Lara Potter is the Assistant Vice President of Communications for Players INC, the licensing & marketing firm of the NFL

Chrissie Amorosia (1998-2001) - After graduating from UCLA with a double-major in Political Science and History, Amorosia decided to take a turn at acting. In 2003, she was awarded one of 15 spots in the international Postgraduate Acting program at the Guildford School of Acting in England. After finishing the program, Amorosia returned to America, eventually settling in New York. Today, she has acted in several Off-Broadway shows and has also crossed into TV, film, readings and workshops for new plays and musicals and commercial work both online and televised.

Amorosia also works as a photographer at Tavern on the Green and has served as an assistant to Broadway and Off-Broadway producers.

Tamara Bal (2002-2005) - Bal is currently working on her law degree at the Chapman University School of Law.

Cindy Bertelink (1995-1998) - Bertelink graduated in 1999 with a BS degree in Physiological Science. She now resides in Toronto, Canada, where she works at a communications agency conceiving and developing interactive exhibits for children's science museums. Her most recent brainchild "Marvel Superheroes Science Exhibition" is currently on worldwide tour for the next five years.

Beth Boehm (2000-2003) - Boehm is currently attending the Stanford Business School as she works on earning her MBA.

Kellin Chatfield (2002-2005) - Chatfield is currently in her second year as a law student at Harvard Law School where she is a Senior Editor on the Journal of Law and Public Policy, a member of the Board of Student Advisors (an organization that oversees the school-wide moot court competition, a teaching assistant for first year legal writing courses, and acts as an advisor to the first year class at law school). She is also on the Board of Directors for the Harvard Law California Club.

Kristen (Pearce) Gibbs (1989-1992) - After graduating from UCLA in 1992 with a degree in Economics, Gibbs attended the Anderson School of Business at UCLA where she received an MBA in Marketing in 1996. After completion of her MBA, She joined the marketing side of Nestle USA. Gibbs is now the Head of Marketing for Nestle USA's Beverage Division, responsible for over $1Billion in sales. She is also a mom to 2 1/2 year old daughter, Alison and a newborn son, Pearce. Gibbs also actively volunteers at the Kidspace Childrens Museum in Pasadena.

Amanda Hall (1996-1999) - Since graduating in 1999, Hall has continued to stay close to the Bruin family, working within the athletic department since her eligibility ended. Upon her graduation, Hall served as the Assistant Director of Recruiting, and in July of 2006, was hired as the Director of the Bruin Varsity Club where she is in charge of all alumni relations for UCLA athletes and oversees all aspects of former student-athlete contacts, relationships, events and outreach plans.

Rose Huelskamp (1995-1998) - After graduating from UCLA in 1998, Huelskamp served as a recruiting assistant in the UCLA Athletic Department, before entering the University of San Diego Law School in 2000. While at law school, she coached at her high school alma mater (University of San Diego HS) and upon graduating law school in 2003, began her law career, practicing business, commercial, real estate, insurance defense and employment litigation.

Linda (McDermott) Thomson (1976-1978) - Thomson works for Hole in One International and Odds On Promotions as a Sports Promotions Specialist. She handles Sports Marketing Promotions for Colleges and Universities, as well as Professional Sports throughout the country.

Prior to joining Hole in One International and Odds On Promotions, Thomson worked in the Athletics Department at the University of Nevada, handling Marketing, Promotions and Development for women's athletics.

Jeannette Nieto (2002-2005) - Nieto parlayed an internship into a full-time position with the International Justice Mission - a human rights agency that goes overseas to rescue victims of violence, oppression and slavery when local government and officials cannot be relied upon for relief.

Keiko Price (1997-2000) - Price currently works as an Athletic Academic Advisor at California. She has also coached, been a fitness model, got her MA (from Cal) and came out of retirement in 2002 to swim at the Olympic Trials.

Annette Salmeen (1993-1995) - A Rhodes Scholar, Salmeen earned her Doctorate Degree in Biochemistry at Oxford University and is now doing post-doctoral work in the Molecular Pharmacology department at Stanford.

Lara Potter (1995-1998) - After earning a degree in Political Science with a minor in Education, Lara began her career as the Associate Director of the Amateur Volleyball Association. From there she assumed the role of Marketing Assistant for the Association of Volleyball Professionals, and eventually took over the reigns as the AVP's Director of Public Relations

In 2001, Lara joined Brener Zwickel & Associates (BZA), a Los Angeles based communications and marketing firm, where as a senior account executive she worked with the NFL Super Bowl, College Football Awards, WTA Championships, California Speedway, 2004 U.S. Olympic Trials of Swimming, Dew Action Sports Tour, and the 2001 Goodwill Games.

In 2005, PLAYERS INC, the licensing and marketing arm of the NFL Players Association, which represents more than 1,800 active and 3,500 retired NFL players, hired her as the Assistant Vice President of Communications. She is responsible for all aspects of PLAYERS INC's communications, public relations, branding and advertising strategies. Recently she took the company through a year long re-branding process and managed the creation of a new advertising campaign that came out at the start of the 2006-07 NFL season.

Janine Strack (2002-2005) - Since completing her diving career in 2005, Strack took a job as a lead therapist for First Steps for Kids in Hermosa Beach, where they specialize in early intervention (behavioral therapy) for mostly 2-3 year olds who have recently been diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder. She helps kids learn appropriate communication (including speaking, sign language, or picture exchange communication systems), social/play skills (initiating play with peers and playing with toys appropriately), and decreasing behavioral excesses (tantrums, aggression, extreme inflexibility).

Katie Stuppi (1995-1998) - Stuppi worked with the ATP tennis tournament at UCLA before getting a master's degree in counseling. She now works at her church in the South Bay counseling women, as well as doing projects to benefit the community.

Miranda (Walz) Stratford (1995-1998) - Now works as a part-time Instructor at the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising (FIDM) at the Los Angeles campus, teaching in the Merchandising Department after a career in retail buying. She also had a daughter, Charlotte, in 2005.

Janet Worthington (1999-2002) - Worthington currently works on Capitol Hill in Washington D.C. as a legislative assistant for Congressman Gary Miller attending hearings, analyzing legislation and meeting with constituents. She has also met Governor Schwarzenegger, participated in the 2004 Republican National Convention, and attended the 2005 Presidential Inauguration Speech and Inaugural Balls.

Key Athletic Department Personnel

Don Guerrero
Athletic Director
UCLA '74 • 6th Year

On April 25, 2002, former UCLA Chancellor Albert Carnesale announced that Daniel G. Guerrero had been named UCLA's eighth

Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has rapidly placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. He is currently serving as the chair of the NCAA's Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group. He is also a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. In June, he was selected 2007 NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year.

In his first five years, Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA Team Championships won (100), a number that continues to grow under his direction. UCLA teams have won 14 NCAA national championships (the highest total in the nation in that span), finished second 12 times and have had an additional 17 Top Five finishes. A staggering 94 teams (of 115 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in five bowl games. The program has also won 32 conference championships in 14 different sports, produced 286 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, 57 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and 13 other countries. They earned 19 medals, including eight gold medals.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). The broad competitive success of its athletic teams, the academic excellence of its student-athletes, the development of new and improved facilities and enhanced relations with the UCI community, reflect the progress UC Irvine Athletics experienced under Guerrero's direction. During his tenure, the program continued to accumulate conference championships, garner national rankings, feature graduation rates among the nation's best, and win numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes.

Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna (24) and Katie (20).

Ken Weiner
Associate Athletic Director • UCLA '78 •
14th Year

Ken Weiner enters his 14th year overseeing the business operations for the UCLA Athletic Department and is in his 28th year overall with the university.

His duties include the administration and supervision of six Bruin sport programs, including baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's swimming and diving, and men's and women's water polo. During his tenure at UCLA Athletics, his sports have garnered 12 national championships and numerous conference championship titles. He also oversees new business and project development and capital improvements for the department.

Weiner spearheaded the negotiations that resulted in a 20-year agreement between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, including much needed facilities improvements for the football program. In addition, he supervises the athletic facilities division, the operations of UCLA's sports practice and competition venues, game and event operations, department and team travel and UCLA Camps and Clinics.

Weiner is responsible for major capital improvements for Athletics. Projects include the renovated J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center and Acosta Student Athlete Training Center and Knapp Football Center, the new Hall of Fame, the Jackie Robinson baseball and Easton softball clubhouse construction and stadium renovations, the Drake Track/Marshall Field renovation, a new golf practice facility, Pauley Pavilion interior upgrades and the North soccer field construction. Current projects underway include the buildout of the Olympic Sport Locker Rooms in the Acosta Center and new baseball field of play at Jackie Robinson Stadium.

The new Spieker Aquatic Center is scheduled to break ground in fall of 2008. Future projects include a major renovation of the historic Pauley Pavilion, upgrade of the baseball stadium clubhouse and practice facilities and construction of a new Academic Studies Center.

Weiner participates on a number of campus steering committees on behalf of Athletics, including the Campus Facilities Coordination, Campus Project Review and the Alumni Advisory Board. Weiner is a member of NACDA and IAAM. He has served on various committees for the NCAA, most recently as chairman of the Men's Water Polo Committee.

Prior to his appointment at UCLA Athletics, Weiner co-founded and served as Associate Director of the UCLA Central Ticket Office and continues to serve as the liaison between the Athletic Department and the CTO. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from UCLA in 1978. He and his wife, Caren, have two children, Nicole, 21, and Kevin, 18.

SPIEKER AQUATIC CENTER

Breaking Ground in Spring 2008

The UCLA Athletic Department announced the construction of the Spieker Aquatic Center in April 2006. The new aquatic center, to be located at the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center on campus, will house a 52-meter x 25-yard deep-water pool and diving well (1m/3m boards, 5m/10m tower).

Thanks to the generous lead gift of former student-athlete Tod Spieker and his wife Catherine, the aquatic center dream will become reality. Spieker, a 1971 UCLA graduate, swam for the Bruins from 1968-71 and was an All-American in 1969. Presently, he and his family reside in Atherton, Calif.

The UCLA Athletic Department is working in conjunction with UCLA's Cultural and Recreational Affairs to develop the new center. Once completed, the Spieker Aquatic Center will offer the opportunity to not only host UCLA athletic events, but also Master's swimming events, individual club swim meets and U.S. Water Polo events, along with regional, national and international competition.

The UCLA Athletic Department is working in conjunction with UCLA's Cultural and Recreational Affairs to develop the new center. Once completed, the Spieker Aquatic Center will offer the opportunity to not only host UCLA athletic events, but also Master's swimming events, individual club swim meets and U.S. Water Polo events, along with regional, national and international competition.

Diving will be able to host U.S. Diving Senior National Championships in the new facility. The new pool will also allow UCLA to host annual collegiate and junior diving invitationals (i.e. The Bruin Invite/JO Regionals and Zones, with the hope of hosting a Junior National Championship). The state-of-the-art facility will bring together all three of UCLA's intercollegiate aquatic sports – water polo, swimming and diving – in one venue.

The $10-million project includes a clubhouse that will contain locker rooms, coaches' offices and meeting rooms which currently do not exist for intercollegiate athletics. The Spieker Aquatic Center will be a lighted facility and will hold 800 spectators in the permanent grandstand. For large-scale events, UCLA will have the ability to seat an additional 1,700 spectators in temporary seating.

A new deep-water competition swimming pool and related locker and shower facilities will provide the campus with a venue specifically designed for the special needs of its swimming, water polo and diving programs. This facility will allow the campus to regain blocks of time at the Sunset Canyon Recreation Center and Student Activity Center pools.

Tod Spieker is the President of Spieker Companies, a multi-family and apartment complex company located in Palo Alto, Calif. Spieker continues to compete in the Master's swim program and was inducted into the International Master's Swimming Hall of Fame in 2005. The Spieker family gift is currently the second-largest donation in UCLA Athletics' history.

Head Swim Coach Cyndi Gallagher

"We are elated about the prospect of having a 50-meter pool dedicated to intercollegiate athletics on our campus. We are looking forward to the opportunities the new swimming and diving center can bring to the aquatic sports at UCLA and are appreciative of the donors that are making this a reality."

Diving Coach Tom Stebbins

"I couldn't be happier to be a part of this announcement. Our coaches and student-athletes are grateful to the Spieker family, the volunteers, and administration for creating an opportunity for UCLA athletics to prosper over the next fifty years. This is a huge improvement for the diving program. We look forward to hosting as many events as possible and bringing the diving community to UCLA, something we have never been able to do."
