Jeanette Bolden enters her 18th year at the helm of the women's track and field program. Bolden has led the Bruin women to incredible success during her time as head track coach, helping guide the team to three NCAA titles in the process - the 2004 Outdoor title, and both the 2000 and 2001 Indoor crowns (the first women or men's indoor track and field titles in school history). In 2005, Bolden's team finished second at the NCAA Outdoor Championships with just five scoring competitors. In all, Bolden has been a part of five NCAA Championship teams, both as a coach and athlete. As a coach, she has guided Bruin sprinters, hurdlers and relay runners to over 50 All-American performances.

Bolden led the women to victory in the first two NCAA West Region Championships (2003 and 2004), and 10 Pac-10 titles in her 18 years of coaching. She has an amazing 73-3 dual meet record at UCLA, with 14 consecutive wins coming over archrival USC. The Bruins were also the nation's top dual meet team on nine separate occasions.

In 2006, Bolden was given one of the highest honors of her career as she was named the U.S. Women's Head Coach for the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. She was the first head coach in U.S.

Olympic history to have won an Olympic medal as an athlete. Bolden led the American women to their third-highest medal haul in U.S. Olympic history (23), and most since the 1992 Barcelona Games. She also saw Dawn Harper (gold, 100mH), Sheena Johnson (bronze, 400mH) and Monique Henderson (gold, 4x400) have much success at the Games.

Last Season

In 2010, the women finished the season with a 25th-place showing at the NCAA Outdoor Championships behind pole vaulters Tori Peña and Katy Viuf's third and fourth-place finish, respectively. Lindsay Rowe (100m hurdles), the 4x400m relay Ryan Kraus (heptathlon) and the two vaulters represented UCLA at Nationals. At Pac-10s, the Bruins finished sixth in the team competition.

In indoor track, UCLA finished 56th as Tori Peña, Ryann Kraus (pentathlon) and Danielle Watson (long jump) competing at the NCAA meet.

Standouts Under Bolden

Bolden has coached several of the top sprinters in NCAA history during her time at UCLA, most notably NCAA Champions Monique Henderson, Sheena Johnson and Nicole Leach.

In 2005, Henderson capped off her NCAA career with a win in the 400m at the NCAA Outdoor meet, the first individual title of her career. She blazed her way through the season, winning the Pac-10, West Region and NCAA titles in that event, ending her career with nine All-American honors. Her accomplishments helped her garner the Pac-10 and Mondo West Region Women's Athlete of the Year awards. She was also a finalist for the Honda Award, given annually to the nation's top female student-athlete. She ranked third in Henderson also won a gold medal as a member of the 4x400m relay squad that took first at the Athens Olympic Games in 2004 and the Beijing Olympic Games in 2008. Johnson won two NCAA 400m hurdles titles during her time at UCLA, setting a collegiate record in her final year (52.95). She won three West Region titles and nine Pac-10 crowns (three on a relay and six individual) during her career and was a 15-time All-American.

Johnson also competed at the Olympic Games in 2004, and just missed a medal, finishing fourth in the intermediate hurdles. In 2008, she earned the Silver medal in the 400m hurdles.

Leach made a name for herself on the collegiate, national and world scene as she won her first NCAA title during her sophomore season and was second in 2008. Leach capped off her Bruin career in 2009 with her second NCAA 400m hurdles crown. She competed for the U.S. at the World Championships, advancing to the semifinal round before being eliminated and competed at the U.S. Olympic Trials in June of 2008.

Coaching Honors

Bolden's success' in the coaching world have not gone unnoticed as she has been honored on several occasions for her work. In December of 2010, Bolden was inducted into the U.S. Track & Field/ Cross Country Coaches' Association Hall of Fame.

She was named the U.S. Olympic Women's Team coach for the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. In 2004, Bolden swept every women's collegiate coaching honor and was named "Coach of the Year" by the USTFCCA in the National, West Region and Pac-10 categories.

On February 13, 2004, Bolden was presented the prestigious C. Vivian Stringer Award, an accolade which is presented to a woman who has experienced outstanding achievement as a coach - exhibiting a high standard of propriety, imagination and innovation as a character builder in the tradition of great teacher-coaches. She has also been named the USTCA West Region Women's Coach of the Year on nine occasions, as well as Pac-10 Women's Coach of the Year on 10 occasions.

Bolden has served on a number of NCAA and track and field boards, and has served as an assistant coach for the World Indoor and Outdoor Championships, and in 1998 was named the USOC Track & Field Developmental Coach of the Year. In 1994, she served as an assistant coach for the West squad at the Olympic Festival in St. Louis. In 2006, Bolden served as the head coach for the 2006 World Cup, which was held in Greece.

Named UCLA Head Coach

At the end of the 1993 season, then-UCLA head coach Bob Kersee asked to be relieved of his head coaching duties and reassigned to the Bruin staff. There was only one logical choice to replace Kersee, and that was Bolden, an Olympic gold medal winner and All-American sprinter at UCLA. Bolden has just completed her second year as a Bruin assistant coach, specializing in the sprints and hurdles, when she was named head coach.

Athletic Accomplishments

As an athlete at the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles, Bolden earned a gold medal on the U.S. 400m relay team and placed fourth in the 100m. She was also a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic team that did not compete in Moscow. At UCLA from 1981-83, she was a five-time All-American. In 1982, she helped lead the Bruins to their first NCAA Outdoor championship, by placing second (11.12) in the 100m and running on UCLA's 400m relay that finished third (44.02). At the 1981 nationals, she placed third in the 100m (11.28) and ran on the Bruins' 400m (second, 44.49) and 800m medley (second, 1:37.41) relays. In 1983 (UCLA's second NCAA Outdoor team title), Bolden injured a hamstring before nationals and did not compete. On the all-time Bruin sprint charts, she is still tied for fourth in the 100m (11.16, with an 11.12w).

Throughout her track career, Bolden was considered one of the top female sprinters in the U.S. In 1986 she tied the then-world indoor record (6.54) in the 60y dash in the GTE/Times Indoor meet at The Forum and in 1983, she set the former 60y world record indoor mark (6.60) at the Dallas Times Herald Meet. She still holds the collegiate women's indoor mark in the 50m (6.13) and 50y. In 1985, Bolden ran the second leg on the American-record setting sprint medley relay (1:36.79). Ranked No. 9 in the country in 1988, Bolden was trying to make her third straight U.S. Olympic team that year when she tore an Achilles tendon at the Trials, requiring surgery. Away from the Coaching

She is executive director and coordinator of the Jeanette Bolden Asthma and Allergy Track Clinic; and a member of the Board of Directors for the Asthma and Allergy Foundation. Most recently, she was named a coordinator for the Marathon Kids Foundation at UCLA, an organization that the women's team is heavily involved in volunteering. Bolden and her family own the famous 27th Street Bakery in Los Angeles.

Bolden and her husband of 22 years, Al, have two children, twins Anthony and Kimberly, age 10.

At the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, Bolden won a gold medal on the U.S. 4x100m relay.

- 2006 NCAA West Region Women's Jumps Coach of the Year
- Coached Korean National Record Holder, Olympian and three-time All-American Yoo Kim (18-4.50, 2004)
- Coached 16 athletes to multiple All-American honors

- As a Bruin, his 18-2.50 (1982) is No. 4 in school history

Former UCLA pole vault standout Anthony Curran enters his 28th year at his alma mater as the men's and women's vault coach. Curran is also in his third year as head jumps coach with the Bruins. Curran has become one of the premier vault coaches in the nation as he continues to produce All-American after All-American at UCLA. He has coached multiple Olympians, National Record Holders, and NCAA and Pac-10 Champions during his tenure at UCLA, a feat that has made UCLA a pole vaulting powerhouse. Curran also earned top honors in 2006 after being named the NCAA West Region Women's Jumps Coach of the Year.

Last season was another successful one for the Bruin vaulters as Tori Peña and Katy Viuf led the way with 14-foot vault performances. Peña and Viuf finished third and fourth, respectively, at the NCAA Outdoor meet. Peña posted the No. 3 mark in school history (14-3.25) and went on to win the Irish National Championships with a new national record mark, while Viuf cleared the No. 4 mark (14-2). Peña also competed at the NCAA Indoor meet, placing ninth overall. In the horizontal jumps, Danielle Watson led the way as she competed at the USATF Senior National Outdoor Championships in the long jump and had a top mark of 20-9. Watson also competed at the NCAA Indoor meet and earned All-American honors with an eighth-place finish.

On the men's side, Curran coached three men to vaults over 17-feet in 2010 - Johnny Quinn (17-5), Casey DiCesare (17-5) and Greg Woepse (17-00.75). Curran's jumpers also posted lifetime-best performances throughout the season including 25-0 in the long by Nelson Rosario and 52-5.25 in the indoor triple for Jonathan Clark.

Eight male athletes have earned All-American honors under Curran's tutelage - Dustin DeLeo ('08 indoor); Mike Landers ('06/'07-outdoor); Yoo Kim ('04-outdoor, '03-outdoor); Pat Luke ('03-outdoor); Brian McLaughlin ('00-indoor); Johnny Quinn ('08 outdoor); Scott Slover ('98-indoor/outdoor, '97-indoor, '96-indoor/outdoor); and John Sommers ('94-indoor), while eight women have earned the honor - Tori Peña ('10 outdoor); Katy Viuf ('10 outdoor); Tori Anthony ('08 indoor); Chelsea Johnson ('06-indoor/outdoor, '04-indoor/outdoor); Ingrid Kantola ('07 indoor and outdoor); Jackie Nguyen ('04-outdoor); Tracy O'Hara ('02-'99-both indoor and outdoor all four years at UCLA); and Erica Hoernig ('98-indoor).

O'Hara won three NCAA titles - 2002 and 2000 Outdoor and 2000 Indoor. Johnson was the 2006 Indoor champion and 2004 Outdoor champion, and set the NCAA Collegiate Pole Vault Record (15-1) in 2006.

His athletes have won eight Pac-10 titles, three on the men's side and five on the women's side, while he has coached every woman on UCLA's all-time top-10 and nine of the men on the all-time chart.

In recent years, Curran has coached six Olympians - Okkert Brits (South Africa), Yoo Kim (South Korea), Canadians Dana Ellis and Stephanie McCann, and American Mel Mueller. Ellis is the current Canadian National Record Holder (14-7.25) and both her and Ellis were Canadian National Champions. Kim set a Korean National Record in 2004 with a mark of 18-4.50, a height which also ranks third all-time at UCLA.

Curran, 51, was a four-year letterman and All-American from 1978-82. During his senior season, he won the Pac-10 title with an 18-2.50 vault, No. 4 in Bruin history. In '82, Curran also placed fourth in the NCAA. As a junior, he was second in the conference (18-0.50) and also placed second in the NCAA, his best collegiate finish. In 1981, he ranked sixth in the U.S. As a sophomore in 1980, he jumped 17-8.50 to again place second in the Pac-10 and was third at the NCAA Championship. During his freshman season, Curran placed second (17-3) at the conference level and fourth at the NCAA. Still active as a vaulter into the '90s, Curran cleared 18-8.50 (personal-best) in 1992 and that summer competed in the U.S. Olympic trials.

Curran, whose brother Tim was a Bruin vaulter in 1975-76, graduated from Crespi HS in Encino in 1978. During his senior prep season, he was the State champion (17-0.50, a CA State record at the time), and his 17-4.25 was a national prep record. As a junior, he vaulted 16-4, as a sophomore 15-9 and as a freshman in 1975, his best was 14-8.50.

Curran started his own track club, "No Limit Sport" in 1985. In 1989, he founded the Beach Pole Vault Association.

He has coached five elite women vaulters - 2000 Olympian Mel Mueller (15-1.75), No. 3 in the U.S.; Mary Sauer, ranked No. 10 in the World (15-3i), Canadian National Champion and Canadian National Record Holder Dana Ellis (14-8, 6th at the Athens Olympics), former Canadian National Champion Stephanie McCann (14-7.25, 10th at the Athens Olympics), Alexa Harz, fifth at the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials (13-9.25) and O'Hara, who placed fifth at the U.S. Olympic Trials in 2004 (Personal-best 15-0 in 2005).

Curran began his own production company in 1995 and has produced seven surf movies sold worldwide. He also began the Curran Surf Camps in 1998, which he runs during the summer, in addition to holding two UCLA pole vault and track camps. In 2003, Curran, an avid musician, produced his first music CD. He wrote, arranged and performed all 13 songs.

Curran married Lisa Carlson in 1994, and they have five children - Sara (14), Tate (11) and Marlow (9), and Shaylee (4) and Kai Lilly (2).

During his first season coaching the throwers, several of his athletes posted lifetime-best performances throughout the indoor and outdoor seasons. He also helped recruit one of the top young European hammer throwers, Ida Storm, who is a freshman on the women's team this year. Maynard also recruited two of the top men's prep throwers (Alec Faldermeyer and Derek Eager), who are also freshmen this season with the Bruins.

In his nine years as the head coach at Boise State, Maynard led a program which produced several historic events - back-to-back (2004 and 2005) national championships by Gabe Wallin in the men's javelin, over 50 new school record performances and 30 All-American accolades. The Broncos enjoyed unprecedented success behind Maynard's direction.

Maynard has also guided Bronco student-athletes to over 70 individual WAC Championships and over 90 marks on Boise State's all-time top three performance lists.

Maynard came to Boise State following an outstanding assistant coaching career at the University of Arizona. He was the associate head track and field coach for the Wildcat program for 13 years prior to joining the Broncos. While coaching at Arizona, Maynard guided 32 individual NCAA Division I All-Americans, including three NCAA National Champions.

Maynard's coaching resume also includes a two-year stint as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Arizona, where he worked with the Wildcat football program as well as being responsible for the Arizona track and field, swimming and tennis teams. He began his collegiate coaching career at Mesa Community College (Ariz.) where he was the assistant track and field coach from 1982-84, and in 1987.

Maynard was also instrumental in bringing a world-class facility to Bronco Track & Field. During his first two years leading the Broncos, Maynard and Boise State were successful in purchasing a world championship caliber track and helped construct the building to put it in. The Mondo track was used by USA Track and Field and the Georgia Dome for the national indoor championships. The building is the Idaho Sports Center located in the Idaho Center complex in Nampa, Idaho. The track was purchased with a $250,000 cash gift from John Jackson, President of Jacksons Food Stores in Meridian, Idaho. Boise State has hosted several major meets, including six WAC Indoor Championships. The facility hosted its first national meet in 2005 with the USA Indoor Master's Championships. Boise State has submitted bids to host future NCAA Indoor National Championships.

Outside the collegiate world, Maynard has coached a World Champion, five different Olympians, a Pan

American gold medalist, five USA Track and Field Champions and three American Junior Champions. One of Maynard's former athletes Tony Washington (1990-96), won the World Championship in the discus in 1999. Washington also won the gold medal in the discus at the 1991 Pan American Games along with five USA National Championships.

Maynard is currently an Executive Committee member of the United State Track Coaches Association and the NCAA Division I Track and Field Executive Committee. Maynard was also the head coach for the USA Track and Field team in its dual meet against Germany in 1996. He has served USA Track and Field as the Regional Decathlon Chairman, the United States Olympic Committee as an Elite Throws Clinician, and has been the lead throws clinician for the USA/Visa Decathlon team.

Maynard resides in Valencia with his wife, Dee. Their daughter Allison (20, a junior at Boise State) and son Michael (18, a senior at West Ranch HS in Valencia).

Johnny Gray enters his second season as a member of the Bruin coaching staff where he will coach the middle distance runners.

In Gray's first season with the Bruins, several runners posted lifetime-best performances throughout the indoor and outdoor season. One of his athletes, Chris Cheng, was a state finalist in the 800m, dropping his personal-best in the 800m from 2:18.0 the previous year to 1:52.96 under Gray's coaching.

Gray also coached one of America's elite half-milers, Khadevis Robinson, to five USATF Championship titles. Today, he helps coach Dewayne Solomon, a former Trojan, who was second at the 2010 USATF Senior National Championships with a PR run of 1:45.2.

No stranger to success as an athlete, Gray is a four-time Olympian having competed in the 1984, 1988, 1992 and 1996 Olympic Games. At the Barcelona Games, he earned a bronze medal in the 800m and won gold at the 1987 and 1999 PanAm Games. Bob Kersee enters his 30th year as a member of the women's track and field coaching staff. For the past 17 years, Kersee has served in a volunteer capacity, working with the hurdlers and heptathletes, event areas which have seen incredible success under his guidance.

Kersee is one of the premier sprints and hurdles coaches in the world and has guided numerous athletes to Olympic, World, U.S. and NCAA titles. At the 2009 World Championships, Kersee coached Allyson Felix to gold in the 200m and Kerron Clement to gold in the 400m hurdles. Alum Dawn Harper also advanced to the finals in the 100m hurdles and had the No. 3 time in the world in 2009. In 2008, Kersee coached Harper to a gold medal at the Beijing Games in the 100m hurdles. He also coached Allyson Felix to a silver medal in the 200m and a gold in the 4x400m, and Shawn Crawford to a silver in the men's 200m and Kerron Clement to a silver in the men's 400m hurdles. He also helped coach the U.S. 4x400m relay team to gold.

In collegiate track, Kersee coached Nicole Leach to two NCAA titles in the 400m hurdles and in 2009, helped coach freshman Ryann Kraiss to All-America honors and a silver medal at the PanAm Junior Games in the heptathlon. He also helped coach Rhonda Watkins to All-American performances in both the indoor and outdoor long jump last season. Leach will continue her career with Kersee as a member of his track club. This season, he will continue his work with the Bruin hurdlers and Kraiss in the heptathlon.

In 2007, Kersee helped sophomore Leach win her first NCAA title in the intermediate hurdles, and also coached former Bruin Michelle Perry to her second World 100m hurdles crown during the summer of 2007.

Perry, a former heptathlete, stepped away from the multi-event competition after the 2004 Olympics to focus on the high hurdles and has gone on to earn two World titles and three straight No. 1 world rankings with Kersee as her coach.

Former USC Trojan and NCAA champion Ginny Powell began training with Kersee after ending her career at USC and was a World Championship finalist in the hurdles in 2007 (5th).

Widely regarded as one of the world's premier track and field coaches, Kersee was honored as the 2005 USATF Nike Coach of the Year after two of his athletes won gold at the World Championships in Helsinki, Finland - Michelle Perry (100mH) and Allyson Felix (200m).

Kersee also coaches former Bruin Joanna Hayes, who won the Gold Medal in the 100m hurdles (12.37, Olympic record) at the Athens Olympics and was the No. 1 ranked high hurdler in the World in 2004.

Along with his wife, Jackie Joyner, Kersee also coached Gail Devers to several Olympic and World Championship medal performances. Devers was the top-ranked high hurdler in the world on several occasions, along with Jackie Joyner-Kersee.

Valerie Brisco, Gail Devers, Greg Foster and Andre Phillips are other top Kersee-coached athletes who won numerous gold and silver medals at the XXIIIrd Olympiad in Los Angeles and then in Seoul. Devers also had outstanding Olympic performances in Atlanta in 1996 and Barcelona in 1992. In Atlanta, Devers won the gold medal in the 100m for the second consecutive Olympics (making her the fourth straight Bruin to win that event; Florence Griffith Joyner in 1988 and Evelyn Ashford in 1984) and won another gold, running the second leg on the victorious U.S. 4x100m relay.

Kersee's niece, Darnesha Griffith became only the fifth woman in NCAA history to win the high jump at both the 2002 NCAA Indoor (6-0.75) and Outdoor (6-0) championships (in the same season) and was ranked No. 5 in the U.S.

Kersee completed his ninth season as head coach at UCLA in 1993 by winning the Pacific-10 title and placing third at the NCAA Outdoor. Five of his last seven teams won the conference crown. In addition, eight of his last nine Bruin squads recorded Top-7 NCAA finishes, including a runner-up result in three of the last six campaigns and a third-place finish in 1993.

Kersee first came to UCLA in 1980 after leading Cal State Northridge to consecutive Division I national championships in 1978 and 1979. He served as assistant coach to Scott Chisam at UCLA from 1980-83, during which time he guided sprinters Florence Griffith, LaShon Nedd, Sherri Howard, Arlise Emerson and Bolden to NCAA honors.

Prior to his experience at CSUN, Kersee coached women's AAU clubs, including the South Bay Striders, Blue Angels Track Club and the L.A. Naturite Track Club.

Kersee has also been selected for various national team coaching assignments. At the 2005 World T&F Championships, he served as a U.S. Women's Team Coach/Administrator. In 1985, he served as the sprint coach for the U.S. Olympic Festival West team and served in a similar capacity at the 1987 Pan Am Games.

A 1978 graduate of Long Beach State, he helped coach the women's team while earning a degree in physical education. Prior to attending Long Beach State, Kersee competed for Harbor Junior College. In 1976, he was a finalist in the hurdles at the state junior college meet while helping lead Harbor to the Southern California championship. Following his graduation from Long Beach, Kersee began work toward a master's degree in exercise physiology at CSUN.

Born in the Canal Zone, Panama, Kersee is a graduate of San Pedro HS, where he was a standout track athlete. Kersee married Jackie Joyner in January 1986, and is the president of the Board of Directors of the Jackie Joyner-Kersee Boys and Girls Club of East St. Louis, IL.

Dan Guerrero

Director of Athletics
Ninth Year
UCLA '74

In his eight years as UCLA's Director of Athletics, Daniel G. Guerrero has boldly placed his imprint on the school's athletic program.

Guerrero is one of the most respected and talented administrators in all of intercollegiate athletics. He is the current president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association. In addition, he is the first vice-president of the National Assn. of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee.

This past June, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 million, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

In Guerrero's eight years as AD, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (106) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those eight years, UCLA teams have won 20 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 16 times and have had an additional 28 Top Five finishes (64 total). A staggering 152 teams (of 184 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 45 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 400 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China, 39 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and nine other nations. They won 15 medals, including four gold.

In the last eight years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Leerfield Sports Directors' Cup.

This past year, UCLA placed fourth in competition for the Leerfield Cup and won its 11th NCAA Championship in softball and its sixth in women's gymnastics. The Bruins finished second in baseball and men's water polo, tied for third in women's soccer (seventh straight College Cup), fifth in women's water polo, tied for fifth in men's soccer and men's tennis, sixth in women's golf, tied for ninth in women's tennis, 12th in women's rowing, 16th in men's golf, tied for 17th in women's basketball and women's volleyball and 19th in women's swimming. UCLA also won three conference titles and two league post-season tournaments and the football team won the EagleBank Bowl.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna and Katie.

Glenn Toth

Associate Athletic Director
32nd Year (3rd w/ track)
UCLA '76

Glenn Toth, who has served the athletic department as an administrator for more than 30 years, enters his 14th year in charge of the UCLA men's and women's tennis programs. He is in his third year overseeing the men's volleyball team, the men's and women's cross-country teams, and the men's and women's track & field teams. In addition to his role as a sports supervisor, Toth has also seen duty as an assistant coach, and serves as a member of athletic director Dan Guerrero's senior staff.

A senior associate athletic director with a variety of responsibilities, Toth serves as the liaison with shoe and apparel sponsor adidas, having orchestrated both the original 1999 agreement and its renewal in 2005. adidas supplies all Bruin teams, and represents the department's most lucrative sponsorship. In addition, Toth was point person on the negotiation with International Sports Properties (ISP) which now handles the department's corporate relations, media rights, program printing, web page, ad sales, and sponsor promotions.

Toth also has administrative responsibility for the athletic equipment room which designs, outfits, and maintains all of the Bruins' uniforms, practice, and playing equipment. Sporting a staff of six full-time and additional part-time personnel, the equipment room has significant on-site capability, including laundry, mechanical repair, and custom fitting/tailoring.

In addition, the sports medicine area/athletic training room, which provides injury evaluation, treatment, rehabilitation, therapy, and nutritional services to over 700 student-athletes falls under Toth's supervision. UCLA sports medicine has 14 full-time employees, a student trainer program, and interfaces with UCLA medical personnel and physicians. Among the features of the sports medicine complex are hydrotherapy pools, physician's exam and treatment offices, and diagnostic ultrasound capability. Toth also supervises the speed, strength, and conditioning area and its six coaches.

Toth graduated from UCLA in 1976 with a degree in economics and was hired shortly thereafter by former athletic director J.D. Morgan to work in the events and travel office. From 1978-84, he supervised the management of home athletic events and team travel. In 1982, Toth handled the logistics of UCLA's move to the Rose Bowl and at the same time became the athletic department's first marketing director. Promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1984, he was credited with several award-winning football marketing campaigns and the creation of the department's corporate relations program.

Toth lettered in golf at Tustin's Foothill High School where he graduated in 1972. He enjoys scuba diving, hiking, and mountaineering, and also serves as a Reserve Captain with the LA County Sheriff's Department, managing the Search and Recovery Dive Team. His golden retrievers are Misty and Dottie.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
Fourth Year
Stanford '77

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from under-represented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health.

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

UCLA Captures National Dual Meet No. 1 Ranking Seven Straight Years (1996-2002)

Since 1979, UCLA has won the national dual meet crown 12 times, including seven straight seasons (2002, 5-0; 2001, 6-0; 2000, 4-0; 1999, 7-0; 1998, 11-0; 1997, 10-0; 1996, 11-0) under Bruin head coach Jeanette Bolden. UCLA's other titles are 2005, 2004, 1994 (Bolden's first season as head coach), 1988 and 1981. The ratings were started by Track & Field News and are now released by the U. S. Track Coaches Association.

Between 1989 and 2003, UCLA has also been second four times (2003, 1995, '90, '89), third once (1991) and placed sixth in 1993.

BRUIN VARSITY CLUB

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Bruin Varsity Club is to sustain, encourage and support the growth and tradition of UCLA Intercollegiate Athletics. The Bruin Varsity Club serves to bridge the gap between UCLA varsity sports' various generations of athletes and their geographical location.

Through the common bond of athletics and Bruin pride, the Bruin Varsity Club will promote and develop the ongoing relationship between all former UCLA varsity letterwinners and the existing UCLA Athletic program.

The Bruin Varsity Club embraces the University's primary goal of academic excellence, while acknowledging and honoring its members as an integral part of the most successful athletic program in the history of college sports.

In order to qualify for the Bruin Varsity Club you must be a UCLA athlete who has participated and received at least one varsity letter in an intercollegiate varsity sport from UCLA

For more information please contact the Bruin Varsity Club director at 310-206-4458 or via email at ahall@athletics.ucla.edu

Darnesha Griffith was the 1999 USAT&F Junior National Champion in the high jump.

Shakedia Jones won the 100m (11.19) at the 1998 World Junior Championships in Annecy, France. Jones was also the 1998 USAT&F Jr. National Champion in the 200m.

Drake Stadium, one of the finest track and field facilities in the world, is now in its 41st season as the on-campus home of the Bruin men's and women's track and field teams.

The stadium took on a new look almost eight years ago (August-December 1999) when it was transformed into a state-of-the-art soccer/track and field facility, adding the Frank W. Marshall Field at Drake Stadium. The stadium provides seating for 11,700 spectators. The cost of the project was $1.5 million and was made possible by a lead gift from Frank Marshall and Kathleen Kennedy. All the money was raised from private funds; no state money was utilized.

The track in the facility has been converted from a conventional American 400-yard eight-lane oval with a 106-degree radius turn to a new European 400-meter nine-lane (48" width lane) with a 136 degree radius on the turn. The surface is tartan provided by Martin Surfacing. There is 13mm of surface material on top of an asphalt base. A track/field drainage system is flush mounted to the inside of lane one. Also on the inside of lane one is an electrical/timing chase that will house the Lynx timing system for the track.

Other track and field enhancements include: the steeplechase pit has been moved "inboard" of the track on the north turn; the field events include shot, discus and hammer rings at both the north and south ends of the infield and a javelin runway is also located on both ends to accommodate for the prevailing winds for all these events. A new top of the line hammer and discus cage was erected in the Spring of 2007. In addition, the high jump area has been moved to the south end of the track stadium on its own tartan surface. The north end of the facility has practice pits for the shot, hammer and discus. The stadium has four long/triple jump pits, featuring 38-foot-long sand-filled pits. There are two practice pole vault pits and one infield runway that can accommodate the pit on either the north or south end to take advantage of the wind.

Thanks to the change in the configuration of the track, the grass infield is now wide enough to house a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field, the Frank W. Marshall Field.

Another enhancement for Frank W. Marshall Field at Drake Stadium is a scoreboard which measures 25-feet high by 29-feet wide and costs $180,000. The board was a gift of Kay and Paul Seider. It is a matrix board, allowing for scoring and statistics to be presented for track and field, soccer and football. The system can be connected to the Lynx timing system, which will give instant time and place formation for race finishes. The board will always keep the time of day and has the capability of measuring and displaying temperature and wind direction/speed for track meets.

Since its inaugural meet on Feb. 22, 1969, the stadium has been the site of numerous championship meets, including the National AAU in 1976-77-78, the Pacific-8 Championships in 1970 and 1977 and the California CIF High School meet in 1969-71-77. In 1988, Drake Stadium hosted the Pacific-10 Track and Field Championships, and in 1994, the facility hosted the first-ever California-Nevada Championships. Drake Stadium again hosted the Pacific-10 Track and Field Championships in 1996 and 2005. The stadium also has been the home for UCLA women's track teams since 1975. It was the site of the National Collegiate T&F Championships (the AIAW) in 1977. It also is used each year for special campus events, such as the annual UCLA Commencement Exercises in June.

In 1973, it was officially named Drake Stadium in honor of a legend at UCLA, Elvin C. "Ducky" Drake, who had been associated with his alma mater as a student-athlete, track coach and athletic trainer for over 60 years. Drake died in Los Angeles of a heart attack on Dec. 23, 1988. He was 85.

JACKIE JOYNER KERSEE

Since leaving UCLA after her final year of collegiate competition in 1985, JJK dominated women's track and field for 13 years. On three different occasions (1994, '87, '86) she was the Track & Field News World Athlete of the Year and on five occasions the top American (1994, '92, '91, '87, '86). In 1997, JJK was the inaugural recipient of the USA Humanitarian Athlete of the Year and, in 1986-87, she received the Jesse Owens Award. JJK still holds the world record in the heptathlon (7291) and the American records in the heptathlon and long jump (24-7 twice).

In Olympic competition, JJK won six medals, including three gold, moving her to the head of the U.S. list, over Bruin alums Florence Griffith-Joyner and Evelyn Ashford, each with five, and Marion Jones, who won five medals, including three gold, at the 2000 Games. In 1996 in Atlanta, JJK could not finish the heptathlon because of a painful right hamstring injury, but came back to win a bronze medal in the long jump. She won a second straight gold medal in the heptathlon and a bronze medal in the long jump at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain. At the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, South Korea, JJK won gold medals in the heptathlon (world record) and the long jump. At the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles, while still at UCLA, she won her first Olympic medal, a silver in the heptathlon, just missing the gold by five points.

Jackie Joyner-Kersee, the world's greatest female athlete, retired from heptathlon competition in 1998, winning the event at the Goodwill Games. She did return to long jump competition at the 2000 U.S. Trials in an effort to make her fifth consecutive U.S. women's Olympic team, but placed sixth (21-10) in the final.

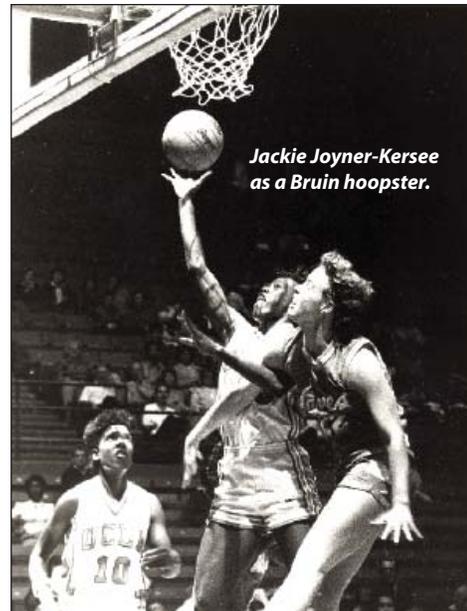

On December 3, 2004, JJK was inducted into the U.S. Track and Field Hall of Fame. Her world record-breaking performance (7,215 pts.) in the 1988 Olympics was named the ninth-best USATF moment of the last 25 years. She also had the 25th-best USATF moment after becoming the first woman to break 7,000 points in the heptathlon.

Joyner-Kersee was also a four-year starter on the UCLA women's basketball team, playing from 1980-83 and 1984-85. She is still listed among the Bruins' best in career scoring, rebounding and assists. JJK continued her basketball career in 1996, playing for Richmond in the ABL.

Known worldwide for her interest in helping others, JJK raised more than $12 million to build the Jackie Joyner Kersee Youth Center Foundation in her hometown of E. St. Louis, IL. She also keeps busy as the Chairperson of the St. Louis Sports Commission, and the Co-Founder of Jackie Joyner Kersee Racing (NASCAR).

The March 2002 issue of Ebony included Joyner-Kersee on its list of the Top-10 Greatest African-American Women Athletes. In January of 2001, Sports Illustrated for Women named JJK the Greatest Female Athlete of the 20th Century.

In 2003, the UCLA track and field programs hosted the first annual Rafer Johnson/Jackie Joyner-Kersee Invitational, named after two of the greatest Bruin athletes in school history.

TOP RECRUITING

UCLA track and field has a tradition of recruiting the nation's top high school athletes. UCLA's women's program has recruited four Track & Field News' High School Athletes of the Year since 1993. Pictured are (l-r): Amy Acuff (1993), Suzy Powell (1994), Seilala Sua (1996 women's runner-up), Michael Granville II (1996 men's runner-up), Joanna Hayes (1995) and Kim Mortensen (1996). In 2006, the men's recruiting class was ranked No. 1 by Track & Field News, continuing the tradition of top recruiting at UCLA. The women's team had the No. 2 recruiting class in 2007, while the men ranked 10th.

Gail Devers (1985-1988) has been a four-time Olympian, winning two gold medals in the 100m (1996 Atlanta, 1992 Barcelona). She has won four World Outdoor titles (1999-100mH, 1995-100mH, 1993-100mH/100m) and two World Indoor titles (1997, '93-60m) during her professional career.

Devers ranked No. 1 in the world in the 100m hurdles on seven different occasions (top-10 ranking 10 different years) and ranked No. 1 in the world in the 100m in 1993. In all, Devers was ranked in the top-10 in the world in the 100m seven different times. Nationally, Devers was the top 100m hurdler 10 different times (top-10 13 times). In the 100m, she ranked in the top-10 14 times (twice ranked No. 1).

While at UCLA, Devers won nine Pac-10 titles and two NCAA crowns. In all, she earned 13 All-American accolades. Today, her top times of 10.97 (100m) and 12.61 (100mH) still stand as school records. Devers holds the American Record in the 100m hurdles (12.33), set at the Olympic Trials in 2000, as well as the Drake Stadium and Collegiate Record (12.61), set at UCLA in 1988.

In 2005, Devers took time away from the track to have her first child. She raced in a few indoor meets in 2007 before taking another break to have her second child.

In NCAA competition, Hayes was an NCAA Indoor All-American in the 55m hurdles in 1997 (3rd) and four time Outdoor All-American in the hurdles and relays.

On the UCLA all-time top-10 list, Hayes ranks third in both the 100m hurdles (12.89) and 400m hurdles (54.57). Hayes also holds the 100m hurdles (12.93) and 400m hurdles (56.02) UCLA/USC Dual Meet Records.

In 2004, Hayes was bestowed the Jesse Owens Award, USA Track & Field's most prestigious honor for her outstanding accomplishments on the track. She continues to race in the high hurdles, but had a down year due to injuries in 2007.

Seilala Sua is the most decorated female ever in NCAA Track & Field. During her four-year (1997-2000) career at UCLA, Sua won a combined seven NCAA Outdoor and Indoor individual throwing titles, including six in Outdoor competition, making her the winningest women's athlete in NCAA Outdoor history. She won four consecutive Outdoor discus crowns, becoming only the second woman in Outdoor history to win four straight individual titles in the same event. During her NCAA Championship career, Sua scored a school record 107 points. In Pac-10 competition, Sua won six individual throwing championships and was a two-time Pac-10 Women's Track and Field Athlete of the Year. 1997-2000
SEILALA SUA

In all, five women have been inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame - Kate Schmidt (1994), Florence Griffith-Joyner (1995), Francie Larrieu (Smith) (1998), Evelyn Ashford (1997), Jackie Joyner-Kersey (2004).

Kate Schmidt was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame in 1994 and was UCLA's first woman inductee. Schmidt won the NCAA javelin title in 1975 (198-1) and still holds the UCLA school record with a throw of 209-7, which she also set in 1975.

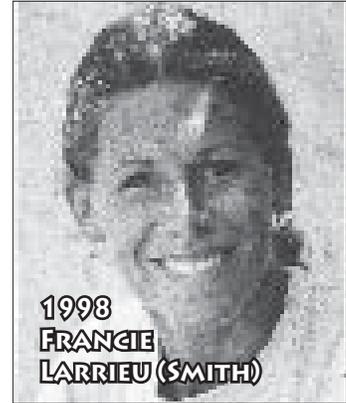

Nicknamed "Kate the Great" with good reason, she completely dominated the American women's javelin throwing scene for a decade. She broke the American javelin record 10 times, culminating with a throw of 227' 5" that has held up as the record for more than a quarter century. At the time, that throw was a world record and established her place on the international scene. Schmidt was third at the 1972 and 1976 Olympic Games and was also a member of the 1980 Olympic team that didn't compete. She just missed making the 1984 team when she placed fourth at the U.S. Trials. She won seven national titles and placed in the top three in 12 of 13 national championships from 1972 to 1984.

Florence Griffith-Joyner won the NCAA 200m championship in 1982 and the 400m title in 1983. She was a silver medalist in the 200m at the 1984 Olympics and also medaled at the 1987 World Outdoor Championships, taking second in the 200m and running on the winning 4x100m relay team. At Seoul in 1988, she won three gold medals (100m, 200m, 4x100m relay) and one silver (4x400m relay), setting a world record in the 200m. It was Flo-Jo's golden moment and it will be tough to repeat.

She still holds the women's world record of 10.49 for 100 meters and 21.34 for 200 meters and no one has come close to threatening them. Her 10.49 at the 1988 Olympic Trials in Indianapolis was one of the most eye-popping performances in track and field history.

She won the Sullivan Trophy in 1988. Flo-Jo married Al Joyner, 1984 Olympic triple jump champion, in 1987. She died on September 21, 1998 at the age of 38.

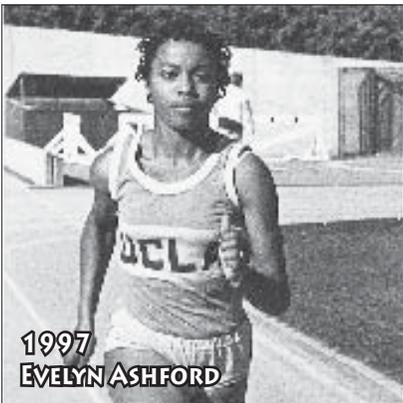

Francie Larrieu Smith's running careers spanned four decades and 35 U.S. distance records from 1000m to two miles. In 1998 she was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame.

Larrieu Smith was on 28 national teams and won 21 national titles. She was a member of five Olympic teams, starting in 1972 when she ran the 1500m. Larrieu Smith also ran the 1500m at the 1976 Games and was a team member at that distance in 1980. She missed out on the 1984 team but ran the 10,000m at the 1988 Games, taking fifth. Larrieu Smith moved up to the marathon for the 1992 Games. At the '92 Games, she carried the U.S. flag at the Opening Ceremonies.

She has been nationally ranked in every event from 800m to the marathon. Larrieu Smith also ran in the 1987 and '91 World Track and Field Championships in the 10,000m.

While at UCLA, Larrieu Smith won the 1974 AIAW Outdoor titles in the 880, mile and two-mile and still leads the UCLA chart in the 3000m (9:03.2).

In 1997, Evelyn Ashford was inducted into the USA Track and Field Hall of Fame. She was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990. Ashford ranked No. 1 in the world four times in the 100m and was the top-ranked American seven times, including four in a row from 1981-84.

A competitor at the 1976 Olympic Games while attending UCLA, she also competed in the 1984, 1988 and 1992 Games, winning four gold medals and a silver. She was a two-time World record holder in the 100m.

While at UCLA, Ashford won four national collegiate titles in the sprints and relays and led the Bruins to the 1977 national championship.

In 2003, she was named to the Board of Directors for the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency, and in November of 2005 was named to the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame Class of 2006.

Jackie Joyner-Kersey was honored in April 2001 by the Honda Award as the Top Women's Collegiate Athlete of the Last 25 years. In January 2001, she was named the World's Greatest Female Athlete of the 20th Century by Sports Illustrated for Women. Joyner-Kersey was named the Summer Olympian of the Century by the Associated Press in December 1999.

The world record-holder in the heptathlon, JJK's six Olympic medals, including three gold, is the highest total ever won by a U.S. woman. (Bruin alumnae Florence Griffith-Joyner and Evelyn Ashford are second with five apiece).

JJK was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996. In 1987 and '86, she was given the Jesse Owens Award.

In 2003, the UCLA track and field programs hosted the first annual Rafer Johnson/Jackie Joyner-Kersey Invitational, named after two of the greatest Bruin athletes in school history.

JJK was inducted into the U.S. Track and Field Hall of Fame in December of 2004. She also had the ninth and 25th top moment of the past 25 years in track and field. Her world record breaking heptathlon total of 7,215 points was the ninth best moment, while becoming the first woman to break the 7,000 point barrier was ranked 25th.

In 2006, Joyner-Kersey was inducted into the California Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the inaugural class.

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame is now in its 26th year of existence and its first in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The new Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

UCLA athletic teams have won 104 NCAA team championships, and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of each of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the new Hall of Fame.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Florence Griffith-Joyner (1958-1995)

Florence Griffith Joyner, known to her friends as DeeDee and to the world as "Flo Jo," died on Sept. 21, 1998 at the age of 38 of a seizure. Griffith Joyner starred as a Bruin runner from 1981-83.

Flo Jo's potential as a great runner was first witnessed at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles, when she won a silver medal in the 200m. But it was four years later when she made the track world sit up and take notice of women's sprinting. Flo Jo will be as famous for her skin-tight, one-legged running outfits, glittering fingernails and flowing hair as she will be for her two world records and five Olympic medals, including three gold.

Flo Jo's greatness first came through at the 1988 U.S. Olympic Trials in Indianapolis, where she set the world record in the 100m with a time of 10.49. Two months later at the '88 Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea, Flo Jo would captivate the world with her accomplishments. She won gold in the 100m (10.54w) and 200m, setting her second world-record (21.34), and anchored the winning U.S. 4x100m relay (41.98), while also winning a silver medal on the U.S. 4x400m relay.

Those amazing accomplishments earned her the 1988 AP Female Athlete of the Year, USOC Sportswomen of the Year and Sullivan (top amateur athlete) awards.

Flo Jo's track career began to blossom while at UCLA. A 1978 graduate of Jordan HS in Los Angeles, Griffith Joyner first attended CS Northridge before transferring to UCLA. There, under the guidance of Bob Kersee and with teammates Jackie Joyner-Kersee and current Bruin women's head coach Jeanette Bolden, the Bruins became the best women's collegiate team in the nation, winning national team championships in 1982 and '83. In 1982 as a junior, Flo Jo won the NCAA 200m title (22.39) and as a senior in '83, won the NCAA 400m, setting at the time an NCAA record with a mark of 50.94.

On the Bruin all-time charts, her 100m mark of 11.06 is No. 2, and her times of 22.23 (a collegiate record) in the 200m and 50.94 in the 400m are No. 1.

Flo Jo was inducted into the U.S. Track and Field Hall of Fame in 1995 and was anxiously awaiting her 1998 induction into UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame (she died two weeks before the induction ceremony).

Following her track career, Flo Jo remained involved as a public servant, serving on the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports and as a spokeswoman for Project Eco-School (a resource center for environmental education), the American Cancer Society, the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation and the Osteoporosis Business Coalition.

She also received a Distinguished Service Award from the United Negro College Fund. Along with her husband Al Joyner, (JJK's brother) who won a gold medal in the triple jump at the '84 Olympics and who coached the UCLA women's jumpers for two seasons (2002-01), they formed the Florence Griffith Joyner Youth Foundation.

On Nov. 13, 1990, Flo Jo gave birth to her daughter, Mary Ruth, who is now 17 years old. Donations to the Mary Ruth Joyner trust fund can be sent to—Final Kick Marketing, 26522 La Alameda, Suite 270, Mission Viejo, CA, 92691.

The March 2002 issue of Ebony listed Griffith Joyner as one of the Top 10 Greatest African-American Women Athletes of all time.

In 2004, Joyner's 100m and 200m world records at the 1988 Olympics were named the 10th and 19th best moments in USA Track and Field history over the past 25 years.
