

NO. 10 LOYOLA MARYMOUNT DEFEATS NO. 16 PRINCETON, 9-1

LMU rolls to victory with a strong defensive effort and 15 saves by goalie Andy Stevens

LOS ANGELES – The No. 10 Loyola Marymount men's water polo team won a second-round consolation match at the SoCal Tournament with a 9-1 non-conference win over No. 16 Princeton at Spieker Aquatics Center on Saturday afternoon. Loyola Marymount (7-6) was led by senior Tibor Forai, junior Edgaras Asajavicius and junior Albert Samuels, who each scored two goals for the Lions. Senior goalie Andy Stevens had a tournament-high 15 saves for LMU. Princeton (8-4) received one goal from sophomore Tim Wenzlau. Senior Mike Merlone registered eight stops in the cage for the Tigers.

Loyola Marymount 9, Princeton 1

Team	1	2	3	4	F
No. 16 Princeton	0	1	0	0	1
No. 10 LMU	2	2	1	4	9

Princeton Goals: Tim Wenzlau

Princeton Saves: Mike Merlone 8

LMU Goals: Tibor Forai 2, Edgaras Asajavicius 2, Albert Samuels 2, Charlie Horton, Aki Ikaika, Robert Pusic

LMU Saves: Andy Stevens 15