

NO. 7 PACIFIC DEFEATS NO. 10 LOYOLA MARYMOUNT, 10-6

The Tigers scored the first three goals of the match and led 6-2 at the break to earn the win

LOS ANGELES – The No. 7 Pacific men's water polo team opened the SoCal Tournament with a 10-6 non-conference win over No. 10 Loyola Marymount at Spieker Aquatics Center on Saturday morning. Junior Tom Koning and freshman Balazs Erdelyi each scored two goals to lead Pacific (7-2). Freshman goalkeeper Alex Malkis recorded eight stops in the cage for the Tigers. Loyola Marymount (6-6) was led by senior Tibor Forai and junior Edgaras Asajavicius, who each scored two goals for the Lions. Senior goalie Andy Stevens had seven saves for LMU.

Pacific 10, Loyola Marymount 6

Team	1	2	3	4	F
No. 10 LMU	1	1	2	2	6
No. 7 Pacific	3	3	3	1	10

LMU Goals: Tibor Forai 2, Edgaras Asajavicius 2, Daniel Smith, Zach Mix

LMU Saves: Andy Stevens 7

Pacific Goals: Tom Koning 2, Balazs Erdelyi 2, Goran Tomasevic, Joey Gullikson, Lance Morrison, Balazs Szabo, Tyler Reardon, Daniel Lungu

Pacific Saves: Alex Malkis 8