FINAL REGULAR-SEASON HOMESTAND PITS WCWS FINALISTS

The defending national champion and 12th-ranked Bruins (31-13, 7-8 Pac-10) face #11 Arizona (37-13, 8-7 Pac-10) in a three-game series this weekend at Easton Stadium. Friday's game starts at 7 p.m., followed by a Saturday contest at 6 p.m. and a Sunday tilt at 12 p.m. Gametracker and live audio will be available at UCLABruins.com.

PACKED HOUSE, BIG CEREMONIES FOR FINAL WEEKEND

Sellout crowds are expected all weekend long for the UCLA-Arizona series. Less than 200 tickets remain for each of this weekend's games and they can only be purchased on gameday at Easton Stadium. Ticket booths and gates open 90 minutes prior to first pitch and all seats are general admission and first-come, first-served. Friday's game will be televised on tape delay by Fox Sports Net. Steve Physioc and former Bruin Amanda Freed will be on the call. The first airing of the game will be on Saturday at 11 a.m. on FSN Prime Ticket. It will re-air many times throughout the weekend. On Saturday, UCLA softball will retire the #9 jersey of three-time All-American Lisa Longaker in a pre-game ceremony. And on Sunday, five Bruin seniors, Amy Crawford, GiOnna DiSalvatore, Monica Harrison, Donna Kerr and Grace Murray, will be honored prior to the game in their final regular-season home contests at Easton.

ON DECK

The Bruins finish up the regular season in Eugene with a three-game series at Oregon. The early weekend series begins on Thursday, May 12 at 6 p.m., followed by a 6 p.m. contest on Friday, May 13 and an 11:30 a.m. first pitch on Saturday, May 14. All three games will feature Gametracker and live audio at UCLABruins.com. On Sunday, May 15, the Bruins and 63 other teams will learn where their postseason journey begins when ESPNU airs the NCAA Selection Show at 7 p.m. PT.

BRUINS IN THE POLLS

The Bruins dropped four spots to 12th in this week's USA Today/NFCA Top 25 poll and fell three positions to 14th in the latest ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings. The Bruins tied Arizona for first in the Pac-10 preseason rankings, with each team receiving four first-place votes and 46 points.

BRUINS ON THE WEB

Gametracker will be available for every game this year at UCLABruins.com. In addition, free live audio will be available for every contest for the remainder of the regular season and the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament at UCLABruins.com.

NEWS AND NOTES

Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore is UCLA's all-time leader in doubles with 62, breaking the record held by Tairia Mims on April 9 against Stanford. She is one of four Bruins to start in all 44 games and leads the team with 14 two-baggers ... senior Donna Kerr has pitched in seven straight games and 13 of 15 Pac-10 contests. She is tops on the squad in ERA (2.11), strikeouts (151) and innings pitched (133) ... junior Samantha Camuso broke out of an 0-for-24 stretch with an RBI double on Friday at California. She added another single on Saturday and is batting .128 (5-for-39) ... junior Andrea Harrison has hits in six straight games after going 5-for-10 (.500) in the Cal series. Her three-hit contest on Friday was her 15th multiple-hit game of the season (second on the team) and 51st of her career ... freshman Talee Snow leads the Bruins and all Pac-10 players in sacrifice hits with 10. She has recorded hits in eight of her 15 Pac-10 contests ... freshman Jessica Hall leads the Bruins with 15 wins this year. The last UCLA freshman to lead the team in victories was Anjelica Selden in 2005 ... sophomore B.B. Bates has hits in five of her last seven contests. She is tied for second on the team with nine multiple-RBI games and tied for third with 13 multi-hit contests ... all 14 of junior Aleah Macon's appearances this season have come in relief. She has two saves this year and five for her career, which is tied for third in UCLA history ... after hitting her 10th home run on April 21 versus Washington, Kellie Fox became the fifth UCLA freshman to reach double figures in homers. She equals the 10 hit by Julie Adams (1996), Claire Sua (2001) and Emily Zaplatosch (2003). The UCLA freshman record for homers is 20 by Stacey Nuveman in 1997 ... junior Katie Schroeder has a hit in 19 of her last 24 games. She holds a .388 batting average during that stretch with two homers, 11 RBI and 21 runs scored ... freshman Alyssa Tiumalu is third on the team with a .594 slugging percentage and tied for third with eight homers. She left the yard in back-to-back games against Washington (April 22-23) ... junior Dani Yudin has hits in eight of her last 11 contests. She is batting .256 and is tied for third on the team with 25 walks ... Kelly Inouye-Perez earned her 200th-career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State and is 214-62 as the head coach ... the Bruins are 24-0 this season when scoring five runs or more in a game, but 0-10 when being held to two runs or fewer ... UCLA is 26-2 when holds its opponent to three or fewer runs, with the only losses coming to Arizona State (April 16) and California (May 1) ... in both wins against Washington (April 21-22), the Bruins scored in their first at-bat, running their record to 21-1 this season when accomplishing the feat and 42-2 over the last two years ... UCLA has posted 11 mercy-rule wins, seven shutouts and 11 comeback victories ... the Bruins are 19-1 when leading after five innings (17-1 when leading after six), with the only loss coming to Washington on April 23 ... UCLA is 17-1 when hitting two homers or more in a game (only loss April 23 vs. Washington) ... 110 of the Bruins' 261 runs have been scored via the home run (42.1 percent of their runs) ... UCLA has three or four homers in a game 10 times this season ... the Bruins have five grand slams (Fox and Yudin 2, Harrison 1), 10 three-run homers, 17 two-run shots and 26 solo bombs ... 118 of UCLA's 261 runs have been scored with two outs (45.2%). Harrison leads the way with 22 two-out RBI, followed by Fox with 21 and Bates with 17.

BRUINS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Junior Andrea Harrison is in the national Top 50 in four statistical categories, ranking 31st in slugging (.791), tied for 32nd in on base percentage (.521), tied for 45th in home runs (13) and tied for 49th in runs batted in per game (1.00). Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore is tied for 29th in doubles per game at 0.32. As a team, the Bruins are in the Top 25 in five categories, ranking 13th in home runs per game (1.32), 14th in slugging (.528), tied for 19th in doubles per game (1.50), 21st in runs per game (5.93) and 25th in batting average (.316).

SCOUTING THE ARIZONA WILDCATS

The Wildcats snapped a five-game losing streak on Sunday with a 7-6 victory at home against Oregon to move to 37-13 overall and 8-7 in Pac-10 play. Arizona had lost the first two games of the series with Oregon and was swept in Tucson for the first time by rival Arizona State the previous weekend. The Wildcats are hitting .331 as a team with 70 home runs and 34 stolen bases, averaging 6.5 runs per game. Six players are hitting .300 or better, led by senior Brittany Lastrapes, who is batting .439 with 11 home runs and 37 runs batted in. Senior Lauren Schutzler (.414) and junior Karissa Buchanan (.404) are also above .400 and have six and a team-best 10 stolen bases, respectively. At .300 or better are sophomore Brigitte Del Ponte (.338), junior Kristen Arriola (.321) and senior Stacie Chambers (.308). Chambers leads the team with 17 homers and 62 RBI, while Del Ponte is second with 15 homers and 54 RBI. In the circle, sophomore Kenzie Fowler paces the squad with a 1.66 earned run average, a 21-6 record and 176 strikeouts in 156 1/3 innings. But she has missed the last 6 1/2 games after getting injured in the dugout by a foul ball on April 17. Freshman Shelby Babcock has seen the bulk of the action of late and is 16-6 with a 3.97 ERA and 113 strikeouts in 151 2/3 innings. Arizona has also used Lastrapes, senior Victoria Kemp and sophomore Baillie Kirker in the circle over the last two weekends. Mike Candrea is in his 26th year at Arizona and holds a record of 1266-272-2.

THE SERIES: BRUINS VS. WILDCATS

The Bruins and the Wildcats met for the seventh time ('91-'93, '95, '97, '01, '10) in the Women's College World Series Championship game or series last year, with UCLA winning two games to none to claim its 12th national and 11th NCAA title. The Bruins posted a 6-5, eight-inning victory on a walk-off homer by Megan Langenfeld and routed the Wildcats in game two by a score of 15-9. The teams met three times during the regular season in Tucson, with UCLA posting 6-5 (8 innings) and 6-4 wins in the first and last games of the May 13-15 series. Arizona took the middle contest 5-3. The Bruins led the all-time series 70-51 (35-18 in Westwood) and have won six of the last seven and 18 of the last 22 since 2004. The teams split their last meeting at Easton Stadium on April 4-5, 2009, with Arizona claiming a 9-2 win on April 4 and UCLA triumphing 3-2 the following afternoon.

RECAPING LAST WEEKEND'S ACTIONSunday - California 2, UCLA 1

Senior Donna Kerr struck out seven and junior Katie Schroeder had a pair of hits, but ninth-ranked California broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded, two-out single by Jamie Reid in the bottom of the seventh to finish off a three-game sweep of #8 UCLA on Sunday at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 31-13 overall and 7-8 in Pac-10 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 34-9 and 10-5 in league action.

UCLA had six hits as a team, with junior Andrea Harrison, sophomore B.B. Bates and freshmen Kellie Fox and Talee Snow also recording singles. Senior Donna Kerr (12-6) struck out seven in 6 2/3 innings, allowing two runs (one earned), eight hits and two walks.

The start of the game featured some missed opportunities by both offenses, as the Bruins left a pair in the first, third and fifth innings and the Golden Bears stranded two in their half of the third while seeing a pair of runners get thrown out trying to steal in the first two frames courtesy of the arm of UCLA freshman catcher Alyssa Tiumalu.

The Bruins broke the scoreless tie with a run in the sixth. Harrison led off with a single to left-center and moved to second on a sacrifice by junior Dani Yudin. Sophomore Devon Lindvall then came in to run for Harrison at second, and one out later, Tiumalu tapped a ball to short, but it went through the legs of Britt Vonk, allowing Lindvall to score the Bruins' first run.

In the bottom of the sixth, Cal tied it up. With one out, Jamie Reid and Vonk had back-to-back, infield singles and Reid scored on a single by Jace Williams that glanced off the glove of a diving Snow up the middle to even the score at one, with Vonk taking third and Williams moving to second. Kerr then uncorked a wild pitch to the backstop, but Tiumalu flipped back to the plate to Kerr, who tagged Vonk for the second out of the inning. Kerr got Frani Echavarria to fly out to left to end the inning.

The Bruins had a chance to re-take the lead in the seventh. With one out, Schroeder was hit by a pitch, and one out later, senior GiOnna DiSalvatore reached on another error by Vonk at short. After both runners moved up a base on a passed ball, Harrison lined a shot right into the glove of Williams at third to end the inning.

In the bottom of the seventh, Ashley Decker reached on a one-out error by Snow at second. Jordan Wallace then walked, and one out later, Elia Reid was hit by a pitch to load the bases. That brought up Jamie Reid, who lined her ninth hit of the weekend up the middle to score Decker to win the game for the Bears.

Saturday - California 9, UCLA 1 (5 innings)

Ninth-ranked California scored seven runs in the first inning and never looked back, as eighth-ranked UCLA fell via the mercy rule for the first time this year by a score of 9-1 on Saturday at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 31-12 overall and 7-7 in Pac-10 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 33-9 and 9-5 in league action.

UCLA had just four hits, with senior GiOnna DiSalvatore recording a double and juniors Samantha Camuso, Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder posting singles. Freshman Jessica Hall (15-7) started, but lasted only a third of an inning, allowing five runs, three hits and two walks with one strikeout. Senior Donna Kerr relieved her and pitched 3 2/3 frames, striking out five and giving up four runs and four hits.

The Golden Bears loaded the bases right away in the bottom of the first inning on a single by Jamie Reid and back-to-back walks by Britt Vonk and Jace Williams. One out later, Lindsey Ziegenhirt singled to right to plate Reid to make it 1-0. Ashley Decker followed with a single to left to bring home Vonk to make it 2-0. Jordan Wallace was then hit by a pitch, which forced in Williams with the Bears' third run. One out later, Elia Reid hit the first pitch she saw out to center for a grand slam to make it 7-0.

The Bruins got on the board in the fourth. DiSalvatore led off with a double to left-center and scored when Harrison reached on an error by Wallace at first when a grounder went through her legs. UCLA still had a chance to score some more after loading the bases, but Cal pitcher Jolene Henderson struck out sophomore B.B. Bates to end the threat.

Cal brought out the mercy rule with two more in its half of the fourth. With one out, Elia Reid reached on a bunt single and Jamie Reid slapped a single to third. After both runners moved up on a grounder by Vonk, Williams singled to left-center to plate both Reid sisters to make it 9-1.

Friday - California 7, UCLA 2

Junior Andrea Harrison went 3-for-3 at the plate with two singles and a double, but the difference maker on Friday was the speed of California, which had five infield hits, as the ninth-ranked Golden Bears knocked off the eighth-ranked Bruins 7-2 at Levine-Fricke Field.

The Bruins fall to 31-11 overall and 7-6 in Pac-10 play, while the Golden Bears improve to 32-9 and 8-5 in league action.

Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore, juniors Samantha Camuso and Dani Yudin and freshman Kellie Fox also had hits, as the Bruins had seven as a team. Senior Donna Kerr (12-5) tossed 5 1/3 innings, striking out eight and allowing seven runs (six earned), 10 hits and two walks. Sophomore Destiny Rodino recorded the final two outs of the sixth, giving up one hit.

After stranding a pair in the bottom of the first, Cal got on the board with three in the second. The Golden Bears were retired on the first two batters of the inning, but Jordan Wallace was hit by a pitch and moved to second on a single up the middle by Elia Reid. Jamie Reid then tapped a ball to second. Freshman Talee Snow tried to swipe tag Elia Reid going by but missed, which allowed Jamie Reid to reach on the fielder's choice to load the bases. Britt Vonk then beat out a grounder to the 3-4 hole for an RBI single that scored Wallace to make it 1-0. Jace Williams followed with a single up the middle to plate both Reid sisters to increase the margin to 3-0.

The Bruins had a great chance in the fifth but came away empty. Harrison led off with a double to left-center and Yudin followed with a single to center. But Cal pitcher Jolene Henderson, who struck out 10, retired the next three Bruins to end the threat.

Cal broke it open with four in the sixth, loading the bases on a Wallace walk and back-to-back infield singles by the Reid sisters. Vonk then grounded into a fielder's choice to short, with Fox coming home to force Wallace at the plate. But Williams came through again with another single up the middle to score the Reid sisters to make it 5-0. A Frani Echavarria single up the middle plated Vonk with the Bears' sixth run. Lindsey Ziegenhirt followed by grounding one to third, but it went between the legs of DiSalvatore, allowing Williams to make it 7-0.

The Bruins would get on the board with a pair in the seventh. DiSalvatore led off with a single to right-center and Harrison followed with a single to left. Both runners moved up a base on a groundout to short by Yudin and freshman Alyssa Tiumalu broke the shutout, lifting a scoring fly ball to center to bring in DiSalvatore to make it 7-1. Camuso followed with a double to left-center to plate Harrison with the Bruins' second run.

HARRISON TOP 25 FINALIST FOR USA SOFTBALL POY AWARD

Junior Andrea Harrison has been named a Top 25 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award, as announced by the Amateur Softball Association of America (ASA) on April 13.

The award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country. Past winners of the award include former Bruin great Stacey Nuveman. Megan Langenfeld, the most Outstanding Player of the Women's College World Series in 2010, was a top three finalist a year ago.

The Top 25 list represents 17 schools and six different conferences. The list is comprised of nine seniors, six juniors, nine sophomores and one freshman. The 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year will be chosen from the 25 finalists.

Just days before the start of postseason play, a list of 10 finalists will be named and released on May 11. The final three finalists will be announced May 25 while the winner of the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be announced prior to the start of the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

HARRISON NAMED PAC-10 POW FOR SECOND TIME IN 2011

Junior Andrea Harrison has been named Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Week (April 12) for the second time in three weeks after a fantastic five-game effort that saw her hit .833 with nine runs batted in, eight runs scored and two home runs.

Harrison had 10 hits in 12 at-bats to help the Bruins to a 5-0 record during the week. The junior slugged 1.500 for the five games and had an .842 on base percentage. She added a pair of doubles, four walks and was hit twice. Defensively, Harrison did not commit an error in 22 chances between her time at first and in left field.

In Wednesday's doubleheader against UC Santa Barbara, Harrison scored twice in the opener, walking once and also getting hit by a pitch. In the nightcap, the junior reached in all four plate appearances. After getting hit and walked in her first two trips to the dish, Harrison launched a three-run homer off the fair pole in right field in the fourth inning to give the Bruins an 8-3 lead. She would go on to single in her final at-bat in the sixth.

In Friday's Pac-10 opener against Oregon State, Harrison posted her second-career, four-hit game. After doubling in the first inning, she singled in three successive at-bats from the third through the fifth, scoring a run in the fourth.

On Saturday in the middle game, Harrison added two more hits and scored three times. The junior walked and scored in the first inning and singled and scored in the third. She led off the fifth with a double and came around to score another run.

In the weekend finale on Sunday, Harrison had a grand ending to a wonderful series. She got the Bruins on the board in the first inning with an RBI single and followed that with a scoring fly ball in the second. After the junior walked in the fourth, Harrison capped off the weekend with a walk-off, grand slam in the bottom of the fifth to give the Bruins a 12-2 victory.

The six-RBI effort on Sunday was a historic performance for Harrison, who not only became the 14th Bruin to drive in a half a dozen in a game, but became the first player to do it three times at UCLA.

Harrison leads the Bruins in all three triple-crown categories with a .432 batting average, 10 home runs and 38 runs batted in. She is also first in slugging (.886) and on base percentage (.557). The junior has raised her batting average 173 points over her last 11 contests.

Harrison was named Pac-10 POW for the first time this season on March 15 after she hit .750 with 10 RBI, five runs, two homers and five doubles at the Long Beach Marriott Invitational.

Her award is the third for the Bruins this season. Freshman Alyssa Tiumalu received the accolade on March 1. Harrison is now a three-time, Pac-10 Player of the Week honoree after also earning the award on May 3, 2010. The Bruins have 64 Pac-10 POW awards all-time.

ALYSSA TIUMALU NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Freshman Alyssa Tiumalu was named Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Week on March 1 after posting hits in all six games for the Bruins last week, going 10-for-16 (.625) with two home runs, five RBI and five runs scored in helping UCLA to a 4-2 record.

Tiumalu began the week at Cal State Northridge on Wednesday, reaching in all three plate appearances on a double, a walk and a hit by pitch. She also scored a run. Then against some of the toughest competition in the nation at the Cathedral City Classic last weekend, Tiumalu had nine hits in 15 at-bats (.600).

Tiumalu extended her hitting streak to 11 with hits in every game

MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

Credentials: Media and photography credentials for home games may be obtained by working press only by contacting Assistant Sports Information Director James Ybiernas at the phone numbers or e-mail address above. All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Credentials can be picked up at the entrance to Easton Stadium.

Interviews: All interviews must be arranged through the UCLA Sports Information Office. Student-athletes have been instructed not to grant any interviews, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the Sports Information Office. Telephone numbers are private and will not be released. Please do not expect student-athletes to be available if you have not made prior arrangements. Players and coaches are available before or after practice depending on availability. Practice is generally from 1:15 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. at Easton Stadium. Interviews during different times will require advance planning. If you would like to reach a member of the UCLA softball team on the road, contact James Ybiernas.

last week and hit her first two collegiate home runs, including a walk-off shot in a victory on Sunday against Northwestern.

The weekend began against #4 Florida on Friday, as Tiumalu went 2-for-3 and accounted for the Bruins' lone run on her first collegiate homer, a solo shot in the second. In the nightcap against #6 Oklahoma, the freshman had another two-hit game, adding a run scored and a walk to reach in all three of her plate appearances.

After recording a single versus #8 Tennessee on Saturday, Tiumalu had quite the encore to end the weekend on Sunday. Against Northwestern, the freshman posted her second, walk-off hit in as many weekends, belting a two-run homer in the bottom of the eighth inning to propel the Bruins to a 5-4 victory. In the second game on Sunday against Ohio State, Tiumalu notched her first three-hit game on three singles, adding a pair of RBI and scoring a run.

Tiumalu slugged 1.062 for the week and had a .684 on base percentage. She also did not commit an error in 46 attempts behind the plate. On the season, she leads the Bruins with a .457 batting average, adding two homers and 10 runs batted in.

KELLY INOUE-PEREZ
5TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH
17TH YEAR AT UCLA
UCLA, 1993
RECORD: 214-62

Kelly Inouye-Perez, beginning her fifth season as the Bruins' head coach in 2011, led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA championship in 2010. The Bruins went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Samantha Camuso and Andrea Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year.

The Bruins went 50-11 in 2010, bringing Inouye-Perez's career record to 183-49 (.789 winning percentage) in four campaigns. UCLA set single-season school records for home runs, slugging, on base percentage and walks. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-America first-team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region team and 10 honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the Women's College World Series, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (t-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's four seasons, the Bruins have earned 11 All-American awards, 18 All-Region honors and 33 All-Pac-10 accolades.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inouye-Perez starts her 23rd straight season in Westwood in 2011. She is a link to four decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by seven NCAA Championships and eight Pac-10 titles in her previous 22 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, first-team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single season and career home run leader.

Since the Pac-10 Conference began issuing a Pitcher of the Year Award, UCLA has been honored with two winners, Courtney Dale in 1999 and Keira Goerl in 2003. Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top four pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning first-team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and second-team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up second-team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, '85 and '89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Tournament) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning first-team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (11) and Kylie (6).
