UCLA... CHAMPIONS MADE HERE

DID YOU KNOW? UCLA leads the nation with 109 NCAA team championships. The baseball team won its first-ever NCAA title in June 2013, securing UCLA team title No. 109. UCLA became the first intercollegiate athletics department to have won 100 NCAA team titles in May 2007 when the women's water polo team won its third consecutive NCAA Championship.

Dear Bruins,

The 2012-13 school year provided some terrific memories and featured numerous incredible accomplishments by our hard-working student-athletes. With our past athletic and academic year complete, I wanted to thank the Bruin Family for its support not only in this year, but in years past as well.

Without the generosity displayed by each of you, from sacrificing your time to attend sporting events or donating to the Wooden Athletic Fund, or both, our athletic program would not be able to enjoy such success while continuing to compete for and win national championships. I know I speak for each of our coaches, student-athletes and staff members when I say your efforts are greatly appreciated.

During the 2012-13 season, we took home our nation-leading 109th NCAA Championship when the baseball team stormed through the College World Series with five consecutive victories to win the title. We are always thrilled to welcome home an NCAA championship-winning team, but it feels even sweeter when that program captures its first NCAA title in school history. And that's just what head coach John Savage and the Bruins' baseball team engineered. Baseball became the 18th sport at UCLA to have won an NCAA title by winning the College World Series in 2013.

We also had several teams finish just shy of a national title, including a pair of teams who finished second nationally (men's water polo and men's tennis) and two third-place finishers (women's tennis and women's water polo). Two teams finished fourth nationally (gymnastics and women's golf), while the women's soccer team finished fifth in the country to give UCLA a total of eight teams that ended their seasons among the top five, one of the best such displays in the country.

In addition, the sand volleyball team finished the year ranked sixth nationally in its inaugural season as an NCAA sport and the rowing program raced to a ninth-place overall finish at the NCAA championships, its second consecutive season with a top-10 NCAA finish. The men's track and field program tied for a 12th-place finish at NCAA championships, and the men's cross country program finished 13th overall at its national meet. Five Bruin teams were 17th in the final NCAA standings—women's basketball, swimming and diving, women's volleyball, men's soccer and softball—while the women's track and field team ended its season in 20th place at the national meet.

We were thrilled to have our men's teams win the Capital One Cup for the first time in school history, while our women's teams finished 15th overall.

All told, UCLA finished in third place in the 2012-13 Learfield Sports Directors Cup standings. UCLA is one of just two schools to place among the top six in the final standings at least 18 times in the 20-year history of the Directors Cup. We have finished second seven times, most recently in 2007-08, and third seven times.

The accomplishments of our teams this year were very rewarding, but we will not rest on our laurels next year and will continue to push for the top spot in each sport in 2013-14.

There were also several individual performances that stood out throughout the year. In fact, nearly 50 of our student-athletes earned All-America honors in their sport. Meanwhile, we strive for our student-athletes to balance their academic and athletic responsibilities. It certainly was refreshing to see that numerous Bruins were honored with Academic All-America accolades, and over 250 of them secured Director's Honor Roll acclaim each quarter.

Among the highlights of the 2012-13 school year was the re-opening of historic Pauley Pavilion, which underwent a 33-month, $136-million renovation. While several of our athletic teams were unable to play in Pauley Pavilion during the 2011-12 school year, the return to a completely refurbished and spectacular arena was worth the wait.

Our men's basketball team re-opened the building on Nov. 9, 2012, with an 86-59 win over Indiana State before a capacity crowd. The next night, our women's basketball team returned to Pauley Pavilion with an exciting 66-52 triumph over San Diego State. Our women's volleyball, men's volleyball and women's gymnastics teams also had the opportunity to return to Pauley Pavilion. Our department served as host of the NCAA championships for women's gymnastics and men's volleyball, and Pauley Pavilion provided a terrific championship venue for these two national events.

Football won the Pac-12 South for the second-straight year and is the only team in the conference to have competed in both of the Pac-12 Football Championship Games. The squad also earned a bid to the Holiday Bowl in San Diego. In fact, UCLA was one of just two schools to play in a bowl game, the NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments and the College World Series during the 2012-13 school year (Louisville was the other).

Meanwhile, construction crews are continuing work on the more than $150 million renovation project at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The pavilion area (formerly the press box) was rebuilt and redesigned in 2012, and work continues to be done with additional pavilion enhancements, tunnel widening and concourse reconfiguration.

In closing, thank you again for your continued support of UCLA Athletics. I sincerely hope to see you at all of our venues in the coming year, supporting student-athletes all across our great program.

We are here to make sure that each of the young men and women who put on the uniform with the four letters U-C-L-A enjoy themselves and are proud of what they are doing. Your continued support is invaluable in that regard.

Thank you and Go Bruins!

UCLA Baseball Wins 2013 College World Series

Bruins capture the school's first-ever NCAA baseball championship, posting perfect 10-0 postseason record

The UCLA baseball team won its first-ever NCAA championship the evening of June 25, 2013, blanking Mississippi State, 8-0, in a best-of-three final series of the College World Series at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha, Neb.

UCLA's 8-0 win, coupled with a 3-1 victory over Mississippi State on June 24, helped the Bruins secure the athletic department's nation-leading 109th NCAA team title.

In the final game, Nick Vander Tuig limited Mississippi State to five hits in eight scoreless innings. The right-hander from Oakdale, Calif., registered six strikeouts and one walk to pick up his 14th victory, before David Berg closed the game with a scoreless ninth inning.

"We worked extremely hard all season and they believed in each other and that's what great teams do," UCLA head coach John Savage told reporters that evening. "We have to congratulate a great Mississippi State team. They had a great year. I just think it was one of those situations where it was our time. Nick threw the ball great for eight innings and kept them off balance and then Berg did his job."

In the title-clinching game, UCLA led from the start by scoring one run in the bottom of the first inning before adding two more in each of the third and fifth innings.

"This whole team is so close and I can't really explain how happy I am," Vander Tuig said in the postgame press conference that night. "Our defense has been great all year and our pitching staff has a lot of heart. We have each other's back. I can't be more proud of this team. I'm going to miss them."

Eric Filia, an outfielder from Huntington Beach, Calif., went 2-for-3 at the plate with a career-best five RBI.

"I thrive for this," said Filia, who drove in seven of the Bruins' 11 runs in the College World Series best-of-three finals. "We just stayed with our approach and stayed small. They have great pitching. Mississippi State has one of the best bullpens and starting pitchers out here. We just kept battling and came out with the win."

UCLA advanced to the postseason after finishing third in the Pac-12 standings. The Bruins hosted the NCAA Los Angeles Regional for the fourth straight season, and swept three games against San Diego State, Cal Poly and San Diego.

The Bruins moved on to the College World Series for the third time in four seasons after sweeping a pair of NCAA Super Regional games at Cal State Fullerton on June 7 and 8. UCLA outlasted the host Titans, 5-3, in 11 innings in Game 1 before blanking Cal State Fullerton, 3-0, in Game 2 the following night.

At the College World Series, UCLA advanced to the championship series with consecutive wins against LSU, N.C. State and North Carolina. Vander Tuig and classmate Adam Plutko each earned two victories on the mound for UCLA at the College World Series.

Backed by a superb pitching staff and exceptional defense, UCLA closed the season with a 49-17 overall record and posted the second-highest single-season win total in program history. The pitching staff logged a 2.55 ERA and limited the opposition to a .222 batting average during the 2013 season.

MEN'S WATER POLO: For the third time in four seasons, the UCLA men's water polo team advanced to the NCAA championship match. The Bruins dropped an 11-10 decision to USC at the Trojans' home pool the afternoon of Dec. 2, 2012.

UCLA led 10-9 with 3:09 to play in regulation after Josh Samuels scored his second goal of the match. USC's Michael Rosenthal, who finished with a game-high three goals, tied the contest, 10-10, with a power-play goal at the 2:25 mark in the final quarter.

USC's Kostas Genidounias scored the game-winning goal with 40 seconds to play, and the Trojans' held UCLA scoreless on its final possession to win the NCAA title.

Goalkeeper Matt Rapacz registered 12 saves in the cage for the Bruins, who received two goals each from Samuels, Bret Lathrope and Danny McClintick.

"I can't say enough about our guys," UCLA head coach Adam Wright said after the game. "They put us right where we wanted to be. We were in a great situation up by one with three minutes to go. But you have to give credit to USC. They've won five times in a row now, which is not easy to do."

MEN'S TENNIS: In one of the most narrow NCAA championship matches in men's tennis history, UCLA lost to Virginia, 4-3, at the University of Illinois's Khan Outdoor Tennis Center on May 21, 2013.

With the match tied, 3-3, UCLA closed to within one point of winning the NCAA title. UCLA's Adrien Puget led the decisive set, 5-3, and was ahead 40-30. The Bruins' team captain pushed Virginia's Mitchell Frank into the corner on a volley on what appeared to win the match. Puget was called for a violation by the chair umpire for touching the bottom of the net with his foot.

Frank battled back in deuce, won that game and eventually clinched the set to help Virginia win its first-ever men's tennis NCAA title.

Marcos Giron, Karue Sell and Dennis Mkrtchian all won singles matches for the Bruins, who opened the match down 0-1 after dropping the doubles point.

"I thought we had it," UCLA head coach Billy Martin said following the match. "It's hard to imagine we were that close and didn't get it. We were right there, match point. But we will get over it. It's not the end of the world. We will recover."

Bruins Return to Renovated Pauley Pavilion

UCLA re-opened its iconic home arena after a 33-month renovation that forced the building's closure in 2011-12

Following a 33-month, $136-million renovation, UCLA re-opened Pauley Pavilion when the men's basketball team kicked off its 2012-13 season with an 86-59 victory over Indiana State on Nov. 9, 2012. The next night, the UCLA women's basketball team began its season with a 66-52 win against San Diego State.

UCLA's inaugural event in "new" Pauley Pavilion attracted a then-record 13,513 fans. Jordan Adams scored a team-leading 21 points in his collegiate debut for UCLA, and Travis Wear finished with 17 points, including the first points scored by a Bruin in the new configuration of the historic arena.

The men's basketball game on Nov. 9, 2012, marked the first athletic contest hosted in Pauley Pavilion since the UCLA men's volleyball team played in the arena on March 24, 2011. During the 2011-12 academic year, UCLA's athletic teams that called Pauley Pavilion home practiced and competed in various venues on campus. The men's basketball team played 18 "home" games at two local venues.

UCLA hosted several events in Pauley Pavilion the week of Oct. 28-Nov. 2, including the Pauley Pavilion Campaign of Champions Celebration and a student-designed "Pauley Opening Madness" event, complete with a slam dunk contest featuring members of the UCLA men's and women's basketball teams.

Prior to the men's basketball game on Nov. 9, UCLA hosted a "first ticket" ceremony outside the arena's north entrance and a memorable pregame ceremony on the court 30 minutes before tipoff.

The men's basketball team capped its home season by hosting ESPN's College GameDay in Pauley Pavilion the morning of March 2, 2013. UCLA students, eager to secure a prime location on ESPN's interior set, camped out around Pauley Pavilion all night before the nearly three-hour television production ensued just after sunrise that morning. The basketball team provided the highlight of the evening with a convincing 74-69 victory over Arizona before a record crowd of 13,727 fans.

Pauley Pavilion Hosts Numerous Events, NCAA Championships

In addition to hosting 18 men's basketball games and 15 women's basketball contests, Pauley Pavilion returned as the home of UCLA women's volleyball, gymnastics and men's volleyball. The women's volleyball team played two of its final regular-season matches in Pauley Pavilion before hosting NCAA Tournament contests in the renovated arena.

Pauley Pavilion served as the host venue for the 2013 NCAA Championships for both women's gymnastics (April 19-21) and men's volleyball (May 2-4).

The UCLA gymnastics team secured a fourth-place finish at NCAA Championships after having advanced to "Super Six" on day one of the competition. Florida won the NCAA women's gymnastics title. UC Irvine captured the 2013 NCAA men's volleyball title in Pauley Pavilion, outlasting BYU in three straight sets.

UCLA raced to a 24-0 lead against its crosstown rival before the Trojans cut the Bruins' margin to 24-20 early in the third quarter. A touchdown by Franklin with 4:02 remaining in regulation pushed UCLA ahead, 38-28, and the Bruins held on in the final minutes for the win.

BRUINS IN THE COMMUNITY

UCLA's student-athletes volunteered over 2,500 hours in community outreach events during the 2012-13 academic year. UCLA Athletics hosted over 20 events on campus and attended several events throughout the Los Angeles area. These service opportunities allow UCLA's student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics. Some student-athletes have also created, initiated and implemented service projects and activities with assistance and support from the Bruin Athletic Council.

Dribble for the Cure

UCLA hosted the fifth annual Dribble for the Cure at Drake Stadium and Collins Court. Over 540 participants set a donation record with net revenue of $155,395.74. The men's and women's basketball teams led participants on a dribble tour as they dribbled basketballs and walked around a course through UCLA's campus. Dribble for the Cure has grown every year with a five-year event total of more than 3,500 participants contributing over $500,000 to benefit the Pediatric Research Foundation (PCRF) and the Cancer Research Program at Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA.

Mattel Children's Hospital

Throughout the year, several Bruin student-athletes visited playrooms at Mattel Children's Hospital on a weekly basis to spend time with the patients and their families. They are often asked to make special visits to patients who are not able to leave their rooms. Student-athletes also volunteered their time with Mattel's Teen Adventure Program and the annual Halloween "Trick or Treat" event for patients at the hospital.

Team Prime Time

Student-athletes volunteered their time with Team Prime Time (TPT), an after-school program for at-risk children from low-income areas of Los Angeles that combines academics, athletics, leadership training and the arts in order to prepare them for the future and allow them to reach their full potential. In December 2012, head football coach Jim Mora and the entire UCLA football team took time from their bowl preparation to visit Team Prime Time at Webster Middle School in Los Angeles. Over 50 elementary and middle school students enrolled in Team Prime Time's Sports Camp spent the afternoon participating in interactive activities with members of the football team. The Bruins taught students UCLA's 8-clap cheer, handed out posters and signed autographs for the participants.

Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday

For the past four years, student-athletes have participated in Team Prime Time's fully inclusive sports program, the Prime Time Games. This full-inclusion, peer-mentor sports program helps economically disadvantaged and under-served middle school students from Team Prime Time's after school program ("coaches") coach and play alongside children with developmental disabilities ("athletes") in the only after-school sports program of its kind. UCLA hosted the fourth annual Prime Time Games Championship Saturday event in June. UCLA student-athletes served as honorary coaches, captains and officials for the inclusive soccer and basketball games. Participants were awarded medals and received high-fives and autographs from the Bruins.

Veterans Hospital visits

Members of the UCLA football team visited the Veterans Hospital and attended the holiday party for veterans. The student-athletes visited with the veterans, helped serve food, handed out posters and signed autographs.

186th Street Elementary School

For the seventh year, members of the UCLA football team visited 186th Elementary School to participate in their annual Super Bowl School Spirit Day to celebrate the students' commitment to academic excellence. The student-athletes visited classrooms and participated in an after-school assembly that promoted the importance of citizenship, scholarship and sportsmanship. They encouraged the students to strive for excellence, respect their teachers, do their homework and work hard to achieve their goals and dreams.

Samaritan's Feet - Women's Basketball

The UCLA women's basketball program captured the spirit of giving by hosting a shoe drive before its game against Loyola Marymount. The Bruins partnered with Samaritan's Feet to deliver new athletic shoes and socks to children at the Lifeline Charter School in Compton, Calif.

Bruin for a Day

Members of the Bruin Athletic Council (BAC) and their teammates hosted over 50 students from Emerson Middle School to experience being a "Bruin for a Day." Student-athletes coordinated a day of presentations, group discussions, interactive activities, a campus tour and lunch in the dining hall for students. The student-athletes taught them about the Pyramid of Success and gave the students tips on academic success, time management, hard work and leadership.

Emerson Middle School visits

Members of the UCLA men's water polo, women's basketball and men's soccer teams visited students at Emerson Middle School and conducted clinics for the Emerson Sports Academy participants.

UCLA Lab School Jog-A-Thon

For the seventh year, Bruin student-athletes volunteered at the UCLA Lab School's annual Jog-A-Thon at Drake Stadium. They helped with the warmups and cheered on the kids as they ran laps to earn money for school field trips. Student-athletes also visited the school prior to the event to speak to the students about the importance of living a healthy lifestyle and working hard in the classroom.

'I'm Going to College'

Over 47,000 students from the Los Angeles Unified School District participated in this year's "I'm Going to College" program. This unique program brings youngsters, from kindergarten through the 12th grade, to UCLA events and couples the excitement and tradition of UCLA Athletics with a message about the importance of higher education. Upon arrival at the event, students are greeted by a UCLA alumnus, current students or student-athlete volunteers and are led to the IGTC fair area. Students are immediately immersed in Bruin traditions, as they learn the spirited UCLA 8-clap and receive educational information about questions they may have regarding education and preparing for college.

Adopt a Classroom Program

The Adopt a Classroom pen pal program paired several Bruin teams with elementary and middle school classrooms across the Los Angeles Unified School District. The student-athletes exchanged letters with students throughout the year, and the classrooms were invited to attend a home event to meet their Bruin pen pals. The Adopt a Classroom program stresses the importance of both education and athletics and aims to motivate students to work toward their goals in school and in life.

WOODEN ACADEMY

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program designed to educate and support Bruin student-athlete leaders. The program was named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

UCLA's Spring 2013 Presentation

Several hundred UCLA student-athletes gathered in Pauley Pavilion on May 13 for the Wooden Academy's annual spring meeting, which featured guest presentations from dynamic Bruin alums Nick Ekbatani and Dr. Foster Mobley. Ekbatani, who played football at UCLA from 2006-09, spoke about overcoming a serious motorcycle accident that resulted in the loss of his left leg below the knee. Dr. Mobley, the founder and CEO of The Foster Mobley Group and author of "Leadersh*t: Rethinking the Path to Great Leading," addressed the student-athletes about defining success and identifying hindrances that limit full performance.

UCLA's SCHOLAR-ATHLETE BANQUET

Each spring, approximately 200 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher are invited to the Scholar-Athlete Banquet. Made possible by a donation from Rose Gilbert, the event features distinguished guests and allows UCLA to honor its most academically accomplished student-athletes. The past six years have seen notable alumni speakers return to campus, inspiring the athletic department's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom and use their education for great endeavors.

In 2007, former football wide receiver and current federal judge Cormac Carney addressed the gathering. In 2008, four-time All-America women's basketball star Ann-Meyers Drysdale was UCLA's distinguished speaker, while 12-year NBA veteran Tracy Murray spoke to the crowd in 2009. Over the past four years, UCLA has welcomed back softball alumna Amanda Freed (2010), men's volleyball standout Sinjin Smith (2011), Dr. Julie Bremner Romias (2012) from the women's volleyball program and men's tennis alumnus Larry Nagler (2013).

UCLA had 110 student-athletes who participated in the Class of 2013 graduation celebration. UCLA welcomed the graduates and their families to a special ceremony in renovated Pauley Pavilion the evening of Thursday, June 13, 2013.

The list of 110 graduates included student-athletes who graduated in Fall 2012 and Winter 2013 and who were projected to graduate in Spring 2013, Summer 2013 and Fall 2013. Former UCLA football player and Super Bowl champion Brendon Ayanbadejo served as the ceremony's guest speaker.

Rose Bowl Renovations Continue

Serving as the home for UCLA football since 1982, the Rose Bowl has entered the final year of its phased renovation. The stadium's extensive, multi-year renovations began in 2011 with final completion anticipated in 2014.

Upgrades in 2011 included site utilities, four enlarged tunnels on the south end and the installation of the stadium's north video board, east scoreboard and south scoreboard. The following year, the entire press box was gutted in the offseason. The center and south sections of the press box were rebuilt and outfitted for the 2012 football season.

Most recently, construction crews are completing the north section of the press box. In addition, the field wall is being restored to its original configuration, new patron access ways are being built in tunnels 23A and 28A and the concourse perimeter around the stadium will be enlarged. Upon completion, the stadium's concourse will feature new gate entry structures, restrooms and concessions.

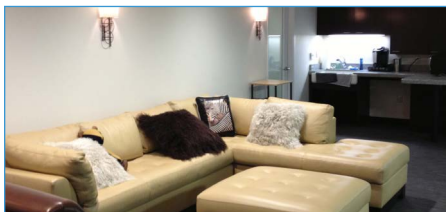

UCLA Baseball Installs State-of-the-Art Scoreboard

The UCLA baseball program unveiled a new 17-foot by 49-foot LED video board prior to the 2013 season. Donated by the Gifford Foundation, the new scoreboard is among the largest in the Pac-12 Conference. The state-of-the-art videoboard allows fans to see team lineups, graphics and video and other in-game entertainment. UCLA honored the Gifford family prior to a game against Minnesota on Feb. 16. Members of the Gifford family met with head coach John Savage at home plate as a video tribute played on the new scoreboard.

"We would like to thank Rhodine Gifford and the Gifford Family for their generosity and continued support of Bruin Baseball," Savage said. "The state-of-the-art scoreboard funded by the Gifford Foundation is one of the finest on any collegiate campus. The foundation started by the late Jack Gifford has been an integral part in making Jackie Robinson Stadium one of the nation's premier college baseball facilities."

Renovations, Improvements to Yates Gymnasium Completed

UCLA installed a new gymnastics team facility on the second floor of the John Wooden Center. The renovations and upgrades included a locker room with oak wood lockers, restrooms, showers, a training room, student lounge and conference room. The 1,800-square foot facility overlooks the gymnasium floor.

Completion of Pauley Pavilion Features John Wooden Statue

UCLA unveiled an 8-foot bronze statue of legendary head coach John R. Wooden outside Pauley Pavilion on Oct. 26, 2012, two weeks before the men's basketball team opened its season in the renovated arena. Wooden family members were on hand outside Pauley Pavilion for the unveiling of a bronze statue of Coach Wooden.

The statue was created by renowned sculptor Blair Buswell, who has crafted likenesses of a variety of famous sports figures for major sports venues, including more than 68 busts of inductees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and statues of prominent athletes and coaches. Buswell worked on the project for nearly one year, consulting with Wooden family representatives along the way to ensure that the artwork would be as authentic and true to Wooden's demeanor as possible.

Bruin Varsity Club Networking Night

UCLA's Bruin Varsity Club has hosted a "Networking Night" event the last three years in conjunction with the Bruin Athletic Council. The event typically features 10 successful Bruin Varsity Club mentors who speak with student-athletes about professional development in a roundtable discussion format.

"Networking Night" typically begins with a period of social networking, where student-athletes are given the opportunity to practice their professional etiquette skills with each mentor. The event continues with three rotations of roundtable discussion led by Bruin Varsity Club mentors. The focus of these discussions helps provide networking tips and insight as to each mentor's personal and professional post-graduate journey.

UCLA's corporate sponsorships are administered by IMG College, which merged with previous multi-media rights-holder ISP Sports in the fall of 2010. IMG College manages multi-media rights for more than 80 of the leading universities, athletic conferences, and bowl games across the country. Parent company IMG Worldwide divisions also include CLC, which serves as the exclusive licensing agency for UCLA and more than 200 other collegiate properties.

Since partnering with UCLA in 2004-05, ISP/IMG has tripled the amount of corporate support for the program. The IMG College team helps provide greater opportunities for UCLA student-athletes by generating vital revenue to help fund the department's overall program.

With the additional resources of IMG Worldwide and a management team that remains virtually intact, the recent merger between IMG College and ISP promises to provide even more opportunity for growth for UCLA.
