

UCLA ROWING

2009 Media Guide

WHY UCLA?

Lynn Hancock, '10
Hometown: Vancouver, British Columbia

"I came to UCLA because of the atmosphere. The feeling of being a part of this team and university is unlike anything I have experienced. There is a spirit here which you feel at every practice and in every classroom that is reflected back in the eyes of everyone you meet."

Vanessa Teff, '09
Hometown: Middleton, Wisconsin

"UCLA provides me with the resources to succeed – accomplished and supportive coaches, talented and committed teammates, a competitive team atmosphere and a vast array of excellent choices in academics. There's no doubt UCLA has been a perfect fit for me."

Alaizah Koorji, '11
Hometown: Orinda, California

"UCLA's athletic and academic prestige is unmatched by any other school. It is a privilege to be surrounded by such a motivated and well-rounded student body. I take great pride in holding the title UCLA Bruin Student-Athlete."

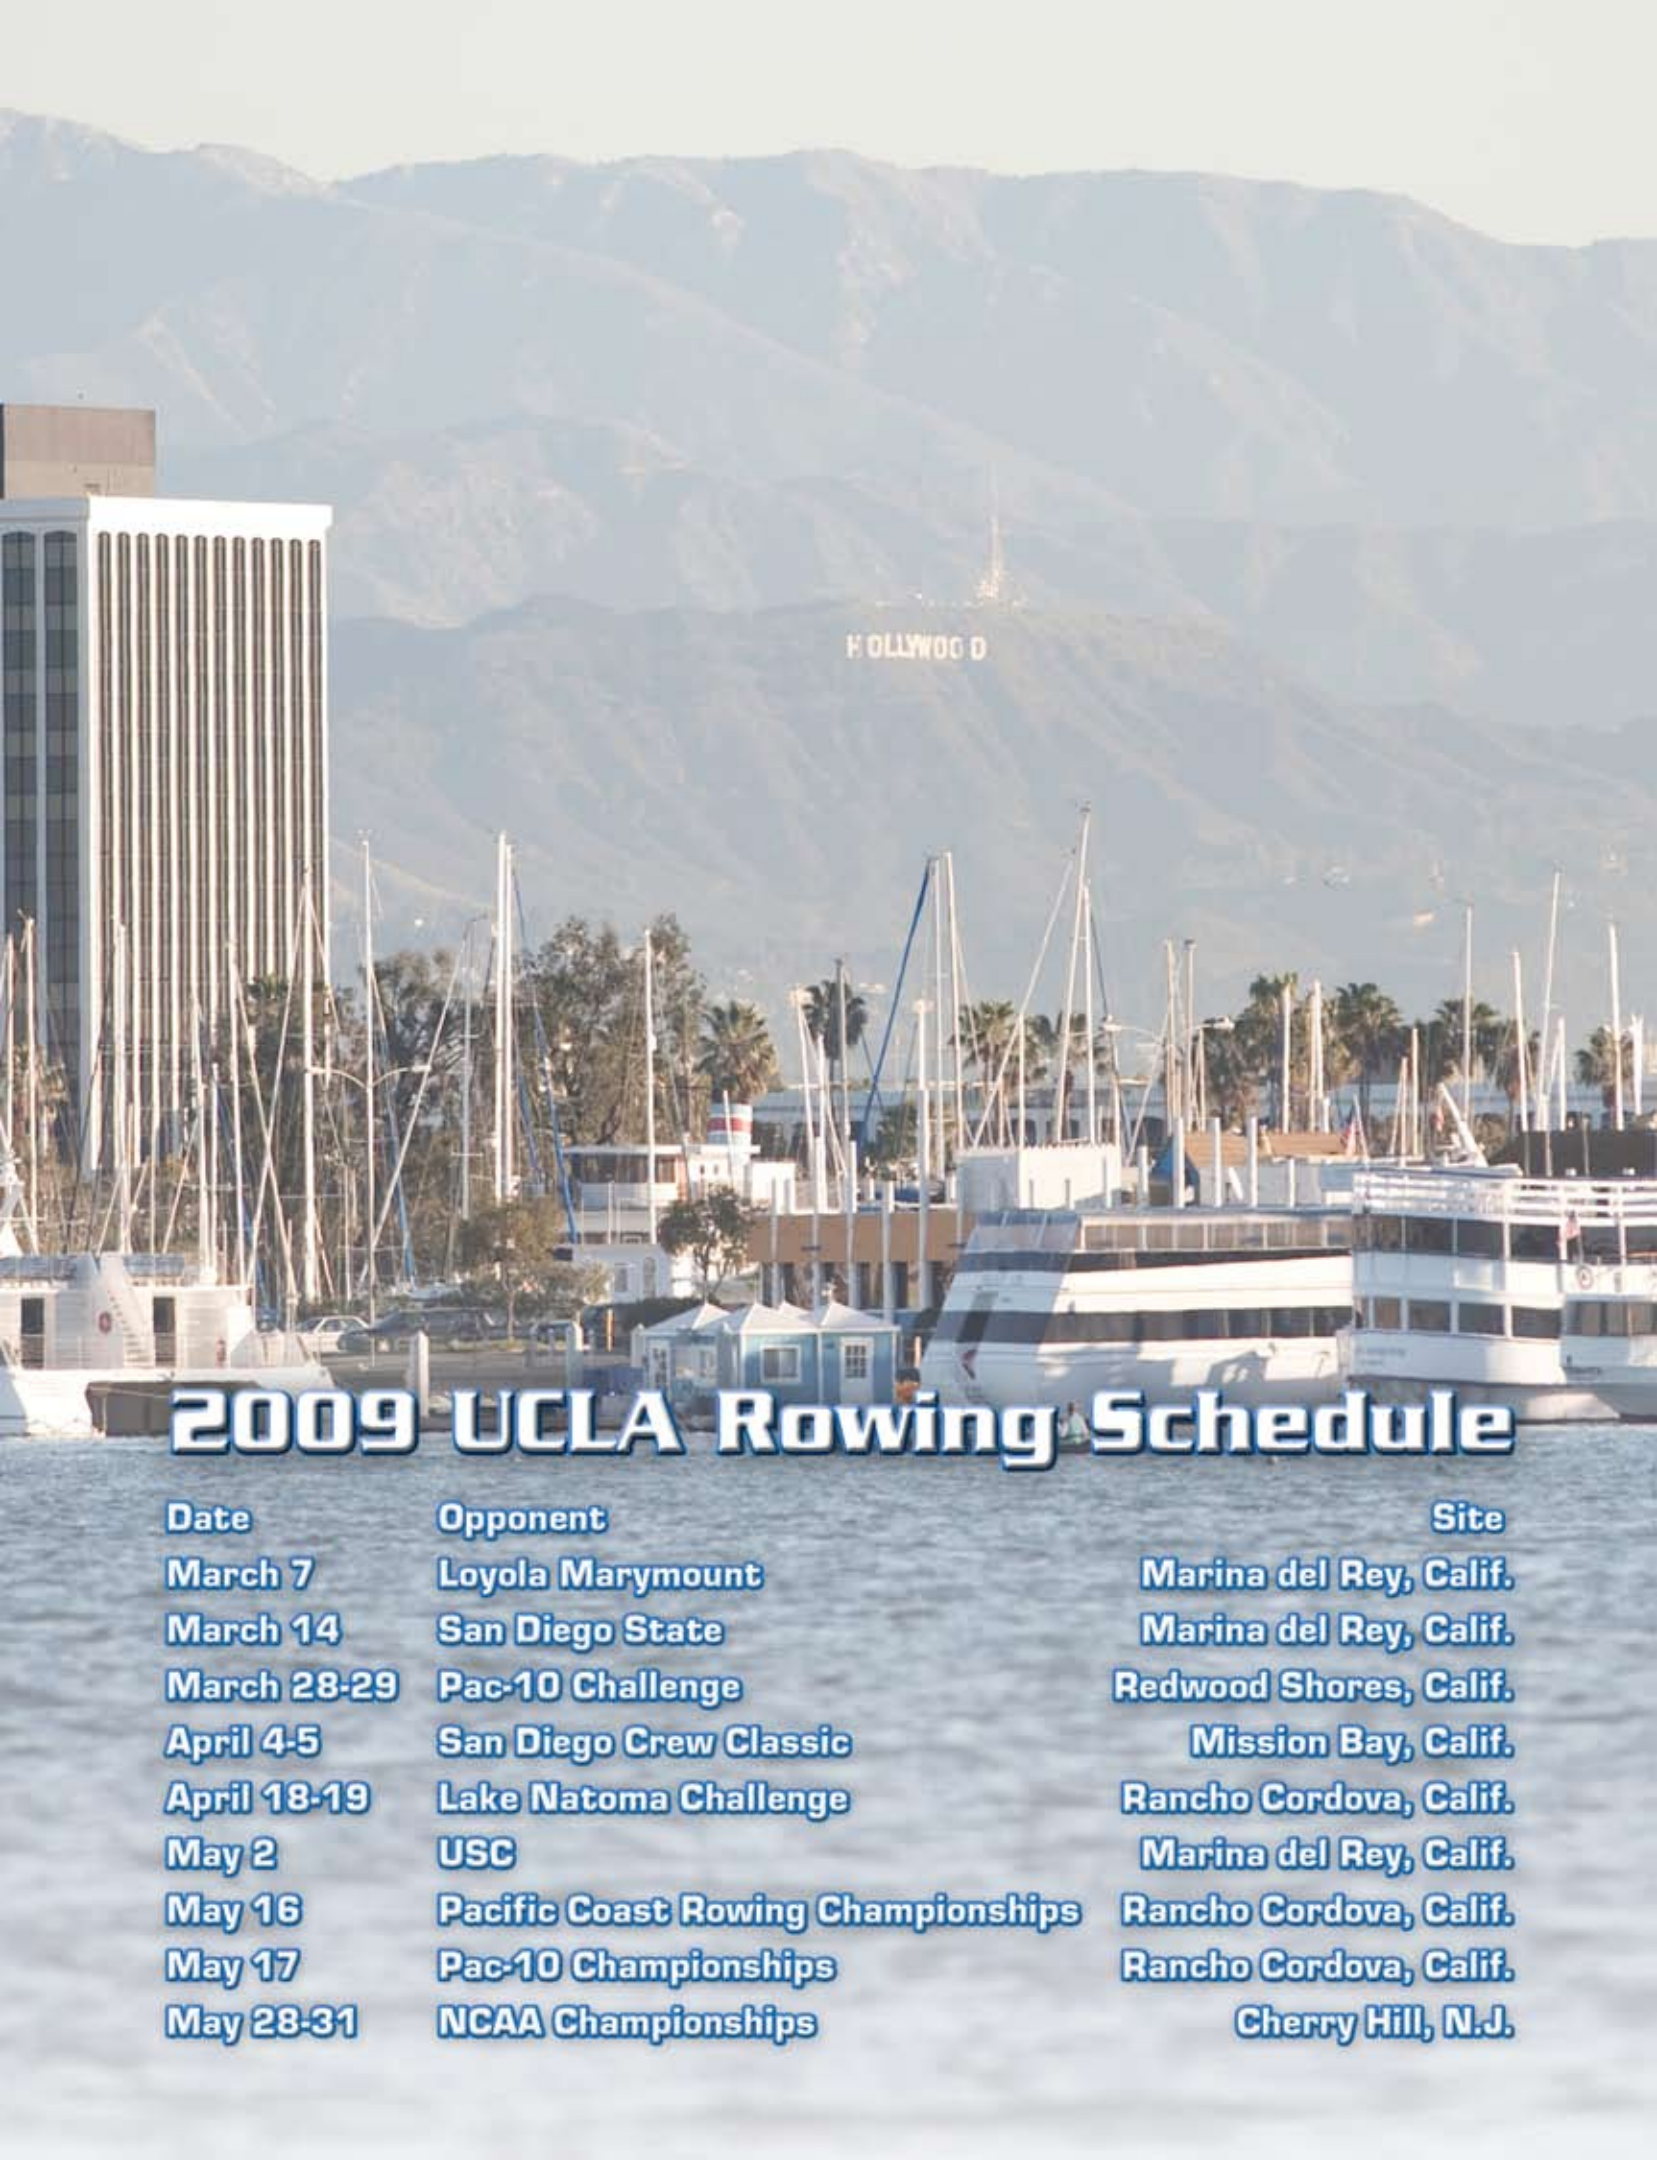

Alexandra Howard, '09
Hometown: Fairfield, Connecticut

"I chose UCLA for the outstanding combinations of academic and athletic competition. Being welcomed into an athletics department that boasts more NCAA Championships than any other university, and knowing that I can be a part of that success, is amazing."

THIS IS UCLA ROWING

HOME OF THE BRUINS

2009 UCLA Rowing Schedule

Date	Opponent	Site
March 7	Loyola Marymount	Marina del Rey, Calif.
March 14	San Diego State	Marina del Rey, Calif.
March 28-29	Pac-10 Challenge	Redwood Shores, Calif.
April 4-5	San Diego Crew Classic	Mission Bay, Calif.
April 18-19	Lake Natoma Challenge	Rancho Cordova, Calif.
May 2	USC	Marina del Rey, Calif.
May 16	Pacific Coast Rowing Championships	Rancho Cordova, Calif.
May 17	Pac-10 Championships	Rancho Cordova, Calif.
May 28-31	NCAA Championships	Cherry Hill, N.J.