Honoring UCLA's Seven Seniors

THIS IS UCLA ROWING

HOME OF THE BRUINS

WHY UCLA?

Lynn Hancock, '10
Hometown: Vancouver, British Columbia

"I came to UCLA because of the atmosphere. The feeling of being a part of this team and university is unlike anything I have experienced. There is a spirit here which you feel at every practice and in every classroom that is reflected back in the eyes of everyone you meet."

Rachel LaBella, '11
Hometown: Princeton Junction, New Jersey

"I chose to attend and row at UCLA because this school offers the most prestigious combination of academics and athletics. Competing as a student-athlete at UCLA has helped me push toward my goals. I know that I will always be proud to be a Bruin."

Britta Syverson, '13
Hometown: Minneapolis, Minnesota

"I chose to come to UCLA because of the university's amazing athletic community. I know that I am always surrounded by people who want me to succeed, from former Olympic coaches to the supportive academic staff. The education I will receive here will last me a lifetime."

Alaizah Koorji, '11
Hometown: Orinda, California

"UCLA's athletic and academic prestige is unmatched by any other university. It's a true privilege to be surrounded by such a motivated and well-rounded student body. I take great pride in holding the title UCLA Bruin Student-Athlete."
