

NO. 17 CONCORDIA DEFEATS REDLANDS, 17-11

The Eagles scored the first three goals of the match and led 10-7 at the break to earn the win

LOS ANGELES – The No. 17 Concordia men's water polo team won a third-round consolation bracket match at the SoCal Tournament with a 17-11 non-conference win over Redlands at Spieker Aquatics Center on Sunday morning. Junior Duje Grubisic led the Eagles with six goals, including two penalty scores in the first and third periods. Sophomore goalie Martin Babovic registered three saves in goal for Concordia (3-5). Junior Andrew Smith-Jones added five more goals (two on the power play) to lead Redlands (5-10). Sophomore goalkeeper Jessie Gunther recorded five stops in the cage for the Bulldogs.

Redlands 11, Concordia 17

Team	1	2	3	4	F
Redlands	4	3	1	3	11
No. 17 Concordia	5	5	4	3	17

Redlands Goals: Andrew Smith-Jones 5, Brendan Meaney 3, Ben Ballard, Zac Chierici, Tucker Creevy

Redlands Saves: Jessie Gunther 5

Concordia Goals: Duje Grubisic 6, Milos Skaljic 4, Alex Donovan 2, Brad Fuller 2, Caleb Hamilton 2, Parker Simmons

Concordia Saves: Martin Babovic 3