

Billy MARTIN

Head Coach • 14th Season

University of Redlands '89

Head coach Billy Martin, the only person to capture NCAA Team titles as both a player and a coach, enters his 14th season at the helm of the UCLA men's tennis team. The 1996 ITA National Coach of the Year, Martin brings a 300-59 (.836) record into his 24th season on the Bruin coaching staff. Martin served as an assistant coach at UCLA for 10 years prior to being elevated to his current status as only the fourth head coach in Bruin tennis history. He follows legends Bill Ackerman (1921-50), J.D. Morgan (1951-66) and Glenn Bassett (1967-93).

Martin has continued to uphold the tradition of excellence established by his predecessors, who claimed a total of 15 national titles. In his first season as head coach in 1994, Martin guided the Bruins to their third consecutive NCAA Semifinal appearance and an overall record of 22-6. He enjoyed an equal amount of success in his second year, as he led the Bruins to a 19-6 record and UCLA's fourth consecutive NCAA Semifinal appearance. The Bruins moved a step closer to winning the national title during Martin's third year when UCLA ended the season as NCAA Runner-Up, posting a 27-1 record and a No. 1 final ranking. After enjoying a tremendous year in 1997 and entering the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 seed, the Bruins posted another semifinal finish, settling for a 25-4 record. In 1998, the Bruins tied for fifth at NAAs and claimed a final ranking of No. 7 with a 17-8 overall record, as three Bruins claimed All-America honors. Like the 1997 season, the '99 Bruins, who entered the NCAA Tournament ranked No. 1, were NCAA runner-ups and Pac-10 Champions, finishing with a 26-3 record. In 2000, Martin's team finished 24-4 overall and were runner-up to eventual NCAA Champion Stanford in Pac-10 conference play. The Bruins, ranked No. 2 going into the NCAA Tournament, lost a heartbreaking match to Tennessee in the quarterfinal round. In 2001, the Bruins reached the NCAA Quarterfinals, finishing with a 23-3 overall record and a No. 3 final ranking. In 2002, the Pac-10 Champion Bruins advanced to the NCAA Semifinals, finishing with a 23-5 overall record. In 2003, UCLA advanced to the NCAA Semifinals, posting a 24-4 overall record. The 2004 season marked the third time in coach Martin's tenure that the Bruins came within one match of the national title, as UCLA finished with a 23-6 overall record and coach Martin's fifth Pac-10 Championship. A number of close calls finally came to an end in 2005, when Martin led the Bruins to the school's first NCAA title since 1984. UCLA finished the season with a 27-3 overall record and the school's second-straight Pac-10 Championship.

The 2006 season marked the eighth-consecutive 20-win season for Martin, as UCLA finished with a 20-6 overall record, advancing to the quarterfinals at the NCAA Championships. The Bruins also claimed their third-straight Pac-10 title, giving Martin a total of seven for his career.

Inducted into the ITA Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, Martin's playing career is full of highlights. To this very day he is still regarded as one of the best junior players in the history of the sport. He captured the 1973 and '74 singles titles at Junior Wimbledon, the Junior U.S. Open and Junior Orange Bowl tournaments. Inside Tennis Magazine recently ran an article that named him "Junior Player of the Century."

As a Bruin freshman, he guided the 1975 team to one of its best seasons, posting a perfect 19-0 dual-match record en route to an NCAA team championship.

After capturing the 1975 NCAA singles championship, Martin turned professional and enjoyed a fine career. He reached the Wimbledon singles quarterfinals in 1977 and was selected Rookie of the Year in his first professional season.

Martin defeated top pros such as Ken Rosewall (twice), Stan Smith, John Newcombe, Roscoe Tanner and Harold Solomon. In 1975 he won the Arkansas International singles title. He also won doubles championships in 1977, '79 and '81 in Laguna Niguel, CA, Brussels, Belgium and Bristol, England, respectively.

Martin attended UCLA for three years, working on his undergraduate studies before completing his bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Redlands in 1989. He earned his MBA from USC in 1991.

During the summer, Martin runs the Bassett-Martin Tennis Camp, one of the country's most successful summer tennis camps for youngsters. Martin also directs the UCLA Summer Tennis Camps held on the UCLA campus. The 49-year-old Martin and his wife Justine have two children, William Lawrence and Travis McKinley.

Jason SHER

Assistant Head Coach • Eighth Season

UCLA '93

Jason Sher enters his eighth season as assistant head coach of the UCLA men's tennis team. The 2001 Region-VIII Assistant Coach of the Year, Sher joined the UCLA tennis program in 1999-2000 season.

A four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1990-93, Sher compiled an impressive 101-21 overall career singles record, including a 86-13 mark in dual-match play. He owned the highest winning percentage on the team three of his four years. During his playing days, the Bruins never finished out of the top-5 nationally, finishing as high as No. 3 at the NCAAs in 1990, '92 and '93. As a senior, Sher competed in singles at the 1993 NCAA Championships.

Prior to UCLA, Sher attended Boston House College in his hometown of Cape Town, South Africa, where he was one of South Africa's top junior players. When he arrived to Westwood in 1990, he made an immediate impact on the team, registering a 19-4 overall record and an 18-3 mark in dual-match play.

Following his senior season at UCLA, Sher went on to compete professionally achieving an ATP ranking of No. 400.

From 1997-1999, Sher was a coach at the Evert Tennis Academy in Boca Raton, Florida where he worked with some of the top juniors and professionals around the world. During his time in Florida, Sher also served as training partners for such touring pros as Jim Courier, Venus Williams, Jennifer Capriati and Vince Spadea.

Sher earned his bachelor's degree in History from UCLA in 1993 and then went on to obtain a post-graduate degree in marketing management from the University of Cape Town in 1996.
