

History and Records

Bob Horn

A name synonymous with UCLA water polo for 28 years is Bob Horn, who retired as the Bruin head coach following the 1990 season after leading his squad to a third-place NCAA finish and a record of 24-8. In his prolific career he guided the Bruins to three NCAA titles, four runner-up awards and seven third-place finishes. UCLA won 13 league titles with Horn and his 1988 team captured the Club National Championship, marking the first time a team made up entirely of collegians won the Club National title.

Horn tutored 36 first-team All-Americans and nine Olympians. He guided the Bruins to 50 straight victories over five years and coached four undefeated squads. He retired with an overall record of 487-188-8 and a league record of 102-62. Selected as the 1965 water polo Coach of the Year, he also doubled as the UCLA swim coach from 1963-74. In 1976 he was inducted into the United States Water Polo Hall of Fame.

Guy Baker

Guy Baker, who led UCLA's men's and women's water polo programs to seven national championships in a ten-year span, left the Bruin program January 9, 2001 to become the full-time head coach of the U.S. Women's National Water Polo team.

Baker established UCLA as the dominant program of the nineties with four NCAA men's titles (1995-96, 1999, 2000) and three national collegiate women's titles (1996-98). He was named National Coach of the Year four times (1995-96 men, 1997-98 women) and coached the Women's National team at the Sydney Olympics. In the summer of 2003, he led the Women's National Team to a World Championship gold medal in Barcelona, Spain, and in January 2005 he accepted the position of Head Coach of the U.S. Men's National Team. Baker's combined record at UCLA was 265-97 overall and 64-28 in league games.

Three of Baker's athletes were named National Player of the Year twice each - Coralie Simmons, Sean Kern, and Matt Swanson. In all, Bruin athletes were named All-America 52 times and eight competed in the Olympics under Baker.

The Dr. James Puffer Loyalty and Contribution Award

The Dr. James Puffer Award (right) is on display in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame, along with the Jack Bariteau Most Inspirational Award (left).

Dr. James Puffer played an integral role in the success of the men's water polo program and UCLA Athletics as a whole. Puffer was a three-year water polo letterwinner (1969-71) and member of two national championship teams ('69 and '71). He also attended UCLA Medical School and earned his doctorate in 1976. Puffer attained a family practice residency at UCLA Medical Center upon his graduation. He was named Chief of the Division of Family Medicine in 1983 and helped to make the discipline a department in 1997 of which he chaired until 1998.

Dr. Puffer was also an instrumental figure within the UCLA Athletic Department serving as a team physician and the Chief of Sports Medicine until his departure in 2001. He was an Olympic team physician during the 1988 Summer Games in Seoul, Korea. In 1991, Dr. Puffer was instrumental in raising funds to endow the men's water polo program when its existence was at risk. He served as a mentor to UCLA athletes and coaches alike.

In December of 2001, Dr. Puffer left UCLA to assume the position of Executive Director of the American Board of Family Practice in Lexington, Kentucky. Although he will be greatly missed, Puffer stated that he could not pass up "the opportunity to provide effective and dynamic leadership to my discipline."

It was in honor of his leadership and devotion to UCLA that the Dr. James Puffer Loyalty and Contribution Team Award was created in 2001.

Dr. Albert Carnesale

Chancellor
9th Year

Albert Carnesale became Chancellor of the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) on July 1, 1997. As chief executive officer, he leads an institution comprising more than 37,500 students and more than 27,000 faculty and staff; is responsible for all aspects of the University's mission of education, research, and service; manages an enterprise with an annual budget of more than $3 billion; and serves as principal spokesman for the university community.

Under Chancellor Carnesale's leadership, UCLA has continued to garner recognition and accolades for excellence across the full span of its enterprise. The Chancellor strongly supports the crossing of academic boundaries, an area in which UCLA has a distinct comparative advantage, given its broad range of disciplines on a single campus.

UCLA's research program has thrived during Chancellor Carnesale's tenure. In 2003-04, UCLA spent almost $750 million in competitively-awarded, extramural contracts and grants — one of the highest levels of research funding among all universities in the United States.

Prior to assuming the chancellorship of UCLA in 1997, Mr. Carnesale was at Harvard University for 23 years, serving as Provost of the University from 1994 to 1997. He held the Lucius N. Littauer Professorship of Public Policy and Administration at Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government, where he served as Academic Dean (1981-91), and Dean (1991-95). His earlier career included positions in the private sector and in government.

Mr. Carnesale has represented the United States Government in high-level negotiations on defense and energy issues (including the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, SALT I, with the Soviet Union), and has consulted regularly for several government agencies and companies. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in mechanical engineering and a Ph.D. in nuclear engineering, has been awarded three honorary doctoral degrees, and is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director
[UCLA '74]

On April 25, 2002, UCLA Chancellor Albert Carnesale announced that Daniel G. Guerrero had been named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has rapidly placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. Hailed as one of the nation's leading athletic directors, his first three years in this position have resulted in unprecedented success for the Bruins' broad-based athletic program. Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA Team Championships (97) won, a number that continues to grow.

During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have won 11 NCAA national championships, finished second eight times and have had an additional nine Top Five finishes. A staggering 55 teams (of 69 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in three bowl games. The program has also won 21 conference championships, produced 178 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, 57 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and 13 other countries. They earned 19 medals, including eight gold medals.

UCLA has finished third (2004-05), third (2003-04) and sixth (2002-03) in the race for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director's Cup.

Guerrero, 52, received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna (22) and Katie (18).

Ken Weiner

Senior Associate Athletic Dir.
[UCLA '78]

Ken Weiner enters his 12th year as Associate Athletic Director-Business Operations at UCLA and his 25th year overall with the university. His duties include the administration and supervision of six Bruin sport programs, including Baseball, Women's Soccer and Men's Soccer, Women's Swimming and Diving, Women's Water Polo and Men's Water Polo. Weiner is the chairman of the NCAA Men's Water Polo Committee. He also oversees new business and project development and capital improvements for the department. In addition, he supervises the athletic facilities division, the operations of UCLA's sports practice and competition venues, game and event operations, department and team travel and UCLA Camps and Clinics.

Weiner is responsible for several major capital improvements for Athletics, including the renovated J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center, the new Hall of Fame, the Jackie Robinson baseball and Easton softball clubhouse construction and renovations, the Drake Track/Marshall Field renovation, Pauley Pavilion interior upgrades and the North soccer field construction. Current projects underway include the renovation of the Acosta Student Athlete Training Center and the construction of the new KNAPP Football Center. Planning for future improvements include a new aquatics center and a renovation of the football practice facility. He participates on a number of campus steering committees on behalf of Athletics including the Campus Facilities Coordination, Campus Project Review and the Alumni Advisory Board. Weiner is a member of NACDA and IAAM.

Prior to his appointment at UCLA Athletics, Weiner co-founded and served as Associate Director of the UCLA Central Ticket Office and continues to serve as the liaison between the Athletic Department and the CTO. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from UCLA in 1978 majoring in Psychology. He graduated with honors and was bestowed a Chancellor's Marshall award for service to the university. He and his wife Caren have two children, Nicole, 20, and Kevin, 17.
