1999 - Pac-10 Champions, Elite Eight Participants

The Bruins captured their first Pac-10 Conference championship in 1999. UCLA posted a 15-3 conference record, the most Pac-10 wins in its history. Its 26-8 overall record included the most wins by a Bruin team since the 1981 squad went 29-7. Coach Kathy Olivier's unit went on to advance further in the NCAA tournament, with a trip to the Elite Eight, than any other Bruin team in history. It marked UCLA's sixth overall tournament appearance and first-ever back-to-back appearances. In addition, the #3 seeding into the tournament was a school-best.

UCLA's run to the Elite Eight began in Pauley Pavilion, as the Bruins hosted Wisconsin-Green Bay for a first-round matchup. Four Bruin players scored in double-figures to lead UCLA to a 76-69 victory, setting up a second-round matchup with Kentucky. Pac-10 Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Maylana Martin led all players with 21 points, 15 coming from the free throw line, and Marie Philman posted a double-double with 16 points and 10 boards in the 87-63 win over the Wildcats.

UCLA continued its playoff run with a West Regional contest against seventh-ranked Colorado State at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. The Bruins' hopes suffered an early setback when point guard Erica Gomez sprained her ankle in the game's first minute, but freshman Michelle Greco stepped in and helped keep the team on course to a 26-25 lead at the half. It was a tight game throughout, and the Bruins led by one point, 67-66, with 2:12 to play when LaCresha Flannigan made five of six free throws down the stretch to put the game away. UCLA advanced to its first-ever Elite Eight with a 77-68 decision and a date with third-ranked Louisiana Tech.

The Bruins played some of their best basketball of the year in jumping out to a 28-18 lead at the 7:23 mark of the first half in the Regional championship battle. However, the Lady Techsters scored the next 11 points in the game and led 35-32 at the break. The Bruins regained the lead at 38-37, but it would be their last of the contest as Tech rolled to a 88-62 win. Martin led four Bruins in double digits with 16 points.

The team set a school and Pac-10 record for steals in a season with 435 and for best field goal percentage in a game with a .695 mark (41-59 fg) at Washington State on February 25. The overall team shooting percentage for the season of .476 (ninth-best in the nation) was the best by a Bruin team since 1983-84 (.491). Opponents were held to .400 shooting in the 1999 season, which was the lowest mark since the 1978 UCLA team limited opponents to .395. The scoring average of 85.2 points per contest ranked fifth-best in the nation.

The attendance of 9,530 fans which gathered to witness the USC game on January 23 was the largest ever to see a women's game in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, surpassing the total of 9,351 which were on hand for the 1978 AIAW National Championship game vs. Maryland. The team's final ranking of No. 7 in the USA Today coaches poll marked UCLA's highest finish ever in that poll and the best finish in either poll since a No. 7 ranking in the Associated Press listings in 1981.

Martin, led the conference in scoring with an 18.2 mark and ranked as the second-leading rebounder at 9.4 caroms per contest. Martin, who was a finalist for the Naismith Award presented to the nation's outstanding player, exploded for a career-best 38 points (seventh-highest total in school history) in a win at USC in which she connected on 13-19 shots from the field and 12-14 free throws. The junior also grabbed a career-best matching 18 rebounds in that game.

UCLA's biggest surprise during the season was the play of sophomore guard Flannigan, who earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as well. She was the second-leading scorer on the team behind Martin with a 14.1 mark and managed to do most of her damage in the conference, where she averaged 17.2 points per game.

The Bruins' third first-team All-Pac-10 selection was Gomez, who broke Ann Meyers' (544) school record for career assists. Gomez set the record at home against Arizona State on March 4 and finished her junior season with 573 assists. She also established a school record for assists in a single-game with 16 in the game at Arizona State on January 5. Gomez' season assist average of 6.67 edged Mary Hegarty's old school record of 6.66 for best single-season mark.

Two other starters averaged in double figures for the Bruins in the championship season. Junior center Janae Hubbard, an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection, averaged 12.5 points per game and ranked fourth in the conference in rebounding with a 7.9 mark. During the year, Hubbard pulled down 22 rebounds in a game vs. Arizona on March 6, the fourth-highest single-game total in school history. Earlier in the year, she had scored a career-best 29 points against UConn. Philman scored 11.1 points per game and grabbed five boards. She set or tied her career high in points in four games during the season, including a best of 24 vs. Washington on January 28.

The Bruin bench was a big reason for the success of this team, and three players were the primary contributors. Junior Melanie Pearson appeared in all 34 games and averaged 8.5 points while leading the team with 40 three-point goals. Junior Carly Funicello provided valuable assistance on the inside. She averaged 5.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game and saw action in 31 contests. Greco was the third key member of the team, providing a lift off the bench. Greco, who was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team and to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team, scored at a 7.8 points per game clip and handed out 94 assists in 34 games.

Maylana Martin cuts down the nets at Pauley Pavilion after the Bruins clinched their first-ever Pac-10 title in 1999.

2006 Pac-10 Tournament Champions

Led by the Triple Threat of Nikki Blue, Noelle Quinn and Lisa Willis, the Bruins entered the 2006 State Farm Pac-10 Tournament as the third seeded team and proceeded to knock off California (#6 seed), Arizona State (#2) and Stanford (#1) on consecutive days in the HP Pavilion in San Jose, CA to win the school's first-ever conference tournament championship.

Willis was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament after averaging 20.3 points per game over the three days. Blue, who set a tournament record with 11 assists in the win over Cal, was named to the All-Tournament team for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first Pac-10 player to accomplish this feat. Quinn, who led the Bruins with 22 points in the championship win over Stanford, was also selected to the All-Tournament Team.

As the No. 3 seed in the tournament, the Bruins had a first-round bye and then faced No. 6 California in the second round. The Bruin defense was swarming, setting a Pac-10 Tournament record with 20 steals in the game and forcing a total of 23 California turnovers in a 80-63 victory. Offensively, four Bruins were in double-figure scoring, with double-doubles from Noelle Quinn (18 points/10 rebounds) and Nikki Blue (14 points/Pac-10 Tournament record 11 assists). Lisa Willis was one steal shy of Blue's Tournament steals record, finishing with seven, and also had 14 points. Chinyere Ibe-kwe added 10 and Oritan Oren scored eight off the Bruin bench which contributed a total of 21 points for the game.

Cal led early in the game, but UCLA went on an 8-0 run to take an 11-5 lead that it never relinquished. The Golden Bears used a 6-0 second-half run to close to within eight, 50-42, with 13:05 on the clock, but Willis stopped Cal's momentum by burying a three-pointer. Willis' three jump-started a 17-4 Bruin run that gave UCLA a 67-46 lead and put the game away. UCLA went on to lead by as many as 22 points, 75-53.

In the semifinals, UCLA matched up against No. 2 seed Arizona State and got a huge second-half surge from Willis to come away with a 60-59 victory that not only sent the Bruins to the title game but gave head coach Kathy Olivier her 200th career victory. UCLA got off to a slow start in the game and trailed, 28-19, at the half. The second half saw seven ties and 11 lead changes, the last coming when Quinn made two free throws with 28.9 seconds remaining. UCLA forced a turnover in the final seconds to secure the win, but it was Willis' 20 second-half points that put the Bruins in position for the win. Willis finished with 27 points, five three-point shots, two blocks and six steals. Quinn contributed another double-double with 16 points, 10 rebounds, three steals, two assists and two blocks for the Bruins, who snapped ASU's school-record 10-game winning streak. The Bruin defense came through again, forcing 26 Sun Devil turnovers, 17 via steals.

With UCLA in the Championship game for the first time in the Tournament's history, only No. 1 seed and three-time defending champion Stanford stood in the way of the Tournament crown. The two teams had split the regular season series, with each winning at home. UCLA trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half of the game and by seven points, 70-63, with 1:29 to play but refused to give up. The Bruins scored the final seven points in regulation time with a basket by Quinn with five seconds to play knotting the score at 70. A three-point shot by Lindsey Pluimer pushed the Bruins into a 73-72 lead in overtime they would not give up. Two big free throws by Ibe-kwe with 28 seconds to play in overtime gave UCLA an 80-76 advantage. UCLA hits five of six free throws down the stretch while holding Stanford without a basket to earn its first conference tournament championship. Quinn finished with 22 points and eight rebounds. Willis added 20 points, four assists and six steals. Pluimer contributed 16, and Blue had 14 points, eight assists and six steals.

The Bruins set many tournament records - Quinn with 23 field goals; Willis with 11 made three-point shots, 19 steals and a 6.3 steals average; Blue with 11 assists in the Cal game and an assist average of 8.3. UCLA also set a tournament record with 20 steals in the game against California, and their total of 52 for the three games in the tournament were a record.

With the NCAA automatic bid in hand, the Bruins traveled to Purdue for the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round against 23rd-ranked Bowling Green, UCLA used an 18-1 run in the first half to turn a 13-15 deficit into a 31-16 lead and went on to win by a final score of 74-61. The Triple Threat once again dominated, combining to score 51 of the Bruins' 74 points. Willis led all players with 23 points and 12 rebounds, the 15th NCAA Tournament double-double in UCLA history. Quinn added 21 points with seven rebounds, and Blue contributed seven points and six assists. Pluimer also had a solid game with eight points and 10 rebounds. UCLA outshot Bowling Green, 46.9-36.5% and outrebounded the Falcons, 49-31. Willis set a school record for three-point shots made in the NCAA Tournament, connecting on five treys.

Although UCLA's NCAA Tournament run ended in the next round against 11th-ranked Purdue, the 2006 Bruins enjoyed a stellar season, finishing the year with 21 victories and 12 conference wins (third-most in school history) and placing three players (Blue, Quinn, Willis) on the AP honorable mention All-America team.
