

UCLA ROWING

2008 Media Guide

UCLA's Four-Year Seniors

2008 UCLA Rowing Schedule

Date	Opponent	Site
March 8	Loyola Marymount	Marina del Rey, Calif.
March 15	San Diego State	Marina del Rey, Calif.
March 29-30	Windermere Stanford	Redwood Shores, Calif.
April 5-6	San Diego Crew Classic	Mission Bay, Calif.
April 19-20	Stanford Invite	Redwood Shores, Calif.
May 3	at USC	Los Angeles, Calif.
May 17	Pacific Coast Rowing Championships	Sacramento, Calif.
May 18	May 18	Sacramento, Calif.
May 30-June 1	May 30-June 1	Sacramento, Calif.

WHY UCLA?

Lynn Hancock, '10
Hometown: Vancouver, British Columbia

"I came to UCLA because of the atmosphere. The feeling of being a part of this team and university is unlike anything I have experienced. There is a spirit here which you feel at every practice and in every classroom that is reflected back in the eyes of everyone you meet."

Vanessa Teff, '09
Hometown: Middleton, Wisconsin

"UCLA provides me with the resources to succeed – accomplished and supportive coaches, talented and committed teammates, a competitive team atmosphere and a vast array of excellent choices in academics. There's no doubt UCLA is the perfect fit for me."

Elizabeth Herron, '08
Hometown: Tiburon, California

"I chose UCLA for the team and its inter-team dynamics. When I got home from my official visit I couldn't stop talking about the team, the coaches, the school and the campus. It had all my other visits beat, hands down."

Alexandra Howard, '09
Hometown: Fairfield, Connecticut

"I chose UCLA for the outstanding combinations of academic and athletic competition. Being welcomed into an athletics department that boasts more NCAA Championships than any other university, and knowing that I can be a part of that success, is amazing."