2004 OLYMPICS

For the second straight Olympics since women's water polo was added, the USA team won a medal, receiving the bronze medal. Current and former UCLA players were pivotal parts of the team. Current Bruins Natalie Golda, Thalia Munro, Amber Stackowski, Kelly Rulon, and Gabrielle Domanic (alternate) were on the team. Also, former Bruins Robin Beauregard and Nicolle Payne competed with team USA. Former Bruin standout and assistant coach Kelly Heuchan played on the Australian Olympic team. Former UCLA coach Guy Baker led the team in its outstanding Olympic performance. In his 10 years as director of the UCLA water polo program, he consistently guided the Bruin men and women to a high level of collegiate water polo excellence. In his position as the National and Olympic team coach, Baker continues with his success.

The USA's first game in Athens was against Hungary. In a close 7-6 victory, the USA won with the help of a game-winning goal from Rulon. Rulon had two goals in that game along with Golda's one goal. Their next game was a tough 6-5 loss to Canada. Rulon and Beauregard each contributed a goal. In game 3, the U.S. easily defeated Russia 8-4. Bruins scored half of the team's goals. Beauregard (2), Rulon (1), and Stachowski (1) scored and helped lead the team to victory. After that, the team was defeated in another close match 6-5 by Italy. Munro had one goal. In the last game, the bronze medal match against Australia, team USA won 6-5, winning its second straight medal in women's water polo. UCLA players once again scored half of the goals in that game, with Golda, Stachowski, and Beauregard each scoring once.

Overall in all athletic events in Athens, UCLA ranked amongst the nation's most successful universities, ranking No. 1 among all universities in number of different medalists (19) and number of total Olympians (56). Current and former Bruins earned a total of 19 medals, including eight gold, to rank second in both categories. UCLA athletes also claimed three silver medals and eight bronze medals.

2000 OLYMPICS

The new millennium brought a new event to the 2000 Olympic games in Sydney, Australia - women's water polo. The women's water polo event was added to the games nearly 100 years after the men's competition became an Olympic event. In Sydney, nearly 17,000 fans were on hand to witness the gold medal match in the inaugural women's tournament, displaying the growing popularity and enthusiasm of the sport worldwide. The event included six countries that each rounded up their top 11 players to compete. In a wild championship game between Australia and Team USA, Australia scored a controversial last-second goal to win 4-3, and send USA home with the silver.

At the time of the Olympics, two current UCLA players, a Bruin alumnus, and one former coach were among those representing Team USA. Redshirt sophomore Robin Beauregard and redshirt senior Coralie Simmons took the year off to join former Bruin goalkeeper Nicolle Payne and former head coach Guy Baker in the quest for gold in Sydney. Simmons led the USA squad with nine goals in the Olympics, and Beauregard finished with six of her own.

Overall, UCLA was the most represented university in the 2000 Games. Fifty-eight Olympians representing the United States and six foreign countries were either current or former Bruins. UCLA finished with 18 medals including eight gold, five silver, and five bronze.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1996

In only the second year of existence, UCLA women's water polo captured the National Collegiate Championship, making Bruin water polo the first water polo program to win national titles in both men's and women's competition. Under the guidance of head coach Guy Baker, the Bruins lost only one game during the 1996 campaign, an 8-7 heartbreaker to California in the championship game of the Western Regional Qualification Tournament. But the Bruins turned the tables on the Golden Bears in the season's final match and handed Cal an 8-4 defeat for the national title. Goals were scored by Jennifer McFerrin (3), Catharine von Schwarz (2), Megan Oesting, Coralie Simmons, and Katie Tenenbaum. Goalkeeper Nicolle Payne pulled down 15 of Cal's shots on goal.

UCLA's first National Championship Team

1997

The Bruins brought home their second consecutive national championship and gave head coach Guy Baker four titles in a row (men's 1995, women's 1996, men's 1996, women's 1997). UCLA lost just one game throughout the entire season, a 4-3 heartbreaker at the hands of California in the third game of the '97 campaign. UCLA, upset by the defeat, stormed through the remainder of the year without looking back, putting together a 29 game winning streak, the longest in Bruin women's water polo history. UCLA captured their second title in a row with a 6-3 victory over Cal. The title did not come easily, as the Bruins held on to a shaky 3-2 lead heading into the final quarter of play. But UCLA outscored Cal 3-1 in the final seven minutes, ensuring both the game and the title. Payne saved 11 attempts and earned her second consecutive Most Valuable Tournament Goalkeeper award. Goals were netted by Amanda Gall (2), Coralie Simmons (2), Serela Mansur, and Katie Tenenbaum.

Back to Back National Champions

1998

In their fourth year of varsity status, the Bruins took home a third consecutive national title under head coach Guy Baker. UCLA lost only one game the entire season to top-ranked Cal in the first place match of the Santa Barbara Tournament. But the defeat would not go unanswered, as the Bruins would defeat the Golden Bears 7-3 in the national championship match. While Cal was held scoreless for two quarters, the Bruins came on strong, notching at least one goal every quarter. In Payne's last match as a Bruin, the goalkeeper recorded 13 saves and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were scored by Coralie Simmons (3), Robin Beauregard, Amanda Gall, Erin Golaboski, and Catharine von Schwarz.

The Bruins celebrate their third consecutive National Championship

2000

The 2000 season brought the Bruins back to championship status after a one-year hiatus in 1999. Sparked by the return of Catharine von Schwarz from the U.S. National Team, the Bruins finished 30-5 (8-1 MPSF) and won their fourth national championship in five years. The championship was the first under new head coach Adam Krikorian, who took over full time after the 1998 season. The Bruins dominated their 2000 opponents, posting a 20-3 record going into the MPSF Tournament. At the conference championships, however, Stanford handed the Bruins a 7-6 loss for its fourth win over UCLA in as many tries. The Bruins rebounded from the loss to beat a tough USC team for a third place finish. Two weeks later, the Trojans turned the tables on the Bruins for a 9-7 win at the Western Regionals. In the title game of the 2000 Collegiate Nationals UCLA won its fourth national championship in five years by knocking off defending champion USC by a score of 11-4. The Bruins jumped out to a 3-1 first quarter lead and never looked back. Catharine von Schwarz netted a hat trick and became the first UCLA female athlete to win four team championships. Elaine Zivich added a goal and was named Tournament MVP. Goals were also scored by Kelly Heuchan (2), Serela Kay, Jenny Lamb, Jessica Lopez, Eleanor Murphy and Ashley Stachowski. Goalkeeper Jaime Hipp grabbed 10 saves to secure the victory for the Bruins.

2000 National Champions

2001

The Bruins captured the inaugural NCAA women's water polo title, the second consecutive national title for UCLA. Seniors Coralie Simmons and Kristin Guerin led the Bruins to their fourth title in five years. It was the second title under head coach Adam Krikorian. Throughout the season, UCLA dominated opponents, posting an 18-4 overall record and going 9-1 in MPSF action. The Stanford Cardinal proved to be the toughest challenge for the Bruins, handing them each of the four losses, including an 8-5 loss in the MPSF Championship game. UCLA rebounded from the loss at the MPSF Championships to defeat Loyola Marymount 11-1 in the NCAA semifinal match. In the title game, UCLA defeated Stanford 5-4. The win came off of a Coralie Simmons goal with 1:28 remaining in the game. Goals were scored by Simmons (2), Robin Beauregard, Kelly Heuchan, and Ashley Stachowski. Jaime Hipp recorded six saves. For her efforts, Simmons received MVP honors and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Beauregard, Heuchan, Hipp, Kristin Guerin, Jenny Lamb, and Elaine Zivich.

The 2001 Inaugural NCAA Champions

2003

The Bruins continued their championship tradition by taking the 2003 NCAA women's water polo title. All-Americans Robin Beauregard and Jamie Hipp gave the team experience and helped head coach Krikorian to his third championship. During the season, the team struggled little with its opponents, only having losses to Stanford and USC. Their regular season record was 19-3 and 8-2 in the MPSF going into MPSF Championship play. UCLA entered the tournament ranked number 1 in the nation, but seeded third due to losses to Stanford and USC. UCLA easily defeated Hawaii and went on to beat USC in a 7-6 sudden-victory overtime. In the MPSF championship game though, the Bruins lost a close match to Stanford. Their strong regular season performance gave UCLA an at large bid in the NCAA Championships. UCLA defeated Loyola Marymount in the semifinals for the third consecutive year to advance to the championship game against Stanford for the third consecutive time. The Bruins fell behind 0-2 at halftime, but stormed back with 4 straight goals to avenge their losses to Stanford and take the NCAA championship with a 4-3 victory. Goals were scored by Jessica Lopez, Kelly Rulon, Lauren Heineck, and Robin Beauregard. Jaime Hippe had 6 saves. Senior Robin Beauregard was named Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Championships.

UCLA's second NCAA Championship team

2005

The 2005 Bruin team enjoyed what was considered by many the greatest season of any women's water polo team in collegiate water polo. Led by Cutino Award winner Natalie Golda, the Bruins went 33-0 and won the NCAA Championship. The Bruins' 33-0 record marked the best NCAA finish and longest single season winning streak. The team outscored its opponents 394 to 134 overall, and 121 to 31 in the first quarter. The average margin of victory for UCLA was 7.87 goals. Few teams were able to compete in the first quarter much less the whole game. This championship team started three Olympians – Natalie Golda, Kelly Rulon, and Thalia Munro. The Bruins entered the NCAA play-offs with the top seed. The tournament was held for the first time at the Canham Natatorium on the University of Michigan campus. In the first game, UCLA faced unranked Wagner, which had won the MAAC conference title. The Bruins had little trouble, outscoring Wagner 10-1 in the first quarter. They went on to win 22-2. In the second round, the Bruins were matched up against Hawaii for the fourth time on the season. In a hard fought battle and one of the toughest games of the season, UCLA defeated Hawaii, 7-6. Kristina Kunkel scored the winning goal with 1:43 left in the fourth quarter. The UCLA Bruin women's water polo team concluded its remarkable season by winning the 2005 NCAA Championship. The Bruins beat third-seeded Stanford, 3-2. Though the score was close, UCLA held the lead the whole game. Brittany Rowe led the Bruins with two goals in that game.

The Bruins take the 2005 NCAA Championship with a 33-0 record.

BRUIN NATIONAL TEAM EXPERIENCE

UCLA women's water polo players have been well represented on the U.S. Junior and Senior National Teams. This past year, the US Senior National Team won the Silver Medal in Montreal, Canada. Earlier in 2005, the Junior National Team won the gold medal in Perth, Australia.

The gold-winning Junior National Team had five players on the team including Emily Feher, Kacy Kunkel, Jillian Kraus, Gabrielle Domanic, and Molly Cahill (alternate). Domanic scored five goals against Russia in an 11-9 victory in the Championship match. Bruin All-Americans Emily Feher, Natalie Golda, Thalia Munro, Kelly Rulon along with teammates Kristina Kunkel and former Bruin Jaime Hipp comprised just under half of the 13-person team that went 3-3-1 over seven contests from July 16-29.

In December of 2001 the Junior Team captured the United States first ever FINA Junior World Championship in a 10-9 overtime defeat of Australia. Amber Stachowski was the leading scorer with four goals, while Thalia Munro scored once. The Bruins turned in great performances at the Junior World Championships. UCLA players accounted for 48% of US scoring with 38 of Team USA's 80 goals. In the 2003 FINA Junior World Championships Emily Feher, Lauren Heineck, Kristina Kunkel and Kelly Rulon all saw significant playing time for the United States. In 2004, the Junior National team won the gold medal at the Pan-Am Games.

UCLA players have been key members of the Senior National Team in previous years. Each player has contributed to Team USA's international success. At the 2003 FINA World Championships, Robin Beauregard scored what would be the game-winner in the United States' 8-6 victory over Italy in the title game. The victory over Italy gave the U.S. women's water polo team its first ever-gold medal. Following the FINA World Championships, Team USA headed to the Pan American Games in hopes of earning an Olympic Berth. The Senior National team went on to compete in the 2004 Athens Olympics.
