#16 LISA FERNANDEZ • RETIRED APRIL 22, 1995

Lisa Fernandez's #16 jersey was the first number retired by the UCLA softball program in a ceremony prior to a doubleheader against California on April 22, 1995.

Fernandez, who enters her 12th year as an assistant coach for the Bruins in 2010, played for UCLA from 1990-93, earning four, first-team All-American honors, four All-College World Series selections, three Pac-10 Player of the Year accolades and three Honda Awards. In 1993, she became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup, awarded to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in the nation.

As a senior in 1993, Fernandez led the country in both batting average (.510) and earned run average (0.25). Fernandez posted a 29-0 mark as a junior, a year in which she had a 0.14 ERA, the lowest mark by any player since that 1992 season. Fernandez also recorded a 42-game winning streak (Feb. 5, 1992-Apr. 4, 1993), the second-longest winning streak in softball history. Her career .930 winning percentage (93-7) and 0.22 earned run average rank her second in NCAA history. Fernandez, who hurled 11 career no-hitters, ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive and pitching categories. On the hitting charts, she is tied for fifth in batting average (.382) and fourth in hits (287), while pitching-wise she is fourth in strikeouts (784). Fernandez is also tops at UCLA in shutouts with 74, which places her ninth in the NCAA annals.

An eight-time ASA All-American, Fernandez was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1990-2008 and won Olympic gold medals with Team USA in 1996, 2000 and 2004. Fernandez was also named ASA/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year in 1999 and was enshrined in the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2003.

#1 DOT RICHARDSON • RETIRED MAY 1, 1999

One of the most recognizable names and faces in softball, Dot Richardson's #1 UCLA softball jersey was retired in a pre-game ceremony on May 1, 1999 prior to a doubleheader against Oregon.

Richardson played for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was a member of UCLA's 1982 NCAA Championship team. She led the Bruins in hits and batting average each season and was named an All-American at the conclusion of those three years, earning first-team honors as a junior and senior. Richardson hit above .300 all three years, including a career-best .379 average in her first season in Westwood in 1981. She posted a marvelous walk-to-strikeout ratio, drawing 73 walks to just 16 strikeouts in three campaigns. Richardson was also named to the All-College World Series Team in 1982 and 1983 and was honored as the NCAA's Player of the Decade for the 1980's.

A 14-time Amateur Softball Association (ASA) All-American Selection, Richardson also earned seven ASA Best Defensive Player honors and three ASA National Championship Most Valuable Player awards. A member of the USA National Team program from 1979-2000, Richardson won a gold medal with the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team as a shortstop and was the second baseman on the gold-medal winning 2000 United States squad. Following the 1996 season, Richardson was named ASA Sportswoman of the Year.

In 1996, Richardson was the third softball player inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame. She was also enshrined in the ASA Hall of Fame in 2006. Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA and is an orthopedic surgeon.

#6 SUE ENQUIST • RETIRED APRIL 29, 2000

In a surprise ceremony on April 29, 2000, the #6 jersey of former UCLA All-American and six-time national champion head coach Sue Enquist was retired prior to a game against California.

A four-year letterwinner from 1975-78, Enquist sparked the Bruins to their first National Championship, an AIAW title in 1978, and was the tournament's leading hitter. Enquist led the team in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and RBI once. An All-American in 1978, she led the Bruins with a .391 average, 45 hits, two home runs and seven doubles. She was also named All-Region in 1976, '77 and '78. Enquist still stands third on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career average.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead that team to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, 1980). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games.

Enquist spent just one season away from the Bruins following her collegiate playing career, returning to UCLA as an assistant coach in 1980. She held that position until 1989, when she was elevated to co-head coach. As co-head coach or head coach (1997-2006), Enquist led the Bruins to six NCAA Championships. The first softball player to be inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1993, the three-time National Coach of the Year was enshrined into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in 2006. Enquist retired on Sept. 26, 2006 with an 887-175-1 career record and now works on special projects in the UCLA Athletic Development office.

#2 GINA VECCHIONE • RETIRED APRIL 28, 2007

Gina Vecchione became the fourth UCLA softball player to have her jersey retired when she was honored prior to the Bruins' game against Oregon State on April 28, 2007.

As a player in Westwood, Vecchione earned All-Pacific Region honors in the outfield three straight seasons (1980-82) and is one of 26 Bruins to receive the award at least three times. In 1981, she led the Bruins in doubles with 10 and tied for the team lead with three triples and 21 runs batted in. Vecchione again tied for the top spot in triples with four and runs batted in with 12 as a senior. In 1982, Vecchione was a member of the All-College World Series team, as the Bruins won the inaugural NCAA Softball Championship. Following that season, Vecchione received second-team All-American honors.

After the conclusion of her collegiate career, Vecchione played 12 seasons with the Raybestos Brakettes, winners of eight ASA titles and three World titles. Vecchione was named to the ASA All-American team seven times and was the top hitter at the 1988 national tournament with a .444 average. Vecchione earned softball's top honor in 1997 when she became the first UCLA player inducted into the ASA Hall of Fame.

Returning to her alma mater as an assistant coach in 2000 and entering her 11th year in that role in 2010, Vecchione has helped the Bruins reach the NCAA Championship game or series in five of her 10 seasons, winning back-to-back NCAA titles in 2003 and 2004. The Bruins have amassed a 487-110-1 record during her previous 10 campaigns for an .815 winning percentage. Twice during Vecchione's tenure, UCLA has been tabbed as the Coaching Staff of the Year, receiving NFCA Pacific Region honors in 2000 and '04 and National honors in 2004.

On Jan. 6, 1997, the UCLA softball program entered a new era as Sharron Backus announced her retirement from coaching after 22 years of leading the Bruins.

Considered by many a softball icon, Backus was the guiding force of the top softball program in the nation at UCLA. The third-winningest Division I softball coach in NCAA history, Backus coached 22 seasons, posting a 854-173-3 (.831) lifetime record - all at UCLA. Included in that impressive 22-year slate was a 111-32 (.776) mark in postseason play. Backus and the Bruins brought eight national championship trophies to Westwood (seven NCAA and one AIAW), including an unprecedented three in a row (1988, '89 and '90). The Backus era's trophy case also includes four second-place finishes and three third-place awards. Her UCLA teams played in the College World Series 16 times, and after the Bruins joined the NCAA in 1982, Backus' squads made the College World Series every year they made the NCAA Tournament.

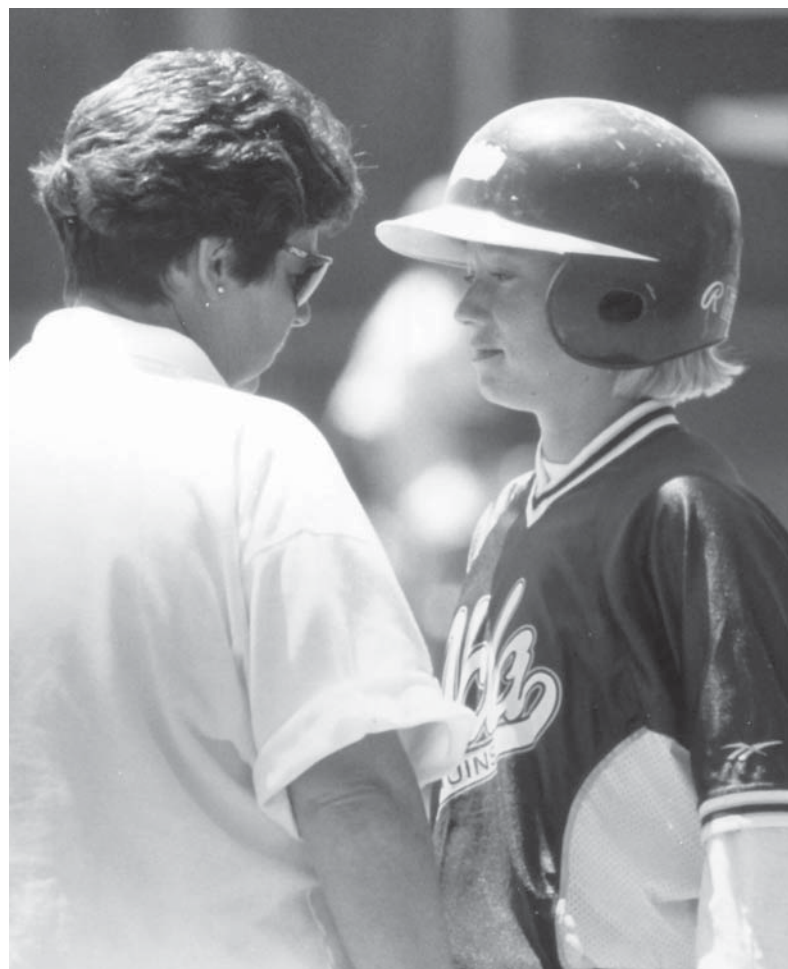

Including her award as the Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1995, Backus earned the league's top honor four times in her final seven seasons, also winning in 1990, 1992 and 1993. In 1990, Backus was chosen Northwest Region Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also selected as the Diamond National and Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985.

Backus has been enshrined in several Hall of Fames in recognition of her contributions as a player and coach. The Amateur Softball Association (ASA) Hall of Fame recognized her as one of the most honored players and coaches with induction in 1985. In 1992, the NFCA Hall of Fame welcomed Backus, honoring her tremendous successes in collegiate softball. In 1993, the Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame inducted Backus, spotlighting her enormous contributions to women's athletics. And in 2001, Backus was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

The Bruin mentor is most noted for her ability to teach the fundamentals. In fact, UCLA did not commit a single error in College World Series play in the championship seasons of 1978, 1982 and 1988. Backus provided solid background in the handling of pitchers such as Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton, Lisa Longaker, Lisa Fernandez and DeeDee Weiman and hitters such as Fernandez, Janice Parks, Yvonne Gutierrez and Jennifer Brundage. Backus coached the first softball player to win the most prestigious honor in women's athletics, as Fernandez won the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup, which recognized her as the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports during the 1992-93 season.

UCLA's strength in fundamentals evolved from Backus' legendary ASA playing career. The Cal State Fullerton graduate was instrumental in seven ASA titles (1961, 1965 and 1971-75) and two international championships (1972 and 1974). A star shortstop, Backus was named to numerous ASA All-America teams during her playing career. She also played professional softball for the Connecticut Falcons from 1976-78, when the team won three World Championships.

A native of Anaheim and a resident of Fullerton, Backus continued her coaching duties in the professional ranks, coaching in the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). In 1998, she was named WPSL Coach of the Year after leading the Orlando Wahoos to the league championship. Backus also went on to serve as the Director of Player Personnel for the WPSL. She earned a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1969 from Cal State Fullerton, along with her teaching credential, which enabled her to teach at Western High School before coming to UCLA.

U.S. National Team Coach

2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award Recipient

After spending 31 years as a player, assistant coach or head coach in the UCLA softball program, Sue Enquist announced her retirement from coaching on Sept. 26, 2006. Enquist currently works on special projects in the UCLA Athletic Development office.

Enquist spent 10 years as the Bruins' head coach, taking over that role for the 1997 season following the retirement of longtime mentor Sharron Backus. Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96. Enquist's .835 winning percentage puts her at the top of the NCAA charts for Division I head softball coaches. As co-head and head coach, Enquist led the Bruins to six national championships (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pacific-10 Conference titles. Before being named co-head coach, Enquist spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant under Backus, with the Bruins posting a record of 352-85-3 (.803).

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 60 All-Americans during her 18 seasons as head coach and seven Honda Award winners, including Natasha Watley, who became the second softball player in UCLA history in 2003 to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist has been either a player or coach on all 11 of UCLA's softball national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (IAIW) in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter. When the NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella starting with the 1982 season, the Bruins won the inaugural championship. In all, UCLA has won 10 NCAA titles, the most of any school and boast a record 17 appearances in championship games or series.

As one of eight softball coaches chosen to work with the U.S. National Team, Enquist was involved in the preparation of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team for the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta, the inaugural Games for softball as an Olympic sport.

After graduating from San Clemente High School in December of 1974, Enquist went on to play four seasons for Backus from 1975-78. Enquist became the prototypical player for Bruin softball in terms of attitude, desire and will to win. UCLA's first softball All-American, Enquist led the Bruins in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and runs batted in once. A three-time All-Region selection, Enquist still stands third on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average. On April 29, 2000, Enquist's No. 6 jersey was immortalized when it became the third number in Bruin softball history to be retired.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead them to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, '80). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the '79 Pan American Games.

Away from the field, Enquist has received numerous honors, including induction into four Hall of Fames. In 1993, she became the first softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2000, Enquist was enshrined into the Capistrano Unified School District Hall of Fame and in 2006, she was inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame. In June of 2008, Enquist was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame.

Enquist was recognized with the 2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award by the United States Sports Academy. The award pays tribute to those who have made significant contributions to sports and is named in honor of C. Vivian Stringer, the Women's Basketball Hall of Famer who is the only coach to take three different schools to the Final Four.

A pioneer in softball technology, Enquist invented the SB401 training bat and the Kwik-Slide Sliding Wrap. She also completed a series of 20 instructional videos, released following the 2003 collegiate season and partnered with former UCLA and Major League Baseball catcher Don Slaught on the RightViewPro hitting instructional software.

Enquist earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1980. A native of San Clemente, Calif., Enquist surfed professionally from 1979-81 and continues to be an avid surfer. She currently resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

JOANNE ALCHIN - AUSTRALIA

KERRY DIENELT - AUSTRALIA

Since the sport of softball became an Olympic sport for the 1996 Atlanta Games, 15 former Bruins have participated on the world's biggest stage in their quest to bring home gold for their country. Eleven of those players have put on the Red, White and Blue for the United States and succeeded in winning medals in all four Olympic softball competitions. In the first Olympic softball competition in 1996, Team USA went 8-1, with its lone loss coming to Australia in round-robin play. In the championship game, the U.S. defeated China 3-1 behind the hitting of Sheila Cornell and Dot Richardson, who each homered and combined for all three RBI in the victory. Lisa Fernandez, who defeated China in the semifinals, recorded the final out to clinch the gold for the Americans. Former Bruins Jennifer Brundage and Christa Williams also earned gold. Joanne Alchin, Kerry Dienelt and Tanya Harding won bronze medals with Australia.

Four years later in Sydney, Australia, the United States won its second-straight gold medal, but it didn't come easy. After seeing its 112-game winning streak snapped with an extra-inning loss to Japan during round-robin play, Team USA lost its next two games in the preliminaries to China and Australia. But they would avenge all three losses in the medal round to win the gold. In the first semifinal against China, the U.S. claimed a 3-0 win in 10 innings. With Brundage and Cornell ahead of her on the base paths in the third extra inning, Stacey Nuveman launched a walk-off homer to send her team to a second semifinal against Australia. Against the host country, Richardson drove in the game's lone run and Fernandez struck out 13 in a 1-0 U.S. victory. In the gold-medal game against Japan, Fernandez picked up the win in a 2-1 triumph to give the United States its second-straight gold medal. Former Bruin Christie Ambrosi also won gold, while Amanda Freed was an alternate for the team. Alchin (Brown), Dienelt and Harding again won the bronze with Australia.

In 2004 in Athens, Greece, the U.S. was anointed as "The Real Dream Team" by Sports Illustrated. Team USA posted a perfect 9-0 record and shutout the competition in eight of those victories. The U.S. outscored its opponents 51-1 and did not allow a run until the sixth inning of the gold-medal contest against Australia. For the second-straight, gold-medal game, Fernandez earned the win in the circle. Fernandez, a three-time gold medalist, was joined on the team by former Bruins Nuveman, Freed, Tairia (Mims) Flowers and Natasha Watley. Harding represented Australia, winning a silver medal.

In 2008 in Beijing, China, Team USA steamrolled through pool play with a 7-0 record, outscoring its opponents 53-1. In the semifinals, a 4-1 victory over Japan put the United States in the gold-medal game for the fourth consecutive time. But for the first time in four Olympic competitions, the U.S. did not win the gold, as Japan claimed a 3-1 victory to upset the favorites. Nuveman won her third Olympic medal, Flowers and Watley each earned their second and Andrea Duran claimed her first Olympic medal. Fernandez was an alternate for the Olympic team. Australia won the bronze for Harding's fourth medal.

On July 11, 2005, the International Olympic Committee voted to drop softball from the Olympics and on August 13, 2009, the IOC denied softball's application for reinstatement.

NATIONAL PRO FASTPITCH™

The Women's Profastpitch League (WPF) began play on May 30, 1997. Since its inception, the league has undergone many changes with franchise locations and league names, changing to the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL) in 1999. Suspending play following the 2000 campaign, the league, renamed as National Pro Fastpitch (NPF), resumed on June 1, 2004. The five-team league has franchises in Akron, Ohio, Blount County, Tenn., Chicago, Kissimmee, Fla. and Philadelphia.

UCLA players have decorated NPF rosters since the league began play. In 1997, the Orlando Wahoos won the league's first title and were led by Bruin pitchers B'Ann Burns and Debbie Doom. In 1998, former Bruin Dot Richardson became a WPF Spokesperson and later that season, DeeDee Weiman tossed the first perfect game in league history. Orlando once again won the championship in 1998 and former Bruins Doom, Kaci Clark, Nicole Odom and Alleah Poulson were on the squad which was coached by UCLA great Sharron Backus, who was named WPSL Coach of the Year. In 1999, the Tampa Bay FireStix claimed the title with Bruin hurlers Weiman and Heather Compton on the squad. Clark won her second league championship in 2000 when the Florida Wahoos won the title. In the league's return for 2004, the New York/New Jersey Juggernaut captured the crown, with Clark earning her third championship and joined by former Bruin Lindsey Klein. Throughout the league's history, 20 Bruins have played for the fastpitch organization.

The PFX Tour brings professional and amateur athletes together at tournaments so not only do young athletes get to compete, they get the opportunity to watch, learn and interact with their favorite stars at the same event. The PFX Tour offers packages that bring the amateur athletes, coaches and fans up close and personal to today's stars. The tour packages include Learn From the Pros, College Showcase Skill Session, Skill Comparisons, Pro-Am Skill Challenges and more. The PFX Tour also includes Photo and Autograph opportunities along with Meet & Greet the Pros sessions.

The PFX Tour was designed for all ages to participate and enjoy and to help promote the sport worldwide, build an elite level for more than only a few select athletes, expand the sport's fan base, create an opportunity for athletes who have graduated from college to continue to play, provide a financial package that grows with the Tour's success to offer a career choice in the sport, generate value to sponsors for a "win-win" relationship and above all, give back to the sport from the grass roots up.

Among the former Bruins who have participated on the PFX Tour are Sharron Backus, Kaci Clark, Andrea Duran, Lisa Fernandez, Amanda Kamekona, Jodie Legaspi, Tairia Mims-Flowers, Stacey Nuvelman and Natasha Watley.

CHANCELLOR
STANFORD, 1970
THIRD YEAR

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block quickly called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he has spearheaded a process of broad-based, campuswide strategic planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

DAN GUERRERO
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
UCLA, 1974
EIGHTH YEAR

In just seven years as UCLA's Director of Athletics, Daniel G. Guerrero has boldly placed his imprint on the school's athletic program.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is currently serving as the chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and is in his fifth year on that committee. In addition, he is the second vice-president of the National Assn. of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), serves on the NACDA Executive Committee and is also the first vice-president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. He recently completed his service as chair of the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group.

In his first seven years as AD, Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the

No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (104) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those seven years, UCLA teams have won 18 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 14 times and have had an additional 24 Top Five finishes (67 total). A staggering 131 teams (of 161 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in six bowl games. The program has also won 42 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced 387 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

In the last seven years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04), sixth (2002-03) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the NACDA Director's Cup.

This past year, UCLA won its fifth consecutive NCAA women's water polo championship. The Bruins finished second in women's golf, tied for third in women's soccer (sixth straight College Cup) and men's tennis, placed seventh in women's gymnastics and ninth (tied) in softball, women's volleyball and women's tennis, 16th (tied) in women's outdoor track and field and 17th (tied) in men's basketball. UCLA also won six conference titles.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years.

Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna and Katie.

PETRINA LONG
SR. ASSOCIATE AD/SWA
CALIFORNIA, 1977
SIXTH YEAR

Petrina Long enters her sixth year as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator at UCLA, having joined the staff in June of 2004.

Long has oversight responsibility for several sports, including women's basketball, men's and women's volleyball, softball and women's gymnastics, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting for the past three years. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is as an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross country, track & field, and men's soccer. She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee and is a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UC Irvine, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and recently chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin.

Long was a member of the Big West Conference Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UC Irvine, Long spent nine years at Columbia, serving in both the associate and assistant athletic director positions. She was the Assistant Athletic Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at California (1979-82).

Long received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley in 1977 and her Master's degree in Anthropology from Columbia in 1992. She and her husband, Sam McCamey, have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Monte and Traland.
