

NOTES FROM THE 2004-2005 SEASON

NOT QUITE ENOUGH

UCLA posted huge non-conference wins over then #4-ranked Texas and #14-ranked Purdue on their way to a 6-1 start, the best beginning to a Bruin season since the 1980-81 team won its first 12 games. The Bruins opened the conference season in similar fashion by winning their first five games, but were hard-pressed to maintain that pace down the stretch after Noelle Quinn suffered a season-ending knee injury during the first half of the home game against Arizona on Jan. 16. The team took an 11-4 record into that Sunday afternoon game against Arizona. The Bruins lost that contest and went 5-7 the rest of the way to end up 16-12 on the year and 10-8 in the conference, good for sixth place. Included in the seven defeats were a three-point loss at Arizona, a three-point loss at USC and a two-point loss to Arizona State in the Pac-10 Tournament. Nikki Blue (+10.2 points per game), Lisa Willis (+3.2) and Amanda Livingston (+3.2) each picked up the slack for the missing Quinn, but it was not enough to propel the Bruins to a second-straight NCAA Tournament bid.

THE TRIPLE THREAT

The Bruin triple threat of Lisa Willis, Nikki Blue and Noelle Quinn combined to average 50.2 points, 19.0 rebounds, 10.3 steals and 11.9 assists per game in 2004-05. Blue and Willis each finished among the top 10 in the Pac-10 in scoring (No. 4 Blue and No. 5 Willis) and three-point shooting percentage (No. 5 Willis and No. 9 Blue). The twosome ranked one-two in the conference in steals (No. 1 Willis, No. 2 Blue). In addition, Blue ranked No. 2 in the conference in assists and Willis ranked fifth in the Pac-10 in rebounding. Noelle Quinn's marks of 16.9 points, 3.25 steals and 7.7 rebounds would have put her on pace to rank amongst the top ten in each of those categories should she have played in enough games to qualify.

CHARTING THE BRUINS

Blue's 162 assists ranked second on the all-time junior class list and seventh on the all-time school list. Her 91 steals were the second-highest total ever by a Bruin junior and the seventh-best (tied) total in school history. Her steals average of 3.37 per game ranked 12th in the nation. Her total of 458 points was the 10th-most ever by a UCLA junior. Her three-year scoring average of 16.2 ppg currently ranks as the seventh-best total ever at UCLA.

Willis' 102 steals were the most ever by a Bruin junior and the third-highest total in school history, and her 3.64 steals per game average ranked sixth in the nation. Her 70 made three-point shots tied her own school record in that category, and her 194 three-point shot attempts last season were the most in school history. Willis' 186 career made three-pointers are the most in school history. Her career total of 517 three-point shot attempts are also the most in school history, and her three-year, three-point shooting percentage of .360 is the fifth-best all-time at UCLA.

Forward Amanda Livingston's 20 blocked shots ranked as the eighth-most ever by a Bruin sophomore. Forward Lindsey Pluimer's 17 blocked shots ranked ninth on the school single-season freshman list. Her total of 180 rebounds ranked ninth on that freshman list.

The team set a school season record with a .717 free throw percentage mark and also converted 148 three-point shots, which is the second-highest total in school history. The team three-point shooting percentage of .340 ranked as the fifth-best in school history. The steals average of 11.96 ranked 11th in the nation. UCLA's scoring average of 72.0 points per game ranked 18th in the nation. The opponent scoring average of 68.0 was the ninth-lowest in school history. The opponent shooting percentage of .400 was the fifth-lowest in school history.

Lindsey Pluimer

PLAYER HONORS

Nikki Blue was selected to the AP honorable mention All-America team and to the Region 8 Kodak / WBCA All-America team. Blue was also selected to the first team all-conference squad by the vote of the coaches for the third straight year. She is just the seventh Bruin to earn multiple first-team All-Pac-10 honors — Maylana Martin (four times), Rehema Stephens and Natalie Williams (three times), Dora Dome and Erica Gomez (twice). Lisa Willis also earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors, and Noelle Quinn was named to the honorable mention squad. Lindsey Pluimer was selected to the first-team All-Conference Freshman team.

CONFERENCE RANKINGS

The Bruin team led the Pac-10 in steals per game (11.89) and turnover margin (+5.36).

Willis led the Pac-10 in steals with a 3.64 average. She ranked fifth in both scoring (16.3) and rebounding (6.9) and seventh in three-point shooting percentage (.361).

Blue ranked second in steals (3.37), fourth in scoring (17.0) and second in assists (6.0).

Lindsey Pluimer ranked sixth in the conference in rebounding (6.4). Amanda Livingston ranked ninth in the league in field goal percentage (.461).

BRUINS DOWN UNDER

UCLA took a summer trip to Australia from June 22-July 2, playing four games in Sydney and Cairns, in between visiting Australia's famous landmarks and landscapes.

The Bruins posted a 3-1 record on the tour, defeating the Australian Junior National Team in overtime, along with club teams from Sutherland and Bankstown. Lisa Willis led UCLA in scoring in the four games, averaging 22.5 points per game and scoring a team-high 34 points in the win over the Junior National Team. Noelle Quinn returned to action after a January injury and averaged 20.5 points on the tour.

It was UCLA's second trip overseas in the last seven years; the Bruins traveled to France in the summer of 1998.

The Bruins' first stop was a scenic view of the Sydney Opera House and the Harbour Bridge.

Ortal Oren, Shaina Zaidi, Amanda Livingston and Noelle Quinn braved Bondi Beach in the winter.

Assistant coach Maylana Martin and trainer Jenny Nickerson scaled new heights.

The Bruins pose at the steps of the Sydney Opera House.

The Bruins as a team climbed to the top of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

"The Harbour Bridge climb was super cool because we were a team about the situation. We were all hooked together by the railings, and that showed how we are one big team. If one person isn't in it, then we can't move forward. If one person stops, the rest of us can't move forward. That was really cool to see that we need every last person on the team."

GAME 4 — Nov. 28, 2004 PAULEY PAVILION

The Bruins rallied from a 17-point first half deficit to defeat No. 4-ranked Texas. UCLA, which missed 15 of its first 16 shots, trailed 31-14 at 2:33 of the first half. Texas led 33-25 at half, but the Bruins tied it at 43-all with 9:53 to play. Neither team led by more than four the rest of the way. A basket by Noelle Quinn with 13 seconds left made it 61-60 Bruins. After Texas missed two free throws with six seconds to play, Quinn grabbed the rebound and was fouled. She hit both free throws.

GAME 6 — Dec. 5, 2004 PAULEY PAVILION

The Bruins used Noelle Quinn's fifth-straight 20-point outing to help best No. 14 Purdue. After the Bruins built up a 50-38 advantage with 10:59 to play, the Boilers rallied to knot the score at 57-all at the 3:28 mark. UCLA still led 63-62 with 1:07 to play when Quinn hit a jumper for a three-point lead and then made a steal and hit one of two free throws to make the score 66-62 with 0:27 remaining. After Purdue misfired on a three-pointer, Lisa Willis made a pair of free throws with 15 seconds on the clock, and Lindsey Pluimer made two more with eight seconds left to seal the win.

GAME 15 — JAN. 15, 2005 PAULEY PAVILION

Nikki Blue's last-second shot in the lane did not fall and ASU snapped the Bruins' 10-game homecourt winning streak. UCLA rallied from an 11-point second half deficit to tie the contest at 35. ASU built the lead back up to 42-37 with 1:59 to play before Lisa Willis connected on a three-point shot. ASU hit two free throws with 33 seconds to play to make it a four-point game. Blue scored with 21 seconds remaining to narrow the gap to two. After ASU missed two free throws with nine seconds left, Blue worked her way the length of the court for the game-tying shot attempt.

GAME 16 — JAN. 16, 2005 PAULEY PAVILION

Lisa Willis' 24 points were not enough as the Bruins dropped a 84-73 decision to Arizona. The Wildcats broke open a close game with a 20-4 run early in the second half. The Bruins cut the lead to seven in the last three minutes of the second half, but Arizona free throws held off the rally. Noelle Quinn was injured late in the first half after making contact with Jessica Arnold while attempting to make a shot in the lane.

GAME 23 — FEB. 10, 2005 TUCSON, AZ

Nikki Blue's last-second shot from just inside the half court line bounced off the rim, and Arizona came away with a 76-73 win. Lisa Willis' three-point shot with 11 seconds to play had tied the game at 73-all. Willis, who became the 21st Bruin to score at least 1,000 points in her career during the first half of the game, was then whistled for a foul with five seconds to play. Arizona made the first free throw and missed the second but managed to get the rebound and was fouled again with two seconds to play. After Arizona hit both free throws, Blue took the inbounds pass and just missed at the buzzer.

GAME 27 — FEB. 26, 2005 SPORTS ARENA

UCLA missed critical free throws down the stretch and dropped an 80-77 decision at the Sports Arena. With the Bruins down by three points, Lisa Willis was fouled on a three-point shot attempt with 12 seconds to play. She made her second and third attempts, but missed on her first shot. After a Bruin foul, USC made one of two shots to go back up by two points with 10 seconds to play. Nikki Blue was then fouled and went to the line for two shots with five seconds to play. She made the first but missed the second attempt, and the Bruins were forced to foul, down by a point. USC connected on both free throw attempts with four seconds to play. Blue's last-second shot to tie the game failed to drop.
