

BRANDON BROOKS

HEAD COACH • 5th Year
Alma Mater: UCLA '05

Brandon Brooks begins his fifth season as UCLA's head women's water polo coach in 2014. He was named the third head coach in program history on June 3, 2009, and has compiled a 99-26 record in four seasons.

Brooks coached the Bruins to the MPSF Tournament championship game in 2010, 2011 and 2012, including winning the MPSF Tournament title in 2010 and 2012. UCLA has advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all four of his seasons. The Bruins have placed third at the NCAA Tournament in each of his last two seasons (2011 and 2012).

Last year, Brooks led the Bruins to a 28-7 overall record — the most victories his coaching career — and a third-place finish at the NCAA Championship. Five players earned All-America honors, including freshman Rachel Fattal, who was named to the first team. Four players were selected to the All-MPSF Team, and Fattal earned Newcomer of the Year honors. Goalkeeper Sami Hill, in her first season as the full-time starter, shattered the school record for saves in a season, and sophomore Emily Donohoe scored 70 goals to rank third in single season goals scored. In addition, four players earned ACWPC All-Scholar honors. Finally, 20 different players earned spots on the Director's Honor Roll.

In 2012, Brooks guided UCLA to a 23-4 overall record, including a 5-2 mark in the MPSF (tied for second). He was named the 2012 MPSF Coach of the Year after guiding the Bruins to two different upsets of No. 1 Stanford and winning the MPSF Tournament title. The Bruins were ranked No. 1 in the country a total of six weeks during the season, which started after UCLA pulled off back-to-back upsets of No. 2 USC and No. 1 Stanford in the semifinals and finals of the UC Irvine Invitational in one day (Feb. 26).

In 2011, Brooks guided UCLA to a 26-7 overall record, including a 4-3 mark in conference play. He helped propel the Bruins to the championship match of the MPSF Tournament after UCLA won its final four regular-season matches (including three MPSF contests). UCLA defeated USC, 12-10, in the first round of the MPSF Tournament. The next day, the Bruins handed top-ranked Stanford its first loss of the season, advancing to the tournament's championship match. Despite losing a 7-6 decision in the title game to California, UCLA had firmly secured an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament.

UCLA used a balanced attack in 2011, with Priscilla Orozco (58 goals), KK Clark (50 goals) and Grace Reynolds (35 goals) leading the way. Goalkeepers Caitlin Dement and Sami Hill split time in the cage, with Dement securing second-team All-MPSF honors at the conclusion of the season.

In 2010, Brooks helped UCLA post a 22-8 overall record, including a 4-3 MPSF mark. Three players earned All-MPSF honors, highlighted by first-team selection Priscilla Orozco. Five players captured ACWPC All-Academic acclaim and five secured MPSF All-Academic honors. Along the way, Brooks helped with the development of Dement, who set a UCLA single-season saves record of 264.

Brooks served as an assistant coach with the UCLA men's and women's water polo teams for three seasons prior to his appointment as the head coach of the women's program (men's assistant in 2006, 2007 and 2008; women's assistant in 2007, 2008 and 2009). He also served as an undergraduate assistant coach with the men's program in 2004. Brooks helped lead the women's program to NCAA championships each spring and guided the men's program to the 2004 NCAA title.

In his three seasons as an assistant coach with the women's program, Brooks' work with goalkeepers Emily Feher (2007) and Brittany Fullen (2008, 2009) proved instrumental to UCLA's national championships. Fullen established a new single-season saves record as a junior, totaling 237 stops in 2008. The previous season, Feher recorded a 4.96 goals against average in 25 games before securing First-Team All-America honors for the third consecutive season.

An undergraduate assistant on the men's water polo coaching staff in 2004, Brooks helped Joe Axelrad develop into the one of the nation's premier goalkeepers, leading UCLA to the NCAA Championship that Fall.

Brooks starred on the men's water polo team from 1999-2002, leading the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA championships in 1999 and 2000, before excelling in the international ranks. He participated in the 2004 and 2008 Olympic Games for the USA Men's National Team.

In the summer of 2008, Brooks and former teammate Adam Wright (UCLA's men's water polo head coach) helped lead the USA Men's National Team to a silver medal finish at the Olympic Games in Beijing. Brooks, Wright and former teammate Brett Ormsby competed in the 2004 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Brooks was head coach of the Los Angeles Water Polo Club's boys 16-and-under team from 2006-08. In 2006, he coached the club team to an undefeated season, culminating in the Junior Olympic Championship. He helped develop 15 Division I men's water polo student-athletes in his tenure as head coach. Brooks served on the coaching staff of the U.S. Women's National Team in the Summer of 2012 alongside Krikorian.

One of the nation's premier goalkeepers in four seasons at UCLA, Brooks helped lead the Bruins to back-to-back NCAA titles (1999, 2000) in his first two years. He continued his stellar play in his final two seasons, earning All-America and All-MPSF honors each year. Brooks ranks second on UCLA's all-time saves list with 700 stops in four seasons.

A key goalkeeper on the USA National Team, Brooks led Team USA to the gold medal at the 2001 and 2003 Pan American Games. He served as the starting goalkeeper at the 2003 FINA World Championships (Barcelona), the 2004 Olympics (Athens) and the 2005 FINA World Championships (Montreal).

Brooks, 32, graduated from UCLA in 2005 with a degree in Sociology. A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Brooks is the oldest of three children and has 24-year-old twin sisters.

Molly Cahill enters her seventh year on the UCLA women's water polo coaching staff and her sixth as an assistant coach in 2014. A four-year UCLA women's water polo letterwinner (2004-07), Cahill helped lead the Bruins to the MPSF Tournament title in 2010 and again in 2012 after having served as an undergraduate assistant coach for one season in 2008.

Cahill has guided the Bruins to the NCAA Tournament in each of her eight years associated with the program. Likewise, she has lifted UCLA to the NCAA Championship in four of those seasons – three as a student-athlete (2005-07) and one as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2008.

In 2013, Cahill worked alongside head coach Brandon Brooks for the fourth consecutive year. The Bruins went 27-8 overall, finishing third at the NCAA Tournament.

Two years ago, the Bruins finished with a 23-4 overall record and placed third in the NCAA Championship after capturing the MPSF title.

In 2011, the Bruins went 26-7, finishing third at the NCAA Championships after posting a second-place finish at the MPSF Tournament.

In 2010, Cahill helped a young team, devoid of any seniors on the roster, improve over the course of the season and win the MPSF Tournament title as the conference's fifth-seeded team. The Bruins defeated No. 4-seed Hawai'i and No. 1-seed Stanford before taking down No. 2-seed USC in the tournament's title match at UCLA's Spieker Aquatics Center.

Serving as an undergraduate assistant coach in 2008, Cahill helped the Bruins win their fourth consecutive NCAA title – a streak with which she helped start during her sophomore season in 2005. UCLA posted a 33-0 record that season, duplicating a feat the program had accomplished in 2005.

In four seasons as a UCLA student-athlete, Cahill registered 95 goals on 260 attempts and played in 123 matches. She earned MPSF All-Academic Team honors her final three seasons (2005-07). Cahill was recognized as an ACWPC All-Academic "excellent" selection in 2005.

As a senior in 2007, Cahill scored 26 goals on 52 attempts on a team that won UCLA's 100th NCAA team title. She netted 14 goals on 35 attempts as a junior (2006) and added 17 goals on 38 attempts as a sophomore (2005). The native of Santa Barbara, Calif., registered a career-best 38 goals as a freshman (2004) before earning MPSF All-Freshman Team honors that spring.

Cahill graduated from UCLA in 2008 with a degree in History.
