#17 UCLA HOSTS FINAL REGULAR-SEASON HOMESTAND

The 17th-ranked Bruins (33-15, 9-9 Pac-12) entertain #13 Arizona (32-14, 9-9) this weekend in their final regular-season homestand at Easton Stadium. Game times are Friday at 7 p.m., Saturday at 6 p.m. and Sunday at 12 p.m. Gametracker and free audio will be available at UCLABruins.com, as well as live updates at twitter.com/uclasoftball.

BRUINS ON THE TUBE

Friday's game will be broadcast on tape delay by Fox Sports Net with Anne Marie Anderson and former Bruin great Amanda Freed at the call. The first airing will be Sunday night at 8 p.m. on FSN Prime Ticket.

ON DECK

The regular season comes to an end next weekend as the Bruins travel to Eugene for a three-game set with Oregon. Game times are Thursday, May 10 and Friday, May 11 at 6 p.m. and Saturday, May 12 at 12 p.m. On Sunday, May 13 at 7 p.m., the 64-team field will be announced on the NCAA Selection Show on ESPN2.

BRUINS IN THE POLLS

The Bruins fell to 17th in both national polls this week. UCLA dropped two spots in the USA Today/NFCA poll, losing 75 points. In the ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings, the Bruins fell three spots and 41 points.

BRUINS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Through games played on April 29, the Bruins are the nation's leader in slugging percentage at .604 and are also in the Top 10 in four other categories. UCLA is second in batting average (.350), third in home runs (75), fifth in doubles (80) and sixth in runs per game (6.88). Individually, freshman Stephany LaRosa is in the Top 25 nationally in five categories, ranking fifth in batting average (.459), tied for ninth in runs batted in (57), tied for 12th in sacrifice flies (4), 15th in slugging percentage (.847) and tied for 22nd in home runs (15). Senior Katie Schroeder is tied for ninth in runs scored (54), 17th in on base percentage (.540), 24th in batting average (.427) and tied for 27th in doubles (14). Also in the Top 50 nationally in their respective categories are seniors Samantha Camuso (slugging, .737, T-40th), Andrea Harrison (home runs, 14, T-30th) and Dani Yudin (walks, 37, T-26th), and sophomore Jessica Hall (saves, 4, T-13th).

NEWS AND NOTES

Head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez recorded her 250th-career coaching victory against Utah on April 20 ... with the April 21 win versus the Utes, the Bruins won their 400th Pac-10/12 game ... along with their Pac-12-best .350 batting average (through April 29), the Bruins are also first in the conference in slugging (.604), hits (449), doubles (80), home runs (75) and total bases (774). The full listing of UCLA team and individual standings in the Pac-12 is available on page five of this release ... the Bruins saw their 87-game winning streak when scoring at least six runs come to an end in the first game of the April 10 doubleheader against Stanford. It was the most runs for UCLA in a defeat since May 6, 2000 at Arizona (lost 12-9 in nine innings). Since seeing the streak snapped, the Bruins are 5-0 when scoring at least six runs ... UCLA is 20-0 this season when limiting its opponent to two runs or fewer ... the Bruins are 21-0 when leading after five innings and 20-0 when leading after six. Since 2008, UCLA is 143-1 when ahead after five (only loss vs. Florida, 2/25/11) and 132-1 when ahead after six (Washington, 4/23/11) ... 37 of the Bruins' 75 home runs have been solo shots. The third inning has been the best for homers, as the Bruins have 22, with the first frame ranking second with 18 dingers ... senior Katie Schroeder is in the UCLA career top 10 in seven categories, ranking second in runs scored (194), third in stolen bases (49), fourth in on base percentage (.480), walks (114) and hit by pitches (30), sixth in hits (266) and seventh in batting average (.376). Senior Andrea Harrison is listed six times, coming in at fourth in slugging (.663), home runs (54) and total bases (453), fifth in runs batted in (184), sixth in doubles (47) and seventh in hit by pitches (19). Senior Dani Yudin is third in walks (115), sixth in on base percentage (.443) and eighth in hit by pitches (18), senior Samantha Camuso is 10th in slugging (.591) and sophomore Jessica Hall is third in saves (6) ... freshman Ally Carda has earned a win and produced at least a pair of hits in the same game six times (Loyola Marymount, Fordham, Pittsburgh, UC Santa Barbara, Cal Poly, Stanford-Game 3) ... Camuso hit her 10th homer of the year on April 20 against Utah to give her 30 for her career and her second double-digit homer season (16 in 2010) ... sophomore Talee Snow has reached base in 25 of her last 29 games and is hitting 91 points better from her freshman to sophomore season (.239 to .330) ... Stephany LaRosa's 15 home runs are the second most by a freshman in a single season at UCLA. Stacey Nuweman holds the record with 20 in 1997 ... Hall's four saves tie her for second on UCLA's single-season list with Christa Williams (1997). Megan Langenfeld holds the record with five saves in 2008 ... Harrison is one homer away from tying for third in UCLA history (Caitlin Benyi, 55). She has reached double figures in dingers for the third straight season ... junior B.B. Bates leads the Bruins with nine game-winning RBI and seven game-winning runs scored, and is one homer shy of 30 for her career ... sophomore Kellie Fox recorded her fourth-career, three-hit game in the first end of an April 10 doubleheader against Stanford ... Schroeder, who had the 700th at-bat of her career last Friday, is two doubles away from 40 and one steal shy of 50 ... sophomore Alyssa Tiimalu hit her 10th career home run on April 20 against Utah ... Yudin is one RBI away from 100 for her career.

SCOUTING THE ARIZONA WILDCATS

After winning its first two Pac-12 series' against Stanford and Washington, the Wildcats have dropped two of three to California and Oregon. Last weekend at home versus the Ducks, Arizona gave up 23 runs in a pair of losses before winning 5-4 in eight innings to close the weekend. The Wildcats are hitting .300 as a team with 65 home runs and 45 stolen bases, averaging 5.9 runs per game. Four players are hitting over .300, led by Hallie Wilson's .357 average. Shelby Pendley is tops on the team with 17 homers and 47 RBI and second with a .343 average. Lini Koria is second with 14 homers to go with a .341 average, while Chelsea Suits is hitting .328 with 12 stolen bases. In Pac-12 play, the Wildcats are batting .269 with 20 homers and 14 steals, averaging 4.5 runs per game. Wilson is batting .368 with a homer and eight RBI, Pendley is hitting .310 with three homers and 10 RBI and Koria has a team-best six home runs and 13 runs batted in. In the circle, Kenzie Fowler and Shelby Babcock have split the action. Fowler is 14-6 with a 2.80 earned run average and 158 strikeouts in 130 innings, while Babcock is 16-8 with a 2.28 ERA and 122 strikeouts in 151 2/3 innings. In Pac-12 play, Fowler is 5-5 with a 4.11 ERA and 48 strikeouts in 47 2/3 innings, while Babcock is 4-4 with a 4.29 ERA and 44 strikeouts in 65 1/3 innings.

THE MATCHUP: BRUINS VS. WILDCATS

The Bruins lead the all-time series with the Wildcats 71-53 and are 36-20 at home. Last year, Arizona took two of three from UCLA (May 6-8), winning the first two contests 5-1 and 7-1. The Bruins took the final game of the series 5-1 behind a combined six-hitter by Destiny Rodino and Jessica Hall. Devon Lindvall and Alyssa Tiumalu each hit home runs. The Bruins are 7-3 in the last 10 matchups with the Wildcats.

STEPHANY LaROSA EARNS PAIR OF POW HONORS

Freshman Stephany LaRosa earned a pair of Player of the Week honors on April 16 and 17, receiving Pac-12 Softball POW and USA Softball National POW accolades.

LaRosa hit .571 (12-for-21) with 12 runs batted in, three home runs and seven runs scored in helping the then-16th-ranked Bruins to a pair of Pac-12 series victories over #15 Stanford and #7 Washington.

LaRosa, who also posted a 1.048 slugging and a .600 on base percentage in the six games, began the week with an incredible doubleheader performance versus the Cardinal on April 10, as she went 6-for-9 in the twinbill with nine RBI and three homers.

The freshman produced her fourth-career, four-hit game, her third-career, five-RBI contest and her second two-homer affair in game one and followed that up with a 2-for-4, four RBI effort in the nightcap with a homer and two runs scored. She closed out the Stanford series with another two-hit effort, a walk and an RBI on April 11. She went 8-for-12 against the Cardinal with 10 RBI.

In Seattle on the weekend, LaRosa had hits in all three games to extend her hitting streak to a career-best seven. On April 13, she was part of the Bruins' comeback in the top of the sixth. Trailing 5-0 with two outs, UCLA scored seven unanswered, including an RBI single by LaRosa which cut the deficit to 5-4.

LaRosa produced her fourth multiple-hit game of the weekend on April 14 with a single and a double, also scoring and driving in a run on a sacrifice fly. She singled, walked and scored on April 15 to close out the week with a dozen hits.

It is the first career Player of the Week awards for LaRosa. She becomes the third Bruin freshman to be named USA Softball National POW (Anjelica Selden, 2005 and Megan Langenfeld, 2007) and the 13th UCLA recipient of the award (began in 2003). The Pac-12 honor was the first of the year for UCLA and the 65th all-time.

RECAPING THE CALIFORNIA SERIES

Sunday - California 10, UCLA 3

Seniors Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder each hit home runs, but the 14th-ranked Bruins lost 10-3 on Sunday to #1 California at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 33-15 overall and 9-9 in Pac-12 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 45-3 and 16-2 in league action.

Schroeder and freshman Stephany LaRosa each had two hits, accounting for four of the five for the Bruins.

The Bruins got on the board first with a pair of runs in their initial at-bat. Schroeder led off with a single to center, moved to second on a sacrifice by LaRosa and scored on a first-pitch homer to left by Harrison, her 14th of the season, to make it 2-0.

Cal countered with three runs in its half of the first, loading the bases on infield singles by Jamia Reid and Ashley Decker and a walk to Valerie Arioto. On the walk to Arioto, the Bruins were slow getting the ball back in the circle, as Reid rounded third and came in to score to make it 2-1. One out later, and after a walk to Breana Kostreba reloaded the bases, Cheyenne Cordes singled to left to plate Decker and Arioto to give Cal a 3-2 lead.

The Golden Bears tacked on four more in the second. A walk to Frani Echavarria, a single for Reid and a walk to Decker loaded the bases, with a free pass to Arioto bringing home Cal's fourth run. Jace Williams followed with a single up the middle to plate Reid and Decker to increase the advantage to 6-2, as Arioto advanced to third on the throw and came home on the next batter on a wild pitch to make it 7-2.

UCLA hit another home run in the third. With one out, Schroeder belted her fifth jack of the season to left to make it 7-3.

Cal answered the run in its half of the third. With the bases loaded, Williams lifted a sacrifice fly ball to center to score Echavarria to make it 8-3.

The Bears added two more in the sixth. Williams walked to open the inning, and one out later, Cordes doubled to left. One out later, Jolene Henderson singled down the left-field line to plate a pair to make it 10-3.

Saturday - California 8, UCLA 0 (6 innings)

Sophomore Jessica Hall struck out double figures for the second consecutive game, while freshman Stephany LaRosa had a pair of hits, but the 14th-ranked Bruins lost to #1 California 8-0 in six innings on Saturday at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 33-14 overall and 9-8 in Pac-12 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 44-3 and 15-2 in league action.

Hall (16-9) fanned 10, one shy of her career high, which was equaled on Friday. The sophomore struck out the side in the first and third innings and a pair in the fourth. She allowed seven runs (three earned), seven hits and four walks in 4 1/3 innings. Freshman Ally Carda tossed 1 1/3 frames of relief, striking out two and giving up a run, a hit and a walk.

The Bruins had plenty of chances, but could not get on the scoreboard for the second game in a row. UCLA had two hits in the first, but stranded both runners. In the second and third, respectively, the Bruins had a one-out walk by Carda and a leadoff single by sophomore Talee Snow, but both players were erased on 4-6-3 double plays to end the threats.

Cal broke through with an unearned run in the third. Frani Echavarria led off with a double to center, moved to third on a bunt single to third by Jamia Reid and scored on a throwing error by LaRosa, who was trying to get Reid at first.

UCLA had another opportunity in the fourth after a leadoff single by senior Andrea Harrison and a one-out walk for senior Dani Yudin, but could not drive home a run. In the fifth, sophomore Alyssa Tiumalu led off with a single, but a strikeout and a line out double play ended the inning.

The Golden Bears broke it open with five in their half of the fifth. Reid doubled down the left-field line to open the inning. One out later and after a Valerie Arioto walk, Jace Williams doubled to left-center to plate Reid to make it 2-0. Following a walk to Danielle Henderson that loaded the bases, Cheyenne Cordes tapped a ball to third, but LaRosa's throw was dropped by Tiumalu at the plate, allowing Arioto to score Cal's third run. Jolene Henderson then singled up the middle to bring in Williams and her younger sister to make it 5-0. One out later, a passed ball brought home Cordes, and by time the ball got under the Bruins' control, Henderson scored from second to make it 7-0.

After the Bruins left two more in the sixth, the Golden Bears won it by mercy rule in their half of the inning. Breana Kostreba reached on a sun-aided double to open the frame and was pinch-run for by Ashley Decker. After Arioto was hit by a pitch, both Decker and Arioto moved into scoring position on a ground out. One out later, Carda uncorked a wild pitch, allowing Decker to score Cal's eighth run.

Friday - California 3, UCLA 0

Sophomore Jessica Hall tied a personal high with 11 strikeouts, her third-career, double-figure strikeout game, but the 14th-ranked Bruins dropped a 3-0 decision at #1 California on Friday at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 33-13 overall and 9-7 in Pac-12 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 43-3 and 14-2 in league action.

Hall had 1-2-3 innings in the first and fourth. She struck out the side in the first and two in both the third, fifth and sixth frames. The sophomore gave up three runs (two earned), three hits and three walks in six innings.

UCLA had three hits in the game, with seniors Andrea Harrison and Dani Yudin and sophomore Kellie Fox posting singles.

Cal scored a pair of runs on one hit in the third. With one out, Frani Echavarria was hit by a pitch and advanced to second when Jamia Reid tapped a grounder to short that Fox was unable to handle. After a wild pitch moved both runners up a base, Ashley Decker singled up the middle to plate Echavarria and Reid to make it 2-0 Cal.

The Bruins had a leadoff walk for senior Katie Schroeder in the top of the first, but Cal's Jolene Henderson retired the next 10 in a row before Harrison singled to center. One out later, Yudin walked, but Henderson struck out senior Samantha Camuso to end the inning.

The Golden Bears added an insurance run in the sixth. Valerie Arioto led off with a single to left, moved to third on a double to center by Jace Williams and scored one out later on a sacrifice fly to right by Cheyenne Cordes to make it 3-0.

The Bruins had one last look at the game in the top of the seventh. Yudin led off with a single to left and was pinch-run for by freshman Sam Duran. One out later, Fox singled up the middle to put a pair on base. But Henderson struck out sophomore Alyssa Tiumalu and retired freshman Talee Snow on a force play to third to end the game.

MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

Credentials: Media and photography credentials for home games may be obtained by working press only by contacting Assistant Sports Information Director James Ybiernas at the phone numbers or e-mail address above. All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials can be picked up at the entrance to Easton Stadium.

Interviews: All interviews must be arranged through the UCLA Sports Information Office. Student-athletes have been instructed not to grant any interviews, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the Sports Information Office. Telephone numbers are private and will not be released. Please do not expect student-athletes to be available if you have not made prior arrangements. Players and coaches are available before or after practice depending on availability. Practice is generally from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. at Easton Stadium. Interviews during different times will require advance planning. If you would like to reach a member of the UCLA softball team on the road, contact James Ybiernas.

KELLY INOUE-PEREZ
6TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH
18TH YEAR AT UCLA
UCLA, 1993
RECORD: 252-83

Kelly Inouye-Perez is beginning her sixth season as the Bruins' head coach in 2012 and has an overall record of 219-68 (.763).

Last year, UCLA recorded a 36-19 mark and tied for sixth in the Pac-10 (9-12). Nine Bruins were honored on the all-conference teams, while Andrea Harrison was named first-team All-Region and All-American. Inouye-Perez earned her 200th career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State.

In 2010, Inouye-Perez led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA championship in 2010. The Bruins (50-11) went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Harrison and Samantha Camuso each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year.

UCLA set single-season school records for home runs, slugging, on base percentage and walks. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-America first-team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region team and 10 honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the Women's College World Series, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (t-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's five seasons, the Bruins have earned 12 All-American awards, 19 All-Region honors and 39 All-Pac-10 accolades.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inouye-Perez starts her 24th straight season in Westwood in 2012. She is a link to four decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by seven NCAA Championships and eight Pac-10 titles in her previous 23 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant coach.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, first-team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single season and career home run leader.

Since the Pac-10 Conference began issuing a Pitcher of the Year Award, UCLA has been honored with two winners, Courtney Dale in 1999 and Keira Goerl in 2003. Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top four pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning first-team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and second-team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up second-team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, '85 and '89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Tournament) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

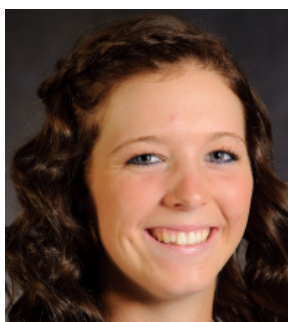

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning first-team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (12) and Kylie (7).
