

2003 UCLA BRUINS SOFTBALL

at Washington/vs. Oregon/Oregon State • Apr. 30/May 2-4 • Seattle/Easton Stadium

Following a one-day trip to Seattle on Wednesday, the Bruins will return to Easton Stadium to close out its home schedule for the 2003 season. The weekend games will be the final games at Easton for UCLA's four seniors, Toria Auelua, Monique Mejia, Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley, because UCLA was not among the eight schools selected to host an NCAA Regional (list released on Monday). Saturday's game against Oregon State will be the first night game in the history of Easton Stadium, and will begin at 7 pm. A pre-game ceremony honoring UCLA's senior class will take place on Sunday.

UCLA DOWNS CAL, STANFORD FOR WEEKEND SWEEP

The Bruins opened their weekend schedule with a 10-0 run-rule victory over California that featured home runs by Tairia Mims, Claire Sua and Andrea Duran. Sua's fourth-inning shot was her 12th of the season, and marked her fourth straight game with a home run.

In Saturday's game against Stanford, Keira Goerl shut out the Cardinal, striking out seven and scattering six hits. After five and a half scoreless innings, Emily Zaplatosch drew a two-out walk and scored from first base on an RBI double from Toria Auelua to give the Bruins a 1-0 lead that would stand up for the victory. Sunday's game took a different path, as Stanford went up 1-0 in the top of the third inning before Caitlin Benyi drew an RBI walk to tie the game in the bottom half of the inning. In the fifth, the Cardinal took a 2-1 lead on a solo home run before Natasha Watley posted her seventh home run of the season to tie the game at 2-2. Two impressive defensive plays by the Bruin outfield kept the score knotted at two until the bottom of the eighth inning, when Watley clubbed her 8th home run of the year, a walk-off shot to center, for the 3-2 UCLA win.

UCLA vs. THIS WEEK'S OPPONENTS

No. 4/4 Washington—The Bruins and Huskies will become the final Pac-10 group to compete their "travel partner" series this Wednesday in Seattle, as the Bruins took both games from the Huskies at Easton Stadium with a 5-2 win on April 18 and a 10-0 six-inning win on April 19. The Huskies are coached by Teresa Wilson, and are led by Kristen Rivera (.377 BA, 19 HR) with Tia Bollinger (22-6, 1.19 ERA) and Ashley Boek (17-3, 1.54 ERA) sharing duties in the circle.

No. 20/23 Oregon—UCLA holds an all-time record of 52-8 against Oregon, including a split of the season series in Eugene on April 12 and 13. The Ducks took the Saturday game by a score of 5-4 before UCLA won Sunday's rain-delayed game by a 9-3 margin. Oregon is coached by Kathy Arendsen, and is led offensively by Andrea Vidlund (.340 BA, 9 HR) while Amy Harris (14-11, 1.45 ERA) leads the Ducks in the circle.

No. RV/RV Oregon State—The Bruins hold a 63-5 all-time record against the Beavers, including a 6-1 win in Corvallis on April 11. Oregon State is coached by Kirk Walker, and are led offensively by Brynennen Guthrie (.385 BA) and in the circle by Monica Hoffman (20-13, 1.97 ERA).

NEXT WEEK IN BRUIN SOFTBALL

UCLA concludes its regular season schedule next week with a trip to Arizona and Arizona State. The Bruins and Sun Devils will play a season-ending doubleheader on Saturday night, then UCLA will return to Los Angeles in anticipation of learning its postseason destination. The NCAA Tournament field will be announced on May 11 at 7 pm Pacific Time, live on ESPNNews.

KEIRA GOERL, ONE-HIT WONDER

If you're looking for someone to pitch a one-hitter, junior pitcher Keira Goerl is who you want in the circle. Although the junior pitcher did complete her first no-hitter of the season on Mar. 28 at Stanford, Goerl turned in a dozen (12) one-hit performances during her first 20 decisions of the season. Goerl earned Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors on Feb. 25 for her performance at the FAU Worth Invitational, when she posted a 3-0 record with a 0.00 ERA, striking out 26 batters and holding opposing batters to a .050 batting average. Each of Goerl's three appearances were one-hitters. She then earned ESPN.com/USA Softball National Player of the Week and Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors on April 1 for her performances against Cal State Fullerton, Stanford and California. Goerl pitched her first no-hitter of the season and struck out 25 during her 22.1 innings in the circle en route to a 3-0 record. Goerl's opponents hit just .123 against her, including a .106 mark in Pac-10 play. She tallied a 0.31 ERA for the week.

The Mar. 30 game at Cal saw an impressive streak end for Goerl when she allowed an earned run to the Golden Bears in the bottom of the seventh inning, snapping a streak of 98 innings without having allowed an earned run. Her season totals now include 251 strikeouts through 220.0 innings in the circle for an average of 8.2 strikeouts per seven-inning game. She has a record of 29-5 with a 0.67 ERA, and ranks fifth in UCLA history with 728 career strikeouts. With her Mar. 30 win at Cal, Goerl became the fifth pitcher in UCLA history with 80 career pitching victories, currently holding a career record of 88-12.

EIGHT BRUINS INVITED TO USA SOFTBALL TEAM CAMP

USA Softball has announced a list of 45 players invited to participate in a selection team camp, June 4-8, at the ARCO Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, CA. Eight current or former Bruins are among that 45-player list, including Courtney Dale (1997, 99-2001), Lisa Fernandez (1990-93), Amanda Freed (1999-2002), Keira Goerl, Lyndsey Klein (1999-2000), Tairia Mims, Stacey Nuveman (1997, 99, 2001-02) and Natasha Watley. Two teams will be selected following the team camp. The National team will represent the USA at the U.S. Cup in Honolulu, HI (June 19-22), the Canada Cup in Surrey, B.C., Canada (July 4-13) and the Pan American Games in Santo Domingo (August 5-14). The USA Softball Elite Team will compete in the Canada Cup as well as the Japan Cup in Yokohama, Japan (July 18-20). USA Softball has scheduled the Women's Olympic Team Selection camp for September 3-8, 2003 in Chula Vista, CA. For a complete list of players invited to the June Team Camp, log on to www.usasoftball.com

ENQUIST IS NCAA DIVISION I'S WINNINGEST COACH

The 2003 season marks Sue Enquist's 15th campaign as head coach of the Bruin softball program. It is her 24th year as part of UCLA's softball coaching staff and her 28th year of involvement with the program as either a coach or player. Enquist has a 735-135-1 (.844) coaching record, the highest winning percentage for an active NCAA Division I head coach, and 1,155 wins in her Bruin softball career as a player, assistant coach and head coach, combined. As a player from 1975-78, Enquist became UCLA's first All-American while establishing the Bruin career batting average record of .401. She was the only UCLA player to complete her career with a batting average over .400 until Stacey Nuveman completed her senior year in 2002 (with a .466 average), a span of 24 years.

WATLEY SPRINTS PAST PAC-10 STOLEN BASES RECORD

Senior shortstop Natasha Watley continues to set the tone for the Bruins offensively, batting in the leadoff spot, and anchors UCLA's defense as the team's starting shortstop. In addition to earning two National Player of the Week honors on Mar. 11 following the Hedrick's Hallowell Chevrolet Classic (.786 average with at least two hits and one stolen base in all five of UCLA's games), she earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors on Feb. 25 for her performance at the FAU Worth Invitational, where she hit .500, going 8-for-13 with four runs scored, a triple, six stolen bases and a lead-off home run against Florida Atlantic, the first Bruin home run to lead off a game since Amanda Freed accomplished the feat on April 4, 2001 in game two of a doubleheader at Cal State Northridge.

Watley is hitting .500 this season with 48 runs scored, three triples, seven doubles, eight home runs and 42 RBIs. On Sunday, April 27, Watley hit a game-tying home run in the fifth inning against Stanford, then ended the game with a walk-off home run to lead off the bottom of the eighth inning. Watley has held UCLA's career steals record since the conclusion of her freshman year, and took over the Pac-10 career steals record on Apr. 12, surpassing the 148 bases swiped by Arizona's Alison McCutcheon (1995-98). She currently has 152 career swipes. Watley has also become the first Bruin in history to record 200 runs scored in a career, ranking ninth in Pac-10 history with 236, the top non-Arizona player on the list. She ranks in UCLA's career top-10 in at-bats (814/2nd, needing two to tie Amanda Freed's school record), triples (19/2nd) and batting average (.451/2nd).

Last summer, Watley played with the U.S. World Championship Team as it earned the top seed for the 2004 Olympic Games to be held in Athens, Greece. Watley was named the Most Valuable Player of the World Championship tournament, hitting .516 (16-for-31) with 10 runs scored, four RBIs and five stolen bases in her 10 starts during tournament play.

MIMS PROVIDES POWER FOR BRUINS

A member of USA Softball's World Championship team last summer, Tairia Mims hit cleanup for the majority of the 2003 pre-conference season before moving to the third spot in the lineup at the Hedrick's Hallowell Chevrolet Classic. Mims, who defensively plays either first base or catcher, has a team-high 15 home runs this season, and is batting .473 on the year (61-for-129) with 14 doubles, a triple, 51 RBIs and 41 runs scored to go along with seven stolen bases.

Mims earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors for her performance at the UNLV Classic, where she hit .647 for the five-game weekend, blasting three home runs, a triple, three doubles, a sacrifice fly and a walk for a 1.471 slugging percentage. She also had a stolen base during the weekend's play. Mims is currently second on UCLA's career lists with 54 home runs and 209 RBIs. Both of those UCLA career records are held by Stacey Nuveman (1997, 99, 2001-02), and are out of reach for Mims (NCAA record 90 home runs, 299 RBIs-4th NCAA all-time).

THREE BRUINS ON USA SOFTBALL'S LIST OF FINALISTS

Three UCLA players are among the 25 players named as finalists for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award on Wednesday. Keira Goerl, Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley are the three nominated Bruins, with Goerl and Watley making a second consecutive appearance on this list of 25, having been so honored last season. The list will be cut to 10 players on April 29, and three finalists will be announced May 13. The winner of the 2003 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be announced May 21 at the opening ceremonies of the NCAA Women's College World Series.

WORLD TEAM/USA BRUINS

Three current Bruins, Keira Goerl, Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley played with USA Softball's World Championship team during the summer of 2002. The team won the World Championship Tournament, qualifying the U.S. for the 2004 Olympic Games as the Olympic tournament's top seed. Watley was named the MVP of the World Championship Tournament, while Mims and Goerl saw action in games leading up to the World Championship tournament.

Freshman Emily Zaplatosch participated with the U.S. Junior National Team in December 2002 as the team won the 2002 Pan Am Junior Championships in Hermasillo, Mexico, earning a berth in the 2003 Junior Women's World Championships to be held this summer in Nanjing, China. By virtue of her spot on the most recent Junior National Team, Zaplatosch will be involved in team selection for the Junior Women's World Championships. She will be joined at the August final tryout in Salem, OR, by Bruin teammate Andrea Duran. Duran was chosen from an open tryout held in Chino, CA, in early January.

ZAPLATOSCH ZAPS BASERUNNERS

Freshman Emily Zaplatosch has done an impressive job behind the plate for the 2003 Bruins, throwing out 75% of base runners attempting to steal against her (9-for-12), including one in each game against Stanford last weekend. Zaplatosch is second in the Pac-10 in runners picked off with five, and a league-leading two in Pac-10 play. Offensively, she has been solid as well, batting .327 with five home runs, 20 RBIs, a team-high 23 walks and a .993 fielding percentage on 279 chances.

Zaplatosch homered once in each of UCLA's doubleheader wins at UC Riverside on Feb. 5. At the UNLV Classic, Zaplatosch was one of two Bruins to hit .600 or better for the weekend, going 8-for-13 at the plate (.615) with a home run and a double, three runs scored and two RBIs for a .923 slugging percentage. Defensively, Zaplatosch threw out both runners who attempted to steal while she was behind the plate. During the first weekend of Pac-10 play, Zaplatosch caught Keira Goerl's no-hitter on Friday night at Stanford, caught two Cal base runners stealing and picked off a third during Saturday's game, and belted a two-run eighth-inning home run on Sunday at Cal.

BENYI BLASTS THREE HOMERS IN OREGON

Freshman outfielder Caitlin Benyi blasted three of her five season home runs at Oregon's Howe Field on April 12 and 13. Benyi's fifth-inning home run in Saturday's contest started UCLA's comeback that fell just short, with the Bruins falling to the Ducks by a 5-4 margin. After getting hits in her final two at-bats on Saturday, Benyi continued the hot streak in Sunday's game, recording a single in her first at-bat of the day before putting her fourth home run of the season over the left field fence in the second inning, and hitting an opposite-field shot in the fourth to give UCLA a 6-0 lead. The Bruins would eventually win the contest by a 9-3 margin.

Benyi has played both right field and center field for the Bruins this season. She started the season hitting ninth in the lineup, and finished her first collegiate game by hitting a game-ending home run against Loyola Marymount. Benyi's homer pushed the Bruin lead to 9-0, and invoked the eight run rule in the bottom of the fifth inning. Benyi is the only Bruin starter without a defensive error.

OTHER NOTABLES

Junior Julie Hoshizaki earned her first career start on Apr. 4 against Arizona State, as she batted ninth and played right field. Hoshizaki recorded her first career hit during the sixth inning of that game, a line-drive single through the left side of the infield ... Allison Chislock recorded her first career hit on Feb. 5 at UC Riverside, an RBI single to right field in UCLA's 20-0 game two victory ... Amanda Simpson started UCLA's season opener hitting ninth and playing left field. It was Simpson's first career appearance for the Bruins as anything other than a pinch-runner. Simpson made the most of the opportunity, drawing a walk and scoring a run in the game ... Alissa Eno was the final Bruin freshman to see game action, playing in both games of the Feb. 5 doubleheader at UC Riverside. In game one, Eno pinch-ran for Toria Auelua in the seventh inning, coming around to score on a home run by Emily Zaplatosch. Eno saw her first career plate appearance as a Bruin in game two, drawing an RBI walk in the fifth inning ... Erica Corley, a freshman outfielder from Laguna Hills, CA, has been added to the UCLA roster. Corley's first game in uniform for UCLA was the April 25 game at Easton Stadium against California. She has not seen game action.
