UCLA'S ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

UCLA gymnasts are not only winners on the floor but winners in the classroom as well. The UCLA gymnastics team annually ranks as the top academic team on campus and produces several academic award-winners.

Jill Andrews and Kate Richardson are amongst the most honored student-athletes in UCLA history, winning numerous academic awards on top of their athletic achievements. Andrews won the Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in 1991 and the NCAA Top VI Award in 1990. She also received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors twice in her career. Richardson earned Academic All-America honors three times and was selected the Pac-10 Woman of the Year. She was also awarded a NCAA post-graduate scholarship and won the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award.

The Bruins have been especially impressive academically the last eight seasons, producing a CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree in six of the last eight years and placing a UCLA all-time best 11 athletes on the NACGC/W Scholastic All-America team in 2003.

UCLA GYMNASTICS HALL OF FAMERS

Four of UCLA Gymnastics' all-time greats - Sharon Shapiro, Kim Hamilton, Jill Andrews and Leah Homma - have been inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

On Oct. 30, 1999, Sharon Shapiro became the first women's gymnastics Hall of Fame inductee. Shapiro enjoyed an illustrious and historic athletic career for the Bruins. She remains the only gymnast ever to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around in the same year, a feat she accomplished at the 1980 AIAW National Championships her freshman season.

In 1981, Shapiro won the prestigious Broderick Award, given to the country's top female gymnast. As a sophomore that season, she defended her all-around title and also won the individual vault crown. The following year, she earned All-America honors in the all-around, vault and balance beam.

Shapiro has remained a key alumna, supporter, and ambassador for UCLA and her sport since her graduation.

Sharon Shapiro was the first female gymnast inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999.

Award. In addition, she was a Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award winner.

She was also honored by the Bruin gymnastics team with an award named after her, the annual Jill Andrews award for integrity.

Andrews, who graduated from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1994, was a Deputy City Attorney in San Francisco for six years, handling labor and employment litigation on behalf of the city and now currently works in legal counsel for NXP Semiconductors.

Leah Homma is UCLA Gymnastics' most recent UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame member, having been inducted on Oct. 3, 2008.

Homma arrived at UCLA a highly-recruited gymnast from Canada and competed for four years (1994-97), leading the Bruins to their first NCAA team title in 1997. Head Coach Valorie Kondos Field said Homma played "the biggest role in helping our team win its first NCAA Championship. (She) was a quiet leader who always led by example, was an unwavering hard worker, enthusiastic about her training, and always quick to help out her teammates in a quiet and unassuming manner." Homma finished fourth in the 1997 NCAA All-Around to help bring the title to Westwood.

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony - UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2000

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony became UCLA's second inductee on Oct. 21, 2000. Like Shapiro, Hamilton also set a national record that has yet to be duplicated when she won three consecutive NCAA floor exercise titles from 1987-1989. She also won the NCAA vault title in 1989.

At the regional level, she won a school-record tying seven titles, including three each in the all-around and floor. She also won Pac-10 championships on bars and floor in both 1989 and 1988. In her career, she earned six All-America honors.

Anthony has also remained a major figure in the sport, having maintained a successful career as a sports commentator for ESPN and Fox Sports.

Jill Andrews joined her former teammate Anthony in the Hall of Fame on Oct. 13, 2001. In 1990, Andrews became UCLA gymnastics' second Honda Award winner, capping off a career in which she won an NCAA title on vault in 1988 and on beam in 1989. Andrews earned eight first-team All-America honors in her career and was a two-time Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year.

Andrews' accomplishments were not limited to the gymnastics floor. She excelled academically as one of UCLA's all-time great student-athletes. In 1990, Andrews earned an NCAA post-graduate scholarship and was awarded the NCAA Top Six

Leah Homma - UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2008

Homma's other accomplishments included the 1994 and '97 Pac-10 all-around titles as well as the 1996 and '97 Pac-10 uneven bar crowns. She was twice named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year (1995 and '97) and was also an eight-time All-American, honored four times each as a first-team and second team selection. During her career, she set and reset UCLA records in the all-around and was the second UCLA gymnast to receive 10.0s in two different events. In 1997, Homma was named UCLA's All-University Female Athlete of the Year and was a Honda Award nominee. She also excelled in the classroom, earning Pac-10 All-Academic honors on three occasions.

Prior to her arrival at UCLA, she was a member of the Canadian National Team and was the 1991 Canadian champion in the floor exercise. Homma left her eternal mark on the world of gymnastics with three moves named after her in the international code of points: the Homma Flip on beam and the Homma Flairs on beam and floor.

Homma remains involved in gymnastics, coaching at Broadway Gymnastics in Los Angeles. She also owns her own business - A.Y. Rover designer dog beds.
