Season Outlook

Doreena Campbell

Head coach Nikki Caldwell's squad hopes to use one of the program's most successful seasons as a springboard to further ascend up the ladder of women's basketball hierarchy.

Caldwell became the first UCLA coach ever to garner the Pac-10 Coach of the Year Award after leading her team to a 25-win season, an NCAA Tournament bid and a second-place finish in the conference last year. The victory total was the fourth-best in UCLA history. The 15 conference wins matched the program's highest-ever league win total. The opponent scoring average of 57.5 points per game established a new school record.

Four starters and six of the top seven scorers are set to return for what promises to be a very exciting 2010-11 campaign. The returnees include the top three rebounders, the top seven in assists, four of the top five in blocked shots and the top six leaders in steals.

SENIOR CLASS

The Bruins return four seniors to the fold, including the two returning starters at the guard position.

Guard Doreena Campbell (5-10) has earned all-conference accolades the last two seasons (1st team in '10; 2nd team in '09). She finished among the Pac-10 statistical leaders in several categories in '09-10 --- scoring-24th; assists-tied for seventh; free throw percentage-second; assist/turnover ratio-seventh. She enters her final season ranked as the best percentage three-point shooter (.412), with over 100 attempts, and the best free throw percentage shooter (.821) in UCLA history. Campbell will also attempt to join Ann Meyers and Nikki Blue as Bruins with at least 100 assists in four straight seasons.

Guard Darxia Morris (5-8) saw action in 34 games with 26 starts a year ago. She led the team in assists (106) and averaged 8.6 points per contest. She had 16 double-digit scoring performances and four or more assists in 10 games. Morris makes things happen on the court, as evidenced by her finishes of fifth in the conference in assists (3.1/g) and fourth in assist/turnover ratio (1.28).

"When I look at the backcourt I see leadership," related Caldwell. "I see two young ladies who have withstood the test of time since I have been here. They have led the team in every facet -- to our running game, to bringing pressure to the basketball and allowing us to extend our defense. They also give us the offensive threat where you have to play them for the three and for penetration. Their versatility really complements each other."

Forward Nina Earl (6-1) appeared in 32 games last season and averaged 4.5 points per outing. She started five contests and played double-digit minutes in 22 games. Earl had 12 games with at least two steals.

"Nina is someone who is very coachable and can play many roles for this team," detailed Caldwell. "She has been very unselfish. This year she gives us that transition game which is what she does best. She is someone who can really be a spark for us. When we need a turnover, she is able to generate that with her athleticism and foot speed. When we extend our defense, she is there because she is able to cover so much ground."

Forward/center Christina Nzekwe (6-4) saw action in all 34 games with four starts last season. She averaged 2.6 points and 4.1 rebounds and played double-digit minutes in 32 games. While she has a presence on the inside, she also enjoys a perimeter element in her game.

"Christina is a post player with some perimeter skills," Caldwell pointed out. "She can shoot the three and take a player off the bounce. After getting a rebound, she can start the fast break herself. She knows that if she gives the ball up; she can get it back. She is also a kid who plays tough for us on the inside."

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class features a pair of players who emerged as impact players last season.

Guard Rebekah Gardner (6-1) was arguably the most improved player on last year's squad. She upped her scoring average to just under seven points per contest and led the team with 25 blocked shots (14th in the Pac-10). She owns a solid, steady game and totaled a career-high 19 points in a Bruin win over Washington State.

"Rebekah has started before and I can see her stepping into that role again for us this season," said coach Caldwell. "Movement without the ball is one of her strengths. I have played her at each position, one through four. I like that she has really worked this off-season at polishing her game. She is doing a much better job of taking on responsibility for the team, not only offensively, but defensively, and with her board play."

Jasmine Dixon (6-0) transferred to UCLA from Rutgers in January 2009 and became eligible to compete in mid-December. She saw action in and started all 27 games after that and led the team in scoring average (15.3, sixth in Pac-10) and rebound average (8.0, seventh in Pac-10). Dixon also placed third in the league in steals (2.22). She became just the second Bruin (joining Natalie Williams) to ever record a 30-point, 20-rebound game when she went for 31 points and 20 rebounds while leading a second-half comeback from 16 points down at Oregon.

"Jasmine, first and foremost, represents toughness," offered Caldwell. "No matter who she goes up against she brings a competitive spirit to the task. Last season, she immediately fit into our system and fit into her role. She made us a better team and made the players around her better as well. She became someone we could count on, a go-to player, not only offensively, but also defensively with her post defense in the paint and her ability to rebound the basketball."

Forward/guard Markel Walker (6-1) was second on the squad in scoring (10.8, 22nd in Pac-10) and rebounding (7.5, eighth in Pac-10). Her total of 255 rebounds ranked as the 18th-most in Bruin single season history. She led the team in steals with 68 (fifth in Pac-10 2.0/g) and handed out 88 assists (12th in Pac-10 2.59/g).

"Markel played big for us in alot of games last year," said coach Caldwell. "She is someone who has the skills and ability to play any position on the court and we are continually working to enhance that. She really has the ability to pass the basketball, which I think is one of the lost arts in the game. She knows she can give others great looks and get her own looks as well."

Mariah Williams (5-4) is a guard with electric speed and quickness. She averaged 2.1 points and 1.5 assists while appearing in 33 games with six starts.

"Mariah plays with her emotions on her chest," added Caldwell. "She has got a toughness about her. She gives us a great running game and has worked extremely hard in the off-season. She is a student of the game and is one of the hardest working players on our team. Her competitive spirit and drive is something the team feeds off of."

Forward Atonye Nyingifa (5-11) sat out the 2009-10 season due to the knee injury she suffered at the USA Basketball Trials in May of '09. In her freshman season of '08-09, she saw action in all 31 contests, starting the final 16 games. Nyingifa was selected to the Pac-10 All-Freshman squad and was the lone Bruin chosen to the Pac-10 All-Tournament team. She led the team in rebounding during the Pac-10 games only with a mark of 5.6 caroms a contest. In her starting assignments, Nyingifa averaged 7.7 points and 6.1 boards as a freshman.

In May of '09, she was invited to take part in the USA Basketball Trials, however, she suffered a serious knee injury during that competition. She continued her rehabilitation process through last season and is expected to once again be a key contributor.

"Atonye turned it on late in her first season," noted coach Caldwell. "She is a different type of player for us. While Dixon brings the power game and Walker brings the perimeter finesse game, Atonye brings a little of both. Her versatility and athleticism on the floor makes us even deeper."

Jackie Shepard (5-10) is a guard with shooting skills. She saw action in 10 games last season after joining the squad as a walk on.

"Jackie is a hard worker who brings it each day in practice," added Caldwell. "She has great basketball sense and can shoot the ball."

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Bruins welcome a trio of freshmen who will help to improve the team's depth.

Forward/center Corinne Costa (6-4) averaged 15.0 points, 2.7 blocks and 6.5 rebounds per game for her Liberty HS team in Discovery Bay, CA in Northern California. She had eight 20-point games and five 15-rebound contests last season.

"Corinne gives us what Moniquee Alexander gave us a year ago -- some size and a presence in the paint," said coach Caldwell. "We are teaching her the game and system. I expect that she will give us some valuable, valuable minutes."

Rhema (RAY-muh) Gardner (6-1) is an athletic guard/forward with speed and quickness who is the younger sister of Rebekah. She averaged 8.8 points per game and 5.4 rebounds while helping Ayala HS reach the CIF Southern Section semifinals last season.

"Rhema is 6-1, long and lanky," added Caldwell. "She brings a toughness at the two, three and four spots and gives us the versatility to play a bigger lineup with quickness."

Thea Lemberger (5-7) is a guard who can handle the ball and provide perimeter shooting. She averaged 18.3 points per game and 3.3 assists while helping Santa Monica HS reach the semifinals of the state regional playoffs after capturing the Div. 1 CIF SS championship.

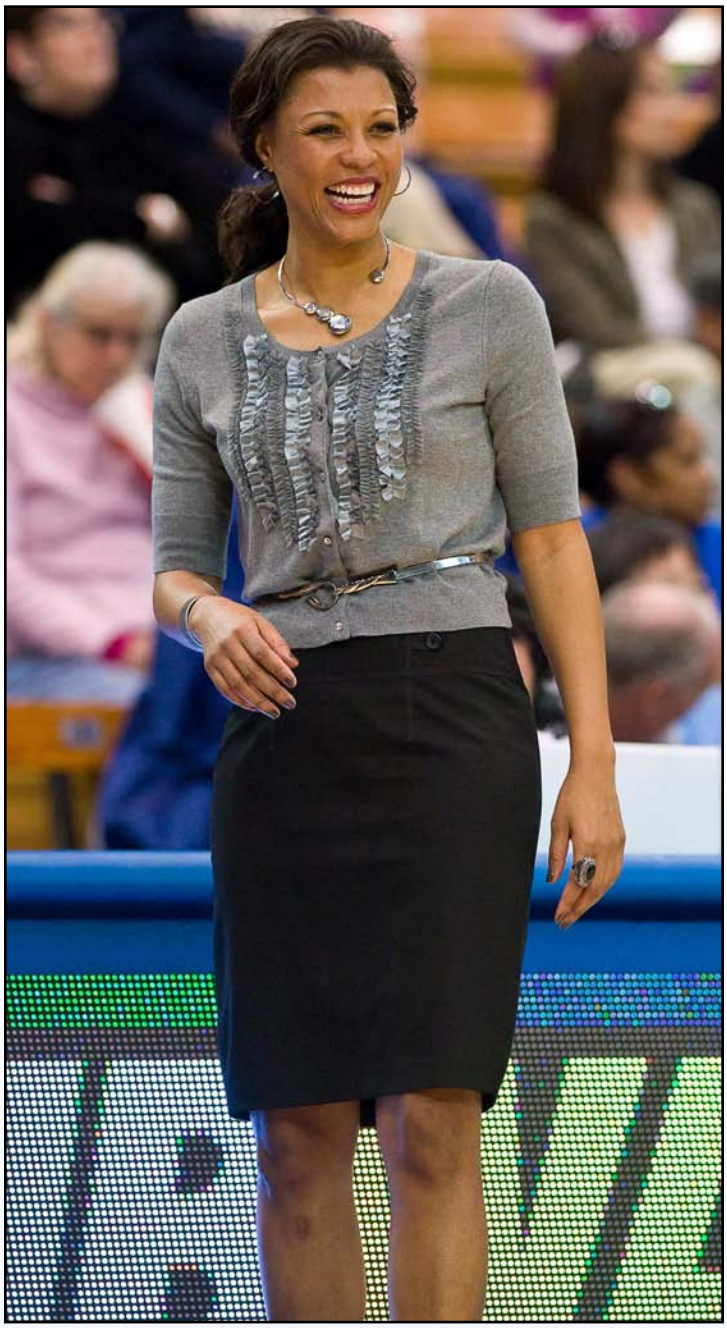

"Thea has the ability to knock down the three," added Caldwell. "She's a smart, heady player who will stand in there and sacrifice her body. I like the way she responds to adversity when her team is down. She has the competitive drive to will her team to success."

SCHEDULE

The Bruins will face a schedule which features 11 teams and 16 possible games with opponents that appeared in post-season play last season. Four were in the NCAA tournament (San Diego State, Temple, LSU and Stanford); six participated in the Women's NIT (UC Davis, St. Mary's, East Carolina, ASU, Cal and Oregon); one (Washington) took part in the WBI.

"We try to make the non-conference schedule as competitive as we can nationally," added Caldwell. "We attempt to position ourselves to be seen nationally, representing the Pac-10 in a national way. We want to make sure we are doing what it takes to prepare our team for conference play."

Nikki Caldwell

Head Coach, 3rd Season
Tennessee '94

Nikki Caldwell, recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches during stints at Tennessee and at Virginia, is putting together an impressive head coaching resume as well as she prepares to begin her third year in charge of the Bruin program after being named the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year for 2009-10.

Her second Bruin team finished with 25 wins, the fourth-most in school history, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. After a mid-January setback in conference play, the Bruins lost only to NCAA runner-up Stanford (twice) and No. 4-ranked Nebraska, two No. 1 NCAA Tournament seeds, while winning 15 of its last 18 contests. The squad matched the school mark for conference wins in a season with 15, while taking second in the Pac-10. It also set a school record by limiting opponents to 57.5 points per game.

Her 2009 Bruin team completed her inaugural campaign with a 19-12 record and tied for fourth place in the Pac-10 Conference. The 19 wins matched the number for the 10th-best total in school history. The total of 13 home wins tied for the second-most in school annals. In addition, for the first time since the 1986-87 season, the Bruins won as many as nine pre-season, non-conference games.

Caldwell and staff then proceeded to haul in the 14th-ranked recruiting class in the nation, headlined by McDonald's All-American Markel Walker from Philadelphia, PA. The staff added another McDonald's All-American for 2009-10 in transfer Jasmine Dixon.

Caldwell was named head coach of the Bruins on April 17, 2008. She came to UCLA after serving as an assistant on the staff of legendary women's coach Pat Summitt at the University of Tennessee for the 2003-08 seasons. She helped the Lady Vols post a 195-24 record during that span, which included five trips to the Final Four and NCAA championships in '07 and '08. Caldwell has been lauded as an excellent floor coach and a consistent star among college recruiters.

In her 14 seasons as a collegiate player and assistant coach, Caldwell's teams compiled an amazing 404-76 record and appeared in the NCAA Tournament each season, while winning three national championships.

The Basketball Staff

In 2008, the Lady Vols captured a second-straight NCAA championship and finished with a record of 36-2. National Player of the Year Candace Parker, the No. 1 selection in the WNBA draft and the '08 WNBA MVP, led a group of five Lady Vols to be drafted into the WNBA on the day following the championship.

Caldwell joined the Tennessee staff for the 2002-03 season and became the recruiting director in the spring of 2003. In the fall of '03, the Tennessee staff signed perhaps the most prolific freshman class in the history of women's collegiate basketball. That class consisted of six 2004 high school All-Americans, including three Players of the Year. In '07, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) named Tennessee as the best recruiting school in the nation. In '08, three of the top 15 current high school seniors in the country (hoopgurlz.com) committed to play for Tennessee in '08-09, and five played in the McDonald's All-American Game.

Prior to her return as a coach at her alma mater, Caldwell served as an assistant at the University of Virginia for three seasons (2000-2002). She was responsible for recruiting, scouting, film exchange, player development, camps and monitoring academic progress of student-athletes. UVA compiled a record of 60-36 in her three seasons in Charlottesville and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each campaign. She helped to develop standout Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) players Telisha Quarles, at guard, and forward Brandi Teamer, the '02 ACC Rookie of the Year.

A guard during her own playing days (1991-94) when the Lady Vols put together a 118-13 record, Caldwell was known for her tough defense and three-point shooting. She still ranks among the all-time top 10 at Tennessee in three-point field goals made (128) and three-point shots attempted (364). She scored 20 points in her first collegiate game against Stanford and went on to be named to the Southeastern Conference's (SEC) All-Freshman team. In the '91 NCAA title game victory over Virginia, Caldwell's defense was considered a key in UT's overtime win. She received the Gloria Ray Leadership Award in both her junior and senior seasons at Tennessee.

After graduating with a degree in public relations in 1994, Caldwell moved behind the microphone as a color analyst on Tennessee games for Fox Sports Net South. She went on to become the color analyst for the SEC's Game of the Week from 1995-97. Her television exposure opened the door for her to become the hostess of the sports segments for the Knoxville, TX-based cable network show, Shop at Home ('97-98). She then decided to return to her first love, coaching, in 1998, when she became a graduate assistant for administration on the Lady Vols women's basketball staff. During the '98-99 season, Tennessee went 31-3 and captured the SEC regular season and SEC Tournament titles. Caldwell was responsible for assisting the coaching staff in all aspects of basketball operations.

Caldwell has continued to do television work in Los Angeles, joining CBS2/KCAL's Jim Hill as an analyst on Sports Central for the NCAA men's basketball tournament and also on Laker pregame and halftime shows.

Caldwell is a passionate crusader for breast cancer awareness. She and Tennessee assistant coach Holly Warlick have founded the non-profit organization, Champions for a Cause. Since 2007, they have raised over $100,000 through Cruisin' for a Cause, a long-haul motorcycle adventure to raise dollars and awareness for a cure for breast cancer. Caldwell and Warlick chronicled their cross-country rides on their website, www.cruisinforacause.com.

In 2010, Caldwell joined the Board of Directors for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and is currently serving on the Executive Committee as Treasurer.

Caldwell was raised in Oak Ridge, TN by her mother, Jean Caldwell. Caldwell has a younger sister, Simone, brother-in-law, Kirk and niece, Khayla.

Stacie Terry

Assistant Coach, 3rd Season
Texas-Arlington '98

Stacie Terry, who begins her 11th season as a Division I assistant coach, is in her third year on Nikki Caldwell's coaching staff at UCLA. Terry will assist in all aspects of coaching. Her responsibilities include player development, recruiting and scouting. She works primarily with the Bruin post players.

Terry coached in the '07-08 season at the University of Southern Mississippi, which posted a 21-14 record and advanced to post-season play in the WNIT. At Southern Miss, Terry spearheaded the development and coordination of the Lady Eagle recruiting campaign. Her responsibilities also included working with the perimeter players, scouting opponents and film breakdown, as well as coordinating all of the team's community service events.

Terry spent the '04-07 seasons as an assistant at the University of Illinois. Her Illini recruiting classes ranked among the Top 20 in the nation. Her primary duties included defensive instruction and working with the perimeter players. She also coached at the University of Dayton in '03-04 and was an assistant at the University of Louisville in the 2001-2003 seasons. At Louisville, her role included recruiting, scouting, player development, summer camps and serving as a liaison for the program's community service outreach. The Cardinals advanced to the NCAA Tournament in '01 and to the WNIT in '02. She assisted in bringing in the nation's 21st-ranked recruiting class in 2002-03 according to All-Star Girls Report.

Terry earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism in '98 from the University of Texas-Arlington. She enjoyed an outstanding playing career (1994-98) at UTA, which culminated in a senior season in which she led the Southland Conference in three-point shooting percentage (.384), was a first-team all-conference selection and averaged a team-best 17.4 points per game. She ranks No. 8 all-time in scoring at the school with 1,169 career points and is second in career three-point field goals made (158).

After her collegiate career, Terry went on to play one season of professional basketball in Warsaw, Poland, averaging 12 points and six assists for the Polonia Phoenix, before returning home to begin her coaching career as a graduate assistant at her alma mater in 1999.

Terry grew up in San Diego, CA and attended El Capitan HS. She remains at the top of the all-time school scoring list and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in October of 2008.

Tony Perotti

Assistant Coach, 3rd Season
Tennessee '99

Tony Perotti, a Tennessee graduate, is beginning his third season on the Bruin staff. Perotti came to UCLA in 2008-09 from Northern Arizona University, where he had spent four seasons as an assistant. He was the associate head coach his last two seasons at NAU. He served primarily as the team's recruiting coordinator, game scouting coordinator and in the development of the perimeter players.

In his four seasons at NAU, Perotti helped the Lumberjacks compile 71 victories, win the Big Sky Conference Tournament and advance to the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament. During his tenure, the Lumberjacks set school records for field goals, points scored, assists, rebounds, three-point shots made and free throw percentage. Guard Sade Cunningham set a school record for single-season and career assists. In '06-07, NAU led the conference in field goal percentage, scoring defense and assists per game. In his first season as an assistant, Perotti not only helped the team to a 19-10 record and third-place conference finish, but took over as head coach for three games (2-1) at the end of the season when the head coach was home with a newborn baby.

Prior to that, Perotti spent five seasons working as an assistant at the University of San Francisco. He was the team's top assistant from 2000-04 and worked as the third assistant in his first season. He also served as the program's recruiting coordinator in 2000 and '02-03. During that period, Perotti helped to successfully sign two Junior College All-Americans, three West Coast Conference Freshmen of the Year, as well as international players from Germany and Denmark. On the court, he worked primarily with the perimeter players and assisted in team offensive and defensive philosophy development and strategies. He also served as summer camp director and completed his master's degree (2001) in sports and fitness management.

Before his time at USF, Perotti worked as an office assistant and summer camp coach at the University of Tennessee. He also served as a practice player for two seasons with the Lady Vols. While in Knoxville, Perotti gained coaching experience in 1999 as the co-head coach of the 11-and-under AAU team Knoxville Lady Lakers. At Tennessee, he earned his bachelor's degree in '99 in sports management, with a minor in business administration.

Perotti grew up on a dairy farm in Millerton, NY, where his family still owns and operates the Lone Pine Farm. He learned the value of a hard day's work from his father John and grandfather Frank and grew up talking sports with his mother Victoria and grandmother Doris. Perotti has three siblings, brother Stephen and sisters Terry and Kelly, and three nieces, Krissy, Alexis and Cassidy.

Tasha Butts

Assistant Coach, 3rd Season
Tennessee '04

Tasha Butts, a standout player at the University of Tennessee (2000-04) and then in the WNBA, begins her third season as an assistant coach at UCLA. She primarily works with the perimeter players and assists with all other facets of the program, including academics, recruiting, scouting and player development.

In 2007-08, she served in a similar capacity at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, PA, working primarily with the perimeter players. Her responsibilities included recruiting, opponent scouting, academics, adidas liaison and scheduling.

As a player at Tennessee, Butts helped the Lady Vols to a 124-17 record in her four seasons. UT had a Sweet 16 appearance in her freshman season and advanced to the Final Four in her sophomore campaign. She then helped the Lady Vols to back-to-back National Championship games in her junior and senior seasons. In addition, Butts was part of four Southeastern Conference regular-season championship teams, as Tennessee compiled a 55-1 SEC record in her four years. When she left UT, she ranked fourth in all-time games played (141) and tied for seventh in three-point shots made (103) at the school. Butts' career-high 37 points against Vanderbilt on Feb. 16, 2004 placed her tied for 11th on the Lady Vols' single-game scoring list. She graduated from Tennessee in '04 with a degree in sport management and minor in business.

Butts was chosen by the Minnesota Lynx with the 20th selection in the 2004 WNBA draft. She saw action in all 30 games as a rookie, helping the club equal a franchise-record with 18 wins and earn a spot in the playoffs. Following the '04 WNBA season, she returned to her alma mater and served as a graduate assistant coach, working primarily with Pat Summitt and Nikki Caldwell. The Lady Vols won the SEC Championship that season and advanced to the Final Four.

In the fall of '05, she headed overseas, where she played for Essa / Barreiro in Portugal, averaging nearly 18 points per game. After one season with Essa, she moved on to Raanana Hertizliya in Israel, where she averaged 15.5 points per contest. She also had brief stints with the Charlotte Sting and Houston Comets of the WNBA.

Butts grew up in Milledgeville, GA and attended Baldwin HS, where she was a consensus All-American and the Gatorade State Player of the Year in Georgia. She remains the girl's all-time leading scorer at the school, and her high school jersey #23 was retired in December of 2000. Season In Review

NCAA 1st Round action

A Look Back at 2009-10

The Bruins completed the season with an overall record of 25-9 and a 15-3 mark in the Pac-10, good for second place in the conference. It was the ninth time in the last 13 seasons that the Bruin program has finished among the conference's top four teams (only one Pac-10 program has a better track record in that period).

The 25 wins were the fourth-best total in school history. The 15 conference wins matched UCLA's best Pac-10 total ever. The second-place finish was UCLA's best since it captured a share of first place in the 1998-99 season.

The team held opponents to 57.5 points per game which ranked as the lowest mark in school history. A .371 opponent shooting % on the season rated as the second-lowest in school history. The Bruins rattled off 10 straight wins along the way to 25, which was the longest streak since the 1998-99 team also posted 10 consecutive victories.

Coach of the Year

Nikki Caldwell was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year in votes by the media and the conference coaches. She is the first UCLA women's coach to win this honor. Caldwell is the first Bruin to be named Conference Coach of the Year since Billie Moore earned WCAA honors in 1984-85.

Dixon Sees 30/20

Sophomore Jasmine Dixon became just the second Bruin to ever score at least 30 points and grab at least 20 rebounds in a game. Dixon totaled 31 points and collected 20 caroms in a come-from-behind win at Oregon. Natalie Williams is the other Bruin to reach these numbers (32, 25 v. Arizona State in 1994).

Great Start

The 2009-10 squad became just the fourth UCLA team to have won at least 14 games by Feb. 1 on the calendar --- the 2008-09 team won 14; the 1998-99 team won 17; the 1980-81 team won 19.

Defense

UCLA held 30 opponents to 70 points or less on the season. Early in the year, UCLA held eight straight opponents to less than 60 points, one shy of the school record stretch of nine games set in 1974-75.

On Feb. 6, the Bruins surrendered a season-low 32 points in a win at Cal. The two teams set a school mark for fewest points scored by both teams -- 76 (44-32). The previous record was 85 (49-36 loss to USC on Feb. 17, '08). Cal's 32 points were the fewest by an opponent since UC Santa Barbara scored 31 on Dec. 15, 1984. UCLA's 44 points were the fewest ever by a Bruin squad in a winning effort. UCLA enjoyed a 14-8 lead at halftime, tying the NCAA record for fewest combined points in a half.

11-For-11

The 11 scholarship players who suited up in 2009-10 each made at least one start.

Campbell's No. 1

Guard Doreena Campbell finished the season ranked No. 1 on the all-time free throw shooting percentage list (.821) and three-point field goal percentage shooting (.412). Campbell's .884 free throw percentage last season was the fourth-best in school history. Her mark of .406 three-point shooting percentage rated seventh.

Tukiainen A Gamer

Senior guard Erica Tukiainen finished her career with 128 games played which ranks as the second-most in school history. Tukiainen also finished with 103 career three-points shots made which ranked her fifth all-time. She wound up her career with a three-point shooting percentage of .389 which ranks fourth all-time. Her 49 three-points shots last season ranked as tied for the fifth-best total ever. Her .430 three-point shooting percentage rated fourth-best.

Pac-10 Rankings

Jasmine Dixon ranked sixth in the league in scoring (15.3), seventh in rebounding (8.0), second in field goal % (.550), and third in steals (2.2). Markel Walker was 22nd in scoring (10.8), eighth in rebounding (7.5), seventh in field goal & (.480), 12th in assists (2.6), and fifth in steals (2.0).

Doreena Campbell finished second in free throw percentage (.884), tied for seventh in assists (3.1), 24th in scoring (9.8) and seventh in assist/turnover ratio (1.1). Darxia Morris was 30th in scoring (8.6), fifth in assists (3.1), and fourth in assist/turnover ratio (1.3). Erica Tukiainen ranked second in three-point field goal percentage (.430) and ninth in three-point field goals made (1.4), and Rebekah Gardner finished 14th in blocked shots (0.7).

The Bruins led the Pac-10 in steals (10.6) and ranked second in scoring defense (57.5), scoring margin (+10.3), field goal percentage (.440), and field goal percentage defense (.371).

Conference Honors

Doreena Campbell and Jasmine Dixon were named to the first-team all-conference squad, as voted upon by the coaches. Markel Walker received honorable mention and was selected by the media onto the All-Pac-10 first team. Walker was also selected to the Pac-10 All-Freshman team and honorable mention All-Defensive squad.

Walker was named Pac-10 Player of the Week after helping the Bruins to home wins over the Oregon schools. Dixon earned her first conference Player of the Week honors after leading the Bruins to a pair of wins at the Oregon schools. Both players were named to the State Farm All-Pac-10 Tournament squad.

Let's Get Academic

Three Bruins were named to the Pac-10 Conference All-Academic team. Allison Taka repeated as a first-team selection. Erica Tukiainen earned second-team accolades. Rebekah Gardner made honorable mention.

By the Numbers

With 107 team blocked shots, the Bruins registered the second-most rejections in school history. The Bruin three-point shot made total of 126 ranked as sixth-best in school listings. The 366 three-point shots attempted was sixth on that list. The Bruin three-point shooting percentage of .344 was the seventh-best in school history. UCLA limited opponents to just 57.5 points per contest, the lowest figure ever. The opponent shooting mark of .371 was the second-lowest on record. The 362 steals and 2,307 points scored each ranked ninth on their lists. The total of 1,332 rebounds ranked seventh on the all-time list.

Pauley Pavilion - Home of the Bruins

Edwin W. Pauley Pavilion

Home to Bruin athletic teams since 1965, Pauley Pavilion is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events, from NCAA Championships, Olympic gymnastics, presidential debates, and award shows.

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund. Total cost of the Pavilion was provided as follows: $2,000,000 by the State, $1,000,000 by the student body and in excess of $2,000,000 by the alumni with $1,000,000 of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley.

The 126-by-226 foot floor of the Pavilion accommodates three complete basketball courts. There are 10,337 permanent upholstered seats and retractable bleachers for 2,482 spectators. The Pavilion has a basketball capacity of 12,000. The single-game attendance record of 13,478 was set on Feb. 12, 1997 when the Bruin men hosted Duke (women's record of 9,530 set on Jan. 23, 1999 vs. USC).

In October of 1990, a highly-efficient lighting system was installed that doubled the lighting capacity in the Pavilion, and in October of 1999, a new video scoreboard was installed in the multi-purpose facility. On Dec. 20, 2003, the floor in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated "Nell and John Wooden Court", and players from virtually all of his teams joined Coach Wooden to celebrate the occasion.

Some of the top names in the history of college basketball - players such as Ann Meyers, Denise Curry, Natalie Williams, Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Bill Walton, Ed O'Bannon, Candace Parker, Marques Johnson, Reggie Miller, Baron Davis, Earl Watson, Jason Kapono, Michael Jordan and Pete Maravich and coaches such as John Wooden, Dean Smith and Pat Summitt - have appeared in Pauley. The arena, along with the newly-renovated gym in the Student Activities Center, are the homes of the best "pick up" games in Los Angeles, featuring NBA stars. In addition, the 1984 Olympic gymnastics competition and a historic table tennis match between the United States and China have been held in the Pauley. Entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Eric Clapton, Justin Timberlake, Jay-Z, Nirvana, Pearl Jam, The Who, Guns N' Roses and the Grateful Dead have also graced the Pavilion.

The Pavilion has been the site of two Women's Basketball Final Fours (1978 AIAW and 1984 NCAA Championships), three NCAA first and second round men's basketball playoffs (1979, 1981 and 1988), five NCAA men's basketball West Regionals (1966-69-73-76-84), two NCAA women's basketball West Regionals (1985, 1995), 12 NCAA men's volleyball championships (1970-71-75-77-79-84-85-87-89-93-96-00-05), three NCAA women's volleyball championships (1981, 1984, 1991), two NCAA men's gymnastics championships (1984, 1987), and three NCAA women's gymnastics championships (1984, 1998, 2004). The Pavilion is also used for intramural sports and Fine Arts events throughout the school year. In September of 2009, Pauley Pavilion played host to a WNBA playoff game between the Los Angeles Sparks and Phoenix Mercury.

Other major events held in Pauley Pavilion were a 1988 Presidential Debate between George Bush and Michael Dukakis, the 1992 MTV Video Music Awards, VH1 Rock Honors, several Nickelodeon's Kids' Choice Awards, the 1991 U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions and UCLA's 75th anniversary convocation in 1994, during which President Bill Clinton was the keynote speaker.

UCLA has begun renovations and enhancements to Pauley Pavilion, with a target completion date of Fall 2012. The Pavilion, which is managed by Susan Brown, is located at 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA 90095, phone number 310-825-4546.

The Bruin Elite

Ann Meyers
1975-1978
Guard

Considered the pioneer of collegiate women's basketball, Ann Meyers was the first female athlete ever to earn a four-year scholarship to UCLA, and she finished her collegiate career as the first four-time All-American in her sport.

In her senior season (1978), she led UCLA to the AIAW national championship, won the Broderick Award as the women's basketball player of the year and went on to win the prestigious Broderick Cup as the Collegiate Female Athlete of the Year in any sport. Also that year, she became the only player in UCLA history to record a quadruple-double, recording 20 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a game against Stephen F. Austin.

For almost two decades, Meyers held the school record for assists in a game (15) and was the school leader in career assists (544) until the marks were broken in 1999. She remains the school leader in steals (403) and blocked shots (101-tied) and is ninth in scoring (1685).

Meyers, who won a silver medal as a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic team, has been inducted into the Naismith, FIBA and Women's Basketball Halls of Fame. In 1988, her first year of eligibility, she was the first woman inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame, and two years later, she had her uniform #15 retired.

The widow of the late Major League Baseball Hall of Famer Don Drysdale, she has worked for years as a radio/television broadcaster (called the action at the 2008 Olympic Games). In the summer of 2006, she was named the general manager of the WNBA's Phoenix franchise, which has won the 2007 and 2009 WNBA Championships.

Anita Ortega
1976-1979
Guard

After scoring a game-high 23 points in the 1978 national championship game against Maryland, Anita Ortega forever etched her name in Bruin lore as she led UCLA to the AIAW title.

Ortega, who also led the Bruins to the 1979 Final Four, still ranks seventh in career scoring with 1751 points and is in the Top 20 in rebounding with 559 rebounds. She is also listed amongst the Bruin leaders in all-time scoring average (16.1), field goals made (705), steals (240) and double-digit scoring games (91). Ortega, a four-year starter, was a three-time first-team all-conference performer (1977-79).

Following her career at UCLA, she went on to earn All-Pro honors in the Women's Professional Basketball League. She later served as an assistant coach for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

Ortega is currently a captain in the Los Angeles Police Department and one of only two female African-Americans who have ever held the rank of captain in the LAPD. She also remains involved in women's basketball as a Division I college basketball official.

Denise Curry
1977-1981
Forward

The consistent Denise Curry, a three-time All-American, set a collegiate record by scoring in double figures in all 130 games she played for the Bruins.

The Davis, CA native set 14 school records in her career at Westwood and still ranks No. 1 in career scoring (3,198) and rebounding (1,310) in addition to eight other categories. She played in two Final Fours and helped lead UCLA to the 1978 AIAW National Championship as a freshman. From 1977-81, Curry's teams won 98 games, including a school-record 29 during her senior season.

Curry won a gold medal at the 1984 Olympic Games, four years after being selected to the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team that did not compete due to the U.S. boycott. Curry went on to play professional ball in Europe for several seasons.

In 1990, UCLA retired her uniform number (#12), and she was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Curry was an assistant coach with the San Jose franchise of the American Basketball League in 1996-97 and then went on to serve as the head coach at Cal State Fullerton from 1998-2000. She has also worked an assistant coach at Long Beach State, working on the staff of fellow Bruin alum Mary Hegarty.

UCLA women's basketball's past and present merged February 21, 1998 when UCLA honored its 15 greatest players of all-time at halftime of the UCLA-USC game. It was an all-around day of celebration for the UCLA program, as the current team defeated USC, 87-73, to complete a season sweep against its cross-town rival in front of what was then a Pauley Pavilion regular season record crowd of 7,258. The 1978 team was also honored on the 20th anniversary of UCLA's first national title in women's basketball.

The list of 15 included two Naismith Basketball Hall of Famers (Denise Curry and Ann Meyers), the Pac-10 Conference Female Athlete of the Decade (Natalie Williams) and a winner of six Olympic medals (Jackie Joyner).

These 15 greatest players were selected by a committee that included current UCLA coaches, former UCLA players and coaches and current and former UCLA administrators. The number 15 was chosen to mirror the amount of scholarships available in the sport of women's basketball.

Retired Numbers

On Feb. 3, 1990, four of the greatest players in UCLA basketball history — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (Lew Alcindor), Bill Walton, Ann Meyers and Denise Curry — had their uniform numbers retired. This special ceremony was the key moment in 1989-90's "Pauley at 25" celebration and marked the first time that any Bruin basketball numbers had been retired. All four players earned consensus first-team All-America honors three times, the criteria used for deciding which of UCLA's many outstanding players should have their numbers retired. The quartet are also in the National Basketball Hall of Fame, the Naismith Hall of Fame and the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

#12 Denise Curry

The consistent Curry, a three-time All-American, set a collegiate record by scoring in double figures in each of the 130 games in which she played for the Bruins. The Davis, CA native set 14 school records in her career at Westwood and still ranks first in 10 career categories. In 1997, she was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA. Prior to her gold medal-winning performance on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team, she had previously been selected to the 1980 team. Curry played professionally in Europe for several seasons and served as an assistant women's basketball coach at California. She became the head coach at Cal State Fullerton after working as an assistant with the San Jose franchise of the American Basketball League. Curry has also served as an assistant basketball coach at Long Beach State.

#15 Ann Meyers

Meyers, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in May of 1993, was the first woman to earn a full scholarship at UCLA and went on to become the first four-time women's basketball All-American. In 1978, she was named College Player of the Year and winner of the prestigious Broderick Cup after helping to lead the Bruins to the national championship. Meyers is still the school leader in steals (403) and blocked shots (101-tied) along with being the only player in UCLA history to have posted a quadruple-double with 20 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a game vs. S.F. Austin in 1978. In addition, she earned a silver medal as a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team, which was coached by former UCLA mentor Billie Moore. She has worked extensively as a television commentator for men's and women's college and professional basketball. She is currently the general manager for the WNBA's Phoenix franchise, which captured the 2007 and 2009 championships.

UCLA Hall of Fame Coaches

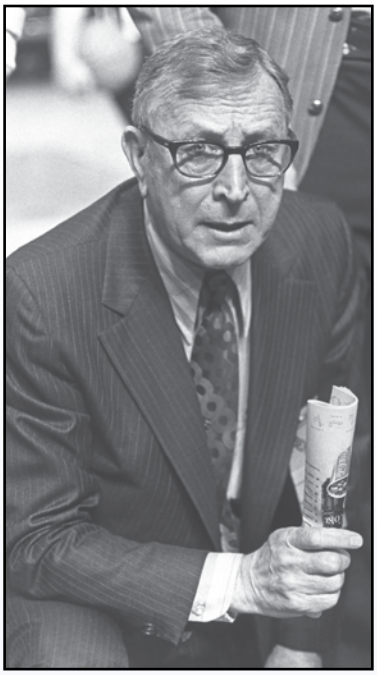

John Wooden

UCLA's basketball program has the international reputation of being No. 1. There is a major reason for that — his name is John Robert Wooden, who announced his retirement after the 1974-75 season (his 27th campaign) as the Bruins' head coach with the winningest record in all of the sport's history.

Wooden's 885-203 overall career win-loss record (a percentage of .813) is unequaled. A large part of that success was at UCLA. In 27 years as Bruin coach, his teams registered 620 wins and only 147 losses while earning far more national honors than any other university.

Under Wooden, UCLA won an unprecedented 10 NCAA championships, including seven consecutive (1966-73). Included in the string is one of the most amazing win streaks in all of sports, 38-straight NCAA tournament victories.

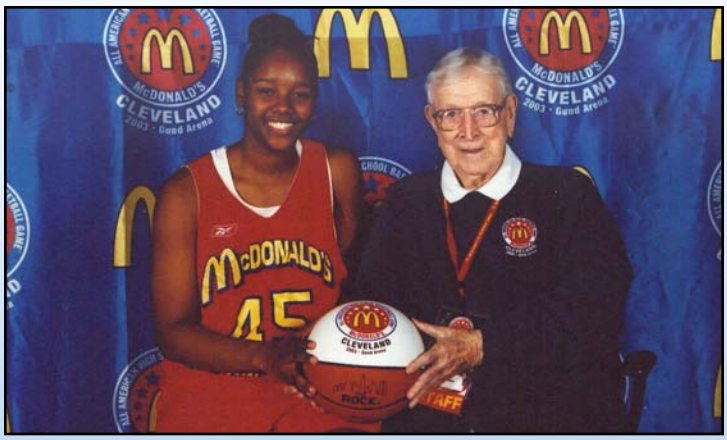

In addition, there is the all-time NCAA consecutive winning-streak record of 88 games over four seasons, which included consecutive 30-0 seasons in 1971-72 and 1972-73. UCLA also won 149 of 151 games in Pauley Pavilion during his Bruin tenure.

Wooden is the only coach to compile four undefeated seasons of 30-0, and his Bruin teams captured 19 conference championships (the record of which Wooden is most proud). He is also the first person to be inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame as both a player and coach.

At Purdue University, he won letters in basketball and baseball his freshman year and later earned All-American honors as a guard on the basketball team from 1930-32. He captained Purdue's basketball teams of 1931 and 1932 and led the Boilermakers to two Big Ten titles and the 1932 national championship.

In July of 2003, Wooden received the highest honor awarded to a U.S. citizen, the U.S. Medal of Freedom. Coach passed away on June 4, 2010.

Wooden and his wife, Nell, who died in Los Angeles on March 21, 1985, were married for 53 years. Parents of a son, James Hugh, and a daughter, Nancy Anne, John had seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. On Dec. 20, 2003, the basketball floor in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated "Nell and John Wooden Court."

Billie Moore

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Billie Moore was the first coach to lead two schools to national women's basketball championships - Cal State Fullerton and UCLA.

In 1970, her very first season at Cal State Fullerton, Moore led her team to the AIAW national title, and in her second season at UCLA in 1978, she guided the Bruins to their first and only national championship.

Moore was UCLA head coach for 16 years (1977-93) and compiled a 296-181 (.621) record. Along with the AIAW Championship, she led her team to a fourth-place finish in 1979, and her Bruin teams finished ninth nationally in 1985 and 1992.

At Cal State Fullerton, she recorded a 140-15 record in eight seasons, and her overall coaching record at both schools was 436-196 over 24 years. Her UCLA and Cal State Fullerton teams won 10 conference championships and advanced to the post-season 16 times with a 59-18 record. Moore, who coached fellow Hall of Famers Ann Meyers and Denise Curry, became the eighth coach in women's basketball history to reach the 400-win mark.

Moore coached the first U.S. women's Olympic basketball team to a silver medal at the Olympic Games in Montreal in 1976. She also led the 1973 and 1975 entries to the World University Games and the 1975 U.S. Pan American Games team.

Many of Coach Moore's former players (Ann Meyers, Denise Curry, Anita Ortega and Pat Summitt) have gone on to excel in athletic endeavors including college coaching, professional basketball, radio/television broadcasting and community service. Pat Summitt has been quoted as saying, "Billie Moore has had more influence on my coaching career than anyone. She was my mentor. She's had a huge impact on my coaching style."

Moore is a Westmoreland, Kansas native who received her undergraduate degree from Washburn University in Kansas and earned her Master's degree from Southern Illinois University. In 1999, she received her Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Washburn University.

The National Championship Season - 1978

Led by four-time All-American Ann Meyers, Anita Ortega, Denise Curry and first-year head coach Billie Moore, UCLA captured the 1978 AIAW (Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) national basketball championship in Pauley Pavilion. The title drive included Bruin wins in the final 21 games of the season and culminated in the 90-74 championship victory over Maryland before an AIAW record crowd of 9,351. In all, the Final Four weekend drew more than 17,000 fans to Pauley Pavilion and included a national semifinal win over Montclair State by an 85-77 count.

After capturing the WCAA conference championship, the road to the Final Four began with regional wins in Stanford, CA over Stanford (80-54), Long Beach State (79-78) and UNLV (100-88). Sectional wins followed over BYU (102-57) and Stephen F. Austin (86-60). UCLA finished with a 27-3 record, with all three losses coming on the road against top-10 ranked opponents. It averaged 96.2 points per game and outscored its opponents by an average of 28 points per contest.

AIAW Semifinals - Mar. 23, 1978

UCLA dominated the game, taking a 52-38 lead into halftime and never relinquishing it. Three Bruins recorded double-doubles - Denise Curry with 22 points and 14 rebounds, Heidi Nestor with 22/10 and Ann Meyers with 19/14. The Bruins controlled the boards, outrebounding Montclair State 61-29. MSC had 40 points from Carol Blazejowski but only 37 from the rest of the team.

1999 - Pac-10 Champions, Elite Eight Participants

The Bruins captured their first Pac-10 Conference championship in 1999. UCLA posted a 15-3 conference record, the most Pac-10 wins in its history. Its 26-8 overall record included the most wins by a Bruin team since the 1981 squad went 29-7. Coach Kathy Olivier's unit went on to advance further in the NCAA tournament, with a trip to the Elite Eight, than any other Bruin team in history. It marked UCLA's sixth overall tournament appearance and first-ever back-to-back appearances. In addition, the #3 seeding into the tournament was a school-best.

UCLA's run to the Elite Eight began in Pauley Pavilion, as the Bruins hosted Wisconsin-Green Bay for a first-round matchup. Four Bruin players scored in double-figures to lead UCLA to a 76-69 victory, setting up a second-round matchup with Kentucky. Pac-10 Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Maylana Martin led all players with 21 points, 15 coming from the free throw line, and Marie Philman posted a double-double with 16 points and 10 boards in the 87-63 win over the Wildcats.

UCLA continued its playoff run with a West Regional contest against seventh-ranked Colorado State at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. The Bruins' hopes suffered an early setback when point guard Erica Gomez sprained her ankle in the game's first minute, but freshman Michelle Greco stepped in and helped keep the team on course to a 26-25 lead at the half. It was a tight game throughout, and the Bruins led by one point, 67-66, with 2:12 to play when LaCresha Flannigan made five of six free throws down the stretch to put the game away UCLA advanced to its first-ever Elite Eight with a 77-68 decision and a date with third-ranked Louisiana Tech.

The Bruins played some of their best basketball of the year in jumping out to a 28-18 lead at the 7:23 mark of the first half in the Regional championship battle. However, the Lady Techsters scored the next 11 points in the game and led 35-32 at the break. The Bruins regained the lead at 38-37, but it would be their last of the contest as Tech rolled to a 88-62 win. Martin led four Bruins in double digits with 16 points.

The team set a school and Pac-10 record for steals in a season with 435 and for best field goal percentage in a game with a .695 mark (41-59 fg) at Washington State on February 25. The overall team shooting percentage for the season of .476 (ninth-best in the nation) was the best by a Bruin team since 1983-84 (.491). Opponents were held to .400 shooting in the 1999 season, which was the lowest mark since the 1978 UCLA team limited opponents to .395. The scoring average of 85.2 points per contest ranked fifth-best in the nation.

Head coach Kathy Olivier celebrates on the bench with players during the Bruins' Sweet 16 win

Maylana Martin cuts down the nets at Pauley Pavilion after the Bruins clinched their first-ever Pac-10 title in 1999.

The attendance of 9,530 fans which gathered to witness the USC game on January 23 was the largest ever to see a women's game in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, surpassing the total of 9,351 which were on hand for the 1978 AIAW National Championship game vs. Maryland. The team's final ranking of No. 7 in the USA Today coaches poll marked UCLA's highest finish ever in that poll and the best finish in either poll since a No. 7 ranking in the Associated Press listings in 1981.

Martin, led the conference in scoring with an 18.2 mark and ranked as the second-leading rebounder at 9.4 caroms per contest. Martin, who was a finalist for the Naismith Award presented to the nation's outstanding player, exploded for a career-best 38 points (seventh-highest total in school history) in a win at USC in which she connected on 13-19 shots from the field and 12-14 free throws. The junior also grabbed a career-best matching 18 rebounds in that game.

UCLA's biggest surprise during the season was the play of sophomore guard Flannigan, who earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as well. She was the second-leading scorer on the team behind Martin with a 14.1 mark and managed to do most of her damage in the conference, where she averaged 17.2 points per game.

The Bruins' third first-team All-Pac-10 selection was Gomez, who broke Ann Meyers' (544) school record for career assists. Gomez set the record at home against Arizona State on March 4 and finished her junior season with 573 assists. She also established a school record for assists in a single-game with 16 in the game at Arizona State on January 5. Her season assist average of 6.67 edged Mary Hegarty's old school record of 6.66 for best single-season mark.

Two other starters averaged in double figures for the Bruins in the championship season. Junior center Janae Hubbard, an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection, averaged 12.5 points per game and ranked fourth in the conference in rebounding with a 7.9 mark. During the year, Hubbard pulled down 22 rebounds in a game vs. Arizona on March 6, the fourth-highest single-game total in school history. Earlier in the year, she had scored a career-best 29 points against UConn. Philman scored 11.1 points per game and grabbed five boards. She set or tied her career high in points in four games during the season, including a best of 24 vs. Washington on January 28.

The Bruin bench was a big reason for the success of this team, and three players were the primary contributors. Junior Melanie Pearson appeared in all 34 games and averaged 8.5 points while leading the team with 40 three-point goals. Junior Carly Funicello provided valuable assistance on the inside. She averaged 5.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game and saw action in 31 contests. Greco was the third key member of the team, providing a lift off the bench. Greco, who was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team and to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team, scored at a 7.8 points per game clip and handed out 94 assists in 34 games.

2006 Pac-10 Tournament Champions

Led by the Triple Threat of Nikki Blue, Noelle Quinn and Lisa Willis, the Bruins entered the 2006 State Farm Pac-10 Tournament as the third seeded team and proceeded to knock off California (#6 seed), Arizona State (#2) and Stanford (#1) on consecutive days in the HP Pavilion in San Jose, CA to win the school's first-ever conference tournament championship.

Willis was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament after averaging 20.3 points per game over the three days. Blue, who set a tournament record with 11 assists in the win over Cal, was named to the All-Tournament team for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first Pac-10 player to accomplish this feat. Quinn, who led the Bruins with 22 points in the championship win over Stanford, was also selected to the All-Tournament Team.

As the No. 3 seed in the tournament, the Bruins had a first-round bye and then faced No. 6 California in the second round. The Bruin defense was swarming, setting a Pac-10 Tournament record with 20 steals in the game and forcing a total of 23 California turnovers in a 80-63 victory. Offensively, four Bruins were in double-figure scoring, with double-doubles from Noelle Quinn (18 points/10 rebounds) and Nikki Blue (14 points/Pac-10 Tournament record 11 assists). Lisa Willis was one steal shy of Blue's Tournament steals record, finishing with seven, and also had 14 points. Chinyere Ibekwe added 10 and Ortal Oren scored eight off the Bruin bench which contributed a total of 21 points for the game.

Cal led early in the game, but UCLA went on an 8-0 run to take an 11-5 lead that it never relinquished. The Golden Bears used a 6-0 second-half run to close to within eight, 50-42, with 13:05 on the clock, but Willis stopped Cal's momentum by burying a three-pointer. Willis' three jump-started a 17-4 Bruin run that gave UCLA a 67-46 lead and put the game away. UCLA went on to lead by as many as 22 points, 75-53.

In the semifinals, UCLA matched up against No. 2 seed Arizona State and got a huge second-half surge from Willis to come away with a 60-59 victory that not only sent the Bruins to the title game but gave head coach Kathy Olivier her 200th career victory. UCLA got off to a slow start in the game and trailed, 28-19, at the half. The second half saw seven ties and 11 lead changes, the last coming when Quinn made two free throws with 28.9 seconds remaining. UCLA forced a turnover in the final seconds to secure the win, but it was Willis' 20 second-half points that put the Bruins in position for the win. Willis finished with 27 points, five three-point shots, two blocks and six steals. Quinn contributed another double-double with 16 points, 10 rebounds, three steals, two assists and two blocks for the Bruins, who snapped ASU's school-record 10-game winning streak. The Bruin defense came through again, forcing 26 Sun Devil turnovers, 17 via steals.

Chinyere Ibekwe and Lindsey Pluimer

With UCLA in the Championship game for the first time in the Tournament's history, only No. 1 seed and three-time defending champion Stanford stood in the way of the Tournament crown. The two teams had split the regular season series, with each winning at home. UCLA trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half of the game and by seven points, 70-63, with 1:29 to play but refused to give up. The Bruins scored the final seven points in regulation time with a basket by Quinn with five seconds to play knotting the score at 70. A three-point shot by Lindsey Pluimer pushed the Bruins into a 73-72 lead in overtime they would not give up. Two big free throws by Ibekwe with 28 seconds to play in overtime gave UCLA an 80-76 advantage. UCLA hits five of six free throws down the stretch while holding Stanford without a basket to earn its first conference tournament championship. Quinn finished with 22 points and eight rebounds. Willis added 20 points, four assists and six steals. Pluimer contributed 16, and Blue had 14 points, eight assists and six steals.

The Bruins set several tournament records - Quinn with 23 field goals; Willis with 11 made three-point shots, 19 steals and a 6.3 steals average; Blue with 11 assists in the Cal game and an assist average of 8.3. UCLA also set a tournament record with 20 steals in the game against California, and their total of 52 for the three games in the tournament were a record.

With the NCAA automatic bid in hand, the Bruins traveled to Purdue for the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round against 23rd-ranked Bowling Green, UCLA used an 18-1 run in the first half to turn a 13-15 deficit into a 31-16 lead and went on to win by a final score of 74-61. The Triple Threat once again dominated, combining to score 51 of the Bruins' 74 points. Willis led all players with 23 points and 12 rebounds, the 15th NCAA Tournament double-double in UCLA history. Quinn added 21 points with seven rebounds, and Blue contributed seven points and six assists. Pluimer also had a solid game with eight points and 10 rebounds. UCLA outshot Bowling Green, 46.9-36.5% and outrebounded the Falcons, 49-31. Willis set a school record for three-point shots made in the NCAA Tournament, connecting on five treys.

Although UCLA's NCAA Tournament run ended in the next round against 11th-ranked Purdue, the 2006 Bruins enjoyed a stellar season, finishing the year with 21 victories and 12 conference wins (third-most in school history) and placing three players (Blue, Quinn, Willis) on the AP honorable mention All-America team.

Administrator Biographies

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor • Stanford '70 • 4th Year

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August of 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service. A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block quickly called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the city of Los Angeles and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he has spearheaded a process of broad-based, campuswide strategic planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters of Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Insititutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community. Dr. Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978 as an assistant professor of biology. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001.

A native of Monticello, NY, Dr. Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D.in psychology from the University of Oregon. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, working with the late Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing" and distinguished biologist and former Stanford President, Donald Kennedy. Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director • UCLA '74 • 9th Year

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now in charge of the program at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is the current president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. In addition, he is the first vice-president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee. This past June, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the committee chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package as well as the decision to expand the tournament to 68 teams.

In Guerrero's eight years as AD, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA Team Championships (106) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those eight years, UCLA teams have won 20 NCAA national team championships (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 16 times and have had an additional 28 Top Five finishes (64 total). A staggering 152 teams (of 184 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition, and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 45 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 400 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

In the last eight years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07, 2005-06), third twice (2004-05, 2003-04), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director's Cup.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Guerrero was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. He earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year. Guerrero is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna and Katie.

Petrina Long

Senior Associate Athletic Director/SWA • California '77 • 7th Year

Petrina Long enters her seventh year as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator at UCLA, having joined the staff in June of 2004. Long has oversight responsibility for several sports, including women's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and gymnastics, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she had served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as UCI's interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

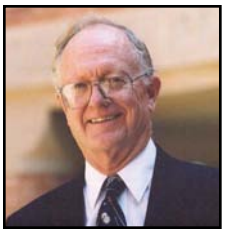

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is also extensively involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving for three years as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross-country, track & field, and men's soccer (MPSF). She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee (SWAC) and is currently a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UCI, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin. Long was a member of the Big West Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UCI, Long spent nine years at Columbia University, serving in both the associate and assistant athletics director positions. She was the Assistant Athletics Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist University from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1979-82.

Long received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley, in 1977 and her Master's degree in Anthropology from Columbia in 1992. She and her husband, Sam McCamey, have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Monte and Traland.

Head Coach Nikki Caldwell and her UCLA women's basketball team will be featured throughout the season on the UCLA "Bruin Talk" Cable Television Show. "Bruin Talk", which was taped for years at Time Warner Cable in Santa Monica, and has moved to the UCLA campus and is taped at UCLA Res TV in De Neve. The program, which is hosted by Ralph Irvin and Gevrina Seferaj, airs weekly from Ventura County to the San Diego area. The show also airs throughout the San Fernando Valley, into the South Bay and parts of Orange County and in Los Angeles on Channel 36.
