Jorge Salcedo

Head Coach

5th Year

UCLA '02

Former UCLA All-American Jorge Salcedo enters his fifth season as head coach for the Bruins.

A product of UCLA's strong soccer tradition, Salcedo has maintained the Bruins' standard for success, winning Pac-10 titles in his first two seasons and guiding his teams to NCAA Tournament appearances each year. He signed the No. 1 recruiting classes in the nation in 2006 and 2004, and those players produced results, advancing all the way to the NCAA Championship game in the 2006 season.

His 2007 team extended UCLA's post-season appearance streak to 25 consecutive years, advancing to the NCAA second round. The Bruins, who finished with a 9-9-3 record, scored in the classroom, with 24 of 30 team members making the Director's Honor Roll during the school year.

The 2006 Bruins faced an uphill battle with injuries to several starters throughout the season, but they fought through the adversity and ended a successful post-season run in the title game with a final season record of 14-6-4.

In 2005, Salcedo's Bruins recorded a 12-5-3 record and ranked amongst the best in the nation in team defense, allowing just 14 goals and posting a team goals against average of 0.67. The Bruins also captured the Pac-10 title for the fourth year in a row and earned a No. 5 seeding in the NCAA Tournament.

During his first season, Salcedo earned Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year honors after leading UCLA to its third-straight conference title. His Bruins ended the regular season ranked No. 3 by Soccer America and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, where they finished the year with a 14-4-2 record.

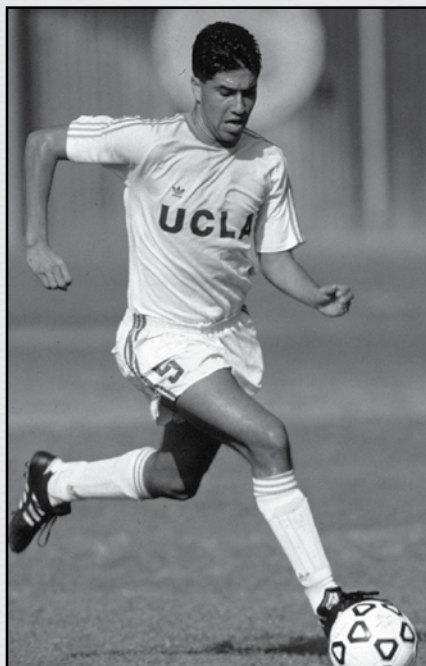

Salcedo was UCLA's assistant coach from 2001-03 and helped lead the Bruins to the 2002 NCAA Championship and to two Pac-10 team championships. In 2002, he served as acting head coach in a crucial road victory at Stanford in November that helped the Bruins capture their first-ever Pac-10 title. He also served as acting head coach in the spring of 2002 in the coaching transition between Todd Saldaña and Tom Fitzgerald and had served in a similar capacity after Fitzgerald announced his resignation.

Salcedo, who is a scout for the U.S. National Team, was the head coach of the 2002 U-16 SoCal ODP State team and was also the assistant coach of the U-17 team in 2001.

The Cerritos, Calif. native had an illustrious career at UCLA from 1990-93. Salcedo was a four-year starter, playing 74 games and tallying six goals and seven assists for 19 points. As a freshman, he scored the decisive penalty kick in the shootout during the 1990 NCAA Championship game to give UCLA its second national title. In 1993 as a senior, he earned NSCAA first-team All-America honors. He prepped at Cerritos HS, where he earned two Parade All-America honors.

Salcedo played for five years in Major League Soccer (MLS).

In his first season in the league, he was a starter for the Los Angeles Galaxy and helped take his team to the MLS Championship game. He also played for Chicago, where he served as team co-captain, Columbus and Tampa Bay before returning to the Galaxy in 1999. Prior to his MLS career, he played with the LA Salsa in the APSL and then for F.C. Morelia of the Mexican First Division. Salcedo was also a member of the U.S. National Team program, earning three caps with the full national team and captaining the U-17 team at the 1989 World Youth Championships and the U-20 team at the 1990 CONCACAF Tournament.

Salcedo has had extensive ties to the Bruin program for many years. He graduated from UCLA with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and was part of three of the Bruins' four NCAA Championship teams. He was a ball boy for UCLA during its first championship year in 1985, scored the game-winning penalty kick in the 1990

Championship game and was an assistant coach for the 2002 squad. In addition, his father Hugo was a UCLA assistant coach from 1978-79 and a member of the 1972 U.S. Olympic team and will be serving as the FIFA Chairman of the 2014 World Cup. His brother Eddie was a UCLA letterwinner in 1995.

Salcedo and his wife Rebecca have been married for four years, and they have two children, Matteo (2) and Malea (born December 2007).

Eddie Soto

Assistant Coach
3rd Year
Cal State Fullerton
'95

Former Cal State Fullerton All-American Eddie Soto begins his third season as UCLA assistant coach and his eighth season overall as an NCAA Division I coach. In his first season at UCLA, he helped guide the Bruins to the NCAA College Cup finals.

Soto was the assistant coach for the men's team at Cal State Fullerton from 2001-03 and was hired again as the lead assistant in 2006. He was also the lead assistant for the women's team at Long Beach State from 2004-05 and the head assistant at Long Beach City College in 1997 when the women's team won its first championship.

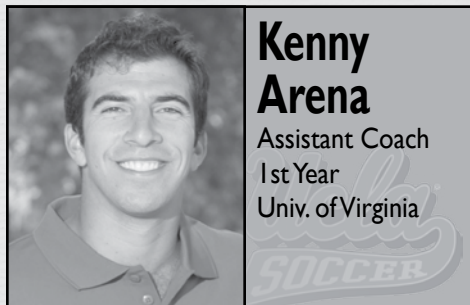

Soto also has vast experience coaching at the club level, totaling 13 years as a coach in the prestigious Coast Soccer League. He coached former UCLA All-Americans Zach Wells and Matt Taylor at Irvine Strikers and also coached the NHB futbol club for five years.

An All-American at Cal State Fullerton in 1992 and 1993, Soto is the No. 2 scorer in Titan history, totaling 96 points and 38 goals from 1992-94. He still holds the single-season record for goals in a season with 18, set in 1994. In 1993, he led the Titans to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in school history. His team also advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals in 1994. In 2007, Soto was named to the MPSF 15-Year Anniversary first team.

Upon graduating from Cal State Fullerton in 1995 with a B.A. in Kinesiology, Soto was selected in the initial MLS Draft in 1996 by the NY/NJ MetroStars and again in the supplemental draft in 1998 by the San Jose Clash. He also played for the Orange County Zodiac of the A-League, the Los Angeles Cobras of the USISL and ended his career with the USA Pro Beach Soccer Team.

The Cerritos native was a two-time Parade All-American and the 1990 CIF 3-A Player of the Year at Cerritos HS, where he was teammates with UCLA head coach Jorge Salcedo. He was also a member of the NHB futbol club that won the 1991 National Championship and a member of the U.S. U-18 and U-20 National Teams.

Soto, who has a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" Coaching License, resides in Long Beach with his wife, Stephanie, and his children, Fabrizio, Wyatt and Isabela.

Kenny Arena

Assistant Coach
1st Year
Univ. of Virginia

Kenny Arena, a former Major League Soccer player and University of Virginia standout, starts his first season as a Bruin assistant coach. Arena was an assistant coach at George Mason in 2007 and a volunteer coach for the University of Virginia in 2006.

Arena, who has a "B" Coaching license, was responsible for player development, recruiting and scheduling at George Mason in 2007. At Virginia in 2006, he helped the Cavaliers advance to the NCAA Semifinals, where they lost to UCLA. In addition, Arena has been training and coaching club teams in the Virginia area since 1998.

Arena played three seasons in Major League Soccer, spending the 2003 and 2004 seasons with the NY/NJ MetroStars and the 2005 season with DC United. In 2002, Arena was a member of the U.S. Under-23 National Team and was also a member of the U.S. Under-20 National Team from 2000-2001. He played in the 2001 World Youth Championships in Argentina, scoring a goal against the Ukraine.

At the University of Virginia, Arena started in 65 of 78 games at midfield from 1999-2002, totaling 24 career points off seven goals (including three game-winners) and 10 assists. He earned all-conference honors as a senior and was twice named to the VaSID All-Virginia team.

Arena's father, Bruce, was the head coach of the U.S. men's national team from 1998-2006 and coached national championship teams at DC United and the University of Virginia.

Ignacio Hernandez

Volunteer Asst.
Coach
1st Year

Ignacio Hernandez joins UCLA in 2008 as a volunteer assistant and goalkeeper coach.

From 2006-07, Hernandez served as the goalkeeper coach for El Salvador's National Team. He was also the goalkeeper coach and assistant coach for the Los Angeles Galaxy from 2004-06 and helped guide the team to the MLS Cup title in 2005. Prior to joining the Galaxy, he was an assistant coach for the Costa Rica National Team, the goalkeeper coach for Santa Ana College and the goalkeeper coach for the Orange County Zodiac in the A-League. He also assisted with three premier youth soccer clubs - Pateadores Soccer Club, So Cal United Soccer Club and Tustin Premier.

A native of Veracruz, Mexico, Hernandez enjoyed a 12-year playing career as a goalkeeper in Mexico's first and second divisions, including stints with Los Tiburones Rojos de Veracruz, Atlante FC and CD Toluca.

Hernandez, who has a USSF National coaching license, is currently the goalkeeper director/coach at Tustin Premier. He and his wife, Johanna, have four children, Henry, Joshua, Jason and Heidi.
