

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES (UCLA)

Athletic Trainer

The University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) is accepting applications for the position of Athletic Trainer. This is a full-time, contract position with a targeted annual salary of $47,476.00 with full health benefits and membership in the UC Retirement Plan. Under the supervision of the Director of Sports Medicine, coordinate, at a high level, athletic injury prevention, evaluation, management and rehabilitation to UCLA varsity student-athletes. Organize injury prevention programs and share responsibility of Athletic Training services for various teams as assigned by the Director of Sports Medicine. Training services to include: coordination of physical exams for team, evaluation and treatment of injuries, design and supervision of rehabilitation programs, and supervise and counsel student Athletic Trainers assigned to practice and game taping. Communicate and document athletes' progress to athletic training staff, physicians, conditioning staff and coaches. Maintain written and computerized documentation on all athletes' injuries, treatments and rehabilitation. Refer injured athletes to UCLA team physicians as appropriate. Organize informative bimonthly in-service seminars. Perform other duties as assigned by the Director of Sports Medicine.

All applicants should demonstrate the following abilities: Working knowledge of anatomy, physiology and biomechanics as related to musculoskeletal athletic injuries of the peripheral joints and spine; ability to perform clinical and sideline evaluation of injury and the ability to design and implement basic treatment programs; ability to operate therapeutic and exercise equipment; ability to maintain accurate and concise evaluations and treatment records; working knowledge and basic skill in therapeutic exercise techniques and functional progression programs; working knowledge and basic skill in peripheral joint and soft tissue techniques; ability to communicate with and maintain cooperative working relationships with all Staff, Physicians, Coaches, Student-Athletes, and outside vendors; working knowledge and basic skill in spinal mobilization techniques; working knowledge of common systemic illnesses and management which may interfere with athletic participation; skill in the application of protective wraps, tape and bracing devices; ability to evaluate and provide for the immediate management of injuries which occur on the practice field or during competition; demonstrated skill in progressing athletes' rehabilitation programs independently or in consultation with Staff Physical Therapist or Team Physicians; certified as an Athletic Trainer in good standing with the NATABOC (National Athletic Trainers Association Board of Certification); must be CPR/First Aid/AED certified; education and relevant experience equivalent to a Bachelor's degree; must have Master's degree or equivalent work experience; must have 3-5 years' experience post-certification; ability to perform under difficult situations and maintain composure in the face of resistance, indifference or hostility; demonstrated word processing and computer skills necessary to complete assignments with speed and accuracy; ability to write clear and concise business correspondence and reports; ability to operate a computer with working knowledge of various computer software systems: Microsoft Office, Lotus Notes, and SIMS Injury Tracking Software; knowledge of Departmental, University, PAC-12 and NCAA policies, procedures, rules and regulations preferred; and previous NCAA Division I experience preferred.

There is a strong possibility that this position will work directly with Women's Basketball or Swimming and Track & Field. Experience with those sports is strongly preferred.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES (UCLA)

Athletic Trainer

Expressions of interest must be received by June 24, 2016. All applicants must submit their cover letter, resume, references and salary history via the following website link:

<https://hr.mycareer.ucla.edu/applicants/jsp/shared/frameset/Frameset.jsp?time=1401400174363>.

Search by requisition #24077. UCLA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.