- Has coached two Jack Nicklaus Award winners at UCLA: Chappell (2008) and Cantlay (2011).
- Has coached two conference players of the year: Chappell (2008) and Cantlay (2011).
- Has coached two conference freshmen of the year: Gregor Main (2009) and Cantlay (2011).
- Overall, he has coached nine different GCAA All-Americans.
- Overall, he has coached 12 different all-conference players, including six first-teamers.
- Overall, he has coached 12 different all-conference academic team members.
- Overall, he has coached 10 players who have won 17 tournaments.
- Has continued UCLA's streak of 11 consecutive NCAA berths.

Entering his seventh season, Derek Freeman has created a list of accomplishments that few other UCLA golf coaches can match. He guided the Bruins to their second NCAA team title in 2008, mentored the only NCAA individual champion in UCLA history and has tutored two Jack Nicklaus Award winners and one Hogan Award recipient.

In 2012-13, Freeman guided the Bruins to their 11th consecutive NCAA Championship berth after capturing the Tempe Regional, UCLA's third regional title during his tenure. The Bruins won three additional tournament titles during the regular season: the Stanford Classic match play crown at Cypress Point GC in October, the Gifford Collegiate Championship in November and the Amer Ari Invitational in February.

Individually, four players won five individual titles: senior Pontus Widegren won the Cal State San Marcos Fall event with an 18-under par score of 198; senior Pedro Figueiredo won The Prestige and the Western Intercollegiate in the Spring; freshmen Jonathan Garrick won the Cal Poly Invitational in the Fall and rookie Jake Knapp won the Cal State San Marcos Spring Invitational in February. In addition, Widegren's 70.4 scoring average set a single season school record. He also played 31 rounds in 14-under par and led the team with a counter ratio of 96%.

In the classroom, the Bruins continued to shine under Freeman's leadership. Figueiredo earned GCAA All-Scholar honors for the second straight season, and he was joined on the All-Pac-12 Academic Team by seniors Bobby Lange and Widegren, junior Anton Arboleda, and sophomores Manav Shah, Jay Hwang, Matt Pinizzotto and Preston Valder.

Two years ago, the Bruins advanced to the NCAA Championship after placing third at the NCAA Regionals. During the season, UCLA won a pair of tournaments: the U.S. Collegiate Championship and the Del Walker Collegiate Match Play Championship. Sophomore Patrick Cantlay played in four professional tournaments as an amateur while retaining his world No. 1 ranking. Figueiredo won his first collegiate title and teammate Mario Clemens added his second.

In 13 varsity starts, the Bruins recorded nine podium finishes, including three runner-up results. Cantlay and Figueiredo earned 2nd Team GCAA All-America honors and 1st Team All-Pac-12 laurels. In addition, Cantlay became the first golfer in UCLA history to receive the Hogan Award and the first to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Finally, Figueiredo earned 1st Team All-Pac-12 Academic honors and GCAA Scholar All-America acclaim.

In 2011, Freeman guided the Bruins to four tournament victories, including an NCAA Regional championship. As a freshman Cantlay won the NCAA West Regional individual title with a 54-hole total of 13-under par. He earned consensus 1st Team All-America honors, the Nicklaus Award and the Phil Mickelson Award as the nation's top freshman. He was also chosen as the Pac-10's Freshman and Player of the Year.

In 2010-11 junior Gregor Main and Widegren also earned All-America and all-conference honors. In addition, both players landed on the Director's Honor Roll during the season. Finally, Alex Shi Yup Kim was selected as an All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention Team member.

Overall at UCLA, Freeman has coached nine players who have earned 13

All-America certificates. He has tutored a pair of Nicklaus Award winners, one Mickelson Award recipient and one Hogan Award winner.

In addition to coaching Chappell, who won the NCAA individual title, he has coached two players who have won NCAA Regional crowns. Overall, 10 players have won 17 individual tournament titles under his watch.

Two players — Chappell and Cantlay — have been named Pac-10 Player of the Year under his direction and two have earned Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. Twelve players have received 22 all-conference certificates.

In 2009-10, Freeman's team entered the NCAA Championship with the youngest lineup in the tournament. He led the Bruins to a 16th place finish, a final ranking of ninth in the national poll and two team victories. Two players earned All-America honorable mention honors from the coaches association and four players earned All-Pac-10 acclaim. In addition, Kim emerged as one of the most improved players in the country vaulting from 438th in the rankings his freshman year to 41st as a sophomore.

In 2008-09, despite the loss of three talented players during the season, Freeman managed to guide the Bruins to their seventh straight NCAA Championship berth. He also guided UCLA to its third NCAA Regional title in program history. In addition, Main was voted Pac-10 Freshman of the Year and senior Erik Flores became the only player in school history to earn First-Team All-Pac-10 honors three times. Flores also earned All-America honors for the third time in his career.

The Bruins won the 2008 NCAA title by one stroke over defending champion Stanford at Purdue's Kampen Course on the last day of May. A key par by Chappell on the 72nd hole clinched the victory, but it was Chappell's bogey save from a disastrous lie at the 71st that enabled the Bruins to maintain a slim lead. Freeman kept his star player level-headed and positive, and coaxed his other senior — Craig Leslie — into playing the final three holes in one-under par to win the title.

In the succeeding days, Chappell collected some awards that had UCLA historians creating new mantle space. He became the first UCLA golfer in the 75-year history of the program to win the NCAA individual championship and the Nicklaus award. He also became just the third player in school history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, and the first since 1985. A month before the season ended, Chappell became the sixth UCLA player to earn Pac-10 Golfer of the Year honors.

Freeman claimed one other All-American — Flores, who also won his first collegiate individual title. In addition, both Chappell and Flores were selected First-Team All-Pac-10.

A former all-conference golfer at the University of Oklahoma, Freeman made an immediate impact on the UCLA program soon after his appointment on July 16, 2007.

Through the 2007 Fall campaign, the Bruins did not lose a tournament, winning the Big Ten/Pac-10 Challenge, the Collegiate Match Play Championship and the CordeValle Collegiate.

The Bruins finished his first half season ranked No. 2 in the nation.

In the November signing period, Freeman inked the nation's No. 2 ranked group of recruits as judged by GolfWeek. The list included two AJGA All-Americans and one of Mexico's top amateurs. Four months later, he added another AJGA All-American to that list.

In 2007-08, the Bruins won five tournaments, a figure that ranks fifth in school history. UCLA also won its first-ever Collegiate Match Play Championship. In that event, Chappell and freshman Philip Francis posted records of 4-0-0. During the season, four players won five individual tournament titles, including Chappell who won twice and ended the season 20-under par through 34 rounds. Chappell also set a single season school record at the time by averaging 71.0 strokes per round and ended his career ranked fifth in school history with five career victories. Finally, he was the only player under par at the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

In his first year, 2006-07, as the Bruins' assistant coach, Freeman coached the UCLA Blue Team, which won the Cougar Invitational and the Cal State Bakersfield Spring Invitational. Senior Chris Heintz won the Cougar event, and at the Bakersfield tournament, the Blue Team scorched the course for a score of 25-under par with sophomore Lucas Lee capturing medalist honors at 14-under par.

Eight years ago, Freeman spent the season as Oklahoma's men's assistant coach. In 2005-06, the Sooners finished 29th at the NCAA Championship after placing seventh in the NCAA Central Regional. Oklahoma also won its first Big 12 Conference team title since Freeman's sophomore year as all five players finished among the Top 15 individuals.

Prior to his appointment at OU, Freeman served the previous three seasons (2002-05) at Oklahoma City University. As an assistant coach for the men's and women's programs (2002-03), he helped lead OCU to 14 combined titles, including the men's 2003 NAIA Championship.

Following the 2003 season, Freeman was promoted to head coach of the OCU women's program and guided the Stars to their second straight runner-up finish at the NAIA Championship. In his second season, 2004-05, OCU captured the NAIA women's national championship and Freeman was named the NAIA National Coach of the Year. The team set a championship record with a 49-stroke victory.

In two seasons as the OCU women's coach, Freeman mentored eight All-Americans and seven academic All-Americans.

Twice he was voted the NAIA Region VI Women's Golf Coach of the Year (2004 and 2005).

As a player at OU, Freeman enjoyed a fine career, serving as the Sooners' captain for three seasons (1992-94). During his collegiate career, he earned All-Big Eight honors in 1994 and All-Big Eight academic honors in 1993. Freeman was a two-time Bruce Drake Award winner for most improved player and won OU's Jim Begwin Award for leadership and sportsmanship.

Overall, Freeman played in four Big Eight Conference Championships, including the 1992 event in which the Sooners won their first-ever league title. He also participated in four NCAA Regional events and four NCAA Championship tournaments. Of his 51 collegiate appearances, he finished in the Top 30 25 times.

He received his degree in Economics from OU in 1994 and later played two years on the Canadian, Mexican and Nike Tours. A rib injury forced him to change careers, and he worked in the financial services industry for five years prior to entering the coaching ranks.

Freeman, his wife Stephenie and their two sons live in the Santa Clarita Valley.

BRANDON CHRISTIANSON

ASSISTANT COACH • 2ND YEAR • UCLA '09

Brandon Christianson (UCLA '09) was named the Bruins' assistant coach on Aug. 9, 2012. He begins his second season as the Bruins' full-time assistant coach under Derek Freeman.

After earning four varsity letters for the Bruins from 2005-08, Christianson served one season as the Bruins' Undergraduate Assistant Coach while completing his degree in History in 2009. He returned to Westwood after working on the PGA Tour as a caddie for three years (2010-12), most recently with UCLA alumnus Kevin Chappell.

"We're very fortunate to have Brandon as our full-time assistant coach," said Freeman. "His experience caddying for Kevin Chappell and Jason Gore is exactly the type of on-course expertise from which our players can benefit.

"Also, as a recent UCLA graduate, he knows precisely what we expect from our student-athletes both on and off the course," Freeman continued. "And, having been a member of a national championship team, he realizes the tremendous amount of dedication required to achieve that goal."

As Freeman's chief assistant some of his main duties include organizing the annual Gifford Collegiate Championship, hosted by UCLA. In addition, he plans and runs practices, mentors players and serves as the one of the Bruins' designated coaches at all tournaments. He also works at the annual UCLA golf camps, teaching young golfers the fundamentals of the game as well as managing many aspects of the camp operation.

In his four seasons on the team, Christianson played 57 career rounds and averaged 74.5 with a 93% counter ratio. He also recorded 10 Top 10 results, 18 Top 20s, 14 rounds below par and five rounds below 70. In his second collegiate round as a freshman in 2005, he fired a team-best 66 (-6), which became his best collegiate score. In 2008, in his final collegiate round, he fired a 68 (-4) to tie for 19th at the Wyoming Cowboy Classic. That season, the Bruins won the NCAA title.

At Valencia High School, he earned four varsity letters and twice was the Foothill League MVP. In a conference championship tournament in 2004, he fired a league record score of 65 at Harding Park. In the 2003 CIF Southern Section playoffs, he blistered Soule Park GC for a 10-under par round of 62, considered to be the lowest round ever by a high school player in Southern California.

Christianson, 27, is single and lives in Valencia.

UCLA ON THE PGA TOUR

Corey Pavin

UCLA has produced many outstanding golfers, including the likes of PGA TOUR members Corey Pavin, Duffy Waldorf, Scott McCarron, Tom Pernice Jr., Steve Pate, Brandt Jobe, Jay Delsing, John Merrick, Parker McLachlin and Kevin Chappell. These 10 players have won more than $100 million in their careers through the 2013 season.

One of the most successful players on the TOUR, Corey Pavin, was a two-time first-team All-American, the Pacific-10 Conference and NCAA Player of the Year in 1982, and the '82 Pac-10 individual champion. He won 11 collegiate tournaments while at UCLA and participated in the 1981 Walker Cup and the 1982 Masters and U.S. Open while still a collegian. In 1995, Pavin won his first "major" — the U.S. Open at Shinnecock Hills. His clutch four-wood to five feet on the 18th hole and subsequent par secured a two-shot victory over Greg Norman. He qualified for the PGA TOUR in 1983, and in 1984, he won his first professional tournament. He has won 28 professional tournaments (12 on the international circuit), including the 1994 and 1995 Los Angeles Opens and the 2012 Allianz Championship on the Champions Tour. He played on the victorious 1991 and '93 U.S. Ryder Cup teams and has earned more than $16 million. He finished 1991 as the PGA's leading money winner and was named the TOUR's Player of the Year that season. In 2010, Pavin served as the U.S. Ryder Cup captain.

A Bruin golf letterman from 1982-85, Duffy Waldorf was a two-time NCAA All-American and the 1985 College Player of the Year. As a senior in 1985, Waldorf won the Pac-10 title and earned a spot on the U.S. Walker Cup team. He has won four times on the PGA TOUR, including the 2000 National Car Rental Golf Classic. In his 28-year PGA career, Waldorf has won more than $13 million, including more than $1.4 million in 2004. He tied for fifth at the 1996 Masters and tied for ninth at the 1994 U.S. Open. Duffy was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002.

Former Bruin Scott McCarron, who played at UCLA from 1985-88, won his first professional tournament—the 1996 Freeport-McDermott Classic and tied for 10th at the Masters that season. McCarron, who won the 1997 and 2001 BellSouth Classics and recorded Top 10 finishes at the '97 U.S. Open and PGA Championships, has won more than $12 million on the TOUR. In 2003, McCarron won more than $1.2 million with two Top 10 finishes, including a second place finish at the Las Vegas Invitational. In 2008, following an injury the previous year, McCarron won nearly $1 million to retain his TOUR card.

Tom Pernice Jr., a former two-time All-American and 1982 UCLA graduate, enjoyed one of his best seasons in 2006. He won more than $2 million, recording six Top 10 finishes, including a runner-up result at the Fed Ex St. Jude Classic. In 2001, he won over

$1.3 million, including a victory at The International. In 1999, he won his first tournament, the Buick Open, by firing a final round 65 to win by one shot over Tom Lehman. In 1998, he finished second in the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro Am, tied for 11th at the Greater Vancouver Open and placed 16th at the Sprint International. In 2004 he won more than $1.4 million and finished among the Top 10 five times. In 2005, he recorded his fourth million dollar season by winning more than $1.3 million in prize money. In 2008, his 26th on TOUR, he recorded five Top 10 results and won more than $1.1 million. In 2011, he tied for third at the final event of the season — the Children's Miracle Network — and earned his TOUR card in addition to his Champions Tour status. In his 31-year career, he has won more than $17 million.

Brandt Jobe, a 25-year PGA professional, played for the Bruins from 1985-88 and helped lead UCLA to its first NCAA team championship in men's golf. His second place individual finish at the NCAAAs that season was the highest by a UCLA player until Kevin Chappell won the 2008 title. As a professional, Jobe has won nearly $9 million and added nine international victories. In 2005, he finished 25th on the money list with more than $1.7 million in earnings. In 2011, he enjoyed another fine season, banking $1.6 million, and recording four Top 10 results, including a T2 at the Memorial and a T23 at the U.S. Open.

Former All-American and Pac-10 Conference champion John Merrick (UCLA '04) earned his PGA Tour card by finishing among the top money winners on the 2006 Nationwide Tour. Merrick won the Peek 'n Peak Classic and took home $100,000. In his rookie PGA Tour season of 2007, he earned nearly $650,000, made 16 cuts and finished 129th on the money list. In 2008, Merrick earned nearly $1.3 million, and tied for fifth at the U.S. Open at Torrey Pines. In 2010, Merrick earned $1.4 million by making 17 cuts in 28 starts. In 2013, Merrick broke through with his first PGA TOUR victory, capturing the Northern Trust Open at historic Riviera Country Club. Last season he won more than $1 million and earned a two-year exemption with his victory. In his nine-year career, he has won nearly $8 million.

Scott McCarron

John Merrick won the 2013 Northern Trust Open at Riviera CC.

Another former Bruin, Parker McLachlin (UCLA '02) earned more than $625,000 on the PGA and Nationwide tours in 2007. In his first season on the PGA TOUR in 2008, he won the Reno-Tahoe Invitational and earned almost $1.3 million to rank 68th on the money list. He has won more than $2 million in his 10-year career.

Steve Pate

In his 23-year career, Steve Pate has won more than $9 million and enjoyed a fine season on the Champions Tour in 2011. He won more than $300,000, recorded three Top 10 results and made 15 of 15 cuts. As a collegian, he lettered at UCLA from 1980-83, winning four college tournaments. In 1983, Pate won the Pacific-10 Championship and earned First-Team All-America honors. He won six PGA tournaments and competed on both the U.S. Kirin Cup Team (1988) and the winning U.S. Ryder Cup team in 1991. A wrist injury kept him off the Tour in 1997, but he recovered in time to win the 1998 CVS Charity Classic and earn a spot as a captain's pick on the victorious 1999 Ryder Cup team.

Another UCLA All-American, Jay Delsing, was a key member of two Pacific-10 title teams. He was a three-time all-conference selection and earned first-team All-America honors in 1982 and second team acclaim in 1983. During his All-America years, he captured seven collegiate tournament titles. He has won more than $3 million on the PGA TOUR, tied for second at the 1995 FedEx St. Jude Classic and finished eighth at the 1994 Los Angeles Open. His best finish in 1998 was a tie for ninth in the Bell Canadian Open.

Former NCAA individual champion and UCLA All-America Kevin Chappell has won more than $3.5 million on the PGA TOUR in five years as a professional. He tied for third at the 2011 U.S. Open, tied for second at the Valero Texas Open and made 13 of 26 cuts. In 2012, he made the cut at the Masters and tied for 10th at the U.S. Open. Last season, he won $1.5 million, placed second at The Memorial and made 16 of 24 cuts. On the Nationwide Tour in 2010, Chappell won the Fresh Express Classic, his first professional victory. He also recorded four other Top 5 results.

Kevin Chappell

Jim Albus, a 1965 UCLA graduate, was the head professional at the Piping Rock Club on Long Island for 14 years before choosing to play on the Champions Tour full-time in 1990. He won six tournaments, including the 1998 GTE Classic. His best season was 1994, when he won the Vantage At The Dominion and the Bank of Boston Senior Classic and earned $1.2 million. Some of his other Champions Tour victories include titles at the 1991 Ford Senior Players Championship and the 1993 GTE Suncoast Classic. A member of the Metropolitan (NY) PGA Hall of Fame, Albus has won more than $6 million in his professional career.

Three sources were used for this list: the Varsity Club database, lettermen's lists compiled by coaches dating back to 1962, and results.

In some instances, players are listed as lettermen based only on their results in competitions.

na—Player listed in Varsity Club database, but not on the coach's list of lettermen. They may have earned a letter prior to 1962, but no record exists.

1988 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP SUMMARY

In 1988, the Bruins won their first NCAA golf team championship at North Ranch Country Club in Thousand Oaks, CA. On the final day of the tournament, UCLA, 13 shots behind the leader, rallied for one of the great comebacks in NCAA golf history. The Bruins shot a one-under par 287 over the final 18 holes to win the national championship by three shots over Texas-El Paso. The Bruins' Brandt Jobe fired a final round three-under par 69 to record a one-under par 72-hole score of 287 and finish in a tie for second place. Jobe's finish was the best individual finish ever by a UCLA golfer in the NCAA Championship. Although no other Bruin finished among the Top 20, clutch performances, especially on the final day, produced one of the most memorable championship moments in UCLA history. Below are the scores from the 1988 NCAA Championships.

Kevin Leach

1988 Team score: 1,176. Individuals: Brandt Jobe, 2nd tie (72-73-73-69 — 287); Bobby Lasken, 26th tie (74-71-75-75 — 295); Tim Cruikshank, 31st (79-73-73-71 — 296); Kevin Leach, 43rd (76-78-72-72 — 298); Rich Greenwood, 85th (82-79-77-77 — 315).

2008 NCAA CHAMPIONS

2008 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Senior Kevin Chappell made a par on the 18th hole to give UCLA a one-shot victory on May 31, 2008 at the 111th NCAA Men's Golf Championship, hosted by Purdue at its Kampen Course in West Lafayette, Ind.

Chappell won the individual title and led the fourth-ranked Bruins to their first men's golf title since 1988. He finished at 2-under 286 and was the only player in the field under par for the event. He became the first UCLA player to win NCAA medalist honors.

"The feeling I have right now is better than anything," said Chappell. "To win individually is great, but it becomes even more special because the team also won. I can't say enough about this team. All season long we've always been there to pick each other up and that's what championship teams do."

In the third round, Chappell made a round-saving bogey from knee-high rough at the 18th hole. That score helped him post a cool 68 (-4) and assume first place entering the final round. At the time, he called it "the best bogey of my life." He amended that statement on May 31 with a bogey that preserved the Bruins' national championship.

At the 71st hole, a 230-yard par 3 over water, Chappell dumped his tee shot in the hazard. His third shot from the drop area skirted 22 paces past the hole -- almost a certain double-bogey.

"I knew he could get it up and down from there," said Head Coach Derek Freeman. "I figured we'd take [a] five and move on to 18."

The two-time All-American chipped it in.

"That was the best bogey of my entire life," he said.

Chappell had struggled most of the week at the 18th. In the second round, he came to the brutish 484-yard par 4 at one-under par. A double-bogey gave him a 73 (+1). His bogey there in the third round prevented him from carding a 67 (-5).

And in the final round, he knew a par would preserve the Bruins' precarious one-shot lead and their championship dreams. His tee shot found the fairway, leaving him 189 yards to the green. His second shot landed 20 feet above the hole. He barely missed making a birdie, but tapped in for par before the entire UCLA entourage charged the green to embrace their senior leader.

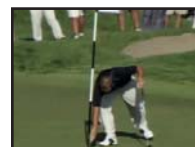

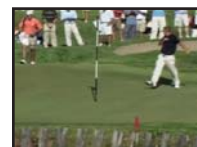

"This is huge for our school which prides itself on national championships," said Freeman. "Now, I want to figure out how to get better because I sure like this feeling."

Senior Craig Leslie's birdies at the 16th and 18th holes proved crucial to the Bruins' title hopes, as well as key par saves on the final holes by junior Erik Flores and freshman Philip Francis.

The championship was the third won by the Bruins in the month of May, 2008. On Mother's Day the women's water polo team won its fourth consecutive national championship, and on May 20, the women's tennis team won its first team title. These three titles gave UCLA a total of 103, a national leader.

UCLA's Home Courses

Many campus buildings can be seen from the Bel-Air Country Club, which is located across from UCLA on Sunset Blvd. The Bruins have been playing at the Robert C. Thomas classic for more than 50 years.

Bel-Air Country Club:

The Bel-Air Country Club, site of the 1976 U.S. Amateur Championship, has served as UCLA's home course for more than 50 years. Located five minutes from campus, Bel-Air's original architecture was done by George Thomas, Jack Neville and Billy Bell Sr., with most recent changes by Robert Trent Jones. The club has added a driving range which the Bruins use occasionally. Par: 70 Rating: 73.9 Yardage: 6,730.

Brentwood Country Club:

The Brentwood Country Club is located just 10 minutes from the UCLA campus. The course, which measures 6,782 yards and carries a 72.9 rating, puts emphasis on accuracy and is often subject to strong breezes off the nearby Pacific. Brentwood and UCLA also hosted the 1994 Women's Pacific-10 Conference Championship.

El Caballero Country Club: Tough par 71 course that has hosted many TOUR qualifying events. Designed by Robert Trent Jones, Sr., the course measures 6,815 yards and carries a rating of 73.6 and a slope of 135. UCLA alumnus Brandt Jobe holds the course record of 63.

Hillcrest Country Club: Located 10 minutes from campus, Hillcrest is one of the area's oldest layouts. Opened in 1922, it was the site of the 1929 PGA Championship and 1932 and '42 L.A. Opens. Hillcrest carries a 73.1 rating over 6,684 yards. Rolling fairways, numerous bunkers and large undulating greens plus some of the best views of the Los Angeles skyline make this an enjoyable test of golf.

Lakeside Golf Club: Located next to Universal Studios, this tight, heavily trapped course has small greens that demand great accuracy. The par 70 course has a 72.4 rating and measures 6,539 yards. The beautiful course was designed by Max Behr in 1925.

Los Angeles Country Club: Considered one of America's finest, the North Course is consistently ranked among the nation's Top 20 private golf courses. Both the North and South courses were designed by George C. Thomas, who also designed Riviera and Ojai Valley CC. Site of the 1983 Men's Pac-10 Championships won by UCLA. The par 71 redesigned North Course is rated 75.7 with a 143 slope over 7,236 yards and will host the 2013 Men's Pac-12 Championship.

Mountaingate Country Club: Sporty course that offers great vistas of Los Angeles. Severely contoured greens require a delicate putting touch. Measures 6,450 yards, is rated 72.2, plays to a par of 72, and overlooks the UCLA campus.

Oakmont Country Club: Built in 1924 and originally designed by Max Behr, Oakmont is located in the lush hillside of Glendale and boasts some of the fastest greens in the city. A variety of bunkers and barrancas make the course a shotmaker's domain. Recently, Oakmont has hosted LPGA and Champions Tour events. From the Goodman tees, the course plays 7,015 yards, carries a slope of 138 and a par of 72. Oakmont served as the site of the 2003 Men's Pacific-10 Conference Championship, which UCLA hosted and won.

Riviera Country Club: Recognized as one of the world's premier courses, Riviera annually hosts a PGA Tour event, which former Bruin Corey Pavin won in 1994 and '95. It has hosted several major championships, including the U.S. Open in 1948 won by Ben Hogan, the PGA Championship in 1983 and 1995 and the U.S. Senior Open in 1998. The course has several signature holes, including the par three sixth with a bunker in the middle of the green. Designed by George C. Thomas, Riviera measures more than 7,157 yards and plays to a par of 71.

Robinson Ranch: New facility, featuring two championship courses —The Mountain and The Valley. The Mountain Course measures 6,508 yards and offers dramatic views and plenty of water, while demanding strategic course management and accuracy off the tee. The Valley Course, which opened on Memorial Day 2000, meanders through untouched stands of stage and chaparral, California Sycamores and Coastal Live Oaks. Measuring 6,903 yards from the championship tees, The Valley's final six holes have been tagged Death Row.

TPC at Valencia: The TPC at Valencia, designed by Chris Gray and two-time major winner Mark O'Meara, is a big golf course requiring both length off the tee, precise iron play and bold putting. Running through oak canyons, river valleys and foothills, the course challenges players of every skill level. The course measures more than 7,200 yards from the tournament tees and plays to a par of 72.

Valencia Country Club: A classic Robert Trent Jones Sr. design featuring numerous bunkers, hidden water hazards and large, undulating greens. Prevailing afternoon winds can make this course play long and difficult. Signature hole is the par three third that features a long carry over water to a big, fast green, shaded by tall trees. From the tips, this par 72 course is rated 74.7 with a slope of 138 over 7,076 yards.

Wilshire Country Club: Medium length course that boasts the best greens in the city. A barranca runs through the course and comes into play on almost every hole. Carries a course rating of 71.8 at 6,506 yards and a slope of 132.

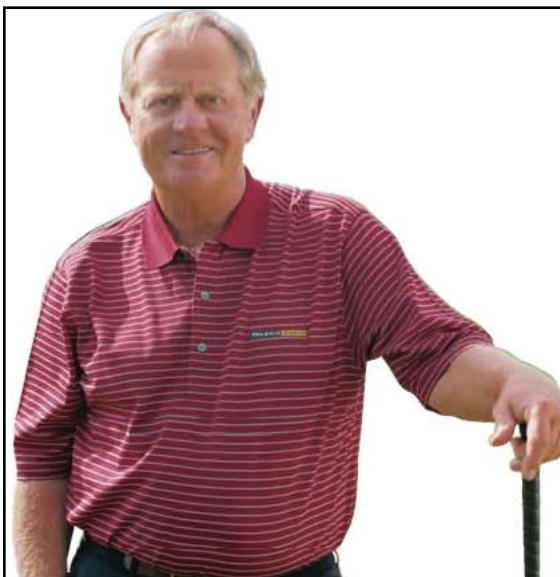

The Los Angeles Country Club was the site of the 2013 Pac-12 Championship.

FRIENDS OF GOLF

The Friends of Golf (FOG) organization has been a fixture of financial support for the UCLA golf program and collegiate and youth golf nationwide for more than three decades.

The origins of this group come from former UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame golf coach Eddie Merrins, who served as Bel Air's head professional for nearly 40 years. Under his active leadership, the UCLA golf program has developed into one of the most successful in the country.

To implement that program, Merrins pioneered the FOG organization to aid in fundraising activities for college and youth golf programs. FOG was incorporated in 1981 as a non-profit organization and has drawn enthusiasm from many prominent professionals in the business and sports communities.

Jack Nicklaus was the honoree at the 1991 FOG tournament.

The annual FOG event is highlighted by an elaborate golf tournament and dinner held at Bel Air Country Club. Luminaries such as Dinah Shore, Digger Phelps, Rick Pitino, David Wolper and Richard Crenna distinguished the tournament in 1991. Highlighting the 10th annual tournament was the legendary Jack Nicklaus. Each year, FOG honors a member of the PGA Tour, which has enabled Friends of Golf to endow the Golf Scholarship Fund at UCLA.

The late, legendary golfer Byron Nelson called the annual FOG event, "The best one-day golf tournament in the country."

UCLA'S ON-CAMPUS PRACTICE FACILITY — "THE GIFF"

Jack and Rhodine Gifford (above) have been generous supporters of UCLA Athletics, particularly the golf programs. Their lead donation made possible UCLA's on-campus practice facility, nicknamed "The Giff." In addition, the Gifford Family has sponsored the Gifford Collegiate Championship for the last eight years. The late Mr. Gifford was a 1960-61 UCLA baseball letterman as a first baseman. (Clockwise from top right): The view to the West shows the team room and tee box as players hit South toward Pauley Pavilion. The view looking East reveals the towers of Royce Hall and the Men's Gym, newly named the Student Activities Center. Facing North toward Sunset Blvd., the shrubbery in front of the facility spells out UCLA GOLF (below).

THE GIFFORD COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Gifford Collegiate Championship, founded by the late Jack Gifford (UCLA '63) and his wife Rhodine, has come to symbolize outstanding golf and unmatched camaraderie. The Bruins have won the event twice, and in 2007 produced their first individual champion in James Lee. In addition to the 54-hole collegiate competition, the event also features a CollegeAm, a wives program and many other tournament traditions. Above left, is the perpetual Gifford Collegiate Championship Trophy, awarded to the victorious team. Top right, are the Bruins, who won the event in 2007. Above: UCLA's Patrick Cantlay, winner of the event in 2010. Center right: Jake Knapp, who tied for sixth in 2013. Below right: Benefactor Jack Gifford and Head Coach Derek Freeman.

KEY ADMINISTRATORS

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • UCLA '74 • 12TH YEAR

In 11 years, Dan Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA has won 110 NCAA team championships, a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. UCLA teams have won 24 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, finished second 21 times and have enjoyed an additional 43 Top Five finishes.

More than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 10 bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 56 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 500 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and eight other nations. They won nine medals, including six golds.

In 2013, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup for men's sports, vaulting to the top of the standings after winning the 2013 College World Series.

In December, UCLA won its 110th NCAA title when the women's soccer team captured its first College Cup title. In 2012-13, men's water polo and men's tennis finished second, women's water polo and women's tennis (tied) placed third, women's golf and women's gymnastics finished fourth and women's soccer tied for fifth. Finally, 57 student-athletes earned All-America honors and 57 were selected to various all-conference teams.

During Guerrero's tenure, the Bruins have won 24 national championships in 18 different sports, a national leader. UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf, and one each in women's tennis, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's water polo, men's golf, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. In addition, the Bruins have recorded 33 national podium finishes in that span.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92). Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. Guerrero, 62, is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters: Jenna and Katie.

ASHLEY ARMSTRONG

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • UC DAVIS '95 • 10TH YEAR

Ashley Armstrong has been at UCLA since 2004 and currently serves as an Associate Athletic Director, Sports and Administration. She is responsible for supervising seven Bruin sport programs: men's and women's golf, men's and women's water polo, women's rowing and women's swimming and diving. A member of the Bruins' senior management team, she oversees various coach and student-athlete development programs and was recently appointed to the NCAA Division I Women's Rowing committee.

Armstrong previously served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development where she oversaw the Bruin Student-Athlete Development program. She created the Wooden Academy (leadership development program), served as an advisor to the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, coordinated community outreach and professional development programs, co-supervised women's rowing, women's volleyball and women's sand volleyball. She also chaired the Athletic Department's Health and Wellness Committee. Armstrong began her tenure at UCLA as the Director of Life Skills and Championships.

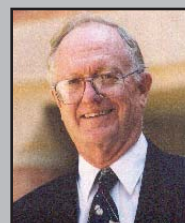

In addition to her campus duties, Armstrong has spent the past six years as a lead consultant for the NCAA where she is responsible for developing curriculum and training athletics professionals to facilitate the annual NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Forum.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Armstrong served as an Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Louisville where her responsibilities included administration, life skills programming, marketing, championships and compliance. During her stint with the Cardinals, she assisted in developing curriculum for a life skills course and served as a lecturer for the College of Education. She started her career as an academic counselor and tutorial coordinator for the women's athletic department at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Armstrong has also served as a faculty member for the NCAA/NACWAA Institute for Administrative Advancement. She has presented workshops at several institutions and facilitation experience with NCAA Leadership Conferences, CHAMPS/Life Skills Continuing Education Conferences and NCAA Diversity Education. Armstrong served on the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Advisory Committee and is a 2009 graduate of the Sports Management Institute's executive program.

A native of Southern California, Armstrong earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from the University of California, Davis, where she was a member of the women's volleyball team. She earned a Master of Science in sport management from the University of Tennessee.
