Season Outlook

Rebekah Gardner

The Bruins hope to recapture the momentum of one of the most productive campaigns on record as Cori Close begins her first season at the helm, after being named head women's basketball coach on April 21, 2011.

This is the first head coaching assignment for Close, who has worked as associate head coach or assistant on teams that have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 15 seasons, won at least 20 games in 15 of the previous 16 seasons, won or shared a total of 11 conference championships and coached 10 players who have gone on to be selected in the WNBA draft.

UCLA welcomes back eight letterwinners from last season's squad (28-5) which finished second in the Pac-10 (16-2) and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. There are two starters in that mix in Markel Walker and Atonye Nyingifa. A third starter was set to return, but Jasmine Dixon, the second-leading scorer and top rebounder on the team, who earned honorable mention AP All-American honors last season, ruptured her Achilles tendon in a September team workout. A total of three freshmen will complete the roster.

"Our theme this season is the motto "uncommon," said coach Close. "If one wants an uncommon result then one needs to be willing to make the uncommon sacrifice. We need to take the "Champions Made Here" slogan and work to be a champion from the inside out. We need to strive to take the program one step further than it has been."

The Bruins total of 28 wins was the second-most in school history (record: 29 in 1980-81). The 26 regular season wins was the most ever. With 22 wins in its first 24 games, UCLA achieved its best start of all-time. The 16 Conference wins were the program's highest total ever as were the eight Pac-10 games won on the road. In fact, UCLA posted a 16-3 record away from home last season, going 12-2 in true away games to surpass the school record total of 11 true road wins (1991-1992). The team also established a new school record for opponent scoring average of 55.3 points.

"Physical conditioning is going to be vital to our success this season," related coach Close. "We must work each day to be the best conditioned team in the Pac-12 conference. That has to be an edge we can utilize throughout a game. "

SENIOR CLASS

Rebekah Gardner will be the lone senior this season after Jasmine Dixon went out with a ruptured achilles tendon in a September team workout.

Gardner (6-1, guard) posted career-bests in scoring average, rebound average, shooting percentage and three-point shots made last season. She saw action in 32 games with 11 starts and made at least one three-point shot in 17 games while playing double-digit minutes in 31 contests.

"Rebekah must work to become a consistent double-digit scorer for us," said coach Close. "She reported in great physical shape and has to become a more vocal leader for her team. On defense, she plays long and uses her lateral quickness to advantage. This is her senior season, and she is playing like it."

Jasmine Dixon (6-0) was named a first-team All-Pac-10 performer and an honorable mention AP All-American after leading the team a year ago in rebounding, steals, blocked shots and field goal percentage. She saw action in 31 games, with 28 starts, and was also selected to the first-team Pac-10 All-Defensive squad by the media. Dixon ranked eighth in Pac-10 rebounding, third in steals, fourth in offensive rebounding, fourth in field goal percentage and17th in scoring.

"It is a tremendous disappointment when something (injury) like this happens," offered Close. "We are not only losing an outstanding player but someone who made the players around her better. She will do well in her rehab and I am looking forward to her joining our recruiting class for her senior season next year."

JUNIOR CLASS

Forward/guard Markel Walker (6-1) saw action in 33 games with 21 starts and led the team in assists. She ranked eighth in Pac-10 assists, 10th in assist/turnover ratio, 15th in field goal %, 15th in free throw % and T-19th in rebounding. She totaled at least three assists in 20 games.

"Markel has unlimited athleticism and an incredible basketball I.Q.," said coach Close. "She understands the game and is like another coach on the floor. Markel is working on tightening up her skills progression so that last year's turnover is this year's assist."

Mariah Williams (5-4) is a guard with speed and quickness. She saw action in 28 games in a reserve role last season and averaged 1.0 assists and 0.5 steals. Williams played double-digit minutes in 16 games.

"Mariah is our team energizer," added Close. "She sets the pace on the defensive end of the floor. She must handle the ball and know who needs to touch it, and when, on the offensive end. This will be a big step for her and she is capable of handling the assignment."

Forward Atonye Nyingifa (5-11) is a player with a game that keeps on developing. Last season, she saw action in 33 games while making 27 starts. Nyingifa ranked fifth in the conference in field goal %, ninth in offensive rebounding and tied for19th rebounding. She finished the season on a high note, hitting for double-digit points in nine of last 16 games and connecting on 21 of her last 24 free throws.

"Atonye brings quick hands and versatility," noted Close. "She may have to play a little out of position for us, in the short run, but she is capable of asserting herself whereever she lines up. We will ask her to make more plays and create a niche for herself at the offensive end. She is one of our most experienced players and we will ask a lot of her."

Jackie Shepard (5-10) is a guard with shooting skills. She saw action in six games last season.

"Jackie does so many things to help her team that people who come to the games will never see," added Close. "She provides an emotional and selfless energy to the team that needs to spill out onto the court."

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Bruins have three second-year performers who will look to step up their production.

Forward/center Corinne Costa (6-4) saw action in 27 games off the bench last season. She connected on 57% of her field goals and averaged 1.7 points and 1.5 rebounds per contest. Costa had eight double-digit minute outings in a year of development.

"Corinne has improved her game," said coach Close. "She has an effective hook shot, the ability to alter shots in the lane, and her mobility is improving. Her inside presence will be very important to us. She is a player capable of doing anything she puts her mind to."

Rhema (RAY-muh) Gardner (6-1) saw action in 22 games in a reserve role in her freshman season. A tremendous athlete, she grew each day during the season as a basketball player.

"Rhema is the most improved player on the squad," added Close. "She had a tremendous commitment to off-season conditioning and in-the-gym work. We need her to become a factor on the boards at both ends of the court. She gets more deflections at the defensive end than any of our players and her offensive work over the summer has paid off."

Thea Lemberger (5-7) saw action in 14 games in a reserve role in her freshman year. She saw her progress stymied by a nagging foot injury which forced her to sit out 13 games. As a senior in high school, she averaged 18.3 points per game while helping Santa Monica HS reach the semifinals of the state regional playoffs after capturing the Div. 1 CIF SS championship.

"Thea must step up at the offensive end of the court," added Close. "She is one of the players on this team that can stretch a defense. Doing that will open things up for her teammates and make us a better team."

NEWCOMERS

The Bruins welcome four newcomers, including three freshmen, who will help to improve the team's depth.

ALYSSIA BREWER (6-3) played the last three seasons at Tennessee. She averaged 6.9 ppg and 4.6 rpg in her 87 career games, which included 20 starts. Brewer will sit out this season and be eligible for competition in 2012-13.

MORIAH FAULK (5-10) played her junior and senior prep seasons at Santa Monica High School for coach Marty Verdugo. She averaged 13.7 points per game as a senior for a team which went 23-10. She scored in double-digits in 23 games and connected on 25 three-point shots.

"Moriah is a smooth, strong guard," said Close. "She has a great pull-up jumper and brings a point sense and feel to the game. She has the ability to really help us on the offensive and defensive glass."

ALEXIS PERRY (5-7) signed with the Bruins after coach Close took over the program. She played in one of the most successful high school programs in the nation at Brea-Olinda in Orange County. Perry averaged 10 points, six rebounds and two steals per game as a senior for a team which went 31-2 and was ranked No. 4 in the nation and No. 2 in the state. She had two of her highest scoring games against a couple of the top teams in the state; 22 points in CIF State Div. II championship game against Mater Dei; 19 in a regular season game vs. Long Beach Poly HS.

"Alexis is a leader," said Close. "She knows who needs to get the ball and she gets it to them at the right time. It was her dream to play at UCLA."

KACY SWAIN (6-3) comes to UCLA after playing one season at St. Bernard's High School in Playa del Rey, CA. She was rated as the No. 25 player in the nation and No. 9 forward by ESPNU Hoop Gurlz after averaging 11.3 points, 3.2 blocks, 10.3 rebounds and 2.2 steals as a senior. She had15 double-digit scoring games and 16 double-digit rebound games as a senior. Her team advanced to the state championship game.

"Kacy is a strong and powerful athlete who runs the court well," offered coach Close. "She is working hard to develop her game and make the adjustments to the college level. On defense, she can use her physical tools to really help us. She is increasing her offensive skill set on a daily basis."

Cori Close

Head Coach, 1st Season

UC Santa Barbara '93

Cori Close, who has coached in 15 consecutive NCAA Basketball Tournaments, was named head women's basketball coach at UCLA on April 21, 2011 by Athletic Director Dan Guerrero.

This is the first head coaching assignment for Close, who has worked as associate head coach or assistant on teams that have advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 15 seasons, won at least 20 games in 15 of the previous 16 seasons and won or shared a total of 11 conference championships.

"Cori has established herself as one of the top women's basketball associate coaches in the nation and is certainly ready to take the next step," said Guerrero at the time of the hire. "Cori has enjoyed great success at Florida State and UC Santa Barbara, on the court, off the court and on the recruiting trail, and has a great vision for the future of our program. She will continue to build upon the foundation that has been established over the last few years."

"Cori is a great fit for UCLA," related Petrina Long, UCLA Sr. Associate Athletic Director/Senior Women's Administrator. "She has enjoyed great success throughout her career and possesses all the tools to keep our program at a high level. She is thrilled to be coming back to Westwood and we are excited to have her back."

Close, who served on the Bruin coaching staff in 1994 and 1995, returns to Westwood after spending the last seven seasons as associate head coach at Florida State University. Considered one of the top offensive minds in the game, Close helped guide the Seminoles into a nationally-recognized program in her time. FSU ranked among the nation's top 30 teams in scoring, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage the last two seasons.

Florida State advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of coach Close's seasons in Tallahassee and won at least 20 games in all but one. Point guard play and offensive efficiency were strong points under Close's direction. FSU shot at least .418 from the field in each of the last seven seasons and hit over 37% of its three-point attempts the last two seasons, including a school-record 212 made three-point shots in 2010.

As FSU's offensive coordinator, Close was responsible for developing the offensive schemes that best suited the team's personnel. Her ability to prepare information and disseminate it to the student-athletes has been exemplary. In addition to her on-court tasks, Close was also instrumental in recruiting (she coached four first-team All-ACC Freshman team selections and five players selected in the WNBA draft while at FSU) while also working with the school's marketing department in their efforts to promote the program.

This past season, Florida State posted a 24-8 record, finished third in the Atlantic Coast Conference with an 11-3 mark, was ranked No. 20 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after matching the program's best tournament seed ever at No. 3. The 2010 FSU squad captured a share of the ACC regular season championship, set a school record with 29 wins and advanced to the Elite 8 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. Jacinta Monroe was selected in the first round of the WNBA draft, No. 6 overall, the highest of any FSU player.

The 2009 Seminole squad also won a share of the conference regular season crown and earned the highest seed into the NCAA Tournament in school history, at the time, at No. 3. The 2008 FSU team earned its highest regular season ranking ever in the polls to that point in time, at No. 18. In 2007, Florida State advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and earned its highest ranking to that point, at No. 19, in the season's final national poll. In Close's initial season in Tallahassee, FSU posted its first 20-win campaign in 14 seasons.

The Basketball Staff

Close joined the FSU staff after serving nine seasons (1995-2004), the last three as associate head coach, at her alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, class of 1993. Some of her duties included overseeing skill development of the players, on-court offensive coaching, recruiting and scheduling. Under Close's coordination, UCSB undertook one of the most demanding non-conference slates in the country each season.

As UCSB's player development coordinator, Close significantly contributed to the mentoring, nurturing and motivation of the student-athletes. Her work led to such achievements as a 98 percent graduation rate, seven WNBA players, 15 professional players overseas, 12 Big West Conference MVPs, nine district All-Americans and one second-team All-American. Close was responsible for all offensive tactics, offensive instruction and game-time decisions which helped result in eight NCAA appearances, including three second round games and a trip to the Sweet 16, one NIT consolation championship and 10 Big West Conference regular season or tournament championships. The Gauchos landed three top-10 ranked recruiting classes during her tenure in Santa Barbara.

Close was also instrumental in fostering support and increasing revenue streams for the UCSB basketball program. She developed and implemented a comprehensive marketing plan, designed fundraising initiatives, coordinated speaking, community service and radio/television appearances and created a Fastbreakers booster program. Her efforts were rewarded in the women's hoops program becoming the largest revenue producer in the department of athletics.

Close began her collegiate coaching career at UCLA while serving in the role of the restricted earnings coach on the first staff of then-new head coach Kathy Olivier in the 1994 and 1995 seasons. She earned her Master's Degree in educational administration during her time at the University.

As a player, Close was a four-year starting point guard at UC Santa Barbara and captained the 1992 and 1993 teams which each advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. A native of Milpitas, CA, she was a 1993 first-team all-Big West selection and the MVP of the 1993 Conference Tournament. Close was the first player in school history to record more than 1,000 points and 500 assists for a career and ranked among the top 10 in seven Gaucho statistical categories. She averaged a school-record 8.3 assists per game in 1993 which was among the top 10 marks in the nation that season. On April 30, 2005, Close was inducted into the UC Santa Barbara Athletics Hall of Fame.

The Beavers entered post-season play (National Women's Invitation Tournament) for the first time in six seasons during that year and were led by the play of guard Felicia Ragland who was named the Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year in 2001. Ragland, who went on to be selected by the Seattle Storm in the 2002 WNBA draft, also earned District VIII Kodak All-America honors in both 2001 and 2002.

Newnan, who was the Associate Head coach at UC Santa Barbara in 1999-2000, served as a Gauchos' assistant from 1993-2000. The Gauchos captured six Big West conference titles during his tenure, set a school record with 30 wins in 2000 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1992, 1993, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000. A 1992 graduate of UCSB, Newnan embarked on his coaching career as a student assistant coach for the Gaucho women's team in 1990-93. He was then hired full-time the following season. During his years at UCSB, Newnan helped coach such future WNBA draft selections as Kayte Christensen, Erin Buescher and Stacy Clinesmith.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TONY NEWNAN:

"What I remember most about Tony is that his energetic, excited style of coaching made you want to play even harder on the court. He teaches the game so well and explains everything so well. He helped me be a better player skill-wise and emotionally as well, helping instill a we-will-not-lose attitude. Tony definitely brought out the best of me. I would have done anything, including run through a wall, for him and the coaching staff."

- Stacy Clinesmith, former UCSB player and four-year WNBA player

"One of the great things about Tony is that he's a really good teacher. He has a unique and creative way of breaking down things so that it makes sense to each individual. I loved when coaches got in my face and pushed me. You can sense his passion and see how much he loves what he's doing. I've been away from UCSB for years, but I still call him once a year and thank him for my experience. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do to help us grow both on and off the court. Collegiate coaches bring players in as 17-18 year olds and adopt them as surrogate children, and I definitely feel like I grew so much with his help. I could not have been in the WNBA for seven years without him."

- Kayte Christensen, former UCSB player, seven-year WNBA player, current ESPN men's and women's basketball reporter/analyst

"I consider Tony Newnan to be one of the brightest basketball minds in women's basketball. His contributions to the success of our program at UCSB were immense. His 'feel' for game strategy, scouting, and substitution patterns is unsurpassed. Additionally, Tony is one of the best teachers of individual skill development that I have ever worked with. His ability to break down skills and motivate athletes to grow and improve is legendary among UCSB, and undoubtedly Westmont, players. Tony is also one of the most competitive people I have had as an assistant coach. He hates to lose and spreads that passion for success to everyone around him. He has a great mind, is an excellent teacher with a great competitive heart, and one of the finest human beings I know! Congratulations to the Bruin women's basketball family - you are fortunate to have him!"

- Mark French, former UCSB head coach

Jenny Huth

Assistant Coach, 1st Season
Colorado '02

Jenny Huth, a highly decorated player who has represented her country in international play and has five years of Division I coaching experience, joined the Bruin coaching staff in May of 2011. She comes to UCLA after working in private business and as a high school coach the past two seasons following her marriage in 2010. Prior to that, she worked as an assistant women's basketball coach at Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan from 2007-09. The Summit League team posted 20-win seasons in both years and a school-record 26 wins in 2008-09. Huth was responsible for recruiting, scheduling, scouting, camps, academics and public outreach, in addition to her on-court duties.

From 2005-07, Huth served a three-year stint as a graduate assistant coach at Florida State University. The Seminoles put together three-straight 20-win seasons for the first time in school history and made three trips to the NCAA Tournament while she was on staff. She also worked with guard Roneeka Hodges, who went on to become the 15th pick in the 2005 WNBA draft. Huth helped with the Seminole guards, coached the scout team and coordinated the program's efforts with the Courtside Kids program. She earned her Master's degree in Recreation and Leisure Services Administration from FSU in 2007.

A standout player for Colorado from 1998-02, Jenny Roulier (Huth) was a three-time All-Big 12 Conference selection and helped guide the Buffaloes to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight in her senior season. She finished her career among the all-time top 10 at CU in career scoring with 1,399 points, three-point shots with 203 and three-point shooting percentage at .407.

Huth, whose cousin Rachelle Roulier played basketball at UCLA from 1988-91, was a member of Team USA's gold medal winning women's basketball team in the World University Games in 2001. After graduating from CU in 2002 with a degree in Communications, she played professionally for two seasons. She spent the 2002-03 season with Club Estudiantes, a First-Division team based in Madrid, Spain. In 2004, Huth played for the Colorado Chill of the National Women's Basketball League. She has also been involved with Athletes in Action and was a member of the 2003 fall tour.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JENNY HUTH:

"As a player, Jenny had this unique combination of talent, leadership and compassion for all of her teammates, but it was her infectious passion for the game that I admired so much. She is one of those players who was destined to be a coach. Jenny is not only great at one-on-one skill development, but she has the gift of encouraging and motivating everyone around her to be better. I had great respect for Jenny as my teammate, and I have no doubt that the players she coaches will not only reach their potential on the court, but they will leave UCLA better prepared for the bigger game of life."
- Ruth Riley, WNBA All-Star and Olympic gold medalist

"Jenny will be a tremendous asset to Cori and to UCLA. Passion for the game and energy level are trademarks of all great recruiters, and Jenny has no shortage of either. Her enthusiasm for the game will be infectious during practices, games and skillwork sessions. I am particularly thrilled to see Jenny join the Pac 12 Conference."
- Ceal Barry, former Colorado head coach

"Jenny isn't just good, she is spectacular. She has a gift for connecting and motivating college students but is also a great teacher of the game. She will have a major impact on the rapid growth of UCLA women's basketball."
- Sue Semrau, Florida State head coach

Walker joined the Bruin staff prior to the 1989-90 season after four years as head girls' basketball coach at Hart High School (1986-89) in Newhall, CA. Season In Review

NCAA 1st Rd. action

A Look Back at 2010-11

The Bruins completed the season with an overall record of 28-5 (.848 winning percentage, third-best ever by UCLA team) and a 16-2 mark in the Pac-10, good for second place in the conference. It was the 10th time in the last 14 seasons that the Bruin program has finished among the conference's top four teams (only one Pac-10 program has a better track record in that period).

The 28 wins were the second-most in school history. The 16 conference victories were UCLA's best Pac-10 total ever. With 22 wins in its first 24 contests, UCLA achieved its best season start of all-time. The two-year win total of 53 victories (28 and 25 last season) were the most in program history. The 12 wins in true road games also set a school mark. The No. 3 seed into the NCAA Tournament equaled the highest in program history.

The team held opponents to 55.3 points per game which was the lowest mark in school history. A .385 opponent shooting % on the season rated as the fifth-lowest in school history and the total of 420 steals was sixth-best. UCLA held a national ranking in the Associated Press poll for each week during the season for just the sixth time in program history.

Road Warriors

Coach Nikki Caldwell's squad posted a 16-3 record away from Pauley Pavilion. That mark included a 12-2 ledger in true away contests which bettered the old school record of 11 road wins in a season (1991-92). The eight Pac-10 conference contests won on the road were the most ever by a Bruin team. UCLA swept road series at the Washingtons, at the Arizonas and at the Oregons in a conference schedule for just the fourth time ever (also 2010, 1992, 1988).

Defense

UCLA held 31 opponents to 70 points or less on the season, including 16 to less than 50 points.

Votes Are In

The final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll listed the Bruins No. 13, the program's highest season-ending ranking since it was seventh at the conclusion of the 1999 season. UCLA was ranked No. 8 on the final AP regular season poll, its best finish since a seventh-place ranking in the 1981 poll.

Campbell Ranks

Guard Doreena Campbell finished her career ranked 15th on the all-time school scoring list (1,283). She also was listed eighth on the all-time assist mark (415), eighth on the made three-point shot list (85), third on the games played list at 127 (tied with Christina Nzekwe). She also ranks fourth in free throw percentage (.808) and sixth in three-point field goal percentage (.360).

Campbell became just the fourth Bruin player to record at least 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists for a career during the season (also Noelle Quinn, Nikki Blue, Ann Meyers).

1,000-Point Plus

Senior guard Doreena Campbell (24th) and Darxia Morris (25th) each reached the 1,000-point milestone for their careers during the season --- Campbell in a game against Notre Dame and Morris in a contest at Oregon.

Pac-10 Rankings

Jasmine Dixon ranked eighth in the league in rebounding (7.3), fourth in fg % (.529), third in steals (2.4/g), and third in offensive rebounds (3.4/g). Atonye Nyingifa ranked fifth in fg% (.516).

The Bruins led the Pac-10 in scoring defense (55.3), rebounding defense (30.7), steals (12.7), turnover margin (+4.8).

Conference Honors

Doreena Campbell, Jasmine Dixon and Darxia Morris were named to the first-team all-conference squad, as voted upon by the coaches. Campbell joined Noelle Quinn, Nikki Blue and Maylana Martin as the only UCLA players to earn All-Pac-10 honors following all four seasons of play. In addition, Dixon and Morris were named to the honorable mention All-Defensive team.

Campbell joined Morris on the all-tournament squad at the Pacific Life Pac-10 Tournament. Morris was named Pac-10 Player of the Week twice during the season.

Let's Get Academic

Three Bruins were named to the Pac-10 Conference All-Academic teams. Mariah Williams earned second-team honors. Rebekah Gardner and Markel Walker made honorable mention.

National Rankings

In the final NCAA rankings of the season, UCLA was listed in the Top 30 in six categories --- 6th in steals (12.7), 15th in turnover margin (+4.79), 21st in rebound margin (6.5), 22nd in field goal% (.445), 26th in scoring defense (55.3), 30th in scoring margin (10.3).

Thank You Fans

The total of over 34,000 fans which attended Bruin home games in 2011 was the third-highest since data was first recorded in 1988-89. The per game average of 2,270 was the fourth-best during that period.

Notes

UCLA advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in school history. It marked the first back-to-back NCAA appearances since the Bruins made three straight trips to the Dance in 1998, 1999 and 2000.

It was the first back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1997-98 (20) and 1998-99 (26). It was the 11th 20-win campaign in program history. UCLA finished the year having posted a 43-8 record in its last 51 games played. Six of the eight losses have come at the hands of teams ranked in the top-five in the nation at the time of the contest (Stanford-three times in 2011 and twice in 2010; Nebraska in the 2010 NCAA Tournament; 19th-ranked Gonzaga in the 2011 NCAA Tournament; unranked LSU in 2011.

After three seasons as head women's basketball coach at UCLA, Nikki Caldwell stepped down on April 2 to become the head coach at LSU. In her three years, Caldwell led the Bruins to 72 victories, two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and two appearances in the Pac-10 Tournament championship game.

Pauley Pavilion - Home of the Bruins

Edwin W. Pauley Pavilion

Home to Bruin athletic teams since 1965, Pauley Pavilion is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events, from NCAA Championships, Olympic gymnastics, presidential debates, and award shows.

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund. Total cost of the Pavilion was provided as follows: $2,000,000 by the State, $1,000,000 by the student body and in excess of $2,000,000 by the alumni with $1,000,000 of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley.

The 126-by-226 foot floor of the Pavilion accommodates three complete basketball courts. There are 10,337 permanent upholstered seats and retractable bleachers for 2,482 spectators. The Pavilion has a basketball capacity of 12,000. The single-game attendance record of 13,478 was set on Feb. 12, 1997 when the Bruin men hosted Duke (women's record of 9,530 set on Jan. 23, 1999 vs. USC).

In October of 1990, a highly-efficient lighting system was installed that doubled the lighting capacity in the Pavilion, and in October of 1999, a new video scoreboard was installed in the multi-purpose facility. On Dec. 20, 2003, the floor in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated "Nell and John Wooden Court", and players from virtually all of his teams joined Coach Wooden to celebrate the occasion.

Some of the top names in the history of college basketball - players such as Ann Meyers, Denise Curry, Natalie Williams, Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Bill Walton, Ed O'Bannon, Candace Parker, Marques Johnson, Reggie Miller, Baron Davis, Earl Watson, Jason Kapono, Michael Jordan and Pete Maravich and coaches such as John Wooden, Dean Smith and Pat Summitt - have appeared in Pauley. The arena, along with the newly-renovated gym in the Student Activities Center, are the homes of the best "pick up" games in Los Angeles, featuring NBA stars. In addition, the 1984 Olympic gymnastics competition and a historic table tennis match between the United States and China have been held in the Pauley. Entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Eric Clapton, Justin Timberlake, Jay-Z, Nirvana, Pearl Jam, The Who, Guns N' Roses and the Grateful Dead have also graced the Pavilion.

The Pavilion has been the site of two Women's Basketball Final Fours (1978 AIAW and 1984 NCAA Championships), three NCAA first and second round men's basketball playoffs (1979, 1981 and 1988), five NCAA men's basketball West Regionals (1966-69-73-76-84), two NCAA women's basketball West Regionals (1985, 1995), 12 NCAA men's volleyball championships (1970-71-75-77-79-84-85-87-89-93-96-00-05), three NCAA women's volleyball championships (1981, 1984, 1991), two NCAA men's gymnastics championships (1984, 1987), and three NCAA women's gymnastics championships (1984, 1998, 2004). The Pavilion is also used for intramural sports and Fine Arts events throughout the school year. In September of 2009, Pauley Pavilion played host to a WNBA playoff game between the Los Angeles Sparks and Phoenix Mercury.

Other major events held in Pauley Pavilion were a 1988 Presidential Debate between George Bush and Michael Dukakis, the 1992 MTV Video Music Awards, VH1 Rock Honors, several Nickelodeon's Kids' Choice Awards, the 1991 U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions and UCLA's 75th anniversary convocation in 1994, during which President Bill Clinton was the keynote speaker.

Pauley Pavilion is closed for the 2011-12 season as it undergoes a multi-million dolar renovation with a target completion date of Fall 2012. Women's basketball, along with men's and women's volleyball and gymnastics, will play in the John Wooden Center while Pauley Pavilion is closed.

The Pavilion, which is managed by Susan Brown, is located at 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA 90095, phone number 310-825-4546.

The Bruin Elite

Ann Meyers
1975-1978
Guard

Considered the pioneer of collegiate women's basketball, Ann Meyers was the first female athlete ever to earn a four-year scholarship to UCLA, and she finished her collegiate career as the first four-time All-American in her sport.

In her senior season (1978), she led UCLA to the AIAW national championship, won the Broderick Award as the women's basketball player of the year and went on to win the prestigious Broderick Cup as the Collegiate Female Athlete of the Year in any sport. Also that year, she became the only player in UCLA history to record a quadruple-double, recording 20 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a game against Stephen F. Austin.

For almost two decades, Meyers held the school record for assists in a game (15) and was the school leader in career assists (544) until the marks were broken in 1999. She remains the school leader in steals (403) and blocked shots (101-tied) and is ninth in scoring (1685).

Meyers, who won a silver medal as a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic team, has been inducted into the Naismith, FIBA and Women's Basketball Halls of Fame. In 1988, her first year of eligibility, she was the first woman inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame, and two years later, she had her uniform #15 retired.

The widow of the late Major League Baseball Hall of Famer Don Drysdale, she has worked for years as a radio/television broadcaster (called the action at the 2008 Olympic Games). In the summer of 2006, she was named the general manager of the WNBA's Phoenix franchise, which has won the 2007 and 2009 WNBA Championships.

Anita Ortega
1976-1979
Guard

After scoring a game-high 23 points in the 1978 national championship game against Maryland, Anita Ortega forever etched her name in Bruin lore as she led UCLA to the AIAW title.

Ortega, who also led the Bruins to the 1979 Final Four, still ranks seventh in career scoring with 1751 points and is in the Top 20 in rebounding with 559 rebounds. She is also listed amongst the Bruin leaders in all-time scoring average (16.1), field goals made (705), steals (240) and double-digit scoring games (91). Ortega, a four-year starter, was a three-time first-team all-conference performer (1977-79).

Following her career at UCLA, she went on to earn All-Pro honors in the Women's Professional Basketball League. She later served as an assistant coach for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

Ortega is currently a captain in the Los Angeles Police Department and one of only two female African-Americans who have ever held the rank of captain in the LAPD. She also remains involved in women's basketball as a Division I college basketball official.

Denise Curry
1977-1981
Forward

The consistent Denise Curry, a three-time All-American, set a collegiate record by scoring in double figures in all 130 games she played for the Bruins.

The Davis, CA native set 14 school records in her career at Westwood and still ranks No. 1 in career scoring (3,198) and rebounding (1,310) in addition to eight other categories. She played in two Final Fours and helped lead UCLA to the 1978 AIAW National Championship as a freshman. From 1977-81, Curry's teams won 98 games, including a school-record 29 during her senior season.

Curry won a gold medal at the 1984 Olympic Games, four years after being selected to the 1980 U.S. Olympic Team that did not compete due to the U.S. boycott. Curry went on to play professional ball in Europe for several seasons.

In 1990, UCLA retired her uniform number (#12), and she was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Curry was an assistant coach with the San Jose franchise of the American Basketball League in 1996-97 and then went on to serve as the head coach at Cal State Fullerton from 1998-2000. She has also worked an assistant coach at Long Beach State, working on the staff of fellow Bruin alum Mary Hegarty.

UCLA women's basketball's past and present merged February 21, 1998 when UCLA honored its 15 greatest players of all-time at halftime of the UCLA-USC game. It was an all-around day of celebration for the UCLA program, as the current team defeated USC, 87-73, to complete a season sweep against its cross-town rival in front of what was then a Pauley Pavilion regular season record crowd of 7,258. The 1978 team was also honored on the 20th anniversary of UCLA's first national title in women's basketball.

The list of 15 included two Naismith Basketball Hall of Famers (Denise Curry and Ann Meyers), the Pac-10 Conference Female Athlete of the Decade (Natalie Williams) and a winner of six Olympic medals (Jackie Joyner).

These 15 greatest players were selected by a committee that included current UCLA coaches, former UCLA players and coaches and current and former UCLA administrators. The number 15 was chosen to mirror the amount of scholarships available in the sport of women's basketball.

Retired Numbers

On Feb. 3, 1990, four of the greatest players in UCLA basketball history — Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (Lew Alcindor), Bill Walton, Ann Meyers and Denise Curry — had their uniform numbers retired. This special ceremony was the key moment in 1989-90's "Pauley at 25" celebration and marked the first time that any Bruin basketball numbers had been retired. All four players earned consensus first-team All-America honors three times, the criteria used for deciding which of UCLA's many outstanding players should have their numbers retired. The quartet are also in the National Basketball Hall of Fame, the Naismith Hall of Fame and the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

#12 Denise Curry

The consistent Curry, a three-time All-American, set a collegiate record by scoring in double figures in each of the 130 games in which she played for the Bruins. The Davis, CA native set 14 school records in her career at Westwood and still ranks first in 10 career categories. In 1997, she was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA. Prior to her gold medal-winning performance on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team, she had previously been selected to the 1980 team. Curry played professionally in Europe for several seasons and served as an assistant women's basketball coach at California. She became the head coach at Cal State Fullerton after working as an assistant with the San Jose franchise of the American Basketball League. Curry has also served as an assistant basketball coach at Long Beach State.

#15 Ann Meyers

Meyers, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in May of 1993, was the first woman to earn a full scholarship at UCLA and went on to become the first four-time women's basketball All-American. In 1978, she was named College Player of the Year and winner of the prestigious Broderick Cup after helping to lead the Bruins to the national championship. Meyers is still the school leader in steals (403) and blocked shots (101-tied) along with being the only player in UCLA history to have posted a quadruple-double with 20 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals in a game vs. S.F. Austin in 1978. In addition, she earned a silver medal as a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team, which was coached by former UCLA mentor Billie Moore. She has worked extensively as a television commentator for men's and women's college and professional basketball. She is currently the general manager for the WNBA's Phoenix franchise, which captured the 2007 and 2009 championships.

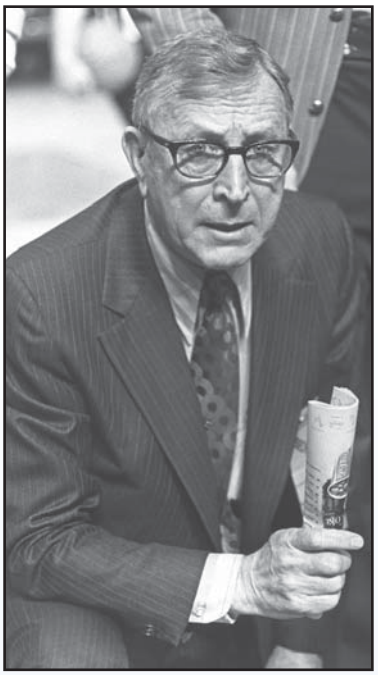
UCLA Hall of Fame Coaches

John Wooden

UCLA's basketball program has the international reputation of being No. 1. There is a major reason for that — his name is John Robert Wooden, who announced his retirement after the 1974-75 season (his 27th campaign) as the Bruins' head coach with the winningest record in all of the sport's history.

Wooden's 885-203 overall career win-loss record (a percentage of .813) is unequaled. A large part of that success was at UCLA. In 27 years as Bruin coach, his teams registered 620 wins and only 147 losses while earning far more national honors than any other university.

Under Wooden, UCLA won an unprecedented 10 NCAA championships, including seven consecutive (1966-73). Included in the string is one of the most amazing win streaks in all of sports, 38-straight NCAA tournament victories.



In addition, there is the all-time NCAA consecutive winning-streak record of 88 games over four seasons, which included consecutive 30-0 seasons in 1971-72 and 1972-73. UCLA also won 149 of 151 games in Pauley Pavilion during his Bruin tenure.

Wooden is the only coach to compile four undefeated seasons of 30-0, and his Bruin teams captured 19 conference championships (the record of which Wooden is most proud). He is also the first person to be inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame as both a player and coach.

At Purdue University, he won letters in basketball and baseball his freshman year and later earned All-American honors as a guard on the basketball team from 1930-32. He captained Purdue's basketball teams of 1931 and 1932 and led the Boilermakers to two Big Ten titles and the 1932 national championship.

In July of 2003, Wooden received the highest honor awarded to a U.S. citizen, the U.S. Medal of Freedom. Coach passed away on June 4, 2010.

Wooden and his wife, Nell, who died in Los Angeles on March 21, 1985, were married for 53 years. Parents of a son, James Hugh, and a daughter, Nancy Anne, John had seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. On Dec. 20, 2003, the basketball floor in Pauley Pavilion was dedicated "Nell and John Wooden Court."

Billie Moore

Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Billie Moore was the first coach to lead two schools to national women's basketball championships - Cal State Fullerton and UCLA.

In 1970, her very first season at Cal State Fullerton, Moore led her team to the AIAW national title, and in her second season at UCLA in 1978, she guided the Bruins to their first and only national championship.

Moore was UCLA head coach for 16 years (1977-93) and compiled a 296-181 (.621) record. Along with the AIAW Championship, she led her team to a fourth-place finish in 1979, and her Bruin teams finished ninth nationally in 1985 and 1992.

At Cal State Fullerton, she recorded a 140-15 record in eight seasons, and her overall coaching record at both schools was 436-196 over 24 years. Her UCLA and Cal State Fullerton teams won 10 conference championships and advanced to the post-season 16 times with a 59-18 record. Moore, who coached fellow Hall of Famers Ann Meyers and Denise Curry, became the eighth coach in women's basketball history to reach the 400-win mark.

Moore coached the first U.S. women's Olympic basketball team to a silver medal at the Olympic Games in Montreal in 1976. She also led the 1973 and 1975 entries to the World University Games and the 1975 U.S. Pan American Games team.

Many of Coach Moore's former players (Ann Meyers, Denise Curry, Anita Ortega and Pat Summitt) have gone on to excel in athletic endeavors including college coaching, professional basketball, radio/television broadcasting and community service. Pat Summitt has been quoted as saying, "Billie Moore has had more influence on my coaching career than anyone. She was my mentor. She's had a huge impact on my coaching style."

Moore is a Westmoreland, Kansas native who received her undergraduate degree from Washburn University in Kansas and earned her Master's degree from Southern Illinois University. In 1999, she received her Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Washburn University.

The National Championship Season - 1978

Led by four-time All-American Ann Meyers, Anita Ortega, Denise Curry and first-year head coach Billie Moore, UCLA captured the 1978 AIAW (Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) national basketball championship in Pauley Pavilion. The title drive included Bruin wins in the final 21 games of the season and culminated in the 90-74 championship victory over Maryland before an AIAW record crowd of 9,351. In all, the Final Four weekend drew more than 17,000 fans to Pauley Pavilion and included a national semifinal win over Montclair State by an 85-77 count.

After capturing the WCAA conference championship, the road to the Final Four began with regional wins in Stanford, CA over Stanford (80-54), Long Beach State (79-78) and UNLV (100-88). Sectional wins followed over BYU (102-57) and Stephen F. Austin (86-60). UCLA finished with a 27-3 record, with all three losses coming on the road against top-10 ranked opponents. It averaged 96.2 points per game and outscored its opponents by an average of 28 points per contest.

AIAW Semifinals - Mar. 23, 1978

UCLA dominated the game, taking a 52-38 lead into halftime and never relinquishing it. Three Bruins recorded double-doubles - Denise Curry with 22 points and 14 rebounds, Heidi Nestor with 22/10 and Ann Meyers with 19/14. The Bruins controlled the boards, outrebounding Montclair State 61-29. MSC had 40 points from Carol Blazejowski but only 37 from the rest of the team.

1999 - Pac-10 Champions, Elite Eight Participants

The Bruins captured their first Pac-10 Conference championship in 1999. UCLA posted a 15-3 conference record, the most Pac-10 wins in its history. Its 26-8 overall record included the most wins by a Bruin team since the 1981 squad went 29-7. Coach Kathy Olivier's unit went on to advance further in the NCAA tournament, with a trip to the Elite Eight, than any other Bruin team in history. It marked UCLA's sixth overall tournament appearance and first-ever back-to-back appearances. In addition, the #3 seeding into the tournament was a school-best.

UCLA's run to the Elite Eight began in Pauley Pavilion, as the Bruins hosted Wisconsin-Green Bay for a first-round matchup. Four Bruin players scored in double-figures to lead UCLA to a 76-69 victory, setting up a second-round matchup with Kentucky. Pac-10 Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Maylana Martin led all players with 21 points, 15 coming from the free throw line, and Marie Philman posted a double-double with 16 points and 10 boards in the 87-63 win over the Wildcats.

UCLA continued its playoff run with a West Regional contest against seventh-ranked Colorado State at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. The Bruins' hopes suffered an early setback when point guard Erica Gomez sprained her ankle in the game's first minute, but freshman Michelle Greco stepped in and helped keep the team on course to a 26-25 lead at the half. It was a tight game throughout, and the Bruins led by one point, 67-66, with 2:12 to play when LaCresha Flannigan made five of six free throws down the stretch to put the game away UCLA advanced to its first-ever Elite Eight with a 77-68 decision and a date with third-ranked Louisiana Tech.

The Bruins played some of their best basketball of the year in jumping out to a 28-18 lead at the 7:23 mark of the first half in the Regional championship battle. However, the Lady Techsters scored the next 11 points in the game and led 35-32 at the break. The Bruins regained the lead at 38-37, but it would be their last of the contest as Tech rolled to a 88-62 win. Martin led four Bruins in double digits with 16 points.

The team set a school and Pac-10 record for steals in a season with 435 and for best field goal percentage in a game with a .695 mark (41-59 fg) at Washington State on February 25. The overall team shooting percentage for the season of .476 (ninth-best in the nation) was the best by a Bruin team since 1983-84 (.491). Opponents were held to .400 shooting in the 1999 season, which was the lowest mark since the 1978 UCLA team limited opponents to .395. The scoring average of 85.2 points per contest ranked fifth-best in the nation.

Maylana Martin cuts down the nets at Pauley Pavilion after the Bruins clinched their first-ever Pac-10 title in 1999.

The attendance of 9,530 fans which gathered to witness the USC game on January 23 was the largest ever to see a women's game in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, surpassing the total of 9,351 which were on hand for the 1978 AIAW National Championship game vs. Maryland. The team's final ranking of No. 7 in the USA Today coaches poll marked UCLA's highest finish ever in that poll and the best finish in either poll since a No. 7 ranking in the Associated Press listings in 1981.

Martin, led the conference in scoring with an 18.2 mark and ranked as the second-leading rebounder at 9.4 caroms per contest. Martin, who was a finalist for the Naismith Award presented to the nation's outstanding player, exploded for a career-best 38 points (seventh-highest total in school history) in a win at USC in which she connected on 13-19 shots from the field and 12-14 free throws. The junior also grabbed a career-best matching 18 rebounds in that game.

UCLA's biggest surprise during the season was the play of sophomore guard Flannigan, who earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as well. She was the second-leading scorer on the team behind Martin with a 14.1 mark and managed to do most of her damage in the conference, where she averaged 17.2 points per game.

The Bruins' third first-team All-Pac-10 selection was Gomez, who broke Ann Meyers' (544) school record for career assists. Gomez set the record at home against Arizona State on March 4 and finished her junior season with 573 assists. She also established a school record for assists in a single-game with 16 in the game at Arizona State on January 5. Her season assist average of 6.67 edged Mary Hegarty's old school record of 6.66 for best single-season mark.

Two other starters averaged in double figures for the Bruins in the championship season. Junior center Janae Hubbard, an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection, averaged 12.5 points per game and ranked fourth in the conference in rebounding with a 7.9 mark. During the year, Hubbard pulled down 22 rebounds in a game vs. Arizona on March 6, the fourth-highest single-game total in school history. Earlier in the year, she had scored a career-best 29 points against UConn. Philman scored 11.1 points per game and grabbed five boards. She set or tied her career high in points in four games during the season, including a best of 24 vs. Washington on January 28.

The Bruin bench was a big reason for the success of this team, and three players were the primary contributors. Junior Melanie Pearson appeared in all 34 games and averaged 8.5 points while leading the team with 40 three-point goals. Junior Carly Funicello provided valuable assistance on the inside. She averaged 5.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game and saw action in 31 contests. Greco was the third key member of the team, providing a lift off the bench. Greco, who was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team and to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team, scored at a 7.8 points per game clip and handed out 94 assists in 34 games.

2006 Pac-10 Tournament Champions

Led by the Triple Threat of Nikki Blue, Noelle Quinn and Lisa Willis, the Bruins entered the 2006 State Farm Pac-10 Tournament as the third seeded team and proceeded to knock off California (#6 seed), Arizona State (#2) and Stanford (#1) on consecutive days in the HP Pavilion in San Jose, CA to win the school's first-ever conference tournament championship.

Willis was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament after averaging 20.3 points per game over the three days. Blue, who set a tournament record with 11 assists in the win over Cal, was named to the All-Tournament team for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first Pac-10 player to accomplish this feat. Quinn, who led the Bruins with 22 points in the championship win over Stanford, was also selected to the All-Tournament Team.

As the No. 3 seed in the tournament, the Bruins had a first-round bye and then faced No. 6 California in the second round. The Bruin defense was swarming, setting a Pac-10 Tournament record with 20 steals in the game and forcing a total of 23 California turnovers in a 80-63 victory. Offensively, four Bruins were in double-figure scoring, with double-doubles from Noelle Quinn (18 points/10 rebounds) and Nikki Blue (14 points/Pac-10 Tournament record 11 assists). Lisa Willis was one steal shy of Blue's Tournament steals record, finishing with seven, and also had 14 points. Chinyere Ibekwe added 10 and Ortal Oren scored eight off the Bruin bench which contributed a total of 21 points for the game.

Cal led early in the game, but UCLA went on an 8-0 run to take an 11-5 lead that it never relinquished. The Golden Bears used a 6-0 second-half run to close to within eight, 50-42, with 13:05 on the clock, but Willis stopped Cal's momentum by burying a three-pointer. Willis' three jump-started a 17-4 Bruin run that gave UCLA a 67-46 lead and put the game away. UCLA went on to lead by as many as 22 points, 75-53.

In the semifinals, UCLA matched up against No. 2 seed Arizona State and got a huge second-half surge from Willis to come away with a 60-59 victory that not only sent the Bruins to the title game but gave head coach Kathy Olivier her 200th career victory. UCLA got off to a slow start in the game and trailed, 28-19, at the half. The second half saw seven ties and 11 lead changes, the last coming when Quinn made two free throws with 28.9 seconds remaining. UCLA forced a turnover in the final seconds to secure the win, but it was Willis' 20 second-half points that put the Bruins in position for the win. Willis finished with 27 points, five three-point shots, two blocks and six steals. Quinn contributed another double-double with 16 points, 10 rebounds, three steals, two assists and two blocks for the Bruins, who snapped ASU's school-record 10-game winning streak. The Bruin defense came through again, forcing 26 Sun Devil turnovers, 17 via steals.

Chinyere Ibekwe and Lindsey Pluimer

With UCLA in the Championship game for the first time in the Tournament's history, only No. 1 seed and three-time defending champion Stanford stood in the way of the Tournament crown. The two teams had split the regular season series, with each winning at home. UCLA trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half of the game and by seven points, 70-63, with 1:29 to play but refused to give up. The Bruins scored the final seven points in regulation time with a basket by Quinn with five seconds to play knotting the score at 70. A three-point shot by Lindsey Pluimer pushed the Bruins into a 73-72 lead in overtime they would not give up. Two big free throws by Ibekwe with 28 seconds to play in overtime gave UCLA an 80-76 advantage. UCLA hits five of six free throws down the stretch while holding Stanford without a basket to earn its first conference tournament championship. Quinn finished with 22 points and eight rebounds. Willis added 20 points, four assists and six steals. Pluimer contributed 16, and Blue had 14 points, eight assists and six steals.

The Bruins set several tournament records - Quinn with 23 field goals; Willis with 11 made three-point shots, 19 steals and a 6.3 steals average; Blue with 11 assists in the Cal game and an assist average of 8.3. UCLA also set a tournament record with 20 steals in the game against California, and their total of 52 for the three games in the tournament were a record.

With the NCAA automatic bid in hand, the Bruins traveled to Purdue for the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round against 23rd-ranked Bowling Green, UCLA used an 18-1 run in the first half to turn a 13-15 deficit into a 31-16 lead and went on to win by a final score of 74-61. The Triple Threat once again dominated, combining to score 51 of the Bruins' 74 points. Willis led all players with 23 points and 12 rebounds, the 15th NCAA Tournament double-double in UCLA history. Quinn added 21 points with seven rebounds, and Blue contributed seven points and six assists. Pluimer also had a solid game with eight points and 10 rebounds. UCLA outshot Bowling Green, 46.9-36.5% and outrebounded the Falcons, 49-31. Willis set a school record for three-point shots made in the NCAA Tournament, connecting on five treys.

Although UCLA's NCAA Tournament run ended in the next round against 11th-ranked Purdue, the 2006 Bruins enjoyed a stellar season, finishing the year with 21 victories and 12 conference wins (third-most in school history) and placing three players (Blue, Quinn, Willis) on the AP honorable mention All-America team.

Administrator Biographies

Chancellor • Stanford '70 • 5th Year

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August of 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service. A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block quickly called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the city of Los Angeles and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he has spearheaded a process of broad-based, campuswide strategic planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters of Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Insititutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community. Dr. Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978 as an assistant professor of biology. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001.

A native of Monticello, NY, Dr. Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, working with the late Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing" and distinguished biologist and former Stanford President, Donald Kennedy. Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director • UCLA '74 • 10th Year

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now in charge of the program at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is the current president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee and served as president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association in 2010-11. As the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball committee chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package as well as the decision to expand the tournament to 68 teams.

In Guerrero's nine years as AD, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA Team Championships (107) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those nine years, UCLA teams have won 21 NCAA national team championships (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 17 times and have had an additional 35 Top Five finishes (70 total). A staggering 172 teams (of 207 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition, and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 46 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 460 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

This past year Guerrero received recognition by several prestigious organizations. In May 2011, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators Association as the Dr. Myles Brand Administrator of the Year. In April, he was presented with the Crystal Eagle Award by CORO Southern California, an organization that provides training of civic and government leaders. Additionally, this past March, Guerrero was recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) at the Guardian of the Games Awards Show with the Clifford Wells Award for distinguished service to the organization.

Under Guerrero leadership, UCLA continues to remain one of the premier broad-based intercollegiate programs in the country. In the last nine years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07, 2005-06), third twice (2004-05, 2003-04), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Director's Cup.

This past year in NCAA competition, UCLA won its 107th NCAA title (women's golf), placed second in women's gymnastics, third in women's water polo and women's tennis (tied), fifth (tied) in men's golf and men's soccer, ninth (tied) in men's tennis and women's soccer, 17th (tied) in men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball and women's volleyball and 20th in women's swimming.

.Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Guerrero was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. He earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year. Guerrero is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna and Katie.

Petrina Long

Senior Associate Athletic Director/SWA • California '77 • 8th Year

Petrina Long enters her eighth year as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator at UCLA, having joined the staff in June of 2004. Long has oversight responsibility for several sports, including women's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and gymnastics, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she had served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as UCI's interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is also extensively involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving for three years as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross-country, track & field, and men's soccer (MPSF). She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee (SWAC) and is currently a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UCI, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin. Long was a member of the Big West Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UCI, Long spent nine years at Columbia University, serving in both the associate and assistant athletics director positions. She was the Assistant Athletics Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist University from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1979-82.

Long received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley, in 1977 and her Master's degree in Anthropology from Columbia in 1992. She and her husband, Sam McCamey, have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Monte and Traland.

UCLA Community Outreach/ Wooden Academy

All UCLA head coaches stress involvement with the campus and the community. Whether it's volunteering at an inner-city youth clinic, speaking to children at elementary and middle schools in the area, or assisting in campus programs such as 'Marathon Kids' and 'I'm Going to College,' community service is an important aspect of being a Bruin. These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Community Outreach

Bruin student-athletes, coaches and staff have the opportunity to participate in community service activities on campus and throughout the Los Angeles area. Examples of these events include;

- Marathon Kids
- Dribble for the Cure
- Mattel Children's Hospital
- Elementary/Middle School Visits
- Team Prime Time/Prime Time Games
- UCLA Lab School Jogathon
- I'm Going to College

These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Wooden Academy: Teamwork, Leadership and Character

The Wooden Academy is a comprehensive leadership development program designed to educate and support the standards of leadership for Bruin student-athletes. The pillars of the Wooden Academy are teamwork, leadership and character. The program is named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the values and principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes will have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars and learning practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.
