

NO. 3 CALIFORNIA DOWNS NO. 7 PACIFIC, 15-3

The Bears scored the first nine goals of the match to earn the win

LOS ANGELES – The No. 3 California men's water polo team won a third-round consolation bracket match at the SoCal Tournament with a 15-3 conference win over Pacific at Spieker Aquatics Center on Sunday morning. Junior Luka Saponjic led the Bears with four goals, including two power play scores in the first and fourth periods. Sophomore goalie Justin Parsons registered seven saves in goal for California (9-2). Junior Tom Konig added two more goals to lead Pacific (7-4). Freshman goalkeeper Alex Malkis had three saves in the first period and junior Joey Frantz recorded four stops in the final three quarters for the Tigers.

Pacific 3, California 15

Team	1	2	3	4	F
No. 7 Pacific	0	0	1	2	3
No. 3 California	4	2	5	4	15

Pacific Goals: Tom Konig 2, Jason Wensley

Pacific Saves: Joey Frantz 4, Alex Malkis 3

California Goals: Luka Saponjic 4, Collin Smith 2, Ivan Rackov 2, Zach Greenwood 2, Charlie Steffens, Giacomo Cupido, Zach White, Cory Nasoff, Brian Dudley

California Saves: Justin Parsons 7