

HEAD COACHING HISTORY

Since 1919, the UCLA men's track team has been successfully led by six men - Harry Trotter, Elvin C. "Ducky" Drake, Jim Bush, Bob Larsen, Art Venegas and now, Mike Maynard. Behind these men, the Bruins have won eight National Championships, ranging from 1956 to 1988.

Harry "Cap" Trotter - 1919 to 1946

Trotter started coaching the track team in 1919, the year UCLA was founded, and was called upon to coach the football team from 1920-1922. During his tenure as head track coach, Trotter produced numerous prominent track and field athletes. The pride of his coaching career were sprinter Jimmy LuValle and his successor, Elvin "Ducky" Drake.

Elvin C. "Ducky" Drake - 1946 to 1964

In 19 seasons under Elvin "Ducky" Drake, UCLA had a dual meet record of 107-48-0 (.690) and won one NCAA Championship and one Pac-10 title. Drake was a charter member into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1984 and was inducted into the USA Track & Field Track & Field Hall of Fame in December of 2007. In 1973, the Bruin track and field complex was officially named "Drake Stadium" in honor of the UCLA coaching legend who had been associated with UCLA as a student-athlete, coach and athletic trainer for over 60 years. Some of Drake's star athletes include Rafer Johnson, C.K. Yang, George Stanich, Craig Dixon and George Brown.

Jim Bush - 1965 to 1984

Bush had incredible success during his 20 years as head coach, as UCLA won five NCAA Championships, seven Conference Championships and seven national dual meet titles under his guidance. During his tenure, the Bruins posted a 152-21-0 (.879) record in dual meet action. In 1966, his Bruins recorded UCLA's first ever dual meet victory over USC, winning 86-59 at the Coliseum. From 1968-88, 23 of his athletes competed in the Olympics, winning four gold, five silver and three bronze medals. He was inducted into the U.S.A. Track and Field Hall of Fame in 1987, the U. S. Track Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1996 and the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1997. In the February 2000 issue of Coach & Athletic Director magazine, Bush was listed as one of the 13 most influential collegiate track and field coaches for the 20th century. John Smith, Greg Foster, Wayne Collett, Warren Edmonson, Andre Phillips, Mike Tully and Bob Day are a few of Bush's top products.

Bob Larsen - 1985 to 1999

During his 15 years at the helm of the UCLA program, Larsen was a four-time National Coach of the Year (three in track and one in cross country) and nine-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year, guiding the Bruins to a 118-3-1 dual meet record, two NCAA Outdoor Championship titles and nine Pac-10 Conference titles. Larsen never lost a dual meet to archrival USC during his time at UCLA and had 12 unbeaten seasons including five of his last six years as head coach.

Larsen has been honored as a USTCA National Men's Coach of the Year (1995), USTCA District VIII Men's Coach of the Year (1996) and has been inducted into the Mt. SAC Relays Coaches Hall of Fame (1997), California Community College Cross Country Hall of Fame and Track Coaches Association Hall of Fame (1996) and the USTCA Hall of Fame (2003). In 2005, Larsen was honored by the National Long Distance Running Hall of Fame with the Bill Bowerman Award, and by USATF with the H. Browning Ross Memorial Award.

In 2004, Larsen was named men's distance coach for the 2004 USA Olympic Team where star pupil Mebrahtom Keflezighi won silver in the marathon. Today, Larsen trains several prominent long distance runners including Keflezighi in the Mammoth Lakes, CA area.

Art Venegas - 2000 to 2009

Venegas was the assistant throws coach for nearly 20 years before being named head coach of the men's program. As head coach, the Bruins won the 2004 Pac-10 crown, two West Region Championships (2003, 2004) and had the No. 1 recruiting class in the country for the 2005-2006 signing class. He led the men to 54 All-American accolades, 25 individual Pac-10 crowns and four consecutive MPSF Indoor team titles. His throwers consistently produced Pac-10 titles, scored at the NCAA meet and set numerous collegiate records. Nearly every thrower on UCLA's all-time top-10 lists for the throws events were coached by Venegas.

This listing shows which Bruins have been honored with places in the world's Top-10 (Top-15 between 1975-79).

Bruin alum John Godina had the No. 1 throw in the U.S. and the World in 2005 (72-10) and has been ranked in the top-10 in the World and United States for most of his career.

In 2002, he was No. 3 in the world in the shot put and No. 2 in the U.S. in the discus. In 2001 in the shot put, Godina won the World Outdoor, World Indoor and USA Championships, was ranked No. 1 in the World and for the second time in his career, was given the Jesse Owens Award.

In 2000, he was ranked No. 3 in the world in the shot put and won a bronze medal in the event at the Summer Olympics.

In 1999, Godina won his second consecutive USA shot put title. In 1998, in world rankings he was No. 1 in the shot put and No. 3 in the discus. At the '98 USA Outdoor Championships, Godina became the first thrower since Parry O'Brien in 1955 to win both the shot put and discus.

In an epic Olympic story, Rafer Johnson and C.K. Yang, teammates at UCLA, competed for the gold medal in the decathlon at the 1960 Rome Olympics. Johnson won the gold medal, with Yang, representing the Republic of China (Taiwan), earning the silver.

Johnson

1960 Decathlon Olympic Champion & Olympic Record Holder Rafer Johnson was a torch bearer for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

Powell

Mike Powell won a silver medal in the long jump at the 1988 Seoul and 1992 Barcelona Olympics and still holds the World Record in the long jump today.

Young

Kevin Young, the world record-holder in the 400m hurdles, won gold in at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. In 1988 at the Seoul Olympics, Young finished fourth in the 400m hurdles.

Marsh

At the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, Michael Marsh won a silver medal, running the third leg on the U.S. 4x100m relay. At the 1992 Games in Barcelona, Spain, he won two gold medals, winning the 200m and running on the victorious U.S. 4x100m relay.

Lewis

Steve Lewis won gold in the 400m at the 1988 Seoul Olympics and also competed at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics, this time earning silver in the 400m.

Keflezighi

At the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece, Meb Keflezighi won the silver medal in the marathon (2:11.29), becoming USA's first male marathon medalist since 1976.

Tully

Mike Tully won a silver medal in the pole vault at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics and was a member of the honorary 1980 team that boycotted the 1980 Moscow Olympics.

While competing for UCLA from 1993-1996, Ato Boldon won two NCAA titles - 100m in 1996 and 200m in 1995. His school records of 9.90 in the 100m and 19.80 in the 200m still stand atop the Bruin record books. At the Pac-10 Championships in 1996, Boldon set a new Drake Stadium record in the 200m (20.00), a mark that has yet to be broken. >>>

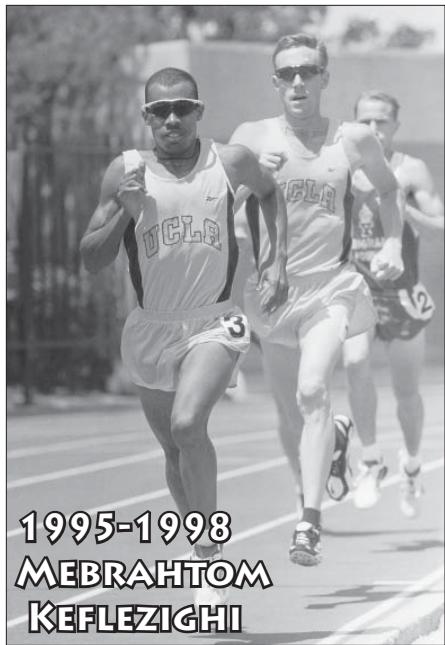

After graduating from UCLA, Boldon went on to compete for his native Trinidad/Tobago, winning the World Championship 200m title in 1997. In 1999, he was the No. 1 200m runner in the world (19.88) and No. 2 in the 100m (9.86).

At the Sydney Olympics, competing for Trinidad/Tobago, Boldon won his third and fourth Olympic career sprint medals, winning the silver in the 100m (9.99) and bronze in the 200m (20.20). At the 2001 World Championships, Boldon just missed a medal in the 100m with his fourth-place finish. In 2004, Boldon competed in his final competition as he retired from track and field at the Athens Olympics.

During his career, Boldon was ranked in the top-10 in the world in the 100m seven times and in the 200m five times. Boldon has served as a Senator for Trinidad's main opposition party and currently does commentary for television broadcasts of track meets, including the 2008 Beijing Olympics for NBC. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in October of 2011.

From 1995-1998, Mebrahtom "Meb" Keflezighi became one of the most prolific all-time distance runners at UCLA. During his career as a Bruin, Meb was an NCAA Cross Country Champion, two-time Pac-10 and District 8 Cross Country Champion, three-time NCAA Indoor All-American, NCAA 5000m Indoor Champion, NCAA Outdoor 5000m and 10,000m Champion and two-time Pac-10 5000m Champion. He holds the school record in the 10,000m (28:16.79), the junior and senior class records in the 10,000m, and all four class records in the 5000m.

Since his graduation, Keflezighi has brought American distance running back into the limelight. He is a three-time USATF 10,000m Champion (2004, '02, '00), most recently having won the USA Olympic Trials competition in 2000 and 2004. In 2001, Meb broke the American Record in the 10,000m (27:13.98), a record which still stands today.

At the 2004 Athens Olympics, Keflezighi won a silver medal in the marathon, becoming America's first marathon medalist since 1976. Keflezighi has also competed in the New York Marathon the last three years, having placed second in 2004, third in 2005 and 21st in 2006.

Today, Keflezighi trains with former Bruin Coach Bob Larsen in the Mammoth Lakes, CA area. He was sixth at the 2011 ING New York Marathon (2:09.13) and then won the 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials with another lifetime-best run of 2:09.08. He became the first American man to win the New York Marathon and the Olympic Trials. With his win at the Trials, Keflezighi qualified for his third Olympic team.

1992-1995
JOHN GODINA

Arguably the most decorated male thrower in American history, John Godina is a shoe-in for the USATF Hall of Fame. During his career at UCLA, Godina was a three-time Outdoor and two-time Indoor NCAA Champion, 10-time All-American, six-time Pac-10 Champion and set the Collegiate Record in the shot put (72-2.25, still stands). In his final year at UCLA, Godina won his first World Championship shot put title, as well as NCAA shot put and discus crowns.

After his graduation, Godina continued to shine in his professional career. A three-time Olympian, Godina won his first shot put medal, a silver, at the 1996 Sydney Olympics, and followed that up with a bronze at the 2000 Olympics. He is a three-time World Outdoor Shot Put Champion (2001, '97, '95), three-time USA Outdoor Shot Put titlist (2001, '99, '98), one-time USA Discus Champion (1998) and two-time Jesse Owens Award recipient (given by USATF to the most outstanding male track and field performer).

In 2000, Godina became the first American men's track and field athlete since 1924 to make the U.S. Olympic team in both the shot and discus. He also became the first man since Parry O'Brien in 1955 to win both the shot put and discus titles at the U.S. Outdoor Championships. During the 2005 season, Godina posted the top mark in the world in the shot put, 72-10.75.

He took the 2006 season off to recover from shoulder surgery and returned in 2007, posting the No. 6 shot put mark in the U.S. He was ranked fifth in the U.S. in the discus in 2008.

Today, Godina owns and operates the World Throws Center in Phoenix, AZ, a state-of-the-art training center for elite athletes. He also coached Dan Taylor to a spot on the World Championship team in the shot put.

USATF HALL OF FAMERS

In all, eight UCLA men have been inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame - Rafer Johnson (1974, inaugural class), Jim Bush (1987), Dwight Stones (1998), Greg Foster (1998), Willie Banks (1999), Mike Powell (2005), Kevin Young (2006) and Elvin C. "Ducky" Drake (2007).

Former world record-holder in the decathlon Rafer Johnson won the gold medal at the 1960 Olympics in Rome, Italy. At the 1956 Melbourne Olympics, Johnson, competing with an injury, won the silver medal in the decathlon. For the remainder of his career, he would not lose another multi-event competition.

In 1974, he was inducted into the National Track & Field Hall of Fame and, in 1984, was a charter inductee into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. As a Bruin, he won Pac-10 Championships in the 220y low hurdles in 1956 and in the javelin in 1958. Johnson lit the Olympic torch at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. His daughter Jenny was an All-American volleyball player for the Bruins. As a Bruin senior, his son Josh placed second (248-7) in the javelin at the 1998 USA Outdoor. Johnson currently serves as the Chairman for the Board of Directors of the Southern California Special Olympics.

In 2006, Johnson was inducted into the California Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the inaugural class.

During his tenure as UCLA's men's head coach from 1965-1984, Bush led the Bruins to an impressive 20-year dual meet record of 151-21-0 (.879), seven national dual meet titles, seven Pac-10 crowns and five NCAA championship team titles. In 1966, his Bruins recorded UCLA's first ever dual meet victory over USC, winning 86-59 at the Coliseum. From 1968-88, 23 of his athletes competed in the Olympics, winning four gold, five silver and three bronze medals.

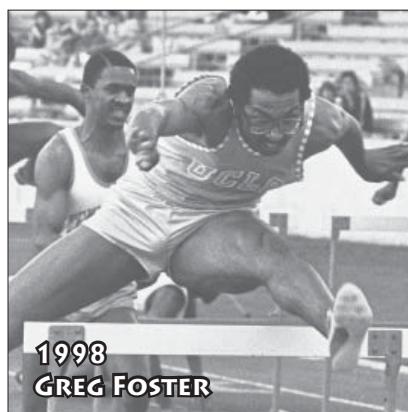

In 1987, Bush was inducted into the National Track & Field Hall of Fame. In December 1996, he was inducted into the U.S. Track Coaches Association Hall of Fame. And, the following year (1997), he was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame.

In the February 2000 issue of Coach & Athletic Director magazine, Bush was listed as one of the 13 most influential collegiate track and field coaches for the 20th century.

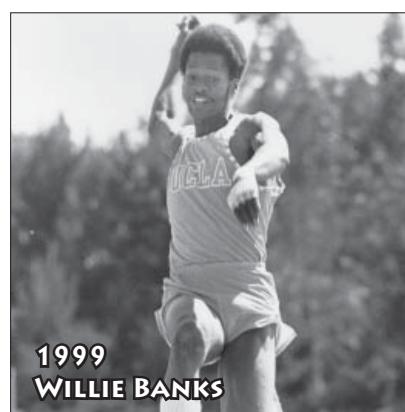

Dwight Stones, a former world record-holder in the high jump, was one of the world's top jumpers from 1973-84. He represented the U.S. in three Olympic Games, winning the bronze in both 1972 and '76 and placing fourth in 1984. An 11-time national champion, Stones, who attended UCLA and Long Beach State, set his first world-record in Munich, Germany in 1973 by clearing 7-6.50. That jump also made him the first "flop" jumper to set a world high jump record. He raised the world record to 7-7 in 1976 and added another quarter inch to the record two months later. He won the Olympic Trials in 1972 and '84. While at UCLA, Stones placed third at the 1972 NCAA Outdoor Championships. He is now one of television's top track and field analysts.

In 2003, Stones was presented a Lifetime Achievement Award by the Los Angeles Track & Field Organizing Committee.

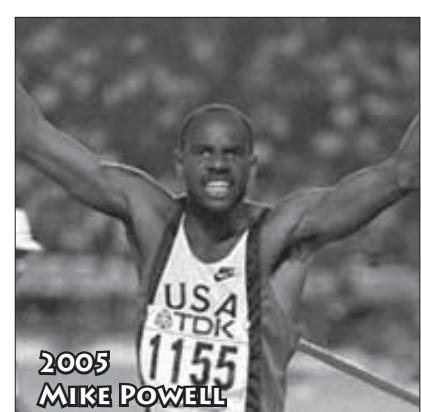

Greg Foster was one of the world's greatest hurdlers from 1981-91. He was a national collegiate champion while at UCLA in both the high hurdles (1978, '80) and 200m (1979), and still leads the All-time Bruin chart in the high hurdles (13.22).

After college, Foster won 10 national titles, both indoor and outdoor, and he won the first three world outdoor championships (1983-87-91). Foster's best Olympic Games showing was a silver in 1984. He was world-ranked for 15 of 16 years from 1977-92, achieving top-five rankings five times. He was world-ranked in the 200m in 1979 and set world indoor hurdles records in 1986 and '87. He was a member of 12 international teams, and was the 1991 world indoor champion and the 1981 World Cup winner.

In his first competition since retiring in 1992, Bruin great Willie Banks set a world triple jump record in the 45-49 age group in June 2001 (47-8.75). In 1999, the former world record-holder in the triple jump, was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame. One of the greatest triple jumpers ever produced by the U.S., Banks had his best moment on June 16, 1985 when he set a world record of 58-11.50 at the USA Outdoor Championships in Indianapolis, IN. That was merely the culmination of a career that started in Oceanside, CA. After graduating from high school, Banks attended UCLA and was twice runner-up in the NCAA Championships (1977-78) and won two Pac-10 titles (1977-78).

After college, he achieved his greatest success, setting his first American record in 1981 and increasing that record six more times. Banks represented the U.S. in 18 international competitions and was a member of the 1980, '84 and 1988 Olympic teams. He was also on the 1983 and '87 U.S. World Championship teams. In 1985, Banks was the Track & Field News' and U.S. Olympic Committee Athlete of the Year. He also served USA Track & Field as chair of the Athletes' Advisory Committee, in addition to serving as an organization vice president.

In 2005, Mike Powell became the 11th Bruin member inducted into the USATF Hall of Fame.

In what many consider the greatest head-to-head competition in track and field history, Mike Powell won the 1991 World Outdoor Championships men's long jump gold medal over fellow Hall of Famer Carl Lewis by setting the world record of 8.95 meters/29 feet, 4.50 inches, in Tokyo, Japan. The mark broke the previous standard set by Bob Beamon in 1968. Powell, who also won the World Outdoor Championships gold medal in 1993, was a two-time Olympic silver medalist and six-time USA Outdoor champion. Ranked #1 in the world on four occasions, he won 34 consecutive competitions in 1993 and 1994.

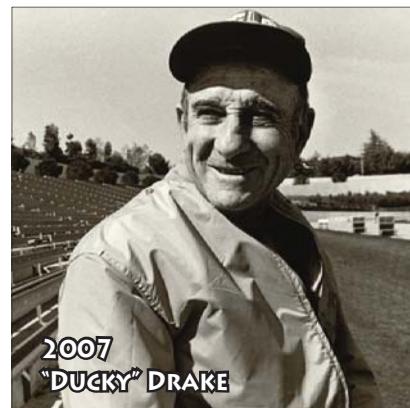

2006
KEVIN YOUNG

Kevin Young was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame in December of 2006. Young had an incredible career highlighted by a gold medal finish in the 400m hurdles at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics where he set a new World Record, 46.78, a time that has yet to be broken. He is the only man in track and field history to run sub-47 seconds. At the 1988 Seoul Olympics, Young finished fourth in the hurdles.

While at UCLA, Young won the 1987 and 1988 NCAA 400m hurdles titles, was the NCAA runner-up in the intermediate hurdles in 1986 and was a member of two 4x400m relay NCAA Championship teams (1987/1988). He was a three-time Pac-10 Champion in the 400m hurdles. Today, his school record (47.72), junior (48.15) and senior (47.72) class records still stand at UCLA.

Young won the USA Track & Field Senior National 400m hurdles title in 1992 and 1993 and was the No. 1 ranked American intermediate hurdler in 1989, 1992 and 1993. For eight straight seasons (1986-1993), Young was ranked in the U.S. top-10 list, as well as in 1996 and 1998. He was the No. 1 world-ranked hurdler in 1989, 1992 and 1993, and was ranked in the top-10 in the world on eight total occasions.

"DUCKY" DRAKE

Elvin "C" Ducky Drake was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame in December of 2007, becoming the 13th Bruin to join the Hall of Fame after a storied career at UCLA.

In 19 seasons under Drake, UCLA had a dual meet record of 107-48-0 (.690) and won one NCAA Championship and one Pac-10 title. Drake was a charter member into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1984 and was inducted into the USA Track & Field Track & Field Hall of Fame.

In 1973, the Bruin track and field complex was officially named "Drake Stadium" in honor of the UCLA coaching legend who had been associated with UCLA as a student-athlete, coach and athletic trainer for over 60 years.

Some of Drake's star athletes include Rafer Johnson, C.K. Yang, George Stanich, Craig Dixon and George Brown.

HALL OF FAMER DUCKY DRAKE

UCLA ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 28th year of its existence and its 11th in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The current Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the east wing of the J.D. Morgan Athletics Center features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into the great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and much more.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November of 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Following is a list of the 247 members, including the eight members who will be inducted during the 2011 football season:

Following is a list of the current members.

Since 1970, UCLA's men have been named the nation's top dual meet team on 11 occasions (more than any other school in the nation). From 2000 to 2003, under Art Venegas, the Bruin men were No. 2 in 2003, No. 4 in 2002, No. 3 in 2001 and No. 7 in 2000.

Since the original rankings were initiated in 1970 by Track & Field News correspondent John Wenos, the UCLA men have never placed lower than seventh. In 1996, the U.S. Track Coaches Association began releasing the official dual meet rankings for men and women.

Below is a list of the top-five dual meet teams during the years UCLA was in the No. 1 spot.

| 1996 | 1987 | 1982 | 1975 | 1973 | 1970 |
|-------------------|---------------|---------------------|------------------|------------|---------------------|
| 1. UCLA | 1. UCLA | 1. UCLA | 1. UCLA | 1. UCLA | 1. UCLA |

UCLA Women Captures National Dual Meet No. 1 Rankings Seven Straight Years (1996-2002)

Since 1979, UCLA has won the national dual meet crown 12 times, including seven straight seasons (2002, 5-0; 2001, 6-0; 2000, 4-0; 1999, 7-0; 1998, 11-0; 1997, 10-0; 1996, 11-0) under Bruin head coach Jeanette Bolden. UCLA's other titles are 2005, 2004, 1994, Bolden's first season as head coach, 1988 and 1981. The ratings were started by Track & Field News and later released by the U.S. Track Coaches Association.

Between 1989 and 2003, UCLA had also been second four times (2003, 1995, '90, '89), third once (1991) and placed sixth in 1993.

In 1966, Jim Bush led the Bruins to their first dual meet victory over archrival USC, winning 86-59 and was hoisted atop the shoulders of his athletes to celebrate the momentous victory.

Under Jim Bush, UCLA won its third (1971-left) and fourth (1972-right) NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. The Bruin men have won a total of eight NCAA outdoor titles.

Tom Bradley, 1917-1998

Tom Bradley, who in 1973 was elected as the first African-American mayor of Los Angeles and would serve an unprecedented five terms as the city's mayor before stepping down in 1993, died on Sept. 29, 1998 of a heart attack at the age of 80. Bradley competed for the Bruin track team from 1938-40.

Bradley was the most prominent political figure in the history of Los Angeles. In 1963 he was the first African-American elected to the City Council; served as mayor for 20 years presiding over a period of enormous growth; twice ran unsuccessfully for governor of California (in 1982, running against Republican George Deukmejian, Bradley came within 52,295 votes of becoming the first African-American to win the top office in any state) and he helped bring the Olympics back to Los Angeles in 1984.

Born to sharecropper parents on Dec. 29, 1917 in Calvert, TX, Bradley's family moved to Los Angeles in 1924. He attended John H. Francis Polytechnic High School, a mostly white campus, where he was the first African-American to be elected president of the Poly Boys' League and the first to be inducted into the Ephebians, a national honor society. Bradley was also captain of the track team and a standout in the quarter-mile, long jump and relays. In 1937 he was the All-Southern California 440y champion. Bradley also made the All-City football squad as a tackle.

After graduation from Poly HS, Bradley earned a track scholarship to attend UCLA. He was a three-year letterman, competing in the 440y, 880y and relays. His best time in the 440y was 48.2, in 1939. One of Bradley's track teammates was Jackie Robinson, who would later break baseball's color barrier. As a Bruin, Bradley was a prominent member of Kappa Alpha Psi UCLA's African-American fraternity.

For his outstanding career achievements in public service and collegiate athletics, Bradley in 1977 was given the NCAA's top honor, The Theodore Roosevelt Award.

The inscription on the Roosevelt Award describes Bradley's many and life-long contributions to the nation, the City of Los Angeles and to UCLA—The Teddy Award annually is presented to a prominent American "for whom competitive athletics in college and attention to physical well-being thereafter have been important factors in a distinguished career of national significance and achievement."
