BRANDON BROOKS

HEAD COACH • 1st Year
Alma Mater: UCLA '05

Brandon Brooks begins his first season as UCLA's head women's water polo coach in 2010. He was named the third head coach in program history on June 3, 2009.

Brooks has served as an assistant coach with the UCLA men's and women's teams the past three seasons, in addition to working as an undergraduate assistant coach with the men's program in 2004. He helped lead the women's program to NCAA championships each of the last three seasons and assisted the men's program to the 2004 NCAA title. Brooks played a major role in helping land one of the top women's recruiting classes in the nation for 2010.

Over the past three seasons, Brooks' work with goalkeepers Emily Feher (2007) and Brittany Fullen (2008, 2009) proved instrumental to UCLA's national championship finishes. Fullen established the program's single-season saves record as a junior, totaling 237 stops in 2008. The previous season, Feher recorded a 4.96 goals against average in 25 games before securing first-team All-America honors for the third consecutive season.

An undergraduate assistant on the men's water polo coaching staff in 2004, Brooks helped Joe Axelrad develop into the one of the nation's premier goalkeepers, leading UCLA to the NCAA championship that fall.

Brooks starred on the men's water polo team from 1999-2002, leading the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA championships in 1999 and 2000, before excelling in the international water polo ranks and participating in the 2004 and 2008 Olympic Games for the USA Men's National Team.

In the summer of 2008, Brooks and former teammate Adam Wright (UCLA's men's water polo head coach) helped lead the USA Men's National Team to a silver medal finish at the Olympic Games in Beijing. Brooks, Wright and former teammate Brett Ormsby competed in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

Brooks was head coach of the Los Angeles Water Polo Club's boys 16-and-under team from 2006-08. In 2006, he coached the club team to an undefeated season, culminating in the Junior Olympic Championship. He helped develop 15 Division I men's water polo student-athletes in his tenure as head coach. Additionally, Brooks served on the coaching staff of the USA Women's National Team in the summer of 2009, assisting former UCLA head coach Adam Krikorian lead Team USA to a gold medal at the FINA World Championships in Rome, Italy.

One of the nation's premier goalkeepers at UCLA, Brooks helped lead the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA titles (1999, 2000) in his first two years. He continued his stellar play in 2001 and 2002, earning All-America and All-MPSF honors each year. He ranks second in the program's all-time saves list with 700 stops.

A key goalkeeper on the USA National Team, Brooks led Team USA to the gold medal at the 2001 and 2003 Pan American Games. He served as the starting goalkeeper at the 2003 FINA World Championships (Barcelona), the 2004 Olympics (Athens) and the 2005 FINA World Championships (Montreal).

Brooks, 28, graduated from UCLA in 2005 with a degree in sociology. A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Brooks is the oldest of three children and has 23-year-old twin sisters (Nicole and Jessica).

Brandon Brooks played for Team USA in the 2004 and 2008 Olympics.

GUIDE TO WATER POLO POSITIONS

GK - Goalkeeper, ATT - attacker/driver, CTR - center
 DEF - defender, UTL - utility

Attacker: Similar to guard and forward positions in basketball. Look for these players to shoot often and create offensive chances for their teammates, as well as disrupt the opponents' offensive play. Also known as a driver.

Center Offense/Defense: Similar to the post position in basketball. These players station themselves in front of goal and engage in constant physical battles for position. Defenders are similar to football safeties by preventing opponent breakaways on counterattack.
