COACHES

MICHAEL SEALY

HEAD COACH

FIFTH YEAR

RECORD: 90-38

UCLA, 1993

Michael Sealy begins his fifth season as the head coach of the UCLA women's volleyball team in 2014. Sealy has a four-year record of 90-38 for a .703 winning percentage and guided the Bruins to a National Championship in 2011.

A trio of Bruins were named to the All-Pac-12 Teams in 2013, as Karsta Lowe was named All-Pac-12 First Team to go with her AVCA All-Region First Team and All-America Honorable Mention accolades. Kelly Reeves was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention and Claire Felix was recognized on the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team. UCLA went 15-15 last season, recording a 6-14 mark in Pac-12 play. The Bruins were fifth in the league in hitting percentage and kills per set and sixth in assists per set.

In 2012, the Bruins posted a 23-8 record, finishing in a tie for fourth in the Pac-12 with a 14-6 mark and advancing to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. Two Bruins, Rachael Kidder and Tabi Love, were named All-America, All-Region and All-Pac-12, while Zoë Nightingale earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention accolades.

UCLA was second in the nation in kills per set (14.76), third in assists per set (13.84) and fifth in hitting percentage (.295), which was also the second-best, single-season total in program history. The Bruins led all Pac-12 teams in hitting and were second in kps and aces.

In 2011, Sealy led the Bruins to the program's fourth NCAA title and seventh National Championship. The Bruins posted a 30-6 record and defeated four-time defending champion Penn State, #1-overall seed Texas, Florida State and Illinois en route to the championship.

Sealy was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year. The Bruins finished second in the Pac-12 with a 17-5 record. Six players were honored on the All-Conference teams, while Kidder, the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament, was a First Team All-America and All-Region selection.

UCLA finished fifth in the nation in assists per set (13.71) and eighth in kills per set (14.52). Among Pac-12 teams, the Bruins ranked first in aces, second in kps and opponent hitting percentage (.160) and third in digs per set (15.95).

In his first campaign, Sealy guided the Bruins to a 22-9 record, a fourth-place finish in the Pacific-10 Conference (11-7) and a Second-Round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Three Bruins were named to the All-Pac-10 team in 2010, Dicey McGraw (First Team), Lainey Gera (Honorable Mention) and Kidder (Honorable Mention), while McGraw also earned AVCA All-Pacific Region Honorable Mention accolades.

UCLA finished in the top half of the Pac-10 in digs (2nd, 15.41), assists (4th, 13.46), kills (4th, 14.26) and aces (5th, 1.20) per set along with opponent hitting percentage (4th, .187).

Sealy spent part of the summer of 2012 in London at the Olympic Games, serving as a scout coach for the U.S. men's volleyball team.

UCLA Athletic Director Dan Guerrero announced on Feb. 10, 2010 that Sealy was named head coach of the Bruin women's volleyball program. Sealy returned to his alma mater after spending four seasons (2006-09) as an associate head coach at the University of Hawai'i. He was a three-time All-American and an assistant coach for four years with the UCLA men's volleyball team and was an assistant with the Bruin women's volleyball program in 2005.

"We are excited to welcome back Michael Sealy to lead the women's volleyball program," Guerrero said. "Michael clearly possesses the necessary credentials to allow UCLA to compete at the highest level. He is well-respected in the volleyball community and has an enthusiastic and passionate approach towards the game. Furthermore, as a former Bruin player and coach, he understands the tradition of excellence that has defined the volleyball programs at UCLA and I am confident that he will continue that legacy of success with ambition and integrity."

"I am very excited and inspired to be back at UCLA," said Sealy. "I feel very fortunate and humbled to take over a program with such a storied history. I would like to thank Dan Guerrero and (Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Women's Administrator) Petrina Long for giving me this opportunity and for supporting my vision for the future of the program."

Sealy helped Hawai'i to a berth in the National Semifinals in 2009. The Rainbow Wahine recorded their second-straight, 30-win season last year, going 32-3 overall. They also posted a 16-0 mark in conference play to earn their 14th-straight Western Athletic Conference title and went on to claim their 10th-consecutive WAC Tournament championship. Sealy's record during his tenure at Hawai'i was 119-19 (.862 winning percentage).

Prior to his stint at Hawai'i, Sealy coached for four seasons at UCLA, where he was an assistant on the men's side from 2003-2006 and an assistant for the women's volleyball team in 2005. In his lone season on the women's side, the Bruins posted a 20-11 record and advanced to the Regional Semifinals. With the UCLA men, Sealy was 91-38 (.705) during his four campaigns, helping the Bruins to an NCAA Championship in 2006 and an NCAA Runner-Up finish in 2005. Sealy was also a volunteer assistant with the Cal State Northridge men's volleyball team in 2000 before working in the same capacity with the UCLA men in 2001.

One of the top setters in UCLA history, Sealy was a four-year letterwinner with the Bruins from 1990-93 and ranks fourth in Bruin annals in assists (4,749). In his senior season, Sealy and the Bruins won the program's 14th National Championship, going 24-3. The team captain was named the co-Most Outstanding Player of the 1993 NCAA Tournament and also earned ASICS/Volleyball Monthly Player of the Year and AVCA All-American first-team honors. In addition, Sealy was named an All-American in 1991 (first-team) and 1992 (third-team), as well as All-Conference three times. The Bruins won three conference titles during Sealy's playing days, going 80-24 (.769) during his four years.

Following his playing career in Westwood, Sealy went on to play professionally in Switzerland, Belgium, Holland and Puerto Rico. He also played with the U.S. National Team in 1994 and 1997.

Sealy graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a degree in physiological science.

Metzger also just completed his second campaign as UCLA's head sand volleyball coach, which had its inaugural season in the spring of 2013. The Bruins have been ranked in the Top 10 throughout each of their first two sand campaigns. Debuting the sand team competitively just two months after the sport was added to UCLA's athletic program, Metzger guided Kelly Reeves to the program's first sand All-America award in 2013, while two pairs (Reeves and Meg Norton and Zoë Nightingale and Becca Strehlow) each made the AVCA National Championships.

Metzger returned to his alma mater as a coach, having played on the Bruin men's team from 1993-96 and winning three National Championships. Metzger, who was a teammate of current head coach Michael Sealy on the '93 title-winning squad, is second all-time in UCLA history in assists (5,158) and sixth in aces (110).

He went on to win two more National Championships in 1995 and '96, getting named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team both times. Metzger earned AVCA First-Team All-America and ASICS/Volleyball Magazine All-America honors both seasons, while earning AVCA Co-Player of the Year accolades as a team captain during his senior campaign. He was also named to the all-conference team three times, including First Team in '96.

Following his days in Westwood, Metzger competed professionally on the AVP Tour, winning 16 times with partners Kevin Wong (two times), Jake Gibb (four), Mike Lambert (nine) and Mark Williams (one). Metzger was twice a part of the AVP Team of the Year with Gibb ('05) and Lambert ('06), ranking as the Tour's top player both seasons. He earned the Crocs Cup title in 2006.

In addition to his collegiate coaching accolades, Metzger has trained U.S., French and Israeli National Beach teams. He has also coached with the USA Volleyball Elite Development Program.

A 1996 graduate of UCLA with a degree in environmental studies, Metzger was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009. Metzger and his wife, Emily, live in Redondo Beach with their daughter, Quinn (4), and son, Otto (1).

KAITLIN NIELSEN

ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND YEAR

UCLA, 2009

UCLA head women's volleyball coach Michael Sealy announced the hiring of Kaitlin Nielsen to the post of assistant women's volleyball coach/recruiting coordinator on Jan. 17, 2014. Nielsen was a part of the Bruin coaching staff during the 2013 season as a volunteer assistant and was also an assistant during the inaugural year of UCLA sand volleyball in spring 2013.

"It is an absolute honor and privilege to become a full-time member of the UCLA women's volleyball staff," Nielsen said. "I have to thank Coach Sealy, the rest of the staff and the UCLA administration for giving me the opportunity to return to this outstanding program. It is a dream come true to be coaching at my alma mater and offer a unique perspective as a former student-athlete to our current student-athletes. By being a part of the program last year, I was able to see an amazing amount of potential with this team and I look forward to getting to work for the 2014 season."

"I am thrilled to announce the hiring of Kaitlin Nielsen as our new assistant coach/recruiting coordinator," Sealy said. "Kaitlin has always been a fierce competitor, compassionate teammate and intensely driven to conquer each and every challenge she has faced. I have no doubt that she will work diligently to fine tune a recruiting strategy that will bring dedicated and passionate athletes to UCLA. She is an amazing role model for young student-athletes and someone who will help set the standard of what it means to be a Bruin."

Nielsen, along with head sand coach Stein Metzger, started the sand squad just two months after the sport was added to UCLA's athletic program. Under their guidance, a pair of doubles teams, Meg Norton and Kelly Reeves and Zoë Nightingale and Becca Strehlow, reached the AVCA National Championships, while Reeves was named the program's first All-American.

Nielsen (née Sather) returned to her alma mater after a standout career with the Bruins from 2005 to 2009. She appeared in 132 matches and 448 sets, producing 1,501 kills, 1,153 digs, 99 service aces and 279 blocks. Sather stands 11th on UCLA's all-time kills list, eighth in kills per set (3.35), third in total attacks (4,287), ninth in digs and tied for ninth in sets played. She is only the 12th Bruin to ever record at least 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs for a career.

As a freshman in 2005, Sather led the Bruins in kps (3.81), total attacks (1,214), aces (38) and points (478.5), receiving All-Pac-10 Freshman Team honors. In 2006, Sather helped the Bruins to an appearance in the NCAA National Semifinals, recording double figures in kills in all five Tournament matches. She played in all 37 contests and finished third on the team with 2.95 kps.

In 2007, Sather was named All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention after pacing the Bruins with 3.76 kps and sporting 28 aces, which was third on the squad. She helped UCLA to within one match of another National Semifinal appearance and would earn All-Regional Team honors.

After sitting out the 2008 campaign due to shoulder surgery, as well as a brief stint as a high jumper on the UCLA track and field team in the Spring of 2009, Sather was named an AVCA Honorable Mention All-American in her senior season after leading the Bruins in attacks (1,001) and placing second with 2.86 kps and 3.05 digs per set. She also earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-Region and All-Pac-10 Conference accolades to close her career.

One of only a dozen Bruins to earn three Pac-10 All-Academic selections, including First Team in 2007 and 2009, as well as ESPN The Magazine All-District Third Team in '07, Sather graduated from UCLA with a degree in history and minor in education in 2009.

Following her time in Westwood, Nielsen began her professional career, which continues today on the Association of Volleyball Professionals (AVP) Tour. Between 2010 and this summer, she has appeared in 22 events on the AVP, Jose Cuervo Pro Beach Volleyball Series, National Volleyball League, USA Volleyball IDQ and Wide Open Beach Volleyball. Nielsen has also played in two FIVB and three NORCECA events. She finished fourth at the FIVB Anapa Open in July with partner Heather Hughes.

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

In 2011, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In its first three years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, fielding full university and Pac-12 all-star teams in women's volleyball and men's basketball, with plans to play the first-ever men's basketball regular season game in China in November 2015, and the Conference and its member schools have gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions®," claiming an incredible 131 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including 10 in 2013-14. That is an average of nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 48 of the last 54 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the ninth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 469 NCAA Championships (287 men's, 154 women's, 28 combined).

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 20th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2013-14. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-27 Division I programs, the most of any conference and five were in the top 20: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 7 UCLA, No. 8 USC, No. 15 OREGON, No. 20 CALIFORNIA, No. 26 ARIZONA and No. 27 ARIZONA STATE.

The Conference's 10 national titles in 2013-14 came in the form of six men's and four women's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the seven NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

OREGON was one of three teams in the country to win three NCAA titles in 2013-14. The Ducks took home the hardware in men's outdoor track and field and swept the men's and women's indoor national championships. An additional four teams in the country had two NCAA titles, including UCLA and USC. The Bruins won the Conference's third-ever women's soccer title and the program's first, while also taking home the women's tennis crown. The Trojans continue to dominate the sports of men's water polo and men's tennis, winning a sixth-straight title in the pool and a fifth in six years on the court.

COLORADO kicked off the year for the Conference winning its fourth NCAA men's cross country title. CALIFORNIA was first in men's swimming, while STANFORD won its third women's water polo crown in four years.

In addition to the 10 national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in six NCAA Championship events: women's cross country (ARIZONA), women's swimming (STANFORD), women's rowing (CALIFORNIA), men's volleyball (STANFORD) and women's water polo (UCLA). Overall, the Conference had 32 teams finish in the top four at 22 NCAA Championship events, including an all-Pac-12 women's water polo final four.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2013-14. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 19 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 79 of a possible 100 teams into the postseason (79.4 percent), while the women sent 83 of a possible 115 teams (72.2 percent).

Pac-12 volleyball also recorded an unprecedented season with a league-record nine teams earning NCAA Tournament bids, also the most in the country, with three receiving a top-16 seed. After winning the Conference regular-season crown for the first time since 2005, WASHINGTON advanced to its first national semifinal since 2006, marking the 14th time in 16 years a Pac-12 team has advanced that far. With 14-straight years of at least six Conference teams earning NCAA bids, the Pac-12 has dominated the sport, winning a record 14 NCAA volleyball titles since 1982, including 12 in the last 23 years.

Pac-12 members have won 287 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 83 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 54 tennis titles, 46 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 45 NCAA titles in volleyball, 40 of 45 in water polo, 28 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,167) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,485 by male student-athletes.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 33 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 24 occasions, including 14-consecutive years from 2000-2014. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 154 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 93. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 21 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 25 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 682 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back over 99 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.

HISTORY

1971-72 DGWS CHAMPIONS (28-1)

The Division of Girls and Women's Sports (DGWS) was the first sanctioning body for the National Women's Volleyball Tournament and would later evolve into the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1972. But in the final year before the implementation of the AIAW, UCLA captured its first-ever crown with an 8-0 record at the DGWS Nationals. Prior to the fall of 1972, the women's volleyball season was played out from October to February. UCLA steamrolled through the 1971 portion of its season with a 20-1 record, dropping just six sets. The 1971-72 Nationals took place at Miami Dade Junior College in February and the Bruins continued their domination, pulling out seven straight-set victories (sets were best 2-of-3). The lone match that went the distance was the final one against Long Beach State on Feb. 7, 1972, with UCLA prevailing 2-1 to clinch the championship.

Roster: Head Coach Andy Banachowski, Colleen Boyd, Laura Garduque, Laura Golub, Mary Isley, Hilary Johnson, Natasha Karazissis, Laurie Lewis, Patty Smith, Sharkie Zartman.

POSTSEASON RESULTS (DGWS NATIONALS - MIAMI, FLA.)

2/3	Michigan State	15-1, 15-7	W	2-0
2/3	Mankato State	15-1, 15-8	W	2-0
2/3	Staten Island College	15-1, 15-0	W	2-0
2/4	Auburn	15-1, 15-6	W	2-0

2/5	Sul Ross	15-1, 15-9	W	2-0
2/6	Cal State Northridge	15-8, 15-8	W	2-0
2/7	Long Beach State	6-10, 13-11, 15-5	W	2-1

1974 AIAW CHAMPIONS (28-2)

Following back-to-back, top-five finishes in their first two AIAW seasons of 1972 and 1973, the Bruins returned to the top of the mountain in 1974. UCLA began the season on a 20-match winning streak, losing just two sets during the first two months. A bump in the road occurred just prior to the start of AIAW Nationals, when the Bruins lost a pair of matches on Dec. 7 at the SCWAC Championships to UC Santa Barbara and Long Beach State to finish third in league. But it would be the last time UCLA tasted defeat during the 1974 campaign, running the table during AIAW Nationals to win the program's second title. All eight matches over the three-day tournament would be straight-set victories, including a 15-7, 15-8 win on Dec. 14 against Hawai'i in the championship game. Three of the greatest players in UCLA history, Terry Condon, Nina Grouwinkel and Lesley Knudsen, led the team to the school's second National Championship.

The UCLA women's volleyball team made it back-to-back AIAW titles in 1975, finishing the season on a 17-match winning streak to claim its third school championship. The only blemishes during the Bruins' 32-2 campaign were three-set losses to Cal State Northridge and Long Beach State. The Bruins were challenged more than in either of their previous two championship runs, losing as many games in 1975 (13) as in 1971-72 and 1974 combined (13). After sweeping through the SCWAC Championships and the Western Regionals, the Bruins traveled to Princeton, N.J. for AIAW Nationals. UCLA was perfect through the first six matches, not dropping a game and setting up a rematch of the 1974 championship contest against Hawai'i. The result would be the same for the Bruins, defeating the Rainbow Wahine 14-12, 15-11 on Dec. 14 to take the crown. The championship was the second in a row for six UCLA Bruins, including team captain Nina Grouwinkel and U.S. National Team members Terry Condon and Lesley Knudsen.

Roster: Head Coach Andy Banachowski, Assistant Coach Sharon McAlexander, Terry Condon, Mary Delsol, Carrie Eastman, Sue Ewing, Mary Gaudino, Ursula Giger, Nina Grouwinkel, Sheila King, Lesley Knudsen, Claire McCarty, Colleen McFaul, Lisa Vogelsang.

In its fourth season since the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) started to sponsor women's championships, and after knocking on the door in 1981 but losing on its home court to cross-town rival USC and falling in '83 to Hawai'i in the title match, UCLA brought home its first NCAA women's volleyball title in 1984.

It was a dream season for the Bruins capped off by an epic battle in the title match against Stanford. Still two years removed from becoming members of the Pacific-10 Conference, the Bruins were dismantling the competition in the Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA). After winning the league title in 1983, the Bruins posted a second-place finish in '84 with an 11-3 conference mark. UCLA, which completed the regular season with a 29-6 record, earned a first-round bye into the 28-team NCAA field and traveled to Austin, Tex. to face Duke in the Regional Semifinals. The Bruins routed the Blue Devils 15-4, 15-3, 15-8 to setup a Regional Final with the host Longhorns. With the home court crowd cheering them on, Texas won a hard-fought first game by a score of 17-15, but UCLA battled back to win the next three (15-11, 15-13, 16-14) to advance to the Final Four for the second straight season.

For the second time in four seasons, UCLA hosted the NCAA Championship, and in an All-California Final Four, faced San Jose State in the semifinals. The Spartans were no match for the host Bruins, falling 15-6, 15-2, 15-4 in just 50 minutes to setup a final between UCLA and Stanford, which beat Pacific in its semifinal match. The Bruins were determined to not let their home court advantage go to waste like in 1981 and won the first game 15-12. The Cardinal rallied back for a 15-7 victory in game two, but UCLA re-took the lead with a 15-10 triumph in the third game. Stanford forced a deciding fifth set with a 15-9 win in game four, and took that momentum into game five, scoring the first five points and jumping out to what seemed like an insurmountable 11-2 advantage. But the Bruins chipped away thanks to the play of All-American and Honda Award winner Liz Masakayan. Behind five of her kills, the Stanford deficit was cut to 13-8. Then the school's all-time leader in aces served four straight winners to make it 13-12. After six side outs, the Bruins netted two more points to earn match point at 14-13. Masakayan would spike home the winner to give UCLA its first NCAA title.

Masakayan finished the match with 32 kills and 24 digs and was named to the All-Tournament Team, being joined by All-American Michelle Boyette and Merja Connolly.

The UCLA women's volleyball team achieved back-to-back Final Four appearances in 1988 and '89, but fell short of their ultimate goal of a national title with semifinal losses both times. The third time was the charm for the Bruins though in 1990, almost running the table and finishing the season with a school-best record of 36-1.

When the Bruins lost to Nebraska on Sept. 6 in a rematch of a 1989 National Semifinal match, UCLA held a 3-1 record. From that point on, the Bruins would not taste defeat for the remainder of the year. UCLA swept through the Pac-10 season at 18-0 for its third-straight league title, despite not having the services of four-time All-American Elaine Youngs, who was sidelined with a knee injury for the entire season.

The Bruins were rewarded for their spectacular regular season by staying home for the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament. First up in the opening round was Gonzaga, which the Bruins quickly dispatched in straight sets. In the Regional Semifinals against New Mexico, a tough Lobos team took the second game to even the match, but the Bruins rebounded with a resounding 15-3 win in game three and a 16-14 victory in game four to advance to the Regional Finals. Taking on conference rival Stanford in the final, the Bruins coasted to a three-set victory to advance to their third consecutive Final Four.

UCLA met up with LSU in the National Semifinal and were determined to not let this match, as it had been the previous two years, be the last one of the season. Game one against the Lady Tigers was a back-and-forth affair, but the Bruins came out on top 15-13. UCLA never trailed in game two to win 15-10 and then dismantled the Tigers in game three, hitting .519 to take it 15-6 and advance to its first National Championship match since its title-winning season of 1984. The only thing that stood in the way of the Bruins and the program's fifth national title was Pacific. It didn't turn out to be much of a threat, as for the second straight match, the Bruins bested a group of Tigers. In a scant 75 minutes, UCLA swept Pacific 15-9, 15-12, 15-7 to win its second NCAA Championship.

Standout All-American Natalie Williams was named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by fellow All-American Jenny Evans, Marissa Hatchett and Holly McPeak.

With three consecutive Final Four trips, UCLA was having one of the most successful runs in the history of the program. But with just one national title, it left the Bruins wanting more and they responded with another NCAA Championship in 1991 to go back-to-back.

UCLA carried over its 33-match win streak from the 1990 championship season and had it at 35 until a bump in the road in Hawaii. Leading the Rainbow Wahine 2-0, Hawai'i stormed back for a five-game win to upset the Bruins. UCLA won 13 of its next 14 matches, but had a bit of a stumble, dropping two of three home matches to Stanford and Texas. The loss to the Cardinal snapped the Bruins' 62-match Pac-10 winning streak. Another loss to Stanford on Nov. 15 would unseat the Bruins as three-time defending league champs.

Postseason play began on Dec. 6 at home against Pepperdine, who the Bruins quickly beat in straight sets. The next round would send the Bruins to Stanford. UCLA beat New Mexico in three games in the Regional Semifinal to setup a final with Stanford for the second straight season. Last year, the Regional Final had been on UCLA's home court, but Stanford was the home team this time and had the confidence of having already defeated the Bruins twice during the regular season. The Cardinal confidence would be demolished in just eight minutes. UCLA took game one by a 15-2 score and went on to sweep Stanford to advance to its fourth consecutive Final Four. UCLA returned to Pauley Pavilion as host of the Final Four, hoping to achieve back-to-back titles in front of its home crowd.

Up first in the National Semifinal was Ohio State. The Bruins hit .423 for the match and bucked the Buckeyes 15-8, 15-8, 15-5. The stage was set for a second-straight title and the opponent would be Long Beach State. The 49ers led for most of the first game and took it 15-12. Game two was a scorcher, lasting 30 minutes, but with the set tied at 13, Long Beach netted two straight points to take a two-game lead. UCLA jumped out quick in game three with five straight points, but the 49ers battled back to take a 10-9 advantage. Long Beach still led at 12-11, but the Bruins posted the final four points of the game to take it 15-11. The Bruins again jumped out to a lead at 6-1 in game four, but even when Long Beach cut it to 7-4, UCLA netted seven straight to take a commanding 14-4 lead and eventually won the set 15-6. As was the case in the previous two games, the Bruins took an early edge at 7-3 and they would not look back. On match point, Natalie Williams scored the winner to give UCLA its sixth national title.

All-Americans Williams and Elaine Youngs were both named to the All-Tournament Team, with Williams earning co-MVP honors.

The Bruins saved their best volleyball of the season for the final three weeks of 2011, as UCLA won the program's fourth NCAA Championship and seventh national title.

UCLA went 30-6 on the year, its first 30-win campaign since 2006, finishing second in the Pac-12 with a 17-5 record. Six players were honored on the All-Conference teams and the Bruins finished fifth in the nation in assists per set (13.71) and eighth in kills per set (14.52).

The Bruins began the NCAA Tournament at the John Wooden Center with a sweep of Maryland-Eastern Shore and a four-set win over San Diego. From there, UCLA took to the road and Lexington, Ky., and faced the daunting task of playing Penn State, a team which had won 26 straight NCAA Tournament matches. That run quickly ended, as the Bruins stopped the four-time defending champions' reign with a sweep of the Nittany Lions. The following night, UCLA was again an underdog versus top-seeded Texas. The Bruins dropped the first set against the Longhorns, but came back to win the next three to advance to their first National Semifinal since 2006. Junior Rachael Kidder was named the Lexington Regional Most Outstanding Player and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by senior Lauren Van Orden and sophomore Kelly Reeves.

Awaiting the Bruins in San Antonio was Florida State in the National Semifinals. UCLA made quick work of the Seminoles with a sweep to move on to its first National Championship contest since 1994 against Illinois. The first two sets were close, with UCLA winning the first 25-23 and the Fighting Illini coming back to win the second by the same score. In the third, UCLA was down two set points, but scored four in a row to steal the set 26-24. In the fourth, it was all Bruins, as they never trailed to win the set 25-16 and claim the championship.

Kidder, a first-team AVCA All-American who averaged 5.24 kills per set during the NCAA Tournament, was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Van Orden and freshman Zoë Nightingale. Second-year head coach Michael Sealy was also named AVCA National Coach of the Year.

AVCA Pacific Region Coach of the Year: 5 ('89, '92, '93, '98, '06)
Pac-10 Coach of the Year: 5 ('88, '89, '93, '94, '98)
1997 National Volleyball Hall of Fame Inductee
2007 USA Volleyball Junior National Team Head Coach

Andy Banachowski, the winningest Division I women's volleyball coach in history, retired on June 30, 2010 following a 43-year career at the helm of the UCLA women's volleyball program.

In his final season in 2009, Banachowski guided the Bruins to a 24-9 record. It was the program's 11th-consecutive, 20-win season, as UCLA finished in a tie for second in the Pac-10. On Oct. 31, 2009, Banachowski won his 1,100th match in a five-set triumph at Stanford. His final career record was 1,106-301 (.786).

In 2006, Banachowski led the Bruins to their first Final Four appearance and 30-win season since 1994. UCLA won its first 20 matches of the year and breezed through the first four rounds of the NCAA Tournament with four straight three-game sweeps. Following the 2006 season, Banachowski was honored as the Tachikara/AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year, the second time he had been named Coach of the Year, with the other coming in 1989. He also received Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time and AVCA Pacific Region COY accolades for the fifth time (1989, '92, '93, '98). On five occasions, Banachowski was named Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year (1988, '89, '93, '94, '98).

Banachowski, the first women's volleyball coach inducted into the National Volleyball Hall of Fame, coached at least one All-American in each of his last six seasons. UCLA women's volleyball earned 42 AVCA All-American honors, to go with 51 Under Armour/Volleyball Magazine All-American awards under Banachowski. He also coached players to numerous other awards, including 49 All-Pacific Region honors, 98 All-Conference awards, five Pac-10 Players of the Year and the National Player of the Year in 1992 (Natalie Williams). Eighteen Bruins earned All-NCAA Tournament accolades, including Williams, who was named Most Outstanding Player in both 1990 and 1991. Williams also won two Honda Awards under Banachowski's tutelage in 1992 and '93, with Liz Masakayan earning the honor in 1985.

Banachowski and UCLA women's volleyball have been synonymous since the program's inception in 1965. He directed the Bruins for all but two of those seasons, the 1968-69 and 1969-70 campaigns, which directly followed his graduation.

The Bruins won six national championships over Banachowski's tenure, winning the program's first title in 1972 while affiliated with the Division of Girls and Women's Sports (DGWS). In 1974 and 1975, UCLA combined for a record of 60-4, winning back-to-back Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) championships. Since 1981 when the NCAA began sponsoring women's sports, the Bruins have appeared in 11 Final Fours, winning championships in 1984, 1990 and 1991 and earning runner-up finishes in 1981, 1983, 1992 and 1994. Banachowski has more victories than any other collegiate volleyball coach in history, with the exception of UCLA men's volleyball coach Al Scates. On Nov. 12, 2005, Banachowski became the first Division I women's coach to reach 1,000 career victories when the Bruins handed eventual national champion Washington its only loss of the season in a five-game thriller at Pauley Pavilion.

In February 2007, Banachowski was named head coach of USA Volleyball's Junior National Team. That July, he guided Team USA to a fourth-place finish at the FIVB U-20 Junior World Championships, the best-ever finish for the United States in that tournament.

Banachowski has been involved with the U.S. Olympic Team as a coach many times. He is a former advisor with the U.S. National Team, helping teams during the 1990 Goodwill Games, the 1992 Summer Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain, the 1995 Pan-American Games in Argentina and the 1996 Summer Olympic Games in Atlanta. Additionally, he coached the West Team in the 1986 Olympic Festival. In 1993, Banachowski was the head coach of the U.S. World University Games squad, a group which achieved the highest American finish in WUG history, earning a silver medal in Buffalo, N.Y.

A total of 22 former Bruins have trained with the U.S. National Team following their UCLA careers. The group includes five indoor and eight beach Olympians. The beach team of former Bruins Annett (Buckner) Davis and Jenny (Johnson) Jordan, as well as former Bruin Holly McPeak, comprised three of the four members of the U.S. Beach Volleyball Team for the Sydney Olympics in 2000. Additionally, Elisabeth Bachman was a member of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team (indoor) for the Athens Games. On the beach in '04, a team of former Bruins (McPeak and Elaine Youngs) won a bronze medal with Masakayan as their coach. Youngs (with partner Nicole Branagh) returned to the Beijing Games in 2008 with Masakayan as their coach.

Many Bruins have also been involved in the Association of Volleyball Professionals (AVP) Tour on the beach, including Davis, Jordan, McPeak, Youngs, Ashley Bowles, Lauren Fendrick and Chrissie Zartman. From 1993-2000, former UCLA players competed in 83 straight professional tournament finals, winning 70 of those events. Bruin former players have won more FIVB International events than players from any other college.

On Oct. 24, 1997, Banachowski became the first women's volleyball coach in history to be inducted into the National Volleyball Hall of Fame as a coach. He has since become the first volleyball inductee into the Serra High School and San Mateo County Halls of Fame and was inaugurated into the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame in June 2009.

In May 2000, Banachowski was presented with USA Volleyball's highest honor, the All-Time Great Coach Award, and was simultaneously honored with the George L. Fisher "Leader in Volleyball" award, recognizing his off-court endeavors on behalf of volleyball.

The Volleyball Festival has recognized Banachowski with its "Distinguished Service to USA Volleyball" award, and he has also been recognized with the Founders Award for his role as a co-founder of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA).

As a player, Banachowski was a two-time All-American under Scates, winning USVBA National Championships in 1965 and 1967. After his graduation, Banachowski pulled double-duty with the UCLA women's and men's volleyball programs, serving as Scates' chief assistant from 1972-77, a period in which the Bruins won four NCAA titles (1972, '74, '75, '76). On three occasions (1972, '74 and '75), Banachowski won titles with both the men and women.

DR. GENE BLOCK
CHANCELLOR
EIGHTH YEAR

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles, a city that offers a microcosm of the global community, and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he emphasizes broad-based, campus-wide planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. A fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, he specializes in circadian biology, which deals with the functioning of 24-hour rhythms in higher organisms.

Previously, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology and directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

The inventor of a number of devices, Chancellor Block holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, and he is an avid collector of vacuum-tube radios.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two children.

DAN GUERRERO
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
UCLA, 1974
13TH YEAR

Twelve years and 25 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach. At the department's helm when UCLA Athletics became the first to 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' current total of 111 NCAA titles is a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. While UCLA teams have indeed won 25 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, they have also finished second 23 times and have enjoyed an additional 46 Top Five finishes.

In fact, more than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 10 bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 56 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced nearly 600 All-Americans and featured six Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

UCLA's success has not just been confined to North America. On the world stage, during the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches. Representing the United States and eight other nations, they combined to win nine medals, including six golds, a total exceeding what most countries take home in any single Olympiad.

Guerrero, recently named the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). In his 12 years at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second three times (2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08), third four times (2003-04, 2004-05, 2011-12 and 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), seventh (2013-14), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In 2012-13, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup since its inception in 2010-11, taking home the title in men's sports by vaulting to the top of the standings by claiming the 2013 College World Series. In 2011-12, both men (3rd) and women (2nd) finished in the top three, while in 2013-14, UCLA finished second in the Capital One Cup women's standings, having captured national titles in both women's soccer and tennis.

In claiming UCLA's first women's soccer championship in 2013-14, the Bruins now have at least one NCAA crown in 18 different sports. During the 2013-14 season, four other UCLA teams finished among the Top 5 nationally: women's water polo (2nd), women's golf (3rd), men's tennis (T-3rd) and men's golf (T-5th). Additionally, the football team defeated USC for the second straight year, posted a 10-3 record and won the Hyundai Sun Bowl while men's basketball won 28 games, captured the Pac-12 Tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16." And when everything was said and done, 62 student-athletes earned All-America honors with 93 in all earning selection to various all-conference teams.

During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf and women's tennis, and one each in women's soccer, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's water polo, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. The Bruins have recorded 35 additional national podium finishes in that span.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UC Irvine's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UCI, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years.

Guerrero, 62, was raised in Wilmington, CA. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters.

PETRINA LONG
SR. ASSOCIATE AD/SWA
CALIFORNIA, 1977
11TH YEAR

Petrina Long joined the UCLA staff in June of 2004 as Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Women's Administrator.

Long has oversight responsibility for several sports, including women's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and gymnastics, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she had served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is also extensively involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving for three years as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross-country, track & field, and men's soccer (MPSF). She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee (SWAC) and is currently a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UCI, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin. Long was a member of the Big West Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UCI, Long spent nine years at Columbia University, serving in both the associate and assistant athletics director positions. She was the Assistant Athletics Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist University from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1979-82.
