DR. ALBERT CARNESALE

CHANCELLOR
9TH YEAR

[COOPER UNION '57]

Albert Carnesale became Chancellor of the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) on July 1, 1997. As chief executive officer, he leads an institution comprising more than 37,500 students and more than 27,000 faculty and staff; is responsible for all aspects of the University's mission of education, research, and service; manages an enterprise with an annual budget of more than $3 billion; and serves as principal spokesman for the university community.

Under Chancellor Carnesale's leadership, UCLA has continued to garner recognition and accolades for excellence across the full span of its enterprise. The Chancellor strongly supports the crossing of academic boundaries, an area in which UCLA has a distinct comparative advantage, given its broad range of disciplines on a single campus.

UCLA's research program has thrived during Chancellor Carnesale's tenure. In 2003-04, UCLA spent almost $750 million in competitively-awarded, extramural contracts and grants — one of the highest levels of research funding among all universities in the United States.

Prior to assuming the chancellorship of UCLA in 1997, Mr. Carnesale was at Harvard University for 23 years, serving as Provost of the University from 1994 to 1997. He held the Lucius N. Littauer Professorship of Public Policy and Administration at Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government, where he served as Academic Dean (1981-91), and Dean (1991-95). His earlier career included positions in the private sector and in government.

Mr. Carnesale has represented the United States Government in high-level negotiations on defense and energy issues (including the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, SALT I, with the Soviet Union), and has consulted regularly for several government agencies and companies. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in mechanical engineering and a Ph.D. in nuclear engineering, has been awarded three honorary doctoral degrees, and is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
4TH YEAR

[UCLA '74]

On April 25, 2002, UCLA Chancellor Albert Carnesale announced that Daniel G. Guerrero had been named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics, succeeding the retiring Peter Dalis. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is now calling the shots at his alma mater.

Guerrero, one of the most respected and talented administrators in intercollegiate athletics, has rapidly placed his mark on the program as the director of athletics at UCLA. Hailed as one of the nation's leading athletic directors, his first three years in this position have resulted in unprecedented success for the Bruins' broad-based athletic program. Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA Team Championships (97) won, a number that continues to grow.

During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have won 11 NCAA national championships, finished second eight times and have had an additional nine Top Five finishes. A staggering 55 teams (of 69 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in three bowl games. The program has also won 21 conference championships, produced 178 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, 57 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and 13 other countries. They earned 19 medals, including eight gold medals.

UCLA has finished third (2004-05), third (2003-04) and sixth (2002-03) in the race for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Director's Cup.

Guerrero, 52, received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years. Born on November 10, 1951 in Tucson, AZ, he is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two daughters: Jenna (22) and Katie (18).

KEN WEINER

SENIOR ASSOCIATE
ATHLETIC DIR.
12TH YEAR

[UCLA '78]

Ken Weiner enters his 12th year as Associate Athletic Director-Business Operations at UCLA and his 25th year overall with the university. His duties include the administration and supervision of six Bruin sport programs, including Baseball, Women's Soccer and Men's Soccer, Women's Swimming and Diving, Women's Water Polo and Men's Water Polo. Weiner is the chairman of the NCAA Men's Water Polo Committee. He also oversees new business and project development and capital improvements for the department. In addition, he supervises the athletic facilities division, the operations of UCLA's sports practice and competition venues, game and event operations, department and team travel and UCLA Camps and Clinics.

Weiner is responsible for several major capital improvements for Athletics, including the renovated J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center, the new Hall of Fame, the Jackie Robinson baseball and Easton softball clubhouse construction and renovations, the Drake Track/Marshall Field renovation, Pauley Pavilion interior upgrades and the North soccer field construction. Current projects underway include the renovation of the Acosta Student Athlete Training Center and the construction of the new KNAPP Football Center. Planning for future improvements include a new aquatics center and a renovation of the football practice facility. He participates on a number of campus steering committees on behalf of Athletics including the Campus Facilities Coordination, Campus Project Review and the Alumni Advisory Board. Weiner is a member of NACDA and IAAM.

Prior to his appointment at UCLA Athletics, Weiner co-founded and served as Associate Director of the UCLA Central Ticket Office and continues to serve as the liaison between the Athletic Department and the CTO. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from UCLA in 1978 majoring in Psychology. He graduated with honors and was bestowed a Chancellor's Marshall award for service to the university. He and his wife Caren have two children, Nicole, 20, and Kevin, 17.
