

Stella SAMPRAS WEBSTER

Head Coach • 11th Season • UCLA '91

Stella Sampras Webster enters her 11th season as the head coach of the UCLA women's tennis program with a career record of 165-90 (.647). Sampras Webster became only the third head coach in UCLA women's tennis history when she was named the successor to longtime head coach Bill Zaima, who announced his retirement effective the end of the 1996 season.

In her first 10 seasons at UCLA, Sampras Webster guided the Bruins to nine top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships, including five top-5 showings (1997, 2000, 2002, 2003 and 2004). In 2004, she led UCLA to the NCAA Finals for the first time since 1991. It also marked the first time since 1991 that the Bruins surpassed the 20-win mark, finishing with a 21-8 overall record.

Sampras Webster has recruited and coached some of the top players in collegiate tennis. Under her tutelage, 13 Bruins have achieved All-America status. In 2000, she was named the ITA West Region Coach of the Year.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA with a degree in Psychology, Sampras Webster enjoyed a successful four-year career as a Bruin player from 1987-91 and competed on the pro circuit for a season prior to joining Zaima's staff. An NCAA Doubles Champion as a freshman in 1988 with Allyson Cooper, Sampras Webster was also the NCAA doubles runner-up as a senior in 1991 with Kimberly Po. A four-time All-American, Sampras Webster was only the second player in UCLA history to obtain this status. She also won the 1989 and '91 Pac-10 doubles championship and the 1990 Rolex Regional doubles title. Sampras Webster completed her UCLA career ranked No. 3 nationally in doubles and No. 42 in singles. Team accomplishments were most important to Sampras Webster, who helped lead the Bruins to four straight NCAA Top-3 finishes.

As a professional, Sampras Webster's highest international singles ranking was No. 248, and her best in doubles was No. 142. Her professional highlights include competing in both singles and doubles at the U.S. Open and Lipton Championships. She advanced to the U.S. Open second round in doubles and also competed in doubles at Wimbledon. She also won three satellite tournament titles and competed in Team Tennis for the Wichita Advantage in 1992.

Born in Potomac, Md., Sampras Webster moved to the Los Angeles area as a child and graduated from Palos Verdes High School. A top-three player in Southern California and among the top-10 in the country as a junior, Sampras Webster claimed the CIF doubles title as a freshman and the singles title as a senior in 1987. She capped her high school career by being named her school's Athlete of the Year.

The second-oldest of four children of Sam and Georgia Sampras, Stella considers the support of her entire family most significant. Younger brother Pete demonstrated his level of support for Stella and the Bruin program when he personally endowed a scholarship and assisted with the important fund-raising effort in Stella's first fall at the helm. Pete won a record 14 Grand Slam singles titles during his playing days, including seven Wimbledon championships.

Sampras Webster and her husband Steve were married on Jan. 3, 2002 in Dana Point, Calif. They welcomed two new members to their family in September of 2005 when Stella gave birth to twin girls Sophia and Savannah.

Rance BROWN

Assistant Coach • 10th Season

Long Beach State

Head coach Stella Sampras Webster announced the re-hiring of Rance Brown for the position of assistant coach in October of 2002.

Brown, who was an assistant at UCLA from 1996-2000, elected to return to the program after focusing on junior tennis development in Orange County. Before his departure, he was named the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

Brown returned to UCLA after heading up one of the most successful junior tennis programs in the country. For the past 20 years, he has served as director of tennis at the Newport Beach Marriot Hotel and Tennis Club in Orange County. During that time, he has worked with some of the top junior boys and girls in California. More than 40 of coach Brown's players have went on to receive Division-I tennis scholarships, capturing more than a dozen USTA National titles during their careers.

Brown received his Associate of Arts degree from Golden West Junior College, where he played for two years. He helped lead the team to two conference team titles and notched one conference doubles title. He played the 1981 season at Long Beach State and competed professionally at Challenger Level Tournaments before devoting his time to coaching. He continues to work towards his B.A. in Recreation Management from Long Beach State as time permits.

► Rance Brown was named the ITA's Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

Bill ZAIMA

Volunteer Assistant Coach • 33rd Season

UCLA '69

Former head coach Bill Zaima is entering his 33rd season with the UCLA women's tennis program and 17th as volunteer assistant coach. In addition to the past five years, Zaima was also a volunteer assistant coach from 1977-85. His latest term as volunteer assistant began in 2000, as he returned after serving as a development officer in the UCLA Student Affairs Office for three years.

Zaima, who guided the Bruins to their only national championship in 1981, announced his retirement at the end of the 1996 season after 16 years as UCLA's head coach. In those 16 seasons (1972-76, 1986-96), Zaima compiled an impressive 245-90 (.731) overall record, guiding the Bruins to nine top-5 finishes, including two trips to the NCAA Championship Final (1989 and '91).

In 1991, his team upset undefeated Florida in the NCAA Semifinals, earning a berth in the championship match for the second time in three years. That season, he was selected Pac-10 Coach of the Year and was an ITCA National Coach of the Year finalist.

In addition to his numerous team accomplishments, Zaima has helped coach 36 different players to a total of 68 All-America honors. In 1995, he helped UCLA sweep the individual honors at the NCAA Championships. That season, Keri Phebus won the singles title and teamed with Susie Starrett to claim the NCAA doubles crown. During his time as head coach, a total of six Bruin players have won individual NCAA titles.

Zaima is also responsible for establishing the UCLA women's tennis support group, the Bruin Aces.

A 1969 graduate of UCLA with a degree in political science, Zaima also holds an M.S. degree in recreational administration from Cal State Los Angeles. Zaima resides in Valencia with his wife Carole, who is also a UCLA graduate and school administrator.

► Bill Zaima guided UCLA to the AIAW National Championship in 1981.
