Dan Guerrero

Athletic Director • UCLA '74 • 5th Year

In just four years as UCLA's Director of Athletics, Daniel G. Guerrero has boldly placed his imprint on the school's athletic program.

A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater. Hailed as one of the nation's leading athletic directors, his first four years in this position have resulted in unprecedented success for the Bruins' broad-based athletic program. Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 university in the nation for NCAA Team Championships won (99 heading into 2006-07), a number that continues to grow under his direction.

During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have won 13 NCAA championships (the highest total in the nation in that span), finished second 11 times and have had an additional 13 Top Five finishes. A staggering 80 teams (of 97 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition, and the football team has appeared in five bowl games. The program has also won 28 conference championships, produced 231 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman of the Year.

Over the past four years, Guerrero earned numerous honors, including 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year; 2003 Cal State Dominguez Hills Alumnus of the Year and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Assn. On Sept. 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning High School to have his jersey (No. 8 in baseball) retired. Guerrero was named one of the nation's Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine, and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him No. 28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports.

Guerrero, 55, came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna (24) and Katie (20).

Bob Field

Associate Athletic Director • Arkansas '74 • 6th Year

Bob Field is in his fourth year as associate athletic director, and sixth year in athletic administration. Field, who served as a Bruin assistant football coach for 22 years, began his career in athletic administration in January of 2001.

In 2003, Field assumed more responsibility. In addition to women's rowing, he now oversees men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, coaches development and video services.

Because of his extensive knowledge and experience in football, Field played an important role assisting Athletic Director Dan Guerrero in the selection of new head football coach Karl Dorrell. He will continue to serve as an aide to Guerrero in football matters.

Prior to his switch to administration, Field spent 22 seasons with the UCLA football team as an assistant coach. He was the assistant head coach during his final five seasons (1996-2000) and served as defensive coordinator for 16 seasons (1982-95 and 1999-00) while tutoring outside linebackers, place kickers, and the secondary at various times in his career.

He began his coaching career under the legendary Bear Bryant at Alabama (1971-72) and moved to Mississippi State in 1973. During his five-year tenure at MSU, he coached the secondary, served as defensive coordinator and, in his final year, was the Bulldog assistant head coach.

Field earned a Bachelor's degree in Science Education at Arkansas in 1971 and was named to the All-Southwest Conference Academic Team his senior year. He was a three-year letterman and two-year starter in the defensive backfield. In his three varsity seasons, the Razorbacks were 28-5 with two Sugar Bowl appearances.

He is married to the former Valorie Kondos and has three sons: Kyle, Brian and Michael.

UCLA ATHLETIC FUND

The UCLA Athletics Campaign has endowed 189 of the 273 NCAA allowable athletic grants-in-aid. UCLA Athletics expresses its sincere gratitude to the individuals listed for their support in the continuing effort to distinguish UCLA as the nation's premier academic and athletics institution.

An endowment generates income to the University in perpetuity. By investing the gift principal and using just the interest earned to help meet the cost of a grant-in-aid assures the Athletic Department of on-going funds to maintain the quality and diversity of its program.

Currently, UCLA provides financial assistance to over 400 student-athletes participating in 22 intercollegiate sports. However, expenses such as the cost of tuition for student-athletes have increased dramatically in the last several years while department revenues have remained relatively stable.

Tax-deductible gifts to the UCLA Athletic Fund play a pivotal role in meeting the escalating costs of team travel, recruiting, equipment replacement and, most importantly, in providing athletic scholarships. Now more than ever, private support is necessary if UCLA is to maintain its position as the best athletic program in the country. Your help is truly needed and greatly appreciated.

To encourage private support of our program, the best football and basketball tickets are allocated to our most generous donors. Members of the Athletic Fund receive priority in the assignment of tickets for home contests in the Rose Bowl and in Pauley Pavilion in accordance with the UCLA Priority Seating Policy. In many cases, special reserved parking is also available for our donors.

If you have any questions regarding the UCLA Athletic Fund or the benefits members receive, please contact the Athletic Fund Office at 310/206-3302.
