BILLY MARTIN

Head Coach

19th Season

Univ. of Redlands '89

Championships in Athens, Ga. Martin's other appearance in the title match came in 2004, as he led the fourth-seeded Bruins to the NCAA Final following a 4-2 upset over top-seeded Illinois in the semifinals. That win snapped the Fighting Illini's 64-match winning streak, a streak that still stands as the longest in NCAA history. Although the Bruins would go on to lose to Baylor in the final that year, the loss paved the way for UCLA's title run the following season.

Another significant highlight in Martin's career is his outstanding success in the highly-competitive Pac-10 Conference, where he owns a 111-24 record heading into the 2012 season. Under Martin's direction, UCLA has captured nine conference titles, including four in a row from 2004-07. He was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1996 after leading the team to a perfect 10-0 record in conference play. UCLA has never finished out of the top 3 in the Pac-10 standings during Martin's tenure. In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Martin takes great pride in helping his players achieve their individual goals as well. In 2006, he helped Benjamin Kohlloeffel become the 10th player in school history to capture the NCAA Singles Championship. Kohlloeffel notched a straight-set win over Virginia's Somdev Dewvarman in the title match that year, becoming the first Bruin player since Martin in 1975 to win the title. Kohlloeffel's victory put his coach in an elite category, as Martin joined Georgia's Manny Diaz as the only other active head coach to earn the career "triple crown" by leading their schools to three different titles at the NCAA Championships (team, singles and doubles). Martin's doubles title came when he coached Justin Gimelstob and Srdjan Muskatirovic to the championship in 1995. In all, a total of 19 players have achieved All-America status under Martin's direction.

Inducted into the ITA Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and '74 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine recently ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century." Due to his tremendous success as a junior player while growing up in Illinois, Martin was inducted into the USTA Midwest Section Hall of

Under Martin's direction, UCLA captured the 2005 NCAA Championship in College Station, Texas.

Fame in December of 2010. He was also inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in August of 2011.

Although Martin played just one season at UCLA before turning pro, the 1975 season was a special one, as he guided the team to a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship during his freshman year.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Solomon. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, '79 and '81 in Laguna Niguel, CA, Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus. Martin and his wife, Justine, have two children, William and Travis.

Head coach Billy Martin, who recently captured his 400th career coaching victory in 2011, takes an overall record of 401-86 (.823) into his 19th season at the helm of the UCLA men's tennis program. The 2012 season marks Martin's 29th year on staff, as he served as an assistant coach for 10 years prior to taking over for Glenn Bassett in 1994. He is only the fourth head coach in UCLA tennis history, following legends Bill Ackerman (1921-50), J.D. Morgan (1951-66) and Bassett (1967-93). Only three active coaches at UCLA have served longer at their current positions, as Martin follows Al Scates (men's volleyball - 50 years), Cyndi Gallagher (women's swimming - 23 years) and Valorie Kondos Field (women's gymnastics - 22 years). Perhaps the most amazing accomplishment in Martin's career is his ability to get the best out of his players each and every year, as in 18 seasons as head coach, only once has he had a team finish out of the top 5 at the season-ending NCAA Championships.

Martin's finest season at UCLA came in 2005 when he led the squad to its first NCAA title since 1984. UCLA's 4-3 come-from-behind victory over top-seeded and undefeated Baylor that year marked the Bruins' 16th NCAA Championship in men's tennis and the school's 97th NCAA title overall. The win snapped Baylor's 57-match winning streak, the second longest in NCAA history. It also avenged the team's 4-0 loss to the Bears in the 2004 NCAA Final. In addition to the team's dramatic run to the title in 2005, Martin has had several near misses at the NCAA Championships. In just his third season as head coach in 1996, Martin led an undefeated Bruin squad to the NCAA Final, suffering a heartbreaking loss to Pac-10 rival Stanford in the title match. It marked the team's only loss of the year, as the Bruins finished 27-1 overall. For his efforts, Martin was named the 1996 ITA National Coach of the Year. UCLA reached the NCAA Final again three years later, this time falling to Georgia, 4-3 at the 1999

KRIS KWINTA

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season
UCLA '07

Former Bruin All-American Kris Kwinta begins his fifth season as head coach Billy Martin's assistant. Prior to taking the job at the beginning of the 2008 season, Kwinta was an undergraduate assistant coach while finishing up his degree in Political Science.

Kwinta was instrumental in the team's success the last several years, helping coach Martin in all facets of the program, including player development and recruiting. The Bruins have finished in the top 5 at the NCAA Championships in three of Kwinta's four seasons. He was recently recognized for his efforts by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA), which named him the 2010 Assistant Coach of the Year for the Southwest Region.

A letterman at UCLA from 2004-2005, Kwinta is best known for winning the deciding singles match in the Bruins' 4-3 upset over top-seeded Baylor in the 2005 NCAA Final. With the match tied at 3-3, his victory over Lars Poerschke at No. 3 singles clinched UCLA's first NCAA title in men's tennis since 1984. Kwinta would go on to earn all-tournament honors that season.

During his two seasons in Westwood, Kwinta owned a career singles record of 59-22 and a career doubles mark of 62-24. He earned All-America honors in doubles in 2004 after he and partner Alberto Francis finished the year ranked No. 7 in the country. The duo went 33-15 that season, earning Pac-10 Doubles Team of the Year honors. Kwinta also finished the season ranked No. 94 in singles in the Final ITA Rankings.

Kwinta followed up his 2004 success with another impressive season in 2005. He posted a 26-9 overall singles record, including a 29-9 mark in doubles play. He was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection that year, finishing the season listed at No. 65 in singles and No. 20 in doubles (W/Francis) in the Final ITA Rankings.

A former member of the Polish National Team, Kwinta was ranked as high as No. 2 in singles and No. 1 in doubles in the Polish Junior Rankings. He has represented Poland at the Davis Cup in doubles, teaming with former Bruin Marcin Matkowski. Kwinta is a native of Poznan, Poland.

GRANT CHEN

Director of Tennis Operations
Fourth Season
UCLA '06

Grant Chen enters his fourth season as Director of Tennis Operations at UCLA. His current responsibilities include overseeing and assisting with all facets of both the men's and women's programs.

Chen, who graduated from UCLA in 2006 with a degree in sociology, served as the team manager for the men's tennis team from 2001-2006. Upon graduation, he assumed the role of Director of Tennis Operations, however left after one season to pursue other goals. During his time away from UCLA, Chen worked in sports management, assisting with a handful of prominent local tennis professionals in the Los Angeles Area.

Chen served as head coach of the UCLA Club Tennis Team from 2007-10. He coached the team to a pair of Southern California Regional Championships in 2007 and 2008, including a third-place national finish in 2010. Chen was a member of the club tennis team from 2005-2006, winning both the Fall and Spring Intramural events at UCLA while leading the team to a regional title and a top 5 finish at nationals.

Prior to college, Chen was captain of the Dos Pueblos High School tennis team in Santa Barbara where he won the Channel League doubles title as a junior and was a singles finalist his senior year. He graduated with multiple MVP, All-Channel League and All-CIF honors. For the past 10 years, Chen has also assisted coach Billy Martin with his winter and summer UCLA Tennis Camps, along with the Bassett/Martin Tennis Camp in Big Bear, Calif.

The Santa Barbara native is an avid golfer who currently resides in Brentwood, California.

► Bill Ackerman

1921-1950

William C. "Bill" Ackerman first became associated with UCLA as a freshman in 1920. In 1921, Ackerman's sophomore year as a Bruin netter, he was named head coach of the UCLA men's tennis team. That season, the Bruins won their first of five straight Southern Conference Championships. UCLA, then known as the University of California, Southern Branch, joined the Pacific Coast Conference in 1925. Seven years later, Ackerman guided the Bruins to a PCC team title (1932). His Bruins won nine more PCC titles until his retirement following the 1950 season. Ackerman coached the UCLA men's tennis team to its first NCAA Team Championship in 1950, the first such title for any UCLA sports program. He also coached UCLA's first-ever NCAA singles champ Jack Tidball (1933) and UCLA's first player to capture an NCAA singles and doubles crown in the same year in Herb Flam (1950). Flam collected the doubles title with Gene Garrett, another of Ackerman's star players. Ackerman was inducted into the Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame at the 100th NCAA Tennis Championships (1984) held at the University of Georgia. Ironically, 1984 was the same year that UCLA's third-ever head coach and former Ackerman pupil, Glenn Bassett, coached the Bruins to an NCAA team title with a 5-4 victory over Stanford.

Ackerman, who passed away in 1988 at the age of 85, was also a charter member of the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame, and UCLA's Student Union was renamed the William C. Ackerman Student Union in 1967.

► J.D. Morgan

1951-1966

J.D. Morgan, the second head coach of the UCLA men's tennis team, catapulted the Bruins to more success in the 1950's and '60's. Just one year after taking over the helm from Ackerman, Morgan guided UCLA to an NCAA team championship (1952). He was the first UCLA coach in any sport to take the Bruins not only to back-to-back titles but also to three consecutive NCAA titles (1952, '53 and '54). Under his guidance, the Bruins won seven NCAA crowns, four in the 1950's (1952, '53, '54 and '56) and three in the 1960's (1960, '61 and '65). He was the first coach in NCAA history to guide his team to three consecutive NCAA men's tennis team titles. Morgan's Bruins also finished in second place four times. He produced four NCAA singles champions and five NCAA doubles team champions in his 16-year tenure. He coached tennis greats Arthur Ashe, Charles Pasarell, Bob Perry and Ian Crookenden, to name a few. The NCAA singles champions during his tenure included Larry Nagler (1960), Allen Fox (1961), Ashe (1965) and Pasarell (1966). The NCAA doubles champions he coached included Perry-Larry Huebner (1953), Perry-Ron Livingston (1954), Fox-Nagler (1960), Ashe-Crookenden (1965) and Pasarell-Crookenden (1966).

Morgan was inducted into the ITA Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1983. In his honor, the building that currently houses the athletic department offices and connects with the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame is named the J.D. Morgan Center.

► Glenn Bassett

1967-1993

Glenn Bassett maintained the tradition of Ackerman and Morgan from 1967 to 1993, collecting seven NCAA team championships and 13 Pac 8/10 titles. In his 27 years at the helm he never had a losing season. In addition, he produced three NCAA singles champions, four NCAA doubles team champions and 49 All-Americans. He is the only coach in NCAA history to win an NCAA tennis title as a player (one), assistant coach (five) and head coach (seven). Including his years as an assistant coach, he has worked with some of tennis' most recognized players, including national champions Arthur Ashe, Ian Crookenden, Billy Martin and Jimmy Connors, and 1992 Olympian Mark Knowles. He finished his career ranked as the nation's winningest (by percentage) active Division-I men's tennis coach, having compiled an impressive dual match record of 592-92-2 (.864).

After retiring from UCLA, Bassett joined the Pepperdine staff for two years. He continues to be a supporter of the Bruin program, attending home matches at the Los Angeles Tennis Center.

► Jimmy Connors

Jimmy Connors, one of the few professional athletes in the world who remained a force in his respective sport for two entire decades, began his tennis success on the collegiate level as a player at UCLA.

Connors played a key role in the Bruins' 10th NCAA team championship when he captured the 1971 NCAA singles crown. The 1971 squad posted an impressive 17-0 record, one of only six undefeated years. Not only was he a key singles player during the 1971 year, but he also teamed up with Jeff Austin to post the team's best doubles record that season with a 9-1 mark.

After turning pro in 1972, Connors captured one Australian Open title (1974), two Wimbledon titles (1974 and '82) and five U.S. Open Championships (1974, '76, '78, '82 and '83).

He won every major championship except the French Open and is the only player in tennis history to have won the U.S. Open on three different surfaces (grass, clay and hardcourt). He reached the quarterfinals or better at the U.S. Open 17 out of 18 years, spanning from 1973-89 and 1991. Connors ranks as the all-time leader for most matches won at Wimbledon (84) and the U.S. Open (97).

The left-hander was also a talented doubles player on the pro level, owning 19 doubles titles, two of which were Grand Slams (1973 Wimbledon and 1975 U.S. Open). His highest doubles ranking was fifth on April 25, 1976.

On the professional circuit, he spent more weeks at the No. 1 spot than anyone in the history of the ATP rankings — 158 spanning from July 29, 1974 to Aug. 16, 1977.

Born Sept. 2, 1952, Connors remained one of the world's top tennis players until his retirement in 1993. In all, Connors competed on the pro tour for a remarkable 21 years, even reaching the semifinals of the 1991 U.S. Open at the age of 39.

► Arthur Ashe

Arthur Ashe, one of tennis' all-time greats, began his climb to success at UCLA in 1962. He was the first prominent African-American male tennis player to grace both the collegiate and professional tennis scenes. As a freshman at UCLA, he was ranked No. 18 nationally and No. 6 in Southern California. In 1962, he was named a member of the American Junior Davis Cup squad and was the 1962 All-University of California singles and doubles champ (with Charles Pasarell).

Ashe's sophomore season at UCLA was just as successful as he reached the third round of the Wimbledon Championships and the quarterfinals of the NCAA singles championships. He finished the year ranked sixth nationally and second in Southern California. The 1963 U.S. Davis Cup member also became the first African-American to be ranked in America's "First 10" during his sophomore campaign.

Ashe co-captained the 1964 UCLA team that finished as the NCAA runner-up for the third straight time in as many years. Ranked third nationally and second in Southern California, Ashe was a 1964 NCAA singles semifinalist and NCAA doubles finalist.

His collegiate career peaked in 1965 when he brought home the coveted NCAA singles title and captained UCLA to an NCAA team title after a three-year run as NCAA runners-up. Ashe also teamed with Ian Crookenden for the 1965 NCAA doubles title, posting a 14-3 record in doubles play on the year. In singles, Ashe compiled a 36-4 record on the season, and picked up the NCAA title and AAWU singles titles. He was also the Southern California Intercollegiate champ, Ojai Tournament champion, Southern California championships finalist and Thunderbird Invitational finalist. Finishing the year ranked second nationally, he helped UCLA to a perfect 11-0 season. The year 1965 also marked the second time he was selected to the U.S. Davis Cup team.

Ashe, who was also a Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity member, earned four letters in tennis (1961-64). He graduated in June, 1966 with a degree in Business Administration.

He enjoyed an illustrious professional career with three Grand Slam singles titles (1968 U.S. Open, 1970 Australian Open and 1975 Wimbledon) and two doubles (1971 French Open and 1977 Australian Open) crowns to his credit. Ashe was a founding father of the present-day Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP).

Sports Illustrated named him the 1992 Sportsman of the Year, the third of his four appearances on the magazine's cover. Arthur Ashe, Jr., passed away on Feb. 6, 1993.

With the ability to hold more than 10,000 spectators, the Los Angeles Tennis Center is one of the nation's premier on-campus facilities.

► The Los Angeles Tennis Center

Located on the UCLA campus nestled just west of Pauley Pavilion and south of Drake Stadium is the impressive Los Angeles Tennis Center: home to both UCLA men's and women's tennis teams.

The LATC was the first large-scale outdoor tennis stadium opened in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and was officially dedicated on May 20, 1984, just in time to host the 1984 NCAA Women's Tennis Championships and the 1984 Olympic Games. Since then, the LATC has been site of several top collegiate and professional tournaments. The NCAA Women's Tennis Championships returned to the LATC in 1987 and '88, while the NCAA Men's Tennis Championships called the LATC home in 1997.

On the professional level, the LATC has been a regular stop of the ATP Tour for many years. The first tournament held at the LATC, the Union 76 Pacific Southwest Open, featured former Bruins Jimmy Connors and Eliot Teltscher in the finals. The tournament, renamed The LA Open, continues to thrive at the LATC each summer.

The LATC features eight lighted, hard-surface courts, a 5,800-permanent seat grandstand around the three main courts and a two-level clubhouse. At full capacity, the LATC can accommodate more than 10,000 spectators. The clubhouse contains locker rooms, coaches' offices and team rooms for both the UCLA men's and women's teams, as well as offices for the Southern California Tennis Association (SCTA).

The second level of the clubhouse features a 4,000-square foot indoor dining area and kitchen. Center court is called the Times-Mirror Center Court. The stadium is named the Straus Stadium and Clubhouse.

A recent addition to the LATC came in 2005 when the Greiner Family Scoreboard was added to the back courts. Prior to that, the Budge Offer Family Scoreboard was added to the stadium courts in 2000. Both scoreboards enable fans to follow the action on every court from either location.

The newest project at the LATC was completed in January of 2010, as both the men's and women's teams received a complete renovation of their locker rooms.

In addition to the three stadium courts, the LATC features five back courts.

The men's and women's locker rooms were renovated in 2010.

Administrator Biographies

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director
10th Year

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, has enjoyed great success and exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is in charge of the program at his alma mater. Guerrero is one of the most respected and talented administrators in all of intercollegiate athletics. He is the current president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee and served as president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association in 2010-11.

In Guerrero's nine years as Athletic Director, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (107) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those eight years, UCLA teams have won 21 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 17 times and have had an additional 32 Top Five finishes (70 total). A staggering 172 teams (of 207 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 46 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 460 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. Furthermore, during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China, 39 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and nine other nations. They won 15 medals, including four gold.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's "fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

Glenn Toth

Sr. Assoc. Athletic Director
15th Year

Glenn Toth, who has served the athletic department as an administrator for more than 33 years, enters his 15th year in charge of the UCLA men's and women's tennis programs. He is in his third year overseeing the men's volleyball team, the men's and women's cross-country teams, and the men's and women's track & field teams. In addition to his role as a sports supervisor, Toth has also seen duty as an assistant coach, and serves as a member of athletic director Dan Guerrero's senior staff.

A senior associate athletic director with a variety of responsibilities, Toth serves as the liaison with shoe and apparel sponsor adidas, having orchestrated both the original 1999 agreement renewals in 2004 and 2010. adidas supplies all Bruin teams, and represents the department's most lucrative sponsorship. In addition, Toth was point person on the negotiation with International Sports Properties (ISP) which now handles the department's corporate relations, media rights, program printing, web page, ad sales, and sponsor promotions.

Toth also has administrative responsibility for the athletic equipment room which designs, outfits, and maintains all of the Bruins' uniforms, practice, and playing equipment.

In addition, the sports medicine area/athletic training room, which provides injury evaluation, treatment, rehabilitation, therapy, and nutritional services to over 700 student-athletes falls under Toth's supervision.

Toth graduated from UCLA in 1976 with a degree in economics. From 1978-84, he supervised the management of home athletic events and team travel. In 1982, Toth handled the logistics of UCLA's move to the Rose Bowl and at the same time became the athletic department's first marketing director. Promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1984, he was credited with several award-winning football marketing campaigns and the creation of the department's corporate relations program.

Now a frustrated, mediocre golfer, Toth serves as a Reserve Captain with the LA County Sheriff's Department. His golden retrievers are Misty and Dottie.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
5th Year

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA on August 1, 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles, a city that offers a microcosm of the global community, and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he emphasizes broad-based, campus-wide planning.

Returning to the West Coast after 29 years at the University of Virginia, Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. A fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, he specializes in circadian biology, which deals with the functioning of 24-hour rhythms in higher organisms.

Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology and directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups.

A native New Yorker, Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. He completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, studying with Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing," and Donald Kennedy, who later served as president of Stanford.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two children.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement: SUCCESS

“Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency”

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally.

The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

UCLA Community Outreach/ Wooden Academy

All UCLA head coaches stress involvement with the campus and the community. Whether it's volunteering at an inner-city youth clinic, speaking to children at elementary and middle schools in the area, or assisting in campus programs such as 'Marathon Kids' and 'I'm Going to College,' community service is an important aspect of being a Bruin. These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Community Outreach

Bruin student-athletes, coaches and staff have the opportunity to participate in community service activities on campus and throughout the Los Angeles area. Examples of these events include;

- Marathon Kids
- Dribble for the Cure
- Mattel Children's Hospital
- Elementary/Middle School Visits
- Team Prime Time/Prime Time Games
- UCLA Lab School Jogathon
- I'm Going to College
- Adopt a Classroom
- Special Requests/Events

These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Wooden Academy: Teamwork, Leadership and Character

The Wooden Academy is a comprehensive leadership development program designed to educate and support the standards of leadership for Bruin student-athletes. The pillars of the Wooden Academy are teamwork, leadership and character. The program is named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the values and principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes will have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars and learning practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.

Student-Athlete Academic Learning Center

- 24 computers
- 4 walk-up computers for easy printing
