Billy MARTIN

Head Coach
17th Season
Redlands '89

Head coach Billy Martin enters his 17th season at the helm of the UCLA men's tennis team. The 1996 ITA National Coach of the Year, Martin brings a 366-72 (.836) record into his 26th season on the Bruin coaching staff. Martin served as an assistant coach at UCLA for 10 years prior to being elevated to his current status as only the fourth head coach in Bruin tennis history. He follows legends Bill Ackerman (1921-50), J.D. Morgan (1951-66) and Glenn Bassett (1967-93).

Martin, who in 16 seasons has never had a team finish out of the top 5 at the NCAA Championships, led UCLA to the school's 16th NCAA men's tennis title in 2005. The Bruins upset top-seeded Baylor, 4-3 in the title match that season with a thrilling come-from-behind victory in College Station, Texas. It marked UCLA's first national title in men's tennis since 1984, and followed a string of near misses at the NAAs during Martin's first 12 years as head coach.

Another significant achievement in Martin's career came during the 2006 season, as he coached Ben Kohlloeffel to a straight-set win over Virginia's Somdev Devvarman in the title match at the NCAA Singles Championships. Kohlloeffel became the Bruins' 10th singles champion, and the first since Martin captured the title back in 1975.

Kohlloeffel's victory put his coach in an elite category, as Martin joins Georgia's Manny Diaz as the only other active head coach to earn the career "triple crown" by leading their schools to three different titles at the NCAA Championships (team, singles and doubles). Martin's doubles title came when he coached Justin Gimelstob and Srdjan Muskatirovic to the championship in 1995.

In just his first season as head coach, Martin guided the Bruins to their third consecutive NCAA Semifinal appearance and an overall record of 22-6. He enjoyed an equal amount of success in his second year, as he led the Bruins to a 19-6 record and UCLA's fourth consecutive NCAA Semifinal appearance. The Bruins moved a step closer to winning the national title during Martin's third year when UCLA ended the season as NCAA Runner-Up, posting a 27-1 record and a No. 1 final ranking. After enjoying a tremendous year in 1997 and entering the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 seed, the Bruins posted another semifinal finish, notching a 25-4 record. In 1998, the Bruins tied for fifth at NAAs and claimed a final ranking of No. 7 with a 17-8 overall record, as three Bruins claimed All-America honors. Like the 1997 season, the '99 Bruins, who entered the NCAA Tournament ranked No. 1, were NCAA runner-ups and Pac-10 Champions, finishing with a 26-3 record. In 2000, Martin's team finished 24-4 overall and were runner-up to eventual NCAA Champion Stanford in Pac-10 conference play. The Bruins, ranked No. 2 going into the NCAA Tournament, lost a heartbreaking match to Tennessee in the quarterfinal round. In 2001, the Bruins reached the NCAA Quarterfinals, finishing with a 23-3 overall record and a No. 3 final ranking. In 2002, the Pac-10 Champion Bruins advanced to the NCAA Semifinals, finishing with a 23-5 overall record. In 2003, UCLA advanced to the NCAA Semifinals, posting a 24-4 overall record. The 2004 season marked the third time in coach Martin's tenure that the Bruins came within one match of the national title, as UCLA finished with a 23-6 overall record and coach Martin's fifth Pac-10 Championship. A number of close calls finally came to an end in 2005, when

In 16 years of coaching, Billy Martin has never had a team place lower than fifth at the NCAA Championships

Martin led the Bruins to the school's first NCAA title since 1984. UCLA finished the season with a 27-3 overall record and the school's second-straight Pac-10 Championship.

The 2006 season marked the eighth-consecutive 20-win season for Martin, as UCLA finished with a 20-6 overall record, advancing to the quarterfinals at the NCAA Championships. The Bruins also claimed their third-straight Pac-10 title. UCLA equaled its success of the previous year in 2007, posting yet another 20-win season (22-4), another Pac-10 Championship, and another quarterfinal appearance at the season-ending NCAA Championships.

Perhaps one of Martin's best coaching seasons came in 2008 as, despite missing their top four players from the previous season, the Bruins still managed to reach the semifinals at the NCAA Championships, ending the year 23-4 overall. The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA Semifinal appearances last season, with UCLA falling just short of reaching the final in a 4-3 loss to Ohio State in College Station, Texas. The Bruins ended the year 21-5 overall, claiming the school's fifth Pac-10 title in six years.

Inducted into the ITA Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and '74 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine recently ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century." Due to his tremendous success as a junior player while growing up in Illinois, Martin was inducted into the USTA Midwest Section Hall of Fame this past December.

As a Bruin freshman, he guided the 1975 team to one of its best seasons, posting a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Solomon. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, '79 and '81 in Laguna Niguel, CA, Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus.

Martin and his wife, Justine, have two children, William and Travis.

Billy Martin led UCLA to the school's 16th NCAA men's tennis title in 2005.

Kris KWINTA

Assistant Coach
3rd Season
UCLA '07

Former Bruin All-American Kris Kwinta begins his third season as head coach Billy Martin's assistant. Prior to taking the job at the beginning of the 2008 season, Kwinta had served as an undergraduate assistant coach while finishing up his degree in political science.

Kwinta, who lettered at UCLA from 2004-2005, is best known for winning the deciding singles match in the Bruins' 4-3 upset over top-seeded Baylor in the 2005 NCAA Final. With the match tied at 3-3, his victory over Lars Poerschke at No. 3 singles clinched UCLA's first NCAA title in men's tennis since 1984. Kwinta would go on to earn all-tournament honors that season.

During his two seasons in Westwood, Kwinta owned a career singles record of 59-22 and a career doubles mark of 62-24. He earned All-America honors in doubles in 2004 after he and partner Alberto Francis finished the year ranked No. 7 in the country. The duo went 33-15 that season, earning Pac-10 Doubles Team of the Year honors. Kwinta also finished the season ranked No. 94 in singles in the Final ITA Rankings.

Kwinta followed up his 2004 success with another impressive season in 2005. He posted a 26-9 overall singles record, including a 29-9 mark in doubles play. He was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection that year, finishing the season listed at No. 65 in singles and No. 20 in doubles (W/Francis) in the Final ITA Rankings.

A former member of the Polish National Team, Kwinta was ranked as high as No. 2 in singles and No. 1 in doubles in the Polish Junior Rankings. He has represented Poland at the Davis Cup in doubles, teaming with former UCLA All-American Marcin Matkowski.

Kwinta is a native of Poznan, Poland.

Grant
CHEN

Director of Tennis
Operations
2nd Season
UCLA '06

Grant Chen enters his second stint as Director of Tennis Operations at UCLA after holding the position during the 2006-07 season. His current responsibilities include overseeing and assisting with all facets of both the men's and women's programs.

Chen, who graduated from UCLA in 2006 with a degree in sociology, served as the team manager for the men's tennis team from 2001-2006. Upon graduation, he assumed the role of Director of Tennis Operations, however left after one season to pursue other goals. During his time away from UCLA, Chen worked in sports management, assisting with a handful of prominent local tennis professionals in the Los Angeles Area.

In addition to his duties with the varsity tennis programs, Chen also enters his fourth season as coach of the UCLA Club Tennis Team. He coached the team to a pair of Southern California Regional Championships in 2007 and 2008. Chen was a member of the team from 2005-2006, winning both the Fall and Spring Intramural events at UCLA while leading the team to a regional title and a top five finish at nationals.

Prior to college, Chen was captain of the Dos Pueblos High School tennis team in Santa Barbara where he won the Channel League doubles title as a junior and was a singles finalist his senior year. He graduated with multiple MVP, All-Channel League and All-CIF honors.

For the past nine years, Chen has also assisted coach Billy Martin with his winter and summer UCLA Tennis Camps, along with the Bassett/Martin Tennis Camp in Big Bear, Calif.

The Santa Barbara native and avid golfer currently resides in Brentwood, California.

Barry
GOLDENBERG

Team Manager
3rd Season

Barry Goldenberg is entering his third season as a manager with the UCLA men's tennis team.

Prior to college, Goldenberg was captain of the Parkway Central High School tennis team in Chesterfield, Mo., leading the team to the finals of the Missouri State Championship. He was a four-time Scholar-Athlete Award recipient and also recieved All-Metro honors his senior year. He trained for one year at the Miller Tennis Academy in St. Louis, Mo.

Daniel
VU

Team Manager
2nd Season

Daniel Vu is entering his second season as a manager with the UCLA men's tennis team.

Vu was a two-year Varsity letterman at Corona del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif.

Vu is majoring in Biochemistry at UCLA and plans to attend Medical School after college.
