

STELLA SAMPRAS WEBSTER

Head Coach
13th Season
UCLA '91

Stella Sampras Webster enters her 13th season as the head coach of the UCLA women's tennis program, taking a career record of 210-103 (.671) into the 2009 season. She is only the third head coach in UCLA women's tennis history, following Bill Zaima (1972-76 & 1986-96) and Gayle Godwin (1977-86).

Sampras Webster is coming off a dream season in 2008, leading the Bruins to their first NCAA Championship and first national championship since 1981 (AIAW). UCLA finished last season with a 24-5 overall record, marking the most wins for the program since 1982. Seeded No. 7 in last year's tournament, the Bruins' dramatic run to the title culminated with a 4-0 victory over Cal in the final in Tulsa, Okla. It marked the 102nd NCAA title in UCLA history. Sampras Webster also guided the Bruins to their first Pac-10 Championship last year, finishing the conference season with a 7-1 record. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year at the end of the season.

Few college coaches can match Sampras Webster's ability to continually put their teams in the title hunt year in and year out as, prior to last year's championship season, she guided the program to a pair of second place finishes in 2004 and 2007. In all, Sampras Webster has led the Bruins 11 top 10 finishes in 12 seasons in Westwood. UCLA has also finished in the top 5 nationally on seven occasions (1997, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2007 and 2008).

Sampras Webster, the 2000 ITA West Region Coach of the Year, has recruited and coached some of the top players in collegiate tennis. Under her tutelage, a total of 15 players have achieved All-America status. Her most recent prodigy, Riza Zalameda, was a four-time All-American and the Most Outstanding Player at last year's NCAA Championships. She and partner Tracy Lin captured the NCAA Doubles title in 2008, marking the second UCLA team to capture the doubles title under Sampras Webster's tenure. Lauren Fisher and Daniela Bercek also won the title in 2004.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA with a degree in Psychology, Sampras Webster enjoyed a successful four-year career as a Bruin player from 1987-91 and competed on the pro circuit for a season prior to joining Zaima's staff. An NCAA Doubles Champion as a freshman in 1988 with Allyson Cooper, Sampras Webster was also the NCAA doubles runner-up as a senior in 1991 with Kimberly Po. A four-time All-American, Sampras Webster was only the second player in UCLA history to obtain this status. She also won the 1989 and '91 Pac-10 doubles championship and the 1990 Rolex Regional doubles title. Sampras Webster completed her UCLA career ranked No. 3 nationally in doubles and No. 42 in singles. Team accomplishments were most important to Sampras Webster, who helped lead the Bruins to four straight NCAA top-three finishes.

As a professional, Sampras Webster's highest international singles ranking was No. 248, and her best in doubles was No. 142. Her professional highlights include competing in both singles and doubles at the U.S. Open and Lipton Championships. She advanced to the U.S. Open second round in doubles and also competed in doubles at Wimbledon. She also won three satellite tournament titles and competed in Team Tennis for the Wichita Advantage in 1992.

Born in Potomac, Md., Sampras Webster moved to the Los Angeles area as a child and graduated from Palos Verdes High School. A top-three player in Southern California and among the top 10 in the country as a junior, Sampras Webster claimed the CIF doubles title as a freshman and the singles title as a senior in 1987. She capped her high school career by being named her school's Athlete of the Year.

The second-oldest of four children of Sam and Georgia Sampras, Stella considers the support of her entire family most significant. Younger brother Pete demonstrated his level of support for Stella and the Bruin program when he personally endowed a scholarship and assisted with the important fund-raising effort in Stella's first fall at the helm. Pete won a record 14 Grand Slam singles titles during his playing days, including seven Wimbledon championships.

Sampras Webster and her husband, Steve, were married on Jan. 3, 2002 in Dana Point, Calif. They are the proud parents of twin girls Sophia and Savannah.

RANCE BROWN

Associate Head Coach
12th Season
Long Beach State

Associate Head Coach Rance Brown begins his 12th season on the UCLA women's tennis coaching staff. He served as an assistant to Bill Zaima during the 1996 season, and has been Stella Sampras Webster's top assistant for 10 seasons. The 2000 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Brown was promoted to the position of associate head coach effective the beginning of the 2008-09 season.

During Brown's tenure in Westwood UCLA has continually been among the top teams in the nation as, in addition to last year's NCAA Championship, the Bruins have twice finished as runner-up at the NCAA Championships (2004 and 2007). The Bruins have made the NCAA Tournament in each of his 11 seasons as an assistant. Brown has especially excelled in the area of recruiting, bringing in a number of highly-ranked junior players to the program in the last several years. He also instrumental in the success of NCAA Singles Champion Keri Phebus, who recently became the first women's tennis player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. Brown was named the ITA West Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 1999, 2000 and 2007. He spent this past summer as the coach of the USTA Summer Collegiate Team, traveling to professional tournaments with some of the top women's college players in the nation.

In addition to his efforts with the UCLA program, Brown has headed up one of the most successful junior tennis programs in the country, serving as Director of Tennis at the Newport Beach Marriott Hotel and Tennis Club in Orange County for more than 20 years. During that time, he has worked with some of the top junior boys and girls in California. More than 40 of coach Brown's players have went on to receive Division I tennis scholarships, capturing more than a dozen USTA National titles during their careers.

Brown received his Associate of Arts degree from Golden West Junior College, where he played for two years. He helped lead the team to two conference team titles and notched one conference doubles title. He played the 1981 season at Long Beach State and competed professionally at Challenger Level Tournaments before devoting his time to coaching. He continues to work towards his B.A. in Recreation Management from Long Beach State as time permits.

BILL ZAIMA

Vol. Assistant Coach
35th Season
UCLA '69

Former head coach Bill Zaima is entering his 35th season with the UCLA women's tennis program and 18th as a volunteer assistant coach. In addition to the past six years, Zaima was also a volunteer assistant coach from 1977-85. His latest term as volunteer assistant began in 2000, as he returned after serving as a development officer in the UCLA Student Affairs Office for three years.

Zaima, who guided the Bruins to a national championship in 1981, announced his retirement at the end of the 1996 season after 16 years as UCLA's head coach. In those 16 seasons (1972-76, 1986-96), Zaima compiled an impressive 245-90 (.731) overall record, guiding the Bruins to nine top 5 finishes, including two trips to the NCAA Championship Final (1989 and '91).

In 1991, his team upset undefeated Florida in the NCAA Semifinals, earning a berth in the championship match for the second time in three years. That season, he was selected Pac-10 Coach of the Year and was an ITCA National Coach of the Year finalist.

In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Zaima has helped coach 36 different players to a total of 68 All-America honors. In 1995, he helped UCLA sweep the individual honors at the NCAA Championships. That season, Keri Phebus won the singles title and teamed with Susie Starrett to claim the NCAA doubles crown. During his time as head coach, a total of six Bruin players have won individual NCAA titles.

Zaima is also responsible for establishing the UCLA women's tennis support group, the Bruin Aces.

A 1969 graduate of UCLA with a degree in political science, Zaima also holds an M.S. degree in recreational administration from Cal State Los Angeles. Zaima resides in Valencia with his wife Carole, who is also a UCLA graduate and school administrator.
