted several major championships, including the U.S. Open in 1948 won by Ben Hogan, the PGA Championship in 1983 and 1995 and the U.S. Senior Open in 1998. The course has several signature holes, including the par three sixth with a bunker in the middle of the green. Designed by George C. Thomas, Riviera measures more than 7,000 yards and plays to a par of 71.

Robinson Ranch: New facility, featuring two championship courses — The Mountain and The Valley. The Mountain Course measures 6,508 yards and offers dramatic views and plenty of water, while demanding strategic course management and accuracy off the tee. The Valley Course, which opened on Memorial Day 2000, meanders through untouched stands of stage and chaparral, California Sycamores and Coastal Live Oaks. Measuring 6,903 yards from the championship tees, The Valley's final six holes have been tagged Death Row.

TPC at Valencia: The TPC at Valencia, designed by Chris Gray and two-time major winner Mark O'Meara, is a big golf course requiring both length off the tee, precise iron play and bold putting. Running through oak canyons, river valleys and foothills, the course challenges players of every skill level. The course measures more than 7,200 yards from the tournament tees and plays to a par of 72.

Valencia Country Club: A classic Robert Trent Jones Sr. design featuring numerous bunkers, hidden water hazards and large, undulating greens. Prevailing afternoon winds can make this course play long and difficult. Signature hole is the par three third that features a long carry over water to a big, fast green, shaded by tall trees. From the tips, this par 72 course is rated 74.7 with a slope of 138 over 7,000 yards.

Wilshire Country Club: Medium length course that boasts the best greens in the city. A barranca runs through the course and comes into play on almost every hole. Carries a course rating of 71.5 at 6,531 yards and a slope of 126.

The Bruins have playing privileges at TPC Valencia.

The Friends of Golf (FOG) organization has been a fixture of financial support for the UCLA golf program and collegiate and youth golf nationwide for the last three decades.

The origins of this group come from former UCLA head golf coach Eddie Merrins, who served as Bel Air's head professional for nearly 40 years. Under his active leadership, the UCLA golf program has developed into one of the most successful in the country.

To implement that program, Merrins pioneered the FOG organization to aid in fundraising activities for college and youth golf programs. FOG was incorporated in 1981 as a non-profit organization and has drawn enthusiasm from many prominent professionals in the business and sports communities.

The annual FOG event is highlighted by an elaborate golf tournament and dinner held at Bel Air Country Club. Luminaries such as Dinah Shore, Digger Phelps, Rick Pitino, David Wolper and Richard Crenna distinguished the tournament in 1991. Highlighting the 10th annual tournament was the legendary Jack Nicklaus. Each year, FOG honors a member of the PGA Tour, which has enabled Friends of Golf to endow the Golf Scholarship Fund at UCLA.

Legendary golfer Byron Nelson calls the annual FOG event, "The best one-day golf tournament in the country."

A NOTE OF GRATITUDE

Jack and Rhodine Gifford have been generous supporters of UCLA Athletics, particularly the golf programs. Their lead donation made possible UCLA's on-campus practice facility. In addition, they have sponsored the CordeValle Classic for the last two years. Mr. Gifford was a 1960-61 UCLA baseball letterman as a first baseman. He currently resides in the Bay Area.

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • UCLA '74 • 5TH YEAR

In four years as UCLA's Director of Athletics, Daniel G. Guerrero has presided over 13 NCAA team titles and 28 conference championships, and has the program poised to reach the century mark in 2006-07.

A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater. Declaring his current position his dream job, his goal is to help each sport at UCLA maximize its potential and contend for a national championship.

Guerrero is serving his second year as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and "The College Basketball Partnership," a group that includes many of the most influential people in the sport.

Last year, UCLA won NCAA team championships in men's volleyball and women's water polo while seven teams finished among the Top 10 in their championship races.

In 2004-05, UCLA won three NCAA team championships — men's and women's water polo and men's tennis. Overall, UCLA leads the nation with 99 NCAA team titles.

In 2002-03, Guerrero earned numerous honors, including: 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October); 2003 Cal State University Dominguez Hills Alumnus of the Year (March); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Assn. (June). He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning High School to have his jersey (No. 8 in baseball) retired, and on Sept. 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day.

In addition, the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him No. 28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was on that issue's cover. He also served as a member of the NCAA Baseball Committee during the 2002-2003 year.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics since December 17, 1992.

Guerrero, 54, received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna (24) and Katie (20).

GLENN TOTH

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • UCLA '76 • 30TH YEAR

Glenn Toth, who begins his 30th year of service to the athletic department, enters his ninth year in charge of both the golf and tennis programs. Last year, all four teams finished in the top 12 nationally.

A senior associate athletic director with a variety of administrative duties, Toth is responsible for the department's association with adidas, and was the architect of the original 1998 contract with the shoe and apparel conglomerate and the 2004 extension. Previously the department's corporate relations director, Toth played the key role in researching and soliciting UCLA's new sports marketing partner, ISP, which now manages the relationship with television, radio, the department website, the game program publisher, and corporate relations. Selected trade relationships are still handled by Toth.

Toth also has administrative responsibility for the athletic equipment room, which designs, outfits and maintains all of the Bruins' uniforms, practice and playing equipment. In addition, the athletic training room/sports medicine area, which provides injury treatment, rehabilitation, and therapy services to more than 700 student-athletes, falls under Toth's supervision as does the intercollegiate weight room and strength coaches.

Toth graduated from UCLA in 1976 with a degree in economics. He was hired after graduation to work in the events and travel office. From 1978-84, he supervised the management of athletic events and managed football and basketball team travel. In 1982, UCLA football made its move to the Rose Bowl, creating a need for the athletic department's first Marketing Director, a title and function added to Toth's Assistant Athletic Director status. Promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1984, he was credited with several award-winning football marketing campaigns. In 1992, he was given duty as the department's director of corporate relations.

A lifelong golfer, Toth lettered in golf at Tustin's Foothill High School. He enjoys scuba diving, hiking and home repair in his spare time. He also serves as a reserve deputy for the L.A. County Sheriff's Department, performing both patrol and diving duties.

Press Credentials

Media and photography credentials for UCLA-hosted golf tournaments may be obtained by working press only by calling Rich Bertolucci at the UCLA Sports Information Office (310) 206-8141. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours in advance. Press credentials can be picked up at the tournament site.

Photography

Television and photo credentials entitle video and still photographers to shoot from out of the golfers line of sight. No photographers will be permitted to shoot from tee boxes or greens without prior permission.

Interview Policies

All interviews must be arranged by the Sports Information Office. Players have been instructed not to grant any interview, in person or by telephone, not arranged by Rich Bertolucci. Player telephone numbers are private and will not be released. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements.

Interview Availability

The UCLA team practices at various country clubs in Southern California. Many of these clubs do not allow media at their venues. For this reason all interviews must take place on the UCLA campus or by phone, unless conducted at a tournament where media have been accredited. Please arrange all interviews with Rich Bertolucci by calling 310-206-8141.

Travel Information

For security purposes, the UCLA Sports Information Office does not release to the general public any travel information for UCLA athletic teams. If you would like to reach a member of the UCLA golf team on the road, please contact the Sports Information Office.

UCLA Golf Practice Facility

The golf practice facility is located on the north end of the Intramural Field between Drake Stadium and the John Wooden Center. Please call the Sports Information Office for practice times and player availability.

Directions to UCLA

From the San Diego Freeway north or south, use the Sunset Blvd. exit and proceed east on Sunset two miles to Westwood Plaza Dr. Parking is available for $8 per day.
