Bruin Varsity Club Networking Night

UCLA's Bruin Varsity Club has hosted a "Networking Night" event the last three years in conjunction with the Bruin Athletic Council. The event typically features 10 successful Bruin Varsity Club mentors who speak with student-athletes about professional development in a roundtable discussion format.

"Networking Night" typically begins with a period of social networking, where student-athletes are given the opportunity to practice their professional etiquette skills with each mentor. The event continues with three rotations of roundtable discussion led by Bruin Varsity Club mentors. The focus of these discussions helps provide networking tips and insight as to each mentor's personal and professional post-graduate journey.
