UCLA MEN'S WATER POLO

Bob Horn

A name synonymous with UCLA water polo for 28 years is Bob Horn, who retired as the Bruin head coach following the 1990 season after leading his squad to a third-place NCAA finish and a record of 24-8. In his prolific career, he guided the Bruins to three NCAA titles, four runner-up awards and seven third-place finishes. UCLA won 13 league titles with Horn, and his 1988 team captured the Club National Championship, marking the first time a team made up entirely of collegians won the Club National Title.

Horn tutored 36 first-team All-Americans and nine Olympians. He guided the Bruins to 50 straight victories over five years and coached four undefeated squads. He retired with an overall record of 487-188-8 and a league record of 102-62. Selected as the 1965 water polo Coach of the Year, he also doubled as the UCLA swim coach from 1963-74. In 1976 he was inducted into the United States Water Polo Hall of Fame.

Guy Baker

Guy Baker, who led UCLA's men's and women's water polo programs to seven national championships in a ten-year span, left the Bruin program January 9, 2001 to become the full-time head coach of the U.S. Women's National Water Polo team.

Baker established UCLA as the dominant program of the nineties with four NCAA men's titles (1995-96, 1999, 2000) and three national collegiate women's titles (1996-98). He was named National Coach of the Year four times (1995-96 men, 1997-98 women) and coached the Women's National team at the Sydney Olympics. In the summer of 2003, he led the Women's National Team to a World Championship gold medal in Barcelona, Spain, and in January 2005 he accepted the position of Head Coach of the U.S. Men's National Team. Baker's combined record at UCLA was 265-97 overall and 64-28 in league games.

Three of Baker's athletes were named National Player of the Year twice each – Coralie Simmons, Sean Kern, and Matt Swanson. In all, Bruin athletes captured All-America honors 52 times, and eight players competed in the Olympics under Baker.

Dr. James Puffer Loyalty and Contribution Award

Dr. James Puffer played an integral role in the success of the men's water polo program and UCLA Athletics as a whole. Puffer was a three-year water polo letterwinner (1969-71) and member of two national championship teams ('69 and '71). He also attended UCLA Medical School and earned his doctorate in 1976. Puffer attained a family practice residency at UCLA Medical Center upon his graduation. He was named Chief of the Division of Family Medicine in 1983 and helped to make the discipline a department in 1997 of which he chaired until 1998.

Dr. Puffer was also an instrumental figure within the UCLA Athletic Department serving as a team physician and the Chief of Sports Medicine until his departure in 2001. He was an Olympic team physician during the 1988 Summer Games in Seoul, Korea. In 1991, Dr. Puffer was instrumental in raising funds to endow the men's water polo program when its existence was at risk. He served as a mentor to UCLA athletes and coaches alike.

In December of 2001, Dr. Puffer left UCLA to assume the position of Executive Director of the American Board of Family Practice in Lexington, Kentucky. Although he will be greatly missed, Puffer stated that he could not pass up "the opportunity to provide effective and dynamic leadership to my discipline."

It was in honor of his leadership and devotion to UCLA that the Dr. James Puffer Loyalty and Contribution Team Award was created in 2001.
