1999 - PAC-10 CHAMPIONS, ELITE EIGHT PARTICIPANTS

Led by Pac-10 Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Maylana Martin, the Bruins captured their first Pac-10 conference championship in 1999. UCLA posted a 15-3 conference record, the most Pac-10 wins in its history. Its 26-8 overall record included the most wins by a Bruin team since the 1981 squad went 29-7. Coach Kathy Olivier's unit went on to advance further in the NCAA tournament, with a trip to the Elite Eight, than any other Bruin team in history. It marked UCLA's sixth overall tournament appearance and first-ever back-to-back appearances. In addition, the #3 seeding into the tournament was a school-best.

The team set a school and Pac-10 record for steals in a season with 435 and for best field goal percentage in a game with a .695 mark (41-59 fg) at Washington State on February 25. The overall team shooting percentage for the season of .476 (ninth-best in the nation) was the best by a Bruin team since 1983-84 (.491). Opponents were held to .400 shooting in the 1999 season, which was the lowest mark since the 1978 UCLA team limited opponents to .395. The scoring average of 85.2 points per contest ranked fifth-best in the nation.

The attendance of 9,530 fans which gathered to witness the USC game on January 23 was the largest ever to see a women's game in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, surpassing the total of 9,351 which were on hand for the 1978 AIAW National Championship game vs. Maryland. The team's final ranking of No. 7 in the USA Today coaches poll marked UCLA's highest finish ever in that poll and the best finish in either poll since a No. 7 ranking in the Associated Press listings in 1981.

Head coach Kathy Olivier celebrates on the bench as the Bruins advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Martin, who was a finalist for the Naismith Award presented to the nation's outstanding player, led the conference in scoring with an 18.2 mark and ranked as the second-leading rebounder at 9.4 cars per contest. Martin exploded for a career-best 38 points (seventh-highest total in school history) in a win at USC in which she connected on 13-19 shots from the field and 12-14 free throws. The junior also grabbed a career-best matching 18 rebounds in that game.

UCLA's biggest surprise during the season was the play of sophomore guard LaCresha Flannigan who earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as well. She was the second-leading scorer on the team behind Martin with a 14.1 mark and managed to do most of her damage in the conference where she averaged 17.2 points per game.

The Bruins' third first-team All-Pac-10 selection was point guard Erica Gomez, who broke Ann Meyers' (544) school record for career assists. Gomez set the record against Arizona State on March 4 and finished her junior season with 573 assists. She also established a school record for assists in a single-game with 16 in the game at Arizona State on January 5. Gomez' season assist average of 6.67 edged Mary Hegarty's old school record of 6.66 for best single-season average.

Two other starters averaged in double figures for the Bruins in the championship season. Junior center Janae Hubbard, an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection, averaged 12.5 points per game and ranked fourth in the conference in rebounding with a 7.9 mark. During the year, Hubbard pulled down 22 rebounds in a game vs. Arizona on March 6, the fourth-highest single-game total in school history. Earlier in the year, she had scored a career-best 29 points against UConn. Junior forward Marie Philman scored 11.1 points per game and grabbed five boards. She set or tied her career high in points in four games during the season, including a best of 24 vs. Washington on January 28.

The Bruin bench was a big reason for the success of this team, and three players were the primary contributors. 6-0 junior Melanie Pearson appeared in all 34 games and averaged 8.5 points while leading the team with 40 three-point goals. 6-4 junior Carly Funicello provided valuable assistance on the inside. She averaged 5.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game and saw action in 31 contests. Freshman guard Michelle Greco was the third key member of the team, providing a lift off the bench. Greco, who was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team and to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team, scored at a 7.8 points per game clip and handed out 94 assists in 34 games.
