

UCLA'S HOME COURSES

Bel-Air Country Club: The Bel-Air Country Club, site of the 1976 U.S. Amateur Championship and 2004 U.S. Senior Amateur Championship, has served as UCLA's home course for more than 40 years. Located across the street from UCLA's on-campus practice facility, Bel-Air's original architecture was done by George C. Thomas, Jack Neville and Billy Bell Sr., with most recent changes by Robert Trent Jones. The Bruins play here frequently and enjoy privileges at the driving range. From the white tees the course measures 6,100 yards, par 74 with a rating of 67.0.

Brentwood Country Club: The Brentwood Country Club is located just 10 minutes from the UCLA campus. The course, which measures 6,120 yards and carries a 75.3 rating from the white tees, puts emphasis on accuracy and is often subject to strong ocean breezes. The course also boasts an excellent short game practice area. Brentwood and UCLA also hosted the 1994 Women's Pacific-10 Conference Championship. The Bruins play here on Tuesdays.

Hillcrest Country Club: Located 10 minutes from campus, Hillcrest is one of the area's oldest layouts. Opened in 1922, it was the site of the 1929 PGA Championship won by Leo Diegel. Hillcrest also hosted the 1932 and '42 Los Angeles Opens. The course features rolling fairways, numerous bunkers and large undulating greens, plus some of the best views of the Los Angeles skyline. Designed by Willie Watson, the course carries a 74.8 rating over 5,833 yards.

Los Angeles Country Club: Considered one of America's finest, the North Course is consistently ranked among the nation's Top 20 private golf courses. Both the North and South courses were designed by George C. Thomas, who also designed Riviera CC and Ojai Valley CC. Site of the 1983 Men's Pac-10 Championships, won by UCLA. The Bruins enjoy regular playing privileges here.

Mountain Gate Country Club: Sporty course that offers great vistas of Los Angeles. Severely contoured greens require a delicate putting touch. The Bruins practice here often. Measures 5,705 yards, is rated 72.9 from the red tees, plays to a par of 72.

Palos Verdes Country Club: Built in 1924 and designed by George C. Thomas, this course is one of the Southland's best kept secrets. Although short in length it tests every facet of a player's game, particularly around the greens. Its rolling terrain produces many uneven lies. Greens are fast and fairways narrow. Home of the annual Northrop-Grumman Regional Challenge. From the yellow tees it measures 6,116 yards with a rating of 70.4 and a slope of 131. Par is 71.

Robinson Ranch: New facility, featuring two championship courses —The Mountain and The Valley. The Mountain Course measures 6,508 yards and offers dramatic views and plenty of water, while demanding strategic course management and accuracy off the tee. The Valley Course meanders through untouched stands of stage and chaparral, California Sycamores and Coastal Live Oaks. This course hosted the 2003 Pioneer Bruin Classic.

TPC at Valencia: Designed by Chris Gray and two-time major winner Mark O'Meara, it is a big golf course requiring both length off the tee, precise iron play and bold putting. Running through oak canyons, river valleys and foothills, the course challenges players of every skill level. From the forward tees, the course measures 5,141 and plays to a par of 72.

Valencia Country Club: A classic Robert Trent Jones Sr. design featuring numerous bunkers, hidden water hazards and large, undulating greens. Prevailing afternoon winds can make this course play long and difficult. Signature hole is the par three third that features a long carry over water to a big, fast green, shaded by tall trees. From the red tees, this par 74 course is rated 74.4 with a slope of 133 over 6,000 yards. Coach Forsyth's home course.

Wilshire Country Club: Medium length course that boasts the city's best greens. A barranca runs through the course and comes into play on almost all the holes. Boasts an excellent chipping and putting area and a well-maintained range. Carries a course rating of 74.7 at 6,008 yards and a slope of 133. The Bruins play here on Wednesdays.

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • UCLA '74 • 9TH YEAR

In just eight years as UCLA's Director of Athletics, Daniel G. Guerrero has boldly placed his imprint on the school's athletic program.

Guerrero, one of the most influential, respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, completed his term in 2010 as the chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. In addition, he is currently serving as the president of the the Division I Athletic Directors Association and as the first vice-president of the National Assn. of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

In his eight years as AD, Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA's 106 NCAA team championships ranks No.1 in the nation. In Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have won a nation-leading 20 NCAA team titles in 11 different sports, finished second 16 times and have recorded an additional 28 Top Five finishes. A staggering 82% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 45 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced 400 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China, 39 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and nine other nations. They won 15 medals, including four gold.

This past year, UCLA placed fourth in competition for the Leerfield Cup and won its 11th NCAA Championship in softball and its sixth in women's gymnastics. The Bruins finished second in baseball and men's water polo, tied for third in women's soccer after advancing to a seventh straight College Cup, fifth in women's water polo, tied for fifth in men's soccer and men's tennis, sixth in women's golf, tied for ninth in women's tennis, 12th in women's rowing, 16th in men's golf, tied for 17th in women's basketball and women's volleyball and 19th in women's swimming. UCLA also won three conference titles and two league post-season tournaments and the football team won the EagleBank Bowl.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Originally from Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna and Katie.

BOB FIELD

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • ARKANSAS '71 • 10TH YEAR

Bob Field is an associate athletic director and has served as a member of UCLA's athletic administration since January of 2001.

Field oversees men's and women's golf and women's rowing and serves as an aide to Dan Guerrero in all football matters. He was instrumental in the coaching search that resulted in the selection of Rick Neuheisel. Field also oversees housing, parking, training table, video services, agent relations and coaches' development.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons as an assistant coach with the Bruin football team. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-2000) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers and defensive backs at various times in his career.

Field has been at UCLA since 1978, with the exception of the 1980 season. Over the years, he tutored some of the top athletes in school history and crafted numerous defenses ranked in the Top 20 in various categories.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator in his final four seasons with the Bulldogs.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year varsity letterman and two-year starter in the secondary. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5.

As a player and coach, Field participated in 20 bowl games, including one Orange, two Sugar, three Cotton, two Fiesta and five Rose Bowls. During his tenure at UCLA, the Bruins recorded eight consecutive bowl wins, eight straight wins over USC and won or tied for seven Pac-10 championships.

Field is married to Valerie Kondos Field, UCLA's women's gymnastics coach. He has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael. Brian and his wife Carmell have a daughter, Selah, 1.

The UCLA Athletic Department and the women's golf program sincerely thank Carl and Bette McBain for their generous support of UCLA Athletics. The McBains have established five athletic endowments: football, men's track and field, women's gymnastics, women's basketball and women's golf. In addition, the McBains generously gave their financial support for the construction and renovation of the J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center. They are Hoopsters members, and have named the Administrative Suite in the Morgan Center.

Carl was a three-year track and field letterman from 1938-41 as one of the country's best hurdlers. Some of his teammates included the late Tom Bradley, former mayor of Los Angeles, Kenny Washington, one of the first African-American to play in the NFL, and Baseball Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, the first African-American to play Major League Baseball.

In 1940, Carl earned All-America honors and won the AAU national championship in the 400-meter intermediate hurdles. His time of 51.6 was the world's fastest that year and stood as the American record for 12 years. Although voted by national sports writers as most likely to win the Olympic gold medal in this event, Carl didn't compete because World War II caused the cancellation of the Games. He graduated from UCLA in 1941 with a degree in Psychology.

Four days after graduation, Carl married Bette. After serving as an officer in the Navy, he returned to campus and served as Administrator of Medical Research for five years on the UCLA Atomic Energy Commission. In 1952, Carl founded McBain Instruments, which manufactures mechanical, optical and automated instruments for industry and medicine. He still works several days a week.

If their financial support hasn't been enough, the McBain's legacy continued in another way: their grandniece, Melissa McBain, competed for the UCLA's women's cross country and track and field teams from 2000-04.

FRIENDS OF GOLF

The Friends of Golf (FOG) organization has been a fixture of financial support for the UCLA golf program and collegiate and youth golf nationwide for nearly four decades.

The origins of this group come from former UCLA golf coach and GCAA Hall of Famer, Eddie Merrins. Under his stewardship from 1976-89, the UCLA golf program developed into one of the most successful in the country.

Merrins pioneered the FOG organization to aid in fund-raising activities for youth golf programs around the Southland. FOG was incorporated in 1981 as a non-profit organization and has drawn enthusiasm from many prominent professionals in the business and sports communities.

The annual FOG event is highlighted by an elaborate golf tournament and dinner held at Bel-Air Country Club. Luminaries such as Dinah Shore, Digger Phelps, Rick Pitino, David Wolper and Richard Crenna distinguished the tournament in 1991. Highlighting the 12th annual tournament was the legendary Jack Nicklaus. Each year, FOG honors a member of the PGA Tour which has enabled Friends of Golf to endow the Golf Scholarship Fund at UCLA.

The late, legendary golfer Byron Nelson, a two-time FOG honoree, called the annual event, "The best one-day golf tournament in the country."
