BILLY MARTIN

Head Coach
20th Season
Univ. of Redlands '89

led the fourth-seeded Bruins to the NCAA Final following a 4-2 upset over top-seeded Illinois in the semifinals. That win snapped the Fighting Illini's 64-match winning streak, a streak that still stands as the longest in NCAA history. Although the Bruins would go on to lose to Baylor in the final that year, the loss paved the way for UCLA's title run the following season.

Another significant highlight in Martin's career is his outstanding success in the highly-competitive Pac-10 Conference, where he owns a 111-24 record heading into the 2012 season. Under Martin's direction, UCLA has captured nine conference titles, including four in a row from 2004-07. He was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1996 after leading the team to a perfect 10-0 record in conference play. UCLA has never finished out of the top 3 in the Pac-10 standings during Martin's tenure. In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Martin takes great pride in helping his players achieve their individual goals as well. In 2006, he helped Benjamin Kohlloeffel become the 10th player in school history to capture the NCAA Singles Championship. Kohlloeffel notched a straight-set win over Virginia's Somdev Devvarman in the title match that year, becoming the first Bruin player since Martin in 1975 to win the title. Kohlloeffel's victory put his coach in an elite category, as Martin joined Georgia's Manny Diaz as the only other active head coach to earn the career "triple crown" by leading their schools to three different titles at the NCAA Championships (team, singles and doubles). Martin's doubles title came when he coached Justin Gimelstob and Srdjan Muskatirovic to the championship in 1995. In all, a total of 19 players have achieved All-America status under Martin's direction.

Inducted into the ITA Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and '74 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine recently ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century." Due to his tremendous success as a junior player while growing up in Illinois, Martin was inducted into the USTA Midwest Section Hall of Fame in December of 2010. He was also inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in August of 2011.

Although Martin played just one season at UCLA before turning pro, the 1975 season was a special one, as he guided the team to a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship during his freshman year.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Solomon. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, '79 and '81 in Laguna Niguel, CA, Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus. Martin and his wife, Justine, have two children, William and Travis.

GRANT CHEN

Assistant Coach
First Season
UCLA '06

Chen enters his first season as assistant coach with the UCLA men's tennis program. He replaces former assistant Kris Kwinta who, after five very successful seasons at UCLA, has moved on to pursue other opportunities. Chen recently capped off his fifth season as the team's Director of Operations. He was named

Director of Operations following graduation from UCLA in 2006, serving in that capacity for one season before leaving to work in sports management, where he assisted with a handful of prominent tennis professionals in the Los Angeles Area. Chen returned to UCLA in 2009 to work with both the men's and women's tennis programs. Several of Chen's duties included logistics, travel, equipment, as well as managing all home events. He has served as tournament manager for a number of UCLA hosted events, such as ITA Kick-Off Weekend, NCAA Regionals and the Southern California Intercollegiate Championships. Chen has also played an instrumental role in helping Martin run the highly successful UCLA Tennis Camps and Bassett/Martin Tennis Camp in Big Bear, Calif. In his spare time, Chen has organized several tennis charity events around the country. On the coaching side, Chen served as head coach of the UCLA Club Tennis Team from 2007-10. He coached the team to a pair of Southern California Regional Championships in 2007 and 2008, including a third-place national finish in 2010. Chen was a member of the club tennis team from 2005-2006, winning both the Fall and Spring Intramural events at UCLA while leading the team to a regional title and a top 5 finish at nationals.

"We are just really excited about having Grant stay with our team as an assistant coach," said Martin upon Chen's hiring. "Nobody knows how UCLA men's tennis runs better than he does so I'm certainly looking forward to having him help us move toward our goal of winning the national championship."

RIKUS de VILLIERS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Fresno State '11

The 2013 season marks the first season in Westwood for volunteer assistant coach Rikus de Villiers.

A native of South Africa, de Villiers was a top player at Fresno State (2009-11), where he earned a degree in physical therapy. Prior to his arrival in Fresno, he played one season at Pepperdine before transferring following his freshman year. During his time in Fresno, de Villiers earned All-Western Athletic Conference (WAC) honors in each of his three seasons. He was named to the conference's first team in both singles and doubles as a senior. He also helped Fresno State to a WAC Championship his senior year, securing the Bulldogs an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament, where they reached the second round.

In addition to ascending to a career-high No. 83 in the ITA Singles Rankings, de Villiers was also a standout doubles player, twice earning a place in the NCAA Doubles Championships with teammate Remi Boutlier. The duo ended the 2011 season listed at No. 18 in the Final ITA Doubles Rankings.

As a junior tennis player in South Africa, he twice won the African Championships in singles and doubles. He earned his first ATP point when he was just a 14 years old.

Marcin Matkowski defeated Washington's Alex Vlaski, 6-4, 6-2 in the 2003 Pac-10 singles final. For his efforts, he was named the Pac-10 Co-Player of the Year with teammate Tobias Clemens.

► Bill Ackerman

1921-1950

William C. "Bill" Ackerman first became associated with UCLA as a freshman in 1920. In 1921, Ackerman's sophomore year as a Bruin netter, he was named head coach of the UCLA men's tennis team. That season, the Bruins won their first of five straight Southern Conference Championships. UCLA, then known as the University of California, Southern Branch, joined the Pacific Coast Conference in 1925. Seven years later, Ackerman guided the Bruins to a PCC team title (1932). His Bruins won nine more PCC titles until his retirement following the 1950 season. Ackerman coached the UCLA men's tennis team to its first NCAA Team Championship in 1950, the first such title for any UCLA sports program. He also coached UCLA's first-ever NCAA singles champ Jack Tidball (1933) and UCLA's first player to capture an NCAA singles and doubles crown in the same year in Herb Flam (1950). Flam collected the doubles title with Gene Garrett, another of Ackerman's star players. Ackerman was inducted into the Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame at the 100th NCAA Tennis Championships (1984) held at the University of Georgia. Ironically, 1984 was the same year that UCLA's third-ever head coach and former Ackerman pupil, Glenn Bassett, coached the Bruins to an NCAA team title with a 5-4 victory over Stanford.

Ackerman, who passed away in 1988 at the age of 85, was also a charter member of the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame, and UCLA's Student Union was renamed the William C. Ackerman Student Union in 1967.

► J.D. Morgan

1951-1966

J.D. Morgan, the second head coach of the UCLA men's tennis team, catapulted the Bruins to more success in the 1950's and '60's. Just one year after taking over the helm from Ackerman, Morgan guided UCLA to an NCAA team championship (1952). He was the first UCLA coach in any sport to take the Bruins not only to back-to-back titles but also to three consecutive NCAA titles (1952, '53 and '54). Under his guidance, the Bruins won seven NCAA crowns, four in the 1950's (1952, '53, '54 and '56) and three in the 1960's (1960, '61 and '65). He was the first coach in NCAA history to guide his team to three consecutive NCAA men's tennis team titles. Morgan's Bruins also finished in second place four times. He produced four NCAA singles champions and five NCAA doubles team champions in his 16-year tenure. He coached tennis greats Arthur Ashe, Charles Pasarell, Bob Perry and Ian Crookenden, to name a few. The NCAA singles champions during his tenure included Larry Nagler (1960), Allen Fox (1961), Ashe (1965) and Pasarell (1966). The NCAA doubles champions he coached included Perry-Larry Huebner (1953), Perry-Ron Livingston (1954), Fox-Nagler (1960), Ashe-Crookenden (1965) and Pasarell-Crookenden (1966).

Morgan was inducted into the ITA Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1983. In his honor, the building that currently houses the athletic department offices and connects with the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame is named the J.D. Morgan Center.

► Glenn Bassett

1967-1993

Glenn Bassett maintained the tradition of Ackerman and Morgan from 1967 to 1993, collecting seven NCAA team championships and 13 Pac 8/10 titles. In his 27 years at the helm he never had a losing season. In addition, he produced three NCAA singles champions, four NCAA doubles team champions and 49 All-Americans. He is the only coach in NCAA history to win an NCAA tennis title as a player (one), assistant coach (five) and head coach (seven). Including his years as an assistant coach, he has worked with some of tennis' most recognized players, including national champions Arthur Ashe, Ian Crookenden, Billy Martin and Jimmy Connors, and 1992 Olympian Mark Knowles. He finished his career ranked as the nation's winningest (by percentage) active Division-I men's tennis coach, having compiled an impressive dual match record of 592-92-2 (.864).

After retiring from UCLA, Bassett joined the Pepperdine staff for two years. He continues to be a supporter of the Bruin program, attending home matches at the Los Angeles Tennis Center.

► Jimmy Connors

Jimmy Connors, one of the few professional athletes in the world who remained a force in his respective sport for two entire decades, began his tennis success on the collegiate level as a player at UCLA.

Connors played a key role in the Bruins' 10th NCAA team championship when he captured the 1971 NCAA singles crown. The 1971 squad posted an impressive 17-0 record, one of only six undefeated years. Not only was he a key singles player during the 1971 year, but he also teamed up with Jeff Austin to post the team's best doubles record that season with a 9-1 mark.

After turning pro in 1972, Connors captured one Australian Open title (1974), two Wimbledon titles (1974 and '82) and five U.S. Open Championships (1974, '76, '78, '82 and '83).

He won every major championship except the French Open and is the only player in tennis history to have won the U.S. Open on three different surfaces (grass, clay and hardcourt). He reached the quarterfinals or better at the U.S. Open 17 out of 18 years, spanning from 1973-89 and 1991. Connors ranks as the all-time leader for most matches won at Wimbledon (84) and the U.S. Open (97).

The left-hander was also a talented doubles player on the pro level, owning 19 doubles titles, two of which were Grand Slams (1973 Wimbledon and 1975 U.S. Open). His highest doubles ranking was fifth on April 25, 1976.

On the professional circuit, he spent more weeks at the No. 1 spot than anyone in the history of the ATP rankings — 158 spanning from July 29, 1974 to Aug. 16, 1977.

Born Sept. 2, 1952, Connors remained one of the world's top tennis players until his retirement in 1993. In all, Connors competed on the pro tour for a remarkable 21 years, even reaching the semifinals of the 1991 U.S. Open at the age of 39.

► Arthur Ashe

Arthur Ashe, one of tennis' all-time greats, began his climb to success at UCLA in 1962. He was the first prominent African-American male tennis player to grace both the collegiate and professional tennis scenes. As a freshman at UCLA, he was ranked No. 18 nationally and No. 6 in Southern California. In 1962, he was named a member of the American Junior Davis Cup squad and was the 1962 All-University of California singles and doubles champ (with Charles Pasarell).

Ashe's sophomore season at UCLA was just as successful as he reached the third round of the Wimbledon Championships and the quarterfinals of the NCAA singles championships. He finished the year ranked sixth nationally and second in Southern California. The 1963 U.S. Davis Cup member also became the first African-American to be ranked in America's "First 10" during his sophomore campaign.

Ashe co-captained the 1964 UCLA team that finished as the NCAA runner-up for the third straight time in as many years. Ranked third nationally and second in Southern California, Ashe was a 1964 NCAA singles semifinalist and NCAA doubles finalist.

His collegiate career peaked in 1965 when he brought home the coveted NCAA singles title and captained UCLA to an NCAA team title after a three-year run as NCAA runners-up. Ashe also teamed with Ian Crookenden for the 1965 NCAA doubles title, posting a 14-3 record in doubles play on the year. In singles, Ashe compiled a 36-4 record on the season, and picked up the NCAA title and AAWU singles titles. He was also the Southern California Intercollegiate champ, Ojai Tournament champion, Southern California championships finalist and Thunderbird Invitational finalist. Finishing the year ranked second nationally, he helped UCLA to a perfect 11-0 season. The year 1965 also marked the second time he was selected to the U.S. Davis Cup team.

Ashe, who was also a Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity member, earned four letters in tennis (1961-64). He graduated in June, 1966 with a degree in Business Administration.

He enjoyed an illustrious professional career with three Grand Slam singles titles (1968 U.S. Open, 1970 Australian Open and 1975 Wimbledon) and two doubles (1971 French Open and 1977 Australian Open) crowns to his credit. Ashe was a founding father of the present-day Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP).

Sports Illustrated named him the 1992 Sportsman of the Year, the third of his four appearances on the magazine's cover. Arthur Ashe, Jr., passed away on Feb. 6, 1993.

► The Los Angeles Tennis Center

Located on the UCLA campus nestled just west of Pauley Pavilion and south of Drake Stadium is the impressive Los Angeles Tennis Center: home to both UCLA men's and women's tennis teams.

The LATC was the first large-scale outdoor tennis stadium opened in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and was officially dedicated on May 20, 1984, just in time to host the 1984 NCAA Women's Tennis Championships and the 1984 Olympic Games. Since then, the LATC has been site of several top collegiate and professional tournaments. The NCAA Women's Tennis Championships returned to the LATC in 1987 and '88, while the NCAA Men's Tennis Championships called the LATC home in 1997.

On the professional level, the LATC has been a regular stop of the ATP Tour for many years. The first tournament held at the LATC, the Union 76 Pacific Southwest Open, featured former Bruins Jimmy Connors and Eliot Teltscher in the finals. The tournament, renamed The LA Open, continues to thrive at the LATC each summer.

The LATC features eight lighted, hard-surface courts, a 5,800-permanent seat grandstand around the three main courts and a two-level clubhouse. At full capacity, the LATC can accommodate more than 10,000 spectators. The clubhouse contains locker rooms, coaches' offices and team rooms for both the UCLA men's and women's teams, as well as offices for the Southern California Tennis Association (SCTA).

The second level of the clubhouse features a 4,000-square foot indoor dining area and kitchen. Center court is called the Times-Mirror Center Court. The stadium is named the Straus Stadium and Clubhouse.

A recent addition to the LATC came in 2005 when the Greiner Family Scoreboard was added to the back courts. Prior to that, the Budge Offer Family Scoreboard was added to the stadium courts in 2000. Both scoreboards enable fans to follow the action on every court from either location.

The newest project at the LATC was completed in January of 2010, as both the men's and women's teams received a complete renovation of their locker rooms.

In addition to the three stadium courts, the LATC features five back courts.

The men's and women's locker rooms were renovated in 2010.

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director
11th Year

In 10 years, Dan Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA teams have won a nation's best 22 NCAA championships since his appointment, finished second 19 times and have enjoyed an additional 38 Top Five finishes. Overall, UCLA teams have won 108 NCAA Championships, a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation.

More than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in eight bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 51 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced nearly 500 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

In June of 2010, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package, as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams. Guerrero was named one of the nation's 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). During his tenure, the program accumulated conference championships, garnered national rankings, featured graduation rates among the nation's best

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92). Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years.

Guerrero, 60, was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters.

Glenn Toth

Sr. Assoc. Athletic Director
16th Year

Glenn Toth, who has served the athletic department as an administrator for more than 35 years, enters his 16th year in charge of the UCLA men's and women's tennis programs. He is in his fifth year overseeing the men's volleyball team, the men's and women's cross-country teams, and the men's and women's track & field teams. In addition to his role as a sports supervisor, Toth has also seen duty as an assistant coach, and serves as a member of athletic director Dan Guerrero's senior staff.

A senior associate athletic director with a variety of responsibilities, Toth serves as the liaison with shoe and apparel sponsor adidas, having orchestrated both the original 1999 agreement renewals in 2004 and 2010. adidas supplies all Bruin teams, and represents the department's most lucrative sponsorship. In addition, Toth was point person on the negotiation with International Sports Properties (ISP) which now handles the department's corporate relations, media rights, program printing, web page, ad sales, and sponsor promotions.

Toth also has administrative responsibility for the athletic equipment room which designs, outfits, and maintains all of the Bruins' uniforms, practice, and playing equipment. In addition, the sports medicine area/athletic training room, which provides injury evaluation, treatment, rehabilitation, therapy, and nutritional services to over 700 student-athletes, falls under Toth's supervision, as does the sports performance area and its seven full-time strength coaches.

Toth graduated from UCLA in 1976 with a degree in economics. From 1978-84, he supervised the management of home athletic events, team travel, and athletic insurance. In 1982, Toth handled the logistics of UCLA's move to the Rose Bowl and at the same time became the athletic department's first marketing director.

An avid hiker and climber, Toth completed a personal seven-summit ambition by climbing west coast giants Whitney, Rainier, Shasta, Hood, Adams, Baker, and Jefferson. Toth serves as a Reserve Deputy with the LA County Sheriff's Department, formerly in patrol and now in search & recovery. His golden retrievers are Misty and Dottie.

Chancellor
7th Year

As UCLA's chief executive officer, Gene Block oversees the campus' three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block serves on several leading national associations and advisory boards, including as chairman of the board of the Association of Public Land-grant Universities.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. A fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, he specializes in circadian biology, which deals with the functioning of 24-hour rhythms in higher organisms (See Academic Interests).

Dr. Block became chancellor of UCLA on August 1, 2007. Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology and directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups.

Chancellor Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001.

A native of Monticello, New York, Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. He completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, studying with Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing," and Donald Kennedy, who later served as president of Stanford.

The inventor of a number of devices, Chancellor Block holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, and he is an avid collector of vacuum-tube radios.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two children.

Business Week magazine has ranked the UCLA Career Center as #1 in the nation when blending opportunities for students for internships, part-time work, full-time jobs, and other needed services to prepare a person for today's job market.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement: S.U.C.C.E.S.S.

“Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency”

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally.

The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

Student-Athlete Development

The Bruin Student-Athlete Development Program strives to enhance the student-athlete experience within the University setting by coordinating educational programs that address personal growth, leadership, professional development, and community service. Our goal is to assist student-athletes with their transition to college, provide opportunities to enhance their college experience, support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, and prepare student-athletes to be champions in life.

Bruins in the Community

Bruin student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in community outreach activities on campus and throughout the Los Angeles area. Examples of these events include:

- Dribble for the Cure
- Weekly visits to Mattel Children's Hospital
- Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday
- UCLA Lab School Jog-A-Thon
- 'I'm Going to College' Program
- Adopt a Classroom
- Bruin for a Day
- Sports clinics
- Elementary school activities and reading days

These opportunities give student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

WOODEN ACADEMY: Teamwork, Leadership & Character

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program designed to educate and support Bruin student-athlete leaders. The program was named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

- Leadership Development Program (LDP): The LDP is designed to teach freshmen and transfers the skills they need to lead themselves and effectively work with others. Our goal is to create a strong network of future Bruin leaders.
- Wooden Academy Seminars: These seminars are offered to all student-athletes and address leadership, personal and professional development topics that are relevant to the student-athlete experience.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.
